GOING BAND AT PRACTICE -- The Eagle Band is seen at practice rehearsing from the upcoming football season. The band has been practicing every afternoon trying to learn new tunes and march routines. Their first performance will be during the Eldorado-Rankin football game Sept. 2.

19 year old man charged with assaulting local couple

Curtis Wayne Caffey Jr. of Eldorado was charged with aggravated assault in the 51st District Court early Wednesday morning. The 19 year old man was accused of assaulting Mr and Mrs Carroll Dean Simpson about 11:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Bond was set at $10,000 by Justice of the Peace Frank "Pancho" Bradley. Simpson, age 21, is in a San Angelo hospital in serious condition, and his wife is in Schleicher County Medical Center. The Simpsons and Caffey both live in Sofge Apartments.

More grass fires this week

Eldorado Volunteer firemen have been keeping odd hours these days, as several grass fires have begun during the night and early morning hours.

Firemen were called to a fire on Highway 29 Tuesday afternoon but the fire was extinguished by rains before they arrived.

Another fire on the Baugh

Ranch west of town began at about 8 p.m. The fire burned only a small area and was extinguished in about 15 minutes.

A third fire alarm was sounded Wednesday morning for a fire in the east end of the county. However, firemen were radioed that it was put out by a heavy shower.

A grass fire early Sunday morning came dangerously close to becoming a tragedy.

The fire began at the dirt road north of the Eldorado Wool Warehouse and spread within 75 feet of gas storage tanks and a warehouse belonging to Halbert Oil Company before it was stopped.

Twelve men from the Eldorado Volunteer Fire Department fought the fire between 3:30 and 5 a.m. It was reported by Pat Joiner who lives nearby.

County Sheriff Orval Edmiston said he felt the fire was started by someone, but could not tell if it was deliberate. He said a car was seen leaving that general area about the time deputies and firemen began arriving at the scene.

Jack Halbert said there are three tanks there holding a total of 30,000 gallons of gasoline and diesel oil. The warehouse contains oil and grease.

Jimmy Cawley injured

A local man and his San Angelo companion were injured in an automobile accident near Pandale, Texas Sunday, August 21.

Jimmy Cawley, the son of Mr and Mrs J.F. Cawley of Eldorado, and Cody Arrott of San Angelo were involved in a car-pickup collision. The occupants of the second vehicle were three youths from Ozona.

Both Cawley and Arrott were taken to a Del Rio Hospital. Cawley was later released. But Arrott was expected to be transferred to a San Angelo hospital this week.

Both young men are juniors at Texas Tech.

Architect Whitmyre to meet with city council

Walter Whitmyre, a representative of an architectural firm in Houston, will meet with the local housing authority and Eldorado City Council September 6.

Whitmyre will have the city confirm the corporation agreement between the city and the housing authority on the request of 72 dwellings. He will also have the city confirm that the request is in compliance with the city's housing assistance plan and to answer any questions city councilmen may have.

Mrs. Donnie Gilmore, housing authority director, will also be present at the meeting.

Express News and Success will combine publication

The Eldorado Express News and the Eldorado Success have completed negotiations for the merger of the two local newspapers.

Success publisher Fred Gunstead and editor Bill Gunstead announced this week that terms had been reached between the two businesses.

The Express News asked Success editor Bill Gunstead to remain on the staff as Associate Editor and job printing foreman. He accepted the offer.

Express News Editor Jim McWilliams said all subscriptions of the Success will be filled with the Express News. "For those having a subscription to both, they will get the full number of months of the Express News plus the months left on their Success subscription," McWilliams said.

The Express News will remain in its present location until the Success Building can be remodeled. The construction will probably be completed by October first.

Express News publisher Ed Meador said, "The merger will allow Fred Gunstead to have a much deserved rest. He will see his 33 years of work being continued by his son Bill. And it will allow us to improve our staff and services to Eldorado."

The Express News would like to thank Fred Gunstead for the kind words written in his POST SCRIPT column. We pledge to continue a hard working newspaper for Schleicher County!

$400,000 budget approved by County Commissioners Monday

By Nell Edmiston

The Schleicher County Commissioners Court approved a 1978 budget for over $400,000 during a short morning session Monday. The sum is from several funds but does not include federal revenue sharing funds. A short version of the budget follows this story.

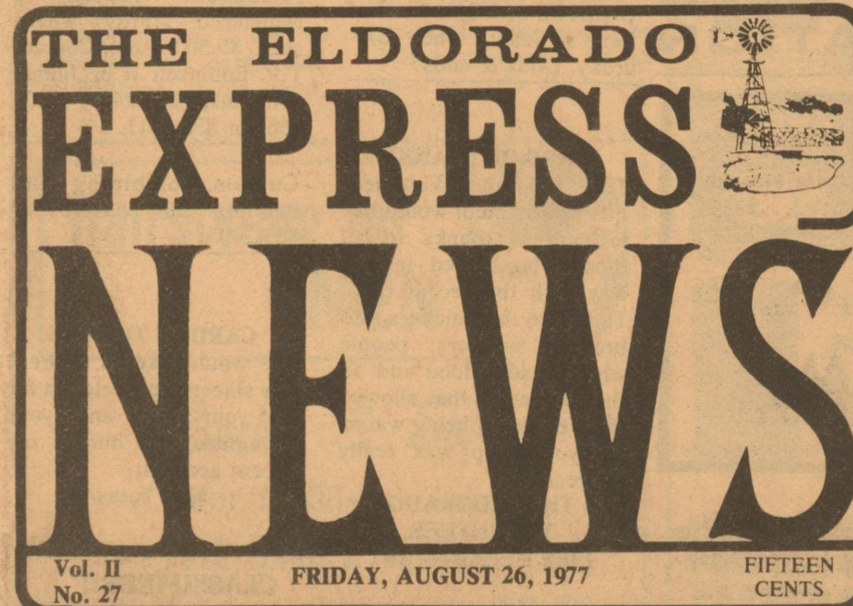

During the meeting, the court discussed hiring a night deputy with Sheriff Orval Edmiston. The present night deputy, Johnny O'Harrow, will replace Jack Jones who has resigned. Edmiston has been trying to find replacements for the night deputy, but told the court during a meeting Aug. 8 that he could not interest anyone in the job because of the low monthly salary.

The night job now pays $550 a month. The city pays $450 of the salary, and the county pays $100 plus fringe benefits such as social security, insurance, retirement and workmen's compensation. The county also furnished the deputy's car.

During the previous meeting, the court authorized Edmiston to ask city officials if they could increase their portion of the salary. Edmiston told the court Monday that the City Council hesitated to make an official decision because two members were absent. However, the aldermen present gave him a verbal agreement that they would make a $50 monthly increase.

The court decided to offer $700 for the job which means a $100 increase monthly for the county.

Also during the meeting, commissioners approved trips by three county officials. A.G. McCormack will attend the county treasurer's conference in Galveston Sept. 21-23; Helen Blakeway will attend the county clerk's conference in Galveston Sept. 14-16 and commissioner Gene McCalla will attend the SEE Commissioners P.6

Gather family history now for county book

Gather up your family records--It's time to begin writing your family history for the Schleicher County Historical Society. The society has sent letters to each family in Schleicher County so that each one can contribute to the "History of Schleicher County," which the society will publish.

The letters explain the purpose, content and description of the book. The book will be bound in leatherette with an embossed logo on the front. It will contain between 400 and 600 pages.

The book is to "preserve historical records for the education and enjoyment of future generations."

It will contain histories of all families who lived in Schleicher County at any time. Each family is being asked to write-up its history including birth dates, military service, marriage dates and dates of death.

Something To Think About by Jannette Wilkerson

"THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT"

Last week the world was shaken by the loss of "King of The Shakers"--and although I was, and still am, an Elvis fan, I couldn't help thinking about the hero's I had when I was growing up. Remember Lash La Rue? How 'bout Gene Autry's horse Champion? Or Red Ryder and Little Beaver? I loved to sit in the 'Picture Show' on Saturday afternoon. [I didn't call them movies until I was older and I thought it sounded better.]

I once wrote a fan letter to Jimmy Wakely [remember him?] and told Daddy to be sure to mail it. I found it about six months later in the glove compartment of his pickup with this list written on it--Cow Cake, Dr. Cox's healing ointment, Pink-eye medicine, along with a penciled map showing a windmill and cattle guard.

Too Bad - 'cause Jimmy Wakely wasn't 'that' great and probably didn't get a lot of fan mail.

Entertainment has come a long way from the days of Harley Sadler's Tent Show, my parents talked about, or the neighborhood goat roping.

Today we are exposed to Operas, Ballets, Concerts, Movies, Alice Cooper, and Hee Haw. But are we any better for it? I wonder--

Hero worship is a tricky business, and we all know images are deceiving. We have such a choice for a Hero base, sports, politics, T.V. and movie personalities, or someone down the street can provide us with an image we admire and imitate. Too many times we admire what they 'have' rather than who or what they are. Only with maturity do we turn our admiration from public figures to accomplishments. I guess it's our own personal definition of success that chooses our ideals. Frankly, I'd rather be like Red Ryder than Farrah Fawcett. A little bit of envy is healthy and it's human to compete. So when you see someone or something you admire -- try it yourself -- Who knows? You could even 'top' it.

But choose your Hero carefully. When is the last time you wrote a fan letter to your parents, grandparents, or someone down the street? Now 'that's entertainment'.....and something to think about...

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Eldorado Lions Club for their generous support of the American Cancer Society.

The Home Demonstration Clubs in this county had a bake sale to benefit the Cancer Society last Wednesday. We were still short of money and had an extra cake so the Lions let us have a Chinese Auction at their noon meeting. They contributed $96.00 in this effort and put the Cancer Society over their goal for this year. It took them about 5 minutes to do this. We really appreciate their help and generosity, and we think that Eldorado is fortunate to have an organization like the Lions Club.

Sincerely,
Ruthie Dacy & Nancy Lester

Hello, Jim.
Congratulations!!!

First-upon being the son of Dr. Ron McWilliams, one of the finest men ever to attend SMU. I recall a wonderful talk he made to a Personnel Class when he was in the Naval ROTC program during World War II. I remember his fine work on the SMU football teams. I recollect that he edited some fine copies of the Dental Association's publication. I am confident that your Mother is just as fine a person.

Second-upon being on the staff of a newspaper with Ed Meador as the publisher. Ed is a public-spirited individual interested in the commercial, industrial, religious, educational, athletic, and cultural advancement of the community and his love for his fellowman and for the Eldorado area is shown in each issue of the paper.

Third-upon being the editor of one of the country's most interesting newspapers. I look forward to the day when I will have the opportunity to meet the many fine staff members and the progressive citizens of Eldorado that I have come to know through the columns of the paper.

Fourth-upon your selecting Eldorado as the place for your journalistic endeavors.

Best wishes to you, your family, and the Express News staff.

Sincerely,
Lester Jordan

Sure, people are interested that your son or daughter is home for a visit, even for a few days. Tell the Express News.

Dear Friend:

Today, I am announcing my intention to seek the Democratic nomination as Congressman from the 21st District of Texas.

Today's decision was not made lightly. The office of Congressman is a most important position, for it is through your Congressman that you have the opportunity to make your opinions heard not only in Congress, but also in the White House and in the offices of hundreds of federal agencies that have an impact on our everyday lives.

For the past five months I have been traveling throughout our district visiting with people from all heritages and walks of life. I have traveled over 10,000 miles and have been in all 32 counties. As I have visited with you and your neighbors, I have come to realize that we share several common goals and concerns.

We feel that the government should not act when people are able to solve their own problems. We want a Congressman who will pursue common sense solutions to the problems facing our nation. We want a Congressman whom we can trust to represent our needs and interests, and a Congressman who will fight to keep the individual liberties our forefathers won for us.

This is a serious challenge for any Congressional candidate. I am aware of the responsibilities involved and I am confident that I can fulfill these obligations to your satisfaction. I pledge my total commitment and dedication to the principles you and I so cherish. I ask to be your friend, your advocate and your voice in the halls of Congress. Please join with me in this campaign.

Sincerely, Nelson W. Wolff

How I was called to the ministry

By H.W. Gaston

It is difficult to find words that will fully and completely describe one's call to preach. Probably no two persons are called in the same manner. Several experiences in my early life influenced me in this direction.

I was a member of a western frontier family of 13 children. My father and mother were Methodist, but there was no organized church there at that time. They were both Christians and made goodness attractive and beautiful. At home they taught us the Bible and the teachings of the Methodist Church. All of the children except one or two still have the same belief.

Another experience in my childhood that influenced me in a strange way was a murder in our neighborhood. My parents made me feel that there were great forces of evil at work. The shocking effect it had on the mother of the murdered boy and the enormous crowd of shocked people at the funeral made me realize the tragedy of a wasted life. We saw the great struggle between the forces of good and evil.

Soon after this tragedy Miss Florence Morris of Italy, Texas came to our community as the teacher of our public school. She was very small in stature, but a great big bundle of goodness and intelligence. Where other teachers had about used up all the switches on Mule Creek, she made goodness so attractive and alluring that switches weren't needed. I haven't seen her since those school days, but have wished many times that I could see her and tell her just how much she meant to me and others.

Later I was in school at Brownwood. My pastor was Dr. K.P. Barton, who could say more in fewer words than any person I have ever heard. Because of tragedy in his own family perhaps, he was very sympathetic and kind. His influence on me, and other members of the church, was great. I hungered and yearned to mean as much to God and people as Dr. Barton. Not that I could reach the heights that he did, but that I could strive to do so.

I felt the call to preach at this time, and was licensed to

ON ELECTRIC COOKING

- ★ Don't be an oven-peeper. Every time you open the door, you lose 20% of the heat.
- ★ Plan oven meals to accommodate more than one dish at a time, or time your baking for multiple dishes. Most recipes can stand a 25° F. temperature variation.
- ★ Get foods for baking into the oven the moment it reaches the right temperature. Remember, you don't have to pre-heat the oven for broiling or roasting.
- ★ Use the high setting to bring foods to steaming then switch to the lowest heat needed to complete cooking. Turn off surface units before cooking is complete and let the retained heat finish the job.

AROUND The HOUSE and OTHER PLACES

County Extension Agent - Home Economics

The Schleicher County Home Demonstration Clubs had a bake sale Wednesday to benefit the American Cancer Society. We want to thank all of those who helped us by baking and buying something.

The Home Demonstration Clubs are also sponsoring a membership luncheon on Wednesday, Sept. 7. Dr. Al Forlano will be our speaker. If you would like to learn more about home demonstration clubs, plan on attending our luncheon. Even if you don't want to join, you will have the opportunity to hear a fine speaker. Dr. Forlano will be talking about the effects that "non-prescription medications" can have on our bodies. We will have more information about this in next week's paper.

This week I have some microwave statistics for you and also a new microwave recipe. I haven't tried the recipe (I don't have a microwave) but it sounds delicious. I hope you enjoy using it.

MICROWAVE COOKERY... a subject no longer on the "foods of the future" list. Microwave oven sales have dramatically increased since 1970, when 40 thousand units were sold. Units of microwave ovens sold in 1977 totaled 2,000,000 (including units sold commercially). It is estimated that about 4 per cent of the households in the United States currently own a microwave oven. The microwave industry, however, is anticipating unit sales will reach 4 million units by 1980.

Who is the microwave consumer? According to Leo Shapiro and Associates, a research company studying and monitoring the growth of microwave cooking:

1. 40 per cent are purchased by families with household income of less than $15,000.
2. More than 50 per cent of the microwave ovens are purchased by families with two wage earners.
3. More than 30 per cent of the customers are under 35 years of age.

Ordination history is told

By Mary Katherine Mobley

An ordination is an event with a long history, having its roots in the ancient Hebrew culture. Yet it is rare for a local congregation to witness.

It is that moment when a person accepts a new identity as a member of the clergy. For some churches it is a sacrament called "holy orders", and is performed by a bishop. In the reformed tradition of churches, growing out of Switzerland, Holland, and Scotland, it is not considered a sacrament. Yet it is a solemn and holy occasion.

The Presbyterian, or reformed, service will be celebrated as Lyman Mobley becomes a pastor.

A commission from churches throughout West Texas will ordain Lyman. This body consists of both clergy and lay people. It reflects the fact that the church is governed by both clergy and lay officers. Lyman will then be a member of this judicial body which oversees the work of the denomination from El Paso eastward to Eldorado.

The ritual is historical and each word and motion is rich with meaning. The laying-on-of-hands is the essence of the ordination service. In theological terms the congregation watches the visible sign of a mystery. The candidate kneels while the elders press their hands upon his shoulders and head. It is a way that certain powers are passed on to him.

By this act the commission serves as a witness to the fact that the person has been given certain abilities for leadership, counseling, preaching and administration. They are called "charismatic gifts"—a word becoming popular in our lingo. It simply means that these abilities are given to the person for the sake of the congregation, and not for his own personal aggrandizement. When the elders lay on hands, it is their way of publicly recognizing these things in him.

The gesture has a rich history. Jewish priests used to lay their hands heavily on the shoulders of the sacrificial animal—a bull, or a ram—and offer a long, solemn prayer. They pressed the weight of their bodies on the animal as a way of signifying that this animal stood in place of the people. It was being offered up on their behalf.

In the Christianizing of this tradition, it took on plural meanings. The consecrated individual still stands on behalf of the people before God, but also stands on behalf of God to the people.

The ordination service will reflect these various meanings in the liturgy. The choir plays a significant role, entering a prayer for the spiritual gifts to be given to the candidate.

The congregation will have greater involvement that in the usual Presbyterian format. For the denouement of the service, the people, instead of being met at the back door by the preacher, will move as a body in the opposite direction. They all go forward to meet him as an expression of affection.

Miss Harrell is hurt

Jo Lynn Harrell, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrell, was injured Saturday morning when she was helping work cattle on the family's Rocking R Ranch. The accident happened when the horse she was riding ran into a guy wire on a telephone pole. The youth was thrown from the horse into some rocks. She suffered a gash on her head and a broken collar bone. She was unconscious a short time. She was taken to Schleicher County Medical Center and was released Tuesday afternoon.

JUST JOGGIN' ALONG!

By Express News
Publisher, ED MEADOR

It appeared as though the worm had turned. Dark, gray rainclouds in the west and headed this way, cooling breezes that provided some relief from the torrid temperatures of late, and it looked like we were getting ready for some late summer rain....and it did for about fifteen minutes around noon Monday. By two o'clock though, old Mr. Sun had taken things over once again, and the old heat gauge began a rapid climb. By five o'clock it was just like any other day for the past six weeks. There's gotta be an end to this sort of thing somewhere up ahead.

Occasionally, you get to do something about your environment, and we're taking the opportunity to do just that with ours for a few days. We're off to enjoy some of that cool mountain air, and perhaps a shower or two during the next three or four days, and I promise I'll be thinking of you while you are reading today. Since it always seems to rain when I am away from home, maybe luck will hold and some of that precious stuff will make it's appearance. If it turns out that way, I'll stay away a little longer if someone will furnish the necessary funds!

Last Sunday afternoon at the ranch at 5:00 p.m., the thermometer on the north side of the Round House registered a solid 100 degrees. Funny, but on the east side in the shade it seemed quite cool and pleasant. As I gazed across the hills and down in the two little valleys, I could only marvel at the beautiful shades of gold that Mother Nature had painted onto the hillsides. As the descending sun lengthed the shadows, the gold tones softened, and the greenery of the liveoak took on a deep rich hue, blending into that picture as though stroked in with the gentle touch of a master painter. All coupled with a pastel sky, you could but marvel at the beauty of it all.

So often in our hurried way, we fail to take time to see the things around us that really count for something. What a privilege it is to live in this good land.

My secretary, Billie Porter, chided me after last week's column with the remark about the fact that she couldn't find much light and airy about the subjects I dwelt on. And maybe we do get all of the bad news we can stand from the daily papers and the electronic media. But every once in a while it seems necessary to add some special attention to certain matters, and our governmental approach to some of our energy problems which are both unexplainable and, in a country supposedly dedicated to democracy and free enterprise, inexcusable, happens to be one area that we as citizens need to understand and deal with. Perhaps by highlighting such things, we can better fathom what is happening to us as a nation. And if we can just do that, we'll be better citizens.

So like the song points out, nobody promised us a rose garden. But Billie made her point....it is nice to smell the flowers.

All those smiling faces you see this week belong to Moms and Dads who have all the brood back in school. I don't believe it's all because the little guys and gals aren't home all day to get underfoot, but there's something special about the beginning of school that means excitement, fun, new and different things in the lives of growing families. You can just smell football in the air, and that band music puts a little pep in your walk and zest in your living that wasn't there a few short days ago. Once again we're on the move. Wow!

Let's see now...Christy told me to be sure and bet on the ninth horse in the last race of the last day. She even agreed to refund the $2.00 I put up for her just so I made sure to bring her the rest of the winnings. Someone mentioned that daughter-in-laws usually have a lot of nerve. At least I'll find out if she really knows anything about horses.

Two ministers will fill pulpit

This Sunday, Rev. Bryan Ross, Area Director of Missions for the Big Spring-San Angelo Baptist Area, will be preaching in the morning services at the First Baptist Church. Rev. J.W. Ragsdale of San Angelo will be bringing the message at the evening services at 7:00 p.m. Rev. Ragsdale is a graduate of Golden Gate Southern Baptist Seminary in San Francisco, California.

These men will fill the pulpit while Rev. Stark and his family visit his parents in Seminole, Oklahoma. All members of the church will be relieved to know that there will be air conditioning in the sanctuary this Sunday! A new system is being installed this week. If it is not completed, the old one is again working on a temporary basis. There should be no problem with comfort during the morning or evening services.

Church of Christ reports big turnout

Between 85 and 105 youngsters attended the Church of Christ Bible School two weeks ago. In charge of the two and three olds were Janelle Hausenfluck, Patti Hausenfluck and De Ann Coates. The four and five year olds were under Mrs. Sid Johnson and Toni Fatheree. Cynthia Sauer and Lynna Sauer were in charge of first and second graders. In charge of third and fourth graders were Mrs. Bobby Phillips, Mrs. Roy Jones, Mrs. W.W. Holsey, Kaye

Hurley and Cindy Holsey. Gloria Kent and Donna Casbeer taught fifth and sixth graders. Supervisor was B.C. Coates, Minister of the Church of Christ. Refreshments were furnished by Patsy Kellogg, Cassie Jarrett, Matthew Nixon and Brian Jones. The church bus picked up two loads daily. B.C. Coates, minister, expressed appreciation for parents who allowed their children to attend the Bible School classes.

We've got the exciting GRANADA

Ford Granada was designed to be a functional car. It thoughtfully combines the efficient use of space, fuel and money to deal with driving conditions today. Granada also give you the classic styling, comfort and aspects of ride smoothness you find in some of the world's finest automobiles. Granada is often confused with cars costing many times more.

How well the Granada design idea was accepted can be measured by the fact that it outsold all newcomers in its first year. Its second year (1976), Granada ranked third among the best-selling cars in America. For 1977, there are five editions to choose from: the Granada 2-Door Sports Coupe Option, 2-and 4-Door Granada Sedans, and 2-and 4-Door Granada Ghia Sedans.

BANK CENTS

From the Management and Staff of The First National Bank of Eldorado

Sales credit and cash credit are basically the two types of credit most readily available to the majority of consumers.

Sales credit includes charge accounts, credit cards and other means of financing created at the time of a specific transaction... therefore, the term, sales credit.

Cash credit is usually in the form of a direct loan, such as those made at the bank. Although the loans are made on a cash basis, they can often be repaid in either a lump sum at a specific time or in a series of specific "installments" over a period of time. Many find that with the purchase of major appliances, or other big ticket items the "cash credit" saves enough to make it well worth the time to establish a direct loan.

Both methods continue to gain in popularity with the Federal Reserve Board reporting installment loans at a total of over 160 billion dollars as of last December 31st.

Nursing Home News

Nothing unusual happened in the home last week. We are all still hoping that we can get a good, general rain soon.

Andrew Campbell is still in the St. Johns Hospital in San Angelo, but his condition is improving. We will be glad when he is able to be brought back to the Home. We miss him.

Elva Daniels has been back in her room about a week, after about a two weeks stay in the hospital here in Eldorado.

Frank Reed is doing better and he is in the dining room for some of his meals.

The Church of Christ, located on the Mertzon highway, of which B.C. Coates is minister, conducted the service here in the dining room at the Home last Sunday. Quite a few of their members attended the service and the room was almost full. We wish that more of the members of the various churches in town would come to the service here each Sunday. We enjoy having them and seeing them.

There were a few visitors in the Home last week: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cardwell of Marble Falls, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Conway Slaughter of Menard visited Hexie Potter. Maxine Stephens from San Angelo visited with Flossie Crawford; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Proctor of San Angelo visited her mother Elva Daniels; Bert Blaylock of Orient, Texas visited his mother, Hattie Blaylock. Bingo winners last Wed. were Bess Andrews 2, Bealah Harris 2, Maggie Sluder 2, Erna Rexroat-LaVita Brooks 1, Ella Casbeer 1. No record of Friday's winners.

"No matter what happens, there's always somebody who knew it would."

Mr and Mrs L.D. "Jelly" Mund and Mr and Mrs N.G. Hodges attended the wedding of John Cole Hodges and Kim Armbruster in Buda Saturday. Hodges is Mr and Mrs Hodges' grandson, Mrs Mund's nephew and the son of Mr and Mrs Jack S. Hodges of Neiderwald. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Ronald Armbruster of Buda.

THE GOOD AND THE BAD -- Rain clouds such as these have been passing over the county this week. Residents have been blessed with scattered showers from clouds such as these, but at the same time plagued with grass fires begun from lightning. Everyone in Eldorado and Schleicher County have been disappointed in the slight amount of moisture, hoping that soon clouds will bring a long soaking rain to end the dry season.

Mrs. Evelyn Wimer spent last week with her son the Mickey Penningtons. She attended the graduation exercise at St. Mary Law School where Mickey received his law degree. Others attending the graduation were Dr and Mrs B.M. Amstead of Austin; Mr and Mrs Kenneth Pennington, Blair & Stacy of Austin. Mrs. Mickey Pennington will be associated with a pharmacy in Uvalde. The Mickey Penningtons moved to Uvalde over the weekend where Mickey went to work for Kessler & Kessler Law Firm in Uvalde. Mrs Wimer helped them move before returning to Eldorado.

Mrs Bill Harrison and children, Leslie & Billy, have returned home to Corsicana after visiting Mrs. Harrison's parents, Mr and Mrs Arch Mittel and her brother and sister-in-law the Ronnie Mittel's.

Robert L. Barrows, son of Mr and Mrs John L. Barrows of 3402 Vista del Arroyo, San Angelo, received his degree in law on Aug. 17 from St. Mary's University Law School in San Antonio. Barrows is the son of the former Jonnie Lee Dickens and grandson of Mrs Annie Neill Hogg, formerly of Eldorado.

He graduated from San Angelo Central High School in 1970 and received his B.A. degree in history at Austin College, Sherman, Texas in 1974. Mrs. Hogg's granddaughter, Miss Joni Lynn Dusek of Odessa, received her B.A. degree cum laude in history from Angelo State University on Aug. 12. She is the daughter of Mrs Gary Rogers of Lewisville, the former Carol Dickens of Eldorado.

Mrs Jimmy Mercer and baby son, Andrew, of Galveston, were week-end guests of Rev. & Mrs. Roy Shilling Sr. of College Station. Other guests were Dr and Mrs H.W. Van Cleave and Mr Roy Shilling III all of College Station.
