Century Mark Finally Reached

During the week end, the first real heat wave of summer came in and Sunday afternoon several thermometers registered 100- to 102-degree readings.

We have had an unusually cool Spring, with cloudy and cool weather prevailing through mid-May, and we did not have a late freeze to kill the fruit crop. Apricots and peaches and other fruits are now on the trees.

So we can look to the coming three months as being hot ones.

Dedication Set For Ft. McKavett Historical Trail

The Fort McKavett Historical Trail sponsored by the Concho Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America will be formally dedicated Friday, June 10 at 5:00 p.m. at Fort McKavett. The announcement was made by Don Treadwell, Council Historical Trail Committee Chairman.

The five-mile trail from Camp Sol Mayer to Fort McKavett was established by the Council so the youth of today may follow in the footsteps of the men of the 1800's and thus have a better understanding of how West Texas was settled.

The trail may be hiked by Webelos, Scouts, Explorers and Scouters. The requirements for earning the Fort McKavett Historical Trail Award are as follows: 1. Hike the entire 5-mile trail, 2. Camp overnight at Camp Sol Mayer, 3. Cook at least three meals, 4. Do a historical service project, and 5. Write an essay of at least 300 words on Fort McKavett. Upon completion of the requirements the participant may purchase a patch and/or trail medal for wear on his Scout uniform.

The Historical Trail Committee is composed of Frances Nixon of Fort McKavett, Frances Fish of Menard and Gully Cowser (Superintendent of the Fort McKavett historical site).

The first hikers of the trail will leave Camp Sol Mayer at 1:30 p.m. and will arrive at the Fort at 2:45 p.m. At 3:00 p.m. a special slide presentation will be shown and awards will be presented to those who helped make the trail possible.

The general public is invited to participate in the dedication ceremonies.

Consumer Food News

College Station, Texas.— Fryer chickens and dairy items have feature prices in some Texas grocery markets—along with beef and pork. Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reports.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Her summary of food supplies, quality and prices is as follows:

Poultry—Fryer chickens are among better protein values, whole bird more economical price-wise—also turkey parts low-priced at some markets.

Dairy—Cheese slices are on special more often, and some stores are featuring lowfat milk, sour cream, yogurt and variety of natural cheeses.

Beef—Values are on chuck roasts and steaks, also round steaks, liver, ground beef.

Pork—Compare prices between markets, as features are scattered. Some thrifty buys are end chops, Boston butt roasts, hams, bacon and weiners.

Fresh Vegetables—Most economical choices are carrots, cabbage, broccoli, corn, artichokes, head lettuce and potatoes.

Other good choices are cooking greens—mustard, collards, spinach and turnips and greens. Also, snap beans are more plentiful with better quality generally.

New crop items—with not-so appealing quality or prices yet—are watermelons, cantaloupes and honeydews.

Fresh Fruit—Most economical choices are grapefruit, oranges, pears, apples, bananas, pineapples and strawberries. New-crop peaches have small sizes, high prices.

Grocery Market Aisles—Items at special prices include pork and beans, spaghetti sauce, pasta products, peanut butter, catsup and mustard.

Frozen Food Containers— Look for features on meat pies, complete dinners and main dish items, orange juice and a variety of vegetables.

Consumer Watchwords— Before shopping, make a list, read ads for specials. When shopping, buy by grade and buy foods that are in season.

TYPEWRITER RIBBONS, for Royal, Underwood, and Remington—available at The Success.

Outlook Is Mixed Bag
Feelings are mixed at the Mission Screwworm Eradication Lab these days. The screwworm situation in Northern Mexico and Texas is so promising as to be almost worrisome. Gulf Coast ear tick prospects, on the other hand, could well be the worst ever. "Explosive potential" is the estimate of one experienced observer who feels, however, all is not lost because of the advent of a promising new defense against this malign partner of the bloodthirsty fly. But first, the screwworm situation. The current status is dramatically improved over that of recent years in Northern Mexico. "We've had an incredibly low number of cases there in 1977," declares Dr. Floyd Smith, USDA-ARS entomologist based in Mexico City. Expressing his confidence in the canber or producer insect reporting from the area, Smith insists that with the availability of sterile flies from the new Tuxtla Gutierrez insectary "we're no longer involved in a barrier program; it is an eradication program, now." He said reports indicate Mexico has had fewer cases to this point in 1977 than during any years except 1970 and 1966 since the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program was inaugurated at Mission 15 years ago. In recent weeks the new insectary at Tuxtla Gutierrez—where 'bugs' are still being eliminated from the production line and capacity output is still in the future—has been adding about 90-million sterile flies per week to Mission Lab's average production of 160-200 million. About 33-million per week are being showered on Baja California where the first major south-of-the-border eradication effort is unfolding. Dr. Bruce Mitchell, who covers Baja north of the 29th parallel from his home base at Douglas, Ariz., says cases there have been more than halved since January. "We're seeing a gradual reduction in cases, however, rather than immediate eradication, despite rumors to the contrary." In the state of Sonora, directly south of Arizona outbreaks have cut from 1,300 in 1976 to 370 so far this year, he says. Mitchell credits the improvement in part to more rapid communications from ranchers, many of whom are calling in their reports now, permitting the aircraft to begin hotspotting more quickly and more frequently. c

Vaccinate Horses Against Sleeping Sickness
Horse owners are urged to vaccinate their animals against equine encephalitis (horse sleeping sickness) which is often a serious problem as mosquito populations increase during warmer months. Effective vaccines are available. However, these are effective for only one year, so revaccination is necessary each spring. Combined killed-virus vaccines are available for eastern and western equine encephalitis (EEE and WEE) and also for eastern, western and Venezuelan (VEE). EEE and WEE occur seasonally in many parts of the country. VEE has not been diagnosed since 1971 when this foreign disease invaded south Texas. Research has shown that VEE has a complex natural history and many hosts. It isn't known which of these hosts may exist and harbor the virus in Mexico or the United States, or when the virus may re-emerge to affect either country. All three types of equine encephalitis (EEE, WEE, VEE) affect humans as well as horses. But there are some significant differences between VEE and the other two. Birds usually function as a disease reservoir, carrying the viruses of eastern and western encephalitis. Mosquitoes transmit these diseases from the birds to horses or humans. VEE, however, multiplies so rapidly in horses that mosquitoes biting infected horses at certain disease stages can pass the virus to susceptible (nonvaccinated) horses or humans. c

High Power Usage Forecast By W.T.U.

A long hot summer could produce some of the highest electric bills in years, West Texas Utilities Co. officials warned this week.

And according to some weather observers, official and otherwise, a hot summer is long overdue. West Texas, like much of the nation, has enjoyed five relatively cool summers in a row. The law of averages, therefore, would indicate a change.

One of the consequences would be more use of air-conditioning, requiring more electric energy. This could run bills up sharply.

There already are indications that customers may soon be jolted out of their summer lull. During the first 21 days of May, temperatures in Abilene averaged 5.81 degrees above normal and electric usage went up accordingly.

A change back to even the normal weather pattern could bring the impact of higher usage and higher costs, a company spokesman said.

Historically, the four peak months for electric usage in the WTU territory are June-through-September. The peak day usually comes in August. Last year, the system's electric load peaked at 5:00 p.m. on August 11.

Weather records for Abilene and San Angelo show that June through September temperatures have averaged below normal for the past five years. The result, WTU officials say, has been that the customers have grown accustomed to relatively lower summer electric usage.

WTU officials are not worried about meeting the energy demand. The company's generating system is adequate to supply all the electricity even on an extremely hot day. But they are urging customers to practice conservation in order to hold their usage and bills down.

The key to lower bills this summer will be efficient handling of home cooling. Proper ceiling insulation and adequate attic ventilation are two of the most important factors. WTU engineers also suggest that thermometers be set at 78 degrees, that houses be opened up to take advantage of nature's cooling when the outside temperature is less than 75 degrees, and that shades be kept pulled on the sunny side of the house.

They also urge that air conditioners be checked to see if they are in good running order, and that air conditioners not be left running if everyone leaves the house for a substantial length of time.

Highlights and Sidelights From The STATE CAPITOL

by Lyndell Williams
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Legislators headed for home this week, pronouncing their session a success in many areas.

They also departed amid warnings in both houses that the level of income will not sustain another 37% increase in spending without a major tax bill in 1979.

Lawmakers completed action on the record $15.5 billion biennial spending bill three days before the adjournment deadline, clearing the decks for late concentration on school finance and miscellaneous issues.

The session turned out a variety of anti-crime bills recommended by Gov. Dolph Briscoe and legislative leadership. Other crime-control measures were casualties of the session.

Lawmakers months ago allocated $528 million in additional funds to highway building and maintenance. The measure already has been signed into law by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Also signed early was the coal slurry pipeline bill giving operators of pipelines to move coal mixed with water authority to take needed lands for right of way.

The session saw a new record for filibusters—43 hours—set by Sen. Bill Mier of Eufess. The measure Meier attacked—to close certain Industrial Accident Board records to those who would seek to copy and sell them to employers—made it through the Senate.

Many thought the session also set some kind of record for dullness.

It seemed to convince nearly everybody there are too many bills introduced to take care of in a 140-day meeting, but no restrictions are likely in the future.

Short Snorts . . .

Charles Barden resigned as executive director of Texas Air Control Board, effective June 30, to enter private business with a consulting firm specializing in air pollution controls.

A 132-page report of the Texas Bicentennial Commission was presented to the governor.

Gross sales in Texas for the last three months of 1976 exceeded $43.3 billion, raising the year's total to $142.2 billion, according to Comptroller Bob Bullock.

State and federal leases in offshore Texas petroleum provinces produced 82,254 barrels of crude oil during March compared with 89,379 a year ago and 47,344 in February.

Gov. Briscoe said he is giving close scrutiny to the bill which would ban insurance and drivers' license penalties for speeding violations in the 55-70 miles an hour range.

Consumer Food News

College Station, Tex.—Beef, pork and poultry prices are higher in Texas grocery markets, but many vegetable prices are dropping, according to one report.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension service of the Texas A&M University System, prepared the following food buying summary:

Beef—Compare price and quality among scattered features, which include ground beef, a variety of steaks, rolled roasts, chuck roasts, and liver.

Pork—Good values, generally, on Boston butt roasts, center chops, quarter-loin cut into chops, ham portions, liver, bacon, and frankfurters.

Poultry—Look for features on mixed fryer parts and liver, although fryer chicken prices are higher due to seasonal demand. Turkeys and parts may be featured. Eggs still have low prices—with medium-size often the best value.

Dairy—Especially plentiful items include milk, cheese, butter and nonfat dry milk.

Fresh Produce—Prices are dropping on corn, tomatoes, cabbage, green peppers and cucumbers. Other worthy choices include head lettuce, carrots, soft-shell squash and cooking greens.

Strawberry season will peak within the next week or two—with lowest prices for the season likely.

Pineapple supply is fairly heavy, bananas have reasonable prices, and avocados and oranges have some features. Apple prices, however, are higher.

Grocery Market Aisles—Features include a variety of canned vegetables, cooking oil, macaroni, dry milk, peanut butter and tea bags.

Frozen Food Chests—Look for specials on strawberries and ice cream.

Consumer Watchwords: Follow the Three C's to make the most of milk money—keep milk clean, cold and tightly covered.

HEROES OF AMERICAN HISTORY

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In 1888, an enterprising lithographer proved the power of motivational labeling—and became the hero of the margarine industry.

At the time, the law declared that all butter substitutes must be enclosed in paper "with the inscription distracting extra—a portrait of a vivacious young woman imprinted above.

Commented the American Lithographer magazine: "The joke of the matter is, ninety-nine out of a hundred people imagine 'Margarine' is the name of

THE MAN WHO PUT THE PICTURE OF THE PRETTY GIRL on the margarine package was a hero to the oleo industry.

'Margarine' printed in the largest and boldest style of type."

The lithographer aided the oleo makers by supplying the field with wrappers headlined "Margarine" in inch-high letters, consistent with regulations, but with a the pretty young damsel."

This article is adapted from a packaging history series created by the St. Regis Paper Company in an effort to rededicate our heritage and renew our pride in our country's achievements.

TRAVEL WORLD'S MORE UNUSUAL SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

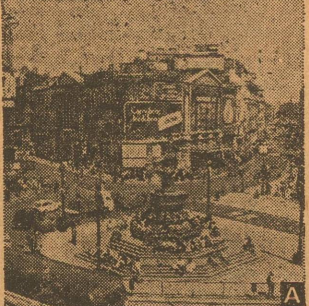

There's a place where you can enjoy world-famous night life at working-class prices, life-like waxworks of famous people, the Mother of Parliaments and the ancestral homes of the fathers of our country; where everyone speaks your language (sort of) and where the bargains could leave you speechless: Britain, "this other Eden," as Shakespeare called it in 1596.

There you can see the unchanging pomp and pageantry of the changing of the Queen's Guards, the magnificent Crown jewels, mysterious Stonehenge, and new or classic plays for about $6 a ticket.

An unusual way to get to these stirring sites is on an airline that offers some unusual sights and sounds itself. Silken sari-clad hostesses will greet travelers with Namaste, as they board an Air-India flight for Britain to the sound of the songs of England's exotic ex-colony, India.

Once you get there, Air-India has a wide variety of tours to offer. Three exciting motorcoach trips to the scenic and historic attractions of England and Scotland include outstanding hotels, deluxe motorcoach travel, knowledgeable professional escorts, meals and much more starting from $299.00 exclusive of airfare.

PICCADILLY CIRCUS, home of the world's most elegant food store and most famous statue of Love.

The fly-drive tours include a day in London and tours of both the English and the French countryside with a stop in Paris. They come with hotel accommodations with private bath and breakfast and a car for your complete freedom and flexibility, with land arrangement prices from $120.00.

With this kind of unusual helpfulness you may find it both easy and economical to enjoy "this blessed plot, this earth, this realm, this England."

Butterflies aren't Human

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Our 9A biology trip was a huge success. After we saw the museum's collection of rare lepidoptera, we went outside to collect specimens. Then we ate lunch, and took pictures. Here's one with me, on the left, laughing at Eddie. We were in a big discussion about whether or not butterflies can feel.

While our teacher exchanged notes with the curator, we sat around and talked. After butterflies, we started on missiles and rockets, and whether or not there's life on the stars. Somehow, don't ask me how, we got on the subject of God.

You know, I didn't realize how ignorant some kids are about Him! All of a sudden, I found out how good it is to have some ideas about where, what, and why, I am. A few of those kids were really way out in left field.

Now it's up to me to show them what they have been missing. I think I've talked them all into going to church with me Sunday.
