Post Script

Politics seem to be changing now as the General Election approaches—Republicans are voting Democratic and Democrats are voting Republican.

In a conversation in our shop with the County Democratic chairman, the subject came up of Bob Krueger who is running for reelection to Congress as a Democrat, and he said, "Even the Republicans are voting for Krueger!"

Gene Edmiston, prominent rancher 12 miles west of Eldorado and father of our Sheriff, declared that he was 100% for Ford for President instead of Democrat Carter. He said he was a life-long Democrat but he always voted for the man. And he went on to say that he voted for O. C. Fisher for 30 years before Fisher retired.

That was on Tuesday morning of last week, when he was in to renew his subscription.

Imagine my surprise when I heard on Tuesday night on T-V that O. C. Fisher was coming out for Ford for President. That's a case of a life-long Democrat.

George Long used to say about O. C. Fisher when he was a Democratic Congressman, "He was the best Republican up there!"

Allan Shivers, who served as governor from 1949 through 1956 as a Democrat, endorsed Republican Gerald Ford for President Friday. "I do not know what Jimmy Carter will do," Shivers told a state capital press conference. "Frankly, it scares hell out of me."

In their Sunday edition on October 17th, the Dallas Morning News came out with a front page editorial endorsing Gerald Ford for the Presidency on Nov. 2. The Dallas News covers the state.

The editorial was read by local Conservative Ed Meador, and he read a portion of it in a Lions Club meeting last week. We are glad to have Ed on our side.

Ed is a director of the First National Bank, and is active in real estate and oil, and is our friendly competitor in a new weekly newspaper. For the latest of his endeavors we wish him good luck, BUT NOT TOO MUCH.

The Eldorado Lions Club have had their Halloween Candy Sale going on this week, with bags of candy being sold near the Post Office for $1.50 per bag.

Another money raising project of the club is set for next Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, when the Broom and Mop Sale will be put on in downtown Eldorado. More details are given on page 2.

Proceeds from these two sales are used by the Lions Club for community betterment projects.

63 Absentee Ballots Cast As Of Tuesday Morning

The deadline for voting absentee is 5:00 p.m. this Friday, October 29th.

Around the business district: Mrs. Elizabeth Ballew has had new carpet laid in her offices on South Main, for Benton Abstract & Title Co.

The Neighborhood Center is being moved this week from the McWhorter building on South Main, to new location in the east part of town.

Here at The Success office, we have had an inquiry or two about Sample Ballots. These samples, printed on colored paper, are available at the County Clerk's office.

John Lowe and family of Ozona visited here Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lowe.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

By JANNETTE WILKERSON

REMEMBER WHEN?

In 1909 Eldorado was bustling with activity and projects for a growing community. This was the year William Howard Taft succeeded Teddy Roosevelt in the White House, and the Panama Canal was being built. Here in Eldorado we had a total of nine "Motorcars," promoters were trying to get a railroad here, the stagecoach and freight wagons were in operation, and we were about a decade old.

Eldorado had two banks at that time: The First National Bank, whose officers were M. B. McKnight, president; Wm. Bevans, vice president; J. B. Christian, cashier; C. C. Doty, bookkeeper, and Wm. Bevans, M. B. McKnight, C. H. Murphy, Sol Mayer, and J. F. Isaacs, directors. There was also the Eldorado State Bank, that had Robert Bailey, president; W. L. Aldwell, vice president; E. Barbee, cashier, and directors were Robert Bailey, W. L. Aldwell, E. M. Barbee, R. F. Halbert, and L. J. Wardlaw.

B. E. Earle had a new front porch on his drug store, and Allen Palmer was promoting an idea to fire-proof the court house.

While E. P. Sweatt was driving near the H. Mills ranch, his team became frightened and ran off with the buggy. The buggy overturned and was badly torn up. Mr. Sweatt managed to escape injury and keep the team from getting away until Mr. Mills could come to his aid.

Representing Mrs. J. B. Smith's music class were Ruby DeLong, Ellen Tisdale and Emma Hill, and

Good Neighbor H. D. To Meet Today

The Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club will meet Thursday, Oct. 28, at 9:00 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Eleanor Jeffrey.

Mrs. Susan Stark will present a book review for the program. All members are encouraged to attend.

H. D. Clubs To Have Country Store

The Home Demonstration Clubs of Schleicher County will sponsor a Country Store at the Halloween Carnival this coming Saturday night. Anyone who wants to place an advance order for baked goods can do so by calling the County Extension office.

MRS. BRADLEY HAS GUESTS

Saturday and Sunday night guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Davis of Snyder, Okla. They also visited in the home of Mrs. F. M. Bradley, Mrs. Davis' aunt, and with the Frosts, Ballews, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bradley.

Mrs. Frost and her daughter, Carol Shewhart, entertained the group with a dinner on Sunday evening. Also included were Mrs. Sherwood Barker, Jamie and John Ray, and Mrs. Clem Bruning of San Angelo.

from Mrs. Moore's class were Ruby Patton and Annie Doty.

Advertisers in The Success included: S. H. Andrews, carriage shop; Arthur Goodson, tailor; Tom Holland, windmill work; Nicks Bros., livery and feed stable; T. L. Benson Co., dry goods; J. N. White, carpenter; Henry Bellion, barber; W. M. Bearce, hardware and groceries; B. E. Earle, druggist; W. L. McWhorter, general merchandise; and the two Banks.

The San Angelo to Sonora stage line was sold to Dutch Wardlaw and J. E. Allison, by Clarendon and Robbins.

The school bonds were approved by a vote of 77-0. Accepting a low bid of $16,800, the new red brick structure would soon be built.

Prof. C. A. Womack was employed as teacher of the Bailey Ranch school, and Wright and Foley advertised: "We have our market screened in now so that the flies cannot bother our meat."

W. W. Barbee bought a two-passenger Maxwell this week. It's a small one, but a perfect beauty. That was while V. G. Tisdale and J. A. Whitten received their new 30 horsepower, 4 cylinder autos. They cost the near sum of $1425.

Mike Nicks had his face skinned while trying to ride a bucking horse on Main street. As you can see, in 1909 Eldorado was a place of contrasting progress, and as beautiful as they were, these times and events will never be lost as long as we Remember When.

Eagles Lose To Wall 34-14

The Eldorado Eagles lost an important District 9-A contest last Friday night at Wall, as the Hawks handed them the losing end of a 34-14 score. Major players for the Hawks were fullback Clayton Weishuhn and halfbacks Benny Craft and Barry Brodnax.

Craft made the Hawks' first score in the first quarter with PAT by George Sharkey.

Lynn Whitaker made an 8-yard pass for the a score and Ernesto Martinez's kick made it 7-7 early in the first quarter.

Elmer Braden of Wall recovered an Eagle fumble on 33 to open the second quarter, and Weishuhn charged 32 steps for the score. He made the PAT kick, for score of 14-7.

Weishuhn scored on an Eagle fumble later turning a second-down play into six more points. The PAT failed, making it 20-7 at half-time.

Sharkey picked up an interception in the third period. Wall fielded an Eagle punt in the fourth quarter, with Craft making a score. A PAT by Weishuhn made it 27-7.

Ernesto Martinez made a pass to Sam Whitten who made Eldorado's second score of the night. Martinez' kick made it 27-14, Wall.

Adolph Holik made a 16-yard TD dash for the Hawks' final score with Sharkey's PAT kick leaving the final score 34-14.

Fund Drive Going On For Salvation Army

A fund drive for the Salvation Army has been going on here in recent days with T. P. Robinson Jr. as general chairman.

Meeting need at the point and time of need is what the Salvation Army is all about—whether it be feeding disaster victims or a family temporarily down on their luck. This charitable organization, that has helped thousands in need for 109 years, is active through its local Service Unit Committee here in Eldorado. And you can help the Army continue its work by donating to the annual campaign.

Your gift may buy a pair of shoes for a needy child; secure temporary shelter for a family, stranded while traveling to a new home and job; or send a needy, deserving boy to summer camp.

Your Salvation Army Service Unit committee here is made up of citizen volunteers, like you and me. They work year-round, helping at any time, whatever the problem, large or small. They help people, often teetering on the brink of disaster, to help themselves; restoring dignity while showing someone that he can help himself.

Third And Last Debate Was Held Friday

President Ford and Jimmy Carter had their third and last debate last Friday night in Williamsburg, Va.

Both debaters answered questions in answers we have heard in space before. The public was glad it was over with and it was considered a draw.

The questions asked by the panel were kind of trivial.

Clocks Go Back One Hour Sunday

It's time once again for the semi-annual time change. This Sunday morning at 2:00, the clocks will officially be changed back one hour to Standard Time.

Standard Time will be in effect until the last Sunday in April of 1977.

The easiest way for local people to take care of the matter is to just set your clocks BACK an hour Saturday night before going to bed. Then you will sleep an hour later on Sunday morning from what you have been used to.

The only workers who make the change in time when it actually occurs are those who work a night shift for an oil company or hospital.

If you forget to change your timepieces this week end, you'll show up an hour early for services at church Sunday morning.

The Participation Of The Electorate

(Congressman Bob Krueger's Weekly Report. This is his last column until after the November election.)

When the founding fathers established our government, based on a system of checks and balances, the most important "check" of all which they included was that of the people over those who were chosen to direct the course of their government.

My friend and colleague, the retiring Speaker of the House Carl Albert of Oklahoma, is fond of reminding his audiences that the House of Representatives is the only body in the government to which you have to be elected to serve. Senators may be appointed in the case of a vacancy, and due to the newest Constitutional amendment, even a President and Vice President can be appointed, as we have seen. Supreme Court justices answer to no electorate, as they are appointed for life by the President. As Speaker Albert has noted, however, only the House requires the election of its Members in all cases.

The ability and responsibility of the American people to elect their leaders is a privilege which should not be taken lightly, and one which few peoples on the earth enjoy. I have conferred with political leaders from around the world in the past couple of years, and they frequently remind me that other countries seem to have a better opinion of the United States than we have of ourselves. I suspect Americans have always had a healthy dose of skepticism about them, and that that quality has made us a people that are not easily fooled or misled. This quality can and should carry over into the selection of our elected officials.

For our government to function properly, the consent of the governed is crucial, but that does not mean that a particular officeholder must have the complete approval of his or her constituency. Rather, the system and the process which allows our government to operate, and which allows people to hold office, must be constantly reaffirmed by the participation of the electorate.

There has been a trend in recent years for the electorate not to participate in elections because of a feeling that one vote cannot make a difference. This year, in fact, less than 50% of the registered voters in America are expected to vote.

A person's vote should be considered as more than an expression of preference for a particular candidate. It is a sign of approval of our system of democracy. I hope that the people of the 21st District will continue their participation in the political process, regardless of their personal preferences.

We won't agree on every vote I've cast. But you can count on this: I'll listen to you and your neighbor, weigh both sides, and do what I think is right.

Gas Strike In County

Schleicher County gained a discovery and location for a deep wildcat and a conformer was completed in this county.

Tucker Drilling Co., Inc., San Angelo, No. 1-33 Page Brothers 33 Schleicher County Strawn oil discovery, separated from oil production by a 6,574-foot failure and a west offset to a depleted Strawn gas producer on the east side of the Page (Strawn oil and gas) field, nine miles east-southeast of Eldorado, was finalized to pump 46.38 barrels of 32.2 gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 968-1.

Production was through perforations at 5,152-160 feet, which had been acidized with 1,000 gallons.

The following tops were picked on ground elevation of 2,287 feet: Palo Pinto, 4,562 feet and Strawn lime, 5,451 feet.

Drilled to 5,750 feet, 4 1/2-inch casing was set at that depth. Location is 660 feet from the south and east lines of 33-LGH&SA.

Deep Prospector

T. C. Meador, Eldorado, will drill the No. 1-102 Pearl Williams, a 7,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat, 1/2 mile east and slightly south of the Velrex, West (Canyon oil) field of Schleicher county, two miles north and slightly west of the two-well Ellenburger oil area, 1 3/4 miles west of Canyon gas production and 2 3/4 miles north and very slightly west of Pennsylvanian conglomerate gas production in the Velrex, Southwest field and 13 1/2 miles northwest of Eldorado.

Location is 1,860 feet from the south and 467 feet from the most northerly east line of 102-TT-TC-RR. Ground elevation is 3,532.4 feet.

Ellenburger production in the Velrex, Southwest field, is at approximately 7,422 feet, however, according to the latest proration schedule it shows not to be producing at this time. Pennsylvanian conglomerate production in the field is at 7,379 feet.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Brame were in Odessa last week where they attended the Oil Show.

Scarf Prints Add Interest To Garments

Scarf prints, an exciting new fashion fabric look, create garments with individualized uniqueness. The "scarf look" includes large square or rectangular panels with border designs around the four outside edges. Often the design includes a prominent design around the center, spreading toward the borders.

Scarf prints are usually a medium to lightweight fabric and are available in a variety of fibers are often available to coordinate with scarf print fabrics sold by the yard.

We suggest placing scarf panel borders to emphasize certain garment design details such as two borders meeting at the center front or back, or a border outlining a hem, cuff, collar or yoke. Dominant center scarf designs also can create emphasis by being positioned on the outside of a sleeve or in the center of a garment.

Due to the extra emphasis scarf prints create, all garments should be tried on before purchase to observe illusions of size and shape created on the body. Also, the homesewer should hold panels up to the body to see illusions created and plan to cut out the garment accordingly.

The production of scarf print fabrics and labor costs required to design and cut out garments are higher than for comparable simpler fabrics. But the resulting novelty fashion look may well be worth the extra expense.

Preparing Appliances For A Move

Moving appliances from one house to another requires care.

Because the interior mechanisms of some appliances are swung on spring hangers to lessen vibrations when operating, some major appliances should be serviced before being moved. This process includes wedging, padding, bracing or bolting down of motors, compressors, or washer tubs. An appliance serviceman usually handles these procedures.

Major appliances such as refrigerators, freezers, dishwashers, washers and dryers may need such servicing. Many newer model appliances require no servicing, but older models may. It is a good idea to tape on the control knobs of all appliances.

In preparing for travel, thorough cleaning and drying of all appliances is essential. Any moisture left will cause the growth of mold and mildew with resulting musty odors that are quite difficult to remove. After cleaning, leave the appliance door open at least 24 hours to allow thorough drying. Grease left on appliances can turn rancid and catch dust.

After a move, most appliances will require a releveling. Use a glass measuring cup filled with water to level the appliance after installation. Level appliances vibrate less and run smoother.

Can we afford four more years without effective leadership?

There is a critical decision to be made on November 2nd. It goes far beyond the question of which Presidential candidate can govern with integrity and honesty. We must determine which candidate has the ability and strength to lead our country out of economic chaos, and the vision to see that all Americans—not just the powerful and influential—have a better future.

During the past two years, the middle class has paid far too dear a price for a President lacking that ability.

Since Gerald Ford took office, the unemployment rate has risen 50%, from 5.5% or 5 million people, to 7.9% or 7-1/2 million jobless Americans.

Today's inflation rate of 6% is higher than it was at any time between the Korean War and the inauguration of Richard Nixon.

The 1968 food dollar is now worth 57¢.

Mr. Ford's budget will account for the largest single deficit and more than 1/3 of the public debt incurred during our entire 200-year history.

Real GNP has actually declined during each of Gerald Ford's two years in office.

And who is most affected by these distressing statistics? Not the Washington establishment, or the economic elite courted by the Republicans. The burden falls on the person who can least afford it: the average American.

Jimmy Carter means to change all that. As President, he will make government responsive to your needs.

Tax Reform: "The average family in this country actually pays a higher proportion of their income in taxes than the average family that makes more than a million dollars a year. That's disgraceful. We need to move toward a truly progressive and simplified tax system, with reduced tax rates for the average American."

Economy: "We'll never have a balanced budget nor an end to the inflationary problems as long as we have 7-1/2 million people out of work. Employment needs to be the major thrust of the whole domestic policy of our government."

Efficiency in Government: "We now have in the federal government the most bloated, confused, wasteful bureaucracy ever created. There's no way to get an answer out of Washington and no way to understand what's going on there. We need to reorganize completely the executive branch of government, making it fair, efficient, effective, and responsive to our people's needs."

Housing: "No government that cared about our neighborhoods would stack the tax deck against them. A landlord can let a building run down and make a good living on tax breaks. But when a home owner spends a little hard-earned money fixing up his home, the assessor raises his taxes. And the FHA no longer cares about families getting started in their own homes. I intend to restore the FHA to the time when, for a down payment, a family could get a mortgage which the government would insure."

Health Care: "We need a nationwide health care delivery system which will make adequate health care a right for all people."

Jimmy Carter has the strength to take charge of our government. If you are tired of paying the high price of Republican ineffectiveness, you have only one choice on November 2nd, and that choice is for change.

Lightnings and Sidelights FROM THE State CAPITOL

by Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Texas goat and sheep raisers cannot hunt golden eagles in Texas, the U. S. Interior Department has ruled.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe's request was rejected last week.

Briscoe stirred up something of a storm last month when he asked Interior Secretary Thomas E. Kleppe to grant blanket authorization for stockmen to hunt eagles in 31 counties of West Texas.

Lynn Greenwalt, director of the Interior Fish and Wildlife Service replied to Briscoe. He said the request was turned down under a policy of former Secretary of Interior Walter J. Hickel which concluded in 1970 against blanket authorizations.

The golden eagle is protected under a special federal act.

The Interior policy referred to by Greenwalt permits consideration of requests from individual ranchers who can demonstrate that they need to hunt the protected birds.

Briscoe requested authority to shoot the eagles after ranchers complained about increasing numbers of the birds near the October 1 beginning of the lambing season.

Ranchers claimed the migratory birds would cause heavy losses in newborn lambs and kid goats.

An outcry was raised subsequently from groups seeking to protect the golden eagles from wholesale attack by outraged ranchers.

Share $212.2 Million

Texas cities and counties spent a combined total of $212.2 million in federal revenue sharing funds during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975, Comptroller Bob Bullock has reported.

Bullock said cities spent 72% of their $132.2 million for capital improvements and the remaining 28% on operating expenses.

He said counties spent 62% of a $79.9 million allotment on capital improvements and 38% on operating expenses. Transportation accounted for 26% of the revenue sharing fund expenditures by both cities and counties.

Bullock reported August state expenditures of $408.4 million ended the state's 1976 fiscal year at a total expenditure level of $6.2 billion, an increase of $826.4 million over the previous year. August revenues were $633.5 million, closing the fiscal year with total revenues of $6.6 billion—a $917.1 million gain.

Consumer Food News

College Station, Tex.—Short pecan and raisin supplies will raise prices on those holiday-baking items, but plentiful dried prunes can help alleviate the situation somewhat, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt says.

Wet weather in California's San Joaquin Valley caused the raisin shortage which will result in price increases for that fruit, she added.

"However, dried prunes are plentiful—with production estimated to be 7% higher than last year. In many recipes, dried prunes can be substituted for raisins."

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Lower prices may be in store for cranberries as the season advances—with production above last year's crop to such an extent that it is the second largest on record, the specialist noted.

Economical fruit choices currently include apples, pears and grapes.

Top vegetable buys, in terms of economy and quality, are cabbage, cucumbers, squash, green peppers, dry onions and potatoes, Mrs. Clyatt said.

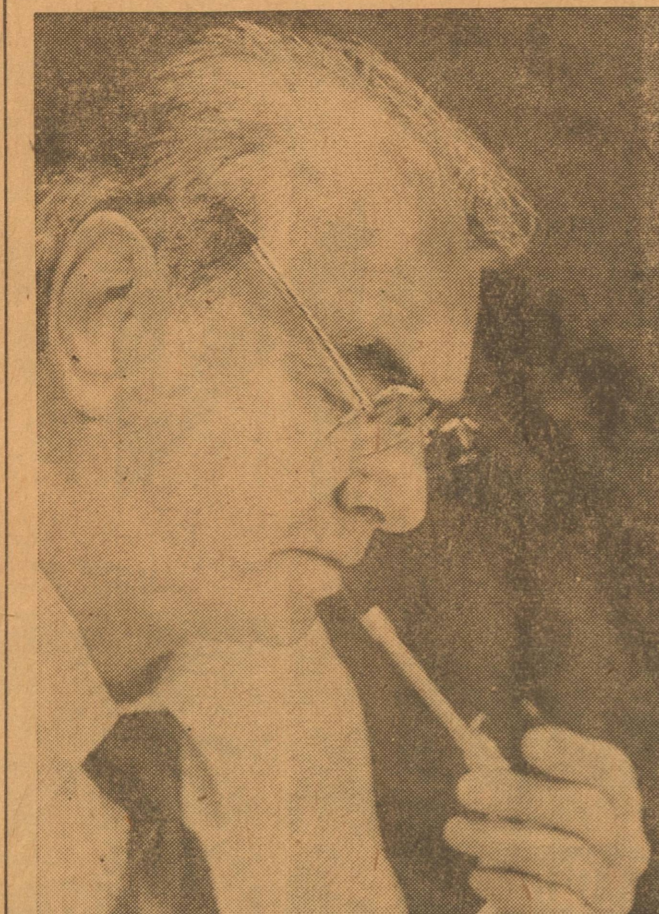

Greater potato acreage planted is increasing output to possible-record totals—all resulting in "attractive prices."

"Generally, the most economical potato choices are 'by-the-bag' if consumers can use that quantity," she added.

Head lettuce continues in the "high-price" bracket due to adverse weather conditions in growing areas recently, Mrs. Clyatt said.

"At poultry counters, turkey is in bountiful supply with larger-size birds carrying the lowest price-per-pound tags.

"Also, special prices appear on ryer chickens, since supplies are more than adequate to meet the demand now that the cookout season is about over.

"At beef counters, many specials are offered, so if consumers find a good buy on cuts they use regularly, they might consider buying extras to store in the freezer for use later in the winter.

"Cuts often featured currently are chuck cuts—both steaks and Luttrell To Retire From Highway Dept.

San Angelo, Tex.—J. Cullen Luttrell, Maintenance Construction Supervisor with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation (DHT) at Sonora, will close the active portion of a career exceeding 24 years on the last day of October. The results of that career, however, will endure as long as bluebonnets grow and pecan, live oak, and Chinese elm trees reach out welcome arms of shade along the busy highways of Sutton and Schleicher Counties. Cullen, whose fame as the "Bluebonnet Man" of the DHT spread nationwide after he won the 1972 Lady Bird Johnson Award for highway beautification, was planting bluebonnets long before such prominent recognition of highway beauty came into existence. Patient hand harvesting of bluebonnet seed, combined with carefully spaced plantings and management of right-of-way mowing to allow full maturity of wildflower seed, has spread the soft blue blanket of this Texas State Flower along many miles of right-of-way in Cullen's rugged maintenance terrain.

Agriculture Exempt From OSHA For One Year

College Station, Tex.—Something has happened in our nation's capitol which will be of interest to all agricultural producers as well as other businesses, notes Dr. Gary S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. As of Oct. 1, farms, ranches and other enterprises defined as "agricultural operations" who have 10 or fewer employees at any one time are exempt from all requirements under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) for one year.

"Annual attempts to amend OSHA during Congressional floor debate on an appropriations bill succeeded this year," points out Nelson. "Certain amendments have been attached to the appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare. All OSHA operating funds for fiscal 1977 are in that bill." The bill stipulates that no civil penalties would be proposed on first-instance OSHA violations (other than serious, willful or repeated violations) unless 10 or more violations are found, explains Nelson. The bill also exempts from OSHA coverage farms with 10 or fewer employees.

President Ford first vetoed the $56.6 billion appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare, including $130.3 million for OSHA, on Sept. 29, on the grounds that it exceeded by $4 billion the sum he requested for fiscal 1977. However, Congress overrode the veto the following day. The bill will provide $130.3 million overall funding for OSHA, including appropriations for the preparation of inflationary impact statements, education, research and consultation activities, and an increase of the compliance staff.

"Someone has said that it is differences in opinion which make horse races, and that is certainly the case here," contends Nelson. OSHA restrictions were designed to give some relief to small firms and small farms. OSHA estimates indicates 87.5% of all farms in the United States have 10 or fewer employees. However, some Congressmen hold that "exemptions, regardless of the number of employees, regardless of the type of industry, create a second-class group of American workers."

"Future resolution of these differences may be found in the rational use of cost-effectiveness studies which compare the cost of proposed legislation with the benefits received," believes Nelson.
