Meador Wins State FFA Award

Forrest Meador won the State FFA Proficiency award in Soil and Water Conservation. He has been an active member of the Eldorado FFA Chapter for two years. Forrest's interest in Soil and Water Management was encouraged by his parents, Kathy and David Meador.

Forrest applied and received the local and area awards in Soil and Water Management proficiency as a Greenhand (first year FFA member). This year Forrest continued and increased his efforts and has earned the Texas State Proficiency award in Soil and Water Management. The State award will be presented at the State FFA Convention July 10-13. The State Convention will be held in Lubbock, Texas with 5,000 FFA members and guests expected to attend.

Some of Forrest Meador's major achievements include: work with soil and water conservation plans to improve ranch, planted grasses for plant identification plot, developed and maintained terraces, cleared fence rows of brush and trees, controlled prickly pears in pasture, installed and maintained water trough for better pasture management, developed and utilized pasture and rotation system for pasture management.

Forrest's application will now represent the State at Regional competition. All state winners will compete for the National FFA Proficiency Award to be presented at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo. in November.

Congratulations and Good Luck!

Mias Amigas Huge Success

One of the greatest attractions to Schleicher County and the City of Eldorado is its Courthouse and Courthouse and Courtyard. The trees and grounds were just beautiful on June 29 for the 59th Annual Meeting of Mias Amigas. Registration began at 5:00 p.m. followed by a picnic supper at 7:30. Everyone who came brought food, so there were many tables filled with all kinds of food.

The most enjoyable part of all was in seeing how happy everyone was to see friends from many places. The name tags helped tremendously, as some people do change a "little" as they grow older. There were lots of hugs and kisses going around. After all, Eldorado is a good place to live, even if we don't have a lot of tall buildings and crowded busy city streets.

Saturday's activities began with registration at 8:30 a.m., with coffee and doughnuts being served. The school bell was rung at 9:30 a.m. by Bob Williams, representing the 50 year class of 1940 and Robert Wilson and William Edmiston representing the incoming class of 1970.

Ed Meador, President, called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. and led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. The Mias Amigas song followed, led by Dale West Eubank and played on the piano by Rusty Meador.

The invocation was given by Ed Meador. Betsy Thackerson, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Janee Finley gave the treasurer's report.

Jean Brazzel read the names of the deceased who passed away during the past year.

Larry Blair, Superintendent of Schools in Eldorado, presented information on a scholarship program that will be offered to students who attend the Eldorado school system. More information will become available soon and students will become eligible for the program.

"Tuffy" McCormick introduced the class of 1940, the 50 year class. Mr. McCormick gave a short talk of by-gone school years.

William Edmiston introduced the class of 1970, the incoming class. Several classmates were present for the meeting.

The nominating committee, consisting of Mabel Whitley Freitag, Charlene Edmiston and Elton McGinnes, represented by Mabel Freitag recommended the following officers for 1991:

Patsy (Taylor) Kellogg - President; Jo Ann (Bearce) Sproul - 1st Vice-President; Sherry (Yates) Lux and Maureen (McCravey) Hodges - 2nd Vice-President; Jim Martin - 3rd Vice-President; Deanne (Hext) Walker - Treasurer; Vickie (Jones) Williams - Recording Secretary; Shine (Edmiston) Spigarelli - Corresponding Secretary; Joyce Ann (Van Horn) Speck - Publicity Chairman; Alma (Luedcke) Corbell - Historian; Florence (Nixon) Hinton - Memorials.

A barbecue lunch, catered by Danny Crowder, was held Saturday at noon. A total of 445 attended the lunch.

The afternoon was spent in reminiscing and class reunions.

Mankin Attends Republican Party Convention

The Republican Party of Texas met in convention at the Tarrant County Convention Center in Fort Worth, Texas this past weekend. Among the estimated 10,000 delegates and alternates attending was the Schleicher County Delegation led by Randy Mankin, Schleicher County Republican Chairman.

Republican gubernatorial candidate, Clayton Williams addressed the Convention Saturday afternoon. Williams charmed the standing room only crowd with his down home wit and conservative philosophy. Williams was interrupted by several standing ovations and a five minute flag waving procession of supporters.

In his speech Williams pledged to lead the party to victory in November and answered his critics claims that Texas couldn't ride horseback into the 21st Century by saying "You can --- If you're riding a good horse!"

United States Senator Phil Gramm also spoke to the crowd and encouraged them to work hard for the election of all Republican candidates. Reminding the delegates of the falling of the Berlin Wall and the failure of communism across eastern Europe, Gramm asked the delegates to take the message to the voters that with strong conservative leadership America can show the way through the 1990s and into the next century.

Contacted for comment, Randy Mankin expressed his pleasure with the proceedings "I am proud of the Republicans of Schleicher County for standing up for their principles and voting in the Republican Primary. By doing so, those concerned citizens made it possible for us to hold our Precinct and County Conventions which in turn allowed us to bring a delegation to this State Convention."

"All citizens of Schleicher County should take pride in the fact that some of the resolutions adopted into the State Party Platform can trace their roots back to Schleicher County where they were adopted at our Precinct and County Conventions," Mankin Continued. "In particular, the plank in the State Platform opposing abortion was submitted to the State Convention from Schleicher County. Another plank calling for passage of a constitutional amendment granting the President with the Power of the Line Item Veto was a product of our County Convention."

"I hope every voter in the county will take a long look at our candidates and listen to their views on the issues. From State Representative Harvey Hilderbran to Clayton Williams, from Railroad Commissioner candidate Beau Bouiter and State Treasurer candidate Kay Bailey Hutchison to U.S. Senator Phil Gramm, I think the Republicans offer the best hope for the future," Mankin stated.

Square Fair

The Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce will be hosting a Square Fair on Saturday, July 7 at 8 a.m. It will be held on the courthouse parking lot.

Items for sale in this weeks fair are: porta crib, baby basket, golf clubs, game table, weights and bench and much more.

Bring your fund raiser, baked goods, vegetables, crafts and other items and join the Square Fair. Help support the Chamber of Commerce.

Success Deadlines

All news items, advertisements, and inserts to be run in the newspaper are due in the Success office by 5 p.m. on Monday of the week they are to be published. Any item received after the deadline will be taken as time and space permit.

Life Among The Fishes

by Thomas Giovannitti

The other day we finally broke down and bought one of those car sun screens. I kept telling myself I should just make one from a card board box but I never got around to it so Maxine picked one up that was on sale.

Luckily it doesn't have any obscene pictures of half naked sun bathers on one side. It merely has sun glasses on one side. What I did discover though, was that there was a wealth of information on the other side, and also "instructions" for the proper use of the sun screen.

I didn't think my new accordion card board dashboard saver would need special handling but that is where I was wrong. In fact, I am sure that the manufacturer of these things knew there would be people just like me who would just go sticking the things over my dash and wondering off into some mall to shop never thinking of the danger that might be caused by its improper use.

For instance, if I carelessly put the sun screen in up side down the police would be coming from everywhere to help me and I'd be merrily shopping away having tied up an entire police force who had been summoned because my sun screen said in bold red letters "NEED HELP PLEASE CALL POLICE".

Actually it was Nicolas who noticed this and the instructions. There are three instructions. The first one suggests that I stretch the "Auto shade" across the length, as apposed to the width, of the dash. The second instruction states that I should push the bottom of the shade toward the windshield. It does not say which is the bottom but even the manufacturer figured I could not be so ignorant as to not know which is the bottom. As I read further into the second instruction it became clear as the window in front of me which was the top since it was the side with the cut out for the rear view mirror. The last instruction merely recommended that I use the sun visors of the car to hold the shade in place. After these clever and instructive suggestions there was one warning, inexplicably numbered 4 instead of number one under warnings.

Anyway I thought in the interest of safety and because there very well may be some people without children to help them notice these things I thought I would share this warning with all of you. The manufacturer, in bold red warning letters, warns me not to drive my car while the sun shade is in place, and to remove it from my windshield before starting the ignition. Admirable! I don't know why I wouldn't have thought of that but what a relief to know that the fellow who, even with these things sale priced, is making a killing selling them was so concerned about my safety as to put this useful warning that I should not drive my car with the sun shade blocking my view. Boy, am I glad I didn't make my own. I might have driven right down the old road wondering why everything looked so brown, thinking it was this drought, when all along it was because I forgot to remove my card board box from in front of me. Hey! So whatever you do don't make your own car shade unless you can be sure to remember to remove it before you drive off!

She was born to Whit and Audie Lee Smith on July 19, 1917, in Brady, Texas. Most of her adult life was spent in Eldorado and San Angelo. She was a wonderful homemaker and mother and a member of Harriett Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Robert Leonard Wilson of San Angelo; two daughters, Marilyn Riordan of Beaufort, S.C., and Carolyn Hollmig of Del Rio; one son, Robert A. Wilson of Odessa; two brothers, Lonnie B. Smith of Burnet and James W. Smith of San Angelo; two sisters, Doris Locke of Santa Maria, California, and Patricia Pryor of Donie; five grandchildren and 18 nieces and nephews.

Following the funeral of Lois Wilson, many relatives and friends met in the dining area of the Masonic Lodge hall and were served refreshments of Iced Tea, punch, cake and cookies by the members of Eldorado Chapter #140 O.E.S. Approximately 150 people were present.

Lois Wilson had been a member of the chapter since August 27, 1956. She and her husband, Leonard joined the chapter at the same time.

RUBY DICKENS RICHARDSON

Ruby Dickens Richardson, age 77, died Monday, June 18 at Graham Memorial Hospital in Graham, Texas. Cremation was in Ft. Worth, Texas on June 19, 1990.

Ruby was born on July 20, 1912 in Lytle, Texas. She married James Richardson on May 12, 1965 in Reno, Nevada.

Survivors include her husband; one sister, Mrs Carmen Taylor of Tow, Texas; three daughters: Georgia Allmond of Odessa, Texas, Mignonne Wiggins of Cloverdale, California, and Gaynell Taylor of Windsor, California; three sons: Wayne Dickens of Odessa, Texas, John L. Dickens of Costa Mesa, California and George R. (Tex) Dickens, Jr. of Cloverdale, California; fifteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was a long time resident of Eldorado, Texas working as a Schleicher County School Bus Driver, an upholstery-drapery maker, and cafe cook-manager. At the time of her residence in Eldorado, she was married to George Raymond Dickens (Buster) who died in Odessa, Texas, in 1974.

She lived in San Antonio, Texas, Cloverdale and Windsor, California prior to returning to Texas in January, 1990.

McMillan-Satterwhite Funeral Home in Graham was in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials be made to the American Heart Association.

WILLIAM CORNETT LESTER

William Cornett Lester, 77, of Colorado City, died Saturday, June 16 at St. Johns Hospital in San Angelo.

Funeral services were held Monday, June 18 at 11:00 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Colorado City. Burial followed in Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Scale Funeral Home.

William was born on January 12, 1913 in Ellisville, Mississippi. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, a retired production foreman and a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include: his wife, Beulah of Colorado City, 2 sons, William Lester, Jr. of McCamey and Bob Lester of Eldorado, 1 daughter, Helen Ruddick, 1 sister, Mary Moore of Lubbock and 4 grandchildren.

Vitamin E -- Nature's Cureall? Vitamin E has been touted as increasing energy levels, preventing cataracts, curing skin disease, and improving sex lives. As expected, the truth is not quite that rosy.

Scientific evidence suggests that large doses may delay the development of cata-facts, strengthen the immune system, reduce the risk of cancer and heart disease, relieve leg cramps, and alleviate some symptoms of Parkinson's disease. There do not appear to be any toxic effects of megadoses of the vitamin over the short time.

Finally, there is no evidence the Vitamin E counteracts the bad effects of smoking.

Laugh and Live

by Gary Smith

Well, I am writing this the day before the 4th. You will not be reading it 'til after we have celebrated America's 214th birthday. I hope that you had a happy and safe celebration.

Thought that this might be a good time for us to think about a few of the things that help make America great.

ACHIEVEMENT: The man who rows the boat generally doesn't have time to rock it.

ADVERTISING: He who has a thing to sell and goes and whispers in a well, is not so apt to get the dollars as he who climbs a tree and hollers.

BUSINESS: We are all manufacturers - some make good, others make trouble and still others make excuses.

EXPERIENCE: Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again.

FRIENDSHIP: Never explain - your friends do not need it, and your enemies will not believe it anyway.

SATISFACTION: If you don't get every thing you want, think of the things you don't get that you don't want.

SUCCESS: If you have tried to do something and failed, you are vastly better off than if you had tried to do nothing and succeeded.

OPTIMISM: An optimist is someone who tells you to cheer up when things are going his way.

Just a few things to think about as we recuperate from our celebrating.

'Til the next time...

MAY GOD BLESS.

Peggy Sue Knox Weds Benny Jay Logan

In an early afternoon wedding on June 23, Peggy Sue Knox became the bride of Benny Jay Logan at the Church of Christ in Ozona. Stanley Lockhart of Johnson Street Church of Christ in San Angelo performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Knox of Ozona. Ms. Wilma S. Logan of Eldorado is the mother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin featuring an all-lace bodice and bishop sleeve completely covered in sequins and pearls. The Queen Anne neckline closed in the back. Three strands of cascading pearls accented the open back. Sequins and pearls enhanced the cathedral-length train. A headdress consisting of a band of pearls and baby's breath held a veil of puffed tulle.

To accent her ensemble, Miss Knox wore a strand of pearls given to her by the groom. She carried a cascade of white roses and pink rose buds trimmed with white lace streamers and pink ribbon.

Matron of Honor was Tracey Preddy of Ozona, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Vickie Black and Amy Jones of Ozona, Sandra Short of San Angelo and Donna Patrick of San Antonio. Allison Preddy served as her aunt's flower girl.

The bride's attendants were attired in tea-length gowns stain roses as she proceeded down the aisle.

Fred Logan of Eldorado served as his grandson's best man. Groomsmen were Bobby Knox of Ozona and James Knox of Groesbeck, brothers of the bride. Mike Preddy of Ozona, brother-in-law of the bride, and David Lloyd of Eldorado, the groom's uncle, Chuck Preddy, the bride's nephew, served as junior groomsmen and Brandon Logan, the groom's son, was ring bearer.

of floral chintz featuring pink roses and lavender spring flowers with an ecru background. The gowns were designed with lantern sleeves, a dropped waistline, and a scoop neckline accented by an antique lace collar. The bridesmaids each carried a single long-stemmed pink rose. The flower girl passed out pink and white

Ushers were Sam Hightower of Ozona and Leonard Lloyd of Eldorado.

The church was decorated with two arched candelabras trimmed in pink and white carnations, baby's breath, greenery and white ribbon. There were also two spiral candelabras, and greenery lined with the ceremonial area.

Cathy English, cousin of the bride, played a medley of love songs on the piano as guests arrived. She also played the traditional "Bridal Chorus" and "Wedding March."

Musicians were Stephanie Chapman, Judy Baker, Gary Vannoy and Jerry Reed. They sang: "There's a Sweet, Sweet Spirit", "Somewhere Out There", and "God, a Woman, and a Man". Mrs. Chapman and Connie Jennings sang a duet, "The Wedding Song", and Mrs. Chapman sang "Wind Beneath My Wings" to the bride and groom, accompanied by Nancy Vannoy on the piano.

After the ceremony the entire wedding party and guests were led to the reception at the Granny Miller Hall by Dennis Morgan playing the traditional Scottish wedding march on the bagpipes. Mr. Morgan is originally from Scotland and he and his wife, Virginia, now reside in Tubac, Arizona.

The Granny Miller Hall was decorated in the bride's chosen colors of pink and white. The bride's table was covered with a solid white cloth and skirted in gathered dotted-swiss. Two satin bows adorned the front corners. The bride's three-tiered white cake was held by four white columns and topped with a bouquet of pink spring flowers and pearl cascades. Punch was served from a silver punch service. Nancy Gillit and Susan Knox, sister-in-law of the bride, served the guests.

The groom's table was covered with an ecru open-work cloth and matching underskirt. The single layer chocolate cake was decorated with miniature carpentry tools of spun sugar. Coffee was served from a silver service. Bobbie Acton and Jennifer Knox, sister-in-law of the bride, served the guests.

Jena Allen attended the registry table which was decorated with a single pink rose bud vase and pictures of the bride attired in her wedding gown.

Members of the house party were: Jena Allen, Sue Arledge, Martha Gries, Connie Jennings, Lara Sue Baggett, Totsie Hagelstein, Glenda Winkley, Blanche Walker, Nancy Vannoy, Barbara Crowder and Beverly Preddy.

Peggy Sue Knox is a 1987 graduate of Ozona High School and attends Angelo State University. She is majoring in Elementary Education/Early Childhood Development.

Benny Jay Logan is a 1978 graduate of Eldorado High School and is owner of Logan Construction Co. in Eldorado.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Wilma Logan, the groom's mother, at The Loading Chute. A dance followed featuring H.F. Ritchie of Big Lake, long-time friend of the bride's family.

Following a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico the couple will reside in San Angelo.

Peggy Knox was honored with a bridal shower June 12, 1990 in the Crockett Room. The tables were beautifully decorated with white clothes and skirts. A centerpiece of pink roses and spring flowers was designed by Celia West. Everyone enjoyed delicious strawberry shortcake and punch. Hostesses were: Nelda Montya, Colleen Everett, Sue Arledge, Martha Gries, Betty Huffman, Pam Acton, Stephanie Chapman, Zelma Johnigan, Mary Leigh Kerby, Jo Ann Williamson, Celia West, Debbie Glascock, Jeannine Henderson, Connie Jennings, Lara Sue Baggett, Totsie Hagelstein, Muriel Gillit, Glenda Winkley, Blanche Walker, Nancy Vannoy, Barbara Crowder, Deana Porter, Nell Wester, Terri Adams, Beverly Preddy and Camille Jones.

Sales Tax Increased July 1

State Comptroller Bob Bullock wishes to remind everyone who collects or pays sales tax that there will be an additional quarter percent sales tax collected on all taxable purchases as of Sunday, July 1, 1990.

Housing Authority

by Ann Griffin

The Housing Authority of the City of Eldorado has entered into a CIAP Program, (Comprehensive Improvement Assistance Program), with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

We are presently doing modernization work on the twenty-four older units of the local PHA that were built in 1967. This consists of ten elderly units on Hill St. and fourteen family units on East and Cottonwood St. There is a new storage building being constructed behind the office of the Housing Authority at 801 East St. There is also a new building going up at the corner of Gillis and Poplar. This is to "The change means we'll all be paying a little bit more to help fund education and human services in Texas," Bullock said.

The new rate of 6 1/4 percent was approved by the Texas Legislature after a fourth special session on the issue be a new Senior Citizen Center. Schleicher County donated the land to the Housing Authority for this building and the U.S. Department of HUD is furnishing the money for the construction of the building. The meals on wheels program will operate out of this building and we hope that all the Senior Citizens of Eldorado will enjoy having a place of their own.

The general contractor performing all the work is Kenneth E. Brown Construction Co. out of Garesville, Texas. He has employed several local people and several of the out of town employees are staying in Eldorado. This should be a boost to our local economy.

Come by and look us over!

Chamber Pride Committee

by Jo Ann Sproul

The Chamber Pride Committee would like to thank the merchants who did special mowing and cleaning for Mias Amigas. The town looked so much better and it was due to your special efforts.

Thank you Griffin Gulf Station, Eldorado Pharmacy, Griffin Oil, Glidden's Grocery, Perry's, H&G Automotive, Cathy's, Shot's, Jerry's T.V., The

We would also like to say that the Courthouse lawn looked beautiful and the city offices, churches, Schleicher County Schools and Medical Center and the Texaco Star Stop always look nice.

Cathy's sunflowers were a special touch and our Eldorado Success does a wonderful job covering events.

We are proud of each and every one of you!

ended in early June. The increase brings the maximum sales tax rate in Texas to 8 1/4 percent when optional local sales taxes are included.

Bullock's office estimates that a family of four making $35,000 a year will pay an additional $24.65 a year in the state sales tax.

The Comptroller's Office has sent almost half a million postcards notifying sales tax permit holders across Texas of the change.

"Business owners with retail sales outlets will have to reprogram their cash registers virtually overnight," Bullock said. "This is a heavy burden we tried to lighten a little by giving as much advance notice as possible."

Bullock said new 6 1/4 percent and 8 1/4 percent rate cards are available at the 33 Comptroller offices in Texas. Also available is a new listing of the combined state and local sales tax rates for every city in the state.

"We've sent out over 55,000 of the new rate cards but there are plenty more free of charge for anyone who asks," Bullock said.

Anyone with questions about the sales tax or with a request for a copy of the revised sales tax rates may call the Comptroller's Office toll free at 1-800-252-5555 or may call the Comptroller's field office in their area.

The new sales tax rate for Schleicher County is .07750%.

Hospital Update

by Steve Goode

The local hospital continues to borrow money each year and payback that borrowed money with tax income at the end of the year; however, the money borrowed during the first half of 1990 was much less than the money borrowed during the first half of 1989. As of June 30, 1989 the hospital was in debt $374,719. As of June 30, 1990 the hospital was in debt $298,129. This represents an improvement of $76,590 for the first half of the year.

Several factors have contributed to this improvement. There was a tax increase last year. Money which had been budgeted to provide health insurance for hospital district employees has not been expended. And revenue from providing patient care has been more than budgeted, partly due to our new "Boarders Program."

Merry Makers Meet

The Merry Makers 42 club met in the Old Main Street Cafe on Thursday, June 28th. Lillian Mikeska was hostess. Those present were: Virginia Griffin, Bessie Doyle Clifton, Jessie Sudduth, Opal Parks, Maudie Bassingor, Gladys Faulk, Estell Baker, Lois Etheredge, Opal Faulls, Bea McCormick and Florence Hinton.

The hostess served peach cobbler, ice cream and coffee.

Opal Parks will host the next party set for July 12th.

Meador Appointed to Selective Service System Local Board

Edward F. Meador of Eldorado, Texas, has just completed the initial training program for newly appointed Selective Service System Local Board members. Meador was recommended for this position by Governor William P. Clements and appointed in the name of the President.

Although Selective Service System boards are in an inactive status, they would be responsible for deciding claims for certain classifications such as conscientious objection, hardship, and religious ministry should a draft be reinstated in time of national emergency by the Congress and the President.

Meador's initial training consisted of 12 hours of instruction over a 2-day period focusing on an intensive orientation to the Selection Service System, the major duties and responsibilities of Local Board members, and procedures to be followed by the Local Board.

He will receive continued training in changes in the law, regulations, responsibilities, and related agency policies and procedures.

This training ensures that the young men of Schleicher County who are registered with Selective Service and accept this responsibility of citizenship receive a fair and effective classification process by trained and objective individuals should the need for such a system arise.

Historical Society

Holds Monthly Meeting

by Ola Ruth Barbee

Rene Calcote opened the July monthly meeting for the Historical Society.

Three picture albums were shown and a lot of other pictures were looked at.

A business meeting was also held. Those attending the meeting were: Charlene Edmiston, Ruth Harper, Ola Mae McDonald, Mary McGinnes, Bell Neff, Ola Ruth Barbee, Jean Brozelle and Mable Freitag.

Mable Freitag gave the treasurer's report which was very good.

Many people visited the museum during Mias Amigas to see the new renovations made. The floor is perfectly beautiful and the ceiling has been done, which is also very beautiful.

Schleicher County Days were also discussed. Eddie May Finoly Kinser and Weatherly Kinser were voted to ride in the car for the parade.

ASK YOUR CHILD WHAT A STRANGER LOOKS LIKE

Chances are good that if you ask your child what a stranger looks like, he or she is likely to describe a person like the one pictured here.

So when you tell your child not to talk to strangers, it's important to make sure that your child understands who a stranger really is. Simply put, a stranger is anyone your child does not know, be it the "nice lady" with the dog or the kindly old man in the park. One good idea is to establish a code word known only by yourself, your child and any adult authorized to escort or care for your child. If the stranger doesn't know the "magic" word, your child is not to go anywhere with that person. It's as simple as that. While the movies make it easy to tell the good guys from the bad, real life unfortunately is not so simple. So take a moment to help safeguard your child today.

Child Safety. It's a matter of show and tell.

Test Children For Attention Disorder

School children having learning or behavior problems may have an attention disorder, says the Texas Medical Association, and summer is a good time to pursue testing.

"Children aren't bad or lazy," says TMA member Carol K. Daniel, M.D., director of child development and genetics at Scott and White Hospital in Temple. Usually a cause exists when children have trouble in school, she says.

One reason may be attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder, a condition that may affect from 6,000 to 600,000 Texas children between 5 and 18 years of age. Actually, the disorder occurs in much younger children, but it usually is not detected until children are in structured group settings such as school.

The disorder, which may originate in the brain, primarily is a problem of inattention—a child has difficulty focusing on a mental task such as reading or math. In such situations, the child becomes hyperactive and begins fidgeting or squirming and has trouble staying seated.

Some children have the disorder without hyperactivity, however. These children tend to appear more anxious, withdrawn, sluggish and drowsy.

Other behavioral symptoms of ADHD include being easily distracted by outside stimuli, having difficulty waiting a turn, blurting out an answer before the question is finished, and having trouble following instructions and listening to what is being said. Symptoms also include shifting from one unfinished task to another, talking excessively, having difficulty playing quietly, interrupting others often, losing things, and engaging in physically dangerous activities like running in the street without thinking of what might happen.

While more severe cases often are diagnosed early, milder cases may require "real detective work" and may not be diagnosed until middle school. If a problem is suspected, parents and teachers should talk to a school nurse or counselor and a physician.

Because children with ADHD are inattentive and impulsive, they may develop negative behavior patterns, as well as emotional problems. A physician can recommend a psychologist to help parents learn more effective behavior management techniques and receive individual or family counseling. They also may suggest a support group of other parents of children with ADHD.

Studies have shown that ADHD children are at an increased risk for school failure, behavior problems, and alcoholism and substance abuse. However, with early diagnosis and treatment, many of these problems can be prevented or lessened.

The Texas Medical Association is a professional organization of more than 29,000 physician and medical student members. It is based in Austin and has 119 component county medical societies around the state. The Association represents more than 80 percent of the state's physicians, and its goal is to improve the health of Texans through the professional and personal development of its members.

Young Drug Fighters Join Forces

Junior high and high school students from across Texas will gather at Angelo State University in San Angelo, Texas for the fifth annual Texans' War on Drugs Regional Leadership Conference, July 24 and 25, 1990.

Sponsored by the Texans' War on Drugs Region A office in San Angelo, the two day conference will provide students and adults with a variety of workshops and activities that will provide information and training in the areas of drug education,

First it's tree pollen. Then grass pollen. Then ragweed.

What it all adds up to is sneezing, itching and congestion for a lot of people. And, in temperate climates, people can experience allergy-irritating substances almost year-round.

"In some areas, seasons run together. For people in such areas, there are relatively few times in which some pollen count or another is not high," said Dr. David P. Huston, associate professor of medicine and of microbiology and immunology at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

In a temperate area, Huston said, tree pollens start heavily in March and are succeeded in the coming months by a series of other pollens. January and February can be relatively irritant-free for many areas.

According to Huston, people who suffer from seasonal allergies are not helped by the air pollution that plagues metropolitan areas.

youth group ideas, and leadership skills.

Founded in 1980, Texans' War on Drugs is a nonprofit statewide organization dedicated solely to the prevention of drug use, especially among youth, and the mobilization of drug-free communities throughout Texas. TWOD works in partnership with all segments of society in a united effort to raise public awareness of the harmful effects of drugs and to promote a drug-free lifestyle.

Allergies: What You Can Do About Them

"The air pollution present in many cities is an added burden to allergy sufferers," Huston said. "It is unlikely they would be allergic to any of the chemicals in the air; however, the chemicals and smoke can definitely aggravate their symptoms."

Another group of people who suffer from allergies linked to temperate climate are those afflicted with perennial allergies.

"These are the people allergic to things which, unlike a specific pollen, are present in their environments year-round," Huston said.

Topping this list of irritants are pets, dust-borne contaminants and molds.

Many people are allergic to the dander of animals they keep in their homes, Huston said.

Others have what is commonly called a dust allergy, but is in fact a reaction to contaminants found in dust. Roaches and mites contribute heavily to this.

Molds are also common causes of allergic reactions, Huston said. Air conditioning systems and air ducts frequently harbor these allergy villains.

What to do? "Avoidance is clearly the best of all alternatives," Huston said, "but we have to be realistic. Avoidance is not always possible."

Over-the-counter relief is available for allergies that cause runny noses, itchy eyes and congestion, he said. Most commonly used are antihistamines, but they can cause drowsiness.

Prescription drugs, including new antihistamines that do not cause drowsiness, are also available through physicians.

"Allergy shots are not necessarily the first line of therapy," Huston said. "The shots do help some people, but they should be reserved for patients whose allergy symptoms cannot be adequately controlled through other means."

Huston said allergies and allergy-like reactions can be the result of conditions other than pollens and perennial irritants. Foods, for example, can be a source of allergies, and some dyes and other substances can cause allergic-like reactions.

Careful screening by allergists can help patients pinpoint the causes of their suffering. Once that is accomplished, the right form of therapy can be recommended.

"Peril at Pumpernickle Pass"

The Way Off Broadway Players are presenting "Peril at Pumpernickle Pass" by Tim Kelly on July 13th. The drama will unfold under the tent at the rodeo grounds at 9:00 p.m.

Our heroine, Debbie Joy, faces danger when the dastardly villain, Joe Max Edmiston, tries to steal her fortune. However, Larry Blair, the hero, gallantly defends her and all ends well (after a terrible ordeal!).

Other cast members are Nancy Lester and Gloria Swift as two "not so smart" lovelies, Ginny Lamb and Lois Dean as the news reporter and the landlady. Scott Barton is hilarious as the barber/dentist and Stacie Dunlap, Lindsay Bass and Billy Caviness entertain the people of Pumpernickle Pass with their "Wild West Show." Jo Ann Sproul is also in the cast with Maxine Page, Janee Finley and Gary Smith adding music and song.

The production is directed by Marcy Willis, a teacher in Eldorado schools. She has directed one act plays for U.I.L. competition as well as several of our melodramas. She is also on the Board of Directors of The Way Off Broadway Players.

Marcy does a fine job - doing a lot of work many are not aware of. We appreciate you Marcy!

Enjoy electricity . . .
but don't take it for granted!

By following some very basic safety rules, you should be able to safely enjoy the many ways electricity helps us.

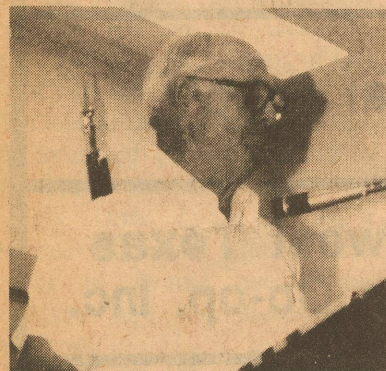

1. Do not touch anything wet or metal while using any appliance. This could cause you to become grounded which could result in you being shocked or electrocuted.
2. Install Ground Fault Circuit Interrupters (GFCIs) in any area that can get wet.
3. Before you dig, be sure to check with your local utility to locate underground electrical lines.
4. Teach your children electrical safety rules.
5. Before you clean or remove anything from an appliance, unplug it.
6. Never use water on an electrical fire.
7. Unplug heaters and irons when they are not in use.
8. To help prevent shocks, plug power tools into grounded GFCIs.
9. If someone has been shocked, do not attempt first aid until current is no longer going through the body.
