Rain In State

Sullen skies dripped light rain freezing in some places and mixed with snow or sleet in others-from the Texas Panhandle to the Rio

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the rain would continue through Friday night. But a forecaster added, "It doesn't look as if we'll ge anything like those 2-to-6-inch rains we had last week end."

A 5-day forecast said temperatures over the state would average four to six degrees below normal minimums of 40 to 46 in East and Central Texas and 28 to 42 degrees in West Texas.

The forecast predicted spotty moderate to heavy rains in the eastern half of the state through Monday and rain in the south part of West Texas through Saturday. Rain or snow was expected again in West Texas on Monday.

A forecaster said the new precipitation probably wouldn't match last week end's ground-soaker because "we haven't got the right kind of frontal system to give us real unstable air—this is a more stable type precipitation."

The weather bureau said it was unlikely that the freezing drizzle and snow in West Texas and the Panhandle would spread east or

Freezing Rains Making Driving Hazardous Here

Freezing light rain with a little snow mixed in brought enough moisture to dampen the earth's surface and produced traffic haz-ards in the Big Spring area early today. Half a dozen traffic mishaps had been reported by local officers

Three persons had been injured, none of them seriously. City streets and sidewalks were crusted over with ice at day break, and highway patrolmen reported that some bridges in the area were made hazardous by coatings of ice.

The weather picture was mys.ifying as well as cold today.

The local weatherman reports a new precipitation record for this date—.48 of an inch of moisture having been measured at the U. S. Weather Bureau at Webb Air Force Base in the last 24 hours. Other measurements are in conflict with the official report, however. The U. S. Experiment Farm north of Big Spring gauged only .01 of an inch of rainfall, Texas Electric Service Company said its gauges badn't caught measurable precipitation up to noon.

More light rain or snow is on tap for this afternoon and tonight, the weatherman said. Rainfall is due to warm air from the Gulf above the colder layer of surface air.

Some thawing temperatures were expected during the afternoon with the high forecast at 35 degrees. Low tonight is due to be 30, with a maximum of 45 predicted for Saturday.

Texas Electric Service Com-pany reported icing conditions north, west and south of Big Spring, but apparently no ice was forming to the east. Neither the electric nor telephone com-pany had experienced any line difficulties, although conditions were "right" for trouble, of-ficials said.

A trace of snow was noticed at the weather station early this morning. Observers said the .48 of an inch of moisture eclipsed the former record for Nov. 28—.44 in 1908.

Later in the morning, officers said information they had received indicated that traffic was moving on all highways in this area. However, pavement was still alippery despite the fact that ice had thawed.

MIDLAND DIDN'T FULFILL EXPECTATIONS

Probably the most disappointed person in the decline of Mid-land High School's football fortunes this year is Coach Tugboat Jones led the drive to get Midland admitted to District 1-AAAA a year early because he felt like he'd have a better team this year than next. However, those who have seen the Bulldogs play say they're not on a par with last year's team.

Local high school coaches shudder when they think what might have happened had Big Spring fumbled the ball on their second touchdown e against Snyder here last Friday night.

The fired-up Tigers, who were ahead at the time, might never have vielded, after that. The local gridders and their coaches realize all too well they had taken Snyder too much for granted, were thinking, instead, about the upcoming game with Sweetwater. To the boys' credit, however, they came out after the half, ready to play football.

HCJC TOURNAMENT MAY BE BETTER IN 1953

Good as the Howard County Junior College Basketball Tournament field is this year, it may even be better next season. Several of the out-of-state teams which cannot come this time due to previous commitments have indicated they would like to be extended invitations for the 1954 show. Two schools in Oklahoma, Hutchinson, Kansas; Weber, Utah; and Pueblo, Colo., had been contacted by Coach Harold Davis of HCJC. Tyler JC may make it, too.

When Santa Clara played Utah (and lost) recently, the University of Texas had scouts in the stands. Reason: UT's gridders play the Bronco's in 1953. Santa Clara loses 18 men via graduation but Coach Ed Price of Texas wanted to get a look-see at the Bronc formation. Coach Dick Gallagher will exchange the compliment by look-ing on as Texas plays Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl.

ANY TEAM WOULD HAVE TROUBLE IN SWC Coach Bob Neyland of the Cotton-Bowl bound Tennessee team said it and it's been proved time and again:

"A team can really get 'up' only once or twice a year and no team can defeat tough oppoistion every Saturday.

That's why Notre Dame, Oklahoma or any other school in the country would have their troubles dominating play in the Southwest Conference year in and year out.

Orange Bowl officials have been roasted in Miami papers for let-ting other major bowls grab off the top teams in the country. The Orange Bowl, incidentally, was reluctant to invite Tennessee because of a sordid game the Vols played there in 1947, when they lost

AUSTIN, Nov. 28 # Texas post-ed its second clean sweep of South-west Conference football in three years today and looked toward Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns rampaged to a 32-12 victory over their arch rivals, Texas A&M, yesterday to make it six victories in six conference out-ings—a repeat of 1950.

The fearsome foursome of Gib Dawson, T Jones, Billy Quinn and Dick Ochoa massacred the Aggie line for 464 yards and the Cadets couldn't stand up to it for three quarters. Then Don Ellis went in and piloted the Aggies to two touchdowns. ouchdowns Dawson dashed 134 yards, scored one touchdown, kicked a 17-yard field goal and planted three points after touchdown between the uprights while Glamor Boy Quinn romped for 127 yards and talked touchdowns to become the alltime sophomore scorer of conference history. He ran his total to 13 touchdowns, one more than Bohn Hilliard of Texas made 20 years ago. The Texas football squad takes out from practice until Dec. 3 but the coaches will be mighty busy. Assistants Eck Curtis, Bill Dubose and J. T. King will fly to Nashville to watch Tennessee play Vanferbilt Saturday.

Tennessee scouts already have gotten a good view of Texas, watching the Longhorns against both Texas Christian and A&M.

In addition to scouting each other, Coaches Ed Price of Texas and

His second parable was about a man who sowed his field with good seeds, but while he slept—tired from his labors—an enemy came and sowed tares (weeds) among the good seeds. When the seeds graw, the weeds and the grew, the weeds and the good grain were mixed, and his servants asked what they should do. Others fell among thorns, which sprang up quickly and choked them.

Some, however, fell into good ground, where they grew and flourished and yielded a good harvest.

Jesus' disciples came to Him and asked why He spake to the people in parables, and He answered them that to them was given the understanding to know the mysteries, but to the majority of His hearers "seeing they see not; and hearing they heed not, neither do they understand."

How shall we interpret this tragic scene? Is it symbolic of the downtrodden's faith in the generosity of Christians everywhere? Or is it a bitter study of men's failure to express their religion in acts of love.

The ragged children, asleep after a long and fruitless wait, seem to imply the latter!

Nevertheless, this painting is a bold challenge to Christian stewardship. For the blessed work of the Church, in charity and in the spread of its Gospel, is either limited or expanded by our own outreach of love.

Next Sunday will be Stewardship Sunday in many churches. The physical and spiritual welfare of millions will be at stake when you set your personal goal in weekly giving to the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization strong Church, neither democracy nor civilisation can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church reason. and material support. Plan to go to church regu-larly and read your Bible daily.

So Far, Eisenhower Choices Have Met With Approval Of The Public

no time lining up his official family, well-ahead of schedule as compared with custom, but everywhere greeted as a wise and necessary step in view of the present

His choice of Cabinet men has met with eneral popular approval. Even Senator Taft, who admits none of his own first holces have been tapped so far, says he'll go along with them.

The Eisenhower selection for the State Department, John Foster Dulles, should feel pretty well at home there on many counts. He was adviser to the State Department from 1950 until this year's camaign started. He was the architect of the Japanese peace treaty, and a close associate of the late Senator Vandenberg in making the nonpartisan foreign policy

But there is a more intimate reason why Dulles will find the State portfolio familiar and congenial. His grandfather, John W. Foster, was U. S. minister to Mexico, Russia and Spain, acted as a U. S. agent in China and in Mexico, in various international negotiations of his time. He was also secretary of state for eight months under Benjamin Harrison, and negotiated the treaty annexing Hawaii, which Grover Cleveland withdrew on the ground it had been negotiated under questionable circumstances. Grandfather Foster wrote much on the subject of diplomacy.

Dulles is also a nephew of Robert Lansing, who was counselor of the State Department when Wm. J. Bryan resigned in 1915 over handling of the German submarine issue. Wilson replaced Bryan with Lansing, but the two didn't gee very well. In the Paris peace conference Wilson thought Lansing was too legalistic and unimaginative. However, Wilson, like FDR later, liked to be his own secretary of

Next to state, the most important Cabinet job is that of secretary of Defense. For that post Ike picked a non-politician outstanding industrialist and business man, Charles E. Wilson of General Motors. It is the biggest business job in

At Austin a citizens committee for a tate-wide study of the water problem has been in progress. Although there has been some forward thinking on the major prinples, it was evident again that when it mes to getting down to actual cases, pro-unced conflicts on interests arise. Basically it is over the division of water for domestic or irrigation purposes.

Under present statutes regarding surface water, domestic users possess a priority, a concession to the principle that human health and welfare rank first. As pertains to ground waters, clarity is lacking. In contrast to the domestic priority theory is that of priority of application to the land overlying the water stratum. There is a danger in too much tamper ing with water laws, but there is a need for clearing up some key points so that both irrigators and domestic users will know within what basic framework they can project their developments for the fu-

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

Death came on this day in 1921 to Robert Bradley Hawley, prominent merchant and importer and one of the few Texans ever to win election to a public office on the Republican ticket.

Born in Memphis, Tennessee in 1849, Hawley moved to Galveston in 1875. For the next twenty years he was a merchant, manufacturer and importer there, and also found time to serve for several years on the Galveston School Board, of which he was president for three years. Hawley served as temporary chairman of the Republican State Convention in San Antonio in 1890 and also attended several national ns as a delegate. In 1896 Hawley was elected as a tepublican to Congress. He served only two terms; by 1900 another project had seized his interest. After the Spnaish-American war and Cuban independence, Hawley saw the possibilities for profitable trade with the tiny new republic — one of the first American business men to see and act upon that opportunity. In 1900 Hawley oranized the Cuban-American Sugar Company and became its president. This firm represented one of the earliest mergings of American and foreign interests in any of the Latin-American countries.

Affairs of this firm occupied Hawley's full attention until his death in New York City. He is buried in

It's Easier To Write All About Thanksgiving Before The Feast

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are sololy those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald,—Editor's Note.

Just to be on the safe side, we are turning out this bit for Friday's paper before partaking of that seasonal highlight, Thanksgiving dinner.

In times past we have been caught short on energy immediately following this annual repast, and credit same for bestowing bit of wisdom upon us-putting us wise to the fact that there are more appropriate times for work than those hours which follow the complete disintegration of the noble turkey.

This is not something recent, however. It's among those things learned early in of just what it takes to constitute an ideal Thanksgiving Day.

Our idea of a complete Thansgiving observance is not limited to a heavily laden dining table, although we think anyone who attempts to minimize the importance of this factor is guilty of sheer hypocrisy. But, in addition to food, people are required, and am og the things we are particularly thankful for this Thanksgiving season is the fact that we have had people with us to share the occasion

However, people probably are no more essential than food for a "successful" Thanksgiving, unless you can choose the people. We recall some Thanksgiving observances not too long past when there was ample food and an overflow of people yet those who participated would have gladly changed the setting if the oportunity had presented itself. A lot of people found themselves in that same situation

For them, perhaps the thing to be most thankful for was the fact that they could look forward to 'uture observance of the annual holiday in circumstances more in keeping with the American tradition.

At the same time, they could look with pity upon those who kept them from their normal Thanksgiving celebration, because most people of the world know nothing about Thanksgiving. Those who know it, we think, are infinitely richer than all of

plan for resolving the Korean truce proves

1. That Russia wishes to keep the Korean War going in order to force us to spill American blood and wealth into this futile war:

2. That Great Britain will grasp at any straw to get us out of Asia.

The truce talks in Korea have lasted 17 months. No armistice has accompanied them. The talks were designed to achieve an American defeat at the moment when some sort of victory seemed to be possi-ble. They were designed to restore the 38th Parallel as the boundary between the two forces. Also it gave the Russian, Chinese and Korean Communists time to strengthen their armies to develop new combative powers and to play divisive politics among the allies of the United States.

The truce talks were transferred to the United Nations by a usual State Department fluke. The important issue became what the United States would do with its prisoners of war. Unfortunately, by the fiction of a United Nations police action, these prisoners of war, although captured principally by American troops at great ost of life, legalistically are United Nations prisoners of war. This means that hy a majority vote in the General Assembly, including Soviet Russia, the United States can be defated in the Korean War.

The question of prisoners of war needs to be understood. Many of the Koreans and Chinese, who fought against us, fear to return to either the Communist Chinese or the Communist Koreans because they believe that they and their families will be killed or enslaved. Large numbers of Orientals have been used as slave-labor in the building of railroads, canals, hydroelectric works and similar enterprises within Soviet

Also many hate Communism as a doctrine. They are prisoners of war because they surrendered to the United States as a protest against Communism. It would be cruel and dishonest for the United States to abandon these people,

The British are primarily concerned with getting the United States out of Asia, so that this country can give its full measure of devotion to Europe, particularly to Great Britain. Despite General Eisenhower's great services to Great Britain, Adlai cause in England it was assumed that Stevenson would follow the Acheson policy, while Eisenhower would form his own. Certainly, they cannot expect as orthodox a course from John Foster Dulles as they would get from the confirming Averell Harriman, whom Stevenson was expected to appoint his Secretary of State. The British and some other European nations feel that either the United States revise its tariff policies so that our markets may be flooded with their goods or that we continue subsidies. Obviously as the cost of the Korean War is felt more keenly in this country, subsidies to European countries will have to be reduced.

The Indian proposal is that a commission of five, consisting of two Soviet countries, two neutral countries and an umpire be appointed to handle the Korean prisoner of war situation. Where are we in all this? Actually, the United States is excluded. As the policies of all Soviet countries are determined in the Kremlin, Russia is represented but not the United States.

The two neutral countries proposed are Switzerland and Sweden, but Sweden is only nominally neutral because the Swedes live in terror of a Russian invasion. A terrorized country may be unfriendly but never neutral. The Swedes really do not freedom of action.

The State Department could not accept this proposal without outraging every sentiment in the United States. The Indians modified their formula to meet American objections and the Russians rejected the whole business. The Conservative Government in Great Britain is being pressed to the wall by leftist opinion in Great Britain, which is not only anti-American but would placate Soviet Russia in the hope that East-West trade may save the British economy which is in a shatterable condition.

This is a tough situation of our own making. Carelessly, the State Department and President Truman have pursued a course the end of which can only be defeat, President-elect Eisenhower and his Secre tary of State, John Foster Dulles, may have a plan for saving our dignity and honor, but it will be extremely difficult. The danger is that before the new administration takes over, the situation can become worse.

Uncle Ray's Corner

Oxen And Mules Pulled Plows

There were several "city-states" in ancient Greece. Each of these was made up of a good-sized city (like Athens, Sparta or Corinth) and the land around it. Usually the land outside the city had several villages on it, and always there were farms.

The farmers of long ago, like those of today, were of high importance to people in the cities. Without them, the city folk would have starved.

Greek farms were of various sizes, running from a few acres up to hundreds of acres. Many had meadows where cattle, sheep, donkeys and mules could graze. Horses were known in Greece, but seldom were used on farms. When a farmer wanted to plow a field, he drove a pair of oxen, or one or two mules. The donkeys were employed for less heavy work than plow-

Goats and swine also were raised on some Greek farms. There was a demand for the milk of the goats and the flesh of the swine. Certain farmers made much of their income from the sale of ham and other meat from swine. People drank the milk of cows, but much of the cows' milk went into making cheese.

On a Greek farm, you might have found several kinds of fowls. There were cocks and hens of various shades and colors, also geese. A widespread belief existed that white chickens and white geese were more valuable than those with black feath-

No one in ancient Greece ever had seen a turkey, but the farmers raised peacocks and pheasants.

In modern times we have cane sugar and beet sugar, but nothing was known about those sugars during days of old.

Honey took the place of sugar. There were beehives on many farms, and some men made their living entirely by taking care of bees. Certain beekeepers studied the life of honeybees and learned much about them. One Greek (according to an old record) studied bees for 58 years and then wrote a book on their ways. All of the books in that period were written by hand. Those of Greece usually were in
