BLOOD POISON

Dick Ramsel was in from Schleicher county Tuesday. Dick stated that his mother, Mrs. F. Ramsel was called to San Antonio the first of the week to her son Felix who is in the Sanitarium with a severe case of blood poison. The fore finger on the left hand had to be amputated.

RAIN BENEFITS FARMERS AND RANCHMEN

Eldorado and Schleicher county received a very beneficial rain starting the first of the week and as we go to press is still threatening. Most all the farmers have their land ready for planting and with this rain now the season for planting will be perfect. The ranchmen also are greatly benefitted by this rain. The rain a few weeks ago put the grass to growing and this rain will keep it going. The ones that will lamb late will have a great deal of grass for their sheep.

Clarence Putman is now working for the Evan's Motor Company. Clarence has been wandering around for several years but has at last come home.

Pete Whitley was in the city Monday looking after business and buying supplies. Pete looks a little younger since he became Grandpa.

LIONS CLUB TO SPONSOR SIDEWALK CONSTRUCTION

At the meeting of the Eldorado Lions Club Wednesday the business was taken up as to the construction of a sidewalk from the school house to town. The attendance was small and the positive step was not taken up but postponed until next meeting. A committee was appointed to investigate the project and see as to the cost of constructing of this sidewalk. W. N. Ramsey and H. G. Parker were appointed on this committee and will report at the next meeting, when the positive step will be taken up. The Club is for this and we are sure that they will put it over it is one of the greatest needs of Eldorado and has been for some time. It has been talked for quite awhile but as there has been no one to take the lead it would soon die down but the club has taken it up now and we do not believe they will stop until the sidewalk is constructed.

Another member came into the club Wednesday, W. O. Alexander, cashier of the First National Bank of Eldorado. We are glad to see him join us and think he will be another hard worker for the upbuilding of Eldorado.

The street lighting committee which have been faithfully working for so long a time, reported that before the next meeting the streets lights would be burning. Anyone can easily see the good that has come from this organization and if you are really interested in the building of Eldorado, you should join this club and help put the needed problems over.

Work has begun on the Shell Pipe Line Station about five miles west of Eldorado last Saturday. The workmen say that it will take about three or four months to build the station and its tenant houses.

Keepstill, N. J. —Observing the occasional hypocrisy of adulthood, little Sarah Nade is said to have asked her mother, Mrs. Lemma Nadee, if a "pillar of the church" meant something to lean against and hide behind.

LOST—in Eldorado, $20.00 bill. Finder please return same to J. L. Harris and be rewarded. (c)

ADVERTISE

The codfish lays a million eggs,
The helpful hen lays one;
But the codfish doesn't cackle,
To tell us what she's done;
And so we scorn the codfish,
And the helpful hen we prize,
Which indicates to you and me,
It pays to advertise.

Where is the guy that said that, "frogs in this country three or four years old that did not know how to swim." They can probably learn now. Bring on the frogs.

J. W. Lawhon Jr. was a business visitor in Eldorado Wednesday and reported plenty of rain.

Melvin Crabb is now working at night and sleeping in the day time. He is back at his old job running the drill for the oil well outfit on the Whitten ranch.

Shamrock—"It's a little troublesome to cultivate curved rows of cotton", declares B. R. Lane who farms near here, "but it doesn't make my mules drunk to follow the curves and it's making me money." Mr. Lane terraced 26 acres of land last year with the aid of T. R. Broun, county agent, and from this land he gathered 18 bales. The same kind of cotton on similar land nearby yielded only 11 bales on 50 acres. This is a return of three to one in favor of terracing as reflected by yields in the first year after the work was done.

FARMERS' SHORT COURSE

DATES ARE SET

College Station—[The 20th Annual Farmers' Short Course at Texas A. & M. College will be held this year July 29th to August 3rd according to an announcement by H. H. Williamson, vice-director and state agent in the Extension Service. Plans for this educational event are already being formulated in anticipation of a crowd similar to that of last summer when about 5,000 farm people gathered from every section of Texas.

Instruction will be given this year in practically every phase of agriculture and home making, including field crops, horticulture dairying, poultry raising, livestock production, insect and disease control, clothing construction and home improvement. Special programs will be arranged for boys and girls, of whom 1700 attended last year for instruction and to compete in state judging contests. Local delegations will be accompanied to the short course this year by their county and home demonstration agents as usual.

D. E. DELONG HAS AUTO ACCIDENT.

While returning home from San Angelo last Saturday afternoon, D. E. DeLong accidentally ran into the back of a car near the old Brannan ranch and wrecked his own car, but fortunately did not hurt any of these occupants of either car. Mr. DeLong had been following the car for quite a distance, when the car in front stopped to enter a gate on the side of the road without warning causing the car following to run into the rear.

Lorene, the 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess L. Thompson, who ranch 16 miles northeast of Eldorado, died Sunday night at a San Angelo hospital where she had been taken for medical treatment. Lorene had been sick only a short while, taking ill Saturday and died Sunday night. The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Monday afternoon, the Rev. J. L. Ratliff in charge. The remains were interred in the Eldorado cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Leonard Isaacs visited in San Angelo this week, returning Thursday.

SURVEYING ON RIGHT OF WAY TO BEGIN SOON

The Santa Fe' Railway Company has applied for permission from the Interstate Commission to build a railroad from San Angelo to Sonora and as soon as this is granted, the surveying if the right-of-way will begin. We see nothing to stop us from having a railroad through Eldorado now. The different committees are hard at work and every thing is moving along nicely, so start listening for that whistle.

INCORPORATION VOTE 84 TO 15

The incorporation election was held last Saturday and for the incorporation carried by the largest majority of votes of any election of its kind in the county. There were 99 votes cast, 84 being for the incorporation and 15 against. This was also one of the quietest election in this county. There were but few arguments and most every thought that it was an essential step to be taken in behalf of our little city.

Now that our town is incorporated, the next step is to find some hard working men that will fill the different offices. This election will be held in about two weeks and if you have anyone to fill the places don't fail to talk about it and get his name on the ticket.

 Entered as Second Class matter July 9th, 1906, at the post office at El Dorado, Texas, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1929.

As Mr. Hoover does not care for Mr. Coolidge's mechanical horse and has no special form of recreation, the White House physician wants suggestions on how to give the President exercise. We offer the following:

Give him a shovel and let him start building the Boulder Dam.

Suggest weekly trips to El Paso Texas, to dodge bullets from Mexico.

Have him go three rounds with Jack Sharkey before breakfast.

Tell him to cross Washington's main street as a pedestrian about 5 o'clock P. M., daily. Urge him to take about 40,000 federal prohibition agents by the neck and give them a good shaking up each day before they go to work. Insist that he split infinitives.

NEW YORK. Scotty MacDougal arrived here this morning after having run all the way from his home in Delphos, Ohio, upon reading that in New York "liquor flowed freely."

PULLING TOGETHER

If the citizens and residents of a town do not pull together how can they expect strangers to think well of their own community? True every town has characteristics. Each one of us is "peculiar" in some respects in the mind of the "other fellow". But even if it is the truth, we should not say evil things of our fellow-townsmen.

Far better be like the Scotch, of whom Dr. Samuel Johnson said that no matter how big a rogue a man was in Scotland, all other Scotchmen sang his praises to every stranger in their precincts, simply because the rascal was their fellow-countryman.

It is better to be like the Scotch, even straining our veracity at least in a harmless way, than to be like the Irish of whom this same sage facetiously said: "I love the Irish because they are so honest; they never speak well of each other."

All of us know that Mrs. So and So should not let her chickens ruin the spring garden, but we should remember that the chickens themselves are things of practical value even if foragers in manner and predatory in disposition. We should be thankful we do not live in a country or neighborhood among the nabobs whose peacocks wake up the inhabitants with their screeches and roost all day on the front porch, and which serve no useful purpose except to satisfy the vanity of their owners.

Learning to look for the good in our neighbor (and much good there is to be found) is a quality that will reap a harvest of benefits. A town divided against itself can never rise to the height to which its natural situation would otherwise permit it. Forgetting our differences in petty affairs, or even in matters of magnitude, is absolutely necessary if we are to pull together.

To be blinded by prejudice is a condition that harms most him who is afflicted. Having eyes with which to see, minds with which to think and enthusiasm with which to work, no job is to big for Eldorado in a public way.

Every person in business in Eldorado should also be in the business of boosting Eldorado.

It is not slapping on the back everybody you see, but feeling like it that counts success.

The wets may be pointing their finger at the brys, but the drys are getting even by pointing a policemen's club at the wets.

EASTER AND CHRISTIANITY

Easter is one of the mileposts in the life of all Christian people. It is a big event in the lives of all those who profess to be followers of Jesus Christ, regardless of the denomination thru which their spirituality finds expression. Indeed, whether affiliated with any denomination, all people in America should show their respect to those millions who celebrate the historical resurrection of the Man of Nazareth.

At times we hear voices in this modern age raised against the Christian religion by a certain class of authors and others in the public eye. They seem to think that if they do not make light of Christianity they will

Ask for this SURETY BOND with your next DUNLOP

WOULD you rather have trouble-free tires, or the biggest tire guarantee in the world? Why not both?

Because Dunlops are built to stand even severest abuse, they are covered by a Bond that guarantees your tires against accidents (like broken milk bottles) and even against abuses (like misalignment).

It's a guarantee that cannot be questioned, a Surety Bond, backed by Dunlop and the American Surety Company.

somehow lose cast with the masses. However to the real student of Twentieth Century conditions the world over, it is clearly apparent that the Christian religion even with all of the weaknesses that we who profess to follow it often lapse into is the philosophy under which the most prosperous nations of the world have been developed and now live.

We need but to turn to Countries of other religions notably India, to see into what depth of degradation the human race drovels when it lacks the moral influence and spiritual significance of the Christ. In India one of the oldest countries in the world from the standpoint of hoarding precious metals, we find the lowest degree of prosperity of any people on earth. Altho the people of India are without doubt the most intensely religious in the light of fervor and sacrifice still they are mentally, morally, physically and financially at the very bottom of the scale of human progress, not even expecting the aborigines of the central part of Africa.

Religion in itself brings happiness, culture and prosperity only by application. It is the Christian religion that is the one outstanding code under which are developed the arts, the sciences, and the modern democratic institutions for the benefit of man kind.

At the Easter time millions of Christians will observe the loving memory of the Resurrection of the Christ whose single influence for good in this world has been and is now greater of all other religions and religious leaders since the beginning of time

Things That Make Life Worth Living

Electricity and electrical appliances are to the American home what religion is to man. They make life worth living.

Nothing is more wonderful than a comfortable chair, a good book and the soft rays of an electric lamp. For the American Home Electricity has done many things. It has placed pleasures in the house where only drudgery had existed.

The vacuum cleaner, electric range, electric washer, electric ironer, toaster and refrigerator have brought many conveniences and pleasures.

Every one should have electricity and electrical appliances in their home, for when discomfort is abolished, then Life Is Worth Living!

THINKING MAKES IT SO

In a certain sense these words are true: "Thinking makes it so."—Thoughts are the determinative factor in character. A person is what his thoughts make him. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

So if some of the pupils who are falling would start thinking that it is their fault and not the teachers, they would probably get better returns. Begin thinking that you are going to pass and don't become discouraged.

Walter D. Wintle has given us some words to fit in the discourse.

"If you think you are beaten, you are, If you think you dare not, you don't, If you'd like to win, but you think you can't, It's almost a cinch you won't."

So there you are, you go as your thoughts guide you. Since it is true that "Thinking makes it so," we must know that the kind of thinking determines the kind of question at issue. Good thoughts make good lives; wicked thoughts make evil lives. Thoughts determine disposition, character and destiny. Yes—"Thinking makes it so."

The boys tennis season was opened by a defeat at the hands of Christoval, but the boys give promise of closing it with some thing very different. This was just a practice match with G. Ratliff playing singles and losing to H. E. Chapple, 6-4, 6-4.

E. Ratliff and G. Ratliff played in the doubles, losing 6-4, 5-7 and 7-5. The matches were very well played and with a couple of week practice our boys should make a good showing in the District.

We go to Christoval Wednesday for a return match.

Extemporaneous Speaking

The pupils who are entering the extemporaneous speaking contest, are finding some interesting and helpful work. There are only a few in the class; however they are good workers and are all determined to win in the try-outs next week. The class is using topics of current interest found in the Review of Reviews. The topics are educational and the class is learning quite a bit about topics of historical interest as well as learning to speak before an audience. More pupils should be deriving benefits from this.

Hassel Ratliff was asked to write a thoroughly angry business letter for his English lesson. The following was submitted to Miss Flanagan:

Sir: My Typist, being a lady, cannot take down what I think of you. I being a gentleman, can not write it. You being neither, can guess it all.

Tenth graders are unusually apt in English rhymes. The other day when Miss Flanagan asked what rhymed with "fun," Edwin Kent said: "Is it what a man calls his wife." "No, it isn't Hun."

TOO MUCH DETAIL

A Chicago man collapsed and died in making his monthly rounds to collect interest from 35 different banks. Maybe Carnegie was right after all, when he said it was better to put all of your eggs in one basket and then watch that basket.

MRS. O. CAIN, STATE CHAIRMAN OF JUVENILE PROTECTION SOCIETY SPEAKS IN ELDORADO

Title of Lecture: "Juvenile Protection and Awakened Motherhood."

Fathers who realize that they should remove the difficulties placed before their boys are the fathers who are doing their parts in making the home function properly. When a father is neglectful in the early years of his child's life he is doing that child an injustice which will probably make him delinquent as he grows older. A man engaged in the Social Welfare work in the form of superintending a home for delinquent boys one day had the boys brought before him and questioned them as to their answers with these words: "My Father",----My father was a bootlegger my father left my mother, my father did not care for me, my father abused me and drove me from home." A father on one of our larger cities was one day talking to a friend about this boy. "Yes," said the father "business takes a lot of my time but after the New Year I am going to be in position to give the boy more of my time, I would have done it before but it seems like I have been so busy that I had time for nothing but work." But before the New Year came that father's son was killed in an automobile accident while riding one night with a bunch of drunken friends. His father had waited too long to get acquainted with his son. It is true that he gave him a home, money, clothes and a car but he did not give him the love, friendship and understanding that he should have had.

Mothers have time for parties and time to spend in the beauty parlors trying to put beauty into their faces when they should be putting beauty into their hearts and souls. Mothers should spend more of their time in playing her part in making the home what it should be, they should learn to better themselves, their homes and to prepare her children for the lives they have to live. A number of mothers take the afternoons to nothing but purely selfish pleasure, they sometimes take their children to spend the evening in a picture show while they spend the evening unencumbered by the children at a tea party. One day a little girl brought me some candy at my home. I asked her if her mother had taught her how to make it. "Why no," she answered, "my mother never taught me how to do anything she is never at home." Some mothers spend so much of their time out when they should be at home to help their children with the daily problems of life. The children come home from school, their mothers are out, then they go to the picture show and wait until their mothers come for them. A matron of one of the big theaters says she often has to go in the theatre and seek out children who have been left their by their mothers and who have become frightened by some scene because as they now stand they tend to detract the child's mind from moral high-minded thoughts.

The influence which goes out from the homes, churches and law abiding citizens is the influence which tends to build up juvenile protection in our communities. The indifferent parent is the one who puts his influence with the criminal and lawless side of the community. You assume the responsibility of a law abiding citizen and protector of children when you assume the responsibility of parent hood. We either build in our lives a stumbling block or a stepping stone. Which are you building?

Another thing, mothers and fathers, teach your children sex hygiene in the home for if you do not teach them there they will learn these things from the streets. The finest thing in the world is to be ready for parent hood, therefore, save your children for fine clean mothers and fathers.

People sometimes give more of their time and attention to the pets about the house than they do to their own children. The dog or cat may stray away and will arouse the interest of the entire household but let one of the children be absent for several hours and very little if any notice is taken of the fact. If we mothers and fathers of today could build up awakened parent hood it would be a wonderful inheritance to leave to our children. There is the story of the three men who were building the Temple. A passerby asked the first one what he was doing, he answered: "I am earning three dollars a day." He questioned the second as to what he was doing, he replied: "I am shaping this stone." The passerby went on to the third laborer and asked him the purpose of his work and with a heavenly light in his eyes the stone cutter looked up at his questioner and answered: "Sir, I am building this Temple." This article of Mrs. Cain's lecture will be continued in next week's issue of The Success.

Badly Run-Down

"Six years ago, I was very much run-down," says Mrs. Olympia Knight of Lovett, Ga. "I did not sleep well, and was weak and restless. I dragged around the house with not enough strength to do my daily tasks. I worried a lot, and this disturbed state of mind reacted on my health."

"I had often read of Cardui, so I thought I would try it. I soon began to improve after I had taken Cardui for a while. It was astonishing how much I picked up. I slept better, my appetite improved, and that awful dragging-down feeling left me."

"I was so much better that I continued taking Cardui until I felt perfectly well. Cardui has been used by women for over 50 years. For sale by all druggists."

SHELL BROS. TRAINED WILD ANIMAL SHOW

Trained Animals and Other Big Acts Feature the Show

This show is advertised as different, is so not only in name, but in fact. Everything is new, clean and good to look at from the people, horses, wagons to the costuming of the acts in the arena. Even Prof. Matthew's big brass band, is not a continuous roar of discords, with amateurs trying to play music, but a band of real artists made up of musicians from the best military bands in the country.

Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Show this year, its nineteenth annual tour, is better, larger, stronger and more magnificent in every department than ever before.

The performance in the main tent, from the opening tournament to the last sensational thriller, moves along with speed, one act after another, until the two-hour performance slips away without a hitch or halt.

Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Show is an old institution, that has pleased millions of people for many years. This year it comes, bigger, grander than ever before, bringing with it a galaxy of beautiful male and female performers, wild and domestic animals of all species, gathered from all parts of the world. Clowns, those merry fun makers we enjoyed so immensely when we were "kids", yes, Schell Bros., have twenty of them headed by the premier of them all, Ole Larson.

Aerial bar, ground and novelty acts and interspersed among the many animal features that can be seen only with Schell Bros Trained Wild Animal Shows.

Schell Bros. Original and Only Trained Wild Animal Shows will positively exhibit at Eldorado on Saturday March 30, giving two performances, rain or shine at 2 and 8 p. m. tents all positively waterproof.

THE TOWN DOCTOR

SAYS

If you are a THINKING resident of the place where you live, you desire that the world get sold on your community.

Before you can get sold on it yourself, and before you can sell it to others to anywhere near maximum degree, there is a certain amount of study and analysis necessary. That is, it is necessary if known tenets of good business are adhered to. Sad but true, however, this is altogether too seldom done in things civic.

The first question to be answered, "Is there a market—a demand for it?"

The demand for good, live, wide-awake communities greatly exceeds the supply. Every day people are asking, "Where is there a good town in which to locate?"—for any one of a thousand reasons. Twenty percent of your motor traffic is in the market for or can be sold a new location. Men at the heads of large industrial concerns, people in all walks of life, in fact, everyone is looking for GOOD towns—good communities.

Few people realize the extent to which industry and business go to find GOOD towns. There are in Chicago alone dozens of corporations, concerns and firms who have special departments to do nothing else but find out if a community is suitable for the purpose they have in mind. With some it is for location of a branch factory, employing hundreds; others for a distributing point, requiring twelve to fifty; others for place of residence for the representative and family who handles the company business in that area, and there are others who, looking into the future, just want to KNOW.

And this is your community IF your community is in position to take advantage of it.

The second question: "Is your community marketable—suitable for sale, as it is?"

To make it marketable, the bugs must be eliminated—the monkey wrenches fished out of the machinery, so that when sold it will STAY sold.

What business man is there that doesn't know what happens to any concern that places a product or service in the hands of the American public that, when sold doesn't stay sold? Every thinking man knows that it spells disaster; but in the face of that very knowledge, they expect their town to "go over" with the same American public, without eliminating those things that are known to provoke dissatisfaction, create loss of interest, and unsell the customer.

The first bug in the machinery of most communities is that of "contemptuous familiarity." You walk down the street and look at hundreds of things that repel other people, but you do not see them. You go to your store or office and there are things that others abhor, but you fail to recognize them because you are so familiar with them. At the same time, above you, below you, and on every side of you, there are "acres of diamonds that have never been mined." It is a matter of being "so close to the picture that you can't see the frame."

Look around you—put yourself in the position of a stranger and LOOK for the things that would unsell you. See your community as others see it—think about it—talk to your neighbor about it and then DO something to eliminate those things that repel, and "get behind and push" those things that invite.

War has been deplored, abhorred, renounced repudiated and outlawed. Why not kill it and be done with it?

CHEATAM, Mass.—Daffy Dill local numskull, has written the Treasury department that he wasn't sending them any income tax, as he figured he could get along all right another year without buying any government.
