

No show for revenue sharing hearing

County Commissioners met Monday morning and approved the upcoming fiscal year's county budget which tallied $1,913,918 in disbursements. The tax rate will be continued at 38 cents per $100 valuation with 4 cents of this total aimed at debt retirement.

No one appeared for the revenue sharing hearing which will consist of approximately $53,000.

Meeting with the county bosses was architect Gary Donaldson who's continuing his study of the renovation of the Memorial Building.

Tom Giovanniti also appeared before the commissioners with reference to his being appointed as the temporary County Attorney. Giovanniti is currently a Business Law instructor at A.S.U. in San Angelo. The county passed a motion which declared Dr. Woltjen as the County Health Officer. He is presently an employee of the State Medical Board in Abilene; should any health problems occur in Schleicher County, he will be notified and follow the proper procedures for rectifying the problem.

The Gaines County mineral lease owned by Schleicher County was approved by the commissioners.

Griffin Propane was awarded the propane bid for the county. His bid came in at 55 cents per gallon with Halbert LPG bidding 57 cents per gallon.

The commissioners approved the minutes and approved monthly bills for payment also during their meeting. With no further business, the commissioners adjourned.

Irrigation meeting

A cotton drip irrigation meeting and tour sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has been set for 3:00 p.m. Sept. 18, according to Jerry Swift, County Agricultural Extension Agent here.

Participants should meet at the Memorial Building directly behind the Schleicher County Courthouse in Eldorado.

Following a brief program concerning the types of drip irrigation systems available, and the economics and management of cotton produced under drip irrigation, the tour will go to the Earl Lloyd farm to view a working system. The system consisting of 27 acres, is the first cotton to be produced on a commercial scale by this method in West Texas. Four varieties of cotton are planted in the field.

Lloyd and his son Roy who own and operate the system, will describe their experiences in growing cotton under this production method. They will also demonstrate the components of the system, how it works and the equipment which they built to operate it.

Eagles do good in against Brady in scrimmage

The Eagles had a good showing against Brady last Friday night during the scrimmage with the varsity scoring twice to Brady's once.

Outstanding individual effort in the offensive department was put in by lineman Wade Wallis, guard Sonny Dean, tackle Eric Cheatham, quarterback Tim McAngus, who ran the ball 40 yards on a quarterback sweep, split-end Victor Gutierrez carried the ball 60 yards on a long pass from McAngus.

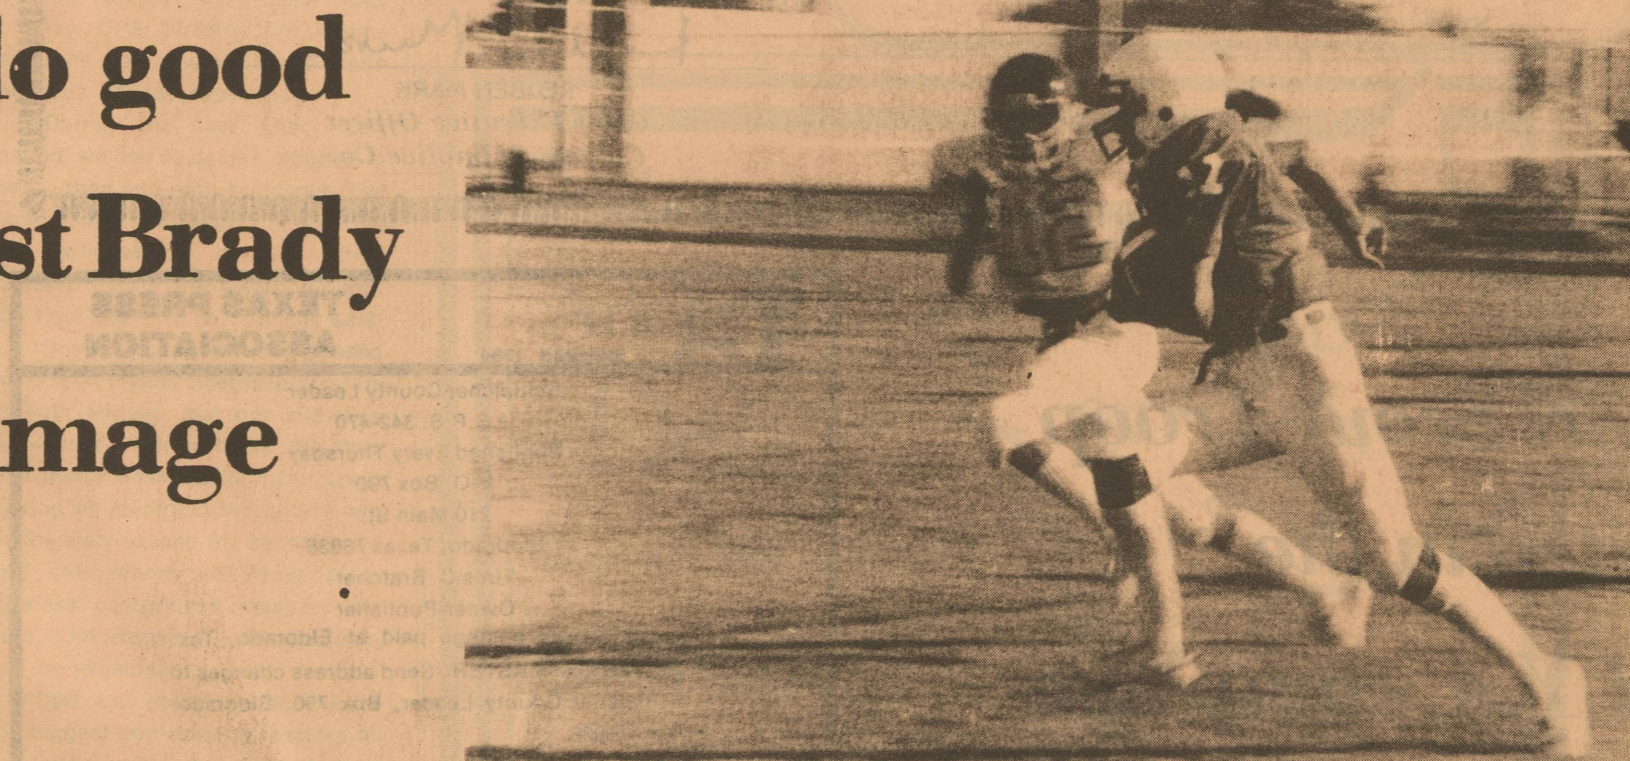

Athletic Director Larry Mitchel stated, "The backfield showed a lot of hustle and effort in the scrimmage".

The defensive shiners were Steve Saldivar, Ron Sauer, James Harlin and Ron Mittel.

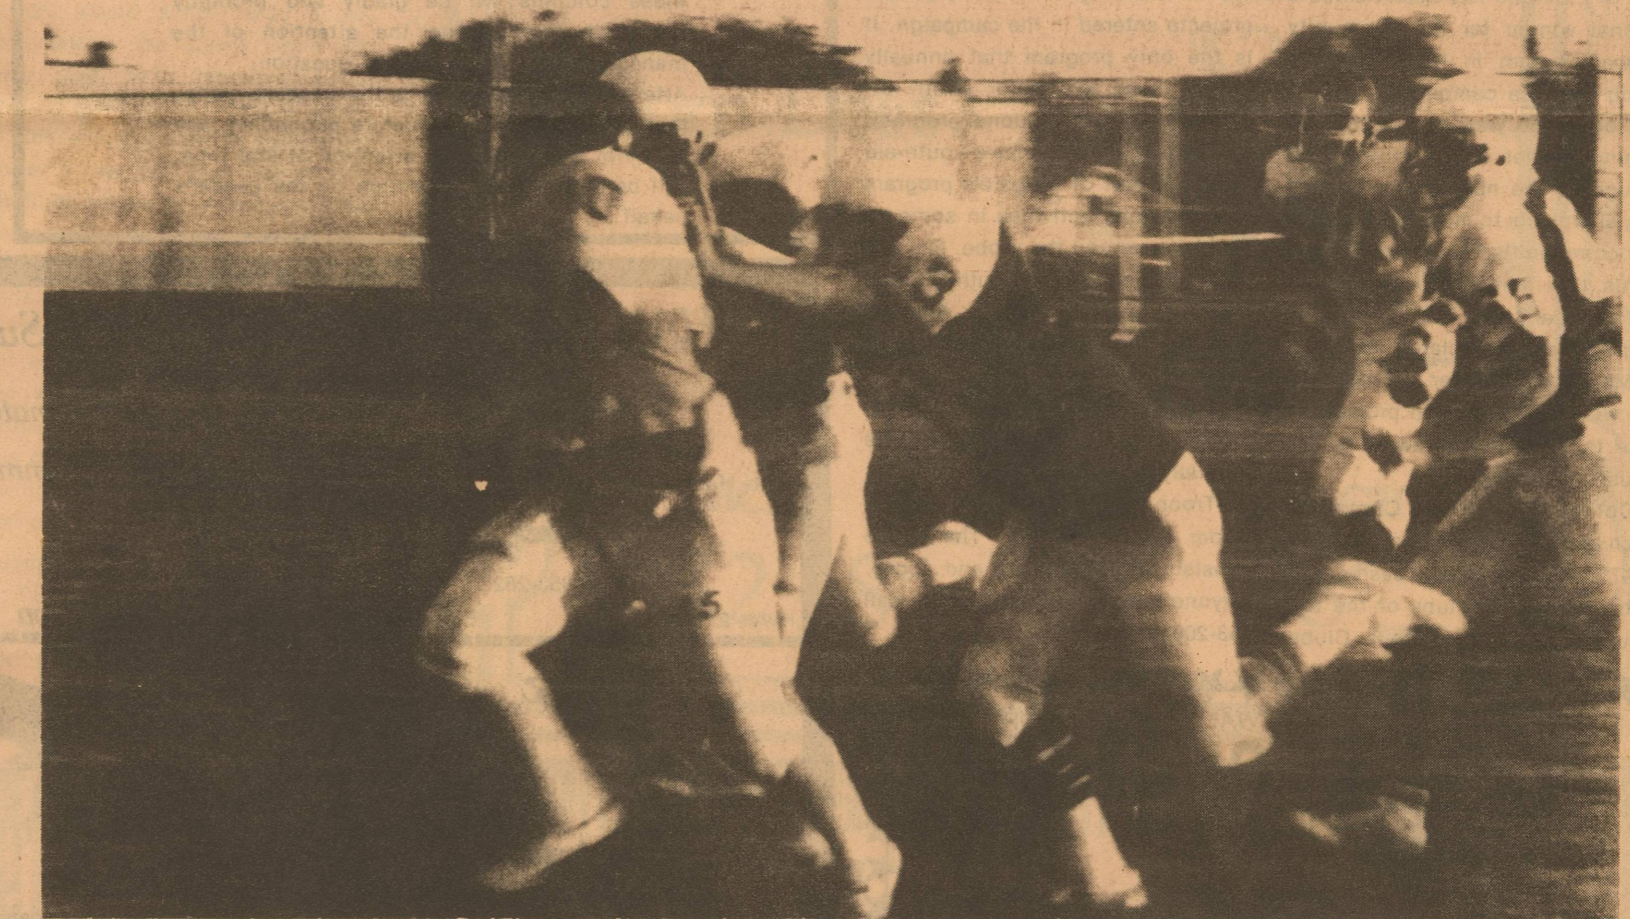

JV Eagles' Coach Rick Singleton stated that his team looked good considering they had been in pads for only one week before the scrimmage with Brady. Even though Brady scored twice to Eldorado's lone score, the overall effort was effective. The lack of depth might be the only deterrent to this year's JV success.

Fullback Troy Daniels, tailback Russ Dacy, quarterback Martin Espinosa, linebacker Mitchell Bradley and defensive end Tommy Nolan were the outstanding players on the team last week.

The Eagles will travel to Mason, Friday, August 31st where the JV will kick off at 6:30 with the varsity to follow.

The local troop had a week of Drug Awareness declared last April by Mayor Bob Lester. Throughout the week the troop did projects to make the community aware of the misuse of drugs.

Colgate-Palmolive Company, which launched Help Young America in 1972, annually awards cash grants to the troops and clubs of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys Clubs,

PUBLIC NOTICE

AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., has filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) a proposal to reduce intrastate, interLATA long distance revenues to offset proposed increases in specialized service rates for private line, WATS, 800, OCC facilities and directory assistance services. The proposed tariff restructure will not result in any increases in the overall revenues of the Company. The proposed effective date for the tariffs is September 20, 1984. All customers and classes of customers will be affected by this filing.

The restructure in the basic long distance service (MTS) results in an overall decrease in the revenues received by the Company from such service of approximately $100 million. While this proposed restructure results in an overall decrease in revenue, certain MTS rates are proposed to be increased to more nearly recover the access charges approved by the PUC for such service.

AT&T Communications has also filed restructured tariffs designed to more closely recover access costs for private line, DATAPHONE* Digital Service (DDS), OCC facilities, WATS, 800 and directory assistance services. These restructured tariffs result in an approximate overall revenue increase of approximately $100 million from increases in its WATS, 800, DDS, OCC facilities and private line rates, and institution of a charge for directory assistance.

The result of these proposed tariff changes and the restructure of our service offerings is to more nearly recover access costs from those services for which such access costs are incurred.

This proposed restructure results in no increase in overall revenue to AT&T Communications and is not a major rate change as that term is defined in Section 43(b) of the Public Utility Regulatory Act.

A complete copy of all tariffs and rate schedules is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Old photographs needed for book

The 1853 photograph of Texas ranger Barry (from the Lawrence T. Jones Collection in Austin) possibly is the oldest surviving photograph taken in Texas.

Conoco Inc. and the Du Pont Company have provided a $105,000 grant to support a project to produce a two-volume set of historic and contemporary photographs of Texas in time for the state's sesquicentennial celebration in 1986.

Photographs for the historical volume are being collected during a four-month search conducted by the Texas Historical Foundation.

The foundation also has commissioned professional photographers to take contemporary photos showing the people, land and businesses of Texas. A directory of the different photographic collections in Texas also will be published.

The project was announced in April by Texas Governor Mark White.

Richard Pearce-Moses, the foundation's photo historian, is currently combing the state's museums, libraries and private collections for interesting photographs that depict the activities of the people of Texas during the past 150 years.

"Photographs -- professional or amateur -- are important historical documents," Pearce-Moses said. "They are windows into the past, showing us the way things were and how people lived. We are losing these records every day through neglect and deterioration."

"Because of Conoco and Du Pont's sponsorship of this project, we will be able to save many photographs for future generations which otherwise might have been lost," he said.

The oldest known photograph taken in Texas was made in Corsicana in 1853, 14 years after the invention of photography was announced in Paris.

It is a portrait of James Buckner "Buck" Barry, a former Texas ranger, Indian fighter and Freethinker. The photographer was E. Drane, a Corsicana dentist.

"It is the oldest Texas photograph I've found, but there could be earlier ones," said Pearce-Moses.

"We also are very interested in finding Texas photos made in the early and mid-1900's of ordinary people, their homes and their activities," he said. "Of particular interest are photographs relating to climate, church activities, athletic events and people hunting wildlife."

The first book will contain no more than 300 photographs, but Pearce-Moses hopes to have more than 5,000 images for his editors when they begin making their final selections in late August.

Submissions by the public are welcome. Please send a copy of the photograph (not the original) before September 15 to: Richard Pearce-Moses, Texas Historical Foundation, P.O. Box 12243 Capitol Station, Austin, Tx. 78711.

Copies of the books will go on sale in December 1985. Half the proceeds will go toward restoration of the State Capitol in Austin; the other half will fund other photo history projects sponsored by the Texas Historical Foundation.

Conoco is a subsidiary of the Du Pont Company.

Sheep and Goat Field Day

The annual Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center Sheep and Goat Field Day is set for September 6th at the Center located eight miles north of San Angelo on Hwy. 87. Registration for the event will begin at 9:30 a.m.

The morning program under the direction of Extension Director Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, will feature presentations on various subjects which include: supplemental feeding, an effective prickly pear management system and the use of guard dogs to protect sheep and goats from predation.

Participants will also have the opportunity to hear reports of new research developments in the sheep and goat industry and to learn of the present activities of area industry associations.

A highlight of the morning session will be the recognition of the first Suffolk Ram Performance Test held at San Angelo. The test will have been completed by the field day and animals and their test results will be made available for viewing.

A dutch treat lunch will be served following the close of the morning session.

The afternoon session will get under way at 1:30 p.m. with three concurrent sessions. The sessions deal with computer software developments and the distribution system of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station; discussion of a new research program in wool and mohair and an information exchange on sheep and goat health.

The field day will conclude following outside demonstrations made available to participants at 2:00 p.m. Tour guide for the demonstrations will be Ken Cook, District 7 Extension Director. The demonstrations will include looks at Fourwing Saltbush, Ammoniation of poor quality hay and by-products, studies of Booroola Sheep, discussions of a lamb feeding trial and a view of the animals involved in the Suffolk Ram Performance Test.

For further information contact: Ed Huston, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, 7887 N. Hwy. 87, San Angelo, Tx. 76901.

Social Security News

Concho Valley residents may find the new service being offered by the San Angelo Social Security Office particularly attractive. If you want to apply for Social Security benefits, you can conduct your business with Social Security on an appointment basis. This will save you time and gas and the frustration of waiting for an interview.

When a person phones for an appointment, he or she will be advised what documents and information to have available for the interview. This will prevent unnecessary contacts with Social Security to submit proofs or provide information required at the initial interview.

The appointment system does not replace the currently available "Teleservice". Most Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, and Medicare matters can be handled by phone without necessitating a visit to the office.

Social Security reminds you to call before visiting the office. If you business cannot be completed during that first call, an interview, either by phone or in person, can be arranged at your convenience. You may be pleasantly surprised when you avoid a trip to the office.

Henson Garvin moves to Laredo

Brisk growth for the Laredo tourist industry in the coming 12 months is predicted by Henson R. Garvin because of the impressive degree of unity and energy shown by local hotel, restaurant, tour agency and Chamber of Commerce executives.

Garvin and his wife, Marsha, recently moved from Corpus Christi to Laredo. They have been named co-managers of the Mayan Inn by owners John and Betty Lou Rip.

He said, "I have never seen in any city, so much fast-paced activity to generate extra tourist business, as is now under way in Laredo. I have really been impressed by the energetic and practical projects that Laredo Hotel and Motel Association, Chamber of Commerce, Laredo Convention and Visitors Council and Laredo Restaurant Association are working together on. Laredo also is fortunate to have a mayor who gives much personal attention to efforts to attract more tourists and conventions."

Garvin took part in the recent week-long Laredo Convention Round-up that was organized by Chuck Snyder, LCVG manager, and Harriet Worrell, convention sales director. He described the event as an effective way of getting wider public participation in the convention promotion effort.

He said the roundup proved to be an ideal setting for meeting and exchanging ideas with a number of hospitality industry people.

"Laredoans may not know it, but some of the state's best hotel bargains are currently to be found in their city. After the peso devaluation, many local hotels cut their rates, or postponed increases.

"People of Laredo should let their friends and relatives in other cities know that they can spend a weekend, or holiday here, much cheaper than at hotels in most other cities," he said.

Garvin, son of Homer Garvin of Kerrville, grew up in Eldorado and graduated from Eldorado High School in 1964 and attended Sam Houston State University. Garvin's two Dee Jay lives in Eldorado and Jim lives in Arlington. Mrs. Garvin is from Mobile, Alabama.

During the Vietnam era, Garvin served three and one-half years in the Air Force. Most of his military career was spent at air bases in San Antonio, Wichita Falls, Amarillo and Fort Worth.

White designates September 9th

"Grandparent's Day"

Governor Mark White has designated September 9th as "Grandparents Day" in Texas.

In Gov. White's official Memorandum he said, "It is fitting and proper that we call attention to the contributions of our Grandparents. They built our families, they built America and their persistence and belief in themselves and our nation, has enabled it and us to weather the bad times and rejoice in the good times. Let us rededicate ourselves to preserving their legacy."

O. P. (Bob) Bobbitt, executive director of the Texas Department on Aging, said, "Grandparents are very unique individuals; they can spoil our children with love and ask so little in return. I urge all grandchildren to take a little time on this special day to visit, call or write their grandparents. Grandchildren have been called the gift for growing old; but grandparents are our children's gift as the closest link to their heritage.

If you do not have a grandparent, September 9th would be a great day to adopt an isolated senior citizen in your neighborhood or at your nearest nursing home if even for a few precious hours."

Truth Shall Live

The only truth that will stand at the judgement of God is the creed that was given to the apostles by Jesus Himself.

Jesus talking to the apostles in Luke 24:47 and that repentance and remissions of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Peter preached in Acts 2:38 - repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Acts 8:15,16,17 Samaria received the Holy Ghost and was baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 10:44,45,46,47,48 the Gentiles received the Holy Ghost and did speak with tongues. Peter commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord.

Acts 19:5,6 they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus and they received the Holy Ghost and they spoke with tongues. I brought these scriptures to open your understanding to the truth. Galatians 1:8 but though we or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Preachers in these trinity churches telling their people that tongues was done away with, let their false teaching be accursed. The ones that are not preaching Jesus name baptism let it be accursed. The ones that are not preaching holiness let it be accursed. The ones that are not preaching righteousness let it be accursed.

The trinity preachers in this town stands up and tickles your ears and you know there is more to the truth than what they're telling you. You will go to another church but it is the same thing you're just changing crowds is what it amounts to.

The apostle didn't preach till they received the Holy Ghost then they went out to preach. There's not a preacher authorized to preach until they themselves have been baptized in Jesus' name and received the Holy Ghost so their understanding be opened to the truth. They have been to school and learned a form of doctrine but denying the truth.

Folks come to the only Jesus name church in Eldorado. Help keep truth in the paper. Send your donations to United Pentecostal Church, Box 115.

Charity auction set

San Antonio.....Boysville's 19th Annual Charity Auction, "The Wildest in the West", has been set for Saturday September 8, 1984 at the Union Stockyards. This auction has something for everyone and donations of farm animals, merchandise, and cash sponsorships are being requested to help Boysville's 4-H and child care programs. Currently there are over 50 boys enrolled in the 4-H program under the supervision of Vernon (Nub) Jones, Boysville Farm Director.

Mr. John Speier, Jr., a Boysville trustee, has accepted the chairmanship of the auction which begins with a breakfast at 7:30 a.m. and the actual auction starting at 9:00 a.m. He says animals or donations will be picked up if donors will call Boysville at 659-1901. Cash sponsorships may be sent directly to Boysville at Post Office Box 369, Converse, Texas 78109.

"Boysville's Ladies Auxiliary will again have their colorful country store offering home-baked goods, preserves, jams jellies, relishes and needlecraft items such as quilts, bonnets and aprons," stated Mr. Speier. The auction is the one big fund-raising effort for Boysville which is totally dependent on the general public for financial support in order to give the 96 boys at the home a fair chance in life. Boysville is 41 years old and has cared for over 2,400 victims of broken homes, seeking to raise them into responsible adults and good citizens. Mr. Speier noted that the September auction will be the 19th consecutive event at the stockyards, 1617 South San Marcos Street, and expressed the gratitude of Boysville to Carlton Hagelstein for permitting Boysville to use the stockyard facilities all these years.

Schooley places first

Gabe Schooley, local Schleicher County 4-H'er recently traveled to area stock shows, where he was awarded top honors.

Gabe, along with several Menard 4-H members, first participated in the George Garrielson Club Lamb Jackpot Prospect Show in Fredericksburg where his entry placed first in the Lightweight Finewool Class and was named Reserve Champion Finewool.

Kerrville was the next stop, on July 29th, for the Hill Country Extravaganza. Gabe was joined there by his sister, Ericka, whose entry placed fifth in Lightweight Prospect and seventh place in Heavy Market Lambs. Gabe took first place in Heavy Weight Prospect Lambs. His lamb went on to be named Grand Champion Finewool Lamb.

Best Ranch in Texas named

Third and fourth generation Browns and Sells of the R. A. Brown Ranch in Throckmorton won the Best Ranch in Texas title at the fourth annual Texas Ranch Round-up. The two-day ranch competition closed in Wichita Falls August 18th.

The Brown Ranch hands took the lead over 12 other Texas ranch teams, including the defending two-time winning Lewis Ranch team.

The roundup tested the skills of more than 200 cowboys, wagon bosses and ranch managers in events designed to highlight everyday ranch work. Raising more than 20,000 for three state charities in the past three years, the roundup is co-sponsored by Budweiser and the North Texas Rehabilitation Center.

The Burnett Ranches, represented by cowboys from the Four Sixes and Triangle camps in Borger, Iowa Park and Paducah, finished in second place. The Moorhouse Ranch from Benjamin (1982 winner) and W.T. Waggoner Estate of Vernon tied for third place. Cowan and Son Circle Bar Ranch, Seymour, tallied points for a close fourth.

Johnny Hill, 32, a camper at the Lewis Ranches in Clarendon, was named Top Hand by judges, while Lucille Moorhouse of the Moorhouse Ranch garnered the First Lady title.

Sorrell Skin, a quarter horse from the R. A. Brown Ranch, cut away with honors in the new Top Horse category.

In the ranch cookin' contest, the Cowan Ranch captured a win in the meat category with smothered steak the Pitchfork Ranch won in vegetables with a potatoe and bacon entree, and the Double U Ranch garnered first place in the baked goods slot with cowboys crepes.

Points were also tallied toward the ranch wins in the talent competition. The Double U took top honors in the painting/photography division with paintings by Vicki Diggs, while the pottery of Linda Lott Bouchier won first place in the crafts category for the U Lazy S team. The Waggoner threesome Tony Haynes, Troy Eavenson and Bruce Cavet won the music division for their ranch.

The R. A. Brown ranch hands set their winning pace with first and second wins in the saddle bronc riding, team branding, team roping, wild cow milking and team penning events.

Rob Brown, ranch owner, attributes the ranch win to good team work. "The boys put it all together to make the point," Brown said. "It's a combination of good horses and cowboys and the family cooperation of the Browns and the Sells."

Paxton & Johnson take places

Two local youths competed in the Lester Meier Youth Rodeo Finals this past week-end at Fredericksburg.

Justin Paxton placed first in the Calf Riding, scoring 65 points Friday and 68 points Saturday night.

Ashley Johnson placed 3rd in the 18.047 Friday night and a 17.051 Junior Barrel Race with a time of Saturday night.

Fifty-four to die this week-end

The Department of Public Safety is estimating that as many as 54 deaths will result from traffic accidents during the Labor Day holiday. DPS Director Jim Adams said the estimate is based upon previous holiday experience.

"During the last Labor Day period, we had 52 deaths reported in both urban and rural accidents. The inclusion of subsequent death due to traffic-related injuries which occurred during the period brought the final count to 55," Adams said.

"Obviously, we would be pleased to have no fatal accidents during this 78-hour holiday, but our statistics know that is not probable. We know that some drivers will insist upon driving while intoxicated, others will deliberately exceed the speed limits and still others will drive in a careless or reckless manner," he said. "Unfortunately, fatal accidents can be expected."

"DWI and speeding are always the biggest contributing factors to our traffic deaths, but the failure to use seat belts is another reason we have so many fatalities. If more drivers would simply stay sober, drive within the speed limits and wear seat belt, fatalities would decline still further," said Adams.

DPS statistics for the year to date reveal a two per cent decrease in fatalities statewide. Adams says the decrease in total deaths may indicate more people are using seat belts.

"While the decline in fatalities is not as substantial as we'd like to see, we do feel that seat belt use is increasing and may be a factor in this decrease. It is an obvious life-saving device that is available in the vast majority of our vehicles," noted Adams.

DPS will conduct two major programs during the Labor Day period. Operation Motorcade will provide updated numbers of traffic deaths to the news media as the accidents occur. Operation Holiday stations troopers at locations where high volumes of traffic are anticipated or where violators are expected.

Small Business: Backbone of our Economy

The importance of small business in America and the 21st Congressional District of Texas cannot be underestimated. Simply stated, small business means jobs. Approximately 57% of the nation's private work force is employed by a small business.

And, today, the opportunity for small business and for the entrepreneur has never been brighter. Consider these most recent statistics.

Small business led the way in job creation during the economic recovery. Between 1981 and 1982, small businesses generated all of the 984,999 net new jobs, offsetting the 1,664,000 jobs lost to larger businesses.

In 1983, small business incorporations rose by a record 600,000, indicating more Americans are going into business for themselves. Between January and September 1983, business starts increased 12.9 percent over the same period in 1982.

Small businesses also provide the traditional entry into the job market for the young, the elderly, and the unskilled worker. Two out of three American workers are first hired by a small business.

The Reagan Administration strongly recognizes the importance of small business and, during the past three years, sweeping policy changes deserve much of the credit for providing small business with a favorable climate in which to flourish.

The most important policy consequences have been the dramatic plunge in inflation, which prompted small business owners to invest capital and to take risks. Business decisions can be made much more confidently with a stable annual inflation rate — now close to three percent — as opposed to the twelve percent faced in 1980.

The tax initiatives of 1981 have also had a direct impact on the recent prosperity of small business. Three important provisions: the modifications in corporate and individual tax rates, the adoption of a simplified capital cost recovery system, and the revision of the estate tax laws, have played a key role in fueling investment and economic expansion.

Small business owners, anxious to see the awesome burden of federal regulations eased, have seen nine of the ten regulatory problems of greatest concern finally addressed by the government. After spending $13 billion each year submitting 305 reports to 103 federal agencies, the easing of the paperwork burden has begun. Although much remains to be done, this Administration, in the past two years, has succeeded in attaining a significant reduction in the regulatory paperwork required by Washington.

During the past three years the Reagan Administration — in recognition of the vital importance of small business — has worked to lessen the impediments that hinder growth and stifle imagination, and these initiatives had my strong, active support.

We must continue our efforts to fully free small business from Washington's intrusive grip. Working together, we shall succeed.
