Eldorado Welcomes KLST

"ELDORADO WELCOMES KLST" was the sign on the wall of the Memorial Building, Monday, August 21, when KLST representatives were present at a meeting, hosted by the Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber was responsible for a delicious meal of sandwiches, chips, dips and desserts which everyone enjoyed.

George Gower, chamber president, introduced Larry White, director of engineering for KLST, who told the purpose of the meeting, which was to show how to gain better media coverage for community events which in turn would promote local businesses.

White then introduced the employees and told of their connection with KLST. They were: Gordon Hay, station manager; Mary Ann Allen, public service and advertising; Jeff Bennett, director of creative services; Donna Davis, reporter; Lou Kordek, news director; and Scott Underwood, general sales manager.

Mary Ann Allen spoke briefly on how to get announcements on the Community Calendar. She stated that most items must be sent in at least two weeks in advance and should be sent to her, Public Service Director, KLST,

P.O. Box 1941, San Angelo, Tx. 76902.

Information was passed out to those present on how to communicate effectively with the television news media.

State Continues To Show Steady Growth

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that cities, counties and transit authorities received 9.8 percent more in sales tax rebates this month than they did in August, 1988.

"We sent more than $193 million in sales tax money to local governments this month, and Texas businesses continue to report higher sales tax collections," Bullock said.

Bullock noted that cities received an average of 7.4 percent more income from sales tax this month than in August 1988, and year-to-date payments to cities are up by an average of 9.7 percent over the same period last year.

"We've predicted that the steady growth trend will continue, although it remains spotty in some areas of the state," Bullock said.

Checks totaling $121.9 million were sent to 1046 cities that have a local sales tax rate of either one or one and one-half percent.

Houston received $20.9 million this month, the largest payment in the state. Dallas' check of $13.6 million was second-largest, Bullock said.

Eldorado received $7,259.54 this period, compared to $7,161.02 for the same period last year. This is an increase of 1.38 percent. Year to date payments are $43,623.28, compared to $40,596.35 for the previous year, an increase of $7.46 percent.

August's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in June and by quarterly filers in April, May and June and reported to the Comptroller's office by July 20, Bullock said.

Life Among The Fishes

By Thomas Giovannitti

Well, culture has come to the divide. Although some may be divided as to just how much culture, the Way Off Broadway Players had their first theatre production and it was a great success. Admittedly those plucky troopers are still pretty far from Broadway (and much closer to "the midway" actually) but every theatre company has to start somewhere.

On Saturday evening just before the Schleicher County Days Rodeo, the players presented their melodrama before a packed house in the renovated "old drugstore".

A very good time was had by all including the audience. I got the feeling that the players might have had a good time even if there had been no audience but it helps to hear the ovation of the crowd after the final curtain.

There is a bit of the ham in all of us and my hat is off (my cap) to those people who took part in this first play. Much can be said of the problem of "stage fright" that even veteran Broadway thespians may sometimes feel, but these local hams were brave enough to act before people who knew where they lived. It appeared that they really got into their parts and abandoned all fear shortly after the first scene. The little production had something for everyone. There was humor, suspense, high drama and low an... decollete'. There was music, dancing, and the hero got the girl.

Many of the actors and actresses are people who otherwise live relatively normal lives, tending to their jobs and families and then all of a sudden these otherwise regular folks dress up in costumes, paint their faces and talk and sing and dance in front of other folks as if they weren't themselves at all. Of course, that is what acting is all about, I guess, being for a few minutes, someone other than yourself so others watching can respond in their hearts and minds somehow. I guess our need for these staged portions of life must somehow help us all, actor and audience alike. Movies can't quite involve us, TV is too small, but live theatre seems to make us laugh harder, feel deeper, and remember longer.

I hope the community will support this local group. If you are inclined, join them, if you are not, watch them.

"O Lord, who lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness." William Shakespeare

My heartfelt thanks go to Gary and Cathy for getting my job done last week. They were left in the midst of getting last week's Success off to press.

My Dad fell and broke his hip last week and I had to leave Tuesday morning. This left Gary and Cathy with part of my work done and them having to finish it. I understand Evelyn Stigler was here to lend a helping hand and I appreciate it very much.

My thanks to them for all they did. They are really special people.

My Dad is doing better now, but he did give us a scare. It is amazing what modern medicine can do these days.

Thanks to each of you!

The Way We See It

By Lola Squyres

"With the gratifying feeling that our duty has been done!" W.S. Gilbert 1836-1911

Mr. Gilbert did not have to load the dishwasher with dirty dishes or he would not have thought it a duty that was gratifying. It is just one of those things that has to be done.

It is amazing how those dishes can so easily get into the sink and how hard it is for those invisible people who dirty them to get them into the dishwasher instead. I use the term invisible because when you ask who didn't take care of their chores, no one answers.

Now it's good fairy time. The good fairy sees to it that not only are those same dirty dishes put into the dishwasher but also washed and put back into the cabinet for the invisible people to use and put back in the sink. You would think that that good fairy would learn; don't take care of the dishes and the invisible people can't dirty them.

Some duties are gratifying when done and though dishes aren't one of them, we are bound to learn something from this seemingly futile exercise.

Letter To the Editor

Dear Editor,

I have lived in Eldorado some 20 years. I know and care for the people of Eldorado. The Griffins have all been friends of mine (even Burro) for years.

The Editorial written on August 10 concerning the Griffins was very enlightening. Eldorado People are a very caring and concerned bunch. If you have a tragedy or misfortune of any kind, they get right in there and help every way they can.

If you live here long enough you will eventually see the warmth and concern of the people of Eldorado. Being a small town, I think we are entitled to the truth: How else will you get it but by reading it in the paper or questioning the person involved.

I do not know Mrs. Mullich, but I hope she understands we as concerned citizens wanted to know the truth of the situation. I felt from the beginning there was a reason the Griffin baby was in this trauma.

Thank you for the front page Editorial. I felt like the lady came on too strong and I was "enflamed". But, freedom of speech is one of our greatest freedoms. So, may I have my day in court?

Thank You

While a young married couple that had a child that had unknown bone disease is blamed for the infants fracture is part of a rico law in the Justice Department, that was supposedly to go after drug pushers. The law has misused rico on innocent people that are guilty first and have to prove innocent.

The rico law has gone out of hand to blame the young couple for things they did not do. If we let rico laws run our country, we are heading for a police-state fascist dictatorship government.

Laugh and Live

by Gary Smith

Things are not what they seem-- they are what they are.

Story goes that a fellow in Oklahoma City was charged with shooting some pigeons that belonged to a farmer named Long. The fellow's lawyer tried to frighten Farmer Long. "Now," said the lawyer, "are you prepared to swear that my client shot your pigeons?"

"I didn't say he shot 'em," replied Long. "I said I suspected him of doing it."

"Ah, now we're coming to it. What made you suspect this man."

"First off, I caught him on my land with a gun. Second, I heard the gun go off and saw some pigeons fall. And third, I found four of my pigeons in his pocket and I don't think the birds flew in there and committed suicide."

Off the top of my head, I can think of several good morals to this story. But to keep from sounding too preachy, I'll just let you figure them out for yourself.

'Till the next time---
MAY GOD BLESS.

IRS Provides Ruling For Farm Income Received

Agricultural taxpayers may qualify for special tax treatment of income received because of the drought, according to an economist in management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Wayne Hayenga said the Internal Revenue Service has explained the extent to which payments received by farmers under the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 and certain other income may qualify for deferral.

He said the IRS also addresses the proper tax treatment of payments and other benefits received by farmers under the act.

Categories of the act include crop loss assistance, livestock sales and feed assistance.

Hayenga said according to the IRS, farmers may elect to defer the inclusion of crop loss assistance payments received under the Drought Assistance Act until the next tax year.

"All Title II payments are eligible for elective deferral under Section 451(d), regardless of whether they were received before or after the date of enactment," he said.

He said the time and manner of making this affirmative election is described in IRS Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide.

Concerning livestock sales caused by the drought, the IRS has ruled that gain from such sales that took place solely because of the drought can be deferred for one year by electing farmers, the economist said.

"The IRS explains how to qualify for the deferral. For example, the sale must occur solely because of drought conditions in the designated area that affected the water, grazing or other requirements of livestock to necessitate the sale," Hayenga said.

Concerning feed assistance, Title I of the act authorizes programs to provide feed assistance and certain other benefits to qualifying livestock producers if the Secretary of Agriculture determines that a livestock emergency exists because of a natural disaster, such as drought.

"Here, the IRS has said that Title I payments are not proceeds from the sale of livestock and so are not eligible for deferral under Section 451(e), nor are they eligible for deferral under Section 451(d) because they aren't compensation for the loss of crops, where income would have been reported in a later tax year," Hayenga said.

He said generally, reimbursement payments under Title I programs are to be included in gross income according to the recipient taxpayer's accounting method.

TDA Predator Management Training Session Announced

M-44 sodium cyanide certification is free. Certification also requires a private applicator license, a noncommercial applicator license or a commercial applicator license to purchase state-limited-use pesticides.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is assisting TDA in conducting this training session.

Also, the Extension Service has for sale at $5 per copy, a publication entitled "Procedure for Evaluating Predation on Livestock and Wildlife". # Students May Be Eligible For Free, Reduced Meals

A new year is about to begin in the Eldorado school system. The Schleicher County Independent School serves nutritious meals every day. Students in Grade Kindergarten through third grade may buy lunch for $1; grades fourth through sixth for $1.10; Grades seven through 12 for $1.20 and adult visitors for $3.45. Students may buy breakfast for .50 cents and adults for .75 cents.

In order to purchase meals from the Eldorado School Lunch Room, please make arrangements to purchase them from 7:30 to 8:45 a.m. in the cafeteria. If your child (or children) is making the purchase, indicate the amount of money for each child's lunch, the child's grade and teacher.

If the purchase is for only the meal that day, it can be done as the child comes through the line at lunch. However, if multiple meals are to be purchased the transaction must be completed in the morning.

Charges have been a real problem in the past. This year the only charges allowed will be for students in grades kindergarten through sixth grade.

Children from households that meet federal income guidelines are eligible for free meals or reduced price meals at .40 cents for lunch and .25 cents for breakfast. To apply for free or reduced price meals, you must complete an application, sign it and return it to the school.

If you currently receive Food Stamps or "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" for your child, you only have to list your child's name and food stamp or AFDC number, print your name, and sign the application. Since you have already given income information to the welfare office, the school can confirm your eligibility.

If your household income is at or below the level shown on the scale, your child is eligible for either free or reduced price meals. To apply for meal benefits, you must provide the following information and sign the application:

- (1) List the name of everyone who lives in your household. Include parents, grandparents, all children, other relatives and unrelated people who live in your household.
- (2) List the Social Security number of each adult age 21 or older. If an adult does not have a Social Security number print "None".
- (3) List total monthly income and amount of income (BEFORE deductions for taxes, social security, etc.) each person received last month and where it is from, such as wages, retirement or welfare. If you have a household member for whom last month's income was high or lower than usual, list the person's expected average monthly income.

Your foster child may be eligible for meal benefits. If you wish to apply for meal benefits for a foster child, contact the school for help with the application.

Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap.

Texas School Districts Raise Tax Rates

The State of Texas administers its constitutional responsibility for providing "...an efficient system of public free schools" through 1,055 local school districts governed by locally elected boards of trustees. The trustees appoint a superintendent to administer the educational programs to 3,266,577 Texas children. Since 1883 financing of this system has been a joint responsibility with the state and local districts each providing about one-half of the funds.

Teacher for 13.6 students in Schleicher County ISD while the statewide pupil-teacher ratio was 17.1 to one. Because of the existence of small classes, especially at the high school level, and abbreviated teaching schedules, many other classes have more than the average number of students.

To fund higher school budgets with a declining tax base, school trustees in most districts have raised tax rates. The average school district imposed a property tax at the rate of 91.2 cents per $100 of appraised value, which value averaged 96.5 percent of market value (selling price). The "true tax rate" was 88.1 cents (91.2 times 96.52 percent) statewide.

In 1988, the true tax rate exceeded $1 in 336 school districts in Texas.

The tax on a house that would sell for $80,000 in Schleicher County ISD would have been $765. If the homeowner were eligible for homestead exemptions, the tax would have been $556, and if owned by a person 65 years or older, the tax on an $80,000 house in this district would have averaged $444, or less if subject to a tax freeze. That compared with statewide average tax bills of $723, $638, and $544 respectively for an $80,000 house.

Last year Schleicher County ISD's revenue from the property tax increased by 1.8 percent for 1988-89 as compared to a 6.8 percent increase statewide.

Local property taxes plus state aid was $4,187 per student in Schleicher County ISD as compared to $3,221 statewide. The primary purpose of state aid is to equalize state and local tax resources among schools. In 1988-89 tax resources ranged from less than $2,500 per student in 12 districts to more than $10,000 in five districts.

regular Coast Guard Officer. Under the Department of Transportation, the Coast Guard performs a variety of missions. These include search and rescue operations by ship and plane, maintenance of advanced electronic and other aids of navigation around the globe, operation of icebreakers which clear the way for all polar expeditions, and enforcement of marine law and all aspects of merchant marine safety. In addition, the Coast Guard has responsibility for boating safety and marine environmental protection.

Vocational Rehabilitation For Disabled People Available

A person who applies for disability benefits under either the Social Security or supplemental security income program may be considered for services offered by the State vocational rehabilitation agency. These services may include counseling and guidance, medical and surgical treatment, physical therapy, training in the use of prostheses, and job training and placement.

Applications for disability payments are sent by Social Security to the appropriate agency in the State in which the applicant lives. It is this agency that determines whether the individual is disabled or blind within the meaning of the law.

This agency also decides whether to refer the individual to a State vocational rehabilitation agency. The vocational rehabilitation agency will then evaluate the individual to determine whether vocational rehabilitation services would assist the applicant in obtaining employment. The fact that a person accepts vocational rehabilitation services does not affect his or her eligibility for disability payments; however, refusing these services can result in suspension of lives. It is this agency that determines whether the individual is

Although disability checks usually stop shortly after a person's condition improves to the point that he or she can once more work, an exception applies to beneficiaries who were disabled at the time they started an approved vocational rehabilitation plan, but who unexpectedly recover before the program is completed. In such cases, payment may continue if it is believed that the vocational rehabilitation services will result in a return to work.

Students Need Second Dose Of MMR Vaccine

The American Academy of Pediatrics has issued a new policy on measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) vaccine, calling for a second dose at the time the child begins middle school or junior high school.

The first dose would continue to be given at 15 months of age. Physicians who choose to give a second MMR at an earlier age (at school entry, for example) need not give a third dose later, so long as the first two doses are given after 1 year of age and are at least three months apart.

The new policy also recommends revaccination in cases of school outbreaks for all students and their siblings born after January 1, 1957 who have not received two doses of MMR after age 1.

A separate set of guidelines was issued for areas with recurrent measles transmission, with the first vaccine recommended at 1 year of age.

The Texas Department of Public Health Clinic is not yet providing the shots, but you can get them at your private doctor's office.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON TAX INCREASE

The Schleicher County Hospital District will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in 1988 by 21.6 percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property.

The public hearing will be held on Monday, August 28, 1989 at 7:00 p.m. at the Schleicher County Medical Center dining room.

For the proposal: William Edmiston, Hyman Sauer, Jerry Jones, Bill Dakan, George Gower
Against the proposal: Raymond Mittel
Present and not voting: none
Absent: C.R. Sproul

The statement above shows the percentage increase the proposed rate represents over the effective tax rate that the unit published on August 10, 1989. The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	$17,918	$17,972
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	-0-	-0-
Average taxable value	$17,918	$17,972
Tax rate	$0.3486/$100	$0.4650/$100
Tax	$62.46	$83.57

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would increase by $21.11 or 33.80 percent compared with last year's taxes.

Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would increase by $0.1164 per $100 of taxable value or 33.39 percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

ASU Planetarium To Broadcast Voyager 2's Approach To Neptune

The Planetarium at Angelo State University will receive satellite transmissions from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) Jet Propulsion Laboratory, broadcasting images transmitted from Voyager 2 as it makes its closest approach to the planet Neptune, August 21-25, according to Dr. Mark Sonntag, ASU Planetarium Director.

Sonntag received notice from NASA early in August that satellite transmissions would be available for reception by the ASU Planetarium during the historic pass-by.

The ASU Planetarium, located in the Nursing-Physical Science Building at ASU, will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. every weekday of the Voyager 2/Neptune encounter, so the public can enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime event. On Thursday and Friday, August 24 and 25, NASA will be broadcasting continuously from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. August 25 for the time of Voyager 2's closest approach to Neptune and its largest moon, Triton. The closest approach to Neptune is at 3 a.m. and to Triton at 8:20 a.m. on Friday, August 25.

Sonntag said the broadcasts will be carried on the Planetarium Lobby large screen monitor and in the Planetarium dome. He also noted that the Planetarium staff also plans to set up telescopes outside the Nursing-Physical Science Building at appropriate times to view Neptune.

Nominations For Texas Women's Hall Of Fame

Texas First Lady Rita Clements announced that more than 8,000 nomination forms for the selection of the 1989 Texas Women's Hall of Fame inductees have been mailed to Texas business and professional women's organizations, community leaders and non-profit groups.

The Hall of Fame consists of eight categories: arts, athletics, business, civic leadership, education, professional leadership and public service.

"Texas women have played a major role in the state's development," said Mrs. Clements. "The Governor's Commission for Women established the Texas Women's Hall of Fame to honor these significant contributions to Texas and the nation, and to provide inspiration for tomorrow's leaders."

Nomination forms may be obtained from the office of the Governor's Commission for Women. Nominations must be for women who are legal residents of the State of Texas. Renomination of those considered but not selected in 1988 is encouraged, she said.

The nominees will be screened by a panel of judges comprised of Commission members and private citizens.

The deadline for submitting the nominations for 1989 inductees is Friday, September 29.

Shoppers' Guide To Medicare Released

The State Board of Insurance has published a 70 page "Shoppers' Guide to Medicare Supplement Insurance", comparing prices and benefits of policies issued by 33 companies.

Only policies currently offered for sale in Texas are included in the guide, which was compiled by means of a voluntary survey of companies.

Publication of the guide carries out another of the Medicare supplement initiatives announced by the Board at a news conference on June 8.

"Shopping for any kind of insurance can be a bewildering experience, and the vast array of Medicare supplement policies on the market has been a source of perplexity for many seniors. This booklet, coupled with the new law limiting companies to three policies in the marketplace, should help ease the confusion," said Board Chairman Paul Wrotenbery.

Copies of the shopper's guide can be obtained free of charge by writing to: State Board of Insurance; ATTN: Information Services (Div. 120), 1110 San Jacinto, Austin, Texas 78701-1998.

During the Runaway Scrap, the term Texans applied to their flight from the invading Mexican army led by Santa Anna, Galveston became the capitol of the Republic of Texas. David G. Burnet, president of Texas and members of his cabinet, along with many other Texans, took refuge on the island in February of 1836. Their exile on the island continued until news came of the victory of the battle of San Jacinto on April 21, 1836.

'Texas Events Calendar' Released For Fall

A full lineup of Texas-style entertainment, rich in heritage, culture, and small-town charm, is found in the latest Texas Events Calendar, just released by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The information-packed calendar, covering the months of September, October and November, lists more than 1,000 ways Texans have fun in fall.

Highlighted are a variety of ethnic celebrations where Texans share their traditions, crafts, music, dance and foods. Latin-flavored fiestas honor Mexican Independence Day with lively mariachis, colorful folkloricos, and spicy Hispanic specialties. German-style family entertainment offers visitors a delightful experience with music, dancing and great quantities of taste-tempting German foods. And Czech Texans invite all to "Czech it out" as they stage exhilarating festivities with happy polka music and traditional folk dancing and song.

A human being is born with 305 bones, but during childhood a number of them fuse, so an adult has only about 206.

Fall harvest festivals pay tribute to Texas favorites with rice, spinach, pecan and yam-pic cook-offs. And peaceful communities kick up their heels for a wide array of zany contests and events.

Packed with county fairs and rodeos, dazzling extravaganzas, and dozens of musical and theatrical events, the fall "Texas Events Calendar" tells the where and when of it all. Free individual copies may be picked up at any of the 12 Texas Tourist Bureaus. Or write "Texas Events Calendar", P.O. Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78763.

Brady Goat Cookoff Planned For September

The great goat gallop...goat dressing...Texas sheep dog classic...wool bag races...the goat pill flip off...you might ask, "What's going on?" It's all part of the 16th Annual World Championship Barbecue Goat Cookoff and Arts and Crafts Fair. The annual event swells the small central Texas town of Brady from a population of 6,500 to over 16,500 and in the past has drawn the focus of the United States to the center of the "Lone Star State".

For the past 15 years, Brady, the geographic center of Texas, has staged one of the most popular and well-attended cookoffs of any kind. Annually 125 cookers gather in Richards Park to compete for the prize money and trophies and the recognition of being the World Champion Barbecue Goat Cookoff winner.

Friday night, September 1, the welcome party and dance will be held at the Pavilion in Richards Park, from 8 p.m. until 12 a.m. Scott Hofmann and Southern Image of Fredericksburg will be the featured band.

The 12th Annual Arts and Crafts Fair held under the shade trees at Richards Park has grown in size and splendor each year with a variety of handcrafted items and food booths. The fair will be open to the public from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturday, September 2.

The great goat gallop, a 5K (3.1 mile) run, sponsored by Vulcan Materials Co. of Voca, will begin at 8 a.m. The 4th annual Heart of Texas sheep dog classic will begin at 8 a.m. in the baseball field area of Richards Park, where top dog-handlers work angora goats with champion dogs.

A barbecue goat meal with all the trimmings will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Saturday, September 2. Price per plate will be $5 for adults and $3 for children.

There will be games for the young and old and will be held throughout the day. These will include the famous goat pill flip off. Other games include tobacco spitting contests for men and women, blindman's wheelbarrow race, horseshoe pitching, washer pitching, wool bag race, goat dressing, egg toss and many others.

The Heart of Texas tall tales contest will also be held. This is the first year for this event and should prove to be very entertaining. The winner will receive 80 percent of the entry fees plus $100 and a trophy. Entry fee is $10.

The downtown street dance will feature the Martin Brothers Band of Odessa Saturday night beginning at 9 p.m. Admission is $5 per person.

For more information call the Brady Chamber of Commerce office at 915-597-2420 or 915-597-3491.

Deathless Day A Bright Spot In Texas Summer

Thirteen isn't always an unlucky number. According to early reports, June 13, 1989, was the first day without a Texas traffic death in more than a decade.

"It appears that Texas may have finally achieved a deathless day, and we're delighted to see it," announced George R. Gustafson, president of Texas Safety Association and a spokesperson for the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts. "Before June 13, the most recent day without a traffic death in Texas was January 5, 1977. I'd say we were long overdue."

However, Gustafson said the safety belt coalition would wait until the end of summer before declaring its "ONE DEATHLESS DAY" campaign an unqualified success.

"There is the possibility of late fatality reports being received," said David Wells, information officer at the Department of Public Safety.

According to DPS statistical procedures, anyone who dies of traffic-related injuries within 30 days after a wreck is counted as a fatality on the day the wreck occurred. The 30-day waiting period for June 13 has already passed, but Wells said there could be follow-up reports that the DPS hasn't received yet.

"In any case," said Gustafson, "we hope that we have reversed a trend this summer. Texas traffic deaths increased in calendar year 1988, the first such increase since 1984. We want those numbers to go down again in 1989."

To that end, the coalition spokesperson urged all motorists to continue driving carefully and to buckle up. "We still have a month remaining, and another holiday weekend, in the vacation season," he said.

The summer's deadliest day so far was June 3, with 21 fatalities reported. However, Gustafson noted that Texas had only 34 traffic deaths over the Independence Day weekend. Five additional holiday fatalities have been reported since the weekend concluded, for a preliminary total of 39. "This is far fewer than the 52 originally predicted by the DPS," Gustafson said.

Fourteen major Texas cities reported a fatality-free Independence Day weekend in the coalition-sponsored "Give Death A Holiday" promotion. They were Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, Bryan/College Station, Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, Laredo, Lubbock, Midland, Tyler, Waco and Wichita Falls.
