Community Thanksgiving Service To Be Held

Memorial Building - Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

by Jane Johnson

We are all of one family. It is the spirit of our humanness which makes us brothers and sisters. It is this unique quality of spirit which enables us to come together as one to celebrate the joy of life and the thankfulness of who we are.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

The Eldorado Ministerial Alliance is alive and well in our community! In fact, this multi-denominational organization, led by pastors of various Eldorado religious congregations, has planned an ecumenical Community Thanksgiving Service. Here is the opportunity for every family in Schleicher County to gather together in the Memorial Building at 7:00 p.m., November 24th, 1991 and share in community-wide celebration of friendship, joy, song, freedom - all that for which we can be thankful.

The service will also present a wonderful opportunity for individuals, organizations,

Sunday school classes, or congregations to help those members of our community who do not have the bounty of a well-stocked food pantry.

There will be a special offering in which canned goods and non-perishable food items can be contributed for the Alliance to distribute here in Eldorado.

Some of the most needed items are those which cannot be purchased with food stamps by law, or which are basic high-nutrition foodstuffs.

At this time, the Thanksgiving service is to include short scripture readings, vocal and musical celebration, and a Litany of Thanksgiving in which representatives of several Community organizations and clubs will present symbols of those things for which we are all thankful. Organizations and clubs represented in this celebration will include: Schleicher County 4-H Club, Eldorado Volunteer Fire Department, Medical Center Hospital Auxiliary, Hospital Personnel, Medical Clinic Personnel, S.C.I.S.D., Schleicher County Public Library, Eldorado Boy Scouts, Schleicher County Nursing Home, the American Legion Post, the Masonic Lodge, Order of the Eastern Star, the Lion's Club, Eldorado Chamber of Commerce and Chamber Pride Committees, and Representatives of various Religious Congregations of Eldorado.

Many more neighbors and friends will be contributing to this county-wide celebration! Fall harvest decorations will be overseen by Mrs. Pat Sykes and Mrs. Lucy Page. Musical celebrations of Thanksgiving are to include the Eldorado Community Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Page and Mrs. Lucille McWhorter, and including accompaniment of Mr. Lynn Meador; Adult Handbell Choirs from the First Baptist and First Presbyterian Churches, under direction of Mrs. Carol Graham and Mrs. Maxine Page; and vocal celebration from members of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish Musical Ensemble, under the direction of Ms. Cindy Veliz. An additional joy will be having members of the Eldorado High School Brass Quintet - Shane Dresner, Lee Ann Lamb, Stephanie Nolan, Linda Hardy, and Cody Arendt - raising their instruments in celebration and praise. Mr. Gary Smith and Dr. Patrick Johnson will be *First Baptist Church: Rev. Paul Hawley Wolfe, First Presbyterian Church: Rev. accompanying the procession of sharing with a guitar ensemble. What an exciting opportunity for all of us to participate in a celebration of brotherhood and life within our "City of Gold!"

Industrial Technology Class Building Classroom

This year, for the first time, an industrial technology class is being offered to 7th and 8th grade students. Mr. Barton stated that the purpose for implementing a class such as this is to provide an opportunity for our students to learn vocational skills as well as academic skills. The skills being taught by the instructor, George Spinks, include woodworking, metal construction, plumbing, and electrical wiring. Other areas being covered are foundation work using cement, laying water and gas lines, installing sewer systems, and work with fiberglass and plastics.

These classes have already completed two buildings which are located underneath the visitor's grandstands at the football stadium. These buildings are currently being used to store track and other athletic equipment.

Amazing as it sounds, these classes are in the process of building their own classroom and shop. They are adding on to a preexisting building which is located in the southeast corner of the bus yard. So far, they have plumbed it with gas, water, and sewer lines. The steel reinforcements in the foundation have already been tied, and Mr. Spinks is waiting for a pretty day to pour the foundation. The students will then install the electrical circuits and finish the outside walls.

As you can imagine, the kids are excited about this class and enrollment has already exceeded the planned facility.

TOP OF THE DIVIDE

by Thomas Giovannitti

There is much being said about the need to spend more money in medical research and I agree with that idea, but sometimes they go far.

Last week there was an article in the paper about heart attacks. It seems that this group of medical scientist have discovered that short people have a three percent greater risk of getting a heart attack than do taller people.

Now, just exactly how does that information help any of us, including us short people. It is bad enough that there was, a few years back, a song disparaging short people - and now this!

Even if it is true that short people should be more at risk, just exactly am I supposed to do about it? I mean this is as tall as I am ever going to get. Now, I am taller than my parents and my children are taller than me, but none of us are really tall enough, I think, to avoid yet another danger to our health - mainly shortness.

Of course, who is to say what short really is? Maybe I just need to hang around with people shorter than myself and all that will happen is that those people will have to look out for their hearts! I may have a little trouble finding enough people shorter than myself, not counting fourth graders and below, but if it could save my life, then I had better try. I have no idea where this might all end. Basketball players would have no one to associate with since everyone would be protecting against heart attack.

It appears to me that our medical research dollars could be better spent. Maybe this study was done by tall doctors!

County Agents Report

Membership in 4-H, Texas' largest youth organization, has surged to nearly half a million this year. Enrollment in the 4-H Youth and Development program increased from more than 402,400 to over 446,000 -- a 10 percent gain since September 1990. This follows a 30 percent jump from the previous year.

"The 1990 census figures indicate that Texas has a little more than 4 million young people, ages 5 to 19, who are eligible for 4-H," said Dr. Nelson Jacob, 4-H and youth development specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The recent increase means that 4-H is reaching 11 percent -- one out of every 10 youth in the state."

"When you add the 60,000 plus 4-H adult volunteers to the total 446,000 youth enrollment, we are impacting half a million people a year," said Dr. Lynne Thibodeaux, assistant director of the Extension 4-H and Youth Development program.

"I think several factors have contributed to this increase," she said. "People are recognizing that youth in general are in a crisis situation, and they're making more efforts to get their children involved in the local programs."

Grants from various donors also have made it possible to initiate new programs. Counties are piloting youth-at-risk and literacy programs while others are being replicated to reach new audiences in the state.

"Also, we have started the Texas 4-H Clover Kids program designed for children in kindergarten through second grade," she said. "So much of our entire body of knowledge as adults actually is gained from infancy to about 8 years of age."

Laugh and Live

"You just wait until your father gets home!"

--Mom

Just when I think I know it all, I learn something new! I was riding with a friend down Highway #277 between Sonora and Del Rio. Every so often, I would notice something that looked like a little blue box hanging in a tree. Now, since I had never noticed little blue boxes hanging in trees before, I thought to myself, "Self, are they little blue boxes hanging in the trees. And if they are little blue boxes hanging in the trees, why are they there?" I did not have an answer.

So, I asked my friend, "Friend, what is that hanging in the trees."

My friend said, "LITTLE BLUE BOXES!"

"Why are they there," I ignorantly asked.

"To catch the KILLER BEES," he knowingly answered.

I didn't believe it, so I made him stop the truck and I made a personal inspection of one of the little blue boxes. HE WAS RIGHT!! The writing on the box said three things:

1. THIS IS A GOVERNMENT BOX.
2. IT IS FOR CATCHING INSECTS.
3. DON'T MESS WITH IT.

Well sir, let me tell you, I was not about to mess with it. How was I to know if those things really worked or not. If they did work, I could have been attacked by the occupants of that little bee hotel and if they were in fact KILLER BEES, they might have done their thing on ME.

I was not about to mess with that box. But it made me think. Why does the government think that the KILLER BEES are going to come up Highway #277? If I was a KILLER BEE, I think I would try and stick to the back roads. By now, they surely must know about the Border Patrol station out side of Del Rio. As they were born and raised in Mexico, they would definitely be considered illegal aliens.

I think that instead of laying those traps on a South to North route, I would have lined them up across the border in an East to West path.

Then again, what do I know? The government is spending our money so wisely. Do we really have any room for complaint?

Till The Next Time...

MAY GOD BLESS!

Letters To The Editor

Dear Gary,
 I most heartily agree with Steve Blaylock's and many others concerns regarding the preservation of the good Eldorado water. As was mentioned about the jug of water at Jack Elder's service station, I too remember when I was a kid and our good friends, the Hugos, would come to visit us from South Texas, they would always insist on taking a bottle of that "good Eldorado water" home with them. Good water is like good health; you never know how good you have it until you have lost it.

 President Bush, the vice president back in 1988, also a free trader of Adam Smith could have arranged a hostage deal without going to Paris. Whether he went to Paris or not, was it right to keep the hostage any longer than necessary? Why did Vice President Bush speak at the Zionist organization of American at Washington Hotel on October 19, 1980? Could it be that he wanted to let them know that he did his part like Henry Kissinger?

Middle School Theatre Arts Class Plans Busy Year

The last part of September, Mrs. Willis's theatre arts classes dazzled the Middle School with their performance of "Handbook Highlights." This was an original script by Mrs. Willis but was edited by the students. The theme of the play was designed to promote school spirit and display the benefits of school rules. Mrs. Willis's 7th and 8th graders performed the play and did an outstanding job from costuming and makeup to creative acting. A performance enjoyed by all!

During the first part of October, both the 6th and 7th grade theatre arts classes graced us with their own version of such well-known fairy tales as: The Three Bears, a spin-off to The Three Pigs, Hansel & Gretel, and Rumpelstiltskin. The kids eagerly presented it to the elementary as well.

The upcoming events for our Middle School theatre arts classes consist of: 7th and 8th grade class creating, writing, and presenting a script on nursery rhymes, and the 6th and 7th grade classes are preparing for duet-acting scenes. Promises to be very entertaining!!

The theatre arts classes also had a raffle to raise money for stage makeup and props to be used primarily on Middle School.

The upcoming date to remember is: December 4th! All of the kids involved in the theatre arts classes will travel to Abilene to see the Chamber Theatre National Tour Group from Massachusetts.

What a treat! Keep up the good work, Mrs. Willis!

Outstanding Wildlife Conservationist Award Presented

The Rocking R Ranch was the recipient of this year's Outstanding Wildlife Conservationist award at the local Eldorado Game Dinner. The award recognizes the rancher for his work and achievements in game management. Steve Lewis submitted the following information regarding the management program being conducted on the Rocking R Ranch:

I am keenly interested in wildlife management. My family has greatly enjoyed the great hunting opportunities available at the Rocking R Ranch. Mr. grandfather, the late A. J. Lewis, Sr., always enjoyed the abundance of native wildlife at the ranch. He was responsible, in my opinion, for a very unusual winter turkey roost. He began feeding turkeys in the 1960's free choice corn from October to January. We never disturb the main roost or shoot at any turkey from a vehicle. As a result, we have a group of turkeys on the north end of the ranch that number between 1000 and 1800 turkeys which roost there every winter.

Recently, in 1988, 1989 and 1990 I have given approximately 575 turkeys to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for the turkey relocation program.

The goal of the game management program on the Rocking R Ranch is to produce mature quality bucks. Emphasis is placed on providing habitat for whitetail deer and turkey.

The ranch collects two types of data. First, we conduct an aerial survey. This provides us with a representation of a buck to doe ratio, fawn survival, deer density and quality buck index (percent of buck with 8 points or more).

Secondly, we collect harvest data which consists the following: a) sex of deer, weight of deer, age of deer; b) if a doe, was she lactating, if buck, number of points, spread of antlers, beam lengths; c) and point lengths.

No quail are hunted. Very few dove are hunted.

Turkey harvest data is registered.

The ranch had a very high deer density in the 1960s and early 1970s possibly as high as a deer to 6 - 8 acres. The ranch was never commercially hunted until 1976. At that time 3800 acres was leased. Light buck harvest only by family members was always the rule on the remaining 10,000 acres during the 1960s, 1970s and early 1980s.

Then came the early and mid 1980s. Our deer herd deteriorated. We suffered from too few deer and poor buck to doe ratios. The drought of 1984 devastated the deer herd. Therefore, in 1985 we contacted Tommy Hailey in Breckenridge, Texas with the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department.

First, we conducted an aerial survey to see what the deer composition was. We began a harvest program as follows:

No non-spike bucks - harvest per recommendation - All spike bucks

Secondly, we began to feed a high protein pellet to the deer in dry times with 1000 lb. free choice feeders located in small traps.

Additionally, I try to stock sheep and cattle at reasonable levels. We run no goats. Unfortunately, I do not rotationally graze but I would like to in the future.

Also, I created small overflow ponds at our windmills. Wild game love to drink from these more natural holes of water.

Currently, I am attempting to give excess does to another rancher via a TPWD permit. This will allow me to remove excess deer without a rifle and share this resource with someone who needs it.

Results of our efforts since 1985 show an increase in number of bucks from 65 to 354 in 1990. The quality buck index (mature bucks with 8 points or better) has increased from 38% to 61%. Total number of deer has increased from 590 to 1285. The buck to doe ratio has improved from 1:5.3 to 1:1.6

Once you have the deer herd in order, it is easy to keep it balanced with proper harvesting.

County Agents Report

That's why this audience is so important."

Already, 13 percent of 4-H youth are Clover Kids, Jacob said, although the program has only been started in about 50 counties.

Young people enroll in 4-H by joining a community or school-based 4-H club, by participating in a short-term, special-interest group or by enrolling in a 4-H school curriculum enrichment project.

"Many people perceive 4-H as being just agriculture or just home economics, but 4-H goes far beyond that," Thibodeaux said. "It focuses on blending current information in science and technology to help children develop life skills so that they can become productive, contributing members of this society."

Whether individuals participate in agriculture, aerospace or entomology projects, they learn to make decisions, set goals, cope with setbacks and improve communication and leadership, she said.

Statistics show that 4-H membership appeals to a wide range of youth -- 5-year-olds to teens, rural and urban and all ethnic groups, Jacob said. In Texas, minority enrollment has increased to almost 40 percent. More than half of the members live in cities and suburbs, a third live in towns, and 13 percent live in rural areas and on farms.

The Extension 4-H and Youth Development program is reaching a significant number of children in the state, and is doing that with partners from all walks of life, Thibodeaux said.

"We have donors and others who want to invest in youth," she said. "We work with many local people who are involved in all types of coalitions. They partner with 4-H to reach these young people with positive programs."

WORKING CLEARANCE

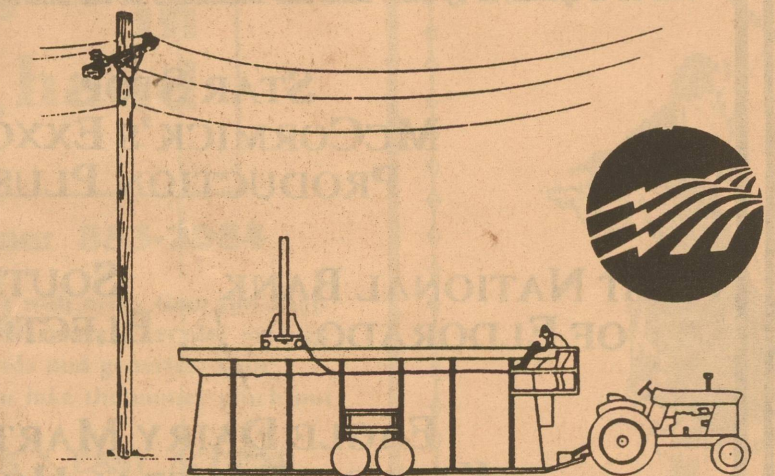

Maintaining the proper clearance from a high-voltage electric line is not just a good safety practice, it's the law! In Texas, any contractor, corporation or individual not affiliated with the utility must follow these guidelines:

- No person will perform any activity within six feet of overhead lines.
- No person will operate or use any tool, equipment, machinery or material where it is possible that these devices will come within six feet of overhead lines.
- No person will operate any equipment, such as derricks, cranes, power shovels, hayloaders, pile drivers, hoisting equipment or similar devices, within ten feet of overhead lines.

When work must be performed within these clearances, the organization or individual responsible must contact the utility and make arrangements to ensure safe clearances.

Violations of these provisions of the law can result in fines, confinement in jail or liability to the utility for damages and all liability incurred.

Senior Ambassadors Meet

The Senior Ambassadors of the First Baptist Church met on Monday, November 18, 1991. The meeting was called to order by Harry Mercer, president. Visitors were recognized: Jewel Bailey and daughter, Martha Henderson, Grace White, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wright of San Angelo.

Chips, dips, and desserts were served to 24 in attendance. Everyone enjoyed coffee from Brazil, brought back by Delia Pina from her trip. Geneva McWhorter thanked the group who made the Fall Foliage Trip for the book given for her part in scouting the trip. A thank you was read from Ada Belle Taylor's family. Leon Stricklan reported some work on the bus cost $136.00. In the absence of Dana Owens, no minutes were read.

Mary Robinson reported on plans for the next trip which is scheduled for March 31-April 11, 1992, and requested any who wished to make the trip, sign up now. There will be a limit of 30 people on this tour.

A gift was presented to Mary Robinson, from the group who made the last trip to North Carolina. Mary Etta Stricklan was also presented with a gift of appreciation for all her hard work in preparing picnic lunches, and her work in keeping cold drinks on the bus for all. Everyone on all the trips has a job to do, and cooperation is the key to success.

Color slides of our trip were shown by Mary, and pictures were shared by all.

Steve Williams, Mabel Freitag and Matt Brown. They meet each first and third Monday at 9:30 a.m. in the ASCS office.

The slate of nominees that appears on this year's ballot is Matt Brown, Ricky Fussell and Bobby Helmers. The person that receives the most votes will be elected to serve a three year term. Persons receiving the next most votes will be elected as first and second alternates respectively.

SCISD Board Meets

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Schleicher County Independent School District was held on November 12, 1991, at 6:00 p.m. in the Administration Building.

Board members voted to accept the low bid of $17,350 for property coverage as submitted by Trimble Batjer Insurance Associates, and in further action, members authorized Rauscher-Pierce to make a formal refinancing proposal on the district's bonds if a minimum savings of $35,000 or better could be realized by the district.

Ray Ballew reported on tax collections by the CED (County Education District) and noted that offering discounts for early tax payments improves the collection rate. He also informed the board that Ross Whitten and Jim Glidden had been nominated by the county for positions on the Appraisal Board of Directors and that Randy Mankin had been nominated by the city. He also discussed the tax to be levied by the water district.

Eldorado High School Principal Ken Newman reported on recent events at the high school. He said teacher morale is high and students are doing well. The faculty has been working on preparing for the Southern Association's five year visit. Newman said that 98% of the recommendations made five years ago when the Southern Association evaluated EHS have been implemented. Newman also indicated that for grades 9-12, 87% of the students are passing all the subjects they are taking. Mr. Newman expressed pride in the band going to State, the cross-country teams coming in fourth in Regionals and the football teams 7-2-1 record. We also noted that FFA brought home 5 banners for the first time since 1986. Mr. Newman reported on many other items such as the pot-luck supper for the parents of freshmen and the starting of a new Spanish Club and a Library Club. Newman informed the board that the schedule will be altered beginning Monday, November 18th, to allow for mandatory tutorials from 8 to 8:30 A.M. for those students failing one or more subjects and for students failing sections of the TASS test. Students not involved in tutorials may come for help or just to study or may report to school by 8:30.

Dr. Blair shared a copy of the Academic Excellence Indicator results for the 1990-91 school year. The report takes the place of the Annual Performance Report that was required in years past. The report showed SCISD to be achieving above the level of state and above the comparison group designated by the state in almost all areas. Blair also presented the board with the transportation report for the month of October.

Members nominated Phil McCormick and Raymond Mittel to serve on the Schleicher County Appraisal Board for the 1992-93 term and approved the financial report for the month of October along with the audit report for 1991.

The Texas Association of School Boards Policy Update 40 was adopted and policy concerning tutorials was amended to read as follows: Any student may attend tutorial programs voluntarily. Students who are failing courses in subject areas for which tutorials are offered may be required to attend those tutorials.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:27 P.M.

Book Review

"MEMORIAS"

Written by: Salvador Guerrero Edited by: Arnolde De Leon Published by: Texas Tech University Press, 1991

by Thomas Giovannitti Many people find history uninteresting because most history books deal with the political events that shape our world. "Memorias" is a small book that should command a large readership.

Mr. Salvador Guerrero, as he says himself, had an opportunity to be born and to grow up during some of the more memorable events beginning with the Mexican Revolution, through World War II, and the West Texas Oil boom of the fifties.

His book is his history. It helps flesh out these events and show how they affected one man's life. The book should especially be read by people of Mexican descent.

Mr. Guerrero was born in Mexico during the Last great revolution of the western hemisphere. That event has much to do with his families decision to move to the United States, considered by many the land of opportunity.

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON --A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Although other studies and scientists may not agree, researchers in Europe found that the ingredient, a natural plant colloid, actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calories.

While the project of National Dietary Research, aptly named Food Source One, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the formula which has since been improved with other natural colloids has been a windfall for some overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143. I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 3 weeks on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One tablets are part of National Dietary Research's comprehensive plan to bring a rapid end to obesity in this country. A variety of nutritionally sound diet plans, specially prepared by NDR, accompany each bottle and provide a natural, drug free alternative for confronting the problem of obesity.

HOME IS WHERE YOUR BANK IS.

You can't really keep your money at home - it should be in a checking or savings account to be safe. But you can have your account with a bank that keeps your money in you community.

The First National Bank of Eldorado does just that. Our customers like knowing that their deposits are invested here at home - not sent out of town or out of state to the headquarters of some megabank.

It makes sense to us to invest local money in local projects like home mortgages. Maybe that's because our decisions - on investments and everything else - are made by people who live here, too.

You don't have to install a vault in your living room to make sure your money is close by. All you have to do is open an account at The First National Bank of Eldorado.

A great bank in a great place.

Senior Ambassador Fall Foliage Trip

Twenty-five people started off on a trip. Left worries behind--didn't give a "rip." A long day to Shreveport and then a short rest. Early to Jackson to see the Governor's best. The capitol dome soon came into view. The eagle of copper was a sight to review. A welcome awaited and a guide knew the way. We toured the capitol in one twelfth of a day. We saw the House and sat in their chairs. Saw the buttons they push when they split hairs. We went to the Senate--the same leather chairs. Some rode the elevator and some climbed marble stairs. Ten kinds of marble was used inside. Could tell by the people, it was a place of pride. The Governor's office had mahogany tables. A stone on his desk had a rattlesnake label. The domed ceiling was stained Bohemian glass. As the guide spoke, we were a good class. We drove by the Governor's mansion--saw pumpkins by the door. Then headed for Alabama to spend the night once more.

Early morning found us traveling on to Tennessee. Pretty leaves and brilliant colors began to show from every tree. Three times we crossed the Tennessee River--in Georgia for a spell. Knoxville, Kentucky Fry for lunch, and the Smokies show up well. Little Pigeon River gave Pigeon Forge its name. But only Dolly could give Pigeon Forge its fame. We ate a whole chicken for supper at Pigeon Forge Stampede. And, please, do believe it, it was quite a feed. Saturday night found some of us riding the trolley through town. It was longer for the waiting, than the riding all around. Sunday morning we had church at the motel by the pool. And headed out to Dollywood while the day was fresh and cool. Dolly's family played some tunes. Don't you wish that you were kin? Went to hear the Kingdom Heirs, and hear James Rodgers sing again. Chet Atkins was the special, as he sang and strummed guitar. Heard so many fancy singers, didn't wonder where we are.

Cades Cove was an experience in driving around the curve. Engineers followed the stream, and it took a lot of nerve. We looked up and down from the mountains to the creek. The depth was very scary, for it was very deep. We couldn't see the bottom, even if we tried. So best to sit and listen, and in the bus abide. We saw Oliver's cabin, and the Methodist church built in 1887. They preached to men and women on their way to Heaven. Saw Missionary Baptist church of 1894, beside the road. While heading for our picnic spot to lighten up the load. The stream was beautiful where we ate, and Isabell did wade. Jewel gave the devotional beneath the trees in shade. Fallen leaves look like sawdust, left beneath where someone worked. We enjoyed the beauty as Old Faithful heaved and jerked.

Sugarland was a movie spot; it tells of the Smokie Mountains. The flowing streams just passing through, remind us of fountains. The Christus Gardens at Gatlinburg, was a wax museum to behold. As the life of Christ was portrayed there, as it did unfold. The marble face of Christ had eyes that would follow. Makes a fellow think a bit, and take a great big swallow. We crossed the old state line to North Carolina on the Appalachian Trail. We saw the pretty Smokies as the evening light did pale. Into Cherokee on the Indian Reservation, in the Redskin for the night. To go the next morning to see the Biltmore sight. Now the Biltmore Estate was a sight to behold. Built in the Smokies by a Vanderbilt soul. There were roses in the garden, and flowers in bloom. We toured the mansion with 255 rooms.

We went to the museum to see what the Cherokee's did. There was an old canoe that was in the river hid. Made 250 years ago, and found in 1974. The Indian statue in the courtyard was guarding the door. We headed toward Chattanooga when the temperature was thirty-eight. Winding through the Nantahala Forest by the river that was great. And the Ocoee River bottom was purely made of rock. As the water rolled and tossed, and the white foam interlocked. When we entered Chattanooga, we looked for something to eat. Then found the Tennessee River, and the Southern Belle was a treat. The Incline Railway was straight up on Look Out Mountain top. We were brave enough to ride it, for we knew it couldn't stop. The monument up there symbolizes peace between North and South. And the Union and Confederate Army, in one day, used the Cravin's house.

Next day, we went to Buaz to go shopping for the day. We walked and looked, and shopped and bought, all along the way. Then our time was up at two, we saw packages galore. Everyone so heavily loaded, they just "sided" in the door. Late in the evening we found Oak Mountain State Park. We couldn't find the lights, so we settled for the dark. Had supper in the cabin, which was strictly against the rule. Some brought in chairs, and some had to sit on stools. Leon gave the devotional; the scripture was on love. Then "George" played harmonica and trumpet music from above. Some sat by the campfire, while others found nothing to do. We wished for some time to paddle in the old canoe. Rain came in the night at Oak Mountain State Park. And we left so early in the morning, it was nearly dark. A long day of driving brought us once more to Shreveport. And Saturday's day of driving got us back to the old home fort. The trip was wonderful and the sights were great. But everyone loves his own yard gate.

Health News

by Dr. Rico Forlano

Many times people ask me "why does my neck and back get stiff and hurt even though I did not do anything to it?" The answer to this can vary, but one bad answer to this is old age. Stress is probably one of the biggest reasons for this because when your body is mentally stressed it causes the muscles to tighten up which can cause spinal misalignment. Poor posture can also produce extra stress on the bodies muscles. Improper warm up before exercising, especially when it is cold, can cause the muscles to strain. Other things that we do that can cause this is lifting things above our head, lifting with our backs twisted, or bending over to lift something that is too heavy. Although there are many different causes of neck and back pain, spinal misalignment is usually the root of the problem. Pain killing medicine does not usually cure the problem but can give temporary relief. Spinal manipulation is usually the quickest way to relieve and correct the problem. If you have neck or back pain you should consult your Chiropractic Physician who can help correct your problem spinal manipulation and physical therapy or he will refer you to a Medical Doctor for other types of treatment.

5 Shut-Outs

Players who turned in outstanding performances this year were: Quarterback/Safety-Farley Dakan; Defensive Tackle/Guard-Carlos Estrada;

Runningback/ Cornerback-Landon Neal; Runningback/Linebacker-Cody McCravey. I would also like to mention Will Edmiston for his outstanding work effort and tough play all year at Linebacker and on the offensive line."

VARSITY

The Eldorado Varsity football team ended the season on a high note to a very successful season by beating Stanton 39-0 in a district contest.

The Eagles placed third in District 6-AA. Those scoring were: Reagan Bowns made a 78 yard touchdown run on a punt return, Michael Gamez made a 5 yard touchdown run, Reagan bounds made a 75 yard touchdown run, Jorge Arispe made an 11 yard touchdown run, Cy Griffin made a 96 yard touchdown run, and Jason Whitten made a 23 yard touchdown run. JUNIOR VARSITY

The J.V. lost to Wall on Friday, November 1st with a score of 0-22.

According to Coach Paul Michalewicz, the boys gave a good effort, but made too many mental mistakes to win the game.

Said Michalewicz, "Travis Whitten progressed in his role as quarterback. He did a better job each week."

The J.V. lost 6-12 against Stanton on Friday, November 8th.

We had a good effort against Stanton. They had one very good running back, and except for one long run, we shut him down.

Both of Stantons scores came in the first half. After an early score by Stanton, the Eagles shut them down until the Buffaloes scored on a long pass with approximately one minute left in the half.

The Eagles were able to shut out Stanton in the second half, but were unable to score until only forty secondly were left in the game.

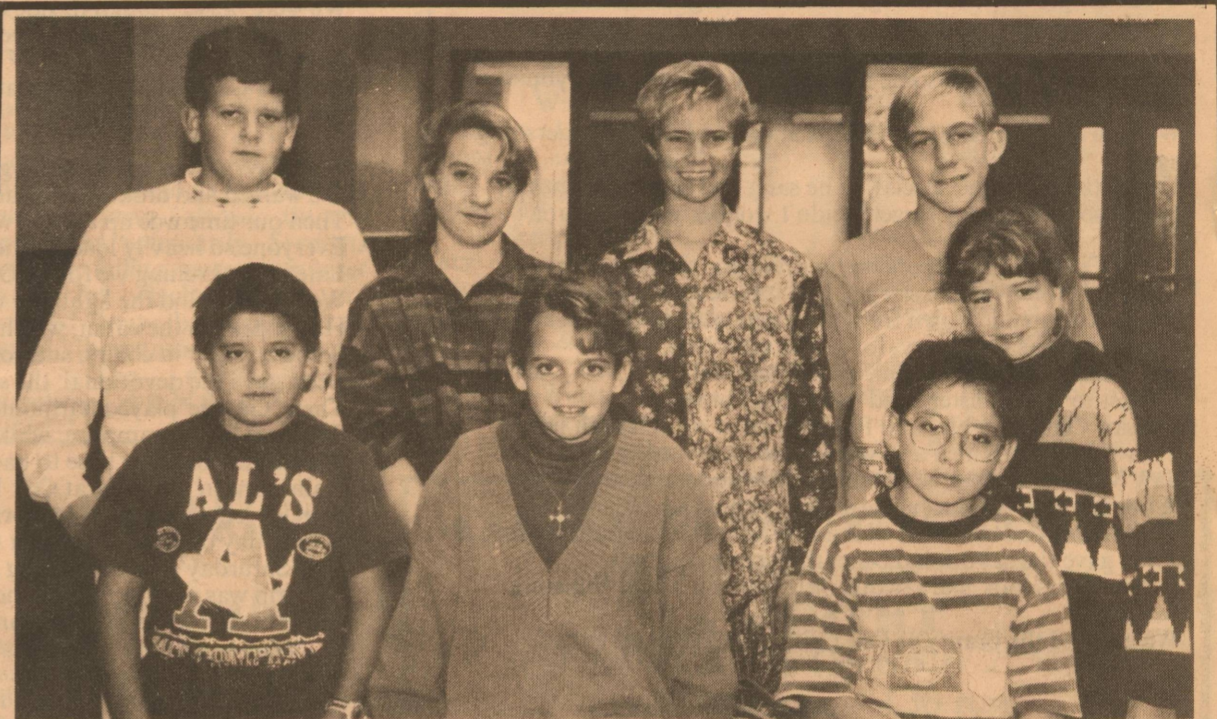

We had a chance to score earlier with a first and goal at the five, but a fumble ended the drive.

The Eagles scoring play was a pass from running back Cody McCravey to Pepper Nix.

Coach Michalewicz commented about the year in review, "The kids took up the challenge and played very well. I am proud of every one of them.

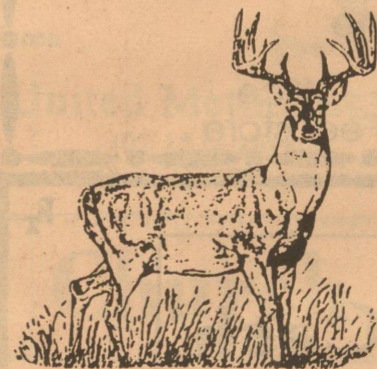

Pictured above is Jenny Wink as she plays her flute in the State Marching Contest that was held on Monday, November 11th. The Eldorado High School Band placed 10th at this competition, out of 14 bands. We would like to congratulate the students on their fine accomplishment.
