Mohair Directors To Meet August 14th

The summer directors' meeting of the Mohair Council of America will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, August 14, at the Inn of the Hills Motor Inn in Kerrville.

James T. Hunt of Sonora, Council president, said the meeting will be one of the most important sessions this year. He said the meeting is open to all mohair growers and he urges them to attend.

"We have some very important matters to discuss and we need the thinking of our members on the proposed mohair referendum and on the development of new promo-tion programs for mohair." Hunt

The Council, which will celebrate its 10th birthday later this year, is the official promotion and advertising organization for mohair growers in the United States. Its new budget, recently approved by the U. S. Department of Agrculture, calls for expenditures of $300,000 for mohair promotion during fiscal 1975-76.

Krueger Names Two New Staff Members

BOB KRUEGER Congressman, 21st District

Washington, D. C.-Congressman Bob Krueger of the 21st District of Texas has announced two new appointments to his Washington staff. Named as press secretary was Jeff Talmadge of Big Spring, Texas. In selecting Talmadge for the position, Krueger noted that "his West Texas background" and "familiarity with the concern of the people back home" weighed heavily in his choosing him from among several candidates. Talmadge will serve as a liaison between Krueger's Washington office and the numerous newspapers, radio stations, and television stations throughout the 21st District. Talmadge will succeed Leopoldi Garza of San Antonio who is leaving to attend law school in Washington.

Also named to Krueger's staff was Jim Watts, a specialist in economics and energy matters. Commenting or the addition of Wetts to the staff, Krueger said, "Jim's expertise in energy and economics will be extremely helpful to me as the Congress continues to work on the development of a sound energy policy." Watts will assist Congressman Krueger in drafting legisla-tion and in analyzing bills that come before the House. PEANUTS AMERICANIZE GERMAN CHOCOLATE CAKE

German food is hearty fare. Sauerbraten, wiener schnitzel, hasenpfeffer and bratwurst-usually accompanied by sauerkraut or red cabbage and dumplings or potato salad—are all part of a hausfrau's repertoire.

But of all the German ways of preparing food baking has always been the most interesting and important. Afternoon kaffee is cherished ritual among Germans of all ages. It is a social occasion when friends gather for coffee and conversation and the richest, most beautiful pastries that German cooks can concoct.

Chocolate cake is a traditional favorite at these afternoon kaffee gatherings. Planters German Chocolate Cake is another version of this classic cake adapted to American tastes with the addition of peanuts. A peanut-coconut frosting sandwiched between and on top of three moist layers of chocolate cake results in a luscious dessert that will satisfy any sweet tooth—German or American!

BACKGROUND ON BUSINESS

Panama, Travel And Financial Crossroads, Builds World Trade And Convention Centers

You learned all about the Panama Canal in school, right? Which direction do you sail when you cross the Canal from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean? East to West? Wrong!

The answer to that question is among the many oddities about Panama that Jose Rogelio Arias, Jr., the dynamic master-planner of anamanian tourism, likes to entertain Americans with. U.S. educated (University of California), Arias knows that most Americans think of Panama as "only a canal." Now, as general manager of the Panama Government Tourist Bureau, he reminds them that his country has a most remarkable geography that offers scenic and cultural variety for the pleasure traveler and an orientation that today truly makes Panama more of a "cross-roads of the world" (as its license plates boast) for the businessman.

Panama is like a gently curving "S" lying on its side, with Central and North America to its west and South America on the east. That's why the Panama Canal runs approximately north to south, instead of east to west, why only in Panama does the sun rise in the Pacific and set in the Atlantic and why Panama City will open in 1977 an architecturally unique, 3,000-seat Convention Center and a World Trade Center.

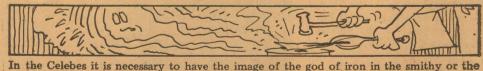

a country with a population ing in the world awaits conof only 1.5 million? The international business community doesn't think it's such a wild idea. After all, Capital of the World, and more than 70 different more than 35 deep-sea fishbanks (80 per cent of them ing records have been made foreign ones) operate Panama, and they include financial institutions from U.S., Canada, Great Britain, Spain, Holland, West Germany, Taiwan, Switzerland, Japan, South Korea, Colombia, Brazil and Ven-ezuela. Panama's financial stability, favorable invest-ment climate and strategic geographic location have brought them here. For representatives of foreign businesses, Arias has envisioned a 20-story round tower rising out of one of the two lagoons adjacent to the new Convention Center.

The two lagoons represent the Atlantic and Pacific and symbolize the fact that this will be the world's first and only two-ocean Convention Center. Fish indigenous to each ocean will be stocked in the respective lagoons, subtle reminders from Arias that the Atlantic and the Pacific are only 50 miles (and a few air minutes) A World Trade Center in apart and that the best fishvention delegates. Panama (which means "abundance of fish") is the Black Marlin vention Center, chamber, a 3,000-seat theatre, will accommodate not only conventions but have complete stage facilities for light operas, concerts, theatrical performances and films. Separate conference and banquet areas can accommodate 3,000 persons at once or be divided into smaller sections for a mix of banquets, exhibitions and conferences. Audio-visual and communications equipment will include the most sophisticated facilities for simultaneous translations. Exteriors will reflect pre-Columbian art.

New hotel facilities in Panama City will match the demand for convention delegate housing. "Panama could use the rooms now, Arias laments, as he counts the large groups of prospective conventioneers and sales-rewarded travelers he's crossroads of the world.'

For new gardens, we recommend applying 2 to 3 pounds of a compi te fertilizer such as 10-20-10 per 100 squar efeet and working it into the soil. If plants make slow growth, a light, amount of fertilizer may be applied between the rows and watered into the soil.

Of major importance for a successful fall garden is an adequate water supply. Since planting is done during hot weather, sufficient water is needed for germination and early growth. Light waterings three or four times a week may be necessary to keep the soil from drying out and crusting. Water stress during early growth of plants can reduce later yields.

Since transplants of recommended varieties of vegetables may be hard to find at local nurseries, we suggest buying seed and growing your own transplants. Four to five weeks should be allowed from the time of seeding to setting young plants in the garden.

Transplanting is a good practice in the fall since this allows seed to be started in areas sheltered from high temperatures and drying

Of course, as with all gardens, a vary eye must be kept for such problems as weeds, insects and diseases. However, we contend that the quality and flavor of many vegetables grown in the fall are superior to those from spring gar-

Tempting Bounty From Bayou Country

taste of Cajun cooking has helped make southern Louisiana one of the more interesting tourist spots in the United States.

Today's Louisiana Cajuns are descendants of the hardworking, religious French Acadians who fled to this side of the world during the 17th century and formed colonies in the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Some of the more hardy stock later found their way south, settling in Louisiana "bayou country" where small streams draped with exotic Spanish moss crisscross the marshy coast.

Murland Baudoin, Cajun innkeeper of the Holiday Inn-West in Baton Rouge, was raised on the distinctive French cuisine handed down by these original Acadians.

For an authentic Cajun dinner, Baudoin suggests Crawfish Thermidor, an elegant marriage of seafood and seasonings in a heavy sauce, Corn Maque Choux, a typical Cajun vegetable, and Derby Pie, a luscious mixture of roasted pecans and

NO FREEDOM WITHOUT READING

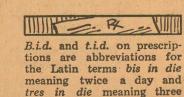

Reading is one of the most essential skills needed for survival within our society. Reading serves as the major source of knowledge and information, and it is the basic means of transmitting our culture. Our society accepts the premise that all people are able to read. The highways are lined with billboards. Newspapers, magazines, and publications can be found at every street corner, supermarket and public gathering. Most people receive an abundance of "junk" mail, all sent with the idea that the receiver can read. The U.S. is a reading nation.

When this much emphasis is placed on reading as a necessary skill, is

A person is expected to learn to read at age six in our present educational system. If he does not learn according to the educational plan, he begins to recognize that he is different and this feeling usually develops into a sense of inadequacy and inferiority. Reading skills are needed at all ages. Any task, job or simple activity usually involves reading at some level. Reading recipes, do-it-yourself kits or direc-oner. He has very little sense he is always at someone's mercy. He has no way of surviving in our society without the aid and assistance of a friend who is able to read. Probably the worst handicap is his inability to improve himself. Without the skill of reading, there is little chance of self-development and individual growth.

Improving reading skills can be a challenge to everyone. Setting new goals of self-improvement should include the development of better reading skills, increased vocabulary and greater comprehension. Speed reading, just reading more or enjoying the book you always wanted to read can be one of your goals.

An independent life is achieved more rapidly by the individual who has acquired reading skills. To be truly free is to be an experienced and avid reader!

The Truth That

8:15 a.m. Sundays KGKL-960 Angelo Christian Science Radio Series

Director, Consumer Relations Dept. Texize Chemicals Co. Save Money At Laundry Time

Follow some simple energy-saving tips at laundrytime to save money, too! Here's how:

Wash clothes in cold water. There's no noticeable difference in laundering results between hot and cold water washes.

Do only full laundry loads. Several small loads of laundry use more water and electricity than one big load.

. Sort clothes according to amount and kind of soil, colorfastness and type of fabric. A regular laundry load will need a full 10-minute

Pretreat extra dirty spots on clothes with Spray 'n Wash® laundry soil and stain remover. Spray it on extratough spots and stains, let set for one minute, and launder the item normally with the rest of the wash.

Use an all-temperature detergent. Don't over-dry laundry.

Besides wasting electricity, over-drying wrinkles clothes. Take full advantage of clear, warm days and hang your wet laundry outdoors to be air-dried. Save on ironing, too, by folding clothes while they're still warm from the dryer. Wrinkles can be "pressed out" by hand if they don't have time to set.

It is possible to go wrong in many ways, but right in only one. The former is thus easy and the latter difficult.

Until I became interested in sailing, I thought boats simply drifted with the wind. It hadn't occurred I Thessalonians to me that few sailors would ever reach port in this manner.

And before I became earnest about church, I thought people's lives-their joys and disppoint-Wednesday ments, their achievements and failures - were largely a result of fate or fortune. Luck would long 27: 34-38 ago have replaced religion if this were true. Now I know the thrill of sailing into the wind. Sure, tacking to port or starboard requires a zigzag Thursday course, and when your craft heels over at that precarious angle, it takes skill to control her. But that's part of the adventure—making headway against a strong wind.
