A drawing was held to determine the winner of the .22 cal. rifle for selling magazines, and Tanya Leggett won the rifle. Prizes were awarded to the high salesmen in the Magazine selling campaign.

MRS. WEST HAS VISITORS

Week end visitors in the home of Blanche West were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. "Bill" Zorn, Del Rio, (retired chief and past president of State Firemen's and Fire Marshals Assn.); Dale, Gene, Scott, and Leslie Lynn Eubank of San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crain and son also of San Antonio. More last week end attended the Hill Country Firemen's District Convention in Sonora.

Post Script

We are reminded by a local business woman that a serious accident or wreck will take place on South Main street unless drivers learn to be made careful.

She listed:

—Leaving small children in the car while Mama goes into the store to shop.

—Leaving the ignition key in place.

—Leaving the engine idling.

In other towns, large and small, when you get out of your car and leave the key in the ignition, you will get a ticket.

Here in Eldorado, it has been a habit for drivers to make a U-turn in the middle of the block—especially in front of The Success office.

There hasn't been an accident YET!

—ps—

You may be curious what woman gave this warning, but I won't mention her name—except she is in the insurance business and under-taking!

Around the business district . . . The Shugart photographer will be at Western Auto this coming Wednesday, Oct. 13th, all day.

Complete details are given in the ads on pages 2 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lackey and son Kelsey Jo from Victoria spent the week end visiting the Gene McCallas here.

The Next

Debates . . .

The next debate between President Ford and Jimmy Carter was set for Wednesday night, October 6th.

The third debate will be held on Friday, October 22nd.

Local Man Injured

Jimmy Martinez, 22-year-old employee of C. C. Lease, was injured last Friday morning in an industrial accident about seven miles west of Mertzon. Martinez was injured at the CRA Inc. gasoline plant, and the mishap occurred at about 9:30 in the morning. Martinez was one of several men in a work crew at the plant. He sustained back injuries and was taken by ambulance to Shannon hospital in San Angelo.

Sewing Program To Be Held

On Tuesday, Oct. 12, there will be a program on Making Buttonholes and Putting in Zippers at 10:00 a.m. at the Memorial Building. This program will be given by Mrs. Nancy Lester, County Extension agent. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hamlett of Lafayette, La., were recent visitors in the Gene Williams home.

Mrs. West Attends Memorial Service For Her Late Husband

MRS. BLANCHE WEST

Last week end, the Hill Country Firemen's Association held a meeting in Sonora and the late Palmer West, charter chief of the Eldorado Fire Department, was eulogized in a special ceremony. Attending the event from here were his widow, Mrs. West, and several other relatives and friends.

A lengthy paper written by Lisa McAngus West was read, and it traced Palmer's many activities in firemen's work, on the local, district, statewide and international levels.

The Fire Department was founded in Eldorado in July of 1939 and Palmer West was named chief, a post he held until his retirement 27 years later. The Ford fire truck was the initial piece of equipment bought and it led Palmer's funeral procession here a while back.

Eagles To Play At Menard, Following Loss To Big Lake

Last Friday night, the Eldorado Eagles lost their District 9A opener here to Big Lake 29 to 12, while the Mason Punchers were defeating the Menard Yellowjackets 33 to 0.

This Friday night, the two losers will face each other. The local Eagle varsity will go to Menard for a game that will be kicked off at 7:30 p.m., on the Yellowjackets' Field.

The Eagles lost to Big Lake by a score of 29 to 12 here last Friday night but they gave a good account of themselves in the first half.

The Eagles were on the scoreboard first with a touchdown by John Ben Cawley for six points, and extra point try failed. Big Lake then followed with a TD and extra point by Jennings Teel.

When the first half ended the score remained 7 to 6.

The second half the Reagan boys dominated with Owl Halfback Mario Hernandez scoring early, and J. Teel making a pass two minutes later to Don Thompson for a score. Teel made his final TD in the last quarter with 3:45 left in the game.

Screwworm Drops Made On Schleicher County

Livestock producers are finding large numbers of screwworm cases all over the county. On September 30 Dr. Miller with the Screwworm Lab at Mission, Tex., replied: Screwworm flies were being dropped every week at the rate of four boxes per square mile or 1404 flies per square mile. These drops are being made on the grid pattern.

The large number of screwworm cases over the state has made it impossible to "hot spot" the drops. He said it was very important to receive samples of all cases. This is the only method they have of keeping up with screwworm locations. Please SEND IN the samples.

'Guardian Award' To Congressman Krueger

BOB KRUEGER

Washington, D. C.—In a recent ceremony on Capitol Hill, Rep. Robert Krueger, (D.), of the 21st District of Texas received the "Guardian of Small Business" award presented by the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB).

Rep. Krueger qualified for the NFIB "Guardian" award by voting on the side of small business 74% of the time during the 94th Congress.

NFIB president Wilson S. Johnson, to conferring the award on Rep. Krueger noted, "We initiated our NFIB evaluation system to give special recognition to those legislators who support small business and who have the courage to stand up and vote against the pressures of big labor and big business; the small businessman's greatest competitors for the ear of Congress."

Johnson continued, "NFIB polls its 464,000 member firms nationwide every six weeks to determine the membership's opinions on specific issues and establish the organization's legislative position. NFIB regards a 70% or higher rating on key small business issues as worthy of the 'Guardian' award. Too many congressmen go back home claiming to support small business simply because they voted for a Small Business Administration appropriations bill. We feel our membership deserves to know how their representatives voted on each of the issues which are of direct importance to small business."

"I hope our 2,200 NFIB members in the 21st District will take note of Rep. Krueger's voting record and realize they have someone in Washington who is aware of the problems facing small business and who is trying to make sure that the small and independent businessman receives fair representation in Congress," Johnson concluded.

Congressman Krueger is completing his initial two-year term in office.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH will conduct the services this coming Sunday afternoon, Oct. 10th, at the Nursing Home.

Sugar-Free Jellied Sweet Treats
Sugar-free jellied fruit is a treat for calorie and weight watchers. Take advantage of fresh or unsweetened frozen fruit to bring flavor and color to the table. Artificial sweetener is used to sweeten sugar-free jellies and jams, and pectin is used for the thickener.

Some people using artificial sweeteners notice an "after-taste." Persons who are more sensitive than others to saltiness and sourness are more apt to detect this "after-taste." Using slightly less sweetener may result in less "after-taste." Try several levels of artificial sweetener until the most pleasing results are found.

The jellied products must be refrigerated or frozen unless they are made by the long-boil method of preparation. But they are well worth the use of freezer storage space because natural color and flavor are maintained best when the jellied products are stored in the freezer.

For jellies and jams, the method of combining ingredients varies with the form of pectin used. Liquid pectin is added to the cooked fruit and sweetener mixture immediately after it is removed from the heat. Powdered pectin is mixed with the unheated, crushed fruit.

Jelly is best when made in small quantities. The amount of fruit needed to yield the amount of juice called for in the recipe will vary with sweetness of the particular fruit used.

Wash fruit for jelly in several changes of cold water.

The method of extraction will vary with different kinds of fruit. Juicy berries may be crushed and the juice pressed out. Heating is needed for firmer fruits to start the flow of juice. Usually some water is added when the fruit is heated.

Put the prepared fruit in a damp jelly bag or fruit press to extract juice. Pressed juice should be strained through a double thickness of damp cheesecloth or a damp jelly bag.

Some tasty recipes for jellies follow.

Apple Jelly with Gelatin
4 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons liquid sweetener
Food color, if desired
2 cups unsweetened apple juice
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice.
Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup of apple juice. Bring remaining 1 1/2 cups juice to a boil; remove from heat. Add softened gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Add liquid sweetener, lemon juice and coloring. Bring to a full, rolling boil. Ladle into clean jars; seal. Keep in refrigerator. Makes one pint. One tablespoon equals nine calories.

Apple Jelly from Bottled Juice
2 pkgs. or 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons unsweetened lemon juice
Food coloring, if desired
1 quart unsweetened apple juice
2 tablespoons liquid sweetener.
In a saucepan, soften gelatin in apple juice and lemon juice. Bring to a rolling boil, dissolving gelatin; boil one minute. Remove from heat. Stir in liquid sweetener and food coloring. Pour into hot sterilized jars. Seal. Store in refrigerator. Makes two pints. One tablespoon equals eight calories.

Grape Jelly with Gelatin
2 tablespoons or 2 packages unflavored gelatin
3 cups or 1 bottle (1 pt. 8 oz.) unsweetened grape juice
2 tablespoons unsweetened lemon juice
2 tablespoons liquid sweetener.
In a saucepan, soften gelatin in grape juice and lemon juice. Bring to a rolling boil, dissolving gelatin; boil one minute. Remove from heat. Stir in liquid sweetener. Pour into hot sterilized jars. Seal. Store in refrigerator. One tablespoon equals 11 calories.

To prepare fruit for jam, sort and wash fully ripe fruit. Remove any stems, caps or pits. Peel fruit such as peaches. Crush the fruit.
Cook to a full-boil stage—reached when bubbles form over the entire surface of the mixture.
Jams made without added pectin or gelatin require longer cooking than those with added pectin. Cook the mixture to a temperature of 221 degrees F.

If you do not have a thermometer, cook products without pectin or gelatin until they have thickened. Allow for additional thickening as the product cooks. Jams made without sugar are thinner than jams made with sugar.

Jams contain fruit pulp or pieces of fruit that tend to stick to the kettle during cooking. Constant stirring to prevent scorching will be necessary.
Recipes for making sugar-free jams follow:

Strawberry Jam with Pectin
1 quart cleaned strawberries
1 1/2-ounce package powdered fruit pectin
3-4 teaspoons liquid artificial sweetener
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Crush strawberries in a 1 1/2-quart saucepan. Stir in artificial sweetener, powdered fruit pectin and lemon juice. Bring to a boil and boil one minute. Remove from heat. Continue to stir two minutes. Pour into freezer containers, cover and freeze. Thaw before serving. Store in refrigerator after opening. Makes 2 2/3 cups. One tablespoon equals five calories.

Strawberry Jam with Gelatin
1 1/2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
3 cups strawberries, crushed
1/4 teaspoon ascorbic acid powder
1 1/2 tablespoons cold water
1 1/2 tablespoons liquid sweetener.
Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine strawberries and sweetener in a saucepan. Place over high heat and stir constantly until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin; return to heat and continue to cook for one minute. Remove from heat; blend in ascorbic acid powder. Ladle into clean jars; seal. Store in refrigerator or freezer. Makes one pint. One tablespoon equals five calories.

Peach Jam with Pectin
4 cups peeled peaches
1 tablespoon unsweetened lemon juice
1 1/2-ounce package powdered fruit pectin
3-4 teaspoons liquid artificial sweetener
1/2 teaspoon ascorbic acid.
Crush peaches in saucepan. Stir in sweetener, fruit pectin, lemon juice and ascorbic acid. Bring to a boil; boil one minute. Remove from heat. Continue to stir two minutes. Pour into freezer containers. Cover; freeze. Makes one pint. One tablespoon equals 10 calories.

Long boil method. You may follow tested recipes for jams made by long-boil method with the addition of pectin.
Cook the fruit and liquid sweetener until jam is the desired consistency. Substitute two tablespoons liquid sweetener for each cup of sugar. Pour the boiling hot jam into clean, hot jars. Adjust lid as soon as filled.
Process in a boiling water bath for five minutes—starting to count when water returns to a rolling boil. Remove from water bath and cool on a rack.
Try one of these recipes for long-boil jam.

Strawberry Jam
4 cups crushed strawberries
8 tablespoons liquid sweetener.
Measure crushed strawberries into a kettle. Add sweetener and stir well. Boil rapidly, stirring constantly until the mixture thickens. Fill containers and adjust lids. Process for five minutes in boiling water bath. One tablespoon equals 10 calories.

Blackberry Jam
4 cups crushed blackberries
8 tablespoons liquid sweetener.
Measure crushed blackberries into a kettle. Add sweetener and stir well. Boil rapidly, stirring constantly until the mixture thickens. Fill containers and adjust lids. Process in boiling water bath for five minutes. One tablespoon equals 10 calories.

CONSERVE AND SAVE ON ELECTRIC COOKING

- ★ For best results, use flat bottom utensils with tight fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.
- ★ Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 8 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.
- ★ Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a lower setting.
- ★ Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.
