SON ALSO INJURED BY MACHINE

Mysterious Infernal Device Believed To Be Cause

AMARILLO, Tex., June 27 (AP)—Mrs. A. D. Payne, wife of a well-known Amarillo attorney, was blown to pieces, and her 14-year-old son probably fatally injured, today when the Payne automobile was destroyed by what police believe was an infernal machine.

The boy was hurled 30 feet into the yard. The chassis of the car was left intact and the gas tank was undamaged.

Looks Like TNT

Bits of wiring and pieces of dry cell batteries were found by detectives in the wreckage, and they said they believed either dynamite or some kind of powerful explosive had been placed in the automobile.

Payne had been a candidate for district judge but recently withdrew. He had participated as an attorney in several sensational murder cases in the Panhandle during the past year.

Tex. Thornton, widely-known nitroglycerine expert and oil well shooter of the U. S. Torpedo Company, inspected the wreckage and said positively the blast was not caused by gasoline or dynamite, but that either nitroglycerine or TNT had been used.

Mrs. Payne and her son were driving towards the downtown district and were about 10 blocks from home when the blast occurred. The boy's left side, next to the driver, was badly mangled. An arm and a leg were almost torn from his body. Police believed the infernal machine had been placed under the driver's seat.

All available men of the sheriff's office, police department and the district attorney's office were working on the case.

Roswell Man First To Use T&M Line

LOVINGTON, New Mexico, June 27.—To Charles G. Slater, wool buyer of Roswell, N. M., belongs the distinction of making the first freight shipment over the newly completed line of the Texas-New Mexico R. R. from this terminus.

The wool ranged in price from twenty one to twenty three cents. Wool growers here say that five hundred pounds will be shipped from Lovington this season.

CHICAGO, June 27 (AP)—Confidence that a new world's endurance refueling flight record for airplanes was in the offing pervaded the ground personnel at Sky Harbor airport today as the "City of Chicago" passed its 374th hour aloft at 6:40 a. m. The two Hunter brothers on the ground said their two brothers in the air would stay up as long as the engine lasted and that it should be good for 700 hours. Their sister today prepared the 16th breakfast to be taken aloft for the flying Hunter boys.

PORT ARTHUR MOB FAILS TO OBTAIN NEGRO

PORT ARTHUR, June 27 (AP)—A mob of approximately 300 failed to get Halsey Williams, 38, from police officers here this morning.

Siding the negro, who has confessed to eight attacks upon white women here in the past 30 days, the latest upon a young couple Wednesday night, down the fire pole in city hall, Chief M. B. Word and his officers successfully fought off the mob until the negro was placed in Fire Chief Enright's speedster.

After firing several shots in the air, the fire car roared out of the fire hall with the negro in the rumble seat. The officers were taking the negro to Beaumont for safe-keeping.

Fire Chief J. C. Enright had the motor of his speedster running and the negro was shoved into the rumble seat and the lid closed.

The mob made a rush for the car and had succeeded in opening the rumble seat and partly dragging the negro from the car when Officer Dewey Smith fired two tear gas bombs into the mob.

Two cars bearing members of the mob followed the fire chief's car in which the negro, Chief Word and Officer Dewey Smith were riding, but only for a short distance.

Word from Beaumont at 11:30 said that the negro had been lodged in county jail safely by the Port Arthur officers.

The trip to Beaumont, 22 miles from here, was made in 15 minutes. The victims, eight couples, were all attacked at different times while parked in cars on the Texas Company road, near the gate of the Gulf refinery.

The negro will not be given a preliminary trial due to high feeling here. He will be billed directly by the Jefferson county grand jury at Beaumont and tried there in criminal district.

Mitchell Waldrop, candidate for the congressional nomination from the 16th district, reported no receipts or disbursements.

30 DIE IN RIVER BED EXPLOSION

Lightning Ignites Dynamite In St. Lawrence

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 27 (AP)—Explosion by a bolt of lightning of several charges of dynamite placed in the rocky bed of the St. Lawrence River was blamed today for the death of 30 men, killed when the blast tore the drill boat, J. B. King, to bits.

Only 12 members of the crew of 42 were rescued. These were picked up by the U. S. coastguard cutter 211. Several of them were severely injured and were brought to hospitals here.

The drill boat which was owned by J. P. Porter and sons of St. Catharines, Ont., was engaged in blasting a channel through Brockville Narrows off Cocksburn Island on the eastern fringe of the thousand island group yesterday when the explosion occurred.

Several holes had been drilled in the rock and filled with dynamite and the day crew was drilling additional holes to place more dynamite when an electrical storm broke over the river about 4:30 p. m. Many of the night shift were asleep below the decks.

Witnesses said they saw a flash of lightning dart down to the boat, followed immediately by a terrific explosion. The air was filled with debris and the drill boat had disappeared.

Some reports were that there had been a large quantity of dynamite aboard the J. B. King which had been exploded by the blast. Luther Kuchensbecker, superintendent in charge of the work, who was ashore at the time said there was no dynamite aboard the boat. He said the explosion was caused by lightning following the steel drills which were working in the rock or wires leading to the charges which had been placed.

Leo Marion, an inspector of the public works department at Ottawa, who was one of those rescued, estimated there were three tons of dynamite in the drill holes and there also was a considerable quantity in the boat. He charged that an unidentified boat passed at the time of the explosion, but did nothing to aid in the rescue.

Among those rescued was G. L. Brown of Ottawa, a member of the night shift. He said he was asleep in his bunk when the explosion happened. He said he managed to reach a porthole and jump over board before the boat sank. He was picked up clinging to a piece of floating wreckage.

R. A. McNeil, foreman of the day shift, another survivor, said that the boat seemed to disappear from beneath his feet when the blast occurred.

Motion Picture Account of Byrd Antarctic Expedition Rises Above Other Cinema Accomplishments

The most powerfully human and yet the most utterly unusual motion picture spectacle it has ever been the opportunity of the American people to witness was presented this afternoon by the Ritz theatre. A Herald reporter saw it this morning.

It is Paramount's authentic real life story of the Byrd Antarctic expedition's two-year exploration trip into the sea frozen wastes of that little-known continent under the two.

Two Paramount cameramen were members of the expedition. They shot 26 miles of film. This was cut down to one hour and a half of the most absorbing entertainment the cinema has devised.

From the departure at New York into every important part and event of the trip, climaxing in Byrd's flight over the South Pole, one is held securely by this picture. Pathos, stark humor, grandeur, majesty and an over-powering realization that the world has been moving at an extremely dizzy pace surge through one as he witnesses it.

This is by no means a typical news reel. It includes eight reels. But their contents is the surprising thing.

Admiral Byrd talks to you at the opening of the play. You are carried along with the men in their labor, their joys, their sadnesses and conquests. You even are carried in the giant plane with Byrd, Balchen, Juse and McKinley on

150 ATTEND 4-H CLUBS' RALLY HERE

Howard County Boys And Girls Meet At City Park

Approximately 150 4-H club boys and girls attended a county 4-H club rally at City Park here today. Filled baskets of fried chicken and accessories were spread before the crowd. About thirty five gallons of lemonade was consumed by the crowd during the noon hour.

Lunch Served

Immediately after the lunch hour the group assembled for a photograph and to listen to a program from members of their own group. Sidney King 1929 winner of the Howard County clubs discussed how each local club was affiliated with the county organization and that with the State organization and the State organization with the National 4-H clubs and how boys could win State and National premiums by efficient work.

Hubert Hayworth also winner gave a brief report on his trip to the College and to the boy's encampment. A trip to A. & M. College during the Farmers Short Course is more than worth the effort required to win it, said Hayworth.

The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a 4-H club program being conducted by county agent J. V. Bush and county home demonstration agent Mrs. Lucille Allgood and words of encouragement were given by Manager C. T. Watson who spoke on the subject of "Doing Things".

Club members were exhorted by County Agent Bush to keep their records and complete their projects in order that those doing the most creditable work could receive State recognition. The afternoon was spent in playing games and telling stories for entertainment.

WIMBLEDON, England, June 27 (AP)—Gregory Mangin, New Jersey flash, today defeated Great Britain's ranking singles player, Bunny Austin, 9-7, 10-8, 6-0, in a match which lasted nearly two hours.

Young Mangin, in his first singles appearance on a center court, rudely shocked British tennis aspirations. The king and queen arrived just in time to see the closing phase of the match.

Mrs. J. L. Colgate and Miss C. Tyrell defeated Cilly Aussem and Miss M. Palfrey in the women's doubles, 6-8, 6-3, 7-5.

Gregory Mangin, of Newark, N. J., and his opponent, Austin, whom he vanquished, 9-7, 10-8, 6-0, got a moment's rest in their desperate match when the king and queen arrived.

The crowd stood and cheered and play was halted.

Henry Cochet, French tennis star, defeated H. K. Lester of Great Britain, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1.

W. T. Tilden of America and H. Timmer, of Holland, defeated Landry and Grandguillot, 8-6, 4-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Mrs. Helen Willis Moody defeated Miss M. Canters, Holland, star, 6-0, 6-1.

The king and queen stayed to see the contest. Miss Canters displayed a large variety of strokes against the world's foremost women's player but her combined effectiveness enabled her to win only one game, the third of the second set. As usual Mrs. Moody wasn't extended.

Wilder Allison and Miss Edith Cross paired to defeat G. E. Shewell and Miss V. H. Montgomery of England 14, 6-4, 8-2.

The youthful American pair of Berkeley Bell of Texas and Miss Mary Greef of Kansas City, found the experienced game of A. J. Willard of England and Miss S. Payot, the Swiss champion, a puzzle, the English Swiss couple winning 3-6, 2-6, 8-3.

WIMBLEDON, England, June 27 (AP)—Helen Jacobs, California star, today advanced another round in the Wimbledon women's singles championship defeating Mrs. W. D. Set of Great Britain in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1.

In the mixed doubles Elizabeth Iyan and J. Crawford defeated O. J. N. Turnbull and Mrs. J. E. Hill, 3-2, 6-3.

Wilder Allison, of Fort Worth, Texas, defeated G. F. Hughes of England, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3.

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—Bobby Jones now has the railroad running excursion trains on his account.

Southern lines asked Interstate Commerce Commission permission today to begin running special excursions at reduced fare from Atlanta and Athens, Ga., to New York beginning June 30, that his admirers might rally to welcome the golf champion back from his most recent conquests in England.

FORT WORTH, June 27 (AP)—The play of Leslie Mallon, Fort Worth's youthful second baseman, has attracted a number of major league teams but no price has been set on him, according to Ted Robinson, president of the Panthers.

"We aren't considering selling him," Robinson announced today, "and the report that we have set a price of $20,000 on him is all wet."

"Scouts of the Athletics, Yankees and Cincinnati Reds have followed our club looking Mallon and others over. They have asked for a price but we are playing this Texas league race and not selling ball players. I have never said what price I would take for his contract."

OAKMONT, Pa., June 27 (AP)—Phillips Finlay, Harvard, and Lawrence Moller, Notre Dame, were all even after the first 18 holes of the semi-final match in the intercollegiate golf championship, at 36 holes today and George Dunlap, Princeton, was six up over Winston Fuller, University of Southern California.

Gray county continued to lead other districts with ten completions nine oil wells and one gas well. Gray county's nine oil wells gauged 2,855 barrels and 35,500,000 cubic feet of gas.

PERMIAN COMPLETIONS
FORT WORTH, June 27 (AP)—New production and the number of completions in the West Texas Permian basin suffered losses during the past week compared with the previous week. Thirteen completions in the Permian basin, one of which was a dry hole, registered initial oil yield of 2,733 barrels and 7,000,000 cubic feet of gas.

During the previous week 21 completions in nine counties gauged initial output of 4,346 barrels daily. Sector county was one of the heaviest contributors during the past week.

BARBER'S HILL
HOUSTON, Texas, June 27 (AP)—Two new producers from the deep-sea sands have been brought in at Barber's Hill, but each was for a relatively small output. The Gulf Production Company's Wilburn No. 4 reached pay—250 barrels a day—at 5,134 feet and the McAlbert Oil Company's No. 6 Woodward flowed 540 barrels from 3,855 feet. The barber F. No. 1, completed a short time before, had an initial production of about 3,200 barrels, and from a later eight-hour gauge it was estimated as good for 4,200 barrels.

DAVIS TO LULING
LOCKHART, Texas, June 27 (AP)—Information has been received in Lockhart that Edgar B. Davis, multi-millionaire oil man of Campello, Mass., and Luling, Texas, will make his permanent home in Luling. Davis threw his dollar into a wild-cat well which developed a field which he sold for twelve million dollars.

It was not known whether the adverse judgment by which Massachusetts forced payment of $300,000 in taxes was the cause of his deciding to make Texas his permanent home. Davis has maintained a home in Luling, but has used it very little although keeping a few servants and a chauffeur ready at all times. He spends most of his time in New York City.

It was also reported that Davis would open offices in Luling and begin at once on the development of his large lease holding in Caldwell, Gonzales, Dewitt and Guadalupe counties.

The United North and South Development Co., of which Davis was the organizer, will retain offices in San Antonio, where they have been for some time.

BEE COUNTY
FORT WORTH, Texas, June 27 (AP)—That production in Bee county extended at least seven miles west of Petus was evidenced by production test on Graybug Oil Co.'s No. 1 Kimball which was estimated good for 400 to 800 barrels daily and looked upon as the most important development of the month in Southwest Texas.

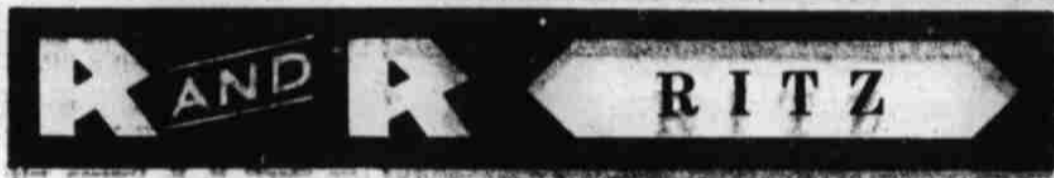

Graybug's No. 1 Kimball flowed 50 barrels of pipe line oil in four hours, but basic sediment with the oil removed in a separator, indicated the well capable of larger production when in proper condition. Oil tested 26 gravity at 71 degrees temperature and gas with the oil gauged 4,000,000 cubic feet.

The flow of 50 barrels in four hours was made through a 2-1/2 inch choke and for that reason was regarded all the more important.

The well is in the center of the company's lease in the southwest portion of the Steven Winship survey and is approximately three and a half miles west of Cosden's No. 1 McKinley in the John Pace survey which extended the Petus pool three miles west.

Another, interesting test in the same area, but 16 miles east of Graybug's No. 1 Kimball is Norman-Yoda's No. 1. Mrs. Fannie Perrina in the B. Ramos survey, Goliad county, which was drilled to 4,660 feet. Should production be encountered in the Goliad test it will open an area of 16 miles distance east and west.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Autryville, N. C.
Can you tell me of a Protestant history which gives the facts regarding the persecution of the different churches, Catholic and Protestant; also, when each was first started, and by whom?

persecutions of Catholics and Protestants in America. "The Catholic Protestant Mind," by C. H. Moebliman, is an interpretation of American Catholicism from the Protestant standpoint. "The Reunion of Christendom," edited by Sir James Marchant, consists of essays by representatives of different denominations. "The Social Sources of Denominationalism," by Richard Niebuhr, is a scholarly discussion of the economic forces which influenced the rise of denominations

"Catholicism and Christianity," by C. J. Cadoux, is a massive work on this subject running to 700 pages. "The Wars of the Godly," by Reuben Maury, deals with the Pittsburgh.

Consider the case of a woman who in youth lost her sense of truthfulness; in college lost the meaning of education; after marriage lost in turn her integrity, her lover, her husband's affection, her home, her social standing and her children's love. What losses can yet remain for her to suffer?

Your integrity represents an unusual instance. I have seldom if ever met with such a succession of moral calamities in one person. "He who loses his money," says an old Arabian proverb, "loses little." He who loses his honor loses much.

But he who loses his spirit loses all." Can you agree with these findings? Perhaps not.

Monetary losses are so real for many people that they conceive nothing more disastrous. Honor, truthfulness, integrity, what are these for Mammon worshippers? The mere cant of pious simpletons. But as the woman in the case has discovered, they are life's essentials and can never be violated with impunity. Taking the case as you state it, her condition is so desperate that I would not for a moment add to its burden. Reproach by a mere outsider is no remedy. Sympathy, rather than denunciation, instruction and not Pharisaism; these are her soul's medicine.

Conceding the full extent of her depravity, so long as she is contrite, she has not wholly surrendered to a desolate fate. Like Media in the ancient Greek drama, though stripped of everything, even of her children, she can say, "I have myself." The vitality of a living soul is still hers. By its right direction she may retrace the painful path to virtue and well being.

Marshall Foch's declaration is correct that no one can be defeated until he acknowledges defeat. The New Testament Gospel is sufficient for the redemption of the most abandoned offenders. From the first it manifested its power to lift the fallen, cheer the despairing and restore the penitent. God's ear is not deaf to this woman's appeal, nor His arm shortened that He cannot save her. Though her own heart condemns her, He is greater than her heart, and He does not condemn her. Christ's words to her weeping sister are hers also: "Go in peace, and sin no more."

Owego, N. Y.
(1) Can you give me any information about the present trend of the evolution theory?

(2) Will you also tell me what book or books I can get, suitable for my three boys—nine, ten and twelve years old?

1. Study "The Evolution of Earth and Man," edited by G. A. Baitsell, and published by the Yale University Press. It is a collection of essays by specialists who demand your close attention because they deal with large matters in a large manner. But their relation of facts is conservative, their reasonings on the facts are sound and their conclusions helpful.

The origin and age of man, about which you are specially concerned, is discussed in the light of the latest available knowledge, and the mental differences between him and the ape are described as immeasurable. The moral and spiritual attributes of the human race are said to have been of long and arduous development, a statement verified by our experience and also by revelatory scripture.

2. For the boys secure "The Children's Hour," published by Houghton Mifflin Company, Boston, and containing in ten volumes one of the best and most comprehensive selections of literature suitable for youngsters I have come across. The contents include folklore and fairy tales for the child's imagination, the myths of the ancients, accounts of legendary heroes, extracts from "Pilgrim's Progress," "Robinson Crusoe," "Gulliver's Travels," "Don Quixote," "Arabian Nights," Shakespeare and "The Book of Humor."

One volume is dedicated to "Out of Doors," another to "Adventures and Achievements," a third to "Poems and Rhymes" and a fourth to "Modern Stories." All are beautifully illustrated, and the whole collection is worthy of a prominent place in every household blessed with children.

HOW'S YOUR HEALTH?

BLOOD SUCKERS: Blood-sucking insects have been the greatest enemies of mankind. Mosquitoes, flies, ticks, bed-bugs, lice and fleas have been responsible for the transmission of some of the most devastating disease-afflicting mankind.

To list but the principal among these, we find mosquitoes spreading malaria and yellow fever. Blood-sucking flies spread sleeping sickness and typhus fever. Ticks spread Texas fever, lice, typhus fever; and fleas the plague.

Of the diseases listed, malaria is the only one now widely prevalent in the United States.

Malaria is spread by an Anopheles mosquito, which differs from the common pest mosquito (the Culex) principally in the position which it takes when biting. The Culex (non-malaria spreading mosquito) holds its body parallel, the malaria mosquito holds its body perpendicular to the rest of the surface.

Malaria is a disease peculiar to man. No other animal is known to suffer from it. Man and mosquito are the two living things essential to the life cycle of the malaria parasite.

Malaria has played a prominent role in shaping the history of the world. The decline of Greece is thought to have been hastened by the spread of malaria, and wide regions of the world are rendered uninhabitable because of malaria.

The southern states, because of many swampy regions, are chief sufferers from malaria. About 250,000 cases of malaria develop annually. Most of these are in rural sections.

Every case of human malaria must be considered a reservoir of infection to others.

Existence of Huge Radio Patent Pool Charged by Firm

KANSAS CITY, June 27 (AP)—In suit for triple damages of $0 million dollars filed here, the Grigsby-Grunow Company of Chicago, radio manufacturer, alleges the existence of a vast illegal pool of patents created in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The defendants name the Radio Corporation of America, the General Electric Company, the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company and others.

James A. Reed, Kansas City, former United States senator from Missouri, and Ernest R. Reichman of Chicago are attorneys for the complaining company.

The petition charges that the defendant companies illegally created a patent pool and thus illegally compelled payment of royalties in the sum of about $6,000,000 by the Grigsby-Grunow Company.

It sets forth that under the "tube lease" contained in the license agreement which the Chicago company received from the defendants, it was compelled to buy radio tubes and was prevented from engaging in the Vacuum Tube Manufacturing business until the clause was declared illegal by the United States district court of Elaware.

The petition contains many of the allegations made in a petition filed by the United States government in the federal court of Delaware on May 13, 1930, officials of the company said in announcing filing of the suit.

AN UNEXPECTED EARFUL

A NICE GIRL COMES TO TOWN

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD.—The capture of Hollywood by stage actors has brought about a peculiar situation which may lead to an equalization of immigration of screen folk headed for Broadway.

SYNOPSIS: Mary Lou Leslie is snubbed and deserted by Brynmor Whitmore the night of her arrival in London. The demure, trusting Mary Lou is hurt when he refers to her as a "nice girl." She resolves to have a good time despite Brynmor, whom she had loved devotedly.

GARY COOPER

Mary Lou Leslie is snubbed and deserted by Brynmor Whitmore the night of her arrival in London. The demure, trusting Mary Lou is hurt when he refers to her as a "nice girl." She resolves to have a good time despite Brynmor, whom she had loved devotedly.

A VANISHING EXTRA

Furthermore, the talkies continue to make things difficult for the extras. That is, for one class of extra, which in time should disappear.

He is the eternal hanger-one, who has no special qualifications for picture work, for talkies especially, and whose only hope of employment is the infrequent mob scene.

In silent pictures this type could find plenty of work, and the fact that he was uneducated, untalented, could not speak distinctly, made little difference.

Today he drifts from one casting office to another, seeking work in vain, and existing in semi-starvation. Eventually the fear of the wolf will drive him to seek more certain employment.

One I met recently had not worked a day in four months. Uncouth and rather picturesque, he had done fairly well in silent pictures, but the talkies had "got" him. He had tried without success to get a steady job.

Evans Is Elected Lamesa Lions' Head

LAMESA, June 27.—W. W. Evans, Dawson county agricultural agent, was installed as president of the Lamesa Lions club this week during its annual election of officers held Wednesday.

Chapter 9 SECRET BOGEYS

What's your secret bogey, Mary Lou? Tony inquired the following evening, as he drove her to the "freak party" at Gwendolyn Carruthers' home.

Mary Lou considered it. "Do you mean my real secret bogey, or the one I'm going to pretend tonight?" Tony chuckled.

"I have to reconsider you. You see I had you tabulated—nice girl from country, shy, unsophisticated, not bad looking..." "Stop!" cried Mary Lou, and kicked him on the shin.

"Wow!" cried Tony. "You've maimed me for life." "That's not half of what I'll do if you ever call me 'nice' again!" "Sorry," he apologized. "But let me finish. I said I was reconsidering you. Now I should tabulate you—little devil from country, looks shy but ain't, pretty, stunning dresser—kicks like a mule." He gave her a lopsided grin.

Mary Lou laughed aloud. "You're an idiot, Tony." "Thanks. But what is your secret bogey—seriously." "I think," she admitted, half shame-facedly, "it's falling in love with a man who doesn't love me."

"No fear of that. Not when I've finished with you. Look at the bit you made at the Hay's dance last night. I could scarcely get a dance with you."

"Nobly said," Mary Lou flashed back, "but I don't flatter myself you tried very hard."

Entire System Is Invigorated By It

"I feel strengthened and invigorated all over since I started Sargon. I haven't enjoyed such splendid health in 10 years. I sufferred with terrible stomach trouble. My nerves were unstrung and it was impossible to get a good night's sleep. Constipation added to my troubles and my whole system seemed poisoned. Sargon proved the very medicine I needed. My stomach is in fine condition, the indigestion is gone, I sleep good and feel fine all the time!

ponsible for the change. But Tony was taking of Gay Girl.

"She's a great little machine," he exclaimed enthusiastically. "I'd explain about her machinery, but you wouldn't understand. I'm just crazy to try a flight around the world in her."

"I'd start out from London, then to India and Australia—much the same route as Cobham took in 1928. Jove, that was a great achievement!"

DANGER HEADED OFF

Burke, Texas.—Mrs. Orea Crawford, of this place, tells of her use of Theodor's Black-Draught which she says covers a period of "a good many years."

"I have found it a reliable medicine to give the children when they get upset from over-eating, or have colds, for after taking Black-Draught they get all right in a little while."

"I use Black-Draught for bilious, sick headache. I have found that a dose or two, taken at night, will give quick relief for constipation and the complications which follow when that condition runs on."

The Parents' Responsibility

IN THIS DAY when so many parents are demanding that the government pass this, that or the other kind of law for the sake of the young people, it is a bit refreshing to hear Mrs. Mary E. Cassell, grand president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, express her opinion.

As mothers, should begin the enforcement of prohibition in the home," says Mrs. Cassell. "The reason that flasks are found in train compartments of college girls is because their mothers have failed them in their home training."

There are nine children and none of them smoke or drink. Any mother can do the same."

Radio Sets in Prison

IT IS INTERESTING to read that radio sets have been installed in the 3000 cells of the Illinois penitentiary at Joliet. They are tiny sets and they gave the prisoners programs that were selected by prison officials, so that the convicts were not able to exercise their own selection; but they brought in outside programs, just the same, and put the convicts in touch with the world they had left behind.

Without there will be the usual number of long-earred critics to protest that this is "coddling the prisoners," but one would suspect that these radio programs might make prison life even less tolerable than it was before. Would not a broadcast remind a prisoner with renewed force of the freedom he had lost? Would it not emphasize more painfully than ever the bars and walls that surround him?

The radio is doubtless a boon to these convicts; but it isn't an unmitigated blessing, by any means.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

The Desert Blooms

San Angelo Standard-Times: AND THE desert shall blossom as the rose.

It might have been speaking allegorically when he made that prophecy, but whether he was or not that bit of scripture has become a literally true prophecy this year: the famous Death Valley, that unbroken stretch of terror for so many travelers.

Death Valley's 150 miles of barren, parched and sizzling sands took frightful toll of human life in the covered wagon days of the 50's, and the usual inch or two of rain it receives is not enough to tempt even hardened toads and lizards from slaying, there during the summer.

This spring, however, rain fell for 15 consecutive days during May, and suddenly the burned and lifeless sands burst into bloom with myriad wild flowers. Death Valley has become a riot of vegetation and color. Botanists have counted more than 100 varieties.

Where did these flowers come from? Apparently from millions of seeds that have been blown into the sands during the years and have lain dormant.

Eau Claire Man West Texas Milk Products' Manager

LAMESA, June 27.—W. M. Whittkamp, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, who was manager of the Eau Claire Milk Products company at that place, has been employed as manager of the West Texas Milk Products company, 3200,000 powdered milk factory here, directors of the company announced this week. He has appeared on the programs of the Lamesa Luncheon club and the Lions club and spoke both times concerning the plant here. No date has been set for the opening of the new industry in Lamesa.

MARKETS

WOOL BULLETIN

BOSTON, June 27 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin of Boston tomorrow will say:
The wool market is less active and hardly so optimistic, in consequence of the sale of some low-priced fine tops, induced, it is believed, by general commodity and stock market conditions. The majority of the trade, however, believe that the market is fundamentally sound and that even though the heavyweight season be far from successful, the last half of the year will see a better business.

Foreign markets are low and generally in favor of the buyer, although Australia kept surprisingly steady this week. European markets were waiting the opening of the London auctions July 8, when offerings of 155,000 bales are expected.

Activities in the west are gradually subsiding. With 85 per cent of the new clip moved, this is only natural. Prices are at the top as the season ends, 25 cents being paid for the best Montana clips.

Mohair is slow and prices hardly changed at about 40 cents for original adult Texas hair. Wool quotations:

Parking Space To Be Sold Near Airport Next Week

As a means of financing the Air Show, which is to be held here July 4 as a feature of the Oil Men's Jubilee, a charge for parking space will be made, it was announced today.

Although the show, itself, is free, it was considered by those promoting the show, that a charge for automobile parking space was reasonable. An attendant will watch all cars that are parked.

According to the officials the charge had to be made in order to raise money for the cash prizes and expenses of the show.

John Blaine, manager of the air show, was scheduled to go to San Antonio this morning to invite army pilots here for the celebration.

A number of privately owned planes and barnstorming pilots are expected to attend the show and enter the various air contests.

Cosden And Richco Clash Sunday In Playoff Battle

And what tough times there are ahead, Workmen were busy today enlarging Dusty D. for the Sunday afternoon tilt between Cosden and Richardson, the first game of two to decide the winner of the first half of the city league. We don't have to draw on our imagination any, and we don't have such a great one anyway, to see Spike Henninger sitting out there on top of one of the stills whetting his knife for the boys across the track. J. C. Moore is certain he can take the Cosden suit for more rides than a monkey-round head. It looks like Dickenson. And it looks like Simms. Just exactly what Henninger intends to do with the infield Richco has gathered from far and near, isn't known. Cosden has signed a new catcher, and a new catcher was what Cosden needed the most of. Red Stanton has already captured Richco's catching job. The cherry looked led looks good and is no slouch with the rod.

We don't care about playing odd-man with this fellow Scarborough. He is the new manager of the Barbers and he won't have to play but one game. When we take to gambling we will pick such poor nicknames as J. C. Moore and Bode.

Lefty Baber was tired Thursday afternoon, and all of Lefty Baber's baseball players were tired too, so the T. & P. forfeited to the Barbers. They need umpired, and despite the fact that all he had to do was call the game and then declare it forfeited, he carried a baseball bat around and kept in striking distance the regular rate for umpire being $5 a day, he should be entitled to collect because he had done only what he could do. We bought him a pig sandwich and sent him home.

Bill Hoehn attended the meeting of the board of governors last eve. There were so many Richardson fellows down here we thought for a minute they were out of gasoline at the refinery and were endeavoring to get to the tank of the Spirit of Rebellion. Then they were in such good humor we thought maybe we were wrong, and that they had come down to fill up the tank. Evidently they were just here. When we left we didn't have any more or any less gasoline.

Sammy Sain has selected the men he will send against the invading Oilbelt aggregation July 3, 4 and 5. Look 'em over in adjoining territory. The cream of the pitching staff is there—Crouch, Dickinson, Simms, Vick, Poter and Rather. Sleep Baber. And hear is a choice morsel. Crouch has signed up with Richco. It will be remembered that Crouch left the Laundry some days before the Laundry blew up. He is a nice hurler, there is no question about that. And should be able to get along with the Richco outfit. They give support. And supporters are one thing that Crouch needs the most of.

Tinsley, the babbling brook of the City League has drawn a coaching assignment for the games with the Oilbelters. That means plenty. Tinsley can make lots of noise on the first base line. Lots of noise, about the grocery league in the olden days, and little ducks floating around on the pond.

LAMESA JOINS BASEBALL LOOP

LAMESA, June 27.—With the formation of the South Plains baseball loop, Lamesa has assembled a number of diamonds together to carry the Dawson county capital's colors to first place in the league. The team, under the management of Lewis White, who gallops around in right field during the games, is expected to leave a streak of victories on the season's schedule of fifteen matches. Members of the local team include Davis and McWhorter, pitchers, who will be backed up by Vaughn at the home block. Hatch and Mooncaster will stand guard on the initial corner while Joe Spikes and Therman will swing turns on the keystone bag. Peterson will be stationed on third while Gus White holding down short stop. The left pasture will be watched by Hilry Banta, former football star of Lamesa High School. Ragdale and Handle will take turns in center field.

BIOTER GIVEN BOND

DALLAS, Texas, June 27 (AP)—E. Briggs, charged with participation in rioting at Sherman May 9 when the courthouse was burned, was at liberty under $5,000 bond today. He was the sixth of 14 men held on similar charges to make bond.

TO DECIDE WINNER MON, Barbers to Meet Victor Of Sunday P. M. Fray

The big stills of Cosden and Richardson Refineries will be secondary Sunday when the two friends of the gasoline fraternity clash at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the first of a two game series to decide the winner of the first half of the City League season.

Cosden will meet Richco Sunday Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the winner of that battle and the Barbers will clash for the title of champions of the first half of the season.

That procedure of breaking a three way tie was reached at a meeting of the board of governors last night. Cosden, leading the league Thursday, was tied when the Texas and Pacific aggregation forfeited to the Barbers, and the Richco contingent was allowed a forfeit because the Laundry team was separated. The Bankers also won a game via the same route.

Managers of the three tough aggregations flipped coins to decide which of the teams would meet first. Scarborough, new manager of the Barbers, galloped through to his initial victory when he won the toss, while J. C. Moore and John Bode came out on the losing end.

It has not been definitely decided just how the league will be managed the second half. With the Laundry hoisting a white flag, five teams remain in the loop. It is possible the Mexican Tigers will join the aggregation if they can raise the shekels.

Regardless, no city league games will be played after Monday until the three game series with the Oilbelt League contingent is over with.

OLD GROVER CLEVELAND POUNDED FROM HILLTOP

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

That old ditty to the effect that it's not what a man used to be, but what he is on the ball at the present moment, had a new significance today for old Grover Cleveland Alexander, who apparently has reached the last outpost of a long and honorable career.

The crafty veteran, who stood major league batters on their heads for some twenty years, made his first appearance in the Texas League yesterday and was hammered from the hill by the Fort Worth Panthers, who are no respecter of personages. Notwithstanding that their new ace was driven out in the fifth, however, the Dallas Steers pounded their way to an 18 to 9 victory to square their series with the Cats.

Old Alec was unfortunate in picking one of the hottest days of the year to make his debut. The heat apparently affected him, as it did some 8,000 fans who turned out to give him a rousing send-off. For four innings the veteran did very well, but in the fifth the Panthers hopped all over him. Among the wallops off him was a homer by Joe Bonowitz, third Cat up in the first inning.

In coming back to win for Walt Tauscher who succeeded Alexander, the Steers displayed a world of punch. The team's revamped lineup clouded three Panther pitchers steadily, rolling up 18 hits and scoring in every inning. Their attack reached its crescendo in the seventh, when nine runs crossed the plate. Gene Moore and Frank Tobin each smacked two homers, Moore poling one in the seventh with the sacks loaded.

Alexander's heralded premiere, however, only served to detract attention from the fact that the Wichita Falls Spudders have started out to play tag with the field again. The first half champs slammed out their second straight victory over Shreveport, 9 to 1. While Lester White limited the Sports to seven hits, the Spud swatsmiths made merry with Morrell. Fitzgerald led the way with a triple, double and single.

The Houston Buffs kept pace by scoring their second win over the San Antonio Indians, 10 to 3. It was an easy one. The Bisons swatted Smith and Mallickey lustily. Kaufman and Lucas hitting homers with men on, while Joe Brown gave the Lowers their only earned run in the first frame.

Beaumont also kept their second half record clear by taking a 12 to 4 verdict from Waco. The exporters knocked Wachtel from the hill in the fifth and then finished up on Thurman. Among their 17 hits were homers by Easterling and Wade. The Cubs got Denny Burns out of there in the fourth, but Mallet stopped them cold the rest of the way.

CORNELL WINS VARSITY RACE

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 27 (AP)—Cornell once again rules the inter-collegiate seas.

Cornell has waited fifteen years to pick up the thread of victory cut short by the end of Pop Courtney's regime, and has been buffeted about while a new generation of rowing greats, featuring Washington, Columbia and the Navy, came along to dominate the waters.

Yesterday, through the rough water and the mist that partially shrouded the Hudson, Cornell came back with a startling rush to capture the four mile varsity race, defeating eight of the finest crews the East, Middle West and Far West could produce.

With a sophomore, Robert M. Wilson of Montclair, N. J., stepping in as a substitute to play a Frank Merriwell role as stroke, Cornell rowed to victory in one of the biggest upsets in the history of the regatta. Syracuse turned up with almost equal unexpectedness as the only serious challenger while the highly favored crews of Columbia, the 1929 champions; Washington and the Navy, each three time winners, struggled far behind.

Cornell whipped Syracuse by a good three lengths as these two old rivals fought it out alone in the last mile. Scarcely less surprising was the performance of Massachusetts Tech, which set a sensational pace for nearly two miles, yielded doggedly to Cornell's rush and still had the stuff to finish a good third. M. I. T. was five lengths behind Syracuse but in front of all the pre-race favorites as California, Columbia, Washington, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin finished in that order.

Navy, as the climax to the most afternoon the sailors have ever experienced in what is usually their own special element, swamped them within 100 yards of the finish and went down.

YANKS HAVE TOUGH TIME Athletics and Senators Have Won Games To Keep Pace

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees have won seven out of their last ten games without improving their position, for Washington and Philadelphia have each won eight out of ten. The Athletics are a game and one half ahead of the Senators with the Yankees another half game back.

The Yanks won yesterday after a struggle with Cleveland. The count was 13 to 11, and nine of Cleveland's runs came in the last four innings after the Yanks had piled up a heavy lead.

Philadelphia and Washington were victors by big scores in a day which produced 106 hits by the eight American league clubs and 67 runs. The Athletics made 13 blows, eight of them for extra bases, off Sammy Gray and defeated St. Louis 8 to 3. Washington, scoring seven runs in the first inning.

Even the humble Boston Red Sox did some heavy hitting, attacking Al Thomas of the Chicago White Sox for five runs in the fifth inning and defeating the pale horse, 9 to 7, for the sixth time in succession.

The New York Giants outdid anything the American league could offer by piling up 20 hits to beat St. Louis, 13 to 4.

A slip by Phil Collins, until yesterday the league's leading pitcher, gave Pittsburgh the first game from Philadelphia, 1 to 0. He wound up while Brickell was on third and let the ball slip from his grasp. Before he could recover, the one run was in and he lost the game although he gave but four hits. Every Pirate clouted the ball at least once in the second game to bring an 11 to 5 decision.

The highly heralded struggle of the Titans between Brooklyn and Chicago turned into a demonstration in honor of Dazzy Vance which put the Robins two full games in the lead with a 7 to 1 triumph. Brooklyn drove Charley Root from the mound with five runs in the second inning.

If Your Brain Seems Sluggish You Need Your Iodine

If your mind is sluggish, your perception slow, and your imagination dull then you probably haven't had your iodine today.

Rapidity of action, keenness of thought, brilliancy of imagination, quickness of perception and soundness of judgment depend a great deal upon the thyroid gland...

Iodine is taken into the body by eating, drinking and breathing, so it may be said that food, drink, and air are the purveyors of the necessary raw material to the thyroid.

The chemical, iodine, was discovered by Courtois in 1812 in the ash-ec of seaweeds. Its character and properties were further investigated in 1814 by Guy Lussac.

Start Every Day Right By Awakening Appetite

Occasionally we hear someone say, "My breakfast the year around is always the same."

Of course we all know how easy it is to drift into the habit of serving familiar dishes over and over again when we are busy and do not plan our meals ahead of time.

However, there are many delicious fruits, cereals, hot dishes and breads that can be used to help make this important first meal of the day much more interesting.

Vegetable marine life, such as Irish moss, agar agar and kelp, all edible, contain much iodine.

The greatest amount of iodine is found in shellfish, clams, oysters, lobsters and shrimps, with cod, halibut, shad, bluefish, mackerel, haddock, herring, and yellow perch ranking next.

Three Ways to Use Eggs in Making Self-More Beautiful

BY EDNA KENT FORBES Out of the many varied uses of the homely and inexpensive egg I shall list three today for the benefit of the beauty seeker.

For the complexion, particularly for wrinkles and sagging muscles, one is to make the scalp healthier.

We might take the hair first. Take two eggs, separate the yolks and the whites. An hour before you intend to shampoo your hair rub the egg yolks on the scalp.

Now you have two egg whites left. One is for a face mask, the other you can use for a lotion to wave and set the hair.

As a face mask, first rub the skin with the cleansing cream, remove with a hot wet cloth, coat the face thickly with the egg white.

For the lotion, rub the egg white over the hair, press into waves. As a face mask, first rub the skin with the cleansing cream, remove with a hot wet cloth, coat the face thickly with the egg white.

Texas Fire Loss Is Over Half Million

AUSTIN, June 27 - Fire destroyed $777,704 worth of property in Texas during May in cities that reported the losses, but still this year was good enough to win the prize of the state fire insurance department.

For its cut in half the $1,157,663 fire loss toll of April.

"The Texas fire insurance department attributes this reduction to the relentless war that is being waged against careless fires, vacant house fires and incendiary fires."

It wants to commend the city officials and the citizens of Texas for the stand they have taken for fire prevention.

Twenty of the May fires were attributed to incendiaries, with 1088 of $44,268, and 132 were of unknown origin, destroying $37,080 of property.

Other principal losses were in 32 fires from electricity, with $37,000 losses; 21 from vacant house fires, costing $35,666, and 27 from stoves and furnaces, costing $32,530.

their hazardous 18-hour flight upon which the ears and hearts of the world was centered.

You even watch the tiny American flag, tied to a stone from the grave of the late Floyd Bennett, as it falls down, down, down a half mile from the hitherto unseen skies of the polar region onto the pole itself.

You see the near-fatal accident that occurred early in the party's stay in "Little America" when a man was precipitated from the ice barrier into the icy water by the caving of a piece of ice.

You see the dumb heroism of "Bey" leader of the dog pack, as he, lame and ill, slips away and follows his mates and their masters as they skim over the white wastes 400 miles from the base to establish an emergency base prior to the polar flight. You see him as he takes his "Last Mile" and is shot, perforce, because he cannot go longer and cannot be left to suffer further out there alone.

You see Gould's geological party as it finds the 17-year-old cairn built near the pole by Amundsen. You feel the heartache and the sheer man-to-man pathos as the "City of New York" steams away from the ice barrier, leaving 40 men to live or die, conquer or perish for more than a year.

38 KILLED IN STORMS

By The Associated Press

Forty-eight persons were killed yesterday and last night in electric, hail, and rain storms that swept down over Ontario, Newfoundland and the northeastern section of the United States.

At Brockville, Ont., thirty were killed when lightning fired explosives aboard a drill boat in the St. Lawrence river.

Four passengers were killed and one was believed to have been fatally injured when a passenger coach of a train bound from Winnipeg to Toronto plunged into the flooded Vermillion river at Capreol, Ontario.

Also near Capreol, the engineer of a freight train and six men, believed to be train-stealing riders, were killed as the train ran into a washout and was wrecked.

Several trains were stalled and many motorists were stranded by landslides and washouts at Sudbury, Ont., but no lives were lost.

A hail storm sank 30 boats at Lumsden, N. F., and three fishermen were drowned.

Two were drowned when a gale overturned a boat at Buffalo where buildings were unroofed, and a 35,000 barrel oil tank was fired by lightning at Olean, N. Y.

Lightning killed a 9-year-old girl near Hackettstown, N. J., and a farmer near Carlisle, Pa. Heavy damage was reported in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and other Atlantic seaboard states.

Scenic Drive Becomes West Texas Show Place

HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy

Take a good look at the picture to the right. Where would you say they were taken, if you had not read the cut lines?

Not in Colorado, or Davis mountains or some other world-renowned spot. But just outside the city limits of Big Spring.

Scenic Drive!

After all these years of wondering why that driveway could not or had not been repaired, smoothed and advertised as an unusual park, a beautiful driveway, the folks have, under stimulation furnished by the Chamber of Commerce civic committee, put up the money and labor necessary to do a lot of work on it and to make it possible for motorists to drive over it without damaging their cars.

It is extremely important that Big Spring people reserve an entire Pullman car for the trip of Friday and Saturday to Lovington, N. M., for the celebration of the completion into that city of the Texas and New Mexico Railway.

Big Spring will, more or less indirectly, receive much benefit from this road. Big Spring should do everything possible to promote cordial relations with the potentially rich and rapidly developing southeastern section of New Mexico.

McKee Fails in New Trial Plea

Motion for a new trial, filed in 106th district court, Lamesa, Thursday morning, by Ira McKee, convicted and sentenced to death Monday for the murder of W. R. Billingsley last May, was overruled by Judge Gordon B. McGuire. Nine days was allowed defense counsel, Harvey B. Sheard, to prepare bills of exception and statement of facts to be used in resorting to the court of criminal appeals.

Two witnesses were examined this morning. F. Lowrie and John Earl were questioned. Dee Hull, a juror in the trial, also was put on the stand and questioned as to his qualifications as a juror.

Sheriff Jess Slaughter went to Lamesa Thursday morning to aid Dawson county officers in handling the crowds expected to be present this morning when Ira McKee was brought into the courtroom. McKee was given the death sentence this week for the murder of a Sparenberg merchant.

CAMPAIGN RESULTS IN NEW VALUE

Legend-Laden Mount Circled by Smooth Roading

Scenic Drive, long known locally, by oftentimes only incidentally, became a permanent Big Spring institution meriting pride and promotion as a civic asset Thursday noon when "Scenic Drive Day's" feature, program on the summit, was held.

Under direction of the civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by B. F. Robbins, a large number of men, women, boys and girls, gathered on the mountain early in the day, the men armed with picks, crowbars, shovels and rakes and the women with good things to eat.

Much Work For four weeks the committee had been working tirelessly and had kept ten men on the payroll for three weeks. Thursday an appeal was made to citizens, asking that they donate personal labor. The response was gratifying.

Mayor J. B. Pickle, Shine Phillips, J. S. Winslow and Mr. Robbins spoke at noon during the "chuck-wagon feast."

"Know Big Spring" should be every citizen's motto, the mayor declared.

Mr. Winslow, a pioneer resident, told the folks how the town appeared from that summit but a few years ago and of the almost unbelievable changes.

Mr. Phillips suggested the drive be named "Robbins Drive," honoring the chairman of the committee, which has led the improvement program, obtaining donations from business firms and individuals.

Women Help Women of various churches donated their services in preparing and serving the noon-day meal.

Mr. Robbins expressed gratification at the response given the movement. He also asked that thanks of the committee be extended the following for the donations listed: Ross Nursery Company and Piggy Wiggly, barbecuing; W. O. Wooten Grocery Company, coffee and tar-paulin; Helpy-Selfy, pickles; White House Grocery, onions, cakes; Home Bakery and Ditta Bakery, bread; West Texas Candy Company, I. H. Hamlett, manager, two boxes of candy; Ross Nursery Company, ice water, melons; beans donated by Mesdames A. M. Ripps, W. R. Pursler, Shine Phillips, Alice Phillips, Horace Taylor, Fox Strippling, ice donated by Southern Ice & Utilities Company.

Probably the least known of all State Parks in Texas, the Scenic Drive mountain to the south west of town is the most unique in this Western country, usually thought of as a flat monotonous plain.

Surrounded by legends it towers about 500 feet above the city which is slowly but surely extending its slopes.

The Scenic Drive mountain is so named because of the incomparable view to be had from its flat stone top.

For years it has been the goal and destination of walking parties who struggled over its foothills and up its steep sides.

It has always lured climbers from the city—in rags, and on foot, and then in cars which lurched and bounced over its formidable rocks.

During the administration of P. Neff as Governor of Texas, the mountain was bought from its owners and donated to the State as a park.

Governor Neff made a special trip and a picnic was held in his honor at Cottonwood Park east of town. He was carrying on a campaign of state wide improvement, which included conservation of the natural beauties of the state.

Graciously the state accepted the gift from Big Spring and as graciously she forgot all about it.

Bills introduced for its improvement and recognition have repeatedly been voted down in the house. It is a state park only to those who helped make it so in 1922.

For many years pilgrims climbed its sides with chisels and hammers

HEAVY RAIN NEAR HERE

Dust Laden Wind Puts Rural 'Phones Out For Day

Swept by a north wind, the worst sand storm of the year visited Big Spring and Howard county Wednesday afternoon.

Although the storm was of short duration, the wind was of high velocity and sand swept through business houses and residences.

Wires were blown down between Big Spring, Ackerly and Lamesa; the three points today.

Plate glass windows in the Big Spring Printing Co. building were blown out during the storm.

The sand brought an abrupt end to the City League ball game, fans leaving the grandstand when the structure rocked in the wind, and sand swept the field.

Rain was reported to have followed the sand storm in the northern part of the county. A slight relief in hot temperature, which prevailed Wednesday, was noticed after the storm.

BROWNWOOD BANK CLOSES

BROWNWOOD, Tex., June 26 (AP)—The Brownwood State Bank, of which O. C. Walker is president, failed to open for business today. Officials stated that unusually heavy withdrawals the past week, and especially yesterday, prompted the directors to close the bank. The bank was nine years old and had capital and surplus of $82,000.

STORY OF FIRST ASCENT OF SCENIC DRIVEWAY BY MOTOR RELATED BY BUSINESS MAN

Some twenty years ago a large red Buick, with nickel-plated gas lamps and bracing rods and a conspicuous absence of doors, struggled up a small hill in the Edwards pasture.

It made the top, to the cooing admiration of veiled and ulstered ladies perched high on its red leather seats.

The driver pushed up his goggles and squeezed the bulb of the large nickel plated horn at his left side.

It was the first car to attempt Scenic Drive.

The next hill, being a little higher, stumped the car.

It began to roll backward and the ladies squealed in pretty fright. But the driver put on his brakes, jumped out and placed rocks under the wheels and raised the hood. He took a large rubber syringe and from a container in the car, filled it with gasoline. Then he injected this syringe-full into the carburetor, closed the hood, removed the rocks and they were off.

They made the next hill without difficulty, but the performance had to be repeated some ten or more times before the very summit was reached. But the view was worth it—they had reached the top of Scenic and from their panting vehicle they could see miles and miles away.

This story was told by a business man in Big Spring, who was the first to place his car on top of the mountain and who built the first road up its rocky stubborn sides.

HOOVER'S VETO OKED

House Sustains President Relief Bill

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—The House sustained President Hoover today in vetoing the world war veterans' relief bill.

The vote for upholding the president was 188 to 182. A two thirds vote would have been necessary to override Mr. Hoover.

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—President Hoover today vetoed the world war veterans' relief bill.

In an emphatic message to the House, he repeated his protests that the act was unjust. He said it added but little to aid wounded or disabled war veterans.

"I want a square deal between veterans," he wrote, "not unjust discriminations between special groups, and I do not want wasteful or unnecessary expenditures."

The House heard the detailed objections with a readiness among the Republicans to sustain the veto. Steps to substitute legislation meeting White House approval had been taken.

Consideration of substitute legislation designed to overcome Mr. Hoover's objections to the original measure began immediately.

World Premiere Of Byrd Picture At Ritz Friday

"What do you mean, world premiere?" a dubious reporter asked when Manager J. Y. Robb of the Ritz theatre said that playhouse would be the first in all the world to exhibit "With Byrd at the South Pole," the motion picture account of the noted explorer-aviator's expedition into the Antarctic, which ended only last week.

But, Mr. Robb furnished sufficient proof of his statement. He explained the nation-wide release date of the picture is Saturday but that he had been able to get Paramount's permission to open it here Friday, when his regular program calls for a change of pictures.

It is a well-known fact in motion picture circles of the southwest that relationships between Paramount and the R & R Theatres, of which the Ritz is one, are unusually cordial. This has been created through many years of daily business dealing between the two concerns.

The picture was filmed in the Antarctic, through the 18 months of operations there by Byrd's men, by Joe Rucker and Willard Vanderveer, members of the party. It has been termed by those who have witnessed pre-views as a daring and fearless photographic achievement on the part of the cameramen and as the most significant historical contribution to date by the motion picture industry of America to the peoples of the world.

PLANE NEAR NEW YORK

Southern Cross Flies From Harbor Grace, N. F.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 26 (AP)—The coast guard radio station here reported that the Southern Cross was 100 miles east of Portland, Maine, at 1:30 p. m. E. S. T.

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Droning through skies which cleared as it approached the coastline of the United States, the Southern Cross was almost half way to New York today in about seven hours of flying.

Squadron Leader Kingsford-Smith and his comrades were over Halifax at 11 a. m. (EST), having covered in seven hours and fifty-five minutes a distance of a little more than 500 miles as the crow flies.

This indicated that they would traverse the approximate 1,200-mile distance from Harbor Grace, N. F., where they took off at 3:05 this morning, to Roosevelt Field, N. Y., in about 15 hours, landing at their New York goal soon after 6 o'clock tonight.

The plane was sighted clearly as it hurtled over Halifax an hour before noon, and the markings on its fuselage could be discerned plainly. It had been seen at several points along the way.

Kingsford-Smith planned to stop only for a few days, perhaps two or three, in New York before resuming his journey to San Francisco and consummating a virtual round-the-world flight for the plane which is conqueror of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 26 (AP)—(By The Canadian Press).—At 8:15 a. m. E. S. T. the Southern Cross reported she was thirteen miles off Scotia Island, the easternmost tip of Nova Scotia. A dense fog was reported off Canto, and indications were that Captain Kingsford-Smith would follow a course well to the west of the coast of Nova Scotia.

PORTLAND, Me., June 26 (AP)—The radio operator of the Southern Cross took time off to "get a snack" at 7:45 a. m. E. S. T., today after sending more than thirty private messages to a commercial wireless station, the naval radio station at Cape Elizabeth reported.

The operator left his transmitter running and his key closed, so that signals from the plane continued.

No position was given by the Southern Cross.

BIG SPRING LODGE NOT AFFECTED

Account of Officer In Another Bank Was Carried

CINCINNATI, June 26 (AP)—The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks National Bank failed to open for business today.

First information that the institution would not open came from a notice posted on the institution's door saying the bank was closed. The notice was signed by a national bank examiner.

Audit Completed William Taylor, Cleveland, federal bank examiner, recently completed an audit of the Brotherhood Bank and on last Monday

The local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks will not be affected by closing of the Brotherhood bank in Cincinnati. R. V. Tucker, its secretary, told the Herald Thursday after having the Cincinnati dispatch read to him. The local is one of the largest in the southwest. Its members being attached to division superintendent's headquarters of the Texas & Pacific Railway company.

Two changes were made in the official personnel of the bank shortly after directors said the institution was in sound condition. Michael G. Heint was named vice president succeeding Lyman Morris, resigned, and William L. Luebke, was appointed assistant cashier in place of Harry Rosenblum who also resigned.

Closing of the Brotherhood Bank came sixteen days after another Cincinnati bank, the Cosmopolitan Bank & Trust Company was forced to close on account of the $1,000,000 speculations of A. W. Shafer, former district manager of the U. S. Doherty Company.

The Brotherhood Bank recently announced it had increased the rate of interest paid on deposits from four to five per cent.

Deposits at the bank were said to total $4,800,000 and after the change in officials was made Monday the board of directors said depositors withdrew over $1,000,000.

The unusually heavy withdrawal was the reason given by the directors for closing the bank. They said they voted to shut down the bank and place the assets in the hands of the comptroller of currency for liquidation.

J. J. Castillini is president of the bank.

Owned By Clerks The majority of the bank's stock is owned by the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees, of which there are 120,000 members in the United States. The bank was established at a convention of the Brotherhood held at Dallas in 1922. The local building was constructed immediately and opened its doors in 1923.

Many labor unions were said to have deposits in the bank.

A statement issued March 27 gave the bank's capital stock at $400,000, surplus $100,000 and undivided profits $65,000. Deposits on that date were $4,740,381. A sum of $400,000 had been made against contingent liability. The loans and discounts amounted to $3,143,565.

Among the assets were bonds and securities estimated worth $1,033,743. Total resources were given at $5,559,363.

The book value of the stock was listed at $141.48 a share.

National bank examiner "Red" Shafer had an account with the Brotherhood Bank but did not disclose whether it was a large or small sum.

The district attorney said he believed the bank should pay out satisfactorily.

RECEIVER NAMED

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—J. W. Pole, comptroller of the currency, appointed Ira Fulton, a national bank examiner, today as receiver for the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks Bank which closed its doors in Cincinnati.

TESTIMONY UNDER WAY AT LAMESA

Rangers Ready For Any Emergency; Widow Heard

LAMESA, June 26.—Two star witnesses, Mrs. Emma Mayhall, alleged companion of Ira McKee on the trip on which W. R. Billingsley is alleged to have been killed by McKee, and her nine year old daughter, Ida, testified this morning in the trial of McKee on a charge of slaying Billingsley.

Both witnesses declared emphatically that McKee had forced Mrs. Mayhall, at the point of a gun, to accompany him on the trip from Breckenridge to Sparenberg, where the killing took place and then back to Ranger, where the woman was arrested.

At times Mrs. Mayhall exhibited considerable excitement as she answered questions and replied to the cross examination by Harvey E. Shedd, defense counsel, with much heat. Efforts by cross examination to impugn the character of the witness were met with dis-

COURTROOM, LAMESA, June 26.—Armed guards stood watch during last night around the city hall here, where Mrs. Emma Mayhall, one of the state's star witnesses in the murder trial of Ira McKee, is confined.

A report had been received by officers, it was learned to-day that some one had been prowling suspiciously around the building. Mrs. Mayhall had noticed these persons, and warned officers, it was reported.

Heavily armed guards also are on duty at the county jail, where McKee is held during recesses in the trial.

Captain L. C. Wright, Texas rangers, is said to have a machine gun here, ready for any emergency. All officers are equipped with heavy service revolvers. They also have a supply of riot guns.

denials of temper and vehement denials. "He threatened to kill me," Mrs. Mayhall's reply to frequent questions by both sides as to why she had accompanied McKee on the trip.

The woman testified that at Sparenberg, McKee had stopped the car.

"He said to leave the engine running," she testified after saying he "wanted to see a man."

On his return after she had heard "three or four shots" she testified McKee had said, "a man knocked me down and I had to shoot him. But don't you tell or I'll kill you."

Mrs. Mayhall detailed events of the trip from the time she said McKee came to her home in Breckenridge and threatened her if she didn't accompany him to Hobbs, N. M.

LAMESA, June 26.—Details of the holdup and shooting which resulted fatally for W. R. Billingsley at Sparenberg, Dawson county, the night of May 1, were related on the witness stand in district court here at the trial of Ira McKee, charged with the murder, by two of the victims of the holdup, the daughter of the owner of the filling station and the widow of the dead man.

Objection after objection was made by Harvey P. Shedd, chief defense counsel, to introduction of testimony. Judge Gordon B. McGuire of the 106th district court, for the most part overruled the objections.

"I distinctly saw my husband shot," Mrs. W. R. Billingsley, the widow, stated at the outset of her testimony Thursday night. She was the first state witness to be used, a change having been made by Thomas L. Price, district attorney, in his plan to first use Mrs. Emma Mayhall.

"He was lying on the concrete at the time," she stated, adding that the concrete in question was the "porch in front of the cafe."

"I heard three gun shots fired before I got there," she continued. "I stopped when I heard the fourth shot fired."

Mrs. Billingsley said she was "15 or 20 feet" from the man in whose hand she saw a pistol and who had fired the shots at her husband.

"I saw him down on the concrete and I saw this man shoot," she continued. "He was down on the concrete. This man says 'I don't guess that you will think I am lying now,' and then he walked away."

Candidates For County Officers Pushing Causes

Howard county politics—abetted by a Saturday crowd and a blazing sun—picked up in Big Spring yesterday.

With swarms of rural residents in the city for the day, candidates for various offices took advantage of the opportunity to distribute the now familiar bits of cardboard.

As the July primary sweeps nearer, candidates for contested offices are in the heat of a summer campaign. Indications are that equally as much interest will be manifested in the second primary, which the Democratic Executive Committee approved, as in the first.

Considering the entire ticket, the office of tax collector seems to be the most hotly contested. Created when Howard County's census passed well over the 10,000 mark, it has become popular with those seeking a public office.

Six in Race
Six have announced for the place. The two leading ones will go into the second primary in what is predicted to be a close race for the office which was removed from the supervision of the sheriff.

H. R. Debenport, county judge, has two opponents. J. D. Cunningham and H. C. Hooper, seek the post which Judge Debenport has held for seven years. Voters of Howard county first named Judge Debenport to the office November 3, 1923, and he has been reelected at following primaries since that time.

Interest in the one-man race for district and county clerk seems to center around the point of whether the two offices will be split in the general election.

Unlike the procedure followed in the separation of the offices of sheriff and tax collector, the offices of district and county clerk can be split into separate divisions only in the general election. Votes cast in the governor's race, multiplied by five, are considered. Should the total surpass the 4,000 mark, the two offices would be separated.

Unopposed
As matters now stand, J. I. Prichard, incumbent, will be elected to serve the county again for the next two years. Prichard has been at the helm of this department for 28 years, having been elected first in 1902.

Z. G. ... has an opponent in W. A. Prescott for the office of county treasurer.

John G. Whitaker, Big Spring attorney, is opposing James Little, incumbent, for county attorney. Pauline Cantrell, county superintendent, is opposed by R. F. Lawrence for county superintendent of public instruction.

With one exception, two or more are seeking places on the county commission. W. B. Sneed is the only candidate for that office in precinct number four. O. C. Bayes and Frank Hodnett oppose each other for commissioner of precinct No. 1. Pete Johnson and Charlie Robinson, seek the place for precinct No. 2. J. O. Rosser and George G. White are making the race for commissioner of Precinct No. 3.

Justice of Peace
John Williams is opposing Cecil C. Collins, incumbent, for justice of the peace of Precinct One, and three—John Williams, J. H. Ogden and W. M. Nichols are in the race for constables of precinct No. 1. Williams is the incumbent.

George Mahon, district attorney, Jess Slaughter, sheriff, Anderson Jolley, tax assessor, and J. F. Ory, public weigher, go into the first primary July 26 without opponents.

The political pot as it simmers also issues quite a bit of discussion in the congressional race. Two El Paso residents—Marvin L. Burkhead and R. E. Thomson—are after the office, and E. E. (Pat) Murphy of San Angelo is seeking the seat. Claude B. Hudspeth, former resident of El Paso, has thrown his support to Murphy.

Penrose B. Metcalfe, incumbent, goes to the primary unopposed for representative of district 21.

Scouts To Launch Viking II, Nailess Boat Made Here

The Viking II, bravely painted and sporting a gigantic Indian head on its prow, will be launched by the scouts of Big Spring Troop No. 1.

The Viking is a boat made by the boys under the direction of E. B. Ribble. It weighs but twenty pounds and will carry 350 pounds.

The boys have tried it out with that amount of weight and it still had a good half foot above water. It is only two feet in height and is twelve feet long. It cost the boys only $4.75 complete.

Stimpy made it, is a framework of light wood covered with canvas and chinked with tar. It has not a single nail in it with the exception of the keels used to secure the canvas around the top. A wooden keel holds it steadily upright. Oars, or more properly, paddles, were made by the boys by whitening out two light planks.

Chamber Officers Put On Grid At Meeting In Park

Unusual Program Is Given By Younger Men

You learned a lot about the Chamber of Commerce, its officers and directors, and more of what it has done, still more of what it ought to do if you attended Monday evening's open membership meeting at City Park.

The program was in charge of younger members of the chamber, and they put over a good one.

Plenty To Eat
Preceding the speech feast sandwiches, potato chips, iced tea, ice cream and other typical picnic edibles were served, and in copious quantities, to several hundreds.

Officers and directors were the targets of the verbal barrage thrown up by G. R. Porter, master of ceremonies, and a formidable troop of eloquentists. Among these were George White, H. S. Faw, Elmo Wasson, L. W. Croft, Dr. Wofford Hardy, Stanley Cosden, E. F. Duncanson, Itay Simmons, Joe Kuykendall, and "Count Von Alman."

Others otherwise, Jim Smedley, linguist, painter, auditor, A. Big Spring man, who spoke in his native Swiss language. The final speaker, the guest of the evening, was Paul T. Vickers, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce.

Messrs. White, Faw, Croft and Hardy made brief reports of the work of the past quarter by the agriculture, new industries, civic and publicity committees.

Mr. White closed his talk with the statement that efforts to make Big Spring a branch of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association had been discouraging due to lack of interest among farmers and business men.

Faw Talks
Mr. Faw mentioned Cromwell Airlines' entry into Big Spring as one of the chief new industries of recent arrival. He pointed out that smaller cities that have become industrial centers have done so with local capital and that, right at this time, Big Spring capital is not idle due to recent rapid growth of the city. This growth called for huge expenditures for construction.

Mr. Croft mentioned the clean up, paint up campaign, and the current effort to finish improvement of the Scenic Drive. His talk was interrupted by the arrival of "Count Von Alman," under escort of a state highway officer, whose motorcycle opened traffic from the city for the "Count's" automobile.

Croft urged the citizenship to take part in Scenic Drive Day Thursday.

Elmo Wasson outlined tactics of the membership committee, saying that new firms and residents were interviewed about becoming members. He said there were a little more than 400 members of the chamber, and that the budget tallied approximately $18,000.

Publicity
Dr. Hardy's publicity committee report included the statement that 4,360 news stories had been sent by the Chamber to newspapers within the past quarter. This included, however, the stories furnished from here for The Associated Press, by its local member.

The publicity committee sponsored the purchase and awarding of emblematic cups to winners in the Intercollegiate League basketball tournament last winter, said Dr. Hardy. He mentioned the publicity given the chamber by local newspapers, calling attention to the growth in their respective circulation.

"The Count"
Mr. Porter then introduced "Count Von Alman." The "count" proceeded to give the folks the fruit of his recent under-cover investigations in Big Spring into the private affairs, the public records, and especially the short comings of the directors, who sat on the speaker's stand.

Mr. Cosden's topic was "Who Is President of the Chamber of Commerce, and If So, Why?"

"Hard-working people and members of the Chamber of Commerce" was his salutation to the crowd.

"Until I became a part of this vast gathering here tonight I confess I did not know who was president of the Chamber of Commerce," he continued.

VERDICT IS REACHED IN 35 MINUTES

Sisters Faint, Defendant Smiles On Hearing Fate

LAMESA, Tex., June 24 (AP)—Ira McKee was under sentence of death today for the slaying of W. R. Billingsley, merchant of Sparenberg, last May 1. A jury last night deliberated only 35 minutes before agreeing on a verdict of death.

Although McKee smiled when the verdict was reported, his two sisters in the courtroom fainted. Billingsley was killed during a holdup, and McKee was captured near Athens. A motion for a new trial was being prepared.

(Special Correspondent)
COURTROOM, LAMESA, June 23.—Arguments in the case of the state against Ira McKee, charging him with the slaying unlawfully of W. R. Billingsley, of Sparenberg, this county, began at 4:20 o'clock Monday afternoon and were to be finished before midnight.

Up to the time of recess for supper, which came at 5:30, two attorneys, one for each side, had spoken. Adjournment was until 7 o'clock which three more were to be heard.

Sented in the court room with attorneys for the state were Mrs. Kate Billingsley, widow of the slain man, his two daughters and young son. Mrs. Billingsley wept frequently at the reference made to her husband's memory.

The other side of the table sat McKee. For a part of the time his 3-year-old niece, daughter of Mrs. Nell Johnson, a sister, sat on his lap. Besides Mrs. Johnson was his older sister, Mrs. E. L. Sherwood and two cousins.

Captain W. L. Smith, state ranger, with A. M. "Buck" Bennett, chief deputy sheriff of Dawson county, sat as guards of McKee.

The state was represented by Thomas L. Price, prosecuting attorney for the 106th district. He was assisted by A. E. Gibson, county attorney of Dawson county and J. E. Garland, employed by J. C. Billingsley, a brother of the dead man, as special prosecutor.

H. B. Shead, of Hobbs, N. M., a former attorney of Fort Worth, was chief defense counsel, with James P. Willis, formerly of Oklahoma City but now of Hobbs, as associate.

Judge Gordon B. McGuire of the 106th district court heard the trial of the case.

Judge McGuire announced at the close of the rebuttal that he would give each side two and a half hours for argument. At a conference of attorneys it was decided to give the case to the jury tonight.

J. E. Garland opened for the state with a 45 minute talk, followed by J. P. Willis for the defense.

After their recess A. W. Gibson opened for the state. He was followed by H. B. Shead, defense chief and the district attorney, Thomas L. Price closed.

The courtroom was packed with an interested crowd. Despite the heat of the day not more than half of the more than 500 persons in the court room left for the noon recess. They remained throughout the afternoon until opening of argument.

Large Crowd
During the evening recess an even larger crowd remained in the court room. Many persons sent boys out to nearby restaurants or soda fountains for refreshments.

It was learned that the court denied the request of defense counsel for instructions on the matter of self defense. This plea had been pressed privately by attorneys and was to have been made only in argument. Judge McGuire held it was not a proper defense.

Instructions to the jury indicated the possible findings as; death or life imprisonment, for murder with malice aforethought; for two to five years imprisonment for death without malice; Mrs. Emma Mayhall is to be considered as an accomplice with a corroboration of testimony or insanity.

Pink L. Parrish Withdraws For Clint C. Small

LUBBOCK, Tex., June 20 (AP)—Senator Pink L. Parrish of Lubbock wired the Lubbock Journal from Austin today that he was withdrawing his candidacy for governor and would support Senator Clint C. Small of Wellington.

Senator Parrish's candidacy was filed by Crosby county friends and today's statement was his first since his return from Toronto, Canada, where he was attending a Shrine convention at the time his name was certified for a place on the primary ballots.

CHILLICOTHE, Texas, June 20 (AP)—Senator Thomas B. Love, candidate for governor, said today he was glad Lynch Davidson had withdrawn his candidacy for the nomination.

He said he was surprised that Davidson had broken with former Senator Earle B. Mayfield and former Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

Davidson said in his statement that it would be disastrous to elect Mayfield or Ferguson or me, Senator Love said.

"I cannot understand why he should include my name. In the three last campaigns Lynch Davidson, Earle B. Mayfield and Jim Ferguson have been the Siamese triplets of Texas politics. In 1924 when I was battling to keep Ferguson out of power, Davidson and Mayfield joined with Ferguson when he was running in his wife's name and helped him get control of the state. Again in 1928 when I was battling to drive Ferguson out of power Mayfield was as silent as the grave and Davidson divided up the anti-Ferguson vote as a candidate himself. Refusing to attack Fergusonism because he wanted its support if he should get in the run-off.

"Again in 1928 when I was battling to keep Tammanyism (which is Fergusonism on a national scale) out of the White House, Ferguson, Davidson and Mayfield were all united under the leadership of John J. Raskob in trying to put Al Smith in the White House."

The court also reversed and remanded the case of Fount Wallace, Baptist minister, at Troupe, April 16, 1928. He was sentenced to serve three years. The reversal was granted because of objectionable testimony.

It was claimed at the trial that Wallace had had improper relation with Mrs. Wilson. In its opinion the appeals court held the trial court erred in allowing a woman who visited the Wilson home following the shooting, to testify that Mrs. Wilson had told her she was not the cause of the altercation.

Wilson was a garage man at Troupe.

Ed Pryor, convicted on a charge of robbery in Wichita County and sentenced to serve eight years, was given a reversal and the case remanded because of the failure of the court to grant a second continuance.

The court reversed and remanded the cases of H. E. Fulgham and Laney Sexton, Collin county, conviction of violating the Sunday closing law. The two were charged with operating a motion picture show.

The court held the case reversible because of the failure of the state to name the proprietors of the picture houses in the action.

Overruled The motion of Jake Ross, convicted in Hill county of the murder of Walter Lewis, October 12, 1929, for a rehearing was overruled.

The case of John Ainsworth, Eastland county, was reversed and remanding the case of Charlie Hinds, Mason county, convicted of furnishing intoxicating liquor to Rufus Beasley. He was sentenced to one year.

The convictions of D. B. McCall, San Saba county, and E. L. Wallace, Gregg county, for violating the medical practices act, were affirmed.

$148 IN FINES

Violations of several ordinances enriched the city coffers by $148 last week, according to the weekly report of Corporation Court proceedings drawn up by Judge Tracy Smith.

Five paid fines of $13.70 each for drunkenness. Eight traffic law violations netted $3 each. Fines of $15 each were paid by seven charged with gaming. One charge of simple assault netted $13.70, and one charge of vagrancy resulted in a fine of $9.

ACTIONS OF JURY LEAD TO DECISION

Woman Tried Second Time Given 99 Years

AUSTIN, June 25 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the case of Leah Bailey, sentenced to serve 99 years by a jury in Midland county on a charge of murdering Dan Horn, Ward county peace officer. The appeals court reversed the judgment and remanded the case because of misconduct of the jury.

First In Ward The woman was tried originally in Ward county but the court of appeals reversed and remanded the case for trial to Midland county.

It was alleged by the defense at the trial that Horn was shot while he was searching a rooming house occupied by the woman. It was claimed the shooting was done in self-defense after Horn had threatened to strike the defendant.

At the first trial, a sentence of 99 years was assessed. The court held the jury was guilty of misconduct because it discussed the sentence that had been assessed when the case was tried originally although no evidence of the sentence was adduced at the second trial.

Horn was shot March 25, 1928.

Another Reversal The court also reversed and remanded the case of Loys Wilson, convicted in Smith county of the murder of Fount Wallace, Baptist minister, at Troupe, April 16, 1928.

He was sentenced to serve three years. The reversal was granted because of objectionable testimony.

It was claimed at the trial that Wallace had had improper relation with Mrs. Wilson. In its opinion the appeals court held the trial court erred in allowing a woman who visited the Wilson home following the shooting, to testify that Mrs. Wilson had told her she was not the cause of the altercation.

Wilson was a garage man at Troupe.

Ed Pryor, convicted on a charge of robbery in Wichita County and sentenced to serve eight years, was given a reversal and the case remanded because of the failure of the court to grant a second continuance.

BIG SPRING DEMOLAY CHAPTER ORGANIZED IN 1915

BY CURTIS BISHOP When whispers of revolt first crept over France during the reign of Louis XV and men began to speak of destroying one another a religiously inclined Frenchman began the work that has earned him one of the most beautiful monuments ever erected for the dead, and commemorated him to posterity through the thousands of Order of Demolay that are today in existence throughout the entire civilized world.

The local chapter was organized in 1915 and was composed of only twelve members. Once during the decade and a half the organization most declined, but during recent years the Knights Templar of Big Spring have sponsored it and it has flourished until it is now composed of forty-two members. At a recent election Burma Barley was chosen a Master Counselor, succeeding Curtis Bishop, Victor Olsen as senior counselor, succeeding Herman Gensberg, and Elton Eblevin, junior counselor, succeeding Burma Barley, Roland Schwartzbach and Bill Turpin are honorary members.

As might be expected their mission is one of brotherhood, taken from the doctrines of the man for whom it is named. Almost all of its entire curriculum is devoted to social affairs, prominent among which are treasure hunts and dances. The local society has kept accurate minutes of every meeting which has been held since its foundation over a decade ago, and over two hundred have signed their names to the register.

The membership consists of: Lee Porter, advisor, Curtis Driver, former master counselor, Charles Frost, former master counselor, Herman Gensberg, former senior counselor, Frank Gensberg, Victor Olsen, senior counselor, John Gensberg, J. C. Pickle, Jack Gensberg, Harold Blue, Bill Gordon, Tom Dyer, Dyer Smith, Stanley, Bill Penn, P. K. Penn, Cecil, Bill Sanders, Gerald, Lawrence Fawcett, Frank Fisherman, Johnson, Scribe Alva Schulz, Hodges, Robert, Fred, Tom Blevins, Walter, Duane, Frank, Orr, Lane Hudson, Pless, Hugh, John Dunnagan, James, John Ratliffe, Dwight, Heblon, Charles Peck, Frost Johnson and J. Those who were expecting to attend the state-wide annual convention to be held at San Antonio, James Hatch, C. A. Johnson, Norma Barley, Herman Gensberg, Frank Gensberg and Elton Eblevin.

MARACAIBO LOSES TO M&B

Clouting Maroney and Young for 26 hits, Merrick & Bristow reaped out a 26 to 11 victory over Amstican-Maracaibo Tuesday afternoon in the Oilbelt League.

Meroney lasted four innings, and Young two. While M. & B. sluggers were having a merry time of it, Maroney and Young were settling the opposition down with seven hits. He got eight strikeouts while doing service on the slab.

Leading batsmen for the day were Hines with three singles, Gibson, a home run and a triple, Chapman a home run, one double and two singles, Lydis, a home run and a single, Chapman a home run and two singles, and Sledge, two doubles and a single.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Albuquerque, N. M.
I had to give up my fiance when I was afflicted with tuberculosis in an acute form. After long treatment I was pronounced a complete cure. Meanwhile my fiance married a girl who knew that he was still in love with me. Their marriage was not happy and she returned home. Now he is approaching me again, and as I never ceased caring for him I feel impelled to listen to him. What ought I to do? I've never believed in divorce. I may add that my home and family connections are the worst possible.

Candidly, I don't think your former lover is worth his salt. You fought a brave fight which taxed your patience and courage to the limit, only to find that he had taken advantage of your emergency to bestow his affections elsewhere. Had he been as true a man as you are a woman he would have waited for the outcome of your struggle. Instead of doing this he married a woman he did not love and so betrayed her happiness. I advise you to consult your pastor or priest and be guided by his judgment of the case. Personally I believe you should bid the fickle swain a long goodbye. And while you are about it, cut the domestic painter. Go forward on your own and do not allow your family to drag you down.

Brooklyn.
I am a college student and shall take my degree in the course of the next six months. Thereafter my course of post graduate study will occupy at least four years more before I am able to stand on my own feet. The fly in the ointment is this: I have suddenly come to the realization that a girl I have known for several years means everything in the world to me. In spite of all resolutions to do so I cannot keep her out of my mind, and if I should ask her to wait for me it would result in opposition among the many members of my family.

I do not know which way to turn. My ordinary supply of discrimination fails me entirely. I feel sure you are able to indicate a path of future action.

When in doubt follow the heart's best promptings, is a pretty safe rule in cases such as yours. So long as the girl you love "means everything in the world" to you, and she returns your affection and esteem, stick to her. Why should you banish her from your mind?

She is your guiding star, and provided the light she casts on your path is pure and inspiring, pay little heed to your family's remonstrances. They do not have to live with her and you do. They cannot determine what your life shall be and she may.

The love of a good woman is God's choicest gift after His own love, and this is bestowed on you and your adored one. Tell her all you feel. Get her outlook on the future. Probably she will answer you as Rachel answered Jacob in one of the Bible's classic stories. Four years ought to pass like an enraptured dream once you have settled the main question. Her companionship will illuminate every moment of the waiting period, and this should be filled with preparation intensified by the anticipated crowning of your lives in marriage.

I have known couples who tested out their love as you must do. It survived every change, overcame every obstacle and laughed at impossibilities. Those who possessed it went to the altar and completed their union knowing what they were about. Emulate their example of constancy.

Bristol, Conn.
I am a man thirty years old, who never had an opportunity of obtaining a college education. I would appreciate your suggesting some books which tell of the best English literature for me to study so that I can in some degree make up for my lack of higher education.

To select a list of books for another man, even great books, is not always a successful venture. For some Wordsworth's poems are dull and for others Plato's "Dialogues" are tiring. The best thing you can do is to get a bird's-eye view of the whole field from such volumes as Frederick Harrison's "The Choice of Books" and Saintsbury's "Short Sketch of English Literature." They give you a fairly clear idea of what the subject requires. In addition and by way of variation read Palgrave's "Golden Treasury" and Craik's "English Prose." Follow your personal inclination in choosing significant books. If you think you would prefer Burton's "Anatomy of Melancholy" to Pope's "Essay on Man," try out your preference. If "Hamlet" and "King Lear" are entertaining and "Measure for Measure" is unattractive, let it be so. Every man ought to be himself, even in his choice of literature. Why should he standardize reading? How any man can fail to love Dickens I do not know, but I do know men of brains and education who have tried to read "David Copperfield" and could not finish it.

So browse around under the leadership of the guides I have suggested. Keep to the well trodden paths in this large and diversified realm. Strive to like what they commend and if you cannot experience its fascinations, be honest enough to say so. You are to be congratulated on your love-books. They have a big hold on life's best things.

Barbers, Texas & Pacific Railway Clash Again Today

The City League got in a sand-trap Wednesday. Dusty D. looked like Don Alben was playing golf inside the fence. Just as the Barbers had pounded out eleven runs, it came and we grabbed the money sack and left after hearing Umpire Blievin announce no game. Which it wasn't. It wasn't even a good one before the sandstorm came. The Texas & Pacific lads were out for the afternoon, and didn't care about it. So this afternoon the Barbers and the Railroaders will be in action again in an effort to get the first half championship worked off.

Cosden is still on top. Richeo and the Barbers are deadlocked. Richeo probably gains a fray on account of the Laundry retreating. The Barbers probably will win from T. & P. this afternoon. So that leaves things just like they were yesterday. It looks like Richeo, Cosden and the Barbs will fight it out.

Schwartz Schwartzbach probably won't get another home run this season. He spanked one of Mr. Vick's offerings on the honor Wednesday and before the ball got back Schwartz had circled the bases and was sitting in the dugout waiting for the sand. Too bad. The sand didn't count. Neither did Hick's triple. And we forgot to mention, being Blievin called it no game he doesn't receive any umpire's fee. Can't pay umpires when they can't even keep the sand out of the pretty pasture to the eastward.

We almost forgot to mention the fact a certain Mr. Hall was the arbiter in Tuesday's game. Mr. Hall, for the benefit of the unknowing ones, distributes magazines in the morning and attends the Dusty D. rodeo every afternoon, including Sundays and holidays. He was the pinch hitter for Blievin that day, and when the battle was over mother said he couldn't think of anything worse than umpiring a game between the Laundry and Cosden.

"Oh, yes, Mr. Hall," we pointed out. "There could be lots things worse than that. Think of having to umpire a double-header between Laundry and Cosden."

Anyway the Steers won't be compelled to play football down in the smoken garden. The school board has purchased the high school an athletic field, and before long a stadium that will rival any high school one in this section will rise up toward the cloudless skies. That's a great relief. Spending the summer at Dusty D. isn't so bad, but we imagine the winters there are far from pleasing—especially so to one with an overcoat like ours.

Prexy Anderson's aid given us in the Abilene Reporter as to the football prowess of one Mickey Pool, Cosden infielder, was wasted away. We too were quite aware of the Abilene youth's gridiron record. The thing is, however, that if a baseball bat was used in football, Mickey wouldn't get very far. His hitting is far below what it should be. He socks them, but in the wrong direction and hasn't managed to straighten his slice out and send it down the fairway.

Word from The Field keeps trickling in. The boys expect to shain the City Leaguers more ways than a farmer can go broke raising cotton. They have assembled an array of sluggers out there, and it is going to take a nice hurling staff to hold 'em yale when they visit the West Texas metropolis July 3, 4 and 5. Crouch, Dickinson, Simms, Smith, Vick, Baber, Halsey—some of those huskies will have to be right.

We can match them in sluggers, having an infield position in some of these games is just like roaming around on a battery range during target practice. Several salvos of baseballs have socked their way through the infield since we've been a resident of this city beautiful. Several of the lads have caught fast ones in places where their gloves were not. Take Alken for instance. He clipped one in the mouth and we thought for a minute he had swallowed the orbit and the league was out another couple of dollars.

SANDSTORM DELAYS FRAY

Desert Party Ends In Third Inning Wednesday

A West Texas sandstorm—one of the latest with all modern conveniences—swept across Dusty Diamond Wednesday afternoon and halted the Barber-Texas & Pacific fray in the third inning when the Barbs were leading eleven to two.

The desert of the desert drove fans—all ten of them—to their carriages and prairie schooners and baseball players flitted from the field.

While Lois Madison argued between puffs of sand with Umpire Blievin that he should set a time, the Texas-Pacific aggregation was well on its way to town, the ball baggers had done a hundred yard dash down the highway, and the bases had been temporarily buried by the avalanche of sand from the northern part.

As a result of the abruptly halted fray the two teams will meet this afternoon in an effort to get the first half title straightened out.

With this game off the calendar, Richeo, Cosden and the Barbers, providing the Barbs cop, will start the playoff for the title of the initial half.

This afternoon's game will start at 3:30 o'clock.

MAGNOLIA DOWNS SUN

Behind the southpaw offerings of Lefty White, who buried his fifth shutout victory of the year, the Magnolia Oilers went into a tie with Merrick & Bristow for first place in the Oil Belt League by downing the cellar occupants, Sun, on a brief one-sided battle by the score of 9 to 0. White let the Sunmen down with three scattered hits, two of which were made by Davis.

The Magnoliamen opened their attack off of Winston in the first. Fletcher singled and went to second on McGath's sacrifice. Rainey singled to center for the first score.

The victors added three more in the third. Fletcher led off with his second hit of the day, a double to right. McGath singled, sending Fletcher to third, and both runners tallied on Ferguson's long single to center. Chester drove one far down the left field foul line that was a two base hit by ground rules in effect, Ferguson, scoring.

In the fourth a long triple by McGath and a four-ply swat by Rainey drove Winston from the mound and scored four men. Horton hurled the remainder of the game which was halted in the fifth inning because of a sand storm.

Rainey led the sluggers of the day with a single and a home run but McGath and Fletcher were close behind with two hits each. White struck out eight Sunmen. The victory placed the Magnolia left hander in a tie with his teammate Cramer for pitching honors in the Oil Belt, each having won 11 games and lost one.

NEW YORK—Brooklyn's bachelor pastor, who has several times described his difficulties in remaining unmarried, is to wed. The Rev. Dr. Henry C. Offerman, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, is engaged to Miss Grace Altenu, a beauty, who helped carry the daisy chain at Adelphi college. "All sorts of tricks are thought of to win the special interest of the unmarried minister," he once said. "I believe I could write down the names of 100 very sweet girls who have been suggested to me as wonderful possibilities for the paragonage."

MAXEY ROSENBLUM IS WINNER OVER SLATTERY

13,500 See Slapsie Maxey Capture Title

BY EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—Slapsie Maxey Rosenblum of New York stood fourth today as the new champion of the light heavyweights, conqueror of the only man who ever consistently gave him trouble during his amazing fighting career in three divisions.

Maxie has whipped the best of the middleweights, some heavyweights, and now he has accounted for the last of the 175-pound-top fighters who had held out against his ring attack.

Last night Rosenblum whipped Jimmy Slattery before a crowd of 13,500 in the International League ball park here and with the victory came the only championship he has ever fought for in ten years of battling outstanding ring men.

Five times before, the team of Slattery and Rosenblum furnished the feature attraction along various bypaths of ringland and in four of the engagements Jimmy, the pride of Buffalo's first ward, gained victories. Maxie won only one of all the men he has beaten, including Leo Lomski, Ace Hudkins, Jimmy Braddock, Dave Shands, Larry Johnson and Pete Latzo, only Slattery was able to come back and defeat him consistently.

But last night, before $5,000 worth of customers, Rosenblum gained his revenge by winning the title Slattery has held since last February when he defeated Lou Scozza here and gained general recognition as the successor to Tommy Loughran, retired from the 175 pound ranks to joust with little success against the heavyweights. The decision was close, gained by the award of two judges over Referee Patsy Maley's ballot for Slattery. A majority of the critics gave Rosenblum eight rounds, Slattery five, with two even.

There were no knockdowns although Slattery was staggered momentarily in the second and Rosenbloom was a bit wobbly from rights to the chin in the ninth, Slattery's best round. Both were marked about the face, Rosenblum with a bruise on his left cheek and a cut on the bridge of his nose, while Jimmy's lips were swollen and cut and his eye brows swollen. Maxie weighed 170 1-2 to Slattery's 166 1-2.

BOY GETS BALL
CHICAGO, June 26 (AP)—Hereafter a foul ball landing among spectators at Wrigley Field is legally a just ball for the Cubs—unless an usher grabs it first.

Municipal Judge Allegretti decided that yesterday in dismissing charges against a boy, who picked up one of Hack Wilson's foul tips and refused to surrender it to an usher.

"I don't blame you for taking the ball," Judge Allegretti said. "If one came my way at a ball game, why I'd grab it, too."

Record Crowd Attends Races

BY TED VOSBURGH, Associated Press Sports Writer

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—The biggest regatta in the annals of American college rowing drew a record throng to the banks of the Hudson here today.

Kente Rocks turned up from South Bend, apparently in greatly improved health, and accompanied by Jack Chevingny, one of his right hand men—no former stars.

"Rock" unhesitatingly picked Washington to win the varsity tussle while at the same time admitting that his sport is football and that he does not pass as an expert when it comes to shoveling water.

But there were plenty, including assorted experts, who were willing to string along with the age and philosopher of Notre Dame and pick the towering crew from the far northwest to crash through for the first time since 1926. The odds on Washington shortened to something like 2 to 3 against the field. The position of second favorite was held by the Navy while Columbia and California also were regarded highly.

Neither of the Pacific Coast crew was rated quite up to the Navy and Columbia eights, coached by the Glendons, father and son, when it comes to smoothness of rowing form, but many felt that Washington's greater power would be enough to win.

A victory for any crew other than the "Big Four" who have monopolized the varsity championships here ever since the war figured to rank as a sensational upset, but all five of the other contenders—Cornell, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts Tech and Wisconsin—were determined to win if possible and not to finish last at any rate.

While main interest centered on the classic four mile grind for varsity eights, the three-mile junior varsity race and the two-mile dash for freshman crews also came in for a heavy share of conjecture.

MANY NEW MEMBERS WILL BE PRESENT IN NEXT LEGISLATURE

By RAYMOND BROOKS
AUSTIN, June 24.—Playing second fiddle to the state races and eight contests for the senate, the legislative campaigns in many districts promise to make it a warm accompaniment.

House members for each of the 120 seats are to be elected. Ballots have been mailed in all the multi-county and district districts, but will remain open until June 14 in the single-county districts.

Early intimations from South Texas cities that a quiet effort was on foot to elect lawmakers friendly to the plan of race-horse breeders to legalize the certificate plan of betting on horse races, as a step toward making Texas a rival of Kentucky in stables and tracks, failed to materialize as the legislative derby's gates were swinging to a close. North Texas interests, wherein a small beginning has made a development of racing stock and revival of racing wholly apart from the gambling element, have proven cold toward the attempted legalizations of gambling. So far as determined no candidate is in the field on this issue; and none of the several who might support it apparently has any substantial backing.

Three issues are involved in the legislative race this year in an active way, while the fundamental question of economics vs politics broader than any single campaign issue, may be regarded as an intrinsic factor in all.

These issues are pro-and-anti-Fergusonism, with Mrs. Ferguson the family candidate actively in the race for governor. A decided trend of friends of the Ferguson to get into the legislature may be noted. The lobby question will be important in several districts, involving the efforts of those aligned with special interests to win and hold seats within the legislative body. This follows the action of the house this year in forcing its members to publicly state all connection with and retainers from public utilities.

The third issue will be prohibition; though it will lack much of the exciting glamor and much of the bitterness of past years. Two former state senators have offered their services in the house, with a view of helping solve tax problems, all of which are first dealt with by the house. They are former Sen. F. C. Weibert of Seguin, drafted by the voters of Comal and Guadalupe counties, and former Sen. T. H. McGregor of Austin.

To a noticeable degree, though lacking in uniformity, and far from a statewide policy, some communities are beginning to take an interest in selecting and putting into the field men or women who will be assets in the legislature. This, rather than leaving to the blind chance of the whim or ambition of individuals the makeup of the ticket out of which the voters will be forced to choose as best they can.

Young Lawyers
But despite this, there seems even a larger sprinkling than usual of the untrained young lawyers who want to get experience in public speaking of the idle people who want something to play at. Of those who desire the glamor and the personal benefit of a public title, and—frankly—of those who need the $5 per day, offering for places in the legislative body this year.

Of the names and data herein concerning one-county districts, it must be said that all is subject to revision, since other candidates may file up to June 14.

Far from the brightest spot in the picture is their retirement this year of several of the outstanding figures in the legislature. Cecil Storey, regarded as one of the ablest lawyers of the body, is in a state race. Speaker W. S. Barron is retiring from the legislature. George Kemble, a distinguished member of the Fort Worth delegation, is dropping out voluntarily. George Purl, one of the big guns, is coming to the senate. Joseph McGill, able El Paso lawyer, is not seeking re-election. Col. Lewis Thompson, one of the successful business men of the Houston delegation, won't be back. W. R. Montgomery of Hidalgo and Polk Hornaday of Cameron, are not coming back. A. H. King of Throckmorton, watchdog of the treasury, is in a state office race; John E. Davis, guardian of the contingent fund, aspires to the treasuryship. Reno Eickenroht, lone republican, is in the race for the senate. Grady Woodruff also is running for the senate.

Able Men
For the bright side of the picture, there are of course many able men in the house who are candidates for re-election. An unusual race has developed in Austin, Travis county, in which T. H. McGregor, who was one of the leaders in the senate in years past, has entered the race for the house, willing to serve there even though it represents no creation of personal honor to do so.

Former Senator F. C. Weibert of Bogin, now state tax commissioner, and regarded as one of the outstanding Texas authorities on taxation, has accepted the petitions of friends in Comal and Guadalupe counties and permitted his name to be filed for the house of representatives, in which he saw distinguished service years ago. He will have no opponent, his friends informed him.

Senator Weibert has served as a member of the house and the senate, as secretary of state, as commissioner of markets and warehouse, and as state tax commissioner. He once was appointed a member of the prison commission, but declined to serve.

As a member of the house, he was co-author of the law with Captain Black of Gonzales that created the Pantour Institute. He was author in the senate of the suspended sentence law that has saved thousands of youths from the brand of a felon to make useful citizens. He was co-author of the indeterminate sentence law.

He consented to serve again in the house, where all taxation measures must originate in the belief that he can contribute to the working out of just taxation and tax policy measures and reforms. His platform is: "Justice to all including the taxpayer."

Satterwhite
Former Speaker Lee Satterwhite has offered for election to the house from his new district at Odessa.

Members like Victor Gilbert, Fred Minor, E. M. Hubbard, A. R. Johnson, A. P. C. Petach, Eugene Giffes, Penrose Metcalfe, Harry Graves, Mike Hogg, Coke Stevenson, and other leaders of various phases of the house complex make-up, are to be candidates for re-election.

The first promise of a comprehensive tax reform plan as coming from membership in the legislature is made by Representative A. P. Johnson of Carrizo Springs.

The 42nd legislature promises to have as many women solons and perhaps more than the present two house members.

Mrs. Laura Burleson Negley of San Antonio, daughter of former U. S. Postmaster General A. S. Burleson, will not seek re-election, she has announced.

Harris county has among its candidates Miss Ovea Culp, who for several terms was house parliamentarian, and who is daughter of former Representative I. W. Culp of Temple.

There are two women candidates at Odessa. These are: Mrs. Helen Vignitt, sister of former Representative Edith Wilmans, first woman lawmaker in Texas, and Mrs. Sarah L. Hughes. They are opponents for the same office, that from which John E. Davis of Mesquite, Dallas county, is retiring. It is the same seat formerly held by Mrs. Wilmans in the Dallas delegation.

Since the big cities have large delegations and take a leading part in the work of every legislative session, a more detailed analysis follows of the make-up of the races in Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio.

Assurance
Harris county and Houston seem to have the assurance of the selection of a delegation satisfactory to the great majority of its voters.

Miss Culp is opposed by John Matthis, courtly attorney and gentleman of the old school, and by Harvey W. Drisler, executive secretary of the League of Texas Municipalities.

At least one of the major Houston newspapers, the Post-Dispatch, has vigorously endorsed Miss Culp editorially.

These three candidates are running for the seat made vacant by the retirement of Col. Lewis Thompson, who resigned before the expiration of his present term, and who is not a candidate for re-election.

R. E. Morse and Roland Bradley, attorneys in their early maturity, both experienced in legislative affairs and having real prestige in the house, are unopposed for re-election. Mr. Morse has considered particularly economic legislation and Mr. Bradley is a student of eugenics and institutions and needs and has taken an active part in labor legislation.

Rep. Mike Hogg, son of the late Gov. James Stephen Hogg, is a candidate for re-election. He is opposed by Earle Adams Jr., former local office-holder in Harris county. Mr. Hogg, though a man of wealth, was a vigorous supporter during the present legislature of the tax reforms urged by the administration, and by levying taxes upon the excess of great wealth.

Judge Walter Acker Sr., last soldier of the Confederacy in Texas state office, is retiring from the legislature as a member of the Harris county delegation, taking with him the affection and deep veneration of all who have known him.

RAILROAD BUILT INTO LOVINGTON City Cheers as Texas and New Mex Line Is Finished

LOVINGTON, N. M., June 23.—Prolonged blasts from the work engine at 10 o'clock Sunday morning announced to late sleepers as well as those on their way to Sunday services that the track of the Texas & New Mexico Railroad has been laid into the city limits.

Amid cheers and the chanting of plantation songs by the sweating negro laborers the officials in charge of the work took off their hats and joined in the jubilation as they realized the big task was finished. The most momentous period in the life of this city had come, and the hundreds of speculators who gathered around the scene plainly showed on their faces the emotions surging within them. Lovington will formally celebrate the arrival of the first passenger train on Saturday, June 28, when Governor Dillon will drive the gold spike. High state officials of New Mexico and Texas will be present and officials of several score Chambers of Commerce have indicated their intention of attending. Leading officials of the railroad company and the Texas & Pacific will also be on hand to join in the general enthusiasm.

The coming of the Texas & New Mexico railroad into Lea county will open up hundreds of thousands of acres of irrigable lands under which abundant water may be had from depths of 25 to 80 feet. The soil exceeds in richness the prediction is freely made that Lea county will within the next few years be known the richest county in sunshine state. Discovery of oil in gusher quantities is rapidly adding to the wealth of ranchers. With coming of agricultural development Lea county expects to become a leader in farm produce as well.

Problem Now Is Naming New Arrival

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., June 23 (AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh are the parents of a son.

The baby, weighing seven and three-quarters pounds was born at 2:15 p. m., eastern standard time yesterday in the home where his mother, the former Anne Morrow, was born. She became a mother on her 24th birthday.

Aside from the statement of the baby's birth and his weight, no details of the event were forthcoming from the household of Mrs. Lindbergh's parents, Ambassador and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow except the statement that mother and baby were resting comfortably.

News of the arrival of the Lindbergh heir spread rapidly to all parts of the country and to foreign shores and within a short time a parade of messengers with congratulatory messages and bearing flowers began to arrive at the Morrow home. Radio stations interrupted their programs to broadcast news of the event which has been awaited with lively interest for several weeks.

The Name
A name had not been announced for the new arrival but Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., for his father or Dwight Morrow Lindbergh after his grandfather were mentioned as probable choices.

Preparations which had been made for Mrs. Lindbergh's reception in a New York hospital were cancelled several days ago and hospital equipment and two nurses were installed in the Morrow home.

The arrival of messengers trooping up the drive to the house was the only sign about the Morrow home to indicate that the event had taken place. There were even persons within the house at the time who did not learn of the birth until they left and were informed by outsiders.

Among those who were Mayor C. P. Kitchell of Englewood and Daniel Pomeroy, republican national committeeman, who had called on Ambassador Morrow.

Surprised
"I am a bit surprised," Mayor Kitchell said, "for I left Ambassador Morrow after 5 o'clock and he never said a word about it. Come to think of it, a gentleman passed me in a bit of a hurry while I was in the house but he wouldn't talk to me. He must have been the doctor."

Mrs. Lindbergh, who has been her husband's constant companion in the aid since their marriage May 27, 1925, continued her flying to within a few days of the baby's birth. Last Thursday she flew with Colonel Lindbergh from Teterboro airport to Hartford, Conn., and returned. Ten days previously she had accompanied him in a test flight of a small monoplane.

The only description of the baby was the statement of a servant in the Morrow household who was quoted as saying that "he looks like his father." He has blonde hair and blue eyes.

Friends said Colonel Lindbergh took the news of his son's birth with an appearance of outward calm, but that the grandfather, Ambassador Morrow gave frank expression to his elation.

Aerial Flivver Visits at Port

Piloted by F. Myrten Johnston, who, incidentally, prefers a derby to the usual leather helmet, the Aerona—the flivver of the air—landed at the Big Spring Airport Sunday afternoon.

The diminutive aircraft is enroute from Kansas City to Oakland California, for the air show.

Johnston set the craft down here just before noon, and took off after spending an hour at the local field. He had his ship serviced—with six gallons of gasoline and one quart of oil. The gasoline tank holds only eight gallons.

The ship has a 35-horsepower motor, with a top speed of 80 miles an hour. It weighs only 380 pounds. According to Johnston he gets 25 miles to a gallon of gasoline.

Johnston left Kansas City last Tuesday. He left Fort Worth Sunday morning, stopped at Ranger, and landed here about noon.

A. J. Edwards, sales manager of the company, is following Johnston in an automobile. Johnston hoped to make El Paso last night.

The plane attracted considerable attention here, dozens of persons viewing the tiny air craft.

100 Aggie Exes At Gist Ranch

Approximately 100 ex-students of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College and their families attended a celebration at the Gist ranch, two miles north of Odessa, Sunday.

Matty Bell, head coach of Texas A. & M. E. McQuillen, secretary of the Ex-Students Association and Burt Hull, president of the body, were the principal speakers at the banquet.

A "chuck-wagon" feed featured the meeting of West Texas Exes of the college.

Big Spring Was Once A Comanche "Resort" According To Old Diary

Four score years and one is the age of Big Spring, and still she is in her youth.

Eighty-one years ago Captain R. B. Marcey of the U. S. Army, young, gallant, brave and adventuresome, and one of the most outstanding pathfinders of his period, camped beside Big Spring.

"It was," he said, "flowing from a deep chasm in the limestone rocks into an immense reservoir of some fifty feet in depth."

Now Big Spring, about five miles south of town, is empty and deserted, full of broken bottles, twisted pipe and tin cans.

The Discovery
Early in 1849 Captain Marcey received orders from Brigadier General Arbuttle, commanding at Fort Smith, Arkansas, to fit up what we would call a little army (about 80 men) and accompany an emigrant train to Santa Fe, New Mexico. He was to then drop south to the vicinity of what is now El Paso and endeavor to locate an Indian guide who could pilot him through West Texas on what could be made a good wagon road, to an intersection with his own outgoing train which went westward through Oklahoma and Pandhandle of Texas.

If he could find such a guide, and he was satisfied from his own previously acquired information that he could, he could march from that point to the "Plains" in perfect safety. If he could do this without subjecting his command to the necessity of encountering severe trials and hardships he was to return by that route, otherwise to return the same way he went.

An Indian Guide
He found his guide, an Indian, and blazed the way through this country, filing such a report with the War Department that it had a material bearing on the location of the Texas and Pacific Railroad. Within two years after his report, the original predecessor company of the Texas and Pacific Railroad was chartered by the Legislature of Texas to build a railroad from the N. E. corner of Texas along the route followed by Marcey.

His Diary
The following excerpts from Captain Marcey's diary cover the discovery of Big Spring and disclose some of its earliest history. "Oct. 2. We marched twenty-three miles today in a course N. 72 23 E. which brought us to the Laguna, or Salt Lake.

"The country has been similar to that of yesterday, over high rolling table lands of the Mesa, with no wood except the small mesquite brush. The water in the Laguna is brackish, but there is a small pond south of the road where we encamped, which, although it is slightly sulphurous, is not unpalatable. Should travelers come to this place on their way to Mexico, in an extremely dry season of the year, I would recommend them to carry from here in their wagons a supply of drinking water sufficient for two days, as this would last them until they reached the sand hills, if by any accident, they did not discover the Mustang Pond."

Howard County
Howard county was originally a part of Mitchell county, but was organized in 1856 and is 30 miles square. The organization came two years after the T. & P. built into Big Spring. The first Commissioners court met on July 1, 1858.

The city of Big Spring is first comprised of 40 blocks including First to Sixth streets and Gollid to Jack. The streets were laid off regular and at right angles with the T. & P. railroad.

First Newspaper
The first newspaper was "Panagraph" and was published in 1858. The first three stores established were Joe Fisher, Bessie Bros and Hines & Beay. The J. & W. Fisher store was established in 1854.

Lutheran Church Born 400 Years Ago

AUSTIN, June 26.—Wednesday is the 400th anniversary of one of the greatest days in the religious history of the world.

Four hundred years ago Wednesday the Lutheran church had its birth in the public proclamation of the Confession at Augsburg, before the Roman emperor. Eighty-two million, one hundred and eighty thousand Lutherans throughout the world will celebrate the day.

The anniversary will be observed in the United States by the official merging of three Lutheran synods. These brings churches of Austin and Texas into closer relations with other Lutheran units over the nation.

The merger of the synods of Iowa, in which most Central Texas churches are embodied, the Buffalo synod and the joint synod of Ohio will be celebrated in Austin, along with the anniversary of the founding of Lutheranism, with special services Sunday, July 8 in St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran church here by the Rev. F. G. Roessner, pastor.

The same church in 1917 observed the 400th anniversary of Martin Luther's act that forced the reformation. That was observed as the "declaration of independence" while Wednesday's observance is the "San Jacinto" of Lutheranism, the anniversary of the final and complete victory.

Representatives of all churches in the three consolidated synods will meet in Toledo, Ohio, in August to finally ratify the merger that already has been voted by the Texas churches and the churches of other states.

Included among many Central Texas Lutheran congregations that today will go from the Iowa synod to the synod of the United States, will be the St. Martin's church, Austin, and churches at Pflugerville, Deseau, Onion creek or Colton, Taylor, Thrall, Bartlett, Temple, Walburg (Georgetown), Maxwell, San Marcos, Elgin, McDade, Paige, Olddings, Carmins, Burton and Brenham.

The check by no means expresses our opinion of the story. It is one of the best we have had in a long time. We hope that you will let us see more of your work.

Sincerely, The Editors.
