Detention Of Chiang Kai-Shek Precipitates Serious Crises For Nanking Govt.

NANKING, Dec. 13. (Sunday) (AP)—Chinese authorities unreservedly admitted today Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was being held prisoner at Sian-Fu as a result of a military rebellion in the Shensi Provincial capital.

Detention of the powerful military and administrative leader by Marshal Chang Hsiao-Liang, former dictator of Manchuria and for the last five years an active associate of Chiang, the Nanking government declared, faced them with one of the gravest crises in the history of China's nationalist movement.

In an all-night session the Chinese government's highest authorities here dismissed Marshal Chang from all official positions in the Nanking administration.

They threatened to launch a military drive against the "young marshal," who was charged with treachery, unless he released his captive immediately and submitted unconditionally to Nanking's orders.

Marshal Chang, leader of the uprising, issued a circular telegram demanding: first, immediate military operations against Japan; second, restoration of Manchuria to China; third, reacceptance by the Chinese government of the policy of the late Sun Yat-Sen, "father of the Chinese revolution," of recognizing communism.

He issued a proclamation calling

Plan To Help Farm Tenants Is Outlined

Connally Says Program To Be Considered At Next Session

FIVE-POINT PROGRAM EXPLAINED TO GROUP

Proposal Provides For The Sale Of Proper-Size Land Tracts

TEMPLE, Dec. 12. (AP)—Sen. Tom Connally said here today that the next congress will consider a government program to "put farm tenants on the land and make them owners of that land."

Connally, speaking before a group of 100 farmers, business men and agricultural leaders attending a soil conservation field day, advanced a five-point program to attack the farm tenant problem. His program:

"Provide for sale to experienced and industrious farm tenants farms of sufficient acreage to support a family, but not of such size as to place too great a burden on the purchaser.

"Cheap Credit

"Provide cheap credit and amortization over a sufficient period of years so tenants may become owners and still meet payments as well as support their families off the land.

"Divest the program into other farm plans for conservation and scientific cultivation of the soil.

"Provide limited supervision to stimulate diversification and proper land utilization.

"Offer incentives toward increasing the value of land, and making the farm a home and not a mere wagonyard."

Rep. Matur Maverick of San Antonio told the group he "came here to learn something and I have learned something. I believe that what we've got to think about now is not what our forefathers thought the constitution, but how we and our children are going to eat—we've got to think about groceries."

Farmers attending the field day—held in celebration of the third anniversary of the Elm Creek water-hed soil conservation project—first studied experimental work at the Blackland station, then practical application of this work on farms in the watershed.

ABOARD ZURICH EXPRESS, France, Dec. 12. (AP)—Edward David Windsor sped across France tonight in quest of private life.

LONDON, Dec. 12. (AP)—In creating the dukedom of Windsor for his brother, the former King Edward VIII, King George VI today conferred the highest dignity in the English peerage.

The dukedom was introduced by King Edward III in 1337 when he made his eldest son, Edward the Black Prince, the first Duke of Cornwall.

A duke is officially addressed by the crown as "our right trusty and right entirely beloved cousin."

Roosevelt Faces Grave Decisions

Reviewing The BIG SPRING WEEK

by Joe Pickle

Number one topic of the week in Big Spring, just as everywhere else, was the king. Opinion was fairly evenly divided, those of a romantic nature contending for his right to marry whom he well pleased and the conservatives arguing for duty above love. There were a few who perceived the wisdom of the adage: "There's no fool like an old fool." However, thanks to Edward, he made up his mind, and now we can go back to the Spanish war for our headlines.

While it may have taken a great deal of courage for the ex-king to give his throne in exchange for a woman, we have admired secretly a different brand of courage displayed by the man who wandered into a local coffee shop last week, called for a saucer, opened up a can of sardines he had brought with him, and ate to his heart's content.

Santa Claus came as usual, the children turned out en masse to greet him. The conventional traffic jams were repeated. Women and children were bowled over as eager kiddies surged forward to scramble for pieces of candy thrown out by Saint-Nick. For all the bruises and brushes, the children had a good time. As long as boys and girls are satisfied, mother and father will have to tag along to witness the spectacle whether they like it or not.

Howard, along with Midland, Martin Dawson and Glascock counties got out of the pink bollworm quarantine situation without damage. While the counties were recommended for quarantine, no policies were adopted which would involve expense or otherwise cost producers of the area anything in marketing their cotton crop. J. M. DeCurto, entomologist for the state agriculture department, said if there were reason to believe that strict quarantine demanding sterilization of seed and fumigation of lint would forever stop the boll worm here, he would not hesitate to recommend it. But, he added, there are no grounds for such hope.

It seems queer to a lot of us that an entire county should be quarantined. (See THE WEEK, page 8, col. 3)

Future Policies On NRA Objectives To Be Mapped

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (AP)—Momentous decisions that may shape the course of his second administration face President Roosevelt on his return next week from South America.

Primarily, they involve interpreting the mandate given by the American people in electing him by a plurality of more than 11,000,000.

Did the voters call for a constitutional amendment? Did they ask for a new NRA, a new AAA, a balanced budget, or continued expenditures? These are some of the questions awaiting the chief executive's decision.

Many of the groups which supported the president during the campaign have placed their own interpretations on the outcome. In many cases their expressions have been in conflict. It will be up to the president to make the choice.

Government Hints 'Foreign' Ships Responsible For Attack

VALENCIA, Spain, Dec. 12. (AP)—The ministry of marine of the Spanish socialist government issued a communique tonight saying its submarine C-3 was torpedoed and sunk.

The C-3, the ministry asserted, was torpedoed by another submarine, "evidently foreign."

The Spanish underwater ship was said to have gone down with 47 of its crew aboard.

The announcement said that the C-3 was sunk off Malaga, seaport on the southern coast of Spain near the Straits of Gibraltar.

As far as was known, officials said, only the submarine's captain, Augustin Garcia, and two seamen were saved.

They were reported picked up later by the vessel Artabo.

21 Nations Approve Peace Proposal

Program OK'd Before It Goes To Parley

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 12. (AP) A plan for maintenance of American peace and security, bearing the unanimous approval of all 21 American republics, was laid before the Inter-American peace conference today.

The unanimity in sponsorship before the plan reached the floor of the conference was described by Pan-American Union officials as unique in the history of inter-American conferences.

The advance approval was obtained quickly today after the United States, Brazil and Argentina got the project under way last night after long, secret conferences.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull, chief of the United States delegation, declared it gives "the strongest guarantees for peace the continent has ever had."

The peace and security project provides if the peace of American republics is menaced, American governments will hold consultations to arrange for peaceful co-operation, in an attempt to prevent war.

In case of war between American countries, the American republics will hold mutual consultations to prevent the spread of the struggle;

In case of international war outside America which menaces the peace of American republics, talks will be held to determine the manner of inter-American co-operation toward maintenance of peace.

Joan Crawford, Clark Gable Starred In Comedy Romance Opening At Ritz Today

Franchot Tone Also Featured In 'Love On The Run'

Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, co-stars in several films, merge their talents again in a new production, "Love On The Run," which advances a new type of comedy which is light and airy and which opens Sunday and Monday at the Ritz. Miss Crawford descends dramatic roles for the time, and Gable appears in the type of part in which he scored success in "It Happened One Night."

Another featured player is Franchot Tone, and the cast also includes Reginald Owen, Mona Barrie, Ivan Lebedeff, Charles Judels and William Demarest.

"Love On The Run" deals with an American heiress in Europe on a pleasure trip, whose millions are cordially desired in an exchange for a shoddy title. When she discovers the facts in the case the wedding is called off. At that point Gable enters the scene as a newspaper correspondent on the trail of a cable dispatch. To avoid complications the girl agrees to dodge her almost in-laws by joining Gable in a stolen plane. They get off, only to discover that the plane belongs to spies, and more complications arise.

From that point on, the story gathers speed and interest. A rival reporter (Tone) enters the scene and the three are chased all over Europe as spies until the proper developments occur to enable them to turn the tables.

Miss Crawford is given opportunity to display some new fashions in clothes, and settings in the film include some of the most colorful European points.

The fast-moving story stresses the comedy element, with gay situations and bright lines introduced.

Wm. Powell, Jean Arthur Co-Featured

Comedy Is Blended With Mystery In 'The Ex-Mrs. Bradford'

Together for the third time are William Powell, the debonair detective, and attractive Jean Arthur, in the comedy-romance-mystery story, "The Ex-Mrs. Bradford," which headlines the Sunday-Monday-Tuesday program at the Queen theatre.

Powell and Miss Arthur appeared together in two Philo Vance stories, "Canary Murder Case," and "The Greene Murder Case." "The Ex-Mrs. Bradford," is not exactly a Vance story, however, since the comedy element is featured more, with Miss Arthur providing most of the laughs. In the picture, Powell has the role of a successful physician whose hobby is solving murder mysteries, and Miss Arthur is his ex-wife. She decides to recapture her former husband, but finds him involved in a baffling mystery. His detective abilities are challenged in a series of baffling deaths involving a race track group. He is in turn driven almost to desperation and amazingly aided by the tantalizingly intuitive genius of his ex-wife who, as a reader of mystery stories, insists upon uncovering unusual "clues."

How their romance develops as they delve into the mystery provides some gay sequences and brings the story to a satisfactory climax.

Eric Blore again "butts" his way to many laughs throughout the picture. Others in the cast are Ralph Morgan, Lucille Gleason, Robert Armstrong, Grant Mitchell, Erin O'Brien-Moore, Frank Thomas, Frankie Darro and Lila Lee, who appears on the screen again after a long absence.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Big Spring Hospital
Mrs. M. E. Jarman of Colorado, who has been in the hospital for treatment, has returned to her home.

Belda, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Boatman, 510 Lancaster, is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Billie Frank, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Smith, 1211 Main street, who is in the hospital for treatment, is doing satisfactorily.

Mrs. Earl Hammond of this city is in the hospital for surgical treatment.

Calvin Clifton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tallant, 506 Gregg street, is in the hospital for treatment of pneumonia.

Justin Danner continues to improve.

Joe H. William, worker for the Loffel Production at Crane, was in the hospital for treatment and operation following an accident in the Crane field Thursday when a control head blew off a well, and caused such injury to his left eye that it had to be removed. He received other lacerations about the face. A fellow-employee, Leon Green, also of Crane, was treated for minor injuries received in the same accident.

Arley and Marie, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Staley of Lenorah had their tonsils removed at the hospital Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Glasc of Tarzan, a baby daughter at 4:30 Friday morning. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Mrs. J. B. Neill of Coahoma is in the hospital for medical treatment.

Miss Edith May Nabors of Tarzan, who has been in the hospital for a major operation, was able to return to her home late Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Allen Hargraves of Midland is in the hospital for surgical treatment.

stressed that simplicity would be the keynote.

MUSICAL LOVE

Crooner Bing Crosby goes western, but doesn't desert his romantically musical ways in "Rhythm On the Range," the Lyric's feature for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Frances Farmer plays opposite Bing. Others in the cast are Bob Burns and Martha Raye.

Swing Tunes Invade New Crosby Film

Bob Burns In Cast With Bing In 'Rhythm On The Range'

They haven't got the coyote singing hi-de-ho, but in almost every other way the Old West goes "swing" in Bing Crosby's starring vehicle, "Rhythm On the Range," which plays for three days beginning Sunday at the Lyric, with Crosby, Frances Farmer and Bob Burns in the central roles.

"Rhythm On the Range," makes cowmen out of Crosby and Burns, and opens its story when the crooner, as a rodeo performer, buys a bull in New York's Madison Square Garden and starts west with the animal in a box car. In the reels that follow, a rollicking romance is punctuated by the Arkansas wise cracks and barook-playing by Burns, swing music by Louis Prima's band, Western songs and the antics of Crosby, Burns, the bull, Miss Farmer and Martha Raye, new screen comedienne of rubber-face fame.

Warren Hymer and George E. Stone, together with James Burke, add thugery to the yarn by trailing Crosby and Miss Farmer across the continent with the idea of kidnapping the girl and demanding ransom from her wealthy father, Robert Holloway. Lucille Webster Gleason appears as Miss Farmer's treatment.

Mrs. T. H. Crow, who has been in the hospital for several days for treatment, was resting well Friday afternoon.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT CO. TO FURNISH POWER TO US AGENCY

Allocations Made For Cooperative Projects In East Texas Counties

DALLAS, Dec. 12. (AP)—John W. Carpenter, president and general manager of the Texas Power and Light company, said today a contract to furnish wholesale power to the rural electrification administration had been submitted to REA officials and the rate accepted.

Carpenter said the company was co-operating wholeheartedly with the REA in Washington to the end that electric service be made available to farmers in the areas served by the company.

He said the proposed contract would provide for the power for co-operative projects to be financed by the REA, allocations having been made already for the Rockwall-Collin-Dallas counties project; Bell, Falls and Milam counties; Light and Power company; Hill County (Hill, Johnson and Ellis counties) Electric company, and others which will be made.

"The company is doing everything possible at considerable expense and effort, to bring about successful completion of proposed projects which are contiguous to areas now served by transmission lines of the company," the utility head said. "It has volunteered services of trained engineers in numerous instances for completion of technical details necessary to preliminary applications for REA allocations. This has been done because no money is available from REA for survey work.

"The company has arranged to (transfer to co-operatives, at actual construction costs, a number of its rural lines, which will add strength to projects under consideration in areas now served by the company. This is done both in the Bell Falls and Hill county projects.

"It is working out details for the same arrangement with the Rockwall-Collin-Dallas counties project. Company programs in Denton and Hunt counties have been modified so as to help development of projects under consideration there.

"Where proposed rural lines of the company might lessen proposed REA projects, the company's construction program will be altered.

"In some instances the company has declined to construct lines which had been authorized already where the inclusion of such lines in co-operative projects would strengthen the application for federal funds."

Carpenter said the company will have completed more than 2,000 miles of lines in 1936 when the year closes; lines which will make service available to more than 10,000 farms and rural homes.

Texas is primarily an agricultural area, he said, and it "should be of new type of construction of lines now which would have been impractical even three years ago."

He said plans for the company's 1937 rural electrification program embraced a "vigorous continuation" of construction activity.

Davies Rites To Be Today

Service Scheduled At First Baptist Church At 2 o'Clock

Final tributes will be paid one of Big Spring's longtime residents Sunday afternoon, when funeral service will be held for W. S. Davies who died at his home here Wednesday morning.

The service will be held at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church with the pastor, Rev. R. E. Day, officiating. Music will be under direction of Ira M. Powell. Burial with Masonic honors will be made in the Masonic cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers will be John Wolcott, T. S. Currie, Jack Cowan, W. E. Carnrike, H. W. Leeper, Harry Homan, Pete Johnson and H. Clay Reed.

Mr. Davies, 66, succumbed to a heart attack. He had been a resident of this city since 1886.

Survivors are his widow, one son, Courtney Davies of Big Spring and two daughters, Miss Florence Gertrude Davies of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Honor Louise Davies of San Francisco. Both daughters will be here for the funeral.

J. H. Bretton was reported critically ill at his home in Ackerly Saturday.

VFW Program Is Outlined

Americanization Work Is Stressed By State Department Chief

The five point program of the national organization was outlined before the Ray E. Fuller VFW post here Friday by Max C. Walz, Texas department commander.

Walz came here from San Angelo with two aides to meet with the local post. He left Saturday morning for Amarillo.

The state commander stressed the Americanization program and urged support of the VFW drive to stamp out communistic teachings in the United States. He advised VFW posts to cooperate closely with service clubs and other local civic organizations.

Department Adjutant Nichols, traveling with Walz, asked local members to follow the veteran activities in government hospitals. He pointed out the necessity of cooperating with these units, especially the psychopathic wards. Of some 49,000 veteran cases in the nation, Texas has contributed 19,000 he said.

Van Groom, member of the national council and aide-de-camp to Walz, spoke a word for rehabilitation activities among veterans.

The Markets

SPECIALTIES RISE ON RUSH OF BUYING

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. (AP)—Buying forces gave specialties another rush in today's stock market and a number of favorites were lifted 1 to 5 points or so.

As in the past several sessions leaders in other groups stumbled over selling obstacles and many were barely able to hold their own. There were a few sizable declines in evidence at the rather nervous close.

Farm implements and amusements were easily the star performers of the day. The former continued to find support on indications the agricultural machinery makers are preparing for their best season in several years. Moving picture stocks responded to roseate dividend hopes engendered by bounding box office receipts.

Reconciling Of Liberals GOP's Task

Committee Action On Hamilton's Resignation To Be A Guide

By BYRON PRICE (Chief of AP Bureau, Washington)

At first glance it would seem that the chief business of the republican national committee, at its meeting in Chicago, is to accept or reject the proffered resignation of Chairman John D. M. Hamilton.

The committee's action will be weighed carefully in many quarters—democratic as well as republican—as a guide to future policy. What, if anything, will be done to placate the western progressives, many of whom have discarded their republican labels and openly espoused the cause of Mr. Roosevelt?

Some of these progressives have said candidly that the old guard found it expedient to merge itself temporarily with the Landon cause, and had no intention of submitting itself to become submerged permanently. Nothing has been said since the election to indicate they have changed their minds.

Democrats assert the first-time voters for the most part supported their candidates in November.

There will be other millions of young men and young women eligible to vote for the first time in the congressional election two years hence, and in the next Presidential election. What appeal is to be made to them?

Is Reconciliation Possible?

Even republicans are chary now in speaking of "traditional republican" states, once a common phrase when one mentioned, say, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Utah or Iowa. Most of these states now have democratic governors firmly entrenched in their capitols, democratic senators and representatives in Washington. Only four republican governors remain, and three of these are in New England.

In 1932 the reason advanced for this democratic sweep was that depression split was being taken out on incumbent republicans. But does this explanation hold good in 1936?

Promises are poor table fare for politicians with republican organizations to maintain. The democrats have most of the jobs, and it is two years before there will be another election. That makes the task before the national committee doubly difficult. They must wage their battle empty handed.

Many members of the committee, however, are veterans who have been battered by reverses at the polls before.

But can this group lead the way to a reconciliation with the western progressives? Certainly that is a question the Chicago conference

COTTON CLOSE

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12. (AP)—Prices were back on the upgrade in the cotton market today with futures recovering most of Friday's losses and ending at the best levels of the day.

Even the customary week-end liquidation failed to halt the advance, the market taking offerings and moving ahead 65 cents a bale on the average.

Trade and speculative buying appeared in all positions and December finished at 12.67, March at 12.55, May at 12.29 and October at 11.82. Spot cotton gained 13 points to 12.85 at New Orleans for middling staple.

The pressure of new crop cotton moving to market has been lifted from prices with spot sales down around 20,000 bales and hedge offerings limited.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. (AP)—Active near month covering and replacement buying caused cotton to reach new highs for the movement in some positions today.

March advanced from 12.85 to 12.99 and closed at 12.38 with final prices generally 7 to 18 points net higher.

The market opened unchanged to four points higher in response to the action of Liverpool.

Around And About

By Tom Beasley

WHEN THE University of Washington Huskies won the Pacific coast conference football championship this season they beat themselves out of a trip they had been looking forward to all year—

PASCHAL SCOTTINO, Southern Methodist university guard, Saturday accepted an invitation to play with the western all-stars in the East-West grid classic at San Francisco New Year's Day.

A DANIEL Baker scout was on hand to witness the Forsan-Water Valley game the other night in Buff gym and as a result the Spudders will lose two of their brightest stars, Rayford Liles, forward, and Mutt Scudday, guard.

Liles and Scudday will leave this month for the Brownwood school and will be eligible next semester.

CRAMER IS attempting to arrange a game with Texas School of Mines for Dec. 28 and hopes to get a game with Sul Ross, Alpine, in the near future.

THE SPUDDERS will play the independent teams of Hyman and Coshima following the Duke-Continental affair at Forsan Monday night.

CHEDDY HALL really snapped out of it when the Ducks lost a close decision to the Texas Tech Raiders last Friday. He was taken out after fouling four times and the local defense crumbled after that.

And Ray Groseclose came in to his own by outplaying the Tech center throughout the four quarters. Baker has probably the greatest independent team ever organized here.

It seems that the boys got more or less of a raw deal in the arbitration of the Friday night games. The refereeing was much worse this year than last.

YOU'LL PROBABLY see Kerrville fighting that final battle with the mighty Amarillo team two weeks hence. According to reports, the Antlers are a better rounded club than the Port Arthur eleven.

ONE OF the greatest high school teams in state football this year was Van, Class B champion. If the Tigers had the reserve strength the Sandstorms have they could really make it interesting for the Panthers. They defeated Tyler, Class A, decisively.

NONE OF the "boys" teams this year carry a perfect record in the simple reason that there is not a major team with a record of no defeats or ties. Washington was defeated by Minnesota and tied by Stanford; Pittsburgh was defeated by Duquesne and tied by Fordham;

SANDIES CRUSH ABILENE EAGLES, 46-13

MAYES AND CLESSON RUN WILD

ABILENE, Dec. 12 (AP)—The Golden Sandstorm of Amarillo high school struck with stunning fury here this afternoon to rout the Abilene Eagles, 46 to 13, and roll into the state semi-finals against Fort Worth North Side. Amarillo's victory was its first in five meetings with Abilene in interscholastic league history, and Abilene's defeat was its most decisive of all time by seven points at the hands of any opponent.

Charging behind a line that blocked with irresistible violence, "Wildhorse" Mayes and Fullback Bob Clesson led the Amarillo scoring with three and two touchdowns, respectively. Mayes scored once on a 16 yard off-tackle run, and another time on a dazzling 32 yard broken field run started by an end sweep.

Mike Sweeney, an end, caught a pass from Clesson for 19 yards and one of the Sandie scores and blocked a punt which Newman Miller, giant tackle, covered for the other touchdown. The longest run of the day, an 84-yard dash by Clesson in the fourth quarter was called back for a holding penalty.

Eagles Score In 4th Abilene got both its touchdowns within two minutes in the fourth period against the Sandies' reserves. Galbraith spun through the line for nine yards to end a 73 yard drive, and James Beane raced 56 yards on a punt return for the second corner.

Mayes with 127 and Clesson with 111 collected most of Amarillo's 341 yards on running plays, but Odell Herman of Abilene was the top ground gainer with 129 yards. Only three of Abilene's backfield starters finished the game. John Kimbrock, 196 pound star, was knocked out in the first quarter before carrying the ball. Halfback Hughes went out midway in the game with a dislocated shoulder, and Herman went from the field to a hospital in the fourth period with an injured side.

A crowd of nine thousand saw the game.

LOCKE OF ST. MARY'S NAMED ON THE LITTLE ALL-AMERICA

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—This year's "Little All America" selected by Associated Press survey from the small-college footballers who romp the gridirons from coast to coast, presents an aggregation of talent that belies its designation.

With a line averaging 200 pounds and 6 feet 2 inches, from end to end, clearing the way for a quartet of unusually versatile ball-handlers, the team's manpower qualifies for competition in any league.

The selections represent the pick of players who annually perform only with such recognition they get in their own halliwicks or when they tackle the bigger fellows. From their ranks each year professional teams gather talent that often steals the big league show.

Based on a country-wide survey, here are the small-college all-stars—the "Little All-America" football team for 1936:

Table with 5 columns: Position, Player and College, Age, Height, WT. End: Henry Hammond, Southwestern (Tenn.), 23, 6:01, 190. Tackle: Douglas Oldershaw, Santa Barbara (Cal.), 24, 5:10 1/2, 210. Jack Chevigny To Become Attorney For State Tax Department

AUSTIN, Dec. 12 (AP)—Governor Allred's announcement today that Jack Chevigny would become an attorney for the state tax department Jan. 19 gave rise to fresh speculation as to who would succeed him as football coach at the University of Texas.

Chairman J. C. Dolley of the athletic council said several days ago no time would be lost in starting negotiations with topflight eligibles over the country but refused to name names.

Mentioned by curbstone gossip in the order of their frequency were Dana X. Bible of Nebraska, Ray Morrison of Vanderbilt, Ted Twomey, first assistant to Chevigny and formerly of Kentucky and Georgia, Wallace Wade of Duke, Howard Jones of Southern California, Tiny Thornhill of Stanford, Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern, Ralph Sasse of Mississippi State and Harry Mehre of Georgia.

Port Arthur Jackets Take Out Corpus

Yellow Jackets Score Their Seventeen Points Early In The Game

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 12 (AP)—Port Arthur Yellow Jacket eleven that took advantage of every scoring opportunity today defeated the Corpus Christi Buccaneers, 17 to 7, in an interscholastic league quarter-final game.

The Jackets scored their 17 points before allowing the Corpus to get started. They counted a field goal and touchdowns in the opening period and another touchdown in the second. Holding a 17 to 7 lead, Coach Tom Dennis' men played safe football throughout the second half.

A 20-yard field goal by John Crouch, guard, started the scoring a few minutes after the game got under way. A few minutes later the Jackets recovered a Buccaneer fumble on the Port Arthur 43-yard line and on the first play, Mike Arisco, speedy halfback, took the ball on a reverse and scampered 57 yards for a touchdown. Crouch added the extra point from placement.

The final Jacket touchdown was scored early in the second quarter. Palumbo plunged over from the one-yard line after the fleet Arisco had toted the ball to that point on a 35-yard dash.

Corpus Christi scored on the kick-off after this touchdown. Quarterback John Conoly, who was a continual threat throughout the game, took the ball on his own five and raced up the sideline for the score. Tackle Clyde Rigens neatly added the point with a place kick.

Port Arthur ran up a total of nine first downs to Corpus Christi's five. The passing attacks of both clubs were effective. Marland Jeffrey, ace of the Port Arthur backfield, played only a few minutes because of an injury suffered last week.

Players Are Nominated For Pro Grid Selection

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—The National Professional Football League received applications for franchises from Cleveland, Los Angeles and Buffalo at its meeting today but deferred action until the annual mid-winter meeting in Chicago in February.

The club owners and coaches also selected ten outstanding seniors for each club's "negotiation list." The players will be offered contracts with the club selecting them for the list getting first call on their services. The club finishing lowest in the standing was given the first choice.

The players chosen for negotiations included: Philadelphia: Ellis, Texas Christian. Chicago Cardinals: Tinsley, Louisiana State. Pittsburgh: Finley, Southern Methodist; Roach, Texas Christian. Boston: Baugh, Texas Christian. Detroit: J. Sprague, Southern Methodist; C. Sprague, Southern Methodist.

Chicago Bears: Friedman, Rice. League: Holt, Texas Christian.

FOOTBALL RESULTS: St. Mary's of San Antonio 8, University of Texas All-Stars 8. At Waco: Kerrville 31, Lufkin 6. At Abilene: Amarillo 46, Abilene 13.

At Port Arthur: Port Arthur 17, Corpus Christi 7. At Fort Worth: North Side 31, Gainesville 9. Final at San Francisco—Texas Christian 9, Santa Clara 9.

SLATED FOR EAST-WEST GAME: LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 12 (AP)—Coach Dana X. Bible of the University of Nebraska announced tonight 11 football players from the southwest and Missouri valley regions were selected for the west team in the annual east-west game at San Francisco New Year's Day.

Players chosen included: Southwest conference—Paschal Scottino, guard, Southern Methodist; Sammy Baugh, quarterback, Texas Christian; Walter Roach, end, Texas Christian.

Favorites Advance In State Football Race

(By Associated Press) Favorites came through decisively today to take their places in the semi-final round of the state interscholastic league football chase.

Amarillo continued their season-long drive with a smashing 46 to 13 victory over Abilene at Abilene. Kerrville downed Lufkin 31 to 6 on neutral ground at Waco, while North Side of Fort Worth was whipping Gainesville 31 to 0 at Fort Worth and Port Arthur defeated Corpus Christi 17 to 7 at Port Arthur.

Amarillo will meet North Side and Kerrville will take off Port Arthur in the semi-finals.

The field of 95 golfers will play 36 more holes tomorrow and finish the 72-hole tournament Monday in quest of the $800 top money.

Antlers Knock Panthers Out Of Race, 31-6

Kerrville To Meet Port Arthur In Semi-Finals Of H. S. Playoff

WACO, Dec. 12 (AP)—Kerrville's Tivy High Antlers rolled into the semi-finals of the state high school football race today with a lopsided 31 to 6 triumph over the Lufkin Panthers.

Kerrville meets Port Arthur in the semi-finals.

Roy Holbrook, the Antlers' backfield ace, heaved three passes to Co-Captain Preston Chambliss for as many touchdowns, and also flashed some spectacular ball carrying as long as he remained in the game.

McCauley, shifty Tivy back, scored one tally and W. Coleman intercepted a Lufkin pass and ran it back 45 yards for another score.

Jones called Lufkin's lone touchdown late in the final quarter after a belated passing attack had put the ball in second position against the Kerrville second team.

The East Texans, despite their overwhelming defeat, rang up a total of 18 first downs. Tivy also counted 18 first downs.

Jones and Spivey were outstanding in the Lufkin backfield. They ripped off many long gains, including a 45-yard dash on spinners and reverses. Their dashes accounted for many first downs, but Tivy tightened before pay dirt was reached.

Hauser of Kerrville backed up his line to play the outstanding defensive game for Tivy.

Tivy struck twice in the first quarter on two beautiful above-the-line passes to Chambliss. They clinched the contest in the next quarter when Coleman gathered in a Lufkin pass and returned it 45 yards for a tally. After getting another touchdown on a pass from Holbrook to Chambliss in the same period, the Antlers took things easy for the remainder of the contest, using their second team in the last quarter. McCauley scored the last Antler touchdown in the third on a short smash through the line.

Golf Architect To Check Munny

A. W. Tillinghast, nationally famous golf course architect, doing consultation work for the Professional Golfers' Association, will arrive here today to check over the Municipal course with Charles Akey, pro.

Work on the new nine holes at the Munny will be resumed about the first of the year, according to Akey, and the new layout may be open about July 1.

Tillinghast lectured in Dallas Friday.

Picard Takes Early Lead In Nassau Open

Bushy-Haired Golfer Goes Five Under Par To Post Best Score—63

NASSAU, Bahamas, Dec. 12 (AP)—Bushy haired Henry Picard took a four-stroke lead today in the $4,000 Nassau golf open with a 63 that was five under par.

Tied behind the Hershey, Pa., pro at 67 were Ralph Guldball of St. Louis, winner of the recent Augusta and Miami Biltmore opens; Paul Runyan of New York; Hayden Newton, of Grand Junction, Colo., and Bill Mehlhorn of New York.

Par on the short course is 68. The field of 95 golfers will play 36 more holes tomorrow and finish the 72-hole tournament Monday in quest of the $800 top money.

Scores included: Tony Butler, Hartlingen, Texas, 69.

Warren Easton Wins Title On First Downs

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12 (AP)—Warren Easton high school of New Orleans today won the South Louisiana prep football championship here on first downs from Jennings high school, of Jennings. The game ended in a scoreless tie and the title was decided on Warren Easton's four first downs to three for Jennings.

BUFFS WIN MEET

WATER VALLEY, Dec. 12 (Sp)—The Forsan high school won the Water Valley invitation basketball tournament here tonight, defeating Water Valley high school cagers in the championship final, 32-3.

NAME BUFF MANAGER: HOUSTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—President Fred Ankenman of the Houston club of the Texas League announced Saturday night Johnny Watwood, hard-hitting first baseman, would manage the Buffaloes next season.

Watwood signed his contract after a conference with Ankenman. Johnny, who launched a great comeback with the Buffs last season, has served several years in the major leagues, playing first base with the Chicago White Sox and the outfield with the Boston Red Sox.

DISAPPOINTED! NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12 (AP)—Mid-Winter Sports Association officials, sponsors of New Orleans' annual Sugar Bowl football game, were "disappointed but not downhearted" over Santa Clara's trimming today by Texas Christian's Horned Frogs.

Joseph M. Cousins, president of the association and chairman of the committee that selected Santa Clara and Louisiana State university for the third annual bowl game here New Year's Day, said "we were sorry to see Santa Clara lose but we still believe we have the best bowl game here."

ABILENE, Dec. 12.—Three Southwest conference cage teams are scheduled to give Kimbrock's Cowboys tough openers during the holidays, the first games on Hardin-Simmons basketball schedule indicate.

Baylor will be the Cowboys' first opponent when Bruins meet the Ranchers Dec. 18 and 19. T. C. U. will play them Dec. 28 and 29 and M. U. will see the old year out with Abilene games Dec. 30 and 31.

CIRCUIT NOT TO BE ENLARGED

DALLAS, Dec. 12 (AP)—Open and above board subsidizing of "starline" athletes for the Southwest was proposed before the seven-man governing body today.

Dr. J. C. Dolley, chairman of the University of Texas athletic council, championed the cause and succeeded in having a three-man committee, including himself, appointed to make a careful study of such a plan.

President E. W. McDiarmid of Texas Christian University, asked Dolley, J. S. McInosh of Southern Methodist professor, whose similar proposal met a cold reception at the 1935 meeting, said after the session that "we should come out from behind our whitewashed fences and do this thing in the open."

He argued that the present methods were "making lars of everybody" and detrimental to the athletes.

Doors were closed on any possible applicants for entrance into the conference when the committee resolved not to enlarge the membership at this time. It was not disclosed whether actual applications had been filed but it was known that Texas Tech at Lubbock has long been anxious to join the circuit.

Major Biff Jones, retiring head coach and Tom Siddham, newly elected mentor at the University of Oklahoma, were present but denied it was for the purpose of asking entrance into the conference.

The committee reiterated it was "measurably opposed to post-season games" and that in big cases of conference champions and other exceptional instances, such as a Rose or Sugar Bowl invitation, the objection could be lifted by a mail vote.

No specific action was taken on the proposed Cotton Bowl game at Dallas on New Year's Day. Marquette University of Milwaukee has agreed to meet any Southwest Conference team Curtis Sanford, organizer of the game, may select. Texas Christian and Arkansas were considered.

Discuss Transfers: Junior college transfer rules were discussed at length, the general interpretation being that two years of junior college is equivalent to one year of senior college competition, effective Sept. 1, 1937.

Junior college transfers now is senior colleges of the conference, or those who enter in the February mid-term, will not come under this ruling.

The committee awarded the track and field championship meet to the University of Texas, Austin; swimming, Texas A. and M., College Station; golf, T.C.U., Fort Worth; tennis, Rice Institute, Houston and cross country, Texas A. and M., College Station.

Officially declared champions were University of Arkansas, football and basketball, and University of Texas, tennis, golf, track and field, baseball, cross country and swimming.

SAM BAUGH LEADS HORNNED FROGS TO VICTORY

BRONCOS BEATEN BY TCU, 9 TO 0

By RUSSEL J. NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12 (AP)—Led by the greatest passer this football-mad section of the country ever has laid eyes on—cool and courageous Sammy Baugh—Texas Christian swept to a 9 to 0 victory over University of Santa Clara today to send the Broncos down to their first defeat of the season.

It was "Baugh this, Baugh that" while 40,000 cheering fans watched the last unbeaten team in the United States crumble before an aerial bombardment of deadly effectiveness.

"Slingin' Sammy" pitched, punned and ran with the ball occasionally for 60 minutes of a bitterly fought battle. He was the big gun, the powder charge and the lightning spark in the terrific attack laid down by the Horned Frogs from the plains of Texas.

Behind the clever quarterbacking of this rangy field general, the Texans leveled the once proud gridiron fortress built up by Santa Clara during a season which brought it seven victories, neither defeat or tie, and an invitation to meet Louisiana State in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans.

Tide Turns in 2nd
Outplayed in the first period, and short-ends at the kickoff Texas Christians turned the tide of battle in its favor with startling suddenness in the second quarter.

Glenn Roberts, 170-pound fullback from Fort Worth opened the way for his team's touchdown. It was going toward the clouds of the second period when he leaped up to snag a Santa Clara pass on his own 32.

Baugh sized the situation, decided that the aerial lanes held the answer, and shouted to his teammates "let's go."

Five plays later Texas Christian chalked up a touchdown while frenzied handsmen from the Lone Star state nearly bent the heads off drums and blew out the valves of overheated horns.

The scoring march, good for 68 yards, went like this:

Baugh passed to Sub Half Montgomery for two yards; Baugh passed to Right End Roach who lateraled to Roberts, who ran 16 yards before being downed. It put the oval on Santa Clara's 48.

While the shocked Broncos were trying to muster a shattered defense, Baugh whipped one to Left Half McCall who was downed on the 9-yard line—a gain of 39.

Then Baugh crossed up the boys on the other side. He smacked into the line for four yards. The befuddled Santa Clarans were running around in circles when Baugh started the scoring play. It was a low swift pass to Roach, who nabbed the ball over the line. "Dutch" Meyer, nephew and namesake of his coach, came in to try for the extra point. He failed but the points that eventually won the game already had been scored.

Ricks Field Goal
Young Meyer redeemed himself later in a big way. With Texas Christian holding the ball on Santa Clara's 13-yard marker, Meyer, who meanwhile had played a bang-up game at left end, dropped back for a field goal try. The ball split the uprights to make the count 9 to 0. He teed the oval at the 22-yard line.

It ended the scoring for the day. The points loomed large on the scoreboard. The Broncos spirit and drive had crumpled during the touchdown thrust and almost completely disappeared when the ball sailed through the uprights for the field goal tally. Only once in the second half did Santa Clara cross mid-field.

Santa Clara had its chance to score early in the game. It failed on the same kind of plays which Texas capitalized on.

Steers Sweep Leopards Out With 31-0 Win

Gainesville Fails To Penetrate Fort Worth's 20-Yard Line

FORT WORTH, Dec. 12 (AP)—Fort Worth's North Side Steers swept a gallant Gainesville high school football team out of its path, 31 to 0, in a quarter-final battle in the inter-scholastic championship race today.

The Steers' surprisingly decisive victory over the Leopards gave them entry into the semi-finals of the state schoolboy pennant fight. It was with a sparkling display of versatile ability that the Steers outclassed the lighter visitors by scoring five touchdowns and never allowing Gainesville to come within 20 yards of the Maroon goal.

Aby assisted by a full herd of helpers, Marion Pugh led the Steers to a triumph. He scored three touchdowns, one on a 53 yard gallop and threw a pass to Earl Monriquez for another. He did all of the punting and passing. He carried the ball 21 times for a total of 112 yards on an average of 5.3 yards per play.

Bill Stephens scored the other North Side touchdown by recovering a Gainesville fumble on the six yard line.

In the first quarter when they fought a fresh south wind as well as the Leopards, the Steers failed to count. They got underway in the second period with one touch-down and the half closed 7 to 0. They chalked up two touchdowns in the third quarter and two more in the fourth.

JOE LOUIS BOUT IS CANCELLED

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—It looks like a Merry Christmas for Max Schmeling. He got his first present today in the form of a title fight with James J. Braddock.

Almost before the gallery realized what was going on, the New York state athletic commission got the two fighters together and signed them for a 15-round championship in Madison Square Garden's Long Island bowl next June 3.

The Garden and the 20th Century Sporting Club will be joint promoters. The contracts call for Braddock to receive 37 1/2 per cent and Schmeling 12 1/2 per cent of the gate, but private agreements will raise these figures to 42 and 20 per cent, respectively.

In sharp contrast to Friday's bitter wrangling, today's session was a love feast. It required less than an hour to reach an agreement.

Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, made the match possible by turning their backs on Atlantic City and promising not to fight Joe Louis prior to June 2.

The champion's flat refusal to do this brought about Friday's squabble.

Mike Jacobs, 20th Century Club promoter, who was to have been associated with Herman Taylor of Philadelphia in staging the show, said today's developments automatically cancel Braddock's proposed no-decision meeting with the Brown Bomber in February.

Dukes Lose Double Bill To Matadors

Red Raiders Rush From Behind To Down Local Team

LUBBOCK, Dec. 12—Quick to take advantage of the break they received when Cheddy Hall fouled out with four minutes left to go, the Texas Tech Red Raiders rang the hoop time and again to pull away from "Mileaway" Baker's Big Spring Dukes and win out, 40-29, in one of the most thrilling games ever played here. The reserves won over the Duke second stringers in the evening's opener, 21-17.

For three quarters the boys from Howard county outplayed the highly touted collegians and seemed on their way to a well-earned victory when a fourth foul was called on Hall and his place could not be filled.

The Dukes began the affair by scoring on Tommy Hutto's loss from the sidelines and held a 14-7 advantage for the first 10 minutes of play, but the Matadors crept up on the visitors and began to make a game of it before the half ended.

The lead exchanged several times during the third quarter and through most of the fourth. With four minutes of play remaining, Tech "five" was out in front, 30-28. Here came, one of the great Tech centers, began to find the range and increased the margin.

The Lubbockers smothered Tommy Hutto's every scoring attempt, but they couldn't stop southpaw Jack Smith, the brightest offensive show of the evening. Lean Jackie blasted the hoop for seven field goals.

Entry Of Coahoma Quint Brings Membership Back To 6 Teams

"Mileaway" Baker and his Big Spring Dukes will initiate a new league member Tuesday evening in the local gym when the Coahoma Bulldogs, who took the place of a local independent crew, tie into the Big Springers in the local gym.

The entry of the Bulldogs brings the membership back to six teams. H. L. Stamps will lead the Coahoma entry. The Bulldogs have played one game thus far, losing to Bert Cramer's Foran Spudders two weeks ago in the Coahoma gym.

The Coahomans will take over the schedule of the Independents, making up the games they have missed after the Christmas holidays.

The Dukes will open in Foran Monday night against Cleo Wilson's Pipelers.

With a week of the schedule in the records, the Dukes and the Spudders appear to be the strongest outfits in the circuit, while the M-W cagers also show some promise.

The Dukes won their first encounter by trouncing the Spudders in Coahoma, 24-19, but did so only by scoring five points in the last minute of play.

The M-W cagers won their opening game from Garden City, 34-31, with a whirlwind last minute rally.

Horned Frogs Invited To Cotton Bowl

Promoter Expects Answer Tomorrow From Texas Christian Officials

DALLAS, Dec. 12 (AP)—Texas Christian University, which defeated Santa Clara 9 to 0 at San Francisco today, was invited tonight to meet Marquette in the Cotton Bowl here January 1.

Curtis Stanford, oil man who is promoting the post-season contest, said he did not expect to have an answer from T.C.U. until tomorrow. Arkansas University has been definitely dropped from consideration as an opponent for Marquette, he said.

E. W. McDiernid, president of the Southwest Conference and chairman of the T.C.U. athletic council, told Stanford he would ask the T.C.U. faculty committee for approval. If the committee approves, the next step would be to submit the matter to the conference faculty committee.

Sam Baugh, ace Christian back and outstanding pass heaver, has been selected to play in another game on the same date. He was picked to play with the West team in the annual East-West game in San Francisco January 1.

DALLAS, Dec. 12 (AP)—The Central Texas Junior College conference today awarded its football championship to the North Texas Agricultural college team. The Aggies won all of their five conference games.

The conference track meet was awarded John Tarleton college at Stephenville. It will be held May 1. A 1937 basketball schedule was adopted.

SHOWS OBTAINED IN OUTPOSTS IN ECTOR AND CRANE COUNTIES

Lease Deals Involve Winkler, Brewster Acreage Among Week's Developments

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 12.—Showing of oil by two of four tests drilling in the four-mile gap separating the Dinning and Goldsmith pools in northwestern Ector county and by two outposts in the Waddell field in northern Crane county attracted most attention in West Texas this week.

Locations again registered an increase, 42 being listed in nine counties. Oil wells and dry holes completed numbered 42 in 12 counties, seven less than the number recorded in 11 counties during the preceding week.

Deals included the assignment by Wahlenmaier Petroleum corporation of San Angelo to the Texas-Pacific Coal & Oil company of an undivided one-half interest in four leases aggregating 327 acres in the Keyes pool in Winkler county in consideration of the development of the properties which adjoin producing tracts. A total of 32 wells may be drilled. The leases are in section 25-26-pd, in which Navarro Oil company has two producing leases and Sinclair-Prairie one.

Wahlenmaier's assignment provides that drilling be started within 90 days after approval of titles, examination of which was under way.

Brewster Sale
Floyd C. Dodson, San Angelo geologist and oil operator, sold to the Signal Oil and Gas company of California a spread of 1,920 acres around his No. 1-A Texas American Syndicate, northeastern Brewster county wildcat. Signal built and operated jointly with Texon a casinghead gasoline plant in the Big Lake field on University lands in Reagan county during the peak of development there. Its lease purchase in Brewster was its first of consequence in Texas.

Dodson, No. 1-A Texas American Syndicate, was cleaning out and reaming to return 8 1/4 inch casing at 2,690 feet, where some time ago it encountered a showing of oil, gas and water. Production in the Ordovician is sought. The test is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 66-10-GH&SA.

Gulf No. 2 Waddell, preparing to shoot the Simpson, middle Ordovician, in western Crane county, in the southwest quarter of section 18-B21-pd, bailed two barrels of oil and a smaller amount of water in eight hours after plugging back to 6,186 feet. Moore Bros. No. 1 Bernsley, scheduled Ordovician test, in the southwest quarter of section 43-32-pd, had drilled past 6,282 feet in lime.

Humble No. 1 W. F. Cowden midway between the Goldsmith and Cummins pools in northwestern Ector county and 1,980 feet from the south line and 660 feet from the west line of section 30-44-1n-T&P, cored saturated lime from 4,257-75 feet and showed two barrels of oil hourly while washing the hole. It was scheduled to be shot with 300 quarts.

Sheets No. 1 Scharbauer, 2,200 feet from the north line and 440 feet from the west line of section 23-44-1n-T&P, filled 700 feet with fluid, mostly oil, on a 30-minute drill stem test through a 3-8-inch bottom choke from 4,116-47 feet. Gas was estimated at 100,000 cubic feet daily. Seven-inch casing was cemented at 4,116 feet and changing from rotary to standard tools was begun.

Devenon No. 1 Goldsmith, one mile east of the northwest extension to the Goldsmith pool, filled 300 feet with oil in five hours from 4,177-81 feet, had an increase in the last foot of drilling to 4,184 and was shut in to erect storage. It is 440 feet from the south line and 2,200 feet from the east line of section 33-44-1n-T&P.

Phillips No. 7 Pure-Cowden, one-half mile northeast extension to the Goldsmith pool, was completed at 4,165 feet for a natural flow of 1,106 barrels of oil in 24 hours through 2 1/2-inch tubing, with three-quarters of a million cubic feet of gas daily. It is in the center of the southwest quarter of section 13-44-1n-T&P.

Flows After Treatment
Humble No. 11 J. S. Means in the Means pool in north central Andrews county flowed 475 barrels of oil the first 14 hours after being treated with 7,000 gallons of acid, bottomed at 4,537 feet. It is 661 feet from the south line and 666 feet from the east line of section 12-A-35-pd.

Jack D. Bodkins and Ralph M. Barron, Midland operators, staked a location for an east offset to the Fuhrman No. 4 Ford, a producer on the east side of the Fuhrman pool in southern Andrews county. It will be 350 feet out of the southwest corner of section 17-A43-pd on a 160-acre lease which Bodkins recently acquired from Humble.

Amerada No. 1-A Averitt, three miles northwest of Seminole, opener of Geines county's second pool, was scheduled to deepen from 5,029 feet. It flowed 79 barrels of oil in 11 hours on Dec. 5, then was shut in. The preceding 24 hours it gauged 186 barrels with 230,000 cubic feet of gas. The well has been acidized three times. It is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 228-G-WTRR.

Formation High
Amerada No. 1 Robbins, one mile plus one location south of Landreth No. 1 W. H. Kirk, opener of Geines county's first oil pool south of Seminole, topped the anhydrite at 1,914 feet, 1,341 feet above sea level, 30 feet higher than the No. 1 Kirk. It drilled ahead at 2,850 feet in salt, potash and anhydrite streaks. No. 1 Robbins is in the northwest corner of section 9-A22-pd.

Gulf No. 2 Snodgrass, south of the Waddell pool in northern Crane county and in the northwest corner of section 1-E25-pd, filled 1,100 feet with oil in 15 hours after swabbing one hour, and drilled ahead at 3,260 feet in lime. R. H. Henderson and others No. 1 Argo-part at 2,475 feet. Cecil B. Rains No. 1 Chalk, section 140-29, W&NW, was drilling in anhydrite at 2,420 feet.

Among wells in the 1,800-foot horizon being rigged up for deepening were the Merrick and Bristol No. 8 Hooks, 140-29, W&NW, Imperial No. 3 Hooks, 140-29, W&NW, and Imperial No. 9 Hooks, 140-29, W&NW.

Johnson and Bruce No. 1-C Lyman, section 88-29, W&NW, on the eastern end of the Howard-Glasscock field, was finished for 177 barrels at a total depth of 1,328 feet in sand. Top of pay was at 1,208 feet. Iron Mountain No. 14 Read, section 46-30-1n, T&P, in the East Howard pool, tested, 634 barrels at a total depth of 2,760 feet in lime. It topped the lime at 2,665 feet and was shot with 600 quarts. The Magnolia No. 1 Bell, section 12-30-1s, T&P, was reconditioned and showed 391 barrels on production test.

One of the interesting Glasscock county tests, the Moore Bros. No. 1 McDowell (ITIO) west and south of production in the World pool, was drilling at 1,677 feet in sand. Eight-inch casing was set at 1,302 feet and it got a hole full of water 1,328 feet. Operators are carrying the water until able to set 6 5/8-inch casing, unless the condition becomes too chronic.

Casing Collapses
Grisham and Hunter No. 1 Post estate, section 6-5, K. Aycock survey, Garza county, ran into trouble during the week when its string of eight-inch casing collapsed with the hole bottomed at about 2,300 feet. The Gartex No. 3 Post estate, section 6-5, K. Aycock, was drilling ahead at 1,600 feet.

Continental No. 20-S Settles, 1,520 feet from the east and 2,200 feet from the south lines of section 159-29, W&NW, Glasscock county, was bottomed at 1,255 feet in sand and preparing to test. It topped the pay at 1,247 feet. Location was made for the company's No. 21-S Settles in the same section and block.

The Continental No. 2-A Overton, sect 0n3-32-2s, T&P, offset to the outpost Continental No. 2-A Eason producer in the same section, was drilling ahead at 1,146 feet in anhydrite. The Edison well extended production half a mile south of the previous proven area.

Cleaning After Shot
In Howard county the Merrick and Lamb No. 2 Clay, section 139-29, W&NW, was cleaning out at 5,125 feet following a 475-quart shot. It is bottomed at 5,208 feet in lime.

Ward Oil Corp. No. 6 Roberts, section 57-29, W&NW, was mudding eight-inch casing at 1,450 feet in lime. The casing string was set at 1,330 feet.

Superior No. 33 Roberts, section 137-29, W&NW, was cementing six-inch casing at 2,779 feet with the hole bottomed at 2,987 feet. Superior No. 31-B, section 137-29, W&NW, was waiting on an engine.

Edwards, on the west side of the Waddell pool and in the northwest quarter of section 2-B23-pd, filled with 1,000 feet of oil in drilling to 3,508 feet and continued below 3,530 feet in lime.

Loffland No. 2 Tubb in the Sand Hills district in Crane county blew out a bridge, spraying an estimated two barrels of oil hourly with a gauged 9,200,000 cubic feet of gas daily, and injured two members of the crew. Joe Williams, driller, the more seriously hurt, lost his left eye and his left hand was broken. The well more than two months ago showed oil below the main deep Permian producing horizon but failed to develop production there (4,229-28 feet) and shot the regular horizon, from 4,235 to 4,350 feet, with 150 quarts, total depth being 4,850. Location is in the northeast quarter of section 9-B-27-pd.

Guitar Pool's 3rd Producer Is Completed

Location Staked For Outpost East Of New Jones County Field

ABELLENE, Dec. 12.—After the estimated initial yield of the Guitar pool's third producer has been hiked from six to approximately 300 barrels per day by acidization this week, Brown Eagle Oil Company of Abilene staked location and began moving in materials for an outpost test half a mile east of the new Jones county pool.

The Brown Eagle No. 1 W. A. Minter estate will seek the 2,000-foot pay midway between the new production and a wildcat being drilled by Fain-McGaha Oil corporation of Wichita Falls. Location is 220 feet from the north and west lines of the south 65-acre tract in subdivision 6, Robert Smith survey No. 192. Nearby acreage is owned by Grisham-Hunter corporation, Ungren & Frazier, Thomas D. Humphrey and Fain-McGaha.

15-20 Barrels An Hour
The Humphrey No. 1 Guitar trust estate, quarter-mile south of the Guitar pool discovery well, flowed on 15-minute heads at the rate of 15 to 20 barrels per hour after it had been treated with 2,000 gallons of acid earlier this week. Its original production was estimated at six barrels per day. It was treated in about five feet of saturated lime, in breaks from 1,988 to a total depth of 2,014 1/4 feet, corrected by steel line measurement. Location is 220 feet from the northwest corner of the north half of the southeast quarter of section 44, block 15, T&P survey.

Ungren & Frazier, Farris and Fikes No. 3 Guitar has already been started for a north offset. A west offset will be spudded before the first of the year by Danciger Oil & Refineries, it was announced. The Fain-McGaha No. 1 Sharp, about a mile southeast of the discovery well, was drilling below 1,550 feet. It is in the Robert Smith survey.

Re-Open Test
Derrick was up and operators expected to start drilling with rotary by the first of the week on the Giat & Graddy No. 1 G. C. Ransom, about a mile south of the Guitar pool, to carry the old hole past 1,720 feet. The test has been shut down for several months. It is in the north end of the B. M. Clopton survey No. 224.

Excellent results from acid treatment in the Lower Hope sand were obtained in the two north outposts of the Hawley field this week. It is the first time acid treatment has been used in the deepest of the field's five pay horizons.

The Ungren & Frazier No. 1-D Dorsey, west offset to a 5,000-barrel flowing well natural, had production increased from an estimated 50-barrel pumper to flow at the rate of 50 barrels per hour when acidized with 2,000 gallons in hard lime saturation from 2,218 to 2,230 feet. It is in the southeast corner of section 8, Buena survey No. 197.

North offset to their No. 2 Dorsey, the Danciger, Fortex and Owens-Snebold No. 3 Dorsey was shut in after flowing by heads at an estimated rate of 800 to 1,000 barrels per day. It was acidized in the Lower Hope sand after oil had filled only 1,800 feet of the hole and failed to flow. Operators are to set liner and tubs before testing. It is in the northwest corner of section 20, Duono survey No. 194.

Operators were undercracking six-inch casing at 2,020 feet on the Ungren & Frazier No. 8-C Dorsey late this week, expecting to drill into Cook sand around 2,060 by Monday or Tuesday. It is an inside well, in section 4, Buena survey No. 197.

Sinclair-Prairie No. 2-B King, in section 20, Buena 196, was also nearing Lower Hope sand for completion soon.

NEGROES HELD

Officers were holding three negroes Saturday in connection with a robbery reported by Wallace Gunn. He told officers he lost $5 in a hold up. No charges have been filed.

2 Completions Are Recorded In This Area

Moore-McDowell Glasscock Test, Drilling In Sand, Carrying Water

Oil activities in this area were marking time until the first of the year generally with only two completions and one location recorded during the week.

Johnson and Bruce No. 1-C Lyman, section 88-29, W&NW, on the eastern end of the Howard-Glasscock field, was finished for 177 barrels at a total depth of 1,328 feet in sand. Top of pay was at 1,208 feet. Iron Mountain No. 14 Read, section 46-30-1n, T&P, in the East Howard pool, tested, 634 barrels at a total depth of 2,760 feet in lime. It topped the lime at 2,665 feet and was shot with 600 quarts. The Magnolia No. 1 Bell, section 12-30-1s, T&P, was reconditioned and showed 391 barrels on production test.

ONLY 6 OUT OF 80,000—

Eighty thousand individuals in the world help build the daily news report of The Associated Press. The six men in the picture are preparing market quotations for the financial service.

This financial service is a vital part of American life, growing from roots older than newspapers themselves. The livelihood of every man who reads a newspaper is affected, for better or worse, by the market fluctuations this service records.

It is the most complete and comprehensive financial service in the world and is a fundamental part of The AP news report.

The biggest single job of the financial service is the rapid transmission throughout the country of securities quotations. This involves swift and accurate handling of daily transactions in New York Stock Exchange stocks and bonds, New York Curb Exchange stocks and bonds, and securities traded over the counter in New York, in the Chicago Stock Exchange and several smaller exchanges. The securities markets of London, Paris and Berlin are also covered.

That is only part of the story. What things cost and what they will bring in the world's market, producer and consumer, worker and employer alike must know.

To supply this information more than 100 important commodities are quoted daily, and many less important. The list expands, seasonally, as crops are marketed.

Livestock markets are reported in more than 25 cities.

Grain prices are collected in a dozen foreign and domestic cities.

Cotton prices are followed at home and abroad.

The metal market, the wool market, naval stores—even such curious items as peppermint oil and mohair, balsa wood and ivory nuts are a part of the most extensive report of commodity prices in existence.

The task of trained Associated Press writers, weaving together this array of information to make a clear picture, understandable to the man in the street, calls for intelligence, resourcefulness and reliability.

The Associated Press' financial report has an important function in the economic life of America, and is one of the outstanding services performed by this organization.

Edward Never Wanted Throne, Always Desired Private Life

EDITOR'S NOTE: What hidden forces were behind the Edward-Simpson story of love and empire? Dewitt Mackenzie, world famed reporter, who met King Edward while he was Prince of Wales, and who has closely followed his career for years, tells in the following story some of the background.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor—he who until a few hours ago was king-emperor—has got rid of a throne he never wanted and has achieved the private life he always desired. From the time he was old enough to realize what kingship involved, he has won his freedom, however, at a terrible price—that of making himself virtually an exile from the people and land he loves, and of leaving behind a legacy of danger to the British monarchy and empire.

As Prince of Wales, Edward made it clear on numerous occasions that he desired private life and would much prefer that his brother, the Duke of York, take the throne. He once remarked that the Duke would make a better king than he.

Those who know Edward well say that always there was in the back of his mind the thought that he never would be king.

Accepted Duties
This much must be said out of justice to Edward—he always accepted his duties seriously and he made a successful Prince of Wales for the empire. He had his reward for this in becoming the idol of his people—the most popular ruler ever to mount the throne.

Also, when the fate he could see no way to escape thrust him onto the throne he did not want, he gave every indication that he intended to carry on. He promptly blossomed out as a real king—a leader of his subjects—who made it clear that he planned to have a hand in affairs of state.

As time went on Edward reached out so far beyond what were considered his rights as a constitutional monarch that his cabinet began to worry. They might have been afraid they had got hold of something they might not be able to handle.

In view of subsequent developments, many are wondering just what was in Edward's mind. Only he could answer that. But the fact remains that, after demonstrating his determination to be the ruler, he placed before his ministers an impossible proposition—that they sanction his marriage to the American divorcee, Mrs. Simpson.

He undoubtedly knew better than anyone else that such a marriage could not be while he remained on the throne. His suggestion that he retain both the throne and Mrs. Simpson would appear then to have been an idle gesture, and the prelude to certain abdication.

This middle-aged man of several previous grand passions, and many passing affairs, says he found himself so dependent on the love and support of his 40-year-old sweetheart that he no longer could carry the burdens of state without her at his side. So he rocked the throne of the world's greatest empire and abdicated. He has Mrs. Simpson (or has he?)—and his prophecy that Elizabeth would be queen has come true.

Game Of Chess
It is obvious to observers that Edward has been playing a game of chess with his government, but perhaps only history will record just what sort of game it was. Was he fighting for more power, or was his dislike of kingship the pawn?

Edward's deliberate challenge to constitutional usage, in refusing to accept the advice of his cabinet in the Simpson case, certainly figured in the final solution.

Premier Stanley Baldwin had the hot end of a poker, and he undoubtedly was glad to be free of it. In his radio farewell to his people last night Edward spoke of how his brother, the new king, was blessed with a wife and children. Baldwin is credited with having been trying for years to drive Edward into matrimony and fatherhood.

Edward just couldn't find a prospective bride until he encountered the married Mrs. Simpson. Then he asked Baldwin to give his blessing. If this love affair between these early middle-aged people is such an overpowering thing as it has been advertised, it is one of the wonders of history. Why did they persist? Anyway it provided a vehicle for Edward's exit from his throne.

Throne Damaged?

Some opinion has it that the terrific price Edward paid for freedom makes it impossible for him ever to be completely happy.

He has, in the opinion of many observers, damaged a throne which is the keystone of a mighty empire. Premier Stanley Baldwin, in addressing the house of commons regarding Edward's abdication, stressed the meaning of the crown in these words:

"The importance of its integrity is beyond all question, far greater than it has ever been, being, as it is, not only the last link of empire that is left but a guarantee in this country, so long as it exists in that integrity, against many evils that have afflicted other countries."

The "many evils" was an obvious reference to revolutions, crashing of monarchies and establishment of dictatorships.

USE AMBULANCE TO CART AWAY LOOT

SHREVEPORT, La., Dec. 12 (AP)—Police suspected robbers used an ambulance to haul away $1,000 worth of shotguns, pistols, ammunition and other loot stolen early today from a sporting goods store here.

Storekeepers found the firearms and goods missing. An ambulance, believed stolen in Shreveport, was reported whizzing away from the scene.

Discuss Plan Of Improving State Parks

Program To Be Presented To The National Park Service

AUSTIN, Dec. 12 (AP)—The state park board conferred here today with Herbert Maier of Oklahoma City, regional director of the national park service, on a master plan for improvement of state parks.

The plan will be submitted to the national park service by January 1 to be used on a basis for the annual budget of improvement expenditures.

When the plan is finally approved, it will list the preferential park projects for completion in Texas. The state parks at which CCC camps were maintained included Palo Duro canyon, the Garner park at Uvalde, Mother Neff park in Coryell county and parks at Paris, Tyler, Cleburne, Balmorhea, Kerrville, Brownwood and Dalingerfield. A survey will be undertaken later at the direction of the national park service to ascertain where enlargements or new playgrounds are needed.

Big Bend state park is not included in the new budget because the plan is ultimately to make it an international park. The Big Bend of the Rio Grande includes the Santa Helena canyon, a box formation of 2,000 feet, and the Chisos mountains. The Mexican side has high mountains and a park there would rival any on the continent.

HOLLY SHIPPED TO BIG SPRING STORE

As has been customary for the past nine years, Cunningham and Phillips have received a box of holly from Evie Smith, Blackwood girl who started sending the plant here when nine years old. The store has made a practice of disposing of holly and sending the proceeds to the girl.

The state introduced Palmer's statement in which the defendant related that McAllister shot Calkins with a .38 calibre pistol near Falfurrias on the Edinburg road, after the two had thumbed a ride with the salesman. Palmer said that from the time of the shooting, he acted under threats from McAllister. Palmer's statement denied any intent to rob Calkins.

New Consolidated School Named For The Vice-President

In honor of the vice-president of the United States, Texas No. 1 citizen, one of Howard county's newest and largest rural schools has been named the John N. Garner public school.

In the northwestern corner of the county, the institution is the only consolidated school in the county, established as the outgrowth of the merger of the Knott and Highway schools effected last summer.

Naming of the school was by vote of the student body, acting in the presence of Miss Sue B. Mann, deputy state superintendent of public instruction who was making an inspection of the plant, and Miss Anne Martin, county superintendent.

A roomy gymnasium-auditorium has recently been completed at the John N. Garner school, bringing the number of buildings on the grounds to seven. H. F. Hallsback, superintendent, and Miss Floy McGregor, principal, head a faculty of 12.

REPORTS BIRTH OF 19-POUND INFANT

WAVERLY, O., Dec. 12 (AP)—Dr. W. L. McCaleb of Beaver said today he had delivered as the eleventh child of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brigner a son weighing 19 pounds—only about two pounds less than the normal weight of a year-old baby.

Dr. McCaleb said the infant, which was born on December 4, was normal in every respect, and was "getting along just fine." The mother, who weighs only 135 pounds, likewise was recovering nicely, he said. The birth of the 19-pound infant, said Dr. McCaleb, was about 30 days later than expected.

Defense Gains Point In Case

Statement Of Man Executed For Slaying Barred From Record

LAGRANGE, Dec. 12 (AP)—The defense scored today in the murder trial of Richard Palmer when a statement by James McAllister in the hitchhike slaying of Percy Calkins was not admitted as testimony.

Immediately after Judge M. C. Jeffrey's ruling to exclude the statement of the man who was executed for Calkins' slaying in March, 1935, the state rested and the defense offered no witnesses. Arguments will be heard Monday.

Palmer is on trial for the second time in Calkins' death. He was convicted and sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary, but the

Brother Will Pick Edward's New Title

LONDON, Dec. 12 (AP)—The British king will decide what title his abdicated brother will bear. It was disclosed today in the house of commons.

Sir Donald Somervell, attorney general, told the members the "new king would deal with that when the time comes."

The attorney general's declaration was made in response to a question put by Hasting Lees Smith, laborite.

Edward will cease to be Edward VIII, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the dominions beyond the seas, king, defender of the faith, emperor of India.

Henceforth he must be content with some simpler title. It may be any of his dukedoms: Cornwall, Lancaster, Normandy or Rothesay.

Or he might have a more humble earldom, becoming the Earl of Chester or the Earl of Carrick.

Even lower in the aristocratic scale he might be the Baron of Renfrew or the Lord of the Isles.

BRITAIN AGAIN IS DEFAULTING DEBT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—The British government defaulted again today on its war debt to the United States but did not say—as in the past four years—that it was unable to meet its annual installment.

Instead it made a reference to new debt discussions, the note saying: "His majesty's government will be ready to reopen discussions on the matter whenever circumstances are such as to warrant the hope that a satisfactory result might be reached."

IOOF ARRANGING FOR STATE GATHERING

Plans for entertaining the department council of Texas, IOOF, here on January 18 are being shaped up by the local lodge. An agent of the state magazine was here the past week gathering data on the convention city.

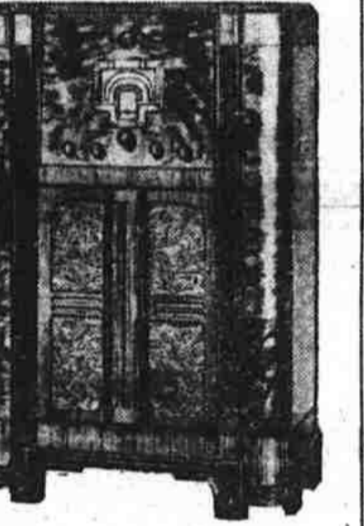

Approximately 350 will be attracted here for the annual one-day meeting which delegates from all parts of the state attend. Headquarters will be at the Crawford hotel.

St. Cecilia Members To Receive At Silver Tea This Afternoon

In a setting made beautiful by seasonal decorations and colors the members of the St. Cecilia club of St. Mary's Episcopal church will receive friends this afternoon at the J. Gordon Bristow home in Edwards Heights for a silver tea between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

The receiving line will be Mrs. Bristow, Mrs. V. Van Gieson, Mrs. Ray Simmons and Mrs. William Tate who will also preside over the registry book.

The home party will be composed of Mrs. Wilburn Barcus and Mrs. J. B. Young who will pour, and Miss Camille Koberg—Miss Don Hutto, Miss Nancy Phillips, Mrs. Turner Wynn and Mrs. Ralph W. Rix, club president, all of whom will be gowned in dresses of seasonal colors, and J. Gordon Bristow, William Tate and Rev. P. Walter Henckell.

The reception parlor will be beautifully embellished with white chrysanthemums and poinsettias which will be placed at vantage points. A lighted Christmas tree will clinch the decorations in this room.

Tea will be served from an elaborately decorated table which will be covered with a cloth of Italian linen drawn-work and centered with a miniature tree, reflected in a mirror base. Surrounding it will be symbols of the season including silver reindeer selected to harmonize with the silver service. Burning tapers in silver holders will furnish the light in the tea room.

This is by far the most important event in the club year and the members have issued a cordial invitation to the public to be present at the affair. The proceeds will go into the fund with which this group will purchase a pipe organ for the church, this being the objective around which the club was organized last year.

Musical Programs Slated For Holidays

High School Chorus Appears Next Sunday; Churches To Sponsor Cantatas

Big Spring's musical contributions to the Christmas celebrations will officially begin next Sunday when the High School Chorus will present "Christ Child" at the Municipal Auditorium and majority of the churches of the city will offer song services. On Wednesday of next week the city pageant will be given as the central attraction in this community during the week.

One of the most pretentious programs ever offered by a local musical organization will be given by the High School Chorus next Sunday afternoon.

The chorus this year is composed of seventy voices in addition to nine soloists. The director, Mrs. Bruce Frazier, states that in the six years she has been in charge of high school choral groups the one of this year has by far the best voices she has worked with.

For six consecutive years this organization has been presenting a Christmas offering in song but never before have they attempted one as outstanding in spirit, beauty and liveliness as the two act "Christ Child." Hawley, in this composition has given to the world one of the most inspirational programs of Yuletide music to be found in modern composition.

Working toward perfection in this offering this group of high school boys and girls have practiced for three months on this music which will be given in one hour, beginning at 4 o'clock.

Soloists are Ray McCullough, baritone; Wayne Nance, baritone; Raymond Lee Williams, baritone; Nelson Henninger, tenor; W. L. Grant, tenor; Clarinda Mary Sanders, contralto; Jane Lee Hannah, soprano; Wanda McQuain, soprano, and Emily Stalcup, soprano.

Miss Luriane Paxton, teacher of public school music, will be pianist for the cantata to which the public is cordially invited.

When the high school chorus completes their program at 5 o'clock those so inclined may attend vesper services at the First Christian Church or at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. G. C. Schurman is in charge of the candlelight services of the Christians and Rev. Schurman will read as the choir furnishes vocal accompaniment to the Christmas story. A similar arrangement has been chosen by the Presbyterians who will hear their pastor, Dr. D. F. McConnell read of the Natal Day while the choral section gives a musical background.

At the First Methodist Church 23 voices will be combined to offer at the evening hour a cantata on which this people have worked several weeks. It promises to be one of the most finished offerings ever given by this chorus. First Baptist musical unit will present songs and anthems at the evening hour as will the East Fourth Baptist who will perform under the direction of Cecil Floyd. This group will feature a number by the male quartet and also a solo.

Probably the most beautiful pageant ever given in the city from a viewpoint of religion and scenic beauty will be the one scheduled for Wednesday evening, Dec. 23. The weather permitting, this will be presented on the courthouse lawn; otherwise the scenery will be transferred to the auditorium.

The scenery is said to be elaborate as is the staging and the lighting. Approximately 85 people will take part, 33 of that number to compose the chorus which is the choral unit of the Music Study Club which is sponsoring the affair and two of its members are directing.

Mrs. Lula Mae Carlton is leading the choral unit in a number of songs to be given along with the pageantry which is under direction of Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser. Dr. D. F. McConnell will read "The Christmas Story," an arrangement of Bible selections with appropriate songs interspersing.

Beginning with the observation of the "Star" by the wise men, the continuity includes the scene at the court of Herod, the wise men following the gleam and as a climax comes the manger scene, one of spectacular beauty.

This presentation truly depicts the Christmas story and a large crowd is expected from surrounding cities, towns and communities in addition to local people who will attend this observation of the birth of Christ.

DIRECTING PAGEANT MUSIC

Sigma Alpha Sorority Fixes Date For Day Nursery Christmas Party

Final arrangements for the Christmas party at the Welfare Day Nursery were made and a discussion held on famous Bible Women at the Friday evening meeting of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority at the home of Miss Lillie Rogers.

The nursery party has been set for December 22 at the nursery when Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle will be hostess for the occasion. The children will return to the home at 7 o'clock for the hour of entertainment which is to include readings, songs and a Christmas story to be told by Miss Rogers. The 41 children will be presented with toys from the tree, a well-filled stocking and, where possible, clothes to be donated. Mrs. Minnie Reynolds, who is in charge of the children, will direct their part of the program. Only mothers of these charges and the aides of Mrs. Reynolds will be present along with the sorority members.

Announcement was made of the appointment of Mrs. W. J. McAdams as one of the chairmen of the newly organized eighth district of Federation of Women's Clubs of the state. She has been notified of her selection to serve as chairman of the committee of Interracial Relationship.

Pursuing the subject of the evening Mrs. Fox Stripling gave a paper on "Interesting Women in the Bible," which terminated the study program.

Present were Mrs. Ruth Aichert, Mrs. C. A. Eickley, Mrs. Thomas J. Coffey, Mrs. Ira Driver, Mrs. W. J. Maddrey, Mrs. W. J. McAdams, Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle, Mrs. Fox Stripling, Mrs. W. T. Strange, Miss

Wesley Memorial Women Hold Mission Study

Four members of the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church met Friday afternoon for a study session, continuing the work on "Pre- face to a Racial Understanding." They hope to complete the text at the meeting next week and receive credit for having finished the book in the allotted time.

Present were Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. W. W. Coleman, Mrs. John Whitaker and Mrs. W. G. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Brooks and children, Lorena and James Edward, have gone to Italy, Texas, where they are spending several days with Mr. Brooks' father, J. T. Brooks, Sr.

Reading And Writing

By John Selby

Arthur Train's famous "Mr. Tutt" always has exerted a pull on this reader entirely out of proportion to the literary value of the gentleman. This is because for years much of the conversation at home centered about the law and its peculiarities and inefficiencies. The head of the family was, of course, a lawyer.

Mr. Train is himself a lawyer, and shrewdly chose a field full of tricks adaptable to fiction when he began writing. He has worked the mine many years, and there still is plenty of gold in it. Now he is publishing 26 stories about "Tutt" and "Mr. Tutt," each supplied with a discussion of the legal points involved by Ferdinand J. Wolf of New York, and the whole duly introduced by John Henry Wigmore, author of "Wigmore on Evidence," and formerly dean of the Northwestern university law school.

The stories all deal with the neatest of all legal points—the conflict between the letter of the law and the spirit of justice. There

Newly Organized P.T.A. At Elbow Takes Part In Recreational Program

Members of the newly organized Elbow school P. T. A. took part in a recreational program Saturday evening at the school house.

The program was in charge of Mrs. N. Y. Burnett, chairman of the recreation committee, and her aides, Mrs. E. N. Baker presided as president of the association.

Organized only about a month, the Elbow association now boasts more than 25 members. Two meetings are held during the month, one a business session and the other a recreational program.

Home Demonstration Council Party Held In Church Parlors

Sixty-eight women registered at the annual Christmas party given by the Home Demonstration Council in the parlors of the First Methodist church Saturday afternoon.

Specialty of the program was the introduction of new officers for the coming year and of the past officers. An honored guest was Mrs. T. A. Roberts, first Howard county home demonstration agent.

After group singing the members were presented with gifts from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree and later played games.

At a called meeting after the social the council announced that future meetings will be held on the second Saturday instead of the fourth as they were previously held.

By RUTH ORR Pattern No. 273

If you're given to rather formal decorations in your home, you'll welcome this oval centerpiece. It's certainly all that you could wish. The center panel of this crocheted has a conventional design of wild roses, and this is surrounded by a 3-1-4 inch conventional edging which makes a frame for the pattern. Finished, the piece measures 27 by 18 inches and, best of all, it is done in No. 20 mercerized crocheted cotton, so the work proceeds at a great rate.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand illustrated directions, with diagrams to aid you; also what crocheted hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 273 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address Big Spring Herald, Needlework Dept., P. O. Box 200, Station D, New York, N. Y.

SUCCESS OF ALLRED'S AGENCIES

In four or five instances, Gov. Alfred V. Allred has projected a form of state activity outside official channels, to comprehensive and useful results. He has developed a sort of ministry or cabinet system, which gets results, and which reaches the same ends as was designed in the administrative code bill and the survey in proposing an official governor's cabinet.

Gov. Allred has in several instances named committees that had no statutory sanction to shape up policy matters toward the enactment of laws or creation of official agencies. In other cases, he has created boards under statutory authority, but which had not been used in the former government set-up.

Here are some illustrations:
He created the voluntary system of county parole boards. Then he organized the interstate pardon and parole conference. Laws will flow from the efforts of these two agencies, likely giving legal form to them. Results have been excellent in the way they have meshed with official functions.

Allred for the first time appointed an industrial committee to study labor disputes, although such an agency had long been authorized by statute.

Before the unemployment compensation bill was written or the legislature called to consider it, Gov. Allred had created an unofficial committee to study and report a statute.

The Texas governor has appointed a commission, including several state officials and others, to study highway traffic problems, with the goal of reducing traffic fatalities, and this group is at work on an adequate drivers' license law and uniform vehicle code. Beneficial legislation probably will follow its labors.

In a fifth instance, Gov. Allred both personally and through officials designated by him, helped lead the way to an effective interstate oil compact.

He is now taking steps to develop a state policy to reduce farm tenancy, following the same pattern of enlisting officials and others to work in an unofficial way to prepare the groundwork for this public policy legislation.

So far, no more fruitful or beneficial phase of public administration has been evolved than the body of work done by the unofficial or semi-official groups such as these. A governor has unlimited opportunity to call in citizens in such efforts; and Gov. Allred's success in translating such labors into formal policy, into law and operation likely will inspire an elaboration of the principle in future years.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—My idea of a super-magazine microscopic revue of this amazing metropolis will be for a candid camera to adjust itself on top of Mr. Al Smith's Empire State building and dovetail these vignettes into one epic film:

The daughter of a middle-western minister who sells hosiery in a downtown department store. The cops who chase autograph hunters away from important first nights.

Advertising executives, sartorially perfect, dining in Madison avenue restaurants. Pier detectives watching for gamblers who operate on the big ocean liners. The purser on that French boat who was a machine-gunner in the Italian army.

Shop girls swinging their heels from the toms in Trinity churchyard, eating lunch. Jack Dempsey shaking hands with visiting sports writers in Madison Square Garden. The Bowers bootblack who wears a silk hat. The blind news dealer in Columbus Circle whom nobody ever cheats. Those priests who bring grain to the pigeons in 5th avenue every afternoon. Cops in earmuffs grinning cheerfully at the weather. Bearded man kneeling in prayer on the steps of St. Patrick's cathedral.

Erudite Charwoman

The girl in 57th street leading a duck on a leash. Girls wearing slacks, sweaters, herets in Madison Square. Commenters playing bridge in Pennsylvania station. Young lovers meeting under the clock in Grand Central terminal. A charwoman in the Chanin building with a mop in one hand and a copy of "Gone With the Wind" in the other. Musicians with violin cases and tuxedos going home at 6 a. m.

Stumble-bums, tramping on life, resting in flop houses and reading the Hobo News. Police surgeons carrying limp bodies of accident victims into the morgue. Tramp steamers from South America anchored in East river. The faces that stare out of Third avenue windows above the "L". The pests who always go to fires and thrust their faces in front of news cameras. The row of book makers who take bets in 42nd street.

Deaf mutes in a spirited conversation on the 23rd street ferry. Theatrical critics racing for taxicabs after first nights. The girl who sells colored lemonade in a 45th street theater. The musical director who flounders and waves his hands (while conducting) like an epileptic Paganini. James J. Braddock, the radio star (he is also some-thing of a prize fighter), swallowing nervously before facing the "Mike".

BEHIND THE NEWS

Copyright, 1936, By Paul Mallon

Change in direction of new deal seen. Prevention of runaway boom is task. Balanced budget, less spending expected. Morgenthau may not greater stabilization fund powers.

Methods

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12—A sage economic mechanic around the White House sized up the situation now confronting the president in this apt way:

"President Roosevelt spent his first four years getting a sick horse started. He will spend the next four years trying to keep it from running away." The important thing about that is the second purpose requires an exactly opposite technique from the first. You operate at a different end of the horse.

The methods used for getting the beast going are: inflation, spending, credit expansion, an unbalanced budget, seizure and distribution of corporate earnings, seizure of big incomes and distribution of them to the needy, artificial stimulations to develop purchasing power.

But the generally known method of dealing with a runaway call for: deflation, contraction of spending and credit, a balanced budget and abstinence from stimulants.

If these fundamentals are desirable, as is now said, you are going to see an entirely different new deal in the next four years.

Steps

The experts who plan ahead are already discussing what can be done. The first thing would naturally be to pass around the word that the immediate outlook is none too good, that prices are going too high and may cause reaction. This tends to hold things down. It has already been started. The new deal news writers are beginning to speculate about it. Official spokesmen are making it up.

Next, you can hike the requirements on banks as they will have to keep a large amount of cash in reserve and cannot lend it out. This also has been done. It will be done again next month.

Then you can move to limit the influx of foreign capital into this country from war-frightened Europe, and cut down that stimulant to our markets. Mr. Roosevelt has just taken about this. Steps will be taken very soon.

Powers

These preliminary steps are the known ones. There are others which have not been mentioned in public. They can move to increase interest rates through the federal reserve board and treasury policy. They can enlarge Mr. Morgenthau's authority over the stabilization fund so he can manipulate it in an anti-inflationary way. They can buy fewer government bonds in the open market and thus put out less cash. They can start to cut down gradually on government spending, and move toward a balancing of the budget.

All these and some other minor technical steps have been discussed, and perhaps these will eventually be taken. A significant thing about them is that virtually no new legislation would be needed to carry them out. A technical amendment might have to be adopted by congress to enlarge Mr. Morgenthau's stabilization powers, and the rate of spending, of course, will be partly determined by congress. But no new big legislation is being discussed at this time.

Determination

The big question is how effective these moves will be. Nobody knows. They have never been tried before. Consequently, no one can possibly have any provable notion of how much they will accomplish. Their application requires very careful handling, because the purpose is not to stop the progress of the old boss, but to moderate his gait so he will not again exhaust himself and collapse.

It is true the government could not handle him before, and the reins now are not as strong as they might be. But government has learned a lot in the last seven years. It is alert and knowing. All of these fellows here in charge of thinking for the new deal are not Tugwells. They have found out some practical economics in the last four years than government opened before. It is anybody's guess how successful they will be. The main thing is they are determined.

Wings For Sally

by BAILEY WOLFE

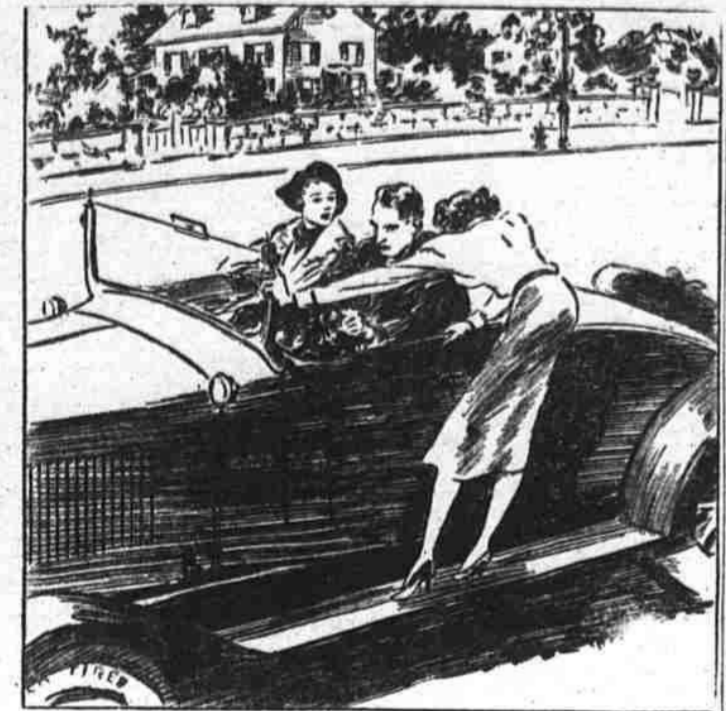

Chapter Four
EN ROUTE TO THE AIRPORT
 It was Lola Hopkins, the girl reporter, who helped Sally to make her decision. Sally had paused on the steps of the Courter building when Lola halted her with loud cheer.

"Let's go to lunch—what say?" "All right," agreed Sally. "I was just trying to decide where to eat."

Lola led the way to a small lunch room that Sally had never noticed before. They both ate hungrily till the plate lunches were disposed of. Then Lola turned her sharp black eyes on Sally.

ards well. Cheerful Mrs. Maynard sewed to help make a living. The house was always littered with scraps of material and the younger children's school books and toys, but Mrs. Maynard never seemed to mind the untidiness or the children's noise. Mr. Maynard ran a garage. He was tall and broad and had Terry's blue eyes.

"The Maynards are pretty swell folks," said Lola. "They don't mingle much in Warrenton society, but they've got the stuff it takes to get ahead. Came down from the mountains with four kids to bring up and educate. They're all work-

"Will you take me, too?" begged Tip shamelessly.

"Say, how'd you like to go to a movie tomorrow night and dance afterwards at the Lake Pavilion? You bring Terry Maynard and I'll bring my friend. We can go in my car."

"You know Terry?" Sally was somehow startled. He had never mentioned Lola.

"I live next door to his folks on Riverview Heights," explained Lola. "Ever been to see them?"

"Yes," said Sally. "A few

ed hard and now they've got their own place, and the garage. Sent Terry to flying school."

"They're awfully proud of him."

"They've got a right to be," affirmed Lola. "He's going to have the guts to get out of this little puddle and make something of himself." Sally was silent and Lola added, "What about that movie?"

Lola Offers Advice

"Terry's flying over to Greensboro tomorrow night," said Sally slowly.

"Going with him?"

"I don't know," said Sally. "I've promised not to go up with him again soon. My—my stepmother doesn't want me to."

"They're always like that about flying—old folks are. Mom's the same way. I just go where I please, and if she don't like where I'm going I go anyway and bring her back a present afterwards. She gets over it."

"You always do what you want, don't you?" asked Sally suddenly.

"Just about, I guess."

"I almost never do," confessed Sally. "There are always so many other people to be considered."

"You'll never get anywhere if you figure like that. Take my advice and go with Terry if you want to."

"I'm going to," said Sally, with sudden decision.

As soon as she reached the office, she called Terry before she had time to change her mind.

"Terry—I'll go."

"Good girl!" Terry's enthusiasm warmed her. "Be ready about seven tomorrow night."

When Sally reached home, she went straight to the kitchen to have it out with her stepmother. Adelaide Warren was slicing the cold roast for supper, and Tip was pressing a dress.

"Mother," said Sally boldly, "Terry Maynard's flying to Greensboro tomorrow night on a very special trip, and he wants me to go."

"I never thought for one minute you meant what you said about not going flying with him again," said Mrs. Warren.

"I didn't mean to go again soon," said Sally. "Honestly."

"It's one and the same thing," said Mrs. Warren. "You'll keep on going till one of you gets killed. I don't know how I'm to bear the worry of it."

"Don't be silly, Mom," said Tip.

"Terry Maynard's one of the best pilots around here." She turned to Sally eagerly. "What's Terry going to Greensboro for? Do you think he'll let me go?"

"It's Terry's secret," said Sally. "I'll ask him his old secret—and he'll tell me, too," pouted Tip.

Sally said nothing, although she rather thought Tip could get the secret out of Terry easily enough. At any rate, Tip had distracted Mrs. Warren's attention from Sally, and the row she had feared seemed averted.

Tip Pops for a Ride

The next evening Sally was ready and waiting when Terry's disreputable old car pulled up. Sally gave a last look at herself in the mirror. She knew she looked very well in the new blue suit, with yellow blouse and hat to match.

As usual, Terry failed to notice Sally's clothes. "All set?" he demanded. "We don't want to be late meeting the big guy."

"Of course not," said Sally, taking two steps to Terry's car as he hurried her down the path. They climbed into the car and Terry was just starting the engine when Tip came flying down the path.

"Hey, wait a minute! Terry—will you take me, too?" begged Tip shamelessly.

"Not this time," said Terry. "Business tonight."

"What are you going for?" demanded Tip, avoiding Sally's reproachful eyes.

"Tell you later," said Terry. "Get off the running board, now; we're in a hurry."

"Will you take me up Saturday afternoon?" demanded Tip.

"Yeah—sure I will," said Terry. "Move, now." The car started with a jerk, but Tip leaped off nimbly and stood there waving.

"I don't know whatever will become of Tip," said Sally. "She's such a wild creature."

"I wouldn't worry about her," said Terry. "She can probably take care of herself better than you can. Growing up into a darned pretty girl, too."

Sally was glad when Terry turned into the unpaved country road that led to the airport. Here their way lay between fields of dew-scented clover and freshly ploughed earth. Now and then they passed a farm house, and caught the scent of lilacs, or the heavy fragrance of wistaria. Terry's hand had reached out and covered Sally's.

"I wanted you to be with me because I've got a feeling this is going to be a big moment for me tonight," said Terry. "And if things turn out the way I hope they will—well—there's something I've got to say to you."

Sally was silent, afraid to speak lest she should somehow disturb contentment that was here. With a little shiver, half regret, half excitement, she saw the signal lights of the flying field before them.

Sally beside him, Terry flies to Greensboro tomorrow and lands a job.

Variety Of Music To Go On Air Lanes

Standard Library Obtained By KBST Includes Many Features

A wealth of music of every type which can be blended into an almost infinite number of well-balanced programs, is to be offered with the acquisition of the Standard Library of Transcription features by Radio Station KBST, announced Manager Willson Saturday.

This outstanding library of music, now offered by nearly 200 American radio stations, was obtained to augment the National Broadcasting company reproductions, also acquired by Big Spring's new KBST, which takes to the air within a fortnight, Willson explained.

Among the many artists and features offered in the Standard Library are to be found the Sons of the Pioneers, billed as the "Number One Hill Billies of the Radio World." These five artists are particularly liked by Texas radio listeners and it is believed that they

New Operator Brings Number Of Workers To Eight

With the arrival Saturday of Frank Adcock, radio operator, the staff of radio station KBST is now complete, said Jimmie Willson, station manager. Eight employees make up the personnel.

A graduate of West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon, and of Draughon's at Fort Worth, and the Wallace Institute at Oklahoma City, Adcock joins the staff of KBST as assistant to E. I. McKinney, chief operator.

Adcock comes to Big Spring from Lubbock, where he operated for KFYO. Prior to that he was connected with the former KGRS at Amarillo. His wife will join him here within a few days.

The personnel of KBST is complete and will share the same popularity with KBST audiences.

Jerry Shelton, sensational accordionist, will also be featured in the Standard Library programs, as will Ray Martinez orchestra, presenting popular, semi-classic and classic Latin style music.

NBC Program Service To Be Offered

Renowned Artists Will Be Heard In Daily Broadcasts Of KBST

When KBST takes the air this month, local listeners will be treated to a treasure house of programs.

Arrangements have been completed with the National Broadcasting company for the use of the production facilities of Radio City and the inauguration of N. B. C. program service will be simultaneous with the opening of Big Spring's KBST.

Nathaniel Shilkret and his orchestra, long recognized as the leading exponents of better music in America, will be heard regularly in the performance of both traditional American music and contemporary compositions. Shilkret has immortalized, with the American radio and concert audiences, the music of America's beloved composers, Stephen Collins Foster, Ethelbert Nevin, Rudolph Friml, and many others.

Other National Broadcasting company artists to be featured include Richard Leibel at the Radio City Music Hall organ; Rosario Bourdon and his symphony orchestra; Rudolph Friml, Jr., son of the famous composer, with his nationally famous dance orchestra; The Rhythm Makers, Harry Reser, and many others.

This galaxy of stars from the Music Hall of Radio City will be heard daily through the production facilities of the National Broadcasting company, released over KBST.

Each of these artists are leaders in their respective fields, known to millions of radio listeners here and abroad.

HOLIDAY PROJECTS PROVIDE WORK FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 12.—Service for young and for the aged is the result of Christmas projects operated by the Works Progress administration in Texas.

More than one hundred men and women, practically all of them past 50 years of age or physically handicapped so as to be unemployable for ordinary WPA projects, have been taken from direct relief rolls and given jobs manufacturing toys to be distributed this Christmas to underprivileged youngsters.

Using such prosaic articles as prune boxes, discarded inner tubes and scraps from lumber yards and sewing rooms to supplement materials available, the workers produce bright, sturdy, and attractive playthings under the supervision of trained experts. More than 12,000 toys will be ready for distribution by Christmas. WPA commodity distribution facilities are utilized to deliver the finished articles to children in the cities where the projects operate.

Serving the double purpose of taking people off direct relief rolls for several months and providing thousands of toys for underprivileged youngsters, these toy-making projects are receiving splendid cooperation from local authorities wherever they are being operated. WPA officials declare. Sponsors of the projects supply equipment, work shops, and materials, and civic organizations help gather discarded toys to be repaired and made new.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Spence are in Mineral Wells today where they took Mr. Spence's aunt, who has been their guest.

Home Ec Dept. At Forsan To Be Exhibited

New Equipment Installed; Open House Set For Tuesday Night

Open house will be held by the Forsan home economics department Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. It was announced Saturday by Mrs. Thomas E. Pierce, home economics instructor for the school.

Mrs. Pierce and her students have been at work the latter part of the week installing equipment used in the replica of the Forsan department displayed before the American Vocational association convention recently in San Antonio.

Among pieces of equipment being installed are eight cabinets, four food tables, four stoves, filling cabinets, clothes closets, mirrors, lockers, book cases, sewing machines, a bed room suite of solid maple, sewing baskets and pictures.

Mrs. Pierce is head of the Future Homemakers of America, Texas division.

B. C. Rogers also plans to have open house for his manual training department Tuesday evening.

In both departments students will carry on their routine work while visitors inspect the projects.

MONTERREY CAFE TO MOVE SOON TO NEW RUNNELS ST. SITE

Announcement of the removal, at an early date, of the Monterey cafe was announced Saturday by N. C. Barnes, proprietor.

Barnes has obtained a new location at 108 Runnels street. Remodeling of the property is under way and as soon as work is completed, the Monterey, which specializes in Mexican foods, will announce an opening date.

Building in which the Monterey is now located, 315 East Third street, has been sold, but the deal in no way involves the cafe, Barnes said.

Second Texas Centennial In 1945, To Mark A Century Of Statehood, Is Proposed By Lieut.-Gov. Woodul

By RAYMOND BROOKS (Herald Austin Correspondent)
AUSTIN, Dec. 12.—A second Texas Centennial in 1945, to commemorate a century of statehood, was proposed here by Lieut. Gov. Woodul, chairman of the commission of control for the Texas Centennial now just closing its celebration of the republic's first hundred years.

"Success of the 1836 Centennial is evidence that such a celebration nine years hence would mean a great deal for Texas," Lieut. Gov. Woodul commented. "I think it would be a fine idea to begin planning right now for an adequate celebration of the centennial anniversary of Texas' admission to the union."

He said he made no suggestion as to the site, though he recognized that Dallas had built a magnificent plant, supplemented by state and federal buildings, for this year's Centennial. He said he heartily approved the plan of continuing the central exposition at Dallas next spring and summer, as has been decided.

Woodul suggested that the five-year Texas advertising program which he, as chairman of the Centennial commission proposed as a carry-through from this year's international attention Texas has had, might be blended into the preparations for the second Centennial observance.

His Texas advertising program, which calls for a constitutional amendment to authorize state participation, has won favorable and widespread comment.

Arkansas, Woodul pointed out, this year is holding a Centennial exposition, celebrating admission to statehood. The Arkansas observance has been outstanding, he commented.

The proposed second Texas observance would be far enough away in time from the 1836 statewide celebration that there would be no element of conflict or "over-doing" it," in Woodul's opinion.

The lieutenant-governor affirmed he will continue his efforts on behalf of state action to make the Texas advertising program possible. This likely would call for authority to raise funds by taxation or a bond issue, to provide for official state advertising throughout the nation and in other countries.

HUMBLE WORKERS IN THIS TERRITORY WILL SHARE IN WAGE HIKE

Approximately 35 employees in this immediate area of the Humble Oil & Refining company will share in a salary increase announced last week from company headquarters at Houston. This group includes members of the sales division in Big Spring, and workers in the production and pipeline departments in the Howard-Glasscock field.

Humble announced a five percent hike for all employees whose salaries are less than $5,000. The raises became effective December 1.

Officials of the company also announced the company would make additional contributions to its annuity and thrift plan.

Agriculture Problems In Europe, Too

Other Nations Try Many Policies To Assist Their Farmers

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 12. (AP)—Europe has its farm problems, too, Clifford V. Gregory, Chicago, member of the president's special commission to investigate cooperatives in Europe, told the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual convention.

"In Ireland," said Gregory, who is editor of Prairie Farmer, "farmers complain bitterly about the English cattle tariff, while in England, farmers complain because the tariff is not high enough."

"On the wall of a creamery in southern France I saw a poster which told of the evils of deflation and demanded honest money, more protection against imports, and parity prices."

The editor said plans vary from export subsidies to straight price fixing.

"In Sweden," he said, "the price of grain is fixed for a year in advance. The farmer knows in the spring before he plants his crop just what he will get for it. Control of imports, export subsidies and diversions of surplus wheat to feed, are the methods used to sustain the price."

Two cents a pound is paid on all fat cattle at the time of marketing in England, he related. The money comes out of the treasury and is little more than a direct subsidy. The English wheat plan provides for deficiency payments to bring the price up to $1.25 a hundred.

"Experience in Europe seems to indicate," Gregory asserted, "that farm marketing cooperatives perform effective service in increasing farm income; that this service is best accomplished when the cooperatives are financially strong, when they own their processing plants, and when they base their operations on quality production."

"In Denmark, cooperative marketing is largely responsible for national prosperity."

Services Churches Topics

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"God, the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, December 31.

The Golden Text is: "Preserve me, O God; for in thee do I put my trust." (Psalm 18:1).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour" (Isaiah 43:2,3).

The lesson-sermon includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine mind that made man maintain His own image and likeness" (page 151).

FIGHT FAMINE AND DISEASE IN WAKE OF PHILIPPINE FLOODS

MANILA, Dec. 12. (AP)—Health authorities, relief workers and soldiers swarmed into the flood-swept Cagayan valley tonight to fight against threats of famine and disease.

A news correspondent at Aparri expressed the belief 2,000 persons were missing, many of them probably dead, but definite determination of the casualties was delayed as authorities centered all their efforts against hunger and pestilence.

Communication was being re-established slowly but many large areas inundated by the high waters December 4 remained unheeded from.

A report from hard-hit Isabela province said 27 school teachers were missing in the Sill district.

Dannabel McRea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McRea of Elbow, was much improved at a local hospital Saturday. She has been suffering from pneumonia.

BAPTIST MINISTER AT BRADY IS DEAD

BRADY, Dec. 12. (AP)—J. T. Hamilton, 77, Baptist minister who served several terms in the state legislature, died in a hospital here today after being ill with pneumonia for a few days.

Hamilton was a member of the legislature from McCullough, Mason, San Saba and Lampasas counties from 1908 to 1912, and from Brown and Eastland counties from 1919 to 1922. He was the first school superintendent of Llano county.

Funeral services will be held at Brady, where he had made his home for the last ten years, tomorrow afternoon.

OPENS RADIATOR SHOP

Jack Nye, with 10 years experience as a radiator specialist, has opened a radiator service here at 302 E. 3rd street. He comes to Big Spring from Clovis, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carter are spending Sunday in Sweetwater, the guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Armour.
