Post Script

I listened to the Ford-Carter debate last Thursday night and it was a disappointment. Both men gave speeches I had heard long before.

After it was over Republicans said that Ford had won, and Democrats claimed that Carter had won. In case the public had expected a "knock down drag out," they were disappointed. The two principals were polite to each other, there were no fireworks, and now we are waiting for the second debate in October.

I was talking with Tom Ratliff, whom I consider a leading Democrat, and he said he is looking forward to the coming debate between the two candidates for Vice President; Mr. Dole for the Republicans and Mondale for the Democrats.

They say that they call a spade a spade.

It's that time of year once again to "read 'em and weep."

The next day or two, the annual tax notices will go in the mail from City of Eldorado, the School Tax office, and the Sheriff's office which collects the county and state assessment.

Those three taxing bodies remind everyone that the month of October is when you can take the full 3% discount when paying.

The County Commissioners met Monday with main item of business the City-County Working Agreement.

Around the business district Jack Hoggard of Christoval has opened his Family Recreation Center in the Kempky building across from the Court House. More details are in the ad on page 2.

With our subscribers: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Terpening of Oregon report they are spending the upcoming winter at Trailer Village H92, 3020 E. Main, Mesa, Arizona 85203.

Mr. Jesus Fuentes is leading the fight against crippling lung diseases in children. The job can't be left to dedicated parents of C/F and lung-damaged children alone. Fuentes is organizing the Cystic Fibrosis "Kiss A Baby Campaign" now. Everyone can help.

Monday morning saw a heavy fog in Eldorado clearing off by noon, followed by dry winds.

By afternoon, Mikeska Gin reported combines were running and harvesting was proceeding full blast where conditions permitted.

Combines Running This Week To Harvest Maize Crop In The County

The Success crew drove past the cotton gin Sunday morning and saw three combines running or starting to run on the crop out on the Pflueger place.

Monday morning saw a heavy fog in Eldorado clearing off by noon, followed by dry winds.

By afternoon, Mikeska Gin reported combines were running and harvesting was proceeding full blast where conditions permitted.

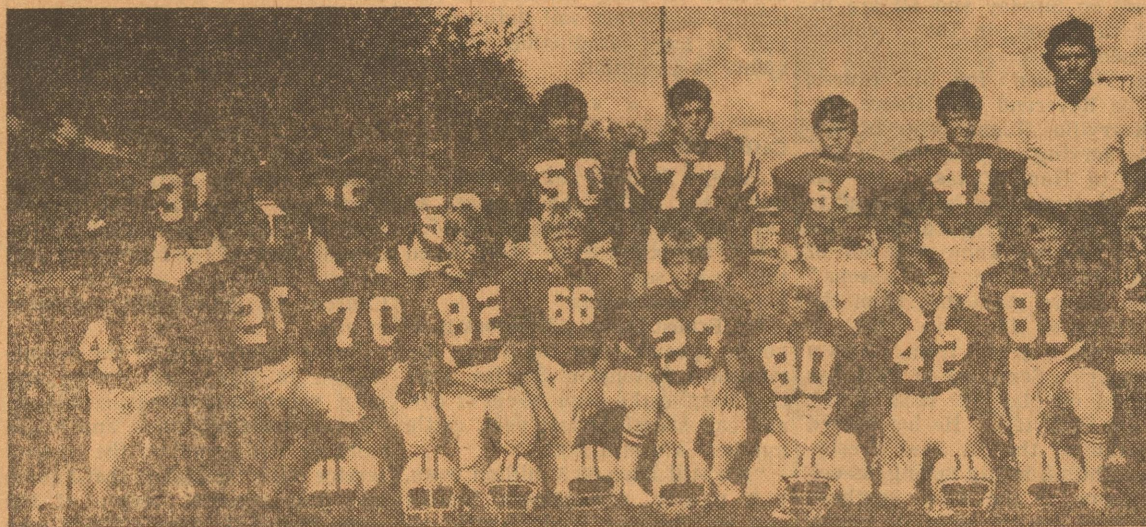

Mrs. Fay Reynolds said in town

Monday that the maize crop in the Reynolds community was good, but they had three inches of rain recently, and Bob was waiting for the ground to dry out in order to get in with the combine to harvest it.

Winters Takes 14-0 Win

The Winters Blizzards handed the Eagles their third defeat of the season here last Friday night, with a 14-0 score. They totaled 243 yards in offense to the Eagles 92. Jimmy Chapman scored for Winters in the first half and in third quarter wingback Marvin Moore scored. Late in the game the Eagles moved to the Winters one-yard line but failed to score.

Although Winters had a better team, the Eagles held them to only two touchdowns, ending the game 14 to 0, a compliment to Eagle defense.

The game with Winters last Friday night was the fourth and final non-district one for the Eldorado Eagles. Their record so far is three losses and one tie.

Historical Society To Meet Monday Night

The Historical Society will meet Monday, Oct. 4, at 7:30 in the Memorial Building. Please attend. It seems a short year since our first meeting, and so much has been accomplished with the help of hard workers and interested people. Our Bicentennial year has been a memorable one as we watched several projects successfully completed.

The good rains have taken care of the Historical Society Park; and our June 26 Festival was a wonderful event for everyone; then the icing on the cake was the ribbon cutting and long awaited Grand Opening of the Museum.

Our Memorial Fund is still growing, and has enabled us to make needed repairs and buy supplies needed to display and accommodate our articles in the Museum.

Our Thanks are many and sincere. So go by and see it again; we don't like to brag, but Gee, it's Great! —Rep.

Booster Club Meets

The Booster Club met Monday at 6:45 at the Band class room. The Booster Club will sponsor the "Spook House" in the Halloween Carnival. The big green Eagle you've seen at Pep Rally and Ball Game is a product of Eagle spirit. So support the Eagles. Memberships are $2 each. Please join! —Rep.

42 Club Meets

Mrs. Lester Henderson was hostess last Thursday when she entertained the 42 Club in her home. Those present were Virginia Griffin, Bessie Doyle, Mildred Stanford, Opal Parks, Allie Cheatham, Jake Spencer, Rose Brannan, Annie Speck, Etta Ruth Dannheim, Viola Finnigan and Lois Etheredge.

The club was glad to see Virginia back playing with us. She had been sick several weeks.

The hostess served cake and coffee. Opal Parks will be hostess Oct. 14. —Rep.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

By JANNETTE WILKERSON

One of the nicest things about a visit to the Museum is the urge to daydream about your childhood, and this is easy to do being surrounded by reminders of special times and special people.

In the window, Margaret Frost has recreated the reason for "Blue Monday"—Wash day was a chore, and this window display proves it.

A picture of Ernest C. Hill honors the front part of the ivy covered "treasure house," along with other priceless photographs of Gustave Schleicher, C. C. Doty, both founders of this area, grandparents of Frank Meador, parents and grandparents of Ben Hext, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newlin, Mrs. Watson, and many others remembered in antique framed pictures, tintypes, and in group displays.

The long black couch used in Dr. Patton's office for many years, holds memories of the great Flu epidemic of 1919, colds, broken limbs, and maybe a few snake bites. Have you ever seen a metal hot water bottle? The Almanac of 1908 boasts of Mexican Mustang Liniment, and I'll bet it soothed many a saddle sore.

There's a leather lacing bench that belonged to Billy Frank Blaylock, that may have repaired saddles like the ones ridden by Earl Cathey and Joe Tisdale.

Charlene Edmiston donated a sausage stuffer that would make a pretty good sausage today.

Speaking of good eatin', in the late 20's and early 30's, W. R. Word, known as "Hamburger Bill" made the best Hamburgers in the entire world, and that's a Fact!

The wooden "Peg" leg worn by Robert Calcote reflects the ability to overcome handicaps without the modern rehabilitation available today.

If you use your imagination, you can almost smell biscuits cooking in the wood cook stove, setting next to the milk cooler filled with crocks; or, catch a glimpse of flicker from the coal-oil lamp that graces a table with a home made cloth and Bible on it. I wonder how many visitors pass that rocking chair without thinking of a Mother or Grandmother reaching for a favorite scripture to read, or just to rest with folded hands in her lap on an open Bible?

A Wise Man once said, "Genius is the ability to recall childhood at will." We cannot promise you that you will walk out of the Museum younger, but we can promise a smile or even a tear, for the "good old days."

Two Newspapers Merge At Van Horn

After publishing the West Texas Times for four years at Van Horn, John C. Harper announced sale of the weekly newspaper's assets to the long-established Van Horn Advocate, which is also a weekly.

We believe that it will give the community a single, strong newspaper that will serve Van Horn well and be a leader in community growth and development," Harper said. "My wife and I stand ready to help Larry and Dawn Simpson, owners of the Advocate, in any way possible. We sincerely urge the community to support them wholeheartedly."

Cattle Recovery In '77

College Station, Tex.—Cattlemen won't see higher beef prices in 1977 unless a lot of cows, non-fed cattle and calves are slaughtered this year, says one authority in livestock marketing.

Dr. Ernest Davis, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says that despite the high levels of cow and calf slaughter last year, cattle numbers are still high.

"We still have 53.8 million cows, 11.2 million replacement heifers and 96.7 million feeder cattle on hand in this country," Davis says.

He feels that at least 10 million cows, 5.8 million non-fed cattle and 5 million calves need to be slaughtered in 1976 for Choice feeder cattle prices to reach the $50 per hundred weight level in 1977.

"If cattlemen don't reduce the cow herd by keeping up a high level of slaughter, beef prices in 1977 will be no better than prices in 1976," Davis predicts.

The main goal of cattlemen should be to cut feeder cattle availability by putting more cows, calves and non-fed cattle on the market, says the Texas A&M University System specialist.

"Cattlemen need to be aware of the market situation and adjust their cattle supplies to meet market needs to keep prices up."

Davis says that even if the cattle supply is cut back by 1977, there will still be beef price fluctuations caused by fluctuating feed-grain prices.

"If feed-grain prices go up, there will probably be more non-fed cattle slaughtered and lower beef prices this fall. On the other hand, if feed-grain prices fall, there should be more movement of cattle to feedlots, delaying marketings and resulting in higher prices during the fall."

County Extension Agent's Column

Fertilizing Small Grains

Fertilization of small grains at planting is essential for a good root system, early grazing and profitable grain yields.

Other than moisture, the supply of available plant nutrients in the seedling root zone is the major factor affecting early growth.

The rate and method of fertilizer application is especially important for soils low in phosphorus. Numerous research studies have shown that a high level of available phosphorus is needed in the seedling root zone for rapid plant development. In phosphorus is drilled with the seed or in a band beside the seed row, a lower rate is needed to maintain this high level of readily available phosphorus as compared to broadcasting. However, with broadcast planting, also broadcast the fertilizer and disk it into the soil.

Nitrogen is also essential for early grain growth but can be top-dressed after the stand is established. Not more than 10 to 15 pounds of actual nitrogen should be applied with the seed although more can be put in a band beside the seed row or in the soil before planting.

The total amount of nitrogen needed depends on grazing management, moisture and other conditions that affect the amount and rate of growth. From 60 to 80 pounds of actual nitrogen per application should be considered. As many as three applications can be used, especially for a long grazing period that might be obtained from an oats-ryegrass mixture or other combination.

If potassium is needed for small grain production, it should be applied at or before planting, with the amount based on a soil test.

Profitable small grain production depends on many factors, but fertilizing to correct soil deficiencies and to meet production requirements is essential.

DISTINCTIVE IMPROVEMENTS HIGHLIGHT
OLDSMOBILE LINE FOR '77 MODEL YEAR

Lansing, Mich.—A new generation of more fuel-efficient family cars and a long list of engineering improvements highlight Oldsmobile's 1977 lineup.

The division is covering the market in six distinct car lines . . . Starfire, Omega, Cutlass, Eighty-Eight, Ninety-Eight and Toronado . . . with 28 models, six less than last year.

New for 1977 are the Cutlass Supreme Brougham colonnade hardtop sedan, Delta 88 pillar coupe, Delta 88 Royale pillar coupe and Toronado XSR. Discontinued are the Cutlass Supreme Cruiser, Cutlass Salon sedan, Delta 88 hardtop coupe and hardtop sedan, Delta 88 Royale hardtop coupe and hardtop sedan and Toronado Custom coupe. In addition, three Custom Cruisers have been discontinued as separate models, but are available as 1977 options.

Following are highlights of the car lines:

Full Size Models—
The completely-redesigned family-sized Delta 88s, Ninety-Eights and Custom Cruisers are of a more fuel-efficient design while offering excellent interior roominess, riding comfort, good handling and the latest safety features.

Occupant roominess has been helped by more efficient use of interior space and redesigned front and rear seats. Rear seat kneeroom and legroom have been increased.

The Delta 88 and Delta 88 Royale series include a two-door pillar coupe and four-door town sedan. The frontal view features a two-segment grille with horizontal bars, dual rectangular headlamps and matching dual horizontal park and turn lamps. Eight-Eights and Royales have specific front end emblems. The Royale has a standup rocket emblem.

Royale side treatment maintains the colored side molding as standard equipment and it has an extended rocker molding on the rear quarter. The sail panel emblem is new.

At the rear, the 88 and Royale feature wide horizontal tail lamps that extend across to the license plate pocket with backup and side marker lamps as an integral unit at the outer ends. New Oldsmobile block lettering is on the deck lid and Royale models have a swing lock cover.

New inside are the instrument panel, seats, door trip panels and steering wheels.

The 231-cubic-inch (3.8 litre) V-6 engine and the Turbo Hydra-matic transmission are standard on all 88 and Royale models. Optional are three lightweight V-8s.

Also standard are power assisted front disc and rear drum brakes, power steering and radial ply tires.

The Ninety-Eight lineup includes four models—a two-door coupe and four-door sedan in both the Luxury and Regency series.

All Ninety-Eights have a large chrome-plated grille with a small eggcrate pattern separated in the middle by a recessed Ninety-Eight emblem.

Ninety-Eights have dual rectangular headlamps mounted above dual park and turn lamps.

Austin, Tex.—Massive efforts are under way to make 1976 a record year for voter eligibility in Texas in spite of apparent apathy in most areas of the U. S.

Secretary of State Mark White Jr., who is coordinating the statewide drive, predicts that as many as 6.2 million will be registered by the October 3 deadline for eligibility to vote in the November 2 election.

That figure would be about 75% of the total eligible by age and residence and would represent a jump of a million voters from 1972, the previous high.

About four million application forms have been prepared for distribution to labor unions, employers, institutions, drivers' license offices, churches, civic clubs, beauty shops and grocery stores.

Cooperating organizations include labor unions, the Democratic party and a variety of minority groups. Changes in the election laws last year made it easier to register in Texas than in any other state, according to White.

Voters who have received their blue certificate cards from county tax assessor-collectors, already are registered and don't need to rush to the courthouse or look up a registration deputy.

Those who have no blue card and are U. S. citizens, at least 18 years old and residents of the state can still become eligible to vote in the presidential election if their applications are delivered to a deputy before 5:00 p.m., Oct. 1.

White thinks voters are, at last, beginning to get interested in politics this year, and that a warming presidential campaign will boom the election day turnout.

Bond Fight On

A major battle is developing over the proposed $400 million water bond issue to be voted on November 2.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe recently named Paul G. Veale of McAllen to head a statewide committee working for passage of the bonds. Briscoe maintains the bonds are necessary to meet Texas water requirements.

A coalition of environmentalists has opened a campaign against passage of the bond amendment to the constitution, claiming there is no real justification for a "crash program" and that interest rates would be unlimited.

Short Snorts . . .

Twenty new industries—a record number of the year—announced plans to locate in Texas during July. "Fortunately, Texas was not as hard hit by the recession as most states and economic recovery is advancing at a faster pace than that of the country as a whole," commented Jim Harwell, executive director of Texas Industrial Commission.

Applications to drill oil and gas tests in Texas totaled 12,986 for the first 8½ months of 1976, up from 11,475 for the same period last year.

The $56.6 million rebated to Texas cities as their September city sales tax share was the highest monthly payment since the monthly allocation program began.

The first shipment of early oranges for 1976-77 left the Lower Rio Grande Valley last week. Citrus growers are expecting a bigger harvest than the 17.1 million boxes of 1975.

Texas Utilities Generating Co. of Dallas applied for authority to begin lignite mining operations in Panola county and at existing projects in Freestone, Hopkins and Titus counties.
