Liquor Store Burglarized

The Top Package Store on the Sonora highway was broken into sometime last Friday night; the building sustained some damage and some merchandise was taken.

Glynn Edmondson is owner and operator of the establishment. The loss was discovered Saturday morning by Nell Singleton when she reported for work.

The window glass in the front door was broken out, and then the door was forced open.

Edmondson reported a case of whiskey, a number of cartons of cigarettes, and about $70 in change from the cash till all missing.

The front door was boarded up for a while until a new glass could be installed during the week end.

Edmondson reported that the loss in missing merchandise and repairs to the building totaled nearly $300. This was the fourth or fifth time for the store to be burglarized, although this was the first such incident in several years.

Sheriff Orval Edmiston and his deputies were investigating the incident.

Vote AGAINST The Dissolution

On Saturday, April 2, City voters will decide the question of whether or not to do away with the municipal corporation of the City of Eldorado.

The ballot has two propositions:

FOR the dissolution.

AGAINST the dissolution.

The Success crew urge the City voters to vote AGAINST.

Reason not to vote for the dissolution: If approved, you are going to let yourself in for a lot of legal problems that are not worth the trouble.

With the passing away of Russell Donaldson last week, there are just eight World War I veterans known to be still living here in Schleicher county.

Andrew Campbell and Fred Gundstead are living in the Nursing Home, and the others are George Long, Jud Brannan, Lester Henderson, W. F. Meador, H. Leslie Jones and Happy Doss.

Some years ago, the Bev McCormick post of The American Legion gave lifetime memberships to all World War I veterans and the post has honored them in recent years each November with a breakfast. But at the last such event held last Fall, only two of the veterans, Long and Brannan, were able to attend.

On Fall Dean's List Of San Marcos University

San Marcos, Tex.—Two Schleicher County residents were among the 3377 Southwest Texas State University students whose fall semester grades earned them places on the Dean's List.

To make the regular Honor Roll, a student must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 semester hours of coursework, excluding physical education activities, and achieve at least an overall B average.

To make the Superior Honor Roll, requires grades of A in at least 12 of the required 15 semester hours of coursework and no lower than a B in the other three-hour course. This translates into a 3.8 grade-point average on the 4.0 scale for honor.

Undergraduate courses only are considered in the tabulated list.

The two Schleicher County residents were Suzan Thornton of Box 65 and Stephen Wilson of Route 1, both of Eldorado.

They were among those on the regular Honor Roll.

NURSING HOME NOTES

Never, I hope, do I ever hear of anyone having Shingles, because I will feel so sorry for them. You have to have them to realize about how bad it really is.

I am sorry I had to fail to give the news for a few weeks. The home has three new residents. They are Aubrey Baugh, who is a long time Schleicher county resident, and Andrew Campbell who has lived here quite a number of years and also Mrs. Mary Oglesby who moved in last week. We are glad to have them and we hope that they are going to enjoy living here with us.

The last Sunday was the time for the Primitive Baptist Church to have the church service here in the dining room. We all appreciate the churches of our town conducting these services for us.

Last Wednesday, the Bingo winners were Elva Daniels two games, Beulah Harris, two; Bessie Andrews, 2; and Carrie Blakeway, one game. On Friday the winners were Carrie Blakeway, 2; LaVita Brooks, 2; Beulah Harris, 2; and Bessie Andrews, one. We all appreciate Ruthie Dacy conducting the recreation programs here, so very much and we all love her.

We had several visitors during the week as follows: Imogene Blasdel of San Angelo visited her father Ebbie Donaldson, Mark Payne from San Angelo visited Beulah Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keys of Wall and Mrs. Ila V. Keys of San Angelo came to see Mr. Keys but now he has returned with her to San Angelo. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Van Hoozer, the former Wanda McAngus of Sonora, visited Lizzie McAngus. The past week end Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Harris of El Paso visited Beulah Harris. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sudduth of San Angelo visited Lizzie McAngus.

Russell Donaldson was moved from here to Sonora Nursing Home about a week ago. In a few days he became ill then passed away last Saturday. We extend our deepest sympathy. We are going to miss him very much.—LaVita Brooks and Beulah Harris, Reps.

Commissioners Consider The Unincorporation Of Eldorado

The unincorporation of the City of Eldorado and how it would affect the operation of the county government here in Schleicher county was main topic of discussion as the County Commissioners held their regular meeting Monday. County Judge Robert L. McWhorter presided with all Commissioners present.

Phil Olson, City Secretary, was on hand to discuss with the Commissioners several questions of transfer of governing functions if the disincorporation is approved on April 2nd. That question is at the bottom of the ballot which also has nominees for mayor and aldermen.

First question discussed was whether the City would lose Revenue Sharing funds. It probably would, according to those present who had checked with Riley Fletcher of the Municipal League. Currently, the City of Eldorado receives about $2,000 for each quarter.

County Attorney T. P. Robinson reported that according to the Municipal League, the County would not have authority to continue operating the present municipal services such as the gas, water, and sewer systems. These, presumably, would go into receivership, at least for a while.

However, the county would take over the present buildings such as the city hall and fire station and the city fire truck.

The District Court would appoint a receiver for the sewer bonds. These utility bonds amounted to about $135,000 as of last September and the City is currently paying $1,400 a month on these.

The City had $26,000 in the Utility Fund at the end of February.

Also, the City collected $23,378 in sales taxes last year on utilities; ad valorem taxes collected were $32,464 and gross receipts taxes were $6,700 collected from the T-V cable, West Texas Utilities and General Telephone.

It was pointed out that the County would take over the trash fund and the hauling of the trash.

Overall, about the same number of employees will have to be kept to operate the facilities and services if City of Eldorado voters approve the proposal on April 2nd.

County Judge McWhorter said, "We will do the best of our ability whichever way the vote goes."

The comparison of Schleicher county with Crockett county, in which Ozona has the County Commissioners Court as sole governing body, was cited as not applicable since Crockett has a valuation of $96 million and Schleicher has $18 million. Crockett county has about 85% of their taxes paid by oil companies. That, plus the fact that the city of Ozona has never before been incorporated.

Helen Blakeway of the Clerk's office read the minutes of the Feb. 28th meeting.

Mr. Lawrence plans to come to the meeting of the Commissioners Court on March 28th to discuss the local Correctional Facilities, the County Jail. He is with the Council of Governments.

Success Printers Deliver Local Ballots; Absentee Voting On

Absentee voting is now under way after Success Printers turned out and delivered the ballots last week for all the local elections coming up April 2nd.

The City Election has D. D. (Burro) Griffin and Pat Ragsdale running for Mayor, and Bobby R. Sykes, James R. McWilliams, William E. McCravey, Richard Kent, and Allen J. Kuykendall for alderman, with three to elect. At the bottom of the ballot is the question of the dissolution of the municipal corporation of the City of Eldorado.

The School Trustee ballot has Lynn Meador and Billy Williams, incumbents, and Kay Patton and Ted Short as candidates, with two to be elected. This ballot and the one for City are the only two with contests.

The Independent School District ballot for County Board Member At Large has Billy Frank Blaylock running unopposed, and Precinct 1 has Clay F. Atkins unopposed for the County Board.

The Hospital District Director election has Evelyn Wimer, Winnie Jackson, and Reuben C. Minor running unopposed for the three places.

THE EATING O' THE GREEN

Call it legend, superstition or just plain blarney but the belief is that good luck will follow throughout the year if you eat something green on March seventeen. For dessert, bring on the clay pipes and a tray of Killarney Cordials. Made with JELL-O® Lime Gelatin and mint extract, it's a light, flavorful dessert that's destined to bring good luck to the table. If you prefer, you may substitute crème de menthe liqueur for the mint extract.

KILLARNEY CORDIALS

- 1 package (3 oz.) lime flavor gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 cup cold water
- 1/8 teaspoon mint extract*

*Or use 2 tablespoons creme de menthe liqueur.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cold water and extract. Measure 1/4 cup gelatin mixture; let stand at room temperature about 30 minutes or until thickened. Pour about 1/4 cup of the remaining gelatin into each of 8 large cordial or small wine glasses. Chill 30 to 40 minutes. Beat the measured gelatin with hand beater or electric mixer until mixture is fluffy and thick and about double in volume. Spoon about 1 tablespoon into each glass over clear gelatin. Chill. Makes about 2-1/2 cups or 8 servings.

HISTORY OF THE BATH

Ancient tribes back in the Bronze Age carried portable foot baths of clay when traveling. Queen Isabella of Spain boasted that she'd only taken two baths in her life while others claimed they'd never bathed at all, and today a new bath product simulates the health benefits of a Finnish sauna. Clearly the history of the bath is a long and interesting one.

People used to shop for bath soap in general stores like this...

The Romans originated the bathing house and mass public bathing which got them into hot water with the church. It was suggested by clergymen that bathing was for cleansing, not socializing.

From the 14th through the 17th century, the Romans, Greeks, Mohammedans and Russians outdid themselves in building architectural monuments to the bath. Giant murals and sculptures were featured and steam rooms and rich oil baths were introduced.

Today one popular form of relaxation is the sauna—but few people have room to build one in their home or the leisure to travel to health spas. That's why a new bath product made up of hydrotronic crystals: an exclusive formula of natural crystals, Siberian fir oil that is pH balanced, and Vitamin E was developed by a Jacksonville, Florida firm.

When you pour Aqua Sauna into very hot bath water, bathe for 20 minutes to let the skin's pores open as much as possible, massage with a loofah sponge and take a cold shower, you'll enjoy the same effects as you would in a sauna. Aqua-Sauna is available at salons, department stores, and drug stores in two sizes, a three-pack for $3.00 and a six-pack for $5.50, or direct from the manufacturer, Creative Leisure, Inc., 400 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida 32203.

It's a relaxing beauty step in the history of the bath.

ONE HUNDRED Indian villagers worked 2 1/2 months to dig a new canal to improve their lives.

Digging a 4 1/2-mile canal on the vast subcontinent of India is, after all, only one tiny project in terms of the gigantic economic problems facing that country today.

But for Fr. Francis Gomez, director of the social service center of the Catholic Archdiocese of Calcutta, it is a significant accomplishment which will improve the lives of thousands of poor villagers on the outskirts of Calcutta.

"We were able to dig the canal thanks to a food-for-work project sponsored by Catholic Relief Services of the United States," he said. "Without their help, there would be no canal today," he added.

Last year CRS provided new opportunities for more than 20 million people in 75 developing countries.

Hints for HOMEOWNERS TIPS TO HELP YOU

Home Renovating May Perk Up Mental Outlook

Like the proverbial purchase of new clothing to perk up flagging spirits, installation of new wall paneling may brighten up not only the home but also the individual's outlook on life.

Psychiatrists say that part of the uplift for do-it-yourselfers may come from the actual physical work.

And for both men and women, the rest of the perk up of the spirits may come from the actual selection of materials, colors and patterns, they say. In essence, the remodeled room becomes an extension of the individual's personality.

This is the same type of effect as that obtained from careful selection of new clothes to brighten a gloomy period.

It may make little difference if the person has had any previous interior decorating experience. He or she can readily obtain help from major building materials manufacturers and distributors. For example, a current booklet from Georgia-Pacific Corp. entitled "How to make beautiful things happen with walls" tells what is needed to get started, explains how to put up paneling from beginning to end, and gives tips on decorating with color and style.

Other pieces of literature from G-P, aptly called "idea" booklets, open a wide avenue of ideas the individual may borrow or adapt, and they are available at retail building material dealers.

When the project is completed, the combination of mental activity in planning renovation or remodeling and physical activity in actually doing the work may have been just what the doctor ordered.

REVOLUTIONARY investment

It's been 200 years since Americans were first asked to take stock in America.

And take stock they did. Our brand-new citizens invested over $27,000,000 in their new country's fight for freedom. And it sure paid off.

Today, over 9 1/2 million modern Americans invest in their future as well as their country by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Bonds are safe, dependable, and profitable. And when you join the Payroll Savings Plan, saving becomes automatically regular, too.

So buy U.S. Savings Bonds. They're a revolutionary way to save.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/4% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Jim Nugent Named Subcommittee Head

Austin, Tex.—State Representative James E. (Jim) Nugent of Kerrville was appointed last week to chair the Subcommittee on Teacher Retirement by Rep. Tom Massey, Chairman of the House Committee on Public Education. The Subcommittee, which will consider several house bills relating to teacher retirement benefits, was charged with giving paramount attention to:
(1) Financial assistance to teachers presently retired, and;
(2) Actuarial soundness of the present system, with special emphasis on any needed changes in additional contributions, added benefits or other items deemed desirable.
On being appointed Chairman, Rep. Nugent stated, "The creation of this Subcommittee gives both the full Public Education Committee and the entire House of Representatives an excellent opportunity to conduct a comprehensive study of the teacher retirement system and its schedule of retirement benefits. This Subcommittee has an obligation to investigate several serious questions which have been brought to our attention concerning the actuarial soundness of the retirement system. We must insure that there will be no shortfall of benefit payments to those teachers already retired or to those about to retire."
Rep. Nugent further added, "The Subcommittee must also take a close look at what rising costs and inflation during the past few years have done to the present schedule of retirement benefits, and what rising costs and inflation will do to these benefits in the future. We must review the bills that I and several other members of the House have introduced relating to increases in retirement benefits, and develop a fair and reasonable schedule of new benefits as well as state and teachers' contributions to the system which could help account for future rises in the cost of living."

Consumer Food News

College Station, Tex.—Coffee-leaf rust disease threatens to further decrease coffee supplies—making any "specialized" coffee on the market a bargain, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist, reports.
Easier-to-find bargains in Texas grocery markets currently appear in poultry, dairy, and fresh produce sections—and among canned items, she added.
Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
"Fryer chicken is one of the better buys at most meat counters—and egg prices have dipped slightly," she added.
At dairy sections, non-fat dry milk is in heavy supply and American cheese production is up 25%.
At fresh produce sections, potatoes and spinach are plentiful and economical. Other economical choices are broccoli, carrots, collards, mustard, head lettuce and turnips.
In fruit buying, some markets offer fresh pears at attractive prices—and pineapple prices may drop due to a volume increase. Other fruits—including oranges, grapefruit and apples—have moderate prices.
At beef counters, best values generally include ground beef, chuck roasts and steaks, and round, sirloin and T-bone steaks.
In pork buying, good values ap-

Homemaking At A Glance

by Nancy Lester

The Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club met last Wednesday at the home of Ester Bumgardner. Nell Williams, club president, presided over the meeting.

The members discussed the booth that they will have at the Cancer Society Arts and Crafts Fair. The clubs will have a bake sale at the fair. The main item that they plan to feature is homemade bread. Karen Homer was selected as Homemaker of the Year for the club. Karen is presently serving as council program chairman and served as vice president of her club last year. Congratulations to Karen!

The new home demonstration club met at the home of Melanie Reynolds this past Monday morning for a program on Food Preservation.

The Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club will meet today at 2:00 p.m. The program will be on making handbags. The meeting will be held at my house. Miss Connie Spence will be the hostess.

Last week I gave you some information on Food Safety. This week I would like to talk about some special safety problems.

Poultry And Meats

Are you going to serve roast turkey? Stuffing that is a breeding place for bacteria. Don't stuff the turkey; cook it separately. After mixing a large quantity of stuffing, cook it immediately. Letting large masses of lukewarm stuffing stand at room temperature encourages bacteria to grow.

Before refrigerating or freezing, remove chicken or turkey meat from the bones immediately after cooking. This is a time consuming process and often it is done during odd moments between other jobs. This means the food may stand at room temperature for long periods. If the food is contaminated with bacteria and held at room temperature long enough, the bacteria will produce a harmful toxin. Once this toxin is produced in the food, it is not destroyed by ordinary cooking.

Gravy

Broth and gravy are especially subject to spoilage. Cool leftovers quickly and put them in the refrigerator. Don't hold broth and gravy more than a day or two. To serve again, reheat and boil for several minutes before serving. Always serve hot.

Sandwiches And Salads

Ham sandwiches, turkey and chicken salads, and deviled eggs need special care. If you serve sandwiches, why not plan to have the kind you can freeze ahead? Thaw them as needed. Are you going to serve chicken salad? Why not freeze the cubes of chicken and use them in preparing the salad? They will thaw as the salad stands, keeping it as cold as possible. With any salad, here is much handling in preparation and serving. Make sure all ingredients are clean and well-chilled.

Mixtures of foods that require several steps and handling such as meats, fish, and salads are most likely to be contaminated. Use clean hands, utensils and work surfaces.

Cream Pies And Puddings

Cream pies and cream puffs are foods often involved in food poisoning. Since cream pies and cream-filled pastries get soggy if refrigerated too long, it is a temptation to leave them at room temperature. DON'T! This encourages bacteria to grow. Fill pastry as close to serving time as possible.

County Extension Agent's Column

Proposed Dust Standard Damaging To Cotton Industry

If a standard for exposure to cotton dust as proposed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) should go into effect, many cotton gins may be forced out of business. And as a direct result, the cost of growing cotton will go up, says an agricultural engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He contends that the proposed standard, which is designed to protect individuals from the disease byssinosis, could have a severe impact on the cotton industry. Estimates of the cost of engineering controls to meet the standard vary from $40,000 to almost $200,000 per gin. Furthermore, engineering controls are such that there is no assurance that they would meet the standard.

With this tremendous cost involved in putting in the controls to protect employees from cotton dust, many gins processing 3,000 bales or less would be forced out of business. In some areas, cotton production would cease since producers would not grow cotton if they had to transport it 50 to 100 miles down the road. And, where the gins would make the investment in the controls, the cost would have to be passed on to the producers, thus decreasing their net profits.

Trees Require Infrequent Fertilization

Elegant shade trees that enhance many yards are often overlooked at fertilizing time. However, landscape specialists with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service say that most trees can tolerate neglect and only require fertilizer every few years.

Most trees need to be fertilized only about once every three years. However, trees that have their roots confined by streets, curbs or other structures should be fertilized more often.

Regular lawn fertilizer is fine for your shade trees. A fact sheet on Fertilizing Woody Ornamentals provides detailed information for interested gardeners. A copy may be obtained from the county Extension office.

Live Concerts Come To Television

Pianist Claudio Arrau, guesting with The New York Philharmonic under the direction of Rafael Kubelik, plays to an audience at New York's Avery Fisher Hall and to millions across the nation on live television and radio.

Master pianist Arrau performed Beethoven's piano concerto No. 3 with The New York Philharmonic.

To enjoy the experience of a live performance by a virtuoso pianist or a symphony orchestra one normally expects to visit the concert hall. Now, however, this is also possible by snapping on your television and radio and sitting back in your living room easy chair.

The trend is just in its infancy but through the mass reach of television a single live musical performance can reach an audience of millions, in contrast to the limited audience of the concert hall.

A recent performance in New York City with master pianist Claudio Arrau and The New York Philharmonic, conducted by Rafael Kubelik, was telecast live nationally by the Public Broadcasting Service. It marked the first concert telecast live from the newly-renovated Avery Fisher Hall, which seats 2,742. But millions of people across the country watched at home as Arrau, one of the world's acknowledged greats, brought Beethoven's piano concerto No. 3 alive on the Steinway.

Music history was written again just a few days later when America's very own Andre Watts gave the first solo piano recital to be televised live from Lincoln Center. While Watts interpreted music from Schubert to Gershwin on the Steinway, the video audience for this single recital exceeded by far the total of all audiences the 30-year-old pianist has performed to since his debut with Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic at age 16.

These performances were part of the "Live From Lincoln Center" series. The extensive video audience was reinforced by simultaneous stereo radio broadcasts.

What it all amounts to is a new way of bringing music live to the public—no matter where people live.

A One-Dish Meal

One-dish meals are a blessing to the busy cook. That's why rich soups hearty with meat often find their way to the dinner table as main courses.

The famous Mulligatawny Soup, which originated in East India, makes a delicious and economical main course. Our version includes Florida orange juice in the ingredients to give it refreshing flavor and bright color.

For crisp winter evenings, serve Orange Mulligatawny Soup at a family dinner or when guests are coming.

Orange Mulligatawny Soup

- 2 cups Florida orange juice
  - 2 quarts water
  - 1 broiler-fryer chicken, whole or cut in serving pieces
  - 1 cup chopped celery and leaves
  - 1 cup sliced carrots
  - 1 cup chopped onion
  - 2 apples, pared, cored and diced
  - 2 tomatoes, peeled and diced
  - 1-1/2 tablespoons salt
  - 1 teaspoon curry powder
  - 1/3 cup uncooked regular rice
- In a large kettle, combine orange juice, water, chicken, celery, carrots, onion, 1 apple, 1 tomato, and salt. Cover and simmer for 1 hour. Remove chicken, remove meat from bones, cut into bite-size pieces and return to broth. Add remaining apple, tomato, curry powder and rice; cover and simmer for 30 minutes.

When you are away from home leave your radio on. A radio uses little electricity and gives the impression that your house is occupied.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Kathy and Kevin celebrate St. Patrick's Day . . . Kathy wears her green plaid dress, and Kevin his sweater with the emerald stripe. The hats are those we brought home from last night's party!

They don't really know what the day is all about. But they heard Dan singing in the shower, "the wearin' o' the green," and saw the color of the tie he placed on the door knob.

They don't miss a thing! That old saying that actions speak louder than words is certainly true around our children. They are regular little copycats.

That's why Dan and I make it a habit to go to church every Sunday with them. We want God and His Church to be a real part of their lives, not just something they have heard about.

Give your children a chance to know God. Go to church and take them with you.
