

RURAL CITIZENS TO SEEK ELECTRIFICATION FOR SCHLEICHER COUNTY

On The Divide

The tremendous increase in the sale of pencils by retail firms on the Divide is attributed partly to the opening of school, but the principal contributing factor is said to be wool and mohair growers of the area figuring up what they "would have made," had they not sold their spring and fall clips a few weeks ago.

"War in the European countries is like small town gossip," says Hank Bowman. "It is not half as bad as it sounds."

We who are victims of a dropped chest, commonly referred to as "middle age spread," can appreciate the predicament of an absent minded traveling salesman who was compelled to claw like two cats fighting to halt his rapidly descending pants as he crawled out of his car here shortly after lunch time one day last week.

Every one regrets to hear this news as he was a boy who really liked his football.

Rites Held For John Rae At San Angelo

John Rae, among the first pioneers to bring sheep into this country more than a half century ago, died early Monday morning in a San Angelo hospital of angina pectoris. Funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Robert Massie chapel in San Angelo.

Rev. N. P. Wilkinson, pastor of the local Presbyterian church officiated assisted by the Rev. Philip Kemp, rector of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church in San Angelo. Burial was in Fairmount cemetery there. Pall bearers included Forest Runge, Ernest C. Hill, Henry Speck and W. O. Alexander of this city and John Burnside and L. O. Nimitz of San Angelo.

Mr. Rae was a native of Scotland, born at Jedburgh, on June 23, 1861. He came to the United States as a lad of 18, landed in New York and came to Austin where he was met by a brother. He later came to this section and married Miss Ada Street of San Angelo on September 29, 1897.

Cattlemen dominated the range when Mr. Rae drove sheep into this country in 1883 and they resented the arrival of sheep. But recognizing qualities of Schleicher County for sheep, Mr. Rae never left and for 58 years has lived on his buckhorn ranch near here. Although cattlemen of this area resented his coming, he won their admiration, welcome and friendship with his Scotch humor and keen wit.

Mr. Rae is credited with drilling the first water well in what is now the western part of Schleicher county. Cattle being driven north on spring roundups always welcomed.

Survivors are his widow, two daughters, Mrs. David Powell of Fort Worth, and Miss Agnes Rae of this city, and a brother, George Rae, a well known Coleman county ranchman.

Certificates will be awarded to those going from one department to another in both Sunday school and B.T.U. The general Sunday School superintendent, W. T. Whitten, will have charge of the services Sunday morning and the B. T. U. director, E. J. Wyatt, will direct the evening service.

ELDORADO TEAM TIED CRANE ON MUDDY FIELD SATURDAY; TO PLAY M'CAMERY TONIGHT

M'CAMERY GAME WILL DRAW CROWD FROM HERE

Football warriors from the high divide will test their ability against another oil field foe, Friday night when they meet the McCamey Macks at McCamey. There has been no news from the enemy camp, but a battle can always be expected when the territory of the oil field district is invaded.

The Macks will be somewhat lighter than the Crane team, but they boast a fairly strong offense in a boy by the name of Davis. The grapevine relays a message that he can "scat" as well as throw the ball.

A large number of fans are planning to follow the team and will also see a former Eldorado boy in action, Dickey Bowen, son of L. D. Bowen, who operated the theatre here several years ago, is quarterback for the Macks.

Grand Jury Here Returns Five Indictments

Allan Holder, San Angelo rodeo performer, was indicted on charges of saddle theft here Monday when the 51st District Court Grand Jury returned five bills.

The indictment against Holder chases him with theft at the ranch of Rector Henderson of Schleicher county, May 8. His case is set for trial October 2 when criminal cases are called by Judge John F. Sutton.

Bills were returned Monday against "Stump" Craig, about 40, for assault with intent to murder; Owen Fay, about 18, Eldorado negro, burglary, two indictments; and I. W. Harrell, about 40, local negro for burglary.

The case of John and B. C. Ringer, charged with receiving and concealing stolen sheep, was called at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. It was brought here from Iron county recently on a change of venue. The Ringers were tried last week at Sweetwater on similar charges, a hung jury resulted.

TEAM PERFORMS WELL ON MUDDY FIELD TO HOLD OPPONENTS TO 6-6 TIE

The coming out party of the Eldorado Eagles was slowed to almost a walk or a slip here Saturday when they met the Crane Cranes on the home field in a bog down affair that was supposed to be a football game. Although soaked from a drenching rain all during the game, fans stayed on the sidelines and hovered in cars to witness the performance.

Home talent gave a very good demonstration of themselves as mudders, when they held a much heavier and highly touted Crane team to a standstill. Little offense was seen from either side Crane showing what little there was to be seen, while the Eagles waited and played a strictly defensive game, not taking any chances of giving Crane any breaks.

Crane boasted more first downs and more yardage gained from scrimmage, but their pile driving was stopped suddenly on many occasions when a fast charging line and secondary would break thru to throw the ball carrier for losses. The defensive game was credited to the Eagles, especially in the kicking department. Hill was much the better in punting, getting of several 35 to 40 yarders.

The first half was a standoff, being played between the forty yard lines and both sides showing very little offense. Crane gained their 6 points early in the fourth quarter when Pendleton went around his sown right end and reversed his field to scamper about fifty for the score. This appeared to be the ball game but not so in the mind of the lighter Eagles. They pitched toe to toe with the visitors and finally forced them back in their own territory where they recovered a blocked punt on the twelve yard line. Three tries placed them on the four with only two for a first. They fumbled on the next and Crane took over. Standing behind his own goal line in an attempt to punt out, he was rushed and cleanly missed the ball when a fast charging line came through. After scraping the mud away in order to identify the recovery, the referee found the ball in possession of Raider Cozzens, the guard. The attempt for the conversion was nullified, when from the excitement, a bad pass from center went astray.

There would have been lots more excitement had the field been dry. The merits of both teams would have been soon and the home town could have seen their smaller rabbit backs in motion against a much heavier team. However, fans were well pleased with the showing made by the Eagles in their first appearance.

SHALL SCHELEICHER COUNTY HAVE RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

The next ten days will perhaps mean more to farmers and ranchmen of Schleicher county than any similar period for a good many years. Within this period whether or not rural electrification will be secured for this county will be determined. Farm and ranch leaders are now canvassing the county, discussing the plan with those that will use the power, and the results of this canvass will be the principal deciding factor.

Needless to say, electrification would be the greatest step forward rural Schleicher county has experienced in many years. This project, sponsored by the federal government, would offer facilities to farms and ranches that cannot be surpassed even in the large cities. Power would be supplied at a cheaper rate than city users experience, it is said, enabling farmers and ranchmen to use electrical current to do the numerous things that require power on his place.

The question of rural electrification in Schleicher county challenges the serious consideration of every farmer and ranchman in this county. He should secure the facts, weigh the advantages, compare the cost and decide whether or not he wants electric power for rural Schleicher county.

The cooperation of every farmer and ranchman will be needed in deciding the program. The matter may be discussed with any of the committeemen or at the County Agent's office during the hours of 8:00 to 5:00; Saturday, 8:00 to 12:00.

OVER THE HURDLES

Nobody's Business

By Julian C. Capers

AUSTIN—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel wants the people of Texas to "adjourn" politics, because some European nations, 3,000 miles away, have gone to war over trade and territorial disputes, peculiar to the continent of Europe and to the nations involved.

The European war is not likely to affect the politics of Texas, at least not at any time soon. Analysis of editorial opinion, and the expressions of leaders throughout the state, indicates that the sentiment of Texas people, like that of people in other States of the Union, is fairly unanimous in favor of our keeping out of the European embroilment, and letting the affected nations do the fighting. The forthcoming special session of Congress, if advance indications can be relied upon, is likely to amend the neutrality law so as to permit a "cash and carry" system of sales of war materials and other supplies to all comers who pay at shipside and haul away their own purchases.

Of course, Gov. O'Daniel would like very much to "adjourn" politics until after he is re-elected to a second term, and let the folks concentrate upon the war in Europe. But to most Texans, the war is a pretty remote affair. They are pretty determined to stay out of it. It's economic effects may be helpful to Texans. In fact, sharp increases in the price received for wool, mohair, beef, stocker cattle, and hogs, have put Texas producers in a happy mood.

But before adjournment of politics takes place, the folks are likely to ask Gov. O'Daniel some pertinent questions about $30 a month pensions for everybody, no new taxes, a factory on every hillside, the sales tax, and several other things that Leon and the Hill-Billy Band can't answer with a rendition of "I've Got That Old Fashioned Love In My Heart."

STATE LOAN PAID

The Lower Colorado River Authority, when it was advanced a loan of $5,000 by the Legislature out of State funds to finance its preliminary organization activities was not regarded as a particularly good credit risk. But business-like directors of the LCRA have largely completed construction of $22,000,000 worth of flood control and power dams, have acquired the power distributing facilities in a group of 16 Central Texas counties, and this week they repaid the $5,000 loan from the State. A unique feature of LCRA policy is its use of newspaper advertising to sell its power, buying space in about 25 daily and weekly newspapers in its territory to tell the story of low-priced power, just as the private utilities have found the papers to be the most effective method of selling their product. For this innovation in publicly owned power policy, Gordon Fulcher, Austin newsman and public relations advisor to LCRA, is largely responsible.

CRIMINAL JUDGE TO RETIRE

Presiding Judge W. C. Morrow of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, has let it be known he will retire in 1940, after many years of sterling service on the State's highest criminal tribunal. State Senator Clay Cotton of Palestine, a former district attorney, and Lloyd Davidson, of Sulphur Springs, who has been the State's representative before the same court for many years, will be candidates for the post, which will probably attract several other candidates before the campaigning begins next Spring.

PENSION RACKET LAW VOID

The effort of the Legislature to curb "pension rackets", wherein old folks, was largely nullified by an opinion of Attorney Gerald Mann, who held that section of the law prohibiting the solicitation of funds for sponsoring social security legislation is unconstitutional. Only in the event actual fraud is established could a conviction be had, the Attorney General held, since the Constitution guarantees citizens the right to solicit or contribute funds for any lawful purpose.

UPHOLD ALIEN LAW

The law under which aliens are refused the right to take the examinations to practice medicine in Texas is constitutional, District Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin held this week, who granted a mandamus requiring the board to give the examination to a Mexican doctor who had applied for examination prior to enactment of the new law.

It will be an anti-Roosevelt, pro-O'Daniel publication, according to reports. West has been bitterly anti-Roosevelt, and this was given by some Senators as the reason for the rejection by the Senate of West as Highway Commission chairman last spring, when O'Daniel nominated the Houston multi-millionaire. The new paper will be known as the Daily Tribune. Jack Padgett, of Austin, former legislators, will be general manager.

San Angelo Business Men Who Are Builders Of West Texas

—By—

J. N. Young Has Many Friends

San Angelo may well be proud of the citizens who have made the city and the surrounding territory so favorable known. In mentioning some of these men we could not in common honesty omit the name of Mr. J. N. Young of the J. N. Young Dist. Co.

Mr. Young, a leading business man, cannot be praised too highly for his great achievements. His main interests have always been devoted to the welfare and the building up of a greater San Angelo and vicinity. The value of such a man to the community cannot be over-estimated when taking into consideration the many things he has accomplished that have been an asset to San Angelo and this district.

Mr. Young is wholly deserving of our sincere praise, and these few words of commendation are but a just recognition of the many activities he has conducted for the general welfare of the community as a whole. The honest and successful conduct of his business affairs is but a reflection of his character.

We trust Mr. J. N. Young and his company will continue to serve San Angelo and our readers for many years.

Whitaker Bros. Aids The Farmer

One of the San Angelo firms on which the farmers of this rural district depend a great deal is Whitaker Bros., distributors of the finest farming machinery that money can buy. This firm has befriended the farmers and truck gardeners of this district for many years and has made thousands of friends throughout the district. This firm distributes a complete line of farm machinery and stands behind every product with the full resources of the company.

Whitaker Bros., in San Angelo, have always been ready and willing to lend assistance to any project which promised to benefit this district as a whole, and by the way of reciprocity the farmers of this territory should give the firm every consideration when buying equipment.

Mr. M. G. and H. A. Whitaker are the men who have won the universal respect and admiration of our people. They richly deserve their measure of success. They have made a study of problems which confront the local farmer, and their advice on these subjects is eagerly sought after. We congratulate the Whitaker Bros. on their personal success and also on the high position to which they have raised their firm in the opinions of the readers of this paper.

P. P. Ewald Is Honored

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to various civic leaders who have contributed over a period of years to the upbuilding of our community to the position of prominence which it enjoys at present.

One of these men to whom we wish to direct attention is Mr. P. P. Ewald, prominent cotton buyer and a business leader who has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward and his competitors respect him as much as do all others with whom he comes in contact.

Mr. P. P. Ewald is at all times conscious of his civic responsi-

ties and may be depended upon to meet in every detail the many opportunities which present themselves to be of service to the city. Mr. Ewald's record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to the city of San Angelo and this district is an established fact, and we hasten to give him credit which is his just due.

E. C. Webb Earns Praise

Leadership in business may be a gift, but with that instinct must also go a lot of hard work and conscientious application. Mr. E. C. Webb, owner of Webb's Slaughter House, is an outstanding example of the point we wish to make. He, apparently, is a natural born leader, yet the amazing knowledge of details of his business which he possesses, can only be the result of consistent and persistent hard work.

Our admiration for the achievements of this man, for his unassuming nature; his matter-of-fact approach to problems that would appear unsurmountable to many having less courage, is so sincere and so firmly fixed, that we are prompted to share it with our readers. Mr. E. C. Webb is an inspiration, a dominant personality, whose career is worthy of the highest acclaim, and whose accomplishments are daily bringing worthwhile benefits to his company and business associates and to the city of San Angelo.

Honor Is Due L. G. "Les" Humphrey

The true value of a citizen is not gauged by his personal success but rather by the manner in which he shares that success by his contributions to the community in which he lives. A city grows and flourishes according to the number of public spirited men and women who compose its population.

Mr. L. G. "Les" Humphrey, prominent livestock order buyer in San Angelo, is one of these men who has given much toward the development of San Angelo and vicinity. He has turned his personal success in the business field to the advantage of the people as a whole, and has accomplished much toward making San Angelo a better place in which to live. Mr. Humphrey's magnetic personality and dynamic driving force have raised him to a commanding position among his neighbors and friends.

We compliment Les Humphrey in this edition and wish to offer him this small evidence of our esteem.

Guinn Williams Earns Praise

Civic leaders too frequently do not receive the credit they have won and are entitled to for the time and effort and energy they have put forth to guide the destinies of San Angelo in which they are active. It is therefore with real pleasure that we call our readers' attention to the fine work and aggressive leadership of Mr. Guinn Williams, manager of the Texas Wool and Mohair Co. We also wish on behalf of the residents of the city to extend to him our congratulations and thanks.

No city can make progress, grow and expand as it should without the intelligent leadership on the part of its prominent citizens. These leaders too often hide their light under a bushel. It is not praise that they want as their reward. It is the victory of doing and accomplishing civic projects for the general betterment of the community from which they get their satisfaction. But we cannot refrain from pointing out the usefulness along this line by such men as Mr. Guinn Williams. So far as their fellow citizens are concerned they have indeed won their civic spurs. What we say here is but a fraction of the praise he, and such men like him in San Angelo are entitled to, for their unselfish efforts on behalf of us all. And we again congratulate him for the people of San Angelo and this district.

John A. Russell Popular Business Leader

We are living in an age of keener competition than the world has ever known before. New merchandising methods spring up overnight, making hitherto accepted practices obsolete. The business executive who can anticipate these trends; who can consistently lead; who is not afraid to try still newer ideas, is so unusual that he merits any praise we can give. We believe we have found such a leader in Mr. John A. Russell of the John A. Russell Distributing Co.

Mr. Russell is a master of practical economics. He adapts himself and his business procedure in accordance with the trend of the times. He has demonstrated in the past years that he can meet the more and more exacting demands of customers, and that a successful business man can outwit the handicaps of the most severe depressions.

Mr. Russell has found time, in spite of the increasing burdens of conducting his private affairs, to aid in the building of his community. He has done all that one man can do, and more, in furthering the welfare of his city. It is for these reasons that we wish our readers to know Mr. John A. Russell, the guiding genius of the company bearing his name.

Nelson Wilber Wins Admiration

We wish in this edition to pay especial tribute to Mr. Nelson Wilber of the Sheep Shearers Merchandise Co., for his many services to San Angelo and his splendid record of achievement over a period of many years. Mr. Wilber probably has a wider circle of personal friends than any other man we could name. He has cultivated friendships wherever he goes and is at pains to conduct himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and admiration of all who know him.

A city is extremely fortunate in being able to number among its civic leaders such a personality as Mr. Wilber. He has probably accomplished more toward the development of San Angelo and vicinity than any other one man we could mention. He is always ready and willing to end his prestige and ability to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit the city of San Angelo. Mr. Wilber may be depended upon, and his services to the people are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that the publishers of this paper consider Mr. Nelson Wilber an asset to the community and a man of whom the city may be proud.

Owen Gray Deserves Mention

Mr. Owen Gray of the Gray Welding Co. in San Angelo, performs a real service for the people of this district and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require further repetition in these columns. His personal success has been turned to the advantage of his fellow citizens, and he is always ready and willing to assist in any enterprise which promises to advance the welfare of the community.

Mr. Gray is deserving of our highest compliment and this small tribute is but a just recognition of the many services which he has performed. His reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs, is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices transaction.

We congratulate Mr. Owen Gray on his splendid record and trust that he shall continue for many years to serve the people of this district.

Bob Weatherby Is Successful Leader

It is because of unflinching optimism and faith which he so consistently displays toward the future of San Angelo and West Texas that we are prompted to call particular attention of our reader to the fine service which Mr. Bob Weatherby, of the Bob Weatherby Live Stock Commission Co., performs in the successful conduct of his business. He is entitled to our highest praise and tribute which we can pay him.

Bob Weatherby is a resourceful, dominant personality, whose progressive policies of business administration have earned for him a wide reputation as a leader in San Angelo and have in economic wealth not only for himself and his immediate associates but for the people of the city as well. The Bob Weatherby Live Stock Comm. Co., reflecting as it does the genius of this man, has a recognized popularity throughout the areas it serves.

We are glad to give him the credit he so well deserves for his achievements and to wish him a continued successful career as one of our outstanding citizens and leaders.

Jesse Young Is Well Known

One of the pioneer business men of the city of San Angelo who deserves the respect and admiration of every citizen of this district is Mr. Jesse Young of the Jesse Young Garage.

The Jesse Young Garage is a San Angelo institution, and Mr. Young is no less so because of his inseparable connection with the firm in the mind of its customers.

Mr. Jesse Young has always been ready and willing to contribute his time and energy to the assistance of any plan which promises to benefit this community as a whole, and the people of our district may regard with particular satisfaction the many services Mr. Young has performed for this community. We urge our readers to look to Jesse Young as a man of whom we may well be proud. His devotion to the section has been constant and his achievements are well merited.

A. A. Love Has Fine Record

In paying tribute to some of our most prominent civic leaders we should be remiss in our duty were we to fail to include the name of Mr. A. A. Love of San Angelo Finance Co.

Mr. A. A. Love is a man who has contributed much to the welfare of San Angelo and the surrounding territory. His civic spirit is evidenced by the many services which he has performed and which he continues to perform in the interest of the people as a whole. No worth-while enterprise which promises to benefit the city or the surrounding district, escapes his attention.

Mr. Love is a man of wide acquaintances whose many friends admire and respect in him those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. His upright business methods are a credit to his high sense of honor. There is always a place in any community for men of his type.

We congratulate Mr. Love on his splendid record of service and trust he shall continue to assist us for many years to come.

Optimism Shown By Eugene Traylor Is Praised

Because this is a period of unprecedented economic uncertainty, the business leaders in any city who continue to operate their particular enterprises successfully are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are, therefore glad to pay this tribute to Mr. Eugene Traylor, who sell Peerless Fence and used pipe, for he is an outstanding figure in the business life of San Angelo. His persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the ultimate prosperity of the people of San Angelo and West Texas are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

Mr. Eugene Traylor has always shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement, and has contributed repeatedly with his time and energy to the welfare of his city. We believe that this unusual business leader is entitled to our sincere praise both because he has achieved success in his private affairs and because he has been a generous contributor to the public good.

Texas Production Credit Assn. Aids Agriculture Progress

One of the institutions that gives stability to the farming and ranching interests of San Angelo and the surrounding territory is the Texas Production Credit Association.

From the days it first opened its doors to the people it has always been under the management of conservative yet progressive men, of broad and liberal views in the matter of caring for their patrons needs yet men who have carefully guarded the best interests of their customers at all times. This invariable policy has gained for this association the greatest confidence of the people of all the surrounding country and among its customers you will find the majority of the community's most prominent cattle raisers and farmers.

This Association under the capable direction of Mr. Lem M. Mertz in San Angelo, is one of the absolutely essential institutions which makes possible the expansion and growth not only of the individual but of the entire district. In making this review of the onward progress of this part of the state we wish to compliment the Texas Production Credit Association, also its officers and directors and direct attention of our readers to this worthy institution.

SECOND GUESSING

(By L. T. Barber)

Appreciation:

Wish to express appreciation of a letter from Carl Kerr, over from Marlin, Texas. Carl is an ex-student and football player of Eldorado high school and says he enjoys reading the home paper and gets lots of kick out of bragging about the home team. Hope we can keep sending him news of the team here that will merit his praise.

Hats Off Department:

We want to take our hats off to an entire team from Eldorado since their game played in the slosh last Saturday. Usually there is a star or two on every team but on this one there were eleven. There was more pep and more aggressive team play displayed in the game with Crane than we expected to see after such a short time of practice. However, we do raise our hat a little higher for one little fellow out there at the unseen guard position by the name of "Raider" Cozzens. At times we thought the Crane coach was pulling a fast one. We could see five men in the backfield. The only mistake the coach made was not putting a Crane uniform on him.

Some of the girls should not be overlooked in this department. They did not get out in the mud with the players but they stayed in the rain and yelled just as loud as the rain was hard. Although it was rather bad on their hair curls and complexion, making them look like some drowned rabbit, they did not give up the ship.

Matter of Opinion

There were many viewpoints spoken last Saturday night as to the outcome of the game, had it been on a dry field. Quite a few seemed to think the Cranes would have eaten the Eagles up on a dry field, while others seem to think different. We know that a muddy field equalizes football teams to a certain extent. We also know or have been told by some authorities that a muddy field would favor the heavier team. Crane was much heavier but as far as powerhousing their way over a lighter team, they were fought to a standstill and had the quarters in the second half been cut so short, might not have gotten out with a tie. But we will never know. The field was muddy; it rained in sheets and the game was played to a 6 to 6 tie and the best thing to do is to forget this one and go after that one tonight at McCamey.

Heard some stranger remark that the Eldorado boys were used to carrying the mud around and it did not slow them down. He certainly was a stranger for there are some frogs here that do not even know how to swim.

Hitlerism has taken a back seat in Eldorado since the opening of the football season. Nothing but football and the price of wool and mohair is heard. Jim Hoover was the only one interested in the war news. But he worked Saturday and did not see the mudslinging.

The game Saturday was one of the cleanest games witnessed in some time (from the standpoint of rules infractions). Usually there are many roughing and piling up penalties dished out in a game played under the conditions prevailing last Saturday. Eldorado was the only one receiving a roughing penalty. James Henderson's mud chains did not hold and he slid into the kicker, costing him five yards and a first down to the opposition.

Teams in the ranch district did not fare so well last week end

Ozona took a 12-0 defeat from a strong Big Lake team. Rock Spring went under 6-0 from a weaker district Paint Rock eleven and Menard was knocked over 6-2 by Miles. Sonora came out with a 13-6 win over Lakeview and Mason humbled Melvin 26-0. Junction managed to fight to a draw with Richland and Eldorado tied Crane.

These games do not exactly mean that the teams in this district are so much weaker this year. Some of the supposedly weaker sisters are showing up with some heavier teams this year than usual.

Eldorado reserves saw some action last Monday afternoon when they visited the Mertzton Hornets nest. From all accounts it was a pretty hot spot. Although the score was only 12-0, the Mertzton boys are fairly rugged. It seemed that some of the Eaglets were just a we bit stage frightened in the first part of the game. That was when the scoring came. After they came down to earth, they played more on even terms with the heavier and more experienced aggregation. Games of this kind give the boys who do see service in the main games some added experience and will make them ready when their time comes for action. They have several games matched for them this year.

Why Not Try This One?

Looking on the streets after school hours, you can easily see young boys 10 to 12 years of age (mine too) running up and down the side walk, throwing mud balls, when it rains or climbing on some building. These boys have nothing to take care of their surplus energy. Of course they could be made to go home and mow the lawn, but you know how that is.

There was considerable talk last year of equipping these youngsters with football uniforms and having practice sessions for them after school. The plan soon dropped, as there was no one to help them. We have discussed it again this year and as usual, a favorable response has been given. We also have in mind a young man who has played plenty football and would be very glad to give his time for them.

This plan would create a better spirit in the younger boys, make better athletes out of them and more than that, it would take them off the streets. They have no other play ground to go to.

Why don't we buy some equipment and give them something to do?

San Angelo Business Men Who Are Builders Of West Texas

—By—

Guy F. Davis Shows Faith In Community

To be a consistent and persistent booster of the home community very often takes courage and plenty of optimism. It is because of his unflinching faith in the future of San Angelo, and his unflagging efforts to promote its development that Mr. Guy F. Davis, the manager of the Davis Petroleum Co., is selected now for this brief tribute.

Mr. Guy F. Davis has always followed the policy of building his business ahead of the community, and thus setting a pace that has brought an even-increasing number of people to make San Angelo their trading center. He is a man of keen business judgement, whose ideas have been the inspiration of many who know him. His personality and energy in directing the operation of his company are important factors in its outstanding success.

We are glad to pay this deserved tribute to Mr. Guy F. Davis and to point out to our readers that his is the guiding genius behind the many popular services which his company offers.

J. J. Goodfellow Is Civic Booster

There are a number of business and professional men in San Angelo who stand head and shoulders over the crowd. This especially is true in the case of Mr. J. J. Goodfellow a licensed land surveyor in San Angelo. He has always been in the front rank of the business and civic life of San Angelo and the surrounding trade area. He is a dominant person, yet one whose genial personality has earned for him a host of friends and admirers.

Mr. Goodfellow's intuitive understanding of the needs of the city are a valuable and important factor in the successful promotion of many civic activities. As a result San Angelo is firmly established in the minds of the people, for many miles around, as a growing metropolis which they regard as the logical business center of this district.

We compliment Mr. J. J. Goodfellow for his success in business and public affairs and say without fear of contradiction that he will continue for many years to enjoy that success which he has so justly earned.

L. V. Hall Makes Many Friends

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. San Angelo has its share of these civic minded people, and one who is deserving of special mention is Mr. L. V. Hall of the Hall Map and Blueprint Co., a leading concern.

Mr. Hall has not only in his business activities but also in his attention to civic duty assumed a position of the utmost prominence in the community affairs.

Mr. Hall has always been ready and willing to contribute his time and energy to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. He has often sacrificed his personal interest to be of assistance to the city. His efforts are wholly deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Mr. L. V. Hall and his concern and wish him continued success.

Paul J. Brown Informed On Insurance

One of the better informed insurance executives in the city of San Angelo is Mr. Paul J. Brown, who has been performing an essential service for the people of this city over a period of years, and during that time has made many thousands of friends both for himself and for his Company. Mr. Paul J. Brown has contributed a great deal of his time and energy to the growth and progress of this district and has been content to take his reward in the quiet knowledge of a work well done, and in the respect and admiration of his many friends.

The value of such men to this district cannot be over-estimated. His willingness to perform in the interest of the community as a whole is his most admirable characteristic, and he has often made personal sacrifices in order to contribute to the general welfare. We congratulate Mr. Paul J. Brown on his splendid reputation, and we urge our readers to reciprocate for his many services by Great American Life Insurance Co., in all matters pertaining to life insurance.

Wood Motor Co. San Angelo Institution

A firm which deserves its full measure of success and which has been constant in its devotion to the needs of the people of this district is the Wood Motor Co. FORD dealer in San Angelo. This firm has carried on a healthy business in San Angelo for years and over that period of time has made many thousands of friends and customers. We are unable to over estimate the importance of such concerns to our community and our review of essential firms would not be complete without mention being made of this company.

Mr. H. A. Goodson the president, is a man of the highest calibre. He has considered his civic responsibilities in a serious manner and is always ready to aid in the promotion of any project which promises to benefit San Angelo and West Texas. We congratulate Mr. H. A. Goodson on his conduct of a business which is an asset to this entire district and we wish for him continued success.

J. D. Hassell, Realtor Inspires Confidence

An established, responsible real estate dealer is an asset to any community, and Mr. J. D. Hassell has that dependable reputation for service which makes it a pleasure to do business with him. Mr. Hassell lists some of the finest residential property in the city as well as the more desirable ranch properties in the adjacent territory. Mr. Hassell has been in business in San Angelo for 35 or his 76 years and has had a great deal to do with growth and progress of the city. No effort has been spared by him to see that the people of San Angelo have the opportunity to own homes which may be their pride and joy for years to come.

Mr. J. D. Hassell has had a wide experience in the real estate field. He has made many thousands of friends throughout this district and we congratulate him on his very real contributions to the growth of San Angelo and vicinity.

Recognition and appreciation of the science that has become widely known under the name of Chiropractic is so widespread as almost to need no introduction to the intelligent reading public. This comparatively new science, which works in full accord with nature, has consistently won new friends and is based upon a correct knowledge of the brain, the spine and the nerves of our system. It is no small tribute to those men at the helm in this field that Dr. R. E. Capshaw of The Chiropractic Clinic, comes to mind as a leader in this locality.

In all professional pursuits there are men who have met with success and prosperity because they have honestly deserved it, and such a type of man in his field will be found in Dr. R. E. Capshaw, one of the leading and best known chiropractors in the locality. His thorough knowledge and mastery of every phase of modern chiropractic is appreciated by the fact that the most modern equipment and everything necessary for his patients convenience is found. The Chiropractic Clinic in the Rust Bldg. in San Angelo.

John W. Wilder Prominent Architect

Whenever a man rises above the ordinary in his field of endeavors, he may well be complimented upon his achievements and in this instance the man we have in mind deserves the highest contributions to the beauty of the city of San Angelo. We refer to John W. Wilder, representing Will N. Noonan in San Angelo, whose reputation as an architect stands out among the members of the profession, and is regarded with respect by all of the citizens of San Angelo.

A successful architect must in a certain sense be possessed of a dual personality. He must be able to combine the artistic with the practical so that neither beauty of line nor usefulness of construction is sacrificed. That Mr. John W. Wilder has accomplished this objective, we do not question, since much abler critics than ourselves have acclaimed his work.

Such men as Mr. John W. Wilder have a district value to their home cities. Mr. Wilder has contributed much to the city of San Angelo. He has many more useful years before him and we of this district appreciate his presence among us.

R. L. Vaughn San Angelo Booster

Few men have done more to rise the prestige of the city of San Angelo than has Mr. R. L. Vaughn of San Angelo Wool Co., one of San Angelo's leading companies. He has always worked for the development of this community and his many services are worthy of sincere appreciation.

Mr. Vaughn has proved himself worthy of extended mention and these few words are really not adequate recognition for the many services which he has performed. His outstanding success as a business man is easily understood knowing as the people do, his widespread reputation for the honesty that characterizes all of his business dealings.

Mr. R. L. Vaughn is completely aware of his responsibilities, and is wide awake to the many opportunities for service. He is always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. We compliment Mr. Vaughn on his accomplishments and wish for him continued success.

Drive Savelly—Save a life.

H. M. Pate Merits Praise

There are plenty of men in their chosen fields who are prominent, but who will not permit much to be said about it. It is however, public property every time a man reaches a position in any community where he is generally recognized as a leader. Mr. H. M. Pate, the manager of the Fire Companies Adjustment Bureau has always done his work effectively, even though it has been accomplished in an unobtrusive manner. His many friends would think it a strange omission were we not to say a word about him.

Mr. H. M. Pate, busy as he is, always manages somehow or other to do his bit in any movement calculated to benefit the community as a whole.

Mr. Pate's modesty will not permit him to say the things about himself which are said by his friends. This paper is merely performing a civic duty when it pays this small tribute to a man who so richly deserves more profuse compliments. We do not hesitate to recommend Mr. H. M. Pate to our readers as a man who continues at all times to work to the advantage of the people of San Angelo and West Texas.

Ray Baker Has Outstanding Record

The honors that come to any man bring him equal responsibilities. Mr. Roy Baker, general manager of the Robert Massie Co. has discharged worthily the many responsibilities that have come to him with many honors.

He has lived in San Angelo many years of a life that has been marked by public and civic service, and a strikingly successful business career.

The prominent part that the Robert Massie Co. has played in the building up and the development of San Angelo and West Texas mirrors the character and ability of this man. Mr. Roy Baker has at all times been steadfast in his devotion to his city and on many occasions has turned his talents and the resources of his company to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

San Angelo and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Mr. Roy Baker in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it honors itself when it honors in this small way a man of such worth.

Applaud Prominent Rank Of Lionel L. Duquette

Those who advocate the winning of laurels by the application of tireless efforts have a splendid demonstration of their theory in the case of Mr. Lionel L. Duquette a man who has won his way upward on a basis of sheer merit.

At the head of one of the district's most prominent concerns and a leader of recognized ability in community life, he stands out today as one of the best liked men on the panorama of San Angelo activity. His friends are numbered by the thousands in this locality and all of them are of the lasting fibre which comes of worth-while associations, both in the world of business and in the realms of neighborhood life.

The Santa Rita Wool Co., of which Mr. Lionel L. Duquette is the head, has been a strong factor in recent upturns shown by business here and Mr. Duquette's own efforts have been the stimuli behind this splendid work by the firm. The case is a fine example of the man at its head weaving his own personal prominence into the concern's life with lasting benefits to both organization and individual.

The record of Mr. Duquette's life offers a fine galaxy of accomplishments and consistent progress.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dieterman Are Univer-sally Liked

Most people of San Angelo and vicinity are acquainted with the Martin Linen Supply Co., and many of them have had mutually profitable dealings with this popular concern. The firm has been in business for years and during that period of time has made many friends in and around San Angelo. However, little is known except among his customers of the man behind the firm, and this is the personality we wish to present to our readers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dieterman are the people who are responsible for the success of their firm. They have worked hard to deserve the confidence which the people of this community have in them and they continue to work hard to maintain in every way that high standard which they set for themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Dieterman are two of the business people who have assisted in every manner at their disposal in the growth and development of the city of San Angelo. They are always ready and willing to lend support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. Mr. and Mrs. Dieterman deserve our heartiest congratulations on their splendid record, and we sincerely hope for their continued success.

Ossie W. Greene Is Leading Citizen

Mr. Ossie W. Green of the Plymouth Oil Co., is one of the more substantial type of citizens upon whom this community depends a great deal for leadership and guidance. He has in the past and no doubt will continue in the future to give more than his share of time and energy for the welfare of others than himself. Mr. Green is the type of person who makes friends, and friendships once formed by him are never broken by an unfriendly action on his part. His success in business is directly attributed to his application of these same principles which guide his personal affairs to all of his business dealings. He spares no effort in order that his services to the people of this community shall be commendable.

Mr. Ossie W. Greene has never been known to inject himself into a situation for the mere purpose of gaining publicity. He proceeds in a calm, unostentatious manner, and accomplishes his objectives with a quiet dignity. For that reason the true estimate of his worth is sometimes missed. We do not hesitate to recommend Mr. Ossie W. Greene to our friends as a true example of American citizenship.

This paper sincerely wishes to offer him this small evidence of heart-felt esteem.

R. H. Corbell Is Asset to Local Dist.

The progress of any community hinges to a great extent upon the achievements of the various leading men in the world of business. This is true in this locality as any other section, and local leaders are thus to be congratulated for their part in the general achievement of the area's status. One of the most prominent business men in this part of the state in Mr. R. H. Corbell, who is widely known and universally liked.

Few men have so clearly shown the success possible through the tireless effort and fine contact with the public. Mr. Corbell's name has been repeatedly linked with the success of business ventures throughout the local section, and he deserves every item of esteem accorded him.

The career of Mr. Corbell illustrates the merits of ability grounded in experience and coupled with the added asset of a pleasing and sincere personality.

Mr. R. H. Corbell is the manager of the Midco Oil and Gas Co. This company has played a prominent part in the development of this entire district and is a recognized asset to the business life of San Angelo. We compliment this firm and hope they will have many more years of continued success with Mr. R. H. Corbell as its managing director.

ONE THING And
THEN ANOTHER
By Fred Gipson

I've just been on my first real dove hunt. And now that I know all about the sport, I feel it my duty to give a little advice to others, that they may, too, learn better.

One of the first requirements of the true dove hunter is that he drive some 25 or 30 miles to the pasture he expects to shoot in. Of course, there are likely just as many doves within walking distance of his house, but without the drive there is no chance to puncture a tire, blow out a motor-head gasket, scatch up the paint job or get stuck in the mud and tear up the rear end of an automobile.

No dove hunt is complete without such experiences.

Second, pick a low, marshy place to hunt in. There'll be more doves on the high ground, but no mosquitoes. And without some lusty, bloodthirsty mosquitoes to slap, how is a man to occupy himself in between bird shots. Without them, he'd likely fall asleep.

Carry two heavy bags on the hunt, one full of shells, the other to carry birds in. That way, you'll have two empty bags to carry back. All good dove hunters come in carrying two heavy bags.

If possible, try to get a big grasshopper to sit on your shotgun barrel, back where the rear sight would be if you were hunting with a rifle. I did that. And a dove flew up and I brought up my gun to shoot and the grasshopper's hind legs sticking up looked just like the Vshaped Rocky Mountains rear sight on my old 30 Winchester back home. And then I noticed the hopper's eyes staring right back at me. And it startled me until I jerked the trigger.

And the dove flew on off, just like the rest of the doves I had been shooting at.

But with that grasshopper sitting up there and looking reproachfully at me, I had an alibi. On the way back home, I told three times how that grasshopper caused me to miss that dove.

The rest of the hunters in my party had the usual old excuses they tripped at just the wrong time, got gnats in their eyes, the dove took a bush on them and kept it, very unoriginal excuses.

Do not watch for doves coming in on long flights. No matter which way you're watching, they always fly from the other side. I figure they watch a man's eyes.

My method of avoiding this was to sit down in the grass and pay absolutely no attention to the doves. I just let them feel ignored. Then suddenly, I'd wheel and shoot behind me.

Of course, I did not bag any doves this way. But I had to burst a shell now and then so the other hunters could here me. That way, it wasn't so hard to get them to believe my story about knocking feathers out of every dove I shot at and that it was the fault of the gun and not mine that the doves did not all fall dead.

It takes a very resourceful man to figure out enough alibies to become a successful dove hunter.

If the doves become annoyed with all the blasting and congregation and attack you with murderous beak and claw, shoot, man. Blast them. Shoot to kill. Stand up for your rights in this world! Hitler does.

By following these instructions and burning up four or five boxes of shells, you should come in home along after dark, bloody with mosquito bites, your pants torn, some blisters rubbed on your feet and proudly displaying about three little old bedraggled doves.

Figure up then what they cost you. Your wife will, anyhow. If the cost is around $10.13 per dove, they ought to taste mighty good.

And you ought to know better than to go on another dove hunt. But, likely, you won't.

GIRL SCOUTS ELECT OFFICERS

The Girl Scouts met Monday, September 11, in the Fifth Grade room to elect officers. They were as follows: Dorothy Bruton, Pres.; Frances Robinson, Vice-Pres.; Pauline McLaughlin, Secretary; Fay Kink, Reporter; Dannel Baker, Social Committee. The meeting day was decided and the president appointed the program leader. "Taps" was sung and benediction was given which was followed by the dismissing.

Pep Rally And Flare Attract
Large Crowd

A Pep Rally and a gas flare attracted quite a large crowd to a spot just southeast of the Fundamental Baptist Church last Friday night. The gathering was to arouse the old football spirit in the townsfolk as well as the students.

The High School Band led a procession of cars from town to the large flare which had already gathered many onlookers. By the time the band arrived the Pep Rally began. It opened with the band playing one or two selections. Several yells were given by the Pep Squad assisted by a number of football players.

There were speeches by Coach Carruthers, Coach Huggins, Mr. Williamson, and others. Charlene Mund, an ex-leader of the E. H. S. Pep Squad, led her former school mates in a favorite yell of last year—"Yea Bo" (3 times). After singing the school song and honoring the Rio Gas Company with a yell the Pep Rally was declared over.

A MESSAGE BY REV. JACK SKELTON, PASTOR OF THE FUNDAMENTAL BAPTIST

"PRAYER"

Prayer, as one has so ably said, is the sincere desire of the heart. So what weighs heaviest upon our hearts as Christians is likely to be what we shall pray about.

The world has never been faced with the condition that it now faces, nor Christianity so challenged to make supreme sacrifice. We ask the question of the profit of old. Not by might nor by power but by spirit, saith the Lord. The Lord always has a reserve of resources for his children and prayer is the key that unlocks the door to God's treasures.

The importance of prayer is to be seen by the prominence given to it in God's word, and in the lives of those who have been used of God.

1. The qualification for prayer. The psalmist. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me. No doubt in this modern day of fast living and loose morals on the part of some of God's people has shut the windows of heaven. Therefore, there must be a coming back to God and confession of sins made before we shall be blessed, Isa. -19.1-2. Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, neither his ear heavy that He cannot hear. But iniquities have separated between you and your God. And your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. There is much praying but little prevails. James says the effectual revent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

Again the qualifications for prayer is an unfaltering belief in God. For he that cometh unto Him must believe that He is. And is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him, for without faith it is impossible to please him. In the time of Israel's going away from God and entering into idolatry God turned His back on them, but the moment they turned to God and acknowledged Him as such God heard their cry and blessed them.

So today when we need God so badly we need help that the world cannot offer. We ask the question, Why is it so?, and the answer comes from the word of God in clarion tones. "Ye have not humbled yourself. Ye have not laid hold of God with a faith that will not let go. Ye have not seperated yourself from the world."

2. The necessity of prayer—God gives prayer a prominent place in his world. Therefore, prayer is not only a great privilege but is an absolute necessity.

Jesus by precept and example set the pattern for all Christians. If it was necessary for him to pray how much more for us who have been saved by his blood.

It is a medium which God bestows blessings. Matt. 7-11. If Ye then being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children is in heaven give good things to them that ask Him. There are many things we receive through prayer that we would never receive had we not prayed. It is esential to victory over the forces of evil. Paul in Epl. -12-18 gives us the plain teaching as to the source of our power. To disregard this is to minimize the power of the evil one. There has never been but one man that was able to meet the devil and overcome and that is the man Christ Jesus. All other men that meet him in their own strength must suffer defeat. The demand of our day is very distinct and urgent. It is for spiritual power that will enable us as Christians warriors to meet the devil on every point as he seeks to hinder and destroy our testimony. That spritual power comes from God and it comes to us through the medium of prayer. Oh! today, amidst all the trials, suffering and sin. When many Christian's knees have begun to tremble, whose hands are hanging down, we need to, we must lay hold of the horns of the latter until God gives us the power to meet the enemy on the field of battle and turn back the flood tides of evil that are sweeping our land as a mighty forest fire. That is destroying faith. Debauching manhood and womanhood and would take Christ off the cross and make a mere martyr of him instead of the Savior. The only way we can meet this enemy is through prayer to him who hears and cares. Who has all and gives all that is necessary for this life, also the life to come.

3. Subject of prayer: True prayer is unselfish, includes all races and classes. Where ever man is found the prayer of the true christian reaches unto him. Especially are we admonished to pray for them of the household of faith, for ourselves, for christian workers, for our children, for rulers, these we shall deal with briefly. PRAYER—From 'Go To Church' Ad on page 7.

Much depends upon the steps our government officials take. Therefore, there is a responsibility upon God's people in the actions that are taken. Our God is able to bring peace out of war. Let us pray in the ensuing days that God will scatter the war clouds that hang over our land. The action of the government officials within a few days perhaps shall settle the matter as to whether Mother's sons shall be sent out on the field of battle to suffer untold agony. Let us pray that God's will shall lead. Oh! today, the Christians that cannot see anything to trouble him or to cause him to flee to God for help, surely he cannot see afar off.

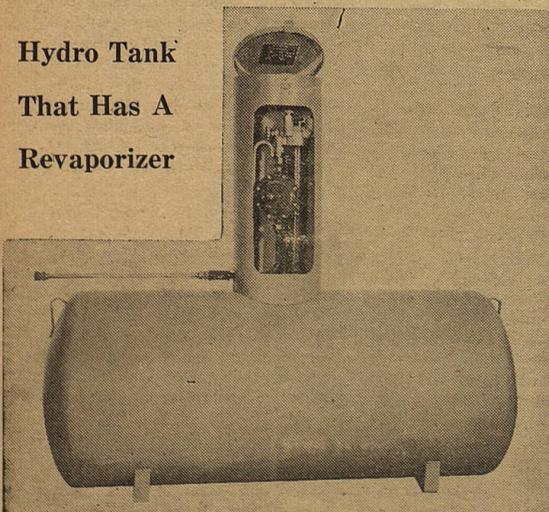

4. Results of prayer: Finally if so much depends upon a life of prayer we expect results from prayer. James 5-16, Confess your faults one to another and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. The word 'much' contained in this scripture cannot be measured by man, but we know that it goes beyond the natural power of man and lays hold of the supernatural power of God.

Also we have definite answers to our prayers. God does not send a substitute. Jno. 14,13-14. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name I will do it. Prayer glorifies God in that it exalts God and humbles man. Jno. 14-13. Whatsoever ye ask in my name that will I do. That the Father may be glorified in the son. The aim and motive of all our prayers should be to glorify God and exalt Jesus Christ. Let us ask ourselves before we pray for anything, Will this glorify God?

San Angelo Firms, Builders of West Texas

BY L. G. METCALF

Morgan Flower Shop Serves Community

One of the firms that deserves the wholehearted support of every resident of San Angelo and the surrounding territory is the Morgan Flower Shop. This firm has for years carried its share of the burden of building up San Angelo and the trade area which it serves. It is firms of this kind that are wholly deserving of their success. Mention should also be made of the fact that the Morgan Flower Shop and their representatives in the smaller communities have lent their support to all civic projects and no effort has been spared to see that every single obligation of civic duty has been discharged.

Of course the success of this concern is due to the far-seeing policies of its management, and this management is deserving of special commendation for those policies.

Mrs. H. T. Finley, the representative of the Morgan Flower Shop in Eldorado, has gained the respect and admiration of our readers for her methods of conducting the business locally. Mrs. Finley thoroughly deserves the success which is hers, and we heartily wish for her a continuation of that success.

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not the man or men who play the leading role in the development of their city are the same men who are pre-eminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. Such a man is Mr. E. E. Wilson, Windcharger distributor in San Angelo and to whom we take this occasion to pay a deserved tribute.

Mr. E. E. Wilson has proved very ably that he is an organizer of unusual ability, for it is largely due to his sound and practical ideas that his company holds its high position in the opinion of its many customers. Mr. Wilson has made his business a "hobby", with the result that it is today one of the most popular companies in San Angelo, giving to its customers an excellence of service seldom equalled.

It is true also that Mr. E. E. Wilson is one of the leaders in the community improvement, and has given freely of his time and energy in the promotion of those enterprises which have benefited San Angelo and the surrounding territory. We are glad to voice our praise of a man who is successful in his own business and who has time also to give to community advancement.

S. S. Kister Ranks High As Leader

This Newspaper deems it a great pleasure in this review of outstanding men and firms that have been a great aid to the growth and development of this section of Texas, to place such a man as Mr. S. S. Kister up and above all others in this rank. In the past few men have exceeded him in contributing of their time, energy and finance to the development and civic betterment of San Angelo and this district.

Mr. Kister for many years recognized as one of the more prominent and outstanding real estate dealers of this section of the state, still retains that distinction in the admiration and respect of his wide circle of friends. His interest in, and the very valuable assistance he has rendered to many projects of a civic nature reflect the principles which he has so successfully applied to his business dealings.

We of the Eldorado Success sincerely hope that Mr. Kister's future will be as colorful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past. We also wish to offer him our thanks and congratulations for his splendid record of achievement and his many years of service to the people of San Angelo and our district.

Sol Mayer Is Civic Leader

Men of the community who work for the best interests of the community, usually are leaders in whatever they attempt. They are men who can be depended upon and who are called upon to help with all worthy projects. Such a man is Mr. Sol Mayer, prominent San Angelo capitalist. He stands at all times prepared to assist his community and is ever ready to take off his coat, if necessary, and work for it.

It is because we have men of the type of Mr. Mayer that this community has made such a record for growth, expansion and progress, and because of these things is so favorably advertised and so well known throughout the country. It is men like him who have had the vision to realize the possibilities of the community and he has given of his finances, his time and his energies to make the vision come true.

If Mr. Sol Mayer feels that a proposed civic project will be helpful to his community no special invitation is necessary to get him interested. And because of his enthusiasm and willingness to help he has won the admiration and praise of his fellow business and professional men. We take pleasure in paying this brief tribute to a man who has ever been in the forefront of the business life of San Angelo.
