Eagles Lose To Rankin

The Eldorado Eagles suffered a very hard 33-0 loss to the Rankin Red Devils Friday night. Our Eagle defense could not hold the very impressive Rankin offense.

The Red Devils' first score came early in the second quarter on an 11 yard run by Ronald Plagens, and the PAT was good. That was all the scoring in the first half.

In the third quarter, quarterback Beau Rose scored twice on quarterback sneaks from seven and one yards' out. The first PAT was good, making the score 20-0.

Rose hit running back Terry Turler with a 21 yard pass for the next score in the fourth quarter but the PAT failed. Turler then sprinted 71 yards for the final Rankin score, but again the point after failed. The final score was 33-0.

Although the score was lopsided, the Eagles were very competitive with the aerial attacks of Greg Davidson and split end Lamar Hardee. Hardee gave a second and third effort many times while running his patterns. He also did an excellent job of punting.

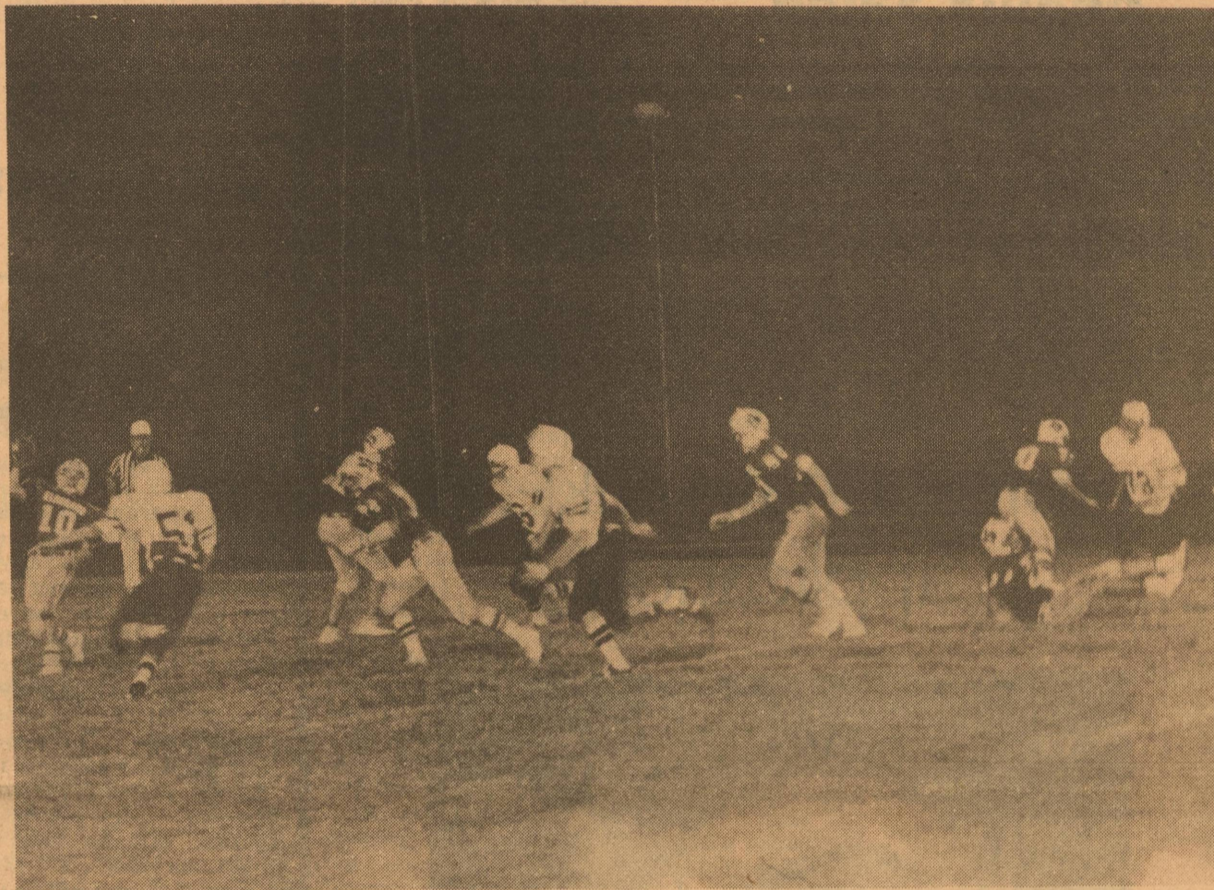

Running back Floyd Fay and Danny Pina also showed promise with Fay breaking loose for long yardage several times.

The Eagle defense also had some good plays with lineman Greg Garlitz and linebackers Whit Paxton and Eddie Montalvo making many crushing tackles. Also, cornerback Brad Thomas had an interception and ran it back 14 yards in the first quarter.

With these players and the rest of the dedicated team, the 1981 Eagles will still come up with a good season.

Next week, they will travel to Iraan to face the Iraan Braves. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

Today, the seventh, eighth and junior varsity teams will meet the Big Lake Owls at home. Action begins at 5 p.m.

Volunteers Get MDA Pledges

Jerry Lewis and volunteers around the country collected over $31 million in the annual telethon to help victims of Muscular Dystrophy over the Labor Day holiday.

Lewis' efforts were helped by a handful of volunteers in Eldorado who manned telethon phones in the Schleicher County Leader office for the 24 hour duration. They received pledges totalling $457.

Meanwhile, several youngsters, lead by Marsha Fimbres, collected $303.35 in less than four hours by going door-to-door. The youngsters were Crystal Hyde, Lindsey Hyde, Tracey Richards, Missy Burleson, Tami Faull, Angie Hight, Sue Dean, Danny Willeke, Stan Meador and Lorenzo Ramos.

Manning the phones through the night were Anne Hyde and Hanna Webster. They were joined Monday by Else Williams, Alma Wlazlinski, Sue Loring and Lori Heffernan.

Although the phones were not ringing off the wall as some of the telethon broadcasters reported, there were some humorous moments. The number given the telethon station here was the old number for the hospital and clinic so volunteers had a hard time explaining to a few confused callers they could not set up appointments to see a doctor. The other number for the telethon station was for the Leader and that also caused some confusion.

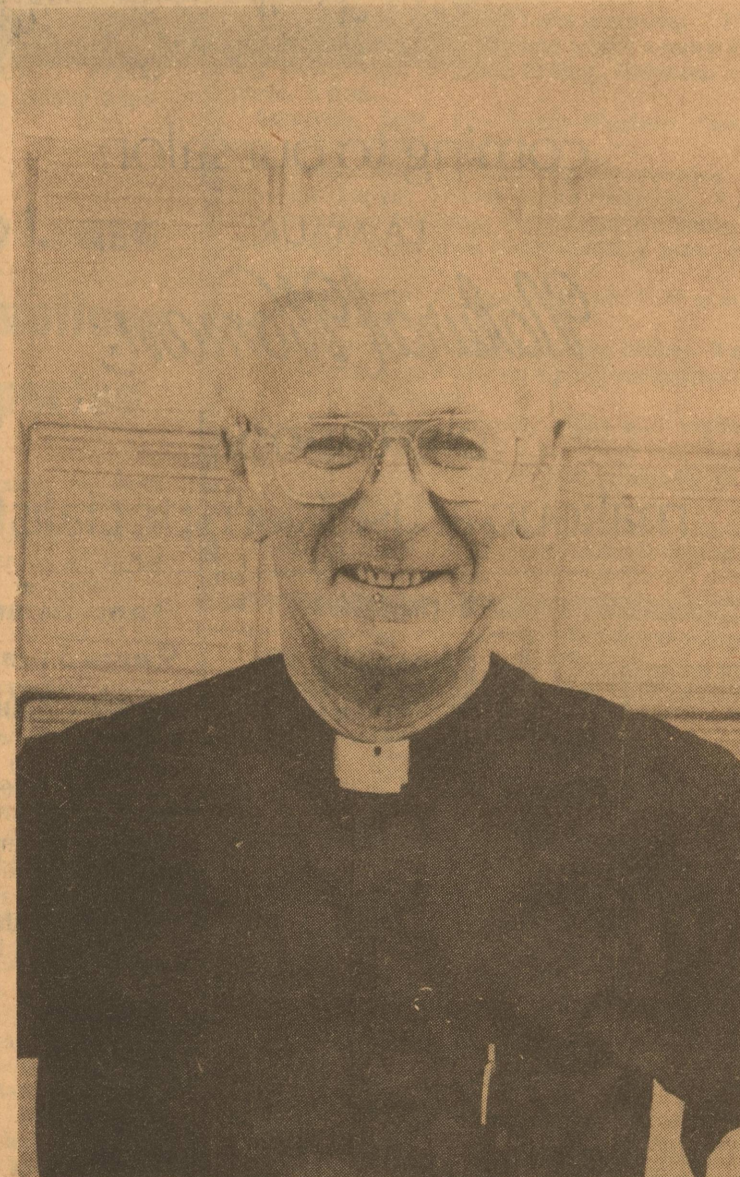

Volunteers are thanking everyone who pledged to the Muscular Dystrophy Association and who gave in the door-to-door drive as well as Jerry Jones TV who supplied a television hookup to a television set for the duration of the telethon.

Social Security Law Changes Affect Self-Employed Persons

Self-employed individuals reporting earnings for social security purposes should be aware of a recent change in the law, according to Franklin Upp, district manager of the San Angelo Social Security Office.

This change concerns the definition of income which counts for the annual earnings after a person retires. It does not apply for coverage or tax liability purposes.

The following list most self-employed person affected by this change. This list is not all inclusive.

—Farmers who sell carry-over crops in a year after retirement —Insurance salesmen who receive renewal commissions after retirement for policies sold before retirement.

—Retired partners who receive a distributive share of the partnership income after retirement.

—“Silent” partners who may never have worked in the partnership but who receive a distributive share of the partnership based on their investment in the business.

—Other retired persons who derive net self-employment income solely from the ownership of an income producing business, land, property or capital.

The purpose of the law was that self-employed persons should not be penalized for the receipt of income earned before becoming eligible for social security or for income received after retirement.

The following example illustrates the point. A farmer who was receiving social security benefits and sold a carryover after retirement was penalized for having farm income after retirement. The new amendment permits farmers to sell a carryover crop after retirement and not be penalized assuming production of the crop was completed before the month of eligibility to social security.

The new law can also permit self-employed insurance salesmen to receive renewal commissions after retirement if the income (renewal commissions) is based on policies sold before retirement.

Farmers and self-employed insurance salesmen are only two of the types of retired persons affected by the amendments.

If you have any questions about social security and income from self-employment, get in touch with any social security office. You can find the address of the nearest office in the telephone book under “Social Security Administration”.

Garden Chick List For September

1. Stake mums through growing season when necessary. Do not divide crowded mums until spring.

2. Prepare spring-flowering bulb beds for planting this fall. It's important to cultivate the soil and add generous amounts of organic material (grass clippings, leaves, compost, well-rotted manure, etc.) to improve water drainage.

3. Okay to prune out dead or diseased wood right now from trees and shrubs. Hold off any major removal of healthy tissues until February as doing so at this time will only stimulate tender new growth that could be damaged by frost.

4. September is an ideal time to put in transplants of cold-hardy annual flowers. You may get some blooming this fall, but they will certainly grow over the winter then bloom like gang busters early next spring.

5. These days are ideal clean-up days—get a head-start on early falling leaves, destroy what is left of summer weeds before they provide seed for next year's crop in the garden—cut away that misplaced seedling tree and give the hedge its final clipping for the year.

6. It is time to dream dreams of spring, to scan catalogs and select spring bulbs for late October and November planting. It is time to plan for the spring beauty of daffodils, jonquils, narcissus, Dutch iris, Dutch hyacinths, grape hyacinths and anemones for next spring. Spring bulbs should be planted in late October and November so the roots become well established before they send up their flower buds. Select bulbs now. Keep them stored in a cool, dry location until the beds are well-prepared and planting time is here.

7. The secret of success with tulips is pre-chilling the bulbs before planting in late November and December. Place the tulip bulbs in the vegetable bin of your refrigerator for 45 to 60 days before planting. Our winters are not cold enough to trigger the biological clock to initiate the tall stems and good, colorful blooms. Do not freeze the bulbs and plant them as soon as they are removed from storage or all your efforts will be in vain.

8. Early autumn is an ideal time to make landscape plans. Select additional trees and shrubs needed for the landscape. Choose plants which will best do the job intended. Be sure each plant has a function in the total landscape plan.

9. Now is the last call for feeding lawn grasses. A fall application of nitrogen will help condition the grass for overwintering. Plan to apply 8 pounds of ammonium sulfate or 5 pounds of ammonium nitrate per one thousand square feet of lawn area. Apply fertilizers when the grass blades are dry and water it well into the soil to prevent burning.

10. Don't forget the fall vegetable garden. It certainly can be rewarding with fresh greens, radishes, spinach, onions, cabbages, mustards, collards, beets, and lettuce. The success of fall vegetables will depend on moisture and, of course, the resistance of winter.

11. Other timely weekend gardening chores may include: digging and transplanting dailies, bearded iris and other seasonal perennials. Dig and store caladium once the foliage has browned. Continue to feed and water mum plantings until the flower buds show color. Prepare new rose beds for winter or early spring planting. Locate the proposal roses in morning sun in a well-drained soil. Collect dried materials for winter bouquets.

12. Cool fall days are ideal for spading new garden beds. Add humus in the form of peat moss, leafmold or compost to insure good drainage, water retention and aeration.

Hot Climate Poses Problems for Homeowners

WATERING PROBLEMS

Current hot, dry conditions pose many problems for homeowners, and lawn care during times of stress is one of the most difficult to deal with.

Here is some practical advice to help homeowners get their lawns through the remainder of the summer. Where water is limited for lawn use, only when the lawn shows signs of stress, such as wilting or discoloration. Soak the lawn about 3 or 4 inches deep to encourage deep rooting, stronger plants. Ideally, water lawns early in the morning

St. Augustine and bermudagrass to mature and produce seed. Shredding the seedstalks with a mower in late fall or winter will allow seed to revitalize the lawn next spring.

to incorporate any dew which might be present and to reduce evaporative loss. When water is available, at a height of 2 1/2 to 3 inches at ten to 14-day intervals.

If you cannot water the lawn, mowing at a height of three to four inches and only when the lawn becomes unsightly is the best practice. Mowing at this height will allow common

Lost Documents Should Not Prevent Veterans From Benefits

The Veterans Administration today reminded veterans and their dependents that they shouldn't let lost documents prevent them from applying for VA benefits.

"Some veterans who can not locate birth or marriage certificates don't apply for benefits because they believe these documents are essential," a VA spokesman said.

But, he pointed out, VA accepts certified statements from applicants in instances where documents needed to establish eligibility for benefits are lost.

In the case of a marriage, the official said, this policy applies only to the first marriage for each partner, and there must be no contradictory information on file with the agency.

In years past, VA required formal documentation to support claims for compensation and education benefits for veterans, widows and orphaned children.

More recently, however, the agency has accepted a certified statement regarding the birth of a child or as proof of age and relationship in disability cases.

Veterans or dependents with questions about eligibility for benefits are urged to contact the nearest VA regional office or a representative of one of the national veterans organizations.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 38 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the authority to manage state funds. Funds constitutionally dedicated to specific purposes would not be subject to committee management. The committee would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, and the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide that one-half of the surplus tax revenues above the spending limit provided by Article VIII, Section 22, of the Texas Constitution would be placed in a Water Assistance Fund to be used as provided by law, including projects for water development and conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes or any combination of these purposes.

The amendment also provides $500,000,000 of the general credit of the state to guarantee bonds issued in commercial markets by local political subdivisions, including cities, counties, and special districts. The amendment allows amounts to be established to decrease or retire state debt, which is defined as that debt secured by the full faith and credit of the state. The amendment would raise the interest that could be paid on authorized, but unissued, bonds guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the state from 6% to 12%.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the use of a portion of the excess revenues of the state for water development, water conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes; authorizing the use of the state's credit, not to exceed five hundred million dollars, to guarantee the bonds of cities, counties, towns, and other units of local government in the financing of projects for such purposes; increasing the interest rate that may be paid on previously approved, but unissued, state bonds; and authorizing a program to retire state bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt livestock and poultry from taxation. Currently, farm products in the hands of the producer and family supplies for home and farm use are exempt. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the inclusion of livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 81 authorizes the governing body of a county, city, school district or other political subdivisions to exempt from taxation a portion of the market value of a residence homestead. The portion exempted may be as much as 40% for 1982-1984; 30% for 1985-1987; and 20% for 1988 and after. The amount of an exemption may not be less than $5,000 unless the legislature by general law prescribes other monetary restrictions on the amount of the exemption. An eligible adult is allowed to receive other applicable exemptions provided by law. An exception is made where ad valorem tax has previously been pledged for the payment of debt.

The amendment further directs the legislature to require that notice be given to property owners of a reasonable estimate of tax on their property in certain situations.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell an additional $250,000,000 in bonds increasing the Veterans' Land Fund's total bond issuance authorization from $700,000,000 to $950,000,000. The amendment would increase the maximum interest payable by the state on these bonds from 6% to 10%, and permit an even higher rate, if specified by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of additional bonds to finance the veterans' land program and to increase the maximum interest rate allowable on veterans' land fund bonds."

Time May Be Running Out For Veterans Using GI Bill

Time is running out for approximately 900,000 veterans to use educational benefits of the GI Bill, now in it's 37th year.

About one-fifth of the 4.3 million eligible veterans will lose their eligibility for benefits this year, according to the Veterans Administration. The law permits a veteran to use the educational benefits within 10 following discharge from service, or by December 31, 1989, whichever is earlier.

From June 22, 1944, when the first measure was signed by President Roosevelt, through June 30, 1981, 18 million veterans have received assistance under the GI Bill, at a cost of $51 billion. About 35 percent of all trainees have been Vietnam Era veterans. This year the GI Bill will assist the education of more than 800,000 Vietnam Era veterans.

More than 7.8 million World War II veterans were trained under the original measure, about one-half of all those eligible. Another 2.4 million, or 43.4 percent of those eligible, studied under the Korean plan, and nearly thus far participated in the current program. Some 65 percent of the Vietnam Era veterans eligible have received training.

A new program, which requires financial participation by service personnel, is available for those who entered the military after December 31, 1976.

Veterans who want more information on GI Bill eligibility should contact the nearest VA regional office.

Soybeans facing Ups and Downs

Soybeans, a cash crop of growing importance in Texas, will likely face ups and downs in the marketplace this year.

Extended wet weather this spring dealt a hard blow to the Texas soybean crop, causing some farmers in coastal and eastern areas to replant as many as three times. This means considerable added expenses plus low yield potentials from these late plantings.

"The fact that the average price of beans to farmers is about a dollar higher per bushel now than at this time last year should encourage producers to forward contract at least part of the crop," points out Johnny Feagan, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "This would assure a profit on part of their crop and reduce their risk.

"How much of a money-maker Texas soybeans prove to be this year will depend on the weather during the rest of the growing season, the overall U.S. crop and export demands," points out Feagan.

Notes From Nancy

by Nancy Leswter, extension agent

Bartlett Pear Harvest Makes A Sweet Story
There's good news for consumers in local produce markets! Thanks to an exceptionally abundant crop of high-quality Bartlett pears from the Pacific Coast states this summer, the season for all-purpose Pacific Mountain Bartletts will extend from late August all the way into the month of December.

The Pacific Mountain Bartlett pear, known as the "summer" pear, has a true pear shape, and a fine-grained, white flesh that is smooth and very juicy. The skin of the Bartlett turns from green to yellow as it ripens. The distinguished Red Bartlett has the same size, shape and eating characteristics as the regular Bartlett. However, the skin of this Bartlett turns a bright crimson when ripe making it an attractive addition to salads, appetizer trays or fresh desserts.

Usage: Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears are prized for cooking, baking and canning, as well as for their fresh-eating qualities. Bartletts are also a natural for out-of-hand enjoyment, from snacks to light desserts. The tender, flavorful skins make peeling unnecessary.

Nutrition: Fresh Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears offer nutritional value to the diet in addition to delicious flavor. Bartletts contain a certain amount of nutrients, such as iron, phosphorous, vitamin C and B-vitamins. And they are quite high in potassium. In addition, pears are low in sodium, making them an excellent choice for those on salt-restricted diets. One medium pear contains about 100 calories.

Selection: When buying fresh Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears for immediate use, look for yellow-skinned fruit with flesh that yields lightly to gentle pressure. Quite often you will find pears that are lightly green. This is because pears are one of the few fruits best harvested before they are ripe. You can buy slightly green pears with the confidence that they will ripen to a sunny yellow in a few days at room temperature. ripe pears should be refrigerated until they are used.

The following dessert recipes represent just a sampling of the many delightful and easy ways that Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears can sweeten late summer and fall menus.

SPICY FRUIT PIES are as much a part of autumn as the falling leaves. This basic recipe is quick to make because Bartlett pears do not require peeling.

FRESH PEAR PIE
5 cups thinly sliced Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup packed brown sugar

Historical Society Has Meeting
Historical Society met Sept. 7 for a business meeting. Those attending were Margaret Frost, Ruth Baker, Ola Ruth Barbee, Blanch West, Elizabeth Ballow and Frankir Williamson.

The meeting was called to order by the President Margaret Frost. Ruth Baker read the Secretary's Report and was accepted. Two new cabinets have been made and are to be filled soon. Also some cement work has been done by Erwin Schobart.

Franke Williamson made the motion that one of our history books be given to the County Historical Commission and the motion passed.

Comptroller Rep Coming Sept. 18

State Comptroller bob Bullock will have a representative from his San Angelo office in Eldorado on September 18, 1981 to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Enforcement Officer Esther Esparza will meet with local taxpayers in the memorial Building from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.

"If Eldorado area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing state tax forms, Ms. Esparza will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

1/4 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons ground nutmeg
1/8 teaspoon salt
Pastry for 2-crust 9-inch pie
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Vanilla ice cream (optional)

Sprinkle pears with lemon juice. Toss with sugars, flour and seasonings. Heap into pastry-lined 9-inch pie plate. Dot with butter; adjust top crust. Seal and flute edges; cut vents. Bake at 425 degrees F. 45 to 50 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm or cold. Top with vanilla ice cream. Makes 1(9-inch) pie.

Halved Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears make a refreshing base for luscious ice cream sundaes.

QUICK PEAR SUNDAES
3 Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears, halved and cored
6 large scoops vanilla ice cream
Butterscotch or caramel sauce
Toasted slivered almonds

Place one scoop of ice cream in center of each pear half. Drizzle with butterscotch sauce and sprinkle with almonds. Makes 6 servings.

An old-fashioned "slump" features fresh Pacific Mountain Bartlett pear slices simmered with spices and topped with fluffy dumplings. Nutmeg Sauce is served over the warm dessert.

FRESH PEAR SLUMP
4 Pacific Mountain Bartlett pears
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 cup water
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1-1/2 teaspoons baking powder

1-1/2 cups flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
Nutmeg Sauce
Core and slice pears. In 3-quart saucepan, bring pears, sugar, cinnamon, water and butter to boil. Cover and reduce heat. Stir together flour, baking powder and salt; add milk to make a soft dough. Drop by spoonfuls on top of pears. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Serve warm with Nutmeg Sauce. Makes 6 servings.

NUTMEG SAUCE: Combine 1 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon flour. Stir in 1 cup boiling water. Cook and stir until slightly thickened. Add 1 tablespoon butter; simmer 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Add 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg. Serve warm. Makes 1-1/2 cups.
