

On The Divide

J. E. Jones, who has been raising horses for 40 years, and is now breeder of Palominos, points out a few features that comprises an ideal horse.

Mr. Jones says that the animal should weigh from 900 to 1,000 pounds; neck should be wide and round, looking down on it; but not too long from a side view; eyes should be large and bright and wide between the eyes. Nostils big and open; muzzle, small and thin through the throat latch; high crest or arched neck; medium thick through the jaw; ears small and set forward pointed, not too round on the end; withers high and thin; wide full chest; all four feet under him, bunched, not spread out; legs not too short, with plenty daylight under him; back short and straight; tail carried high out from the horse's body; hair fine and silky; short from the knees down and medium heavy bone; fetlocks high and almost straight; no hair around fetlocks, hair here should be very short; good round hips and wide across hips behind; stifles full.

Mr. Jones is now getting everything in readiness for his big Palomino sale next Wednesday. Buyers from California and other states as well as all parts of Texas will be at the ring when Ray Lum of Vicksburg, Miss. raps the hammer for the opening of the sale.

A herd of 56 head of late guilting steers and heifers were purchased this week by Charles Mund at 7c for heifers and 7 3-4c for steers. Steers averaged 580 pounds and heifers 555 pounds. The deal was handled by Whitten-Whitten and Isaacs, it is understood.

Eldred Roach delivered to Chas. Mund a car of steer yearlings at 7 3-4c. They averaged 555 pounds.

PS: Deer stories will begin to make their debut this morning.

SECOND GUESSING

(By L. T. Barber)

WHAT WE SAW SATURDAY:

Something we have been looking for since the first of the season flared up right in our eyes during the ball game between Rocksprings and the Eagles. We have been wanting to see a team with determination and enough pep to go into the game with intentions of winning. We saw that team Saturday. The Eagles were a different bunch of ball players. You could easily tell before the game, they meant business. Rocksprings was in for a tough afternoon. There was not a chance for the Bulldogs. Everything they tried backfired before it could do any good. Their line plays and runs that have been hard to handle for other teams just could past the line of scrimmage. The Eagles proved their ability as champions.

There was more team work during the tussle Armistice Day than has been displayed since the first of the season. Every one was doing his best to carry out his assignment. Every boy on the team was trying to beat the other boy to tackles and blocks. Even at

Days In War Recalled By Local Veterans

In an interesting and impressive Armistice Day program presented at the Lions club luncheon Wednesday, events during the world war and on the signing of independence were recalled by three Eldorado veterans who were present. Miss Oma Ford gave violin selections of war-time numbers, accompanied by Miss Rosalyne Jones at the piano.

H. T. Finley, with company L, 23rd infantry, 2nd division, who spent 14 months in France, related incidents just preceding and after armistice was signed. Mr. Finley was with the only Schleicher county boy who was killed in line of duty, Bev McCormick, who fell on November 2, 1918. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McCormick, a brother of Don, Rex and Van McCormick, and Mrs. Mae Tisdale. He was killed in action at Meuse Argonne, offensive, and buried in St. Romaine cemetery in France. After the war his body was removed to his hometown and buried with military honors in the local cemetery. A monument, erected by Schleicher county citizens in his memory, now stands in the court yard here. The local post of the American Legion is named in his honor.

In Mr. Finley's division was also R. I. Cloud, who was wounded in battle. Many other Schleicher county boys were in other divisions on the front.

E. W. Brooks, with the Army Mobile Veterinary hospital No. 1, was in France 13 months. He told of incidents that occurred in the closing hours of the war.

E. C. Hill, in the tank core, did not go to France, but was aboard a ship to sail when Armistice was signed. He related incidents he experienced during the closing of the war.

Building Continues In Eldorado

Building continues in Eldorado as residences are being constructed in almost every section of the city.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graves on the San Angelo highway, near Glendale addition, is now under construction. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kerr, also on the highway, is being built. In the Northwest part of the city, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Godwin is going up. On the Murchison road, a home is being built for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newlin. A house is also now being built by O. E. Conner; the O'Harrow residence and the Jack Ratliff home are nearing completion.

It is reported that three additional homes will be started in the near future.

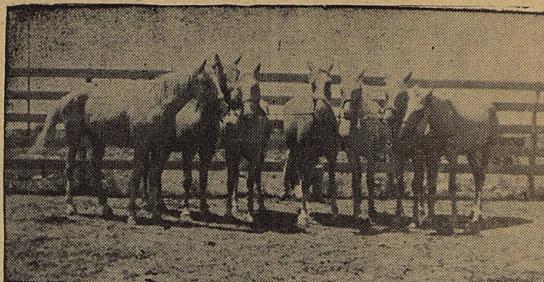

Several lots have been purchased by individuals who probably plan to build. Miss D'Ford, local school teacher, has purchased a lot just north of the school. A lot in the Northeast section of the city has been purchased by Dr. Pennington.

Special Masonic Meeting Planned

J. E. Jones To Stage Auction Sale Of Polomino Horses Wed.

Horse buyers from as far away as California and from various parts of Texas will be present for the bidding when Ray Lum of Vicksburg, Miss., climbs on the auction block here next Wednesday to open J. E. Jones' sale of Palominos. A total of 46 head will go to highest bidders in what is termed the largest sale of high grade Palominos ever held in Texas.

Elaborate plans have been made by Mr. Jones for the big sale which will be held at his barns in the Glendale addition here. In the sale there will be twenty-three full blood Palominos, subject to registration, including four young studs, the balance including already bred brood mares and fillies. The other twenty-three are quarter-bred sorrels and bays.

Ray Lum, auctioneer, engaged to conduct the sale, is widely known throughout the country. He is said to be among the best horse auctioneers in the country and Mr. Jones believes that he will furnish a great deal of interest to those who attend the sale.

Mr. Jones has been engaged in raising horses for the past 40 years. Coming from central Texas, he has been in West Texas for the past eleven years. For the last two years, he has lived in Eldorado. In summing up the sale here next week, Mr. Jones says that he believes the Palomino is the best stock of horses he has ever worked with and he believes the sale will be a big success in view of the widespread interest in Palominos.

J. E. Jones received a telegram Thursday afternoon from an interested horse buyer from San Francisco, Calif. seeking the purchase of a Palomino stud and mare. "I'm getting these letters and telegrams almost every day," Mr. Jones said, "I'm sure my sale will be a big success, we will have lots of buyers here."

Deer Run For Cover; Local Streets Empty First Day Of Season

All smart deer and trukeys started hiding out early Thursday morning as Eldorado hunters joined with the crowds of nimrods who took to the brush to bag a buck or slay a turkey as the season opened. At noon Thursday no success by any of those out had been reported.

Streets were practically vacated and stores were empty, evidencing the large number who had gone. Among those to venture out to try their skill at bringing down an antlered friend were: L. T. Wilson and Midred Deaton who went to Sanderson and W. F. Meador, W. F. Meador, Jr., and Thomas Richard Jones at Abilene hunting on the J. S. Sammons ranch. Dick Bearce, Eldred Roach and A. J. Bailey of Abilene left Wednesday for the Edwards hills near Rocksprings for a few days hunting on the ranch of Mrs. Luther Davis.

A. D. Richey, Ed Reynolds, Sam Ogesby, Dave Gregory, Jess Thompson, J. F. Binkley, Erwin Mund, J. A. Burlison, Ben Hext, Johnny Isaacs, Marvin McDonald, and Fae Bell Enochs. Accompanying a local group were Mr. and Mrs. "Smoky" Arnold formerly of Eldorado and C. E. Branson of Cleveland.

Locals Will Play Ozona Team Here Saturday At 2:30

The Eldorado Eagles turned back the Rocksprings Bulldogs in no uncertain terms last Saturday on a slow rainsoaked football field. The score, 13-0, does not tell the story at all. Eldorado was the victor all the way; playing in the Bulldogs territory from the start to the finish of the game.

A very determined bunch of boys took the field last Saturday afternoon and their determination could not be denied. Rocksprings had asked for a game in the mud and the Eldorado team was ready to give to them.

Eldorado kicked off and Rocksprings took over on their thirty-five. Running plays failed to gain and they were forced to punt. The Eagles started on their twenty-five, and failing to make a first in two plays elected to punt on third down, from the thirty. Hill punted out on the Rocksprings fifteen. In this series of downs, Newlin broke through and blocked a Bulldog punt and it looked like a sure score but a miscue lost the ball for the Eagles and the Bulldogs were safe for a few more minutes. The first quarter was most of a punting affair, with the Eagles gaining much yardage in the exchanges.

The second quarter opened up with the home team on the offensive. On off tackle smashes by Hill and Underwood, the Eagles went across for the first score, Underwood carrying over center from the three yard line. He also hit right tackle for the extra point.

The Bulldogs were kept in the hole most of the second quarter. On one occasion, they completed a pass for thirty five yards which put them in dangerous territory but this offensive was short lived and the Eagles again took over.

The second score came in the third quarter, when quarter back Bob Williams decided to do a little scampering of his own. After completing a pass to Newlin on the Bulldog twenty five, he cut wide of his own left end and behind some nice blocking from Hill, Underwood, and others went across standing up. Halbert's try for point was low.

The rest of the game was Eldorado all the way. The Bulldogs and with many substitutes in the game and holding their own, the game ended with the ball in the Eagles possession on their thirty yard line.

There was nothing one could take from the play of the Rocksprings boys. They were in there fighting every step of the way but were just out fought and out played. The Eagles chalked up twelve first downs to two for the Bulldogs. Eldorado lost ninety-five yards from penalties. Five of these of the fifteen yard variety.

Every man on the field could be and worked the same way throughout.

SALES TO PORTUGAL

An example of the shifting of trade already caused by the war in Europe is seen in the recent authorization by the government of Portugal of a purchase of $5,000,000 worth of railroad equipment in the United States.

The first order is for stainless steel passenger coaches, to be followed by purchases of locomotives and rails. Until the outbreak of the war Portugal's imports came largely from Germany and England.

While the proposed transactions will be on a cash basis, it is understood that efforts will be made to dispose of Portuguese goods of equal value in the United States. These goods will consist of cork, preserved fish, port wine and olive oil from Portugal, and coffee from here colonies.

Negotiations for this deal were conducted by Charles B. McDaniel, an American now living in Paris, who has formed a trading corporation to promote foreign trade with the United States.

Although the amount involved in this initial transaction is not in itself very great, it indicates that a good deal of trade which formerly was carried on with nations now at war may be diverted to the United States, because of war conditions.

Nobody's Business

AUSTIN—Pensions for the aged continued to be the major political issue in Texas this weekend, as Austin seethed with discussion of the prospects of a special session, and saw a new style in legislative procedure being tried out. Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, having failed to get agreement from a majority of legislators on his sales tax proposal, checked the problem back to the solons, by indicating he will not call a session unless the legislators agree in advance to pass a specific tax bill. Leaders of the anti-sales tax group, joined by several House members who supported SJR 12, the constitutional sales tax program of the special interests and Gov. O'Daniel, were seeking pledges by mail to an omnibus bill, similar to the one passed by the House, and killed in Senate committee, at the regular session. Observers here discounted the probability of getting the solons to tie their hands in advance by a pledge to vote for any bill, and the special interest lobbyists continued a high-pressure drive throughout the State to mobilize sentiment behind a movement to oppose any special session.

NOVEMBER PAY OFF

Meanwhile, Texas pensioners to the total of 121,646, were assured November checks averaging $8.24 each, with the approval by the Federal Social Security board of the grant for the month from Federal funds. The new setup of the State Welfare Board has not yet been approved by the Social Security Board, but the November grant was okayed regardless.

An indication of growing opposition to the economic lunacy of wild-eyed pension schemes elsewhere in the United States was seen in the defeat by substantial majorities, of the $50 a month for all over 60 plan in Ohio, and the "ham and egg" or $30 every Thursday brainstorm in California. Voters apparently are becoming gradually aware that unless reason is applied to the social security program, it will bankrupt those who have to pay the taxes to support Utopia.

STATE EYES DALLAS

Throughout Texas, spectators were watching with interest a political situation in Dallas, where James Aston, 28 year old city manager, former A.M. football star, is handling an issue that is full of political dynamite. A group of Dallas firemen brought suit against the city to collect alleged back pay for "overtime" which accrued after the state law fixing maximum hours and minimum wages for city firemen was enacted. Aston, backed the City Council, retaliated by slashing the city's contribution to the Firemen's pension fund enough to meet the claim of $195,000, if the firemen win. He also delivered an ultimatum to the firemen that all must resign from the Dallas Firemen's Union, an AF of U affiliate, by November 23, or lose their city jobs. Aston is the youngest manager of a large city in the United States, and his handling of the ticklish issue in Dallas is regarded as having a large bearing upon his future.

That the State doesn't have all the economic problems was indicated, also, when it was announced Dallas County's general fund overdraft had mounted to the unprecedented level of $849,516, and county politicians asked Attorney General Gerald Mann to okay a scheme to refund the debt by issuing warrants, without a vote of the taxpayers. Ex-Attorney General Bill McCraw previously had held such a refunding scheme was illegal.

HOT CHECK LAW IN DOUBT

Attorney General Gerald Mann ruled the new hot-check law, enacted at the regular session is legal until some court throws it out. Mann, declaring he never ruled against a criminal statute, if there was any basis of doubt at all, indicated he believed the law violates the state and Federal constitutions. Sponsors of the law are rather unhappy about it, because under its term, the holder of a hot check cannot file a charge against the maker, collect the debt, and then drop the charges, as was heretofore the custom. Most hot check holders don't want to send the check passer to prison they just want to collect the debt. Much ado about nothing is the best description of the work of the House committee headed by Lon Alsop, to revise the rules of the lower legislative body. New rules will have to be adopted by any succeeding legislature. There is a normal turnover of 50 percent in House membership, and next time, it probably will be higher. New members will probably not approve the proposals of the committee to limit the committee service and other powers of "freshmen" will have the votes at the next regular session. The committee session here was attended by Alsop, Bryan Bradbury, Abilene; E. H. Thornton, Galveston, DeWitt Hale, Farmersville, and Jim Taylor, Kerens.

Area Meeting Of Future Homemakers In San Angelo Attended By Local H. E. Girls

Saturday November fourth, sixteen girls who belong to the Eldorado chapter of the Future Homemakers attended the area meeting of Future Homemakers which met in San Angelo.

Over eighty schools were represented. The largest group attending was the Sweetwater chapter. The meeting was held in the Municipal auditorium from nine thirty A.M. until three thirty P.M.

Hazel Doyle, President of this chapter served as a delegate from Eldorado. At nine thirty there was a meeting of the House of Delegates and then registration.

The meeting was called to order by the President, and the Girls creed was repeated in unison. Following this Dr. Woods from Brownwood read the invocation.

From 11:00 o'clock till 12:00 was a style show sponsored by the merchants of San Angelo.

From twelve to one thirty was luncheon hour, and the girls were at leisure to do as they chose.

Beginning at one thirty Miss Helen Schochart of Ft. Stockton led the audience in group singing.

After the singing Miss Eleanor Priole of Ft. Stockton gave a interesting talk on "Homemaking in China." This was illustrated by a group of girls dressed in Chinese Costumes.

The last on the program was a play presented by the Eden Chapter.

The officers for next year are: President, Modena Dyce of San Angelo; Vice President, Billie Faye Horn of Lohn; Corresponding Secretary, Betty Jo Johnson of Sweetwater; Recording Secretary, Oleita Fletcher of Odessa; Treasurer, Virginia Duncan of Mertzon; Reporter, Freddie Mae Hodges of Sterling City; Song Leader, Bitsy Ruth Hull of Stanton; Pianist, Ruth Ann Dipsey of Big Springs; Parliamentarian, Lynelle Schacalford of Kermit; Historian, Patsy Teran of Buffalo.

The next Area meeting will be the last Saturday in September of 1940 at Sweetwater.

Girl Gets Homesick 10 Blocks From Mom

She's away at college just ten blocks from home, but that doesn't keep Leta Underwood, Texas State College for Women sophomore, from getting homesick. She lives in the dormitory, writes her family once a week, and isn't going home until Thanksgiving because she made a bet with her brother that living in Denton wouldn't keep her from "going away to college."

EAT VEGETABLES ALL WINTER

One reason children used to be given sulphur and molasses or sassafras tea in the spring to "tone up" their blood was because they got so few green vegetables during the winter months. That's an opinion advanced by Margaret Stewart, County Home Demonstration agent.

"The prospects are that we may have to do something equivalent to resorting to grandmother's remedies next spring unless we begin to do something about green vegetables immediately," she warns.

Where weather will not permit planting vegetables in the open garden, a fram garden may provide quick maturing vegetables like mustard and tender greens, spinach, lettuce, parsley radishes, and onions. The agent says it is wise to get an extra supply of seed and plant them thick because seed germination is poor this time of the year.

"If you will soak the seed over night in warm water they'll germinate faster", Miss Stewart says "You'll need to drain off the water and dry the seed out by mixing with sand in order to separate them for planting. If seed are planted in shallow trench and the soil packed around them by tramping, the moisture won't dry out so fast and you'll get a better and quicker stand of plants."

Second Guessing

times overanxiousness caused a team mate to get knocked down. This is even better than waiting for the other fellow.

You could not pick out any particular outstanding boys in the Saturdays game. When you would name one, you would have to name several more for their blocking which paved the way for the ball carriers. Holes were opened wide enough for the fat men to wobble through.

Mentioning a few, and giving the entire team credit for the successes of the plays. Halbert, the light weight of the Eagles backfield was doing quite a bit of cutting up with the hide, especially on punt returns. Williams, at quarter back was calling a well balanced game and kept the opposition on their toes. He did not show up in the ball toting department until the last half. Then he went to town on some nice sweep-

Sixty of the best musicians at Tarleton College, Stephenville, composing the Tarleton College Military Band, recently performed between halves at the Tarleton and

Cisco; Marvin Zinder, Houston; Joe Dyson, Stephenville; Billy Joe Hall, Midland; Robert T. Heaton, Stenville; Creel Grady, Brownwood; John Molloy, San Saba; W. M. Streckert, Brownwood;

ing end runs. Underwood's blocking and smashing paved the way for the first score. The hardest runner of the day was Hill. Consistently gaining yards on tackle slants, his hard running sometimes caused him to fall from his own force. Another outstanding feat of Hill was the way he handled a soggy ball in punting. Several punts went better than fifty yards.

The almost forgotten men in the front line will have to come in for the greater part of the praise in this game. Credit has to go to a fast charging line that kept the opposition well under control and for the gaps for their ball carriers to come through. Twice punts were blocked by charging Eagles. Many times Rocksprings ball carries found themselves smothered behind the line before they could get underway. Naming the outstanding boys in the line we will have to name the entire list. Wall and Cozzens at guard; Henderson and McCormick, two tackles that were rough and ready; the end play of Newlin, Isaacs David Williams and Page was tops. Newlin was outstanding in his defensive play, getting credit for the first blocked punt. Joe Luckett, at center and backing up the line was rough on the defense. All in all it was a great high school team that clinched the championship for the Eldorado High School out there last Saturday.

Doctors were almost in demand last Saturday afternoon. Some of the Aggie supporters were in very bad condition. Heart trouble was the main ailment. Tiny Godwin, Dusty Nevills and Bob Garvey were the worst afflicted. After the Eldorado game Godwin and Nevills had almost walked trails in the floor of the cafe and Garvey almost tore the radio to pieces, trying to stop the game in the last six seconds of play, when Johnnie Clements was shooting the football all over the field and just missing his mark by inches. The longest day of the year was thirty seconds of football last Saturday. for this trio.

Tiny Godwin was seen the other night wearing a red cap. His object was to keep those SMU sharpshooters from taking a pot shot at him.

The Eagles have clinched the district championship and have only one more game left on their schedule. This is with Ozona Saturday afternoon. This game will not have any bearing on the winner of the District but it would have a lot of bearing on feelings of the visitors should they spring an upset and score a win over the high flying Eagles. We can remember a near up set some time back by a team that did not as much as have an outside chance to score on the Divide boys, much less win. But something happened and something could happen next Saturday. It is always easy for a team low in the standing to rise up and play a bang up game with the ones setting on the top perch. We are not predicting an up set of this kind. We believe the home boys have found themselves again and will be in there all the way from now on through the Bi-District.

Having had a pretty bad week in our guessing last week, did not slow us up. It does not cost anything to do this kind of guessing unless you lose your temper from the razzing you get now and then. Our temper has been fairly well under control and have been able to take what has been dished out. The one consolation is that the big boys miss them as well.

Not giving up here we go again. Probably the most exciting game of the week, although it does not have much at stake as for as conference standings is concerned will be staged at Austin between the TCU Horned Frogs and the Texas Steers. The Frogs won one last week end and may have found themselves, while Texas took a real shellacking in a mud battle at Baylor. Barring another wet Saturday Austin, we will still have to stay with Texas. SMU goes to the Ozarks to do battle with the Razorbacks and following that affair at College Station last Saturday may not be in tip top shape but a team that has been playing the ball they have, can not be overlooked in this game today. The Mustangs should win, but not easily. Baylor should have another easy time with Centenary. A.&M. carry their undefeated team to Houston Saturday and will find a steamed up bunch of Owls but should have little trouble in overpowering the Wobbling Rice team.

The football boys had considerable trouble watching the game here last Saturday. They had to stand up in order to look over the shoulder of the fans that had ganged on the side lines and even at times on the field. There has been some complaint, especially from the boys. There was an excuse for this Saturday, as they had to walk around to keep warm but Eldorado is equipped with two good stands that offer a nice view from all over the field. Also take into consideration that it is a fifteen yard penalty for fans to get on the field and this might some time cost your team a ball game. For the football boys on the bench and from the coaches viewpoint give the subs a chance to watch the game.

REGULAR CARE ESSENTIAL FOR GOOD POULTRY PRODUCTION

"I have found that regular care and cleanliness is the first and essential step toward good poultry production", is the statement Mrs. E. M. Roberts, poultry demonstrator of the Cliff Home Demonstration Club, makes. Mrs. Roberts has averaged cleaning out the house every two or three weeks. The flock was culled and pullorum tested in February and September of this year, and regular treatment has been given for lice and scaly legs.

Emil Mattert of Holeyton Ill., has constructed a bass viol out of a bull's hide with hair on it; a flute out of a pig's windpipe; a violin out of cows horns, and a mandolin out of a gourd—all playable.

Only human tracks were visible from a spot where a cow was stolen n Orangesburg S. C., but a policeman followed them and arrested a suspect, who admitted he had put shoes on the cow to mislead pursuers.

Christmas Cards are available at The Success Office.

SPICE SHELF ADDS CONVENIENCE TO KITCHEN

"I built a small spice shelf underneath one side of my main cabinet which I find to be a wonderful aid when it comes to finding my spices to cook with" is one of the things Mrs. J. Tom Williams told club members and visitors in her home recently when she had kitchen improvement day.

Mrs. Williams also has an extra shelf built in the cabinet which gives more room for the dishes.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP
If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dances and parties.
BUT if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.
So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical resistance and thus aids in giving you more pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders.
You'll find Pinkham's Compound WELL WORTH TRYING!

Its banks are the shores of justice in which the white flower of peace sends down the root of happiness.
