

THE ELDORADO SUCCESS

OF AND FOR ELDORADO AND SCHLEICHER COUNTY, ALL THE TIME

VOL. XXXII

Eldorado, Schleicher County, Texas, Friday, January 1 1932.

No. 1

Mrs. Alice Doty

Mrs. Alice Doty, wife of Christopher Columbus Doty, was born July 5th, 1858, in San Antonio, Texas, died at 2:15 p. m. December 24, 1931 at her home in Eldorado at the age of 73 years 5 months and 19 days. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Pancost of San Antonio, her father being a prominent merchant in that city at the time of her birth, but died when she was a small child. Her mother moved to the South Concho River in Tom Green County, in 1885, she being a grown young woman. It was there that she met Mr. C. C. Doty and was united in marriage to him on June 3, 1889, and to the union was born three daughters. One died at birth; the oldest Laura Mae, died at the age of 4 and Annie Marie, now Mrs. Stephen Perner, resides in Crockett County. Besides her husband and daughter she is survived by a grandson and four sisters, all present at the funeral.

The Editor of The Success had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Doty from the time she moved to the South Concho, to the day of her death, having spent many days in her home during the 45 years we had known her, we always found her home open to all who came that way and her pleasing and motherly manner always made you know that God was ever present in her life.

After her marriage to Mr. Doty in 1889, he put in a store on the Pancost farm, which is now the first place north of the Christoval Mineralwells road, and the post office was named Christoval after Mr. Doty, given name, which is a Spanish name. The store later burned and she with her husband engaged in the ranch business and have owned several ranches in Tom Green and Schleicher county. Living in Schleicher county in 1900 when the county was organized, and helped in its organization, and when the first election in 1901 was held, Mr. Doty was elected County Tax Assessor and she with the family moved to Eldorado, a small town at that time, about 6 years old and has been identified ever since with the religious, social and public life of our city and county. Of all the long years of her life, that we have known her most intimately, we have never heard her speak ill of anyone and her home was always open to her friends and loved ones and many young friends found shelter and motherly advice from this Christian life. She united with the Methodist church early in her married life, coming from the Presbyterian church and lived a consecrated Christian life and was among those that help the Methodist church organize in our city, which became the first religious organization in our city. Mr. Doty being the superintendent of the Sunday School for many years. During her 31 years of stay in our city, every community benefit has felt the touch of her hand. She loved flowers and her home was always surrounded by beautiful flowers, which reflected the beauty and nature of God's own hand work in the spotless life she lived, and the beautiful floral offering at her funeral bespeaks the love and adoration of her many friends.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist church, the Rev. J. D. McWhorter, pastor, assisted by Rev. F. G. Clark, a former pastor, conducting the service with the Robert Massie Co. of San Angelo in charge. The service was held Christmas Day at 1:00 o'clock, this being the 4th consecutive Christmas that Eldorado has had a death

Light Voltage For Eldorado Too High

Jack Wear, manager of the West Texas Utilities here, informed The Success Editor that the voltage in Eldorado would be reduced to between 115 and 120. The voltage as tested out runs from 128 to 135 and this causes electric appliances to be overloaded that are bought for the 110 voltage. Light bulbs only last about half time and other equipments do likewise. Then the expense runs higher. But this will be looked after this week end or the first of next.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Nicks are here this week visiting friends and relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to those who showed us kindness during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. C. C. Doty. May God's blessing rest on all those who helped us in our hours of sorrow.

or funeral on Christmas Day. After the service the remains were carried to Christoval Cemetery and laid beside her two daughters, who had preceded her to that world beyond, with a number of life long friends attending, she was buried within a mile of her old home and in a cemetery she and her husband help to lay out and set aside for the city of the dead in their early life and where many other relatives are buried, including a brother, Will Pancost and her mother, besides innumerable friends who have gone on before.

In the passing of this good woman, the home, the church, the community and society loses a benefactor of mankind. And as the last dirt was placed on the grave, the beautiful flowers covered the newly made mound, and the good pastor pronounced the farewell benediction on the sorrowing crowd, we said to ourself, "Mrs. Doty is not dead, her body will return to earth, but her spirit will return to God who gave it, and her good works and deeds will live on in the lives of others."

Out of town friends and relatives attending were: Four sisters: Mrs. L. T. Hubble, San Angelo; Mrs. J. B. Cherbino, Phoenix, Ariz; Mrs. E. C. Rice, Odessa, Texas; Mrs. Mattie Edens, Big Spring, Texas. Other relatives Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey, Ozona, Texas; Mrs. Geo. Cauble, Sr., Mrs. Geo. Cauble, Jr Mrs. Paul Medley, all of San Angelo. Mrs. Ed Martin, Big Spring Mrs. Mary Perner, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clayton and Mrs. M. E. Flowers all of Ozona, Texas.

The pall bearers were: Robert Milligan, J. F. Isaacs, O. E. Conner, F. M. Bradley, D. E. DeLong and A. T. Wright.

EDITOR GETS SOX MADE FROM CURICUE WOOL

T. W. Logan dropped into The Editor's office Wednesday and presented the editor with a pair of Sox made from wool grown on Curicue sheep raised on the McKnight ranch in Mayer community. The wool was scoured and spun into yarn and made into socks by Mrs. M. F. Logan, mother of Mr. Logan. She is 78 years old and has been using her old spinning wheel for many years making socks and saddle girths out of wool and mphaire.

The Editor has never seen any of the sheep this wool came off. They are larger than most sheep and the wool is of a brownish cast. The socks were of natural color as came off of sheep. Mrs. Logan came to this section of Texas in 1888, moving to Crockett County, and has made her home in Crockett, Sutton and Schleicher, almost constantly since. She, with her husband, lives in the Mayer community in this county.

Miss Elizabeth Hinyard, accompanied by her father, visited in Eldorado Wednesday. Mr. Hinyard attending a meeting of the Directors of The First National Bank.

THE MACHINE AGE SPOILS A PROPHECY

By H. L. RUSSELL

Advisory Council, Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association.

A NOTED British scientist forecast thirty years ago that by 1931 all available wheat land in the world would be under cultivation, and if the yields per acre could not be increased beyond that which then prevailed there would be a world shortage. The average yield then was 12.7 bushels per acre. During the past seven years, the world over, it has been 14.1. On the 320,000,000 acres in cultivation this increase would amount to almost a half billion bushels more production than the world standards of thirty years ago. In place of dire distress due to shortage, we have had dire distress due to surplus.

Wheat farmers have shown no great inclination to curtail materially their output; perhaps a 10% decline compared with 70% reduction in steel. This unwillingness, or perhaps inability, to adjust production to current needs makes the problem all the harder to solve.

Not only are we now growing more wheat per unit of land, but acreage has been very greatly extended. In twenty years Canada has increased acreage 250%, Australia almost as much. Another significant fact is the materially lessened use of wheat. A much more diversified diet has developed. More vegetables and fruits are used than formerly. The reduction of 1.2 bushels consumed per person per annum since the last generation necessitates nearly 150,000,000 bushels less wheat than was formerly required.

Machines Increase Supply

The factor that has exerted the most potent influence in this rising world food of grain has been the rapid development of the machine. The old days of the cradle required from thirty to forty hours of hand labor to harvest an acre of grain. Then came the binder, which reduced the process to four or five hours per acre. Now the combine does the work in forty-five minutes per acre.

Where it used to cost ten cents a bushel merely to thresh the grain, the modern combine cuts and threshes at a cost ranging from 3 to 5 cents a bushel. With this reduced cost of production, the possibility of acreage expansion is tremendous. Lands heretofore regarded as worthless except for grazing have recently come into competition with the older wheat belts.

The Russian Effort

Within the past two or three years another disturbing element has come into the picture. Soviet Russia is attempting a comeback fraught with possibility that cannot yet be fully evaluated. Russia is eagerly utilizing the very latest of scientific knowledge to enlarge her agricultural possibilities. With feverish anxiety she is literally pouring millions into the expansion of her university research institutes, experimental stations and breeding farms. Her scientists are combing the earth for new crops and new methods. No country in Europe is manifesting more interest and activity in laying hold of the best science, wherever it may be found.

It is of more than passing interest that the wheat yields reported on the huge trust farm known as the "Giant" ran last year as much as 18 bushels to the acre. On this single farm the crop harvested is reported to have been 3,865,000 bushels. A single farm of 427,000 acres under government control and mechanized as fast as human energy can be applied is a new factor in the world's picture.

There can be but little doubt that the Russian situation may yet assume quite a different attitude from what obtained even in pre-war days.

Bankers Hold Farm Conference

A "feeders" conference" was held in a state bank at Presho, South Dakota, attended by fifty farmers. The conference stressed the feeding of low price wheat and barley, and marketing it through livestock. Later, booklets on the feeding of wheat were distributed among the farmers, and a feeders column was carried in the local paper each week.

"We have had more success with the conference and with the feeders column in the local paper, than with any other undertaking we have tried," the bankers said. "As a result there is about three times as much livestock being fed out in our territory than ever before. We plan to hold other similar conferences the coming year."

Mertzon Man Says His Invention To Find Hidden Gold

(San Angelo Standard)

George Sides, Mertzon barber, has invented an instrument, which he believes will enable him to find hidden gold and silver. One of his first acts, he said was to locate in Sherwood, a watch lost during the Ben Ficklin flood. Sides said that his instrument, based on a radio activity, had located a $10 gold piece a mile distant.

He plans to make a large instrument and to search for the hidden treasures in the west. His first work will be in search of the old Bowie mine, somewhere in the Menard-Mason area. He believes the instrument will record the presence of hidden treasure or deposit of gold as far as 3,000 feet in the earth.

TEE WAA HISS HAVE HIKE

On December 17, 1931, the Tee Waa Hiss was organized. A hike was planned for Friday afternoon, December 18, but due to the weather conditions the team did not hike. The team had a call meeting on Dec. 28 and it was decided that they should have a hike that afternoon.

The Hiking Squad met at the school building at four o'clock and hiked to the Nick's Oil well, where a steak fry awaited them. Miss Parker, the hiking sponsor, hiked in front of the team. They rested every twenty minutes. The rest lasted five minutes. After the supper a business meeting was called. The following officers were elected: Captain, Lucile Oglesby; Reporter, Jack Andrews; Social Committee, Bobbie Cobb, Dahlia Fae Johnson, and Thelma Taylor. Their Sponsor, Miss Parker, discussed the rules with them. They make a point a mile, and if they happen to have a blister, or two they lose as many points as blisters. They are to wear flat sole oxfords with skirts, sweaters and tams.

After the meeting the team hiked back playing "Truth" and singing as they went.

They had as their guests, Misses Irene Parker, who hiked with them, Estelle Johnson and Jack Parker who came out for the supper.

The girls making the hike were: Grace Ratliff, Lucile Oglesby, Anna Ruth Spurgers, Loleeta Andrews, Oweda Faught Dahlia Fae Johnson, Roberta Milligan, Alicia Burke, Dorothy Lee King, Cleone Morgan, Lola Davis, Artie Mae Woods, Pat Kent, Thelma Taylor, Bobbie Cobb, Toots Johnson, Louise O'Harrow.

Everyone reported a great time.

JANUARY 1, 1932

The Christmas holidays have come and gone, and if the bills were all paid there would be some consolation that it had passed. Eldorado, as far as we know, spent a sober quiet and joyful Christmas, excepting for the sad gloom cast over our city by the death of Mrs. C. C. Doty on Christmas Eve, at the time everyone was planning for Santa Claus, even in her own home, the usual Christmas tree and decorations were already up for the Christmas eve night, when her grandson and the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill were to be remembered as was the custom of the Doty family for years. At Mr. Doty's and Annie Marie's request all Christmas programs were carried out even in their own home, which no doubt was the wish of Mrs. Doty. For four consecutive years Eldorado has had a death or a funeral on Christmas Day. Ruby Ratliff, F. Ramsel and Mrs. B. A. Whitten.

The year 1931 with its pleasures and disappointments has passed into history and The Success greets you on this first day of 1932, with the utmost confidence that our county and people have passed through the year in as good condition as any people upon the face of the earth. Our people have suffered from the financial depression, but in most parts have had splendid health and have suffered no epidemic or bad malady. We have raised bountiful crops and had splendid range for our stock, in fact God has smiled upon us in a wonderful way. Most of us will pull out of our financial difficulties if we can adopt ourselves to the fact that we cannot buy everything we want.

Professor William Patten of Dartmouth College, has now discovered and has evidence to prove that the human race came into existence by evolution from the finny tribe. His discovery sounds plausible as we come in contact with so many suckers in the human family, and no doubt Prof Patten is the largest fish on the globe.

In spite of other governments protests against the Japanese advance in Manchuria, Japan says all Chinese that are not under Japanese rule are outlaws and must be subdued before the advance is halted. The U. S. Government will probably be out more on sending telegrams of protest than they have invested in China, and then their protest are too suggestive for a Jap. They can't understand such mild protest, what they want is Manchuria and they will be easier kept out than they will be to kick out after they get full possession.

This week has been a stock taking week for the business men. Why not make it a stock taking week for our individual selves.

THE CAUSE OF DEPRESSION ANALYZED

"Dear Mr. Editor: There seems to be so much talk about our so called Republican prosperity, I believe 'tis my duty to write my views on the same, and help to analyze the situation so far as possible, so's we can make up our minds we had ought to change our ways of living and so forth.

"I have taken my own case, for instance. I see my mistakes and many others have acted like wise. I bought a Ford instead of a farm and it is worn out, but the farm I figured on is still open. I invested in a radio instead of a cow, and the radio gives static instead of milk.

"I am feeding five nice hounds which answer to the names of Red, Red Wing, Slobber, Jake and Bayrum, instead of five pigs I had our piano tuned instead of the well cleaned out. I spent all my cash in 1928 and used my credit for 1929, and traded up my future wages on installments in 1930, so hard times caught me in bad shape last fall.

"If I had only spent my last $10 for flour and meat instead of gas and oil I would have been okeh. I built a nice garage last year instead of covering my barn, and loafed on a mountain for two weeks instead of being in the pasture fixing it so my cow won't get out; but she is dry and mortgaged to boot for two blankets my wife bought from an agent instead of paying the preacher.

"I'm on a cash basis now, but I ain't got no cash. I am tied to the end of my rope and the man I am working for is busted on account of nobody wouldn't pay him, and his cotton won't sell, 'cause nobody won't buy cotton clothes. All the gals wear slick silky stockings and silk underwear right here in our cotton patch. I had $4 saved up for a rainy day, but it turned dry and I spent it for inner tubes.

"I tried hard to make both ends meet with a turnip patch, but when I got turnips ready to sell, everybody else was selling turnips for nothing and the market was glutted. I am worried plum to the bone and my wife's

PROGRESS

Civilization may be likened unto a huge, heavily laden vehicle, standing upon the highway of life. The load consists of all the impedimenta, with which man has equipped himself for the march of progress. Two horses are set to the task of pulling this load. One of them is named "Moral" and the other "Material." They are hitched to the vehicle by means of a double tree, fastened to the base of the tongue by a pin thrust thru its center. If these horses could be induced to pull together they might start the load. But, alas! As we swing the whip over one and he pulls ahead the other is thrown back an equal distance and the vehicle stand still. For the last fifty years, we have been urging "Material" into the collar and he has responded with such good will that "Moral" has been thrust back against the load and the wagon has not moved. We are hung on a dead center.

Meanwhile we are still pounding "Material" over the back and boasting of the progress we are making. We have given very nearly the whole of our attention to the subjecting the forces of nature to the obedience of man's will. While doing so, we have neglected "Moral." Instead of keeping up his end he has been thrust back equally as far as the other has advanced, and the load remains stationary. While our attention has been centered upon the powers of nature, such as electricity and the great possibilities it opened to inventive genius, we have neglected the supernatural, from whence the moral equipment of man draws its power. While we have been congratulating ourselves over some new conquest over material forces, such as radio, television, etc, we have failed to see the awful significance of the fact that the streets of our city are being used as a battle ground whereon gangsters fight out their differences with machine guns, the achievement of material inventors. Banks are being robbed in daylight; prominent citizens or members of their families, live in constant fear of kidnapping and being held for ransom. Our country is infested with footpads, bootleggers, hijackers and every sort of thief, preying off of the honest citizen.

The divorce court is destroying homes with ever increasing speed. Our peace officers are being corrupted wholesale. In our cities the criminal judge on the bench and the policeman who walks the beat are hand in glove with the criminal and promise him immunity from arrest or conviction if he will share the swag. Even our national government has sunk so low that it seems willing to grant immunity to the bootlegger, for a share in his criminal gains. In the meantime the vehicle stands still. Civilization remains stuck in the mud of immorality. What is the remedy? We have failed to insist upon "Moral" pulling his share of the load. We have given the natural most of our attention and neglected the supernatural. Our churches are being deserted, our moral laws trampled upon, our Bible denied our Savior discounted, and all the agencies thru which we draw our power from heaven rusting out from disuse.

Tobe Whitley was in the city Saturday afternoon.

ALUMNI AND SOCIETY

By Thelma Taylor
Edward Ratliff is at home and is enjoying watching the basketball practice every evening. Edward was the Captain of the Eagles during his last year in school.

Fred Williams who is at home from Texas Tech. He has the prettiest pair of yellow breeches with T T C on them, of which he seems to be very proud. He may well be for he passed his English Exam and made the highest grade in the Freshman Class. Fred is the only person in the class who answered one question correct which shows that he is a genius.

Hazel Brtton is home from Stil Ross but we have not seen her intelligent face around here. Does look like she would at least care enough about us to come and visit with us.

Irene Parker who is now a teacher at a school close to Paint Rock is visiting her parents and Luther at Bailey Ranch. She went on the hike with us Monday Evening and was a real hiker.

Anna Ruth Spurgers spent the Christmas Holidays at Sabinal and reports a very good time.

Jessella and Inez have been calling me down for not putting their names in the paper, so I want to have proof that I have done it and here they are.

Buck Kent was home for the holidays and his hair is still as pretty and curly as it was when we saw him last.

Lois Sharp and Jack Etheridge were married last week and Jack already has a skinned up face but Lois didn't do it because he fell off of a horse.

Buck Bailey, Coach at Washington State College, was shooting firecrackers on the street Christmas Eve and he made the remark that he would rather do that than Coach the Washington State College Football Team.

THE SHOWDOWN

Gusta V. Graves
Well, it is only two more weeks until the students find out whether it is to be or not to be. This is the sixteenth week of school almost half the number that we are doomed to go.

Some courses are to be added after mid-terms. Teras History is one which is definitely known will be added. This course is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

These mid term exams which we were talking about count approximately one third of our term grade. So we will have to whoop'er up and burn midnight oil between now and the eleventh of January if we expect to pass.

I am throwing this bunch of roses at the History III class especially. Yes I am one of those who will burn some of this oil too, oh yes, and there's that

ATHLETICS

BASKETBALL PROSPECTS VERY GOOD

Jack Ratliff
Basketball has started in earnest this week. Coach Williamson is banking on a good team. The boys practiced very little before Christmas. Monday, the Hi School boys played the "ex-convicts" of the Hi School. The "ex-convicts" beat the school boys, but they beat them by very few points. There are only three letter men. They are Lefty Smith, captain, Junior Isaacs, and Jack Kerr. Other boys that are coming out are Hollis McCormick, Albert McGinty, Marshall Chick, Bill Smith, J. R. Conner, Gerald Gafford and Eugene Lewis. Out of this group, Coach Williamson should put a very good team on the court.

proposition about the dihedral angle that I am going to have to learn in case Miss Bradshaw asks it on the exam.

There will be no exemptions this semester, but they will be given the last term. What a pity for some of our good students to have to put their noses to the grindstone with the rest of us poor ignorant fools! The preceding senior classes have all been exempt on a B average at the end of the last term. How we hope they will continue to be thus! If we are exempt on a B average perhaps I shall get at least within seeing distance of one even if I'm not such a bright student in history.

Laying all jokes aside, we think we have a fairly good average and that we will not have many who will not pass their courses. Every one has kept up

The interclass basketball is in earnest this week. Each team will play twice until the championship team has the best average. The coaches are boys that are on the first string. Freshman, Mr. Smith; Sophomores, Junior Isaacs; Juniors, Lefty Smith; Seniors, Albert McGinty Jack Kerr and J. R. Conner are referees.

Seniors Shade Sophs 3 - 0
Monday, the seniors nosed out the sophomores. It was a tight game. The seniors played over the sophs almost all the game.

Sophs Tromp Fish 7 - 1
The Sophs ran over the Fish, Tuesday. The sophs had a hard time getting started but they finally opened up.

THOSE OLD RESOLUTIONS

Thelma Taylor & Gusta Graves
Tommy: I do hereby resolve to pass in my studies if it is at all possible and to provide a bottle of ink for me and my friends to use.

Bob Evans: I do hereby resolve to tell my mother from now on when I take a notion to go to Angelo.

Clyde Mills: I resolve to quit chewing such a big hunk of tobacco and will never chew one which is larger than a quarter.

John I. Jones: I resolve to be a good little boy and do just what my mama tells me to do all through the new year, and maybe Santa Claus won't come back and get my train that he left me this Xmas.

Helen Craddock: I do hereby resolve to take more interest in bookkeeping as I may need it in the tailoring business.

Nell Campbell: I do hereby resolve to take my history notes with me every time I go to class as I never know when Mr. Holt will call on me.

Lucile Oglesby: I hereby resolve to be a better student and make a straight A card.

Gusta V. Graves: I hereby resolve to learn the propositions about the dihedral angle so I can prove it on the exam.

Bernard Carr: I hereby resolve to give the teachers more trouble in the future than I have in the past.

Ruth Nix: I resolve not to look so sleepy eyed during the New Year and perhaps I can see more.

Fae Keeney: I do hereby resolve to make Eli behave when he comes home and not ride on the backend of every old Ford car he sees for instance Luther Parker's.

Jim West: I resolve to get to school a little bit earlier and not just as the bell rings.

Luther Parker (after running over 14 sheep and having to pay for them): I resolve to lay off the mutton.

Thelma Taylor: I hereby resolve to take more interest in history than before.

Jess Ella: I resolve not to misbehave in Miss Meyer's study hall.

Melba Jones: I resolve not to listen when any one says any thing I don't like.

Grace Ratliff: I resolve not to grow taller so I won't always be looking down upon my fellow class-mate.

Vance Morgan: I hereby resolve to continue to sit in Miss Meyer's class.

Pauline Kent: I resolve to try not to be absent from school the same day Fae is because it does look suspicious.

Anna Ruth Spurgers: I resolve to put my mind more on my work than on Tommy.

FRESHMAN ENGLISH

Aletha Faught
Yes we surely did work to get our contracts in on time, and we did!

We have now begun the study of the Bible. We are to learn the books in order and the division in which each book is found. I think the most of us know them. That is we did before the Christmas Holidays and if Santa Calus hasn't knocked some of us side ways, even after the Grand joke the seniors pulled on us they will remember them.

I think nearly all of us realize that Mid-term Exams are coming soon as we received several questions to study upon.

DIXIE FAUGHT

Hollis McCormick
Dixie Faught was born in Lampasas county January 29, 1914. At the age of seven she entered school. She attended school at Lampasas until four years ago when her folks moved to Eldorado on a farm about twelve miles northwest of Eldorado. This year makes four years she has attended high school.

SENIOR NEWS

Hollis McCormick
History III
The History III class has been studying about slavery in last half of the nineteenth century. There were some important dates they had come across before the holidays, but thinking of Santa Claus and what he brought them they forgot these dates.

English IV
The English class had a quiz Friday before they were dismissed. This quiz finished the study of grammar. After the holidays we started studying Pride and Prejudice.

Physics
In Physics we are studying about heat of fusion of liquids and how many centimeters a metal when heated will stretch in length.

RESOLUTIONS FOR 1932

In spite of the fact that New Years is at hand and a lot of resolutions are being made, there are still some of us who have not given it a thought. Resolving is a good thing and especially would it be good if all resolutions made were carried out. But that's where the trouble begins. If one out of every ten resolutions were actually followed during the year, there would be more red ink blazoned on the calendar just like those of Washington and Lincoln. However, most of them are useless so-called good resolutions because they seldom grow to any height. It is just a sort of fashion and like all other fashions it is soon faded. Probably one tries to carry out these things for a day or two or possibly a week or so but after that, they are entirely forgotten.

It seems to me that one's birthday would be almost as suitable time as New Years. If the resolution idea is started at the beginning of one's life and actually practiced more benefit may lie derived than from moping.

Mr. Benton knew the Judge back in Wood county, and Grandpa Benton claims lots of good men came from Wood county, among them was Jim Hogg.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson had all of their children at home for Christmas, except Mrs. W. B. Turpening. Mrs. O. R. The Christmas was a joyful one in the Johnson home.

THE OLD YEAR

Time, which is eternal, again prepares to change the number plate over its door. Rusted by the rains of depression and eaten through with the acids of adversity, the numerals that identified 1931 will be torn down and in their place will be fixed the bright and shiny, "1932."

Human beings, who are neither so wise nor so far-seeing as they pretend to be, will celebrate the death of the Old and the birth of the New Year according to their established custom. Every thinking one of them will entertain the hope that by some sort of mysterious magic the New Year will restore prosperity and happiness.

Stripped of all the artificialities that have been introduced by man, 1931 would have been a year of splendid prosperity. Nature did all that nature could do. She filled the world's granaries with wheat and corn, and piled warehouses high with cotton and wool; but man has devised a system which decrees that people shall starve in the midst of plenty. Man is never so poor as when he produces most, never so hungry as when his larder is full.

He has deified gold which he can neither eat nor wear. His currency is valued not by the wheat and cotton in government warehouses, but by the gold in government vaults. In one part of the world miners of coal starve for want of bread, while in another growers of wheat shiver for want of coal. Yet of coal and wheat there is so much that governments pass laws restricting production and planting. Thus has man's wisdom made want of natural plenty and depression of natural prosperity.

1931 was a year for which the people of earlier times would have thanked their God. It was a year in which we sophisticated moderns resorted to bread lines and community kitchens.

Perhaps years like 1930 and 1931 are necessary to prove to us the error of our ways. Perhaps they will teach the futility of hoarding gold and burning wheat, of starving in the midst of plenty. Certainly these years have provoked people to thought and compassion; certainly they have narrowed the gulf that lies between this man and that; certainly they have proved the utter fallibility of arbitrary, artificial, economic standards.

Out of experiences of years like 1930 and 1931 comes the knowledge that should make years like 1932 and 1933 really prosperous and really happy. Un less, in these trying years, we lost faith and hope, we lost nothing that really matters.

James McWhorter, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. D. McWhorter, came in for Christmas after a two year absence from the home in Arizona.

Hop Ashmore, accompanied by Misses Jake Ashmore and Lelah Spencer, visited home folks and relatives in Rockwood last week end, going Thursday afternoon and returning Sunday

SORRY THAT FOOTBALL IS OVER

W. C. Spurgers

When we were playing football we had a pretty good time and had lots of fun beating the Grammar School Boys. We played the Grammar School Boys on Friday and the other four days of the week we played the fish.

I certainly am very sorry that football stopped and I think there are many more just like me. Our main reason is we do not catch on to basketball.

Coach: How much for the bucket of lemonade, Bell.

Bell: (Soda jerker): How much will you give me?

Coach: (Hands over a dollar and reaches for the bucket): Here's a dollar for the bucket, Bell.

Bell: O. K. pay me.

Coach: (Embarrassed): But I did.

Bell: (Stubbornly): No you didn't. You said; Here's a dollar for the bucket now pay me for the lemonade!

Thelma: Is it dangerous to drive with one hand?

J. R.: You bet it is. More than one fellow has run into a church driving with only one hand.

Mr. Holt: What can you do, Junior?

Junior: Sure, if you'll fill it.

Miss Bradshaw: Do you know where Tommy Smith lives?

Tommy: Yes'm, but he ain't home, if you give me a nickel I'll find him for you.

Miss Bradshaw: All right, here is the money. Where is he?

Tommy: I'm him.

Some questions the freshmen answer

Teacher: Why is not a distance at sea measured by miles as it is by land?

Frosh: Because it is knot.

Teacher: How would you make a slow horse fast?

Frosh: Tie him to a post.

Teacher: What do liars do when they die?

Frosh: They lie still.
