BURGERS ONLY COST FIVE CENTS

Bill's Cafe famous

BY RENE CALCOTE

Walking down Main Street in Eldorado on a Saturday evening in the 1920s, a person could have the illusion of being on Coney Island. The air filled with a tantalizing aroma of hamburgers on a hot grill. Onions sizzling, tempting the taste buds. The smell of hot popcorn drifting from the theatre doors among families crowding the street, visiting and laughing.

Saturday night was a big event in the 20's. The whole family came to town to visit, shop and relax. Some old timers say, "You had to come to town early to get a good parking place, in the shade. Everyone had their favorite spot to park."

Eldorado folks really felt "big time" since two local teenagers, Dick Bearce and Palmer West, opened the Owl Theatre. No one seemed to mind the hard wooden benches for seating or the old Charlie Chaplin movies. There was no electricity available so the reels were hand operated. There was music! Jym Newsom, another local teenager, played the piano as the reels were turned.

The sensuous aroma came from "Hamburger Bills" famous cafe. This was the most popular eating place ever to be in Eldorado.

Hamburgers were five cents at Bill's, and you really got your nickle's worth! These big taste tempting burgers were served with relish and onions, hot off the grill, on a piece of oil paper. Some say "the secret of Bill's burgers was the day-old bread he put in the meat to make it full and tasty." No one knows for sure, but they do know they were good!

Many romances blossomed on Saturday nights in Eldorado on this Main Street in the early days.

Times have sure changed—driving down Main Street now on a Saturday night you'll be lucky to see anyone. Makes one wonder if we didn't miss something really good.

Rabies in cats double that of dogs

Mary's
Column

EDITOR'S NOTE--The following is reprinted from the Standard Times and was written by Jim Owens.

Cases of rabies among cats in the Concho Valley are more than double that of dogs an El Paso veterinarian said.

Several factors, which follow a statewide trend, may be contributing to the number of rabies cases among cats, said Dr. Evert C. Newman. He is regional veterinarian for Public Health Region 3 of the Texas Department of Health.

Newman spoke at a one-day seminar at the San Angelo Convention Center.

"It may be because of the vaccination levels of dogs versus cats," he said. "The percentage of dogs vaccinated against rabies is more than double that of cats. Over the last 10 years the number of rabies cases in dogs is way down."

Another possible contributing factor, Newman said, is that most cat owners don't restrain their pets the way most dog owners do.

"Cats are not restrained like dogs and are allowed to roam," he said. "There is a philosophy that cats have to exercise and they really don't. They are just as happy lying on a bed all day. Cats are almost house broken when born, and if there is a litter box available, they will go to it. My advice is to keep cats in the house."

Domestic dogs, cats and livestock usually acquire rabies from wild animals such as skunks, foxes and raccoons, Newman said. While the number of rabid domestic animals are fewer, their danger is greater because their close association with humans.

Rabies is a viral disease of the central nervous system. It can be transmitted by the bite of a rabid animal, or through the saliva of a rabid animal being introduced into a fresh scratch or similar skin break. Rarely is rabies transmitted by other routes.

Saliva in contact with unbroken skin, or even a scratch wound more than 24 hours old (one where a scab is formed), usually will not require anti-rabies treatment. A doctor should be consulted if the animal is suspected of being rabid.

Rabid dogs and cats usually show a change in behavior, with excitability or paralysis, followed by death.

"A change in behavior could be a vicious dog becoming very loving or the other way around. This can occur very suddenly.

There is also an unexplained paralysis of the hind legs and the throat. Frothing is caused by the animal's inability to swallow," Newman said.

Rabid cats have a tendency to crawl off and hide. They become aggressive and are more prone to attack if any attempt is made to retrieve the animal, he said.

If a person is bitten by a suspected rabid animal, immediate precautions should be taken. Identify and, whenever possible, confine the biting dog or cat for observation. Wash the wound thoroughly with soap and hot water as an immediate first aid procedure. Consult a physician as soon as possible concerning the advisability of anti-rabies treatment.

Suspected rabies is no longer treated by a series of painful shots into a person's naval, Newman said. Humans are treated with HDCV (Human Diploid Cell Vaccine).

I would like to tell you a story. Once upon a time there lived a small-town newspaper that reported all kinds of things. While the town worked hard to solve crime, unemployment, bad streets and all the other aches and pains, the newspaper never gave in. It kept at it to try and bring the town a promise of better things to come, and to believe in itself.

The newspaper's merchants advertised a lot for a while as there were more available dollars. But times got tougher for the newspaper. The price of newsprint went up and it cost more to mail the newspaper. The newspaper faced all the challenges to business as did everyone else.

The town started losing its upbeat manner. Its citizens became less interested in ideas for the future of a town in which they were losing contact...and information.

But the newspaper kept plugging along. Its staff worked hard to find ways to produce a better newspaper for the town and to provide businesses with a valuable means of selling their goods and services and informing its readers about everything from government to fashion and foods.

How does this story end? You can write your own ending if you like. You may even pretend the newspaper in the story is this newspaper.

A small newspaper survives by the merchants and the people supporting it—both in prosperous and not-so-prosperous times. Not only with your dollars but by your moral support.

A newspaper never satisfies everyone. But isn't that the way life is? You can please some of the people some of the time but you can't please all of the people all of the time.

This is your newspaper. Let's stand together and make the newspaper and the town the best ever. It can work.

Newspapers enjoy exercising "Freedom of the Press", but freedom does not come cheaply. It costs dollars to keep it going. You can help put a happy ending to this story for your town and your newspaper by supporting your local newspaper and its advertisers, because they are helping your town!

All-Stars finish second

The Eldorado Little League, sponsored by the Schleicher County Rodeo Association, recently completed its 1988 season. The White Sox, with a record of 7-1 were champions for the third year in a row, to be either champions or co-champs.

The final standings were: White Sox, 7-1; Cougars, 6-2; Bears, 4-4; Red Sox, 2-6; and Tigers, 1-7.

An All State team was picked by the coaches to play in the first annual West Texas Tournament held in Iraan July 14, 15 and 16. The following boys were selected to this team: from the Tigers, Pepper Nix; Red Sox, Michael Martinez, Julian Martinez, Trent Manning; Bears, Fidel Herrera and Greg Terry; Cougars, Wayne Jenkins, Reagan Bounds, Jesse Sanchez, Landon Neal and Joe Sanchez; White Sox, Farley Dakan, Cody McCravy, Hunter Preston, Rickey Gutierrez, Travis Whitten and Leon Fuentes.

The All Stars played Rankin Thursday night and lost 5-3 throwing them into the losers bracket. They beat Stanton Saturday morning 6-3 and came back to beat Midkiff-Sterling City All Stars 8-7 in the seventh inning.

They then played Rankin again and won 3-2 to advance to the finals against Iraan. They lost a heart breaking 5-4 in extra innings to finish second in the tournament.

"The boys played four games Saturday in 90 degree heat and never gave up," a spokesman said. Jackie Willis was manager and Chris McCravy and Richard Preston were base coaches.

"The players would like to thank the Schleicher County Rodeo Association for sponsoring the team and providing uniforms. Also to the parents who cooked hamburgers and provided transportation and a cheering section for the boys," the spokesman concluded.

State economy reflects increase

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Tuesday that payments to cities that collect local sales tax continued to show an increase this month, with July payments up 14.3 percent over those sent in July last year.

Eldorado's check totaled $3,957.54, up 53.46 percent from the $2,578.88 received for the same time period last year.

For the year Eldorado has received $33,435.33, down 21.64 percent from the $42,671.26 received at this time last year.

Other area cities and their totals include Eden, $1,712.45, up 9.06 percent; Rocksprings, $2,148.18, up 13.55 percent; Mertzon, $1,812.34, down 32 percent; Junction, $6,193.55, up 1.50 percent; Mason, $4,369.92, up 9.34 percent; Menard, $1,486.01, down 5.84 percent; Big Lake, $11,856.84, up 6.72 percent; Sonora, $10,726.13; and San Angelo, $323,474.10, down 11 percent.

"The gaining strength in our state economy is being reflected on a local level, and local governments can continue to expect a steady increase in their share of sales tax collections," Bullock said.

Statewide, year-to-date payments are 10.8 percent higher than the same period last year, according to Bullock.

Houston's payment of $10 million was up 17.5 percent over last year's allocation, Bullock said, and Dallas' payment showed a 10.1 percent increase.

Bullock said that 915 checks totaling $61.3 million in local sales taxes were sent Tuesday to cities that collect the local option sales tax at either one or one and one-half percent rates.

Checks totaling $5.8 million were also mailed Tuesday to 81 counties that collect the one-half percent county tax, Bullock said.

July's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in May and reported to the Comptroller's Office by June 20, according to Bullock.

MIDSHIPMAN FRANK MITCHELL BRADLEY Estell Baker hosts '42'

Estell Baker was hostess Thursday, July 14 when she entertained the "42" Club in the home of Bessie Clifton.

Those present were Lillian Mikeska, Opal Parks, Maudie Bassinger, Virginia Griffin and Zelma Henderson. Guests were Florence Hinton, Jake Spencer, Lois Etheredge, Ada Bell Taylor, Pearl Enochs, and Edith Shaw.

The hostess served cake and fresh strawberries with cool whip and coffee and tea.

Midshipman Bradley attains honor

Midshipman 3/C Frank Mitchell Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley of Eldorado, has been named to the United States Naval Academy's Superintendent's List. Midshipman Bradley had a 3.79 grade point average after the second semester of his Plebe (Freshman) year.

In addition to a grade point average of greater than 3.40 a Superintendent's List candidate must also attain an "A" in physical education, conduct and performance.

Midshipman Bradley has also recently graduated from the scuba phase of the U.S. Navy's divers school in Panama City Beach, Florida and is presently training in the Western Pacific.

Lower phone rates set

Reduced telephone rates went into effect July 1 for older disabled Texans who live in poverty, according to state officials who worked out the plan with telephone company representatives in response to recent legislation.

Under Tel-assistance Service, phone companies offer a 65 percent reduction in the basic monthly local charge. The reduced rate does not apply to installation, touch-tone, custom calling, long-distance or similar charges.

"The program was established by the Legislature, which required all 66 telephone companies that serve Texas consumers to participate," said Marlin

W. Johnston, commissioner of the Texas Department of Human Services.

The Texas Public Utility Commission is responsible for rules governing participation by telephone companies. The human services department will take applications for the service and determine eligibility. The department will furnish telephone companies with a monthly list of eligible Texans.

To be eligible, a person must live in Texas, be the head of a household, be at least 65 years old, be disabled and have income at or below the federal poverty level. The 1988 poverty level for a one-person household is $480.83 per month. The income limit for a two-person household is $644.16; a three-person household, $807.50; and a four-person household, $970.83. For each additional person, add $163.33 per month.

A person may have only one telephone line and may not have optional extended area service. People without telephone service must pay installation charges.

Johnston said application forms will be mailed to potentially eligible Texans in the department's files. Telephone companies will mail information about Tel-assistance service to all customers starting in September.

Application forms and information are available by calling a toll-free number, 1-800-343-8353.

shots into the arm of a person over a three-week period and are not painful. The shots are administered to children usually in the thigh," he said.

Since the vaccine was introduced and made available in 1983, 300,000 to 400,000 people worldwide have been treated with no deaths recorded, Newman said.

The seminar was sponsored by the City of San Angelo, Animal Control Division; Concho Valley Council of Governments; and the Texas Department of Health, Public Health Region 3.

-top of the divide-

BY THOMAS GIOVANNITTI

There are some things about being an adult I really enjoy, not the least of which is that, since I am the "bread winner" in my family I can pick and choose what kind of food I am going to eat. Now, don't get me wrong, I am not a very picky eater. I enjoy most any food, although I may be a little partial to pasta.

I even like vegetables now. I didn't care for vegetables so much when I was a child buy my Mom and Dad thought they were good for me.

In those days, even if I didn't care for some vegetable or other I would usually eat it anyway. I did this so I wouldn't feel guilty about those "starving kids in Africa" or the millions of Chinese who went to bed hungry while I "left perfectly good food on my plate". Actually I didn't leave "any" food on my plate and neither did any of my brothers or sisters. If we had had a pet that was going to eat table scraps that animal would have withered up and blown away for lack of something to eat.

On the other hand getting down those last few lima beans or worst yet those mushy, bland, tasteless cooked beets was, for me at least a very difficult thing to do. You can bet good money (or all the cooked beets you want) that as soon as I became the provider beets were no longer provided.

Aside from turnips, beets are, to me, about the worst tasting "veggie" there is. It is one of those edibles where the top is better than the fruit. There also seems to be an endless supply of them, although I've never heard anyone admit to growing beets for a living.

The thing that always made it so difficult to swallow about beets was my Mother saying they were "good for what ailed me". I was never quite sure what "ailed me" except that if I didn't eat my beets, my Dad would show me "what ailed me".

Well, guess what folks, beets may not have ever been good for me or what ailed me either. Last week the Standard Times ran an article in its family section detailing which vegetables were, in fact good for us, and beets were listed as only minimally nutritious. There you have it. All those years forcing beets down my throat when I didn't want to eat them and I wasn't even getting any nutritional value. At least those kids in Africa and China could have filled up on the nasty things.

The only thing beets did for my health was to keep my Father from showing me "what ailed me".

Ozona to host Rodeo

Ozona will host an event filled "Rodeo Weekend" August 5, 6 and 7. There will be a parade, barbecue, youth rodeo, arts fair, dance, calf roping and team roping.

The weekend will begin with a parade through down town Ozona Friday at 5 p.m., August 5. Then a barbecue with good mesquite smoked beef will start at 6 p.m. The 32nd annual running of the Ozona Lions Club Youth Rodeo will get underway at 6:30 p.m.

The Rodeo Country Arts Fair will open the doors of the fair ground's barn at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 6 and continue until 4 p.m. They will also open on Sunday, August 7 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Some "slack" events will be held for youth rodeo contestants on Saturday at 8 a.m. The Lions Club will serve another barbecue plate at 6 p.m. The Saturday night performance of the youth rodeo will kickoff at 6:30 p.m. Country music lovers can two step to the sounds of a good West Texas band as the Saturday night dance gets going at 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Adult cowboys will be in the arena on Sunday, August 7 at noon as the Jay Miller Memorial Calf Roping and the Dan Bean Memorial Team Roping are held.

"This will be a great family weekend in Ozona and those needing entry blanks or more information are encouraged to call the Ozona Chamber of Commerce at 915-392-3066," a spokesman said.

Notice

Due to the refinishing of the high school gymnasium floor, the gym will be closed to the public for the remainder of the summer. The cooperation of the public is appreciated.

The tennis courts are also being resurfaced and will be closed for a few days. Although there may be some inconvenience during this time, the better playing surface should prove worth the wait.

Supplemental Program set

The Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is designed to improve the health of financially eligible pregnant, breast-feeding and postpartum women, infants and preschool children at nutritional risk. WIC services will be offered in Schleicher County for the first time beginning August 1, 1988.

The Texas WIC income guidelines are 185 percent of poverty. All women, infants and preschool children are encouraged to come by Eldorado Satellite Clinic at the Memorial Building in Eldorado for an appointment.

All WIC applicants are screened for their height and weight and all applicants over six months old are given a finger stick test for anemia. The Public Health Nurse will evaluate the results of the physical assessment and determine the applicant's nutritional eligibility.

While attending a monthly nutrition education class to learn the relationship between health and good nutrition, WIC participants will receive vouchers redeemable at WIC approved community grocers. The vouchers are redeemable for milk, cheese, eggs, dried beans, fruit juice, iron-fortified cereal and iron-fortified infant formula.

At no time in life is nutritious and adequate food as critical as during pregnancy when the fetus is developing, and throughout the initial years of a child's life. Malnutrition at this state can lead to mental and physical retardation or at least to a body more prone to illness and a mind less able to develop to its capacity.

The benefits of good prenatal nutrition, achieved through the WIC Program, has been documented in a study conducted by Harvard. The study found that every $1.00 spent to aid pregnant women avoided $3.00 in hospital costs that would have been spent for treatment of their babies. Since the program is delivered through health care agencies, WIC encourages early and frequent prenatal and child health care.

Reeves services in Abilene

Don Abbot Reeves, 74, of 507 Shelton in Abilene, died recently at an Abilene Hospital.

Services were held Monday at the Elliott-Hamil Funeral Home Chapel of Faith, U.S. Highway 277, with Dr. Don Greenway officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Born in Granite, Oklahoma, he grew up in Rush Springs, Oklahoma and moved to Abilene in 1955.

He was an oil field worker and retired 11 years ago.

He was a member of North Side Baptist Church and a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Bessie Havron Reeves of Abilene; three sons, Lee Roy Reeves of Eldorado and Donald Ray Reeves and Billy Lynn Reeves, both of Abilene; two daughters, Edna Faye Hall of Abilene and Linda Joyce Wilson of Tye; a sister, Georgia Mae Knight of Hennessey, Oklahoma; a brother, Gene Reeves of Moore, Oklahoma; 13 grandchildren; and nine great grandchildren.

Powell hosts Neighbor Club

The Good Neighbor Extension Club met in the home of Eleanor Powell for the July meeting. The roll call was given by Nancy Lester on what kind of medicine each member took and their ailment.

Ruby Hight, Nancy Lester, Eleanor Powell and Ruth Baker presented a skit on Stress—the wear and tear of life.

Those attending were Ola Ruth Barbee, Hettie Bryan, Mary Gausemiere, and Flora Riley.

There will be no August meeting. Nancy Lester will be hostess for the September meeting.

The hostess served chocolate cake, ice cream and punch.
