Services Sunday, 11 A. M. Room 1, Settles Hotel "Are Sin, Disease, and Real?" is the subject of the lessonermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist or Sunday, October 11. The Golden Text is: "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you" (James 4:7,8). Among the citations which com-prise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the peo-ple making a noise, He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose" (Matthew 9:23-25).

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sin, sickness, and death must disappear to give place to the facts which belong to immortal man Learn this, O mortal, and earnestly seek the spiritual status of man which is outside of all materia selfhood" (pake 476).

Wallace Beery Is Starred In New Comedy

Has Typical Role In 'Old Hutch,' At Ritz Friday And Saturday

Wallace Beery returns to the screen in the type of role which has endeared him to movie fans in the comedy, "Old Hutch," booked at the Ritz theater Friday and Saturday. The film is based on a megazine story by the same name, which brought laughs to millions of read-

The "lasiest man in the world" finds $100,000 in stolen bills-and can't find a way to spend it: That's the predicament in which Beery finds himself in this picture. Beery portrays the indolent but lovable native who finds the fortune but can't find a way to use it. When he finally discovers that it is stoler money and that he can capture the courage, Beery gives a great per-formance as he depicts Old Hutch's

A love element is injected into the story, with Eric Linden and Cecilia Parker as the young sweet hearts. The two played similar roles in "Ah, Wilderness!" in which Beery was starred. Others in the cast of "Old Hutch" are Elizabeth Patterson, who appears as Beery' wife; Robert McWade, Carolin Perkins, Julia Perkins, Delmar Watson, Harry Watson, Burke, Virginia Grey and Donald
