Mertzton Grieves Loss Of Osiel Hernandez

The town of Mertzton is grieving over the loss of the Irion County band director, Osiel Hernandez. He died at Brackenridge Hospital in Austin Monday afternoon.

The 32 year old band director was very respected by the students and faculty of Irion County High School and was admired by the people of Mertzton.

Mr. Hernandez moved to Mertzton from Santa Anna. He has directed the Mertzton band for the past six years.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. today in Johnson's Funeral Home chapel in Mertzton. Tonight at 7:00 p.m., there will be a Community Memorial Service at the Mertzton Community Center.

A brass band composed of several area band directors will perform at both services.

Osiel is survived by his wife, Sandy and daughter, Araceli Belen. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Raymundo Hernandez of San Angelo.

Osiel will be greatly missed by those who loved and admired him. His dedication, kindness and concern will long be remembered by those of us whose lives he touched.

SCISD Trustees Meet

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Schleicher County Independent School District was held on November 13 at 5:30 p.m. in the Administration Building.

School Cafeteria manager Mildred Phillips was presented a Bravo Award for the successful application of the Heimlich Maneuver to a child in the cafeteria on October 6.

Counselor Maureen Hodges presented for board approval the Schleicher County ISD Drug Free Schools and Communities Plan.

Middle School principal Scott Barton reported on the Middle School Gifted/Talented Program and on the presentation he made at the Gifted and Talented Conference in Austin. It was also reported that the district received a letter from TEA thanking SCISD for allowing Barton's participation in the conference and requesting that our program be included in the statewide clearing house for promising programs.

Board members were informed that the preliminary fall enrollment was 674,075 students in average daily attendance, and a report was given on the changes in the taxable values, rates and levies for the past ten years.

Curriculum director Judy Blair reported to the board on the progress of curriculum writing in the area of mathematics, on the district's preparations for serving students with dyslexia, and on the changes in the statewide testing program. She informed the board that the TEAMS test will be replaced with the TAAS test (Texas Assessment of Academic Skills) next fall. Students at all grade levels will be tested in October. The test will no longer be a minimum skills test, but rather a test of academic achievement. It will be a more difficult test and test scores are expected to fall statewide.

Dr. Blair reported to the board on the status of the tennis court construction project and the playground project. The board accepted the bid from Seidel, Inc. for asphalt for the new tennis courts.

In other action items, the board voted to approve the audit report submitted by Auditor Jerry Tinkler and to appoint an Audit Committee for the 1989-90 school year.

The board voted to cast votes for Phil McCormick, Lynn Meador, Raymond Mittel and Jim Glidden as members of the Appraisal District Board.

Bids on several products involving technological advances such as computer assisted instruction and the use of laser disks for the improvement of the instructional program were accepted by the board. Bid items accepted included new computers from DDM Services, Inc. for the Middle School computer lab, IBM's "Writing to Read" program at the Elementary School and the Texas Learning Technology Group Physical Science Curriculum for High School.

Other action items included the approval of the 1989-90 text book committee, approval of the 1988-89 Annual Performance Report, approval of the October financial report and approval of budget amendments as presented.

WTU Puts Lower Winter Rates Into Effect

Customers of West Texas Utilities Company will see approximately a 10 percent drop in their rates beginning this month (November). The reduction is the result of using the lower winter rates which will be in effect for six months. Using higher summer and lower winter rates is part of the States' plan to encourage energy conservation during the summer when air conditioning creates the peak demand on electricity use.

According to WTU local manager Leroy Reeves, "A residential customer using 478 kilowatt hours (KWH) of electricity a month, the average for November 1988, will see his bill go from $45.29 to $40.88." Other customer groups will see similar reductions, Reeves said.

Since mild fall weather has reduced many customers' cooling and heating use, the actual decrease in their electric bill from September, when average use was 959 KWHs, to November will probably be around 51.5 percent. That decrease includes the combined impact of lower winter rates and lower use resulting from mild weather. The actual size of a customer's bill is determined by their use.

While the higher summer rates are intended to encourage conservation, lower winter rates benefit the customer two ways Reeves said. First is lower cost to heat homes and businesses. Second, winter usage makes more efficient use of WTU's facilities and helps spread the costs more evenly throughout the year.

SC Medical Center Provides New Heart Attack Treatment

Schleicher County Medical Center now has t-PA (tissue Plasminogen Activase) or "Activase" for short. Activase is a new drug to treat America's number one killer, heart attack, by dissolving the clot that causes acute myocardial infarction.

Activase is now established as a basic treatment for heart attack. "Having t-PA at Schleicher County Medical Center and the people trained to use it is part of our ongoing effort to provide state-of-the-art medical care to the residents of Schleicher County. There is no doubt that this new drug will save someone's life in Schleicher County" said Steve Goode, Administrator of Schleicher County Medical Center.

Its arrival signaled a new era in the treatment of acute myocardial infarction. The market for thrombolytic, or clot-dissolving, therapy grew by nearly 50 percent last year, nearly all of it due to Activase. Sales of the only competitor, a bacterial enzyme available for more than 10 years, declined. Today, nearly two-thirds of heart attack patients receiving thrombolytic treatment in the United States get Activase.

Activase is administered by IV and is the safest drug of its type. However, is the price of life cheap? This drug costs about $2,000 and yet it actually saves the patient money by shortening recovery time and thus reducing total treatment expenses, as well as enabling the heart attack victim to have a more complete recovery and return to work sooner than he otherwise would, if he returned at all. "We are proud to make this new life saving drug available to the residents of Schleicher county," said Goode.

Comptroller Says Economy Looking Up For Merchants

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that sales tax payments to Texas cities reached $125 million this month, up more than five percent from last November's payments and over nine percent higher than last year's total at this time. Checks to counties were up a healthy seven percent over last November's payments.

"The economy is looking up for merchants in Texas and that means another good month for local governments," Bullock said.

This month's checks reflect local sales taxes collected in September by businesses that file monthly tax returns and taxes collected in July, August and September by businesses that file quarterly returns.

Businesses collect the state and local sales tax and send it to the Comptroller's office along with their tax returns. The state keeps its six percent share and returns the local sales taxes to local governments.

Cities and counties may levy a combined tax of up to two percent, Bullock said.

Houston received a check for $22.6 million, which is eight percent more than last November's payment. Dallas received the second largest payment at $13.9 million, up 10 percent over last year's.

Eldorado's payment for this period was $7,886.70, compared to $6,821.78 for the same period last year, an increase of 15.6 percent. Payments to date for 1989 are $59,528.85, as compared to $56,312.27 last year, an increase of 5.71 percent.

Life Among The Fishes

By Thomas Giovannitti

I have been struggling with just exactly how I was going to approach the situation in Eastern Europe. Being old enough to remember the Korean conflict and the coldest part of the cold war, I am having some problems understanding what is taking place over there.

I remember 1956 in Hungary and 1968 in Czechoslovakia when the Russian army convinced those people that freedoms we take for granted are not acceptable in a good socialist state. Hungarian refugees came to my home town. I still vividly remember Alexander Dubsek, then leader of the Czech communist party, being forced to recant all of his radical democratic innovations. The guy was lucky to get out of it with his life, and he still ended up going to prison for "Crimes against the State".

I am sure many of you have seen newsreel footage of people being shot as they tried to scale the Berlin Wall, and now that wall may be torn down. The problem is not that there may now be freedom of assembly, the press, and association in these Warsaw Pact countries, the problem is what do we, the free world do with them.

To many young Americans there has always been two Germans but not for those who lived and fought in World War II. I am not even sure that Americans of any age can understand the trepidation with which Europeans view the prospect of a united Germany. However unfounded those fears may be they still exist. If sectarian violence can continue in many parts of the world based on ancient religious schisms it is not too difficult to understand why the French, English, Poles and Russians might get a little nervous with a bigger unified Germany.

But even if there is no unified Germany in the near future, there is still the problem of how to deal with so many nations that we had always been able to view as the enemy. Our government has over and over again asked and urged the leaders of the communist block to allow all the civil liberties that we enjoy to their own people and when they do our government seems at a loss what to do next.

I am surprised that not one of our current leaders has mentioned the idea of another "Marshall Plan". It worked to save western Europe maybe, just maybe it could help save all of Europe.

As you probably know by now, our high school band won fifth place at marching contest in Austin. Our band is ranked fifth in the state in their class. I think that is something to be very proud of.

I wasn't able to travel with the band to district or regional or state competition. But from what I have heard, they had their ups and downs -- broken down bus, strong winds, not to mention the rain they had to march in at State competition in Austin.

I'm sure it wasn't easy at times for them to get "on with the show". But they did it anyway.

This says a lot for the character of the band students and also for the band directors who have done a great job with our kids. The parents of these kids, I'm sure, had a role in this also. They went through some pretty tough obstacles on their way to State -- and they endured.

I have a boy in beginner's band -- just learning. If this is the kind of band student this school produces, I'm very proud to have a future band member.

Congratulations band members and instructors! You have weathered the course and come out on top -- a winner!

Oxygen Doesn't Speed Recovery: Despite the widespread use of 100% oxygen inhalation following intense physical exertion among many athletes, researchers now have found that this doesn't help in recovery of subsequent athletic performance.

Twelve professional soccer players participated in two sessions of exhaustive exercise separated by five minutes of rest during which they inhaled either 100% oxygen or room air. They could not tell the difference between the two, and there was no difference in their abilities to participate in the second exercise period.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Judge Martin V.B. Bostetter, Jr., has overturned the government's 1987 involuntary bankruptcy of four companies which are Caucus Distribution Inc.,

Campaign Publications, Fusion Energy Foundation and New Solidarity.

This means that a Boston trial which should not have been a mistrial was transferred to another more favorable climate and a new trial of Judge Albert V. Bryan. The judge who prevented La Rouche and six associates from using infuriated evidence that was used in the Boston trial is the worst outbreak of judicial gangsterism in the United States. La Rouche and six associates would have had an innocent verdict if left to the Boston jury trial.

The other reason is that La Rouche's four companies were shut down by the government's chapter seven bankruptcy which is unconstitutional.

The government is at "a constructive fraud on the court", "Bad faith" which means the government did not leave the companies open so they could make enough money to pay off loans to creditors.

The government is at fault which should pay restitution to La Rouche and six associates. It may mean that La Rouche and six associates will be out of jail. Lester Dahlberg

Letter of Tribute

Editors Note: This letter was written by an Irion County Band Member to KIXY Radio Station.

This is not a letter requesting the award of teacher of the week. Instead, it is a request in memory of the greatest teacher ever -- Mr. Osiel Hernandez, or Mr. H., who passed away on November 13 at the State Marching Contest in Austin. He was the Irion County Band director.

He gave us so much in his teaching of music. He may be gone, but his memory and teachings will last forever.

We miss him!

Laugh and Live

by Gary Smith

If you think you have no faults, you have one more!

Never realized how many mistakes could be made in publishing a newspaper. Why, just last week, I found several "booboo's".

First, we put a name on the band roster that shouldn't have been there. Second, we left two names off of the congratulations page that should have been there. Third, we called Gordon Buchholz Douglas Buchholz. And finally, we stated one of our local mothers participating in our annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

Putting together a weekly newspaper can be a brain-racking experience. Our staff is very small. Mary Jenkins is the editor. My wife, Cathy Smith, is the managing editor and I'm the publisher. Roughly translated, that means that the three of us do it all.

I figure that when mistakes are made, punishment needs to be administered swiftly. If the mistake is made by Mary, I could fire her. If the mistake is made by Cathy, I could divorce her. And if the mistake is made by me, I could jump off a bridge. I have decided against all three for the time being.

I have discovered that we are not the only weekly that occasionally makes mistakes. Three successive notices from the classified column of a small Connecticut weekly paper tell their story:

March 22nd: "For sale. Slightly used farm wench in good condition. Very handy. Phone 366-R-2. A. Cartright."

March 29th: "Correction. Due to an unfortunate error, Mr. Cartright's ad last week was not clear. He has an excellent winch for sale. We trust this will put an end to jokesters who have called Mr. Cartright and greatly bothered his housekeeper, Mrs. Hargreaves, who loves with him."

April 5th: "Notice! My W-I-N-C-H is not for sale. I put a sledgehammer to it. Don't bother calling 366-R-2. I had the phone taken out. I am NOT carrying on with Mrs. Hargreaves. She merely L-I-V-E-S here. A. Cartright."
Mistakes Do Happen!

'Til the next time...MAY GOD BLESS.

Texans Gear Up For Great American Smokeout

American Cancer Society volunteers around the state are readying efforts to challenge smokers to "Leave the Pack Behind" during the Society's 13th annual Great American Smokeout November 16.

Sponsored by the American Cancer Society, the Great American Smokeout is a fun-filled, light-hearted celebration held each year on the third Thursday in November to encourage smokers and tobacco users to quit the habit for 24 hours. The effort is the largest health promotion event in the country.

This year's campaign has enlisted the support of former U.S. Surgeon General C. Everett Koop, M.D., who will serve as an honorary co-chairman of the effort with longtime Smokeout Honorary Chairman Larry Hagman. Koop and Hagman are featured in television and radio public service announcements promoting the Smokeout.

Last year's Smokeout triggered 10.7 percent of the nation's smokers -- 5.4 million Americans -- to give up cigarettes for 24 hours. One to three days later, according to a Gallup Survey, 3.4 million were still abstaining from tobacco.

"The American Cancer Society is hoping this 13th annual Great American Smokeout will prove to be a lucky one for Texas smokers," said Lynn Adams Hancock, Houston, chairman of the Texas Smokeout campaign. "I quit smoking myself four years ago during the Smokeout," she said, "so I know firsthand that a positive, supportive approach can be just the encouragement a smoker needs to take the first steps toward quitting permanently."

Hancock, and other American Cancer Society volunteers, are especially interested in reaching women smokers. "More women are dying from lung cancer than breast cancer in this country, and that's a crime," Hancock said, citing Society statistics that show lung cancer surpassing breast cancer as the number one cancer killer of women.

"Smoking is responsible for 87 percent of lung cancer cases, and that means 87 percent are preventable by choosing not to smoke," Hancock explained. "We hope at least one in five Texas smokers will join the Smokeout this year...that would mean almost 640,000 Texans would take a big step toward better health November 16."

To reach that goal, Texas volunteers are pulling out all stops to encourage tobacco users in their communities to participate in this year's Great American Smokeout, Hancock said.

"Each year the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout grows more successful in involving tobacco-users in the day's activities," Hancock said. "In Texas, the Smokeout is a winner because we have hundreds of American Cancer Society volunteers in large and small communities around the state working hard to make sure Smokeout day is filled with fun, exciting and supportive events."

For information about the hazards of tobacco, or for information about local Great American Smokeout activities, contact your local American Cancer Society. For tips on quitting, call the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345.

Local Couple Earn Recognition From Amway

Ed and Martha Lee Meador of Eldorado earned recognition from Amway Corporation in Ada, Michigan for reaching the level of Direct Distributor of the company's products.

In honor of their achievement, the Meadors were awarded an expense-paid seminar at the network marketing company's world headquarters in Ada. The seminar allowed them to meet other new Direct Distributors from across the nation, tour Amway's corporate offices and manufacturing facilities, learn about the company's newest products and services, and obtain advice on how to make their distributorship more profitable.

The Meadors became Direct Distributors through their sales and sponsoring success. This recognition allows them to purchase products directly from Amway instead of from their sponsor in the business.

Amway started in 1959 in the basements of the homes of its co-founders, President Rich DeVos and Chairman of the Board Jay Van Andel. Now, it is one of the world's largest network marketing firms, with estimated retail sales of $1.9 billion for fiscal 1989.

Over one million independent distributors in more than 40 countries and territories around the world sell AMWAY products and services. The company markets over 300 products under its own label, including home care, personal care, hometech, health and fitness, and commercial items, along with MCI phone service and a discount membership travel program. Another 4,000 brand name items are offered in Amway's PERSONAL SHOP-PERS catalog.

Olson Receives Certification In Rural Social Science

A continuing education project for rural ministers was concluded at Texas A&M University October 5.

In ceremonies that day, Richard Olson, the minister of First Presbyterian Church in Eldorado, received certification as a facilitator for the newly-developed Rural Social Science by Extension Program.

Dr. David Ruesink, sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and program director, awarded certificates of completion following the special three-day workshop coordinated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Twenty religious leaders from Texas, Missouri, Colorado and Georgia took part in the workshop.

"This group of certified facilitators will return to their home communities to conduct a series of seminars for local pastors and others interested in this continuing education program," Ruesink said.

The core curriculum is being evaluated and refined before it becomes available on a national basis through the Cooperative Extension Service, Ruesink said.

Ruesink indicated that the curriculum was developed as a joint venture of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Department of Rural Sociology together with a design team of representatives of the Texas Conference of Churches, the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Resource Center for Small Churches.

Beta Sigma Phi Meets

Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, November 13, with 15 members repeating the Opening Ritual.

Following roll call by Kim-et Nelson, Glenda Harris introduced Maureen Hodges, school counselor, to the group. Ms. Hodges then presented her program on the McGruff drug kits and the program the school system has implemented in order to make the kids aware of the problems with drugs and how they can learn to say no. The school has a program aimed at each level of kids and they are hoping to do more each year.

It was then decided that Beta Sigma Phi will purchase the McGruff kit for the second grade class with the understanding that if there is a need for more money to cover any more kits, sorority will be glad to make that donation.

Following the reading and approval of the last meeting's minutes, the treasurer's report was given by Brenda Norris. She reported the club did well on the Halloween Carnival and sorority would like to thank anyone and all organizations who helped with the carnival, as without them it would not have been possible.

December 3 has been set as a very special day. At this time, Beta Sigma Phi will sponsor a book review by Mary Robinson and the charge will be by donations with all money going to the Bodie Gilstrap Fund. This will not only be helping the Gilstrap family, but if you have not heard Ms. Robinson give one of her reviews, you won't want to miss this. She is fabulous! Look for more information concerning this event.

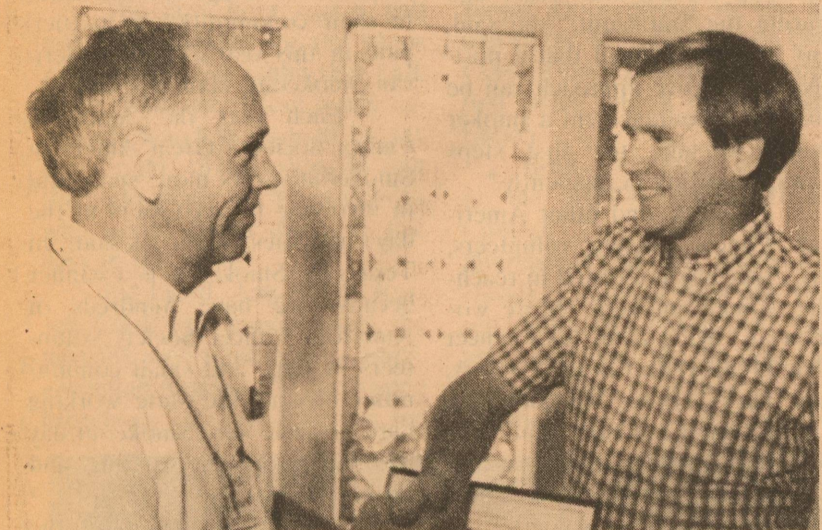

Motion was made and seconded to have the annual Thanksgiving supper for the members and their spouses on November 20 at the Memorial Building. The invitations will go out this week.

With a busy schedule ahead, it was decided to have the Christmas party and supper at the home of Kim-et Nelson on December 18. Details will follow. It was also suggested that members write down a Christmas list in order to help their secret sisters pick out that right gift. The list will be available at the Thanksgiving supper.

Since there are several organizations planning bake sales for this month, it was decided to postpone sorority's until a later date. It was also decided to start selling chances on a VCR that will be given away on December 18, in time for Christmas.

The business was adjourned and refreshments were served by Flora Hubble and Sheila Prater. The Sunshine Gift was won by Sheila Prater.

Highway Department Honors Three Employees

Three employees of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation were recently honored for their service to the department.

Receiving Certificates of Service were Louis Olenick, 25 years; Rutilio V. Robledo, 25 years; and Ruben H. Meza, five years.

Olenick began his career as a Common Laborer in December, 1962. He resigned in September, 1966, and returned to work in April, 1968, under the supervision of Cullen Luttrell (dec.). He was promoted to Assistant Foreman in 1974, and in November, 1976, was named Maintenance Construction Supervisor of the Sutton/Schleicher County maintenance section. In 1982, he won second place in the 13th Annual Lady Bird Johnson Highway Beautification program. District Engineer Walter McCullough, P.E., made the presentation at a recent Supervisor's Meeting held in San Angelo.

Robledo was first employed in the Sutton County Residency under the supervision of Robert A. McCulloch (ret.). In November, 1972, he transferred to the Maintenance Section, where he is an equipment operator and truck driver.

Meza began his career as a summer employee in the Del Rio maintenance Section in 1983. In the fall of 1984, he returned to work full time in Del Rio, and in January, 1986, transferred to the Sonora Maintenance Section, where he does general maintenance work in the section.

McCullough presented these two awards at the monthly Safety Meeting held recently in Sonora.

Locals Attend 'Bunny Run' In Tulsa

By Debbie Clark

On October 21, four Eldoradoans hit Tulsa, Oklahoma at 9 p.m. to check in their rabbits for the Bunny Run of '89, the 66th ARBA Convention and Show held at the Tulsa Expo Square.

The next hour and a half was spent looking for the coops reserved for each rabbit they took to be exhibited. These weary exhibitors searched through 14,000, that's right, 14,000 coops to find the right place for their rabbits, who would spend the next five days in that coop.

Pat Lloyd, Amy Clark, Russell Clark and myself spent the next five days tending the rabbits, grooming Angoras and developing blisters on our feet trying to see all the booths, the 14,000 rabbits, meeting the owners of those rabbits and attending specialty club meetings.

Amy and Russell exhibited eight rabbits in the youth division. One of their Mini Lop Junior Does placed in the top half of the Mini Lop Junior Does Class. Russell's Harlequins won a first place and a second place ribbon.

Both youngsters competed in the ARBA Youth Royalty Contest. They took tests, were interviewed and Amy judged four classes of rabbits. Amy and Russell didn't win but gained valuable experience for the next convention. That is, if they can ever get their mother to ever set foot out of the Eldorado City Limits again.

I found myself volunteered to help interview the Princess Royalty Contestants. I met some very nice young ladies ages nine to 11 from all over the country.

Pat spent two solid days grooming Angoras and it paid off in a big way. Her Satin Angora Doe won Best of Breed and will have its picture in the next Angora book of Standards. It also won Best Colored and Best Senior Doe. It was also used in a video production produced by one of the leading Angora breeders in the United States.

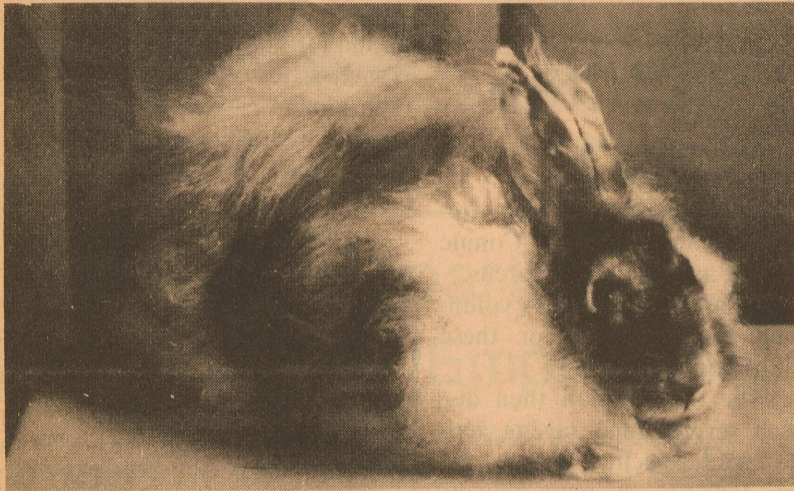

Pat's Jersey Woollics placed first and Best of Opposite Shaded with a Senior Doe and first and Best Opposite Tan Pattern with a Senior Doe. It also placed Best Opposite of Breed.

The Mini Lops that Pat took placed in the top third of their class and the Holland Lops in the top half of their class.

In the Mini Rex division, Pat's Broken Junior Lynx Bucks took second and fourth, second with a Tort Junior Buck, third with a Lynx Junior Doe and third with a Broken Open Junior Doe. Pat's Giant Angoras placed fifth with a Junior Buck and eighth with a Junior Doe. In English Angoras, she placed 11th with a Junior Doe.

On the 26th, the four weary Eldoradoans packed up all their bags, rabbits and feed sacks of free information given out at the booths. Crossing fingers and toes, it all fit into Pat's suburban and we headed home to Eldorado.

After 12 hours, the Eldorado bunch saw the welcome lights of home and determined in their hearts never to do this again -- until maybe next year -- take it to Tampa, Florida, November 11-15, 1990.

sheep and goats on a ranch.

Home For Girls To Celebrate 'Sweet 16'

In November, 1989, Concho Valley Home for Girls is celebrating "Sixteen Years of Caring" for young women who, through no fault of their own, cannot live with their own families.

In honor of this 16th birthday, Philia Club of San Angelo will host a tea and open house on Sunday, November 20, from 2 to 4 p.m. Both Baby Home, at 404 Preusser in San Angelo, and McCaw Home, at 444 Preusser, will be open. The public is invited to attend.

Since 1973, CVHG has offered a constructive alternative for girls from Schleicher County and other Concho Valley communities who are faced with a destructive home situation -- abuse, neglect, or other serious family problems.

The home is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors, assisted by a Regional Advisory Council. Mrs. Bob Lester serves as the Eldorado representative on the Advisory Council.

Each home offers a safe and stable environment, food, shelter, and other physical necessities.

guidance and supervision. Concho Valley Home for Girls is a private, non-profit organization, relying heavily on public donations for support. Funding is also received from the United Way of Tom Green County and the Texas Department of Human Services.

The Sweet Sixteen open house November 19, and other events through the month are intended to further familiarize the public with the Home's services and its needs, and to express the agency's gratitude for the community's support.
