

6,000 Dead In Ecuador Quake As Indians Pillage

QUITO, Ecuador, Aug. 10.—New earth tremors and pillaging by unruly Indians spread fear and panic today among the thousands of survivors left homeless by Ecuador's destructive earthquake.

Official government estimates of the death toll in Friday's quake rose to 6,000. But the truth is no one knows for sure how many perished in the great piles of rubble that litter some 50 demolished towns in the populous Andes Mountain region south of here.

Fresh tremors yesterday tumbled weakened walls in Ambato and other cities, adding to the terror of some 180,000 homeless.

Shoot-to-kill orders were issued to troops guarding Pelileo against looting by the wild tribe of Salasas Indians. Defense Minister Manuel Diaz Gascos said one band of Salasas had been driven off when caught ransacking the ruins.

The Salasas have been the fiercest warriors in the Andes region for 400 years. Driven out of Bolivia by the Incas centuries ago, they have harassed Ecuadorian settlements even in modern times. Continuing land slides and sub-pulsive runoff coming from jagged craters have terrorized the country folk who escaped the worst effects of the shock.

This correspondent flew over the area yesterday to Ambato, with some of the U. S. Air Force crews helping out in the "little air lift" which is dropping food and medical supplies to isolated towns.

Pelileo, a town of 3,000 population, resembles a garbage dump surrounded by bright green grass and trees. Not a house escaped damage. Block after block is a jumble of adobe walls and bamboo poles.

Berlin Block Impact On B-36 Program Told

Gen. Smith Reveals Air Staff Split On Value Of Bomber

WASHINGTON, August 10. (UPI)—An Air Force general said today that Russia's sudden blockade of Berlin last summer had a strong influence on decisions to carry out the B-36 Bomber program.

Maj. Gen. Frederick H. Smith, Air Forces requirements chief, returned to the witness stand for his second day before the House Armed Services Committee. It is investigating the history of the giant six-engined bomber.

THE STORY

Smith told this story:

In April, 1948, there was "considerable difference of opinion" in the air staff as to the value of the B-36.

Gen. George C. Kenney, then chief of the Strategic Air Command, preferred revamping medium bombers for long range missions and had proposed using the B-36 as a tanker instead of a bomber.

During that month, however, an early model B-36 made a 6,000 mile flight carrying a simulated 10,000-pound bomb load. In May, it flew another long mission with the heavy load, covering 6,000 miles in 26 hours.

Smith said the majority of potential enemy targets would have been within this range, too, according to revised data from the department. Personnel incomes rose in total from April through June after having dropped down from December's peak annual rate of $312 billion to a tough of $212,000,000 in March. By June, the rate was back to $212,000,000.

The main cause of an increase in the annual rate of personnel incomes from May to June was higher farm receipts due to disposal of a larger volume of crops—either at the market or in bins from the government.

Possibility of greater significance was the first increase in factory payrolls since last September. The steady decline in that interim had resulted from worker layoffs, which in turn showed up in increased unemployment. In June, the department paid wages rate in the non-farm goods industries at $1,000.00 per month, the highest in the annual rate of personnel incomes was May to June was higher farm receipts due to disposal of a larger volume of crops—either at the market or in bins from the government.

"After review, the decision was clearly in favor of carrying out the full B-36 contract," Smith said.

MAE WOWING 'EM WITH HER 'DIAMOND LIL'

CENTRAL CITY, Colo., Aug. 10. (UPI)—Fifteen persons died in the flaming wreckage of a Greyhound bus that burned after smashing into a bridge abutment near here early today.

None of the dead has been identified.

The bus, bound from Indianapolis to Bloomington, hit the bridge on a winding, hilly road shortly after midnight. Seconds later it was in flames.

Coroner Robert W. Lyons of Monroe County said 15 would be the death toll.

Twelve other persons were injured. They were in a Bloomington hospital.

The bodies removed from the wreckage were brought to the Indiana National Guard armory here to await identification.

Several certificates were sold at Centennial headquarters yesterday afternoon and this morning.

Still others were sold at Tuesday night's meeting of the Veteran of Foreign Wars. Each VFW member attending the meeting purchased at least one certificate.

Included in other recent reports were sales among Latin-American and Negro residents of the city. The Latin-American canvass has been headed by A. Mendez.

Co-chairmen for the canvass among Negro residents are Oliver Reed and Georgia Leach. Their workers include Beulah Lenoard, Sadie Shaw, Ruby Bixby, Clymie Johnson, Carrie Brown, Pauline Banks, Mrs. Reri Perkins, Mrs. Barnes, Byrd, Mrs. LaVerne Pichle, Mrs. Banana Moore.

Jones Injured In Collision Tuesday

Gen. George C. Kenney, then chief of the Strategic Air Command, preferred revamping medium bombers for long range missions and had proposed using the B-36 as a tanker instead of a bomber.

Retail buying power thus was retained by the flow of income to people — as distinguished from corporations — at an annual rate of $212,000,000 in the first six months of this year, Commerce Department figures showed. That was a record high.

The stream of cash was on the increase at mid-year, too, according to revised data from the department. Personal incomes rose in total from April through June after having dropped down from December's peak annual rate of $312 billion to a tough of $212,000,000 in March. By June, the rate was back to $212,000,000.

WATER SALES CREDITED

City's General Fund Gains During July

The City of Big Spring general fund showed a substantial gain during July.

Cash balance in the fund rose from $40,688 at the end of June to $11,372.18 at the close of July. Part of the larger balance can be attributed to an increase in water consumption during the month.

Water increased during July amounted to $1,261,500, an increase of $100,400 million over June. Water consumption in July compared to customers totalled $119,20, an increase of $10,442.54 over June. Garbage billed to customers amounted to $48,774.12.

General fund revenue in July were $10,000.00 including $17,027.75 transferred from other funds. Disbursed tax receipts amounted to $6,411.72. Expenditures for the month were $48,774.12.

And although much has been done to aid in the war against Japan, special funds are needed for Texas taxes.

Accordingly, the trustees of the state have organized for a concerted appeal for funds which will be administered in this state only, and for one week, beginning Thursday, collections will be made in all subdivisions.

All Big Spring theatres are joining in this appeal, and will sponsor collections at shows for the week. Boy Scouts are to assist in the collections.

In addition, all the city's service clubs are participating in the effort, and collections also will be taken at the baseball park, during all home games, played by the Broncs during the week of Aug. 21.

The Herald also will receive contributions to the Texas Theatre Fund, and check to the newspaper office will be duly acknowledged and turned over to the state wide fund.

The water and sewer bond fund stood at $13,674.23 with no receipts recorded for the month and expenditures of $447.93.

Pope's Decree Scored

Czech Reds Predict Defeat For Vatican

PRAGUE, Aug. 16. (UPI)—Czech Communists asserted today that, under the leadership of Russia, the eastern European "people's democracies" would defeat the Vatican excommunicate decree.

The Czech press, led by the Communist Party organ, Rude Pravo, declared in its editorials assault upon the Vatican, the Czech Roman Catholic hierarchy and American "Imperialists."

Rude Pravo's chief foreign commentator, Andre Simon, claimed that Pope Pius XII initiated a joint American-Vatican campaign against Russia and communism as long ago as 1938, when he visited the U. S. as papal secretary of state.

"At that time," wrote Simon, "the present Pope initiated discussions with reactionary leaders of American Protestant churches for the creation of a united front against the Soviet Union and against progress. He negotiated with John Foster Dulles, who two years ago voiced the same idea as a member of the World Council of Protestant Churches."

"But the Vatican and the Catholic Hierarchy were unable to stem the victorious march of socialism at a time when conditions were favorable to their plans," Simon continued. "And now the balance of power, the struggle for peace under the leadership of the Soviet Union and the tremendous successes of builders of socialism are a guarantee that they will frustrate the totalitarian Fascist policy of the Vatican, which was most recently expressed in the excommunication decree. Not only will this be frustrated, but also the plans of the Vatican, Wall Street, Imperialist and Robotic allies."

Simon assailed President Truman for not protesting alleged injustices to Protestants in France and Spain.

Rude Pravo also accused Slovakian Catholic bishops of having cooperated with the Nazis during the occupation. It singled out Bishop Mario Picha and Bishop Jan Velasquez.

"This is the true face of these princes of the church who are now waging a political fight against Communists and all builders of our republic," the Communist organ asserted. "But they will never convince millions of believing Catholics who saw through their game and condemn their activities."

Crash Spot Is Notorious One

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 16.—The spot where a Greyhound bus crashed and burned today is a common one for accidents.

There have been three crashes this year at the bridge over muddy Fork. It is on a stretch of winding, hilly road.

The other crashes involve trucks.

The bridge abutment which the bus struck today had recently been wrecked by one of the trucks and the pieces had been propped back into place with a board.

Jones Takes Final Trip To The Chair

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 16. (UPI)—W. Fred Jones died in the state's electric chair early today saying a prayer for "all who prosecuted me and lied about me."

It was the second trip to the death house for the convicted slayer of H. C. Love, Jr. in 1946. He was saved from electrocution early Sunday morning by a dramatic last-minute reprieve.

At 12:08 o'clock this morning the Florida groan calmly walked into the execution chamber.

At 12:11, the prison doctor said Jones had paid his debt to society.

"Tell Thelma [his wife] bye-bye," Jones said as they strapped him in the chair, "and say bye-bye to the children and be sure to tell my enemies that I love them."

"I am stepping out into eternity," the dignified-looking 40-year-old man said to the assembled officials, witnesses and newspapermen. "I am a saved man, and I know my God. If any of you here do not know your God, let me recommend him to you. I love all who prosecuted me and lied about me."

"Goodnight, everybody. I love all of you."

Within minutes after Jones' body was removed from the chair, General Kersey, 57-year-old Dallas Negro, convicted of the mutilation slaying of a Negro woman in 1943, was electrocuted. He died at 12:23 o'clock.

It was the first double electrocution in Texas since 1905.

On his way to the death house, Jones stopped in front of Kersey's cell.

"Don't be afraid, General," he said. "You're going to Heaven and I'll see you very soon."

Kersey's last words were brief. "I ain't goin' as hard against my enemies," the Negro said. "I want to love everybody. Jesus is my Lord."

Jones was twice tried and convicted for shooting Love, 23-year-old Purple Heart war veteran, outside Jones' grocery in the small West Texas town. Jones also was a World War II veteran.

He pleaded the "insanity law" as his defense.

On Sunday, Jones was saved from the chair by a three-day reprieve granted by Gov. Allen Shivers. Shivers granted the stay on the recommendation of the Board of Paroles and Pardons that it would receive new evidence in the case.

After a hearing yesterday, the board ruled, in effect, that the new evidence failed to materialize. The board refused to make any further recommendations for clemency.

Chinese Reds Throw New Forces Into Battle For Canton Road

CANTON, Aug. 10.—Communists threw fresh forces into a battle on the approaches to their Nationalist capital today.

Reports said the Reds had put a new division into the fight.

Kiangsi's provincial government transplanted the capital to Hwei-chang, 50 miles southeast of Kiangsi.

The Nationalists claimed yesterday 11,000 Communist troops had been surrounded near Sui-chuan, 50 miles northwest of Kiangsi. It was not clear whether the fresh Red division was thrown into the sector or elsewhere on the Kiangsi front where the Communists have penetrated as close as 25 miles northeast of Canton.

Transfer of the capital of Hunan Province, which joins Kiangsi on the west, also was disclosed. The government set up shop at Chih-kang, 250 miles southwest of the capital city of Changsha which was

HORATIO ALGER CAREER

Maragon Narrates Story Of His Life

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—How did John F. Maragon climb from shoeshine boy to man-about-Washington and favor-to-people-about-Washington?

He told his own story yesterday. For nearly three hours, the 85-year-old one-time Greek immigrant chattered for reporters the course of his sometimes hectic, sometimes famous career.

The yarn smacks of Horatio Alger—but only to a point—as Maragon tells it.

In the sweltering heat of his lawyer's downtown office, he unfolded his story. It was the year-to-year account from 16 to week 13-year-old Kansas City bootblack to his present role in Congress probe of "five percenter."

His words were well-chosen. His Greek accent was always as apparent as his grammar was correct.

Maragon listed a slew of senators and congressmen, past and present, as his friends. He talked of Sir Thomas Lipton, the British tycoon and yachtsman. There was mention of the late Hugh Johnson, who ran the NRA during the early days of the New Deal. Even Kaiser Wilhelm was brought in.

And Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, "a very close friend," was Maragon's description of the presidential military aide.

"To retain a good friend," he went on to say, "three things are necessary. You must be honest,

A jury rejected a defense plea of insanity and sentenced Haigh to death.

Painter's Career Comes To Close After 20-Year Holiday From Jail

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 10.—A landscape painter's art career ended today when he was taken back to a jail from which he escaped more than 20 years ago while awaiting trial on a murder charge.

Ralph Lee, 51, artist with a record officers said included at least 11 jailbreaks in 17 years, was arrested as he ate supper with his wife, Mrs. Jessie Edwards Lee, at their home south of here in Brown County.

Indiana State Police and Indianapolis officers arrested Lee on a charge of escaping from the Johnson County Jail here on New Year's Eve in 1928. He was being held at that time on a charge of murder in the holdup killing of Abner Peak, Speedway City grocer.

Lee's record, as related by officers, started with a burglary sentence and an escape from the Indiana boys school in 1911, when he was 13 years old.

It includes, besides three breaks here, escapes from the Wells County Jail at Bluffton, Washington State Reformatory, Indiana State Farm at Putnamville, and Indiana State Reformatory and Tennessee State Penitentiary twice each.

The record lists also a parole violation in Arizona in 1919, a gunfight with Jacksonville, Fla. police in which he was wounded in 1927, and a sentence to federal prison in Atlanta, Ga., in 1932 for counterfeiting while in Tennessee State Penitentiary.

He was paroled by the federal government in 1946 from Springfield, Mo., where he had been transferred because of complications from wounds inflicted by Florida police.

His present wife is a one-time missionary to China and Salvation Army worker who had engaged in religious work among convicts. He married her two years ago and settled in the Brown County artist colony to paint landscapes.

As officers walked in to arrest Lee his wife said, "I'm so sorry. He's been doing so well... leading a Christian life."

"Don't be frightened dear, we'll just keep praying," she added.

A week ago a relative of Mrs. Lee asked Detective Orville K. Gleich if Lee was "still wanted for murder."

Gleich knew nothing of the case, but he located Peak's brother, Fred, and Lee's former wife, Dora Carmack Lee, and gradually pieced the story together.

Shooting Hero On Honeymoon

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Sonny Ivers is honeymooning today with the girl who helped him overcome and kill a "lovers lane" gunman.

Alwyn Ivers, 19, left Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday five weeks after his jaw was splintered by a bullet from the gun of William Brock, 18. His jaw was in a steel frame.

Brock shot Ivers after he came upon them in a parked car in the Baldwin Hills District July 1. Ivers grappled with him and Brock dropped the gun. Ivers' companion, now his bride, picked up the pistol and handed it to Sonny, who shot Brock four times.

A coroner's jury ruled it was justifiable homicide and praised Ivers as a hero.

Ivers and his 16-year-old bride, Betty, will spend a week at a nearby mountain resort. They were married in the hospital.

Navy Vessel Is Driven Aground

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 10.—Heavy seas drove the USS Imo Newcomb, a Navy hydrographic survey vessel, aground yesterday near Hamilton inlet on the Labrador coast. But all of her crew of 37 were safe.

Only the captain, Lt. (jg) C. R. Modlin, USN, remained aboard the 150-ton ship today as a Coast Guard cutter and a Navy salvage vessel raced to her rescue. Her second officer and 35 enlisted men abandoned ship yesterday and stood by on shore.

Fifth naval district headquarters here said the Simon Newcomb was in little danger and that seas off Hamilton inlet were subsiding. There was danger the 136-foot vessel would capsize if the water continued rough.

The ship was on a routine operation when the storm struck and drove her hard up on the beach. The Coast Guard cutter is expected to reach the Newcomb Friday, the salvage tug sometime Sunday.

Hoover Acclaimed On 75th Birthday

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Aug. 10. (UPI) — Herbert Clark Hoover is 75 years old today, and tributes for the country's only living ex-President poured in from all over the world.

Late today Stanford University will honor its most illustrious graduate in the Frost Amphitheater. A

Murder Charge Filed In Death

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 10. (UPI) — A murder charge has been lodged against Mrs. Mary Corpew, who told police her husband died by knocking a drinking glass from her hand and then falling on its broken edge.

Police were told Morris Corpew, 88, stumbled against his wife, caused her to drop the glass, and fell on it. He died at Beth Israel Hospital Monday of a severed artery.

Police Lt. William Wagner said yesterday Mrs. Corpew had revised her statement, saying this time that she had smashed a glass against her husband's chest during a quarrel over his late hours.

crowd of 12,000 to 14,000 was expected.

The program will be climaxed by a major address by Mr. Hoover, beginning at 7 o'clock tonight. His topic will be "Think of the next generation."

Even Mr. Hoover, who once said "I have had every honor to which any man could aspire," probably was surprised by the fire created by his birthday anniversary and by the congratulatory letters by the thousands.

Two states, Arkansas and Maryland, proclaimed today "Hoover Day." Gov. Earl Warren of California issued a proclamation in which he said: "Few men anywhere have lived more useful lives, and none with greater devotion, both at home and throughout the world."

The governors of New Mexico and Vermont extended greetings to Mr. Hoover in proclamations.

Mr. Hoover, born in Iowa and a member of the first graduating class of Leland Stanford University, was the 30th president of the United States—from 1929 to 1933. At 75 he is, as always, a hard worker, usually putting in a 16-hour day. His chief concern for many years has been for national and international affairs.

Cotton Growers Will Post Bracero Bonds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — Each Mexican laborer who fails to return to his country at the end of the work contract may cost a cotton grower $25.

This was announced by Immigration Commissioner Watson B. Miller, who said employers in the South will be required to post bonds as follows:

Up to 500 workers, $15 each; from 500 to 1,000, $10 each; and more than 1,000, $5 each. The minimum bond will be $500, but groups of growers will be allowed to band together to contract for groups of 1,000 or more workers.

Houston Menaced By Deadly Cloud During Late War

HOUSTON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — An explosive cloud once menaced Houston during the war.

Hugh V. Keppers, assistant manager of the Fire Prevention and Engineering Bureau of Texas, told the story today:

A dangerous vapor of butadiene gas escaped from a rubber plant near Houston when certain operations failed and workmen opened valves as a precaution against destruction of the plant.

The vapor formed a great cloud—about 1,000 feet thick and several miles in diameter.

It floated over Houston.

"Luckily," said Keppers, "No airplane flew through it. Only a spark was needed to set it off."

Albania Charges Greeks Invading

LONDON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — Albania said today she is being invaded by Greece and that fighting is in progress along a 30-mile front.

A broadcast by the official Tirana radio said bloody clashes with Athens' government troops began four days ago.

It added that hundreds of Greek soldiers have been killed or taken prisoner.

A spokesman for the Greek information service in London said "there is certainly no invasion." He said the Albanian report probably referred to the new offensive launched by the Greek army against the Communist-led guerrillas in the Grammos Mountain area not far from the Albanian border.

The Greek government has asserted repeatedly that Albania is used by the rebels as a haven when hard pressed and as a jumping off place for fresh forays into Greece.

Japs Deny POWs Liberated By Russia In 1945

TOKYO, Aug. 10. (UPI) — Relatives of many Japanese captured in Manchuria in an open letter to the Chinese Communist Government today denied a Russian report that the prisoners had been liberated in 1945.

A Russian statement last year implied the Soviets no longer had any responsibility for the Japanese because they had been freed in Manchuria at the time the Red army overran that Japanese conquered area.

The open letter said in part:

"With the war's end in 1945 the Japanese nationals in Manchuria were allowed to return as fast as they could obtain passage with the exception of those who were taken to Soviet territory.

"But in August, 1945, the repatriation was abruptly suspended, all remaining Japanese being detained by the Chinese Communist authorities for service in military or industrial establishments. Although no exact figures are available, the number of those detained is estimated to exceed 100,000."

The letter said the Japanese had been held in virtual captivity and were not allowed to send home a single word.

The letter was published after a rally by the relatives "in the expectation it will reach Chinese Communist authorities" in some manner.

The highest pitching percentage of the major league pitchers who won more than 200 games was posted by Robert (Lefty) Grove—220.

MUNICH, Germany, Aug. 10.

German police today fired into a crowd of 1,000 Jewish displaced persons they said had stormed them and defied orders to disperse.

The police said three of the DP's were wounded.

The crowd, without obtaining a license for a meeting, had gathered to protest an alleged antisemitic letter in a Munich newspaper, police said.

Welfare Agencies' Activities Should Be Reported Regularly

A great many people will be interested in reading a little pamphlet they have received through the local news this week. It carries the title "What Your Dollars Are Doing," and is a brief report to those contributors of the Community Chest, telling them know something of the activities resulting from Chest support.

The idea of the report is a good one, and actually should have been developed before now. Monthly reports from these civic and welfare organizations which benefit from Chest funds would go a long way toward keeping up public interest, making subsequent Chest fund appeals easier, and perhaps bringing about more adult work in behalf of the organizations.

Some of the major activities of the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, YMCA and Salvation Army are recorded in the pamphlet.

The Girl Scouts have been to educational camps, and have been busy with a program including swimming, crafts, dramatics, sketching, nature-lore, singing games and camping.

Boy Scouts, too, have had camps, have continued training courses, have made regular awards at Courts of Honor, staged the annual summer Roundup; and their leaders have attended regular monthly conferences on program plans.

The YMCA has reached hundreds of young people with sports and recreational activities, including swimming, basketball, volleyball, hobby classes, tennis and club meetings.

The Salvation Army has assisted with 175 lodgings, 3500 meals served, emergency transportation provided for 30, over 200 garments distributed, with rent and food assistance going to others.

Very few question the merits of our agency activities. What most of us need is to know more about them. Then our support would be forthcoming more promptly and more generously.

Republican Party's Finance Problem Is Not A New One

The new national chairman of the Republican Party, Guy G. Gabreski of New Jersey, has dubbed himself a big problem right at the start of his regime, to-wit, how to raise money for the 1950 congressional campaign.

So far this year the GOP has paid out $600,000 in hard cash and has taken in only $72,000. The national finance chairman, Harold Talbot, has informed party leaders that he simply hasn't been able to interest contributors in putting up cash since last January, when a party schism developed over the ousting of the then national chairman, Rep. Hugh D. Scott Jr. of Pennsylvania. Scott won by three votes to two, but finally retired under pressure in favor of Gabreski.

Scott was a Dewey man, and Gabreski is a Taft man. If 1950 were a presidential election year, the Taft supporters could be expected to come forward with generous contributions, whatever the Dewey followers did. But next year's election will involve only House members and a third of the Senate, and many big contributors can't be bothered with congressional elections.

This problem of party finances has dogged both major parties for generations. In 1948 the Democrats were strapped, and had a hard time making ends meet. Fueled with expected victory, the Republicans had easier financial sailing, and finished the campaign in good condition except for votes. The Democrats went in the hole so deep that only a last-minute ploy by President Truman directed at Louis Johnson saved the day. Johnson assumed a funnel shape, and blasted large Democratic contributors loose from their pockets.

From time to time someone suggests that political parties be financed from government funds. This may have some merit, but no discrimination could be practiced, under the Constitution, and millions of taxpayers would object to putting up money for the Communists, who advocate the not-gentle overthrow of this government and our way of life.

Chiang Proves Right To Title Of Wily Fox By Sea Blockade

By JAMES B. WHITE

(For DeWitt MacKenzie)
CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S STRATEGIC DEVICE of blockading Red Chinese ports is working.

That is, it is not winning the civil war on preventing its low-free China is crumbling steadily.

But, by cutting the Reds off from normal foreign trade via the sea, Chiang is driving them more firmly into the arms of Soviet Russia than ever before. The prospect of normal trade between China and the West is fading.

With Shanghai dying on their hands as a great port, the Reds are planning an organized evacuation of the city's surplus population and plan to reduce it eventually to about half its present swollen population of six million people.

The Reds could be expected to align themselves politically with Moscow, but economically the cards were stacked at first in favor of considerable trade with the West. This trade, everyone felt sure, would be largely on Red terms, but still was slimming enough that many foreign businessmen planned to stay on and give it a whirl. The fact was and still is that Soviet Russia cannot be expected to supply the vast range of industrial and consumer goods which China needs to rebuild.

BUT SINCE THE BLOCKADE BY SEA and air went into effect after the fall of Shanghai, shipping has been greatly curtailed. Factories lacked raw materials. The jobless increased. The currency slipped. The Reds realized what white elephants they had fallen for, to in places like Shanghai and Tsinan. Without a large volume of foreign trade they mean nothing but trouble.

This has forced a drastic shift in the Red's economic policy. It appears to have sped up their political polarization. At first their idea seemed to be to buy abroad from anyone that would treat them on what they consider equal terms. Now the talk is of getting along on what China can produce herself, plus what Soviet Russia can supply.

This greatly limits the prospect for business of any kind in China, and means hard times. The moderates who had hoped to keep Red China part of the world economy have lost out to the pro-Soviet isolationists. China once again has become a place where motorcars run on charcoal and there is no ready source of imports nor adequate market abroad for China's export offerings.

THE FIRST FRUIT OF THIS SHIFT in policy is the local trade agreement between Manchuria and Soviet Russia. The Peiping radio is plugging this purely limited deal as a major solution to China's economic strangulation under the blockade. Red China is being herded down the road toward Russia with a rash of articles and speeches praising Soviet Russia as the true and trusted friend in need. Nothing is said about the unequal treaty of 1945 which gives the Soviets the same position in Manchuria the same used to enjoy.

Sino-Soviet friendship associations are being organized on large scale in Manchuria, suggesting that Re' China has to make a special effort to sell Russia in this role to the Chinese people.

All this might have happened anyway. The one thing certain is that it is happening behind Chiang Kai-Shek's blockade.

Shop Talk Of Authors Today Would Surprise Dr. Johnson

NEW YORK, (UPI)—WHAT KIND OF people are the most interesting?

Yes, I know live people are—but what kind of live people?

William Hazlitt in a celebrated essay once concluded that the conversation of authors was the most interesting of any. This may have been true in a more leisurely day, when writers pushed a goose quill

It isn't true any more. Authors are a somber crew today. I eavesdrop at their gatherings fairly often, and they are like nothing more than a convention of mummies. Any bon mots they have in mind they don't say aloud; they save them for their electric typewriters. Rather than talk they prefer silently playing the "match game" to see who buys the next drink.

PERICAPS THEY ARE CHARY OF USING words because they know the value of words—they are paid for using them. When they do break out in conversation, it is usually along these lines:

a. "Is your literary agent as big a house as mine? What do they do for their 10 per cent?"

b. "My publisher is a robber."

c. "My publisher is an ignoramus."

d. "My publisher's mother once won the best-of-show award at the Westchester kennel club."

e. "Have you read that stinking novel by Joe Donakes, 'Love under the Neon Sign?' How did it make the best-seller list? I could snuff a better book than that."

No, there is nothing more disillusioning than the conversation of authors.

Today's Birthday

HUGO ECKENER, born Aug. 10, 1889 at Flensburg, Germany, son of a tobacconist, Champion of the dirigible, Dr. Eckener started as a reporter.

COUNT Zeppelin, for whom the German ships were named, converted him to dirigibles in 1909. In World War I, Eckener schooled the commandants who bombed Britain.

His first big feat was flying the Los Angeles across the ocean in 1923. Four years later he re-united with the Graf Zeppelin and then flew it around the world in 1929. The explosion of the Hindenburg at Lakehurst, N. J., at a cost of 35 lives dashed his ambition, but he still believes in dirigibles.

WASHINGTON — Maybe I shouldn't admit it, but I've been having increasing trouble with my wife lately. Usually she is the easiest person in the world to get along with—but not in August.

Every summer she labors under the delusion that Washington is not cool in August and that I can write a column just as well from some other part of the U.S.A. She even jolts my self-esteem by intimating that the world would get along just as well if no column was written at all—for a while.

I should like further to repeat what I have written before, that in my opinion Jimmie Byrnes resigned, which he himself had planned for some time, had been hastened by that irritation.

Mr. Byrnes has now written me that the latter part of this column was incorrect and that Mr. Truman was not irked. I regret this error, and am grieved to make the correction.

DANVILLE, VA., 1945—Lee Chilton of Danville says: "I like to travel—meet new people, go new places and have fun. But I take no chances on being half-safe. There's only one deodorant for me—the one that stops perspiration 1 to 3 days. It's safe for my skin and clothes and it safely kills odor on contact."

Six-Man Football Coaching School Program Completed

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Wed., August 10, 1949

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Larry Priddy, the Gainesville football mentor who applied for the high school coaching post here and then asked that his name be withdrawn from consideration, probably did the right thing in sticking with Gainesville.

Priddy has nine regulars back at Gainesville this fall and may turn out the team to beat in District TAA. He lost only his center and one tackle from a fair-to-middlin' 1948 team.

Carl Coleman, the new coach here, has his work cut out for him. That fact is generally accepted. His boys are betting though, the Steers will win their share of games. Carl says the spirit is there, as good as he's seen anywhere.

Don Thompson, Odessa's all-state tackle, has been quoted as saying he might enroll at Odessa Junior college this fall.

SIX FORMER STEERS ARE NOW COACHES

Six graduates of Big Spring high school whom this reporter can recall off-hand, will coach football next season. There may be others.

Bobby Savage will handle the high school team at Eagle Grove, Ia. Frank Burton starts as assistant mentor at Wink, the same job Horace Bostick will hold at Rotan.

Good Graves becomes head mentor at Lakeview high, N. C. Burris becomes an aide to Washington University, St. Louis.

Ollie Cordill, a soldier by trade, will probably handle an Air Force football team in Tokyo, Japan, again this year.

Savage and Burton both played on the Steer team of 1940. Savage was an end Burton a guard. Bostick performed in '38.

Graves was a regular in 1938 while Burris, an end, came along a couple of years after that. Cordill finished up here in '36.

Bill Gilliam, who opened the baseball season with Midland and went from there to Ballinger, is now with the Odessa Oilers. He's a hurler.

Leland Crisman, the one-time Midland flinger now with Spartanburg, S. C., has won six decisions, lost eight for that club. Levi Clay, another Midland ex who drew his release from the Indians six weeks ago, has won four decisions, lost five for Ardmore of the Sooner State circuit.

Merle Coleman, who skippered the Odessa Oilers in last year's Longhorn league pennant race, is clouting at a .331 clip for the Tribodays, La., club this year.

The aforementioned have something in common along with Ralph Blair, Midland; Ed Carnell, Borger; Gordon Nell, Borger; Dean Franks, Roswell; Harry Brecheen, Cardinals; Glenn Paxton, Midland; Allie Reynolds, Yankees; Warren Spahn, Braves; Monty Bassett, Pittsburgh; and Carrel Nipp, Ballinger. They're all Oklahomans.

An error in the Longhorn league standings last week, reported in all papers, had the Odessa Oilers in eighth place in the standings. Actually, Alex Monchak's club never did sink that low. So writes Dick Snider in the Odessa American.

Floyd Geiger, the former Ballinger infielder, is now hitting Sooner State league flinging at a .216 clip. He's with Chickasha.

Gridders, Cagers Gather At Forsan, Sterling City For All-Star Games

Forsan and Sterling City will be beehives of activity for athletes of two sports starting today.

The East and West football and basketball squads begin training on those fronts today for games later in the week. The East's gridders and cagers gather at Sterling while the West's legions meet at Forsan.

Clinic Begins Here Thursday

Registration for the third annual Six-Man Football Coaching school, sponsored this year for the first time by the newly formed Texas Six-Man Football Coaches association, gets underway at the Settles hotel at 5 p.m. Thursday.

The clinic, expected to attract between 75 and 100 coaches of the abbreviated sport from throughout Texas, will not offer its first course until Friday morning. However, there'll be movies and a gabfest for the early callers at the Settles tonight.

Don C. Burton of Morgan County high school, West Liberty, Ky., has been contracted to serve as the chief instructor. Burton is now handling an 11-man team but for years coached successful six-man clubs in Ohio.

He'll be spelled from time to time by Dr. Elmer Williams of the Texas Interscholastic League, Bob Honeycutt of Foran, T. M. Dunn of New Caney, A. C. Teter of Darrouzet, Hubert Parks of Terrellton, Chesney McDonald of Sterling City and Mike Brumbelow of Midland.

Here's the program, as arranged by John Prude, president of the association, G. W. Tillerson, vice-president, and other officers:

THURSDAY
5 to 7 p.m. — Registration, Mezzanine floor, Settles.

8 to 9:30 p.m. — Films on six-man football, basketball and baseball.

FRIDAY
9 to 9:15 a.m. — Late registration.

9:15 to 9:30 a.m. — Introduction and Welcome.

9:30 to 10:30 a.m. — Football, fundamentals and conditioning, Don C. Burton.

10:30 to 11:30 a.m. — Interscholastic League Program — Dr. Elmer Williams, Austin.

11:00 to 11:30 a.m. — Football strategy, Bob Honeycutt, Foran; T. M. Dunn, New Caney.

11:30 a.m. to 12 noon — Basketball fundamentals, Burton.

1:30 to 2 p.m. — Basketball strategy, A. C. Teter, Darrouzet; Hubert Parks, Terrellton.

3 to 3:30 p.m. — Defensive football, Burton.

4 to 5 p.m. — Football demonstrations on Foran field.

5:15 to 7:30 p.m. — Barbecue for coaches at Foran.

8:30 p.m. — All-Star basketball game at Sterling City.

SATURDAY
10 to 10:30 a.m. — Defensive football, Burton.

10:30 to 11 a.m. — Rules discussion, Chesney McDonald, Sterling City.

11 to 11:30 a.m. — Offensive football, Burton.

11:30 a.m. to 12 noon — Business session.

1:30 to 2:30 p.m. — Baseball, Burton.

2:30 to 3:30 p.m. — Treatment of injuries and conditioning, Mike Brumbelow, Midland.

3:30 to 4 p.m. — Basketball, Burton.

4:00 to 4:15 p.m. — Announcements.

5:30 p.m. — All-Star football game at Foran.

The American Business club of Big Spring, sponsor of the school in years past, is again lending assistance with this year's session.

The Foran Service club has the job of partying the coaches Friday evening, prior to the all-star basketball game. Members promise there'll be enough barbecue for everyone.

Mermaid Kept From Plunge

DOVER, Eng., Aug. 10, (AP) — The English Channel was still acting up yesterday, preventing Shirley May from having one long swim in the open sea before she attempts to conquer the Strait of Dover.

The Somerton, Mass., High School girl, who will be 17 tomorrow, managed to get in one hour of fast strokes within the comparatively calm breakwater. But it was rough outside.

"The way the weather is acting up, we just can't do the training we want," said Coach Harry Boudakian. "I guess there is nothing to do but pray and wait for calm seas."

In the meantime, Shirley and her retinue are taking it easy in a small hotel between the White Cliffs and the beach.

"We'll go out on the first good day," Boudakian said.

And that may be tomorrow, for it is Shirley May's birthday.

On the other side of the channel, at Cap Gris Nez, France, Jose Cortinas, Cuban swimmer, called off his attempt, scheduled for last night, when a boat which was to accompany him, failed to arrive.

The vice-president has stopped here twice in two weeks to see Mrs. Hadley. Last Sunday they were together at a ball game. Two weeks ago they attended a private luncheon together.

Mrs. Hadley's husband, a railroad attorney, died four years ago.

Bill H. Hatcher, 22, died in a hospital. He was admitted Sunday.

Third Police Death

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 10, (AP) — Wichita Falls' third police death of the year was reported yesterday.

Bill H. Hatcher, 22, died in a hospital. He was admitted Sunday.

Boston Closes In On Yanks With 6-3 Win

If the Boston Red Sox ever catch up with the New York Yankees in their season-long American League pennant chase, most of the credit must be given to their much maligned pitching staff.

Ruby Powers, co-ordinator for the new distributive education course at Big Spring high school, has arrived on the field and is seeking students and training stations.

The work, similar to the diversified occupations course offered as vocational training here for years, deals with retail and wholesale fields.

Students of junior or senior rank and of 14 years age or more are eligible for participation. They must take two subjects in high school toward graduation. Then for spending a minimum of 15 hours a week in on-the-job training and related study, they can qualify for an additional two credits. Upon completion of 2,000 hours of training, students are presented with a DE certificate.

Miss Powers emphasized that in contacts with merchants for training stations, she was not job-hunting for students. DE participants will be placed with business firms only when it fits into a definite

Big Spring City Employees Will Form Credit Union

City commissioners approved the suggestion by city employees Credit Union in Big Spring.

The credit union to be organized under a section of the Federal Reserve System, will provide a means of saving for employees. In addition, the organization, to be headed by a committee made up entirely of members, will extend credit and make small loans to members, City Manager H. W. Whitney said.

Interest rates are to be set at 1 per cent on the unpaid balance. Books are to be audited annually by a representative of the Federal Reserve system, which provides charters for the formation of local units.

Commissioners also instructed the city manager to study the problem of providing water to the area north and west of 3rd and Algiers streets. They decided that the city would send no representative to the Washington hearing on the American Airlines petition to suspend service to Big Spring and Abilene.

Delegations From Area Cities Will Attend Dance Here

Delegations from other cities and towns already have been assured for the square dance jamboree scheduled for Oct. 1 in connection with Big Spring's Centennial Association.

Harry King, chairman of arrangements committee for that event, already has been notified that delegations from nine area cities will participate. Acceptances from that number have been received in response to invitations mailed last Saturday by King. Others are expected to accept invitations within the next few days.

The first 10 replies received, only one failed to accept the invitation.

Bayou Gas Blowout Is Laid To Leak

MARSHALL, Aug. 10. (UPI) — It now appears the gas blowout in an East Texas bayou may have been caused by a leaking oil well casing and not from an earth movement.

The upheaval happened Sunday night and split and uprooted large Cypress trees and buried rocks into the air.

Natural gas seeped through crevices and bubbled up through the mud of Black Cypress Bayou, two miles east of Jefferson.

G. C. Clark, geologist, said last night that leaking gas from a well casing could have seeped through the porous shale formation.

Clark said there was no evidence of any surface movement. Residents who have heard tales of an 1812 earthquake that rocked the area rested easier last night.

Three Fired Here

JOHORE BAHRU, Malaya (UPI) — Six new officers of the Malaya Regiment went out on patrol as part of a jungle warfare course at the British Far East Land Forces training course at Tampho. They lay in ambush, as the instructors told them to do.

Suddenly, three armed and uniformed Communist terrorists walked into the ambush. It was not part of the training. The patrol set up a rapid fire, killing two.

Poles To Receive Work Decorations

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — The Communist-led Warsaw government constantly urging more and more work, is adding two new decorations to the long list already being awarded to Poles who work the hardest. They new orders are called "Banner of Work" and "Builders of People's Poland."

Much along the lines of the so-called Stakhanovite system in Soviet Russia, directors in all branches of industry are encouraging workers to exceed their production targets.

Airmen Put On Best Behaviour

LONDON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — U.S. airmen in England made public today a voluntary good conduct code whose theme is "Don't let's be beastly to the British."

Herriot Fears Germany Still Is Aggressive

STRAßBURG, France, Aug. 10. — Former French Premier Edouard Herriot said today a division of minds exists on the question of admitting Germans to the new Council of Europe.

In an address to the opening session of the council's consultative assembly, Herriot indicated western Germany would have to work her way into the organization with proofs that she no longer harbors aggressive intentions.

He told the 101 delegates from 12 nations that the assembly would deal with "problems of life and death" for Europe.

"A closer association of Europe presents itself as a matter of urgency," he said.

Many political leaders of western Europe hope that the discussions here will mark a long advance toward the goal of full unity of that portion of Europe outside the Soviet orbit.

There have been proposals to include western Germany in the organization as soon as the new West German government is functioning. It was thought that Herriot's statement on the question perhaps reflected the point of view of the French delegation. France has a deep-seated fear of German aggression based on experiences of history.

Herriot listed the achievements of Germany's great men of science, arts and letters and said: "If Germany had remained faithful to these great examples, how eagerly we should work with her for the organization of a liberal Europe."

Truman Okays Unification Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — President Truman today signed the new armed services unification bill. He said that this will permit the United States to progress toward a "balanced and effective national defense."

Especially important will be

Stuart's estimates of (1) the possibilities of further surrenders to Chinese Communists by Nationalist generals outside the Red area and (2) the possibility of anti-Communist forces growing up inside the Communist-controlled provinces.

Acheson, meanwhile, was reported ready to begin consultations with House and Senate Foreign Affairs Committees on the Chinese situation. Indications are that he is especially anxious to try to build new policies on a bi-partisan basis.

Senators Call For MacArthur's Return

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (UPI) — A group of 18 senators today "urgently requested" Secretary of Defense Johnson to recall Gen. Douglas MacArthur from Japan.

Nine Republicans and one Democrat—Sen. Byrd of Virginia—said in a letter to Johnson that the pending $1,450,000,000 foreign arms aid bill deals with "a problem which is global in character."

Noting that the chiefs of staff have visited European countries but are not likely to have time to go to the Far Pacific, the senators said they want the views of MacArthur and Vice Adm. Oscar C. Badger, naval commander in that area, before voting on the arms measure.

It is unfortunate that in this generally progressive legislation, at least one provision represents a backward step," the President said in a brief statement.

Mr. Truman signed the measure in a ceremony in his oval room office. Senators and representatives who handled the legislation, the heads of the defense establishment and top ranking Army, Navy and Air Force "grass" looked on.

The legislation, which strengthens Secretary of Defense Johnson's control over the entire military set-up, drew one criticism from Mr. Truman.

"It is unfortunate that in this generally progressive legislation, at least one provision represents a backward step," the President said in a brief statement.

Receiving the decree were D. M. Motes and J. F. Ferguson, Big Spring. They will be awarded the degree of Knight next Tuesday.

Approximately 30 persons attended the meeting of the organization last night. Refreshments were served after lodges.
