Reception at First Baptist Church.

One of the most delightful receptions ever given in this city was tendered Bro. Heard, the new pastor, and his wife, last Thursday evening, October 2nd from 8 p. m. to 10 p. m. at the First Baptist Church.

At the appointed hour, about two hundred guests gathered in the basement of the church which had been made attractive with decorations of potted plants and cut flowers in baskets and jardiniere.

Mr. C. S. Holmes, with a few brief but well chosen remarks, welcomed the pastor into our midst; to which Bro. Heard responded with a splendid talk. Miss Lillian Shick, one of our accomplished young musicians, rendered two beautiful piano solos. Miss Mary Wade also delighted the audience with "Humoresque." Readings, which were charmingly given, by Miss Helen Reagan and Miss Margaret Bettie, added much to the program.

Mrs. B. Reagan's "Reminiscences of By-gone Days," were very interesting and were enjoyed by everyone. Bro. Green led in a closing prayer. Informally prevailed during the remainder of the evening; greetings were extended to the pastor and his wife and a general good time was in order.

Delicious refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were passed by Misses Jaunita Ralph, Lillian Shick, Elizabeth Barton, Opal Pittman, Nell Brown, Imogene Price, and Mary Wade.

This reception was so enjoyable that many favor having them more frequently, as this gives everybody an opportunity to become better acquainted and creates more interest in church work.

Streets Marked and Houses Numbered

How many of you who are now enjoying the free delivery of mail would like to see this service discontinued? You remember we were very anxious for Uncle Sam to grant us this service and I am sure it is appreciated by many of our folks. Unless we wake-up, however, there is danger of this free delivery of mail being discontinued. One of the provisions that must be complied with in order to retain free delivery, once it is inaugurated, is to keep streets marked and houses numbered.

Postmaster Ward informs us that this provision is not being complied with and should an inspector make a visit here there is a likelihood that he would demand immediate compliance and might order service suspended until his orders were carried out.

It is not such an arduous or costly contract to number the houses as every property owner can meet this requirement at the cost of a few dimes. The question of having the streets marked, however, is one that must be handled by the City Council, and should be at the earliest possible date. It should not cost such an enormous amount to have this work properly done; and it does seem that the city can afford to do it in order to comply with the ruling of the post-office department.

If the free delivery of mail should be discontinued it would certainly work a hardship on our citizens—since no more boxes for rent are available—and the bulk of the mail would be jammed into the already overcrowded general delivery department.

Let us get busy on this little job and see that it is done and prevent any disturbance of the free delivery privilege.

Vanleer-Wall

Friends in Big Spring are in receipt of the announcement of the marriage of Blake Ragdale Vanleer and Miss Ella Lillian Wall. The ceremony was solemnized at Berkeley, California, Saturday, September 6. The bride is one of Berkeley's most charming and accomplished young women who will make an ideal helpmeet to the man she has honored with her heart and hand. She is a graduate of the University of California.

The groom is assistant professor in the Mechanical Engineering Department of the University of California and a young man with a brilliant future. He is a graduate of the Big Spring High School and we join a host of friends here in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Vanleer all good wishes for an ideal wedded life.

Bud McKinney was in Tuesday from his home in the Coahoma community and reports the best rain there they have had this year. Up-ground tanks on his farm were filled for the first time during 1924. He stated that this rain would do worlds of good.

ATTEND THE BIG FOOTBALL GAME

The Ranger Hi Football Team to Clash With Ward's Steers Here at 3:30 This Afternoon

At the ball park at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon will be staged a football game between the Ranger and Big Spring Hi teams.

While Ranger is in Class A conference and has a dandy football team, Joe Ward's Steers are out to win and are going to play as they have never played before. They defeated the Ranger team last year and are confident that they can repeat this year; as the local team is a far stronger team than it was in 1923. The difference in the score that Abilene made against us last year and last Friday is an indication of the improvement that has been made since Joe Ward has been coaching our boys.

The size of the crowd that turns out to cheer them on to victory will play a big part. If Big Spring's folks turn out in force it will give our boys that needed "pep" to spur them on to glorious victory. The members of the team have been doing fine and we owe it to them to accord them the fullest measure of cooperation.

Even though you are not so crazy about football, come out this afternoon and root for the home team.

Bring one or two friends with you to show you are back of our football team and loyally supporting our schools and the old home town.

Be a booster today for the Big Spring team.

Football Notes

Abilene had the big end of a 19 to 0 victory over Big Spring, but the spectators admitted that had Abilene not completed two passes that were received by Bryan, the giant end of the Abilene team, the score would have been very different. A write-up in one of the popular papers of the West stated that Abilene loafed in their game against Big Spring. Believe me that's about one of the sorriest compliments a paper can pay its home town team.

My idea of the game is that Big Spring would have won had it not been for the powerful end, Bryan, show near as well in the game with Big Spring as he has in Athens. The Big Spring team shows that it will make a strong bid for class B championship this year. Abilene will not step Big Spring next year. Let's all work from now on for the good it will do in developing a team for future years.

It seems that in Big Segell, Coach Ward has developed one of the best line plungers in the state. This big fullback has not been stopped by any team in the league. Spectators are constantly brought to their feet by the giant tearing off 5 or 6 yards thru tackle bucks. Segell is also a good punter and passer.

A new man in the line up against Abilene was Max Crossland. Crossland is from Oklahoma and has had a year of pretty good football. He has never played quarterback, but with a little more coaching Max should make good. Several long gains were made by Crossland in the game with Abilene and Ranger will have to present a strong line to stop Max.

Ward thinks he has a good quarterback prospect in Crossland and is working hard to develop him. Coach Ward had many notes to discuss with the new quarterback after the game against Abilene. It is believed that Max will remember enough to show some improvement this week.

We must not fail to notice the men in the line. It is the linesman that opens the way for the plays. When the play don't go a spectator blames the line. When it does go, the man carrying the ball gets all the praise. Let's root for the team as a machine. Our boys, in the past games, have shown more team play than their opponents. A team that runs like a ponies. The holes in the line are usually made by our big captain, Monroe Johnson. "Mon" is a faithful worker and is a capable captain. "Mon's" partner in opening these "Mon's" partner in opening these holes is Boyd Carpenter and Bill Arnett. "Mon" will have Ike Knause playing on one side of him in the best rawest kind of material Ward had at the beginning of the year, but in practice Ike is showing every thing up at a tackle position. Ike got a good chance this week with Boyd Carpenter out and has been smearing off-tackle plays like a veteran. Boyd will have to work hard to beat the new man out now, since Ike is going good.

It is expected that Ranger will resort to passes against Big Spring's strong line and Big Spring will continue driving thru Ranger's line on straight football. May the whole town turn out to give the boys their deserved backing.

Thanks Citizens for Cooperation

Miss Nell Hatch, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce who has had the responsibility of securing an agricultural exhibit to send to the Dallas Fair desires to express thanks and appreciation to the following for their legal cooperation and helpfulness in furnishing products for this exhibit. If good is accomplished and awards secured, it will be due to the cooperation of the citizens of Howard County named below: A. N. Riley, E. C. Nix, J. M. Coleman, John Pugh, D. W. Anderson, W. H. Caldwell, J. K. Scott, I. B. Cauble, W. S. Martin, Rev. Willey, Mrs. Hart Phillips, Mrs. Geo. Amos, T. F. Nabors, Ben Allen, S. G. Childress, W. C. Barnett Jr., W. W. Crenshaw, J. P. Anderson, R. E. Winn, Otis Chalk, R. H. Sanders, Mr. Franklin. There are several others to be added to this list whose names have escaped me just now but I just want all of you who have helped to know that your efforts have indeed been appreciated.

Fine Rain Received

The rain which visited this section, and practically all West Texas on last Monday was one of the finest ever. It covered a large territory, extending from Sweetwater to El Paso and from Lubbock to San Angelo and even farther south. The rainfall here registered about one and a quarter inches, with a much heavier fall being reported at various points in this county and over the district.

The rain came in a way to do the most good, falling slowly and soaking in; and no wind was in evidence. Though the fields were white with cotton it is said that little or no damage resulted.

This rain will be worth much to those planting wheat.

T. & P. Officials Promoted

Effective October 1st some changes were made in the line-up of officials on the Rio Grande division of the Texas & Pacific railway.

F. J. Roe who has been serving as trainmaster of the T. & P. from El Paso to Baird has had his territory cut down to the distance between El Paso and Big Spring. K. R. Woodford has been promoted from chief dispatcher to trainmaster of the T. & P. between Big Spring and Baird. T. E. Paylor extra dispatcher has been promoted to the position of chief dispatcher.

The many friends of the recently promoted officers are indeed pleased to note their advancement and know they will make good.

Howard County Wins at Mitchell Fair

The county exhibits at the Mitchell County Fair at Colorado, Sept. 25, 26 and 27th, were pronounced exceptionally fine. The cotton, grain sorghums, fruits, melons, forage crops and other farm products on exhibit were a marvel as to quality and each of the exhibitors displayed taste in the decorative effects carried out.

Howard County secured the following prizes: First on cotton, first on grain sorghums, first on Sudan grass, first on alfalfa, and first on

Government Report Cause Price Drop

The U. S. Department of Agriculture issued the semi-monthly crop estimate Wednesday. Its forecast was a total production of 12,499,000 bales based on the condition of the bales Oct. 1st. Last year 10,139,671 bales were grown. The estimate shows a decrease of 97,000 bales since the last report. The condition of the crop on Oct. 1st was 53.5 per cent of normal, compared with 55.4 per cent on September 16th.

Following the publication of the government report the price of cotton broke 188 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fields returned Sunday from a visit in Abilene and the other points east. They report crops in Howard County as good if not a little better than those to be found at other places along the line.

SHENANDOAH PASSES OVER

Our Folks Had Opportunity to See Flagship of America's Modern Air Fleet on Way to Coast

Everyone was gazing skyward 3:45 p. m. Thursday, getting an eye full of the Shenandoah, Uncle Sam's monster airship, which is making a transcontinental trip from Lakehurst, N. J., to Camp Lewis, Wash., and return. A 17-day flight covering nearly 8,000 miles.

This big ship travels at the rate of fifty miles per hour. The Shenandoah leaving Lakehurst at 10 a. m. Tuesday morning covered the 1800 miles to Fort Worth in about thirty-four hours or about five hours ahead of its schedule.

Stopping at Fort Worth to secure a supply of helium gas it left at 10 a. m. Thursday for the trip westward. After reaching Camp Lewis a few days stop will be made and the ship will make the return trip over practically the same route. Provisions for five days and fuel sufficient to drive the Shenandoah 4,000 miles is carried.

In addition to Rear Admiral Moffett and Lt. Commander Lansdowne, there are nine officers and twenty-seven enlisted men aboard the ship. One newspaper reporter is also making the trip.

The Leviathan of the skies is American designed and American built. It is operated by a United States navy crew of nine officers and twenty-two men.

Length, 680.15 feet. Maximum diameter, 79 feet. Height over all, 93.18 feet. Gas capacity, 2,148,000 cubic feet. Speed, about 60 miles per hour. Total weight, 77,050 pounds.

Motive power consists of six 300-horsepower (total 1800) specially designed Packard motors. The fuel is carried in tanks placed along center keel compartment of the ship inside the hull. Fuel capacity, 5,000 gallons of gasoline. The cruising radius is 4000 miles or more.

The metal framework is made of duralumin, a metal alloy of aluminum, copper and manganese. It is as strong as mild steel, weighs about one-third, and costs about 50 times as much.

The gas is inclosed in 20 gas cells in the ship, and is not contained solely under the outer covering.

A Treat for Old Settlers

Old Settlers of Howard County who desire to see the "Covered Wagon"—the greatest motion picture of the age can see this picture free of charge if they will write at once to the Lyric Theatre stating they will be here for a special showing on Tuesday afternoon, October 21st. The first twenty-five signifying their intention to come will be admitted free of charge.

As soon as you write the management tickets of admission will be mailed you.

The story as you know is a story of the early days, the pioneer days of Texas and other States, and you men and women who passed thru those stirring times will enjoy its realistic and historic scenes.

In addition to seeing the picture that will recall the early days of your own experience you will have the pleasure of meeting many old time friends and acquaintances.

Boys Hall Oil Station

Dr. G. S. True this week purchased of S. H. Hall, the independent oil station on East Third street. This station handles oils and gasoline, lube, greases, floor oils, etc., purchased from independent oil companies and supplies service stations, business houses and individuals with these products.

Dr. True has changed the name of this station to the True Independent Oil Company and has placed Jerome Lusk and Archie True in charge of this well patronized station.

It has been a successful institution since established by Mr. Hall and those in charge expect to add many new customers. They will continue to secure their supplies from reliable independent oil companies so they can guarantee real merit in all products sold at this station.

Iatan Flat in Bad Again

Traveling men here Tuesday were talking of petitioning the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club at Colorado to have the bad mud hole in the Iatan Flats, just east of Iatan station, eliminated. It is stated that eighty automobiles had to be dragged thru this bad place with teams, following the rain Monday; and they were pulling them out practically all day Tuesday.

Of course it don't rain every few days but it is a sore spot that hurts not only the county, but every county along the Highway. Once folks beg Bankhead tour to avoid this section of the highway it will take years to overcome the injury.

Carnival Company Not To Come

A representative of the James Carnival Company was here recently to make arrangements to have the carnival stage a week's engagement here. In compliance with the provisions of the petition signed by the good women of Big Spring Sheriff Satterwhite refused to issue them a permit unless they would agree to eliminate all gambling devices or devices which verged on gambling or games of chance. The representative could not meet the requirements so the carnival sought other fields. Sheriff Satterwhite is to be commended for his action in this matter.

Buick Agency Opened Here

R. J. Carter of the Carter Motor Co. of Colorado this week completed arrangements for maintaining a Buick service and sales station in Big Spring. Mr. Carter secured a space from the Hall Tire & Top Co. One Buick touring car is now on display, and a load of the other models will arrive next week.

Mr. Gordon will be in charge of the Buick salesroom here and will be glad to demonstrate the Buick if you will call or telephone him.

The Buick has long been a favorite automobile in the Big Spring country.

3643 Bales of Cotton Received

Cotton receipts at the local yards were held to a low point this week due to the big rain last Monday. Up to noon Thursday the total receipts for the season had reached 3643.

With the warm weather of the past few days receipts are beginning to climb back to the point they had attained before the rain.

A scarcity of cotton pickers is delaying the gathering of the crop in Howard County.

New Tests Getting Under Way

San Angelo, Oct. 4.—Good head-derrick and in the field to be drilled of 15 new tests for oil in the Roter million dollar program of way, according to information reaching San Angelo.

The steel derrick has been completed for Big Lake No. 13 on the northeast quarter of section 12, block 2, 400 feet each way from the east and north lines. Andy Rhodes has the contract. The derrick is being built for Big Lake No. 14 on the northwest quarter of section 1, block 2, 400 feet from each line. Harry Reigle will drill this well. J. D. Wade, Mexia contractor, is rigging up his rotary for the spudding within a few days of Big Lake No. 15 on the southwest quarter of section 12, block 2.

The Transcontinental Oil Company is now building the derrick for a well to be drilled on section 10, block 1, 400 feet from the north and east lines. This well is intended to protect a 16-section combination worked out by the Gulf and Transcontinental. The Gulf will have no part in the drilling, however, but is putting four sections in the 12-section drilling block, according to a Fort Worth dispatch. The Gulf assigned sections 1, 2, 11 and 12, and the Transcontinental holds in addition sections 3, 4, 9, 10, 5, 6, 7, 8, 15, 16, 21, and 22, the item adds. Drilling will start when papers are recorded in Austin.

Pete Hoffman and others have timbers on the ground for Hoffman No. 1 on University land. This well will be located 400 feet north-east lines of section 23, block 11, and about three miles west of Big Lake. Mr. Hoffman is an independent oil operator of considerable means, having been a successful driller at Ranger and Deadmons.

The Arkansas Natural Gas Company has all rig materials on the ground and is erecting the derrick for a well on the Pecos County ranch of Blackstone and Slaughter of San Angelo. It will be on section 11, block T, H. & T. C. Railway Company, survey, 35 miles south of Givins.

A report current here for some time is repeated from Rankin that the Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Company is moving materials to the Pecos County ranch of Ira G. Yates of Fort Stockton. A location has been made there by a geologist for this company, working in conjunction with a Transcontinental geologist, the report adds. Confirmation could quarters close to the Mid-Kansas, in which, in fact, the opinion was expressed that there is nothing to the rumor.

Today is Best

Big Spring Herald: Some people claim the world is making great progress in the direction of better things. Let us see. Last year we had, "Yes, we have no bananas," and this year we have "It ain't goin' to rain no more."

Pessimists always have and forever will doubt if progress scores in their generation. Twenty-five years ago Charles Dudley Warner wrote an essay in defense of his own time and cited the example of a pessimistic Chinese philosopher who lived and wrought two thousand years before Christ. The Chinese pessimist committed suicide in his old age because of despair. He despaired of the restoration of the "good old times" which prevailed, according to legend and tradition, before he was born.

"The present has no friends," observed the essayist. It is always the past that was grand or the future that is to be glorious. Hardly anybody is willing to speak for the present. Because nobody else wants the assignment, State Press volunteers to advocate the superiority of today. He affirms that it is better than yesterday was, and has an idea that tomorrow will have to hump itself to be just as good as today. For example, consider the two songs mentioned by the Big Spring contemporary. "Yes, We Have No Bananas" was a sterile, ungrammatical composition. On the other hand, "Taint Go'na Rain No More," while slightly censurable for its double negative, is a positive and virile expression done into song. It means something, which is to say that the present is a sincere time. When we recall such feebly sentimental and mawkish melodies as "Molly Darling" and "After the Ball," which were sung by the mushy romanticists of past years—when we recall such sticky verses and contrast them with the "Taint Go'na Rain" song, we thrill with pride in the achievements of our own day. We do or we don't.—State Press in The Dallas News.

Lyric's Highest Priced Picture

The R. and R. Lyric Theatre of this city paid the highest price ever paid for a picture since their establishment for Rudolph Valentino's great picture, "Monsieur Beaucaire" which will be shown Monday and Tuesday, October 13th and 14th.

If the work "super-production" had not been so sadly abused and misused, we would be sorely tempted to apply it to Rudolph Valentino's latest Paramount picture, "Monsieur Beaucaire." For if ever a picture deserved superlatives it surely is this screenplay, which Forrest Halsey adapted from Booth Tarkington's gloriously human story and which reaches the silver sheet via the directorial guidance of Sidney Oicott. Imagine the love interest of "The Sheik," the romantic coloring of "Blood and Sand" and the spectacle of "The Four Horsemen" combined in one photoplay and you begin to understand why "Monsieur Beaucaire" is a photodrama of amazing beauty and power. To the students of history it will be an inspiration; to the schoolboy it will be an education, and to the blasé film fan it will be a revelation. All the pomp and magnificence of the court of Louis XV, notorious for its love affairs, its intrigue, honor and vice! The scheming Mme. Pompadour, the dissolute King, the crafty Richelieu—they live once more!

And there isn't a man or woman, who will fail to sympathize and thrill with the merry, dashing Duke de Chartres with all his amours and all his fights! Verily, it is a role that only Valentino can play to perfection!

As for the supporting cast, it may well be set up as a standard of excellence, including as it does, Bebe Daniels, Lois Wilson, Doris Kenyon, Lowell Sherman, Ian Maclaren, John Davidson, Paulette Goddard and many, many others famous on stage and screen.

Film fans, you who rave about the great pictures you have seen, see "Monsieur Beaucaire" and you will have something to brag about!

M. P. May Acquire the Orient

Washington, Oct. 4.—Intention of the Missouri Pacific to acquire the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway in the event the interstate commerce commission approved its application to acquire the so-called Gulf lines, was indicated last Friday during a hearing.

"When the Missouri Pacific has acquired the Gulf lines, it will be in a position to take over the poorer lines, including the Orient," said T. J. Freeman, attorney for the Missouri Pacific.

Freeman also predicted if the Orient can tide over a short while longer it will prosper, due to the increased prosperity he says is coming to Texas.

Attorney Frank Andrews of Houston says the possibilities of developing the Rio Grande valley for citrus and vegetables are enormous, as not more than 15 per cent of the agricultural land has been developed.

"In fact, Judge Crock, after a visit to Houston declared that where there are being shipped out in carload lots within ten years it will be trainload lots," Andrews stated.

Freeman declared all Texas would profit by lower rates and better service if the merger went thru, pointing out three inspections are necessary, simply shipping from Houston to Texarkana.

Judge Wilson Phillips of Dallas was the only person appearing against the merger. He represented the city of Palestine, which fears losing the general offices of the IGN by the consolidation.

E. Cockrell had a splendid Monday's Dallas News every Democrat in Texas. Under the above heading the bolting Democrats support Doctor Butte, the nominee for Governor a does not question Butte's moral character, his religion. Neither do according to his own state- ment a fit man to be elect- ed. Not every educated man how sincere and con- siderate might be, is qualified unless he knows before he takes the duties he is to perform.

Butte has never held any office and therefore is wholly inexperienced and when he ac- cepted nomination for Governor a man with some experi- ence matters refused, he had but a vague idea of the duties of a Governor of this State.

is a fine thing, but not is obtained from books and, in public life, no party that hopes to nominate an inexperienced man because he is a good man.

to call the attention of Callahan County to the one who does not the Klan endorsed Re- spondent will have to be on every Democrat to

Butte has of the disgruntled Klan the votes of the Ferguson Democratic Party. That is what you that the pledge is morally binding to that every Democrat for all nominees, or, at least, not to vote for their names. We have always acted in this way, but we do not even sug- gest that we have no desire to Government Democratic appointed in Dallas last week condemned the Klan, and crowded their inten- tions. Ferguson, the one of the Democratic Party, national, no matter what and no matter what they should gain any considerable number of recruits in Texas it will dangerously affect the National ticket in other States. They will get the liver and lights knocked out of them in Texas, but news that any considerable number of Democrats are fighting the nominee for Governor—they term it Fergusonism—may include the entire ticket—and will injure the National Democratic ticket.

We want Callahan County Democrats to smash this hydra-headed monster by a majority for the State and National Democratic ticket of not less than 2,000. We can do it if every Democrat will vote.

In conclusion: As to the Klan in this county. We know many of them, and not a single one of them, so far as we have heard, has expressed any intention of voting against Mrs. Ferguson.

Many of them are friends that we have fought shoulder to shoulder with in by-gone times—for more than 30 years—for Democratic principles as we understand them, and we know that the combined forces of the Klan, the world, the flesh and the Devil cannot induce one of them to vote for Doctor Butte.—Baird Star.

Exposing Money to the Weather
Cotton opened rapidly this year, and before the rains came, approximately 50 to 60 per cent of the Texas yield had been picked and ginned. A portion of this was sold immediately, but in every community there are farmers who hauled their bales back to the farm and dumped them on the ground to await a possibly higher market. There is no way of knowing how many thousands of bales were exposed to the recent rains in Texas and how many will remain in the open for many more weeks to be beaten upon by storms to come.

A bale of cotton, even at present prices, represents more than $100. It is hauled and treated as though its value were less than six bits. If it were a second-hand car that couldn't bring $50 on the open market, it would be placed under some kind of shelter. Being just cotton, any old place will do.

Cotton that is exposed long enough to materially increase its weight will suffer enough damage to grade to more than offset the added weight. The farmer who does not protect his cotton is the loser.—Farm and Ranch.

Worth Your Thought
What haunts me incessantly in these days of recrudescence of race and national hatreds is the depressing thought that this Great Experiment of America may after all be a vain dream. I dread to think of our country as a people torn by conflict between black and yellow and white, between Protestants and Catholics, Jew and non-Jew, foreign born and native born; a conflict that will unleash all the bestial fury and malice of which only humans are capable; a conflict that will drown the voice of justice and generosity; a conflict that will conjure up a veritable hell where there should be only good will among men and a binding service of common humanity; a conflict that will leave in its wake only the dead ashes of a great burning human dream. We must prevent America from becoming a gigantic replica of Europe with its racial hatreds, its religious bigotries, its cultural intolerances, and its worm-eaten spirit of caste. America is certain to become richer and stronger and more comfortable than she is even now. But what will it profit her if she save her body and lose her soul?—J. Draschler Professor of Government and Sociology at the College of the City of New York.

One of our successful farmers said he made a big mistake in not planting a bigger feed crop as it is a bigger money maker this year, with cotton at twenty-five cents per pound. Take sorghum for instance, he planted seven acres which is making 600 bundles to the acre. He can secure ten cents per bundle for this and the buyers will be only too glad to come to the field after it. Even if you were getting one half bale of cotton per acre you couldn't make as much clear profit on your cotton as he will on his sorghum. He said he had done mighty well on his feed crop the past two years and he expected to plant more feed next year.

Your barn and outbuildings represent a considerable investment. They afford shelter for valuable live stock, crops and equipment. To replace them would cost considerable money.

The weather is the greatest enemy you have to overcome to save your buildings from destruction. Decay is dangerous—it attacks unpainted surfaces. Repairs are expensive, and are too often delayed until great damage is done.

From the Heart of a Little Girl

Daddy, if you know we're hungry, know that we are very poor. It must break your heart in heaven, 'Cause you never did insure! Mamma wonders why you didn't save the dimes you threw away; But you felt too strong and healthy for insurance, people say. You were taken without warning, leaving us to fight alone; You'd have taken out insurance, Daddy, if you'd only known! 'Twasn't that you didn't love us, I recall how dear you were, But your little girl must suffer 'Cause you failed to save for her! Mamma just can't make the living. She is wearing out, she said! I shall have to miss some schooling. For the sake of daily bread, When she's gone, I guess they'll take me

To a place of charity To be clothed and fed; but Daddy, It can ne'er be home to me! Mary's daddy left insurance, And their home will still be theirs; They're not hungry. Sometimes

Mary Gives me castoff clothes she wears. They don't have to take in sewing, Mary's mamma doesn't cry. For her daddy left insurance, But you didn't Daddy—Why? —By Annie Denman in Livestock Reporter.

Deer to be Given Away by the Forest Service

The United States Department of Agriculture, through the Forest Service, has some thousands of deer to give away, according to an announcement made this week. These animals are part of the large herd of mule deer, estimated at over 30,000 head, found on the Kaibab National Forest in northern Arizona on the northern side of the Grand Canyon of Colorado. This area was set aside as a national game preserve by President Roosevelt in 1906 in order to preserve the deer herd which at that time was threatened with total extinction because of illegal hunting.

Under the protection of forest rangers, however, the deer have increased in numbers to a point where the entire herd is threatened with starvation and prompt efforts must be made to reduce it to a number that can be supported by the vegetation on the Kaibab Plateau.

To accomplish this the Forest Service desires first to give away as many deer as possible. The expense to the applicant will be crating and transportation charges, a sum estimated to be about $35 per animal. Young animals only will be shipped. The estimated weight on one animal crated is 250 pounds. These figures are only approximate. Final figures must be secured from the Forest Service.

Shipments will be confined to east of the Sierra Nevada and Cascade Mountains as the introduction of mule deer into regions already inhabited by a subspecies would result in a herd very inferior to native stock.

The Kaibab Plateau is in a sparsely settled region cut off from the rest of Arizona on the south by the almost impassable Grand Canyon of the Colorado River. On the other sides it is surrounded by semi-desert areas across which but few deer attempt to pass. Consequently the deer herd on the Kaibab Forest is limited in its food supply to the vegetation found only on the plateau.

This limited food supply has been reduced to the starvation point for the large number of deer now on the Kaibab Forest and officials of the Forest Service fear that will take a heavy toll if the herd is not rescued immediately.

Rabbits Destructive; Should be Fenced Out

C. C. French, Industrial Agent of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Co. writes the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Stamford, as follows: Gentlemen:

The rabbits are destroying the crops in this country, enough to become a nuisance. Shooting and poisoning them is not effective, and it is expensive.

It seems from statements made by responsible ranchmen that with not a very great additional expense, the present fences can be made rabbit-proof; fencing the rabbits out makes a hog pasture for the farmer's little pigs; giving the pigs the run of the farm at some season of the year will cheapen the cost of producing the feeder pig.

There is no telling how many millions of larva of crop destroying insects the pigs will destroy when given the run of the farm, to say nothing of the insects the pigs will destroy.

The pigs will not damage the cotton, but will eat the grass and weeds.

NOTICE SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Howard.

By virtue of an Order of Sale, issued out of the Honorable District Court of Wichita County, on the 27th day of September A. ### Dangers of Home

Insurance payments help recompense the insured in a financial way but they cannot restore an arm, a leg or a life lost through carelessness. Nor can they replace the great economic loss that results from fire carelessness which destroys $500,000,000 worth of property annually in this nation. Insurance companies cannot give 100 per cent service to persons or property without the hearty cooperation of every individual citizen.

Forty-seven per cent of all claims paid by accident insurance companies are on mishaps incurred in the home and incident to recreation, exclusive of motoring.

Once upon a time when Mark Twain was about to take a railroad journey the agent tried to sell him insurance against being killed en route.

"Thank you, no," replied Mark. "I have seen statistics which prove that the vast majority of deaths occur in bed. I will be glad to take a policy insuring me against that."

The files of casualty insurance companies show that the most dangerous place in the world for accidents is in and around home, an especially hazardous place next to polished floors is the family bathtub. The baby's finger pokes lots of eyes out, one company paying 236 claims for damaged eyes.

The automobile has the highest individual score. National Safety Council says 75,300 persons were killed by automobiles in 1922.

A supporter of the tax-exempt privilege says: "Supporting 1,000,000 of tax-exempt bonds this current year were taxable, the man would believe that the solid drawing the same interest they now draw. $3 is 2 per cent. This would be 20,000,000 to be added to the total."

There is no reasonable supposing that the interest on public bonds, from them were taxable, is 1 per cent higher than it is now. Such a percentage of increase would mean that the interest on $100,000,000 of bonds now pay.

As a public bond is the best of security in the world, naturally secure a lower interest rate on public bonds than private property or bonds. The cause the public bond is ahead of all other obligations.

It has been estimated by authorities that the interest rate on public bonds is over one-half of one per cent. This would mean that instead of $13,000,000 in interest, there would be an increase of 250,000, which in all would be more than the return collected from $100,000,000 (5 per cent on $100,000,000) that would become a saving, plus the added investment in industries, bringing increase in taxable property.

Trees By the Side of the Road

Returning travelers from Europe comment upon the trees along the roadside. With us a road was formerly a stretch of land over which it was permissible to travel—if you and your conveyance could make it through. More recently a road is a convenient ribbon of pavement from place to place with marking directions so that no man need go wrong. The threat we have to rid ourselves of is that a road shortly will become merely an intercity alley between two walls of billboards. But abroad a road is a delight to the eye as well as an invitation to the powered wheel. In France, for example, the contractor who agrees to build a section of road agrees also to plant the trees along it and to be responsible for them two years after the planting. Will America have to wait until it is as old as France before it learns the wisdom of encouraging trees? And yet France, it is said, learned that wisdom as far back as the time of Francis I. And France was born two years after Columbus discovered America. Surely that time, as fast as Americans, native and immigrant, have had opportunity we have been destroying trees instead of planting them, in order to make our highways—Dallas News.

If West Texas would plant trees, and care for the native mesquite where practical, we would see a wholesome benefit derived from it, in the beautifying and consequent increasing in value of our lands.

Black locusts are hardy in the west. Along a fence row, on the drive to the Center Point neighborhood is a row of locust trees that do credit to the enterprise and foresight of some one who was willing to give some of his time to doing something for the general good of his community. Let us all plant more trees.

Howard County Has to Show Them.

A gentleman recently arrived in Big Spring was amazed to learn that nearly twenty thousand bales of cotton was raised in Howard County last year, and practically the same number of bales would be secured this year. He said he saw nothing but hills and gullies along the railroad as he came here, and he was wondering where our cotton fields could be located.

It is certainly true that a home-seeker would not secure a very favorable impression of Howard County in coming from the East; for the railroad runs through a rough country the greater part of the distance in our county. Although a finer country than is to be found in the entire northern portion and large and fertile valley sections in the southwestern portion does not exist—the home-seeker cannot know this unless he is taken for a trip of inspection. That's one reason why Howard County has to work harder than most other counties to win the prospective home-builder. Most folks even though hailing from East Texas, have the Missouri habit—they must be shown and the first impression they receive is a decidedly unfavorable one. Like the recent visitor they can't for the life of them figure out how crops can be grown in the hills and gullies to be seen along the railroad.

But when you take them for a trip out thru the farming section it is a very different story. They can understand why we can produce cotton and feed crops as fine as are to be found in Texas when they see our real country and the crops that tell their own story.

Come to Howard County.

Fifty-five Oklahoma City men, members of the Oklahoma Livestock exchange were indicted in a true bill returned by the federal grand jury recently. They are charged with conspiracy to violate the packers and stockers act passed by congress Aug. 15, 1921. It is alleged that these men brought about a boycott by refusing to buy cattle, sheep and hogs from certain commission houses and also refusing to sell livestock to certain commission houses.

Most of the Big Spring folks who witnessed the football game at Abilene last Friday resent the report in the Abilene Reporter wherein it was stated that Abilene loafed and defeated Big Spring. Those who saw the game and the report of the game as published in the Reporter under the above heading didn't indicate any loafing on Abilene's part. The Abilene team failed to find the easy "picking" they anticipated.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseous Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

City Federation Notes

The City Federation held an interesting, tho not very largely attended, meeting last Tuesday. Civic conditions and other good plans for our town were discussed.

The City Park and the Big Spring Mountain park always attractive subjects came in for their share of attention.

The treasurer's report showed disbursements of $2,304.17, the largest in the Federation's history, and cash on hand of $407.70, and $750 on time deposit. This is considered a most gratifying report.

The Federation has many good friends among our citizens. There is one we wish to mention right now, Mr. Cliff Talbot. We are grateful for his kindness and generosity in donating his services for our summer carnival.

The carnival could not have been a success without his services, and his refusal to accept remuneration is deeply appreciated.

New members are constantly coming into the Federation and are always welcome. Remember the meetings the first Tuesday in every month at the Rest Room.

Class Meeting Enjoyed

An unusually interesting meeting of the Susana Wesleyans of the M. E. Church was held in the home of Mrs. Ira Driver Wednesday, Oct. 8, 8:30 o'clock, and she, with the assistance of Mrs. Chaney, charmingly entertained Mrs. Chas. Morris and her class. A short business meeting was held, with Mrs. Burroughs presiding. Discussions were entered into, many suggestions offered, all to the up-building and growth of the class. A Halloween party was planned to be held at the Y. M. C. A. and all husbands of the Susanas are especially asked to attend in mask. After the business meeting a most delightful social hour was spent, after which the refreshments, which were daintily served by our beloved hostess, added the final touch which caused this to be an afternoon of perfect enjoyment.

On the Main Line

You know there is considerable satisfaction on being on the main line; and that is where Big Spring is located in more ways than one.

When the route for the Shenandoah's transcontinental trip was planned the most feasible route was thru our portion of West Texas. When the world flyers were making their trip around the world they followed the same route thru West Texas. When the U. S. army planned a transcontinental motorcade, the Bankhead Highway, the all-the-year route thru Texas, was selected.

Dr. E. A. Lee, Jack Arington and Lawrence Simpson returned Wednesday from a trip to Waco, McGregor and other points where they went in search of cotton pickers. They succeeded in bringing back four white men and thirty-three Mexicans, but the Mexicans "flew the coop" after picking only enough cotton to pay for the gasoline it cost to bring them here. They wanted two dollars per hundred for picking. Mr. Simpson states it is a darned sight harder getting a cotton crop harvested than it is to make the crop and he is almost persuaded to let the other fellow raise the cotton in the future.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Notes

Next Monday is Rally Day for the Presbyterian Auxiliary. There will be a special program and an old-fashioned social hour at the home of Mrs. J. I. McDowell, beginning at 3 o'clock. The program will be in charge of Mrs. T. N. Rutherford, secretary of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, and Mrs. J. T. Brooks, secretary of Sunday School Extension and Young People's Work. Offerings in order to make up the budget for these two causes will be received.

At the close of the program a real "fun-fest" will be engaged in by all present. Mrs. J. O. Tamsitt has charge of this feature, so a good time is assured.

It is hoped that every Presbyterian woman in town will come to this meeting. It is our Rally Day. We want you every one. The following is the program:

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF CLAIMS AGAINST GAIL BANK
(Unincorporated)

On September 26th, 1924, the Hon. W. P. Leslie, Judge of the District Court of Borden County, Texas, entered the following order, in Cause No. 292, Borden County vs. Gail Bank et al:

Borden County vs. No. 292 Gail Bank, J. D. Brown, et al.

In the District Court of Borden County, Texas, September Term A. D. 1924.

ORDER WITH RESPECT TO CLAIMS
IT IS HEREBY ORDERED

1. That all persons, firms or corporations having claims or demands against the estate of GAIL BANK (Unincorporated), in receivership, are required, on or before the 15th day of November, 1924, under the penalty of hereafter having said claims disallowed in the discretion of the court, to file the same with Thos. J. Coffee, receiver in said cause, which said claims or demands shall be supported by affidavit and shall set out the amount and nature of said claim.

2. On said 15th day of November, 1924, or as soon thereafter as possible, said receiver shall file in this cause all claims against said receivership estate received by him, together with a complete report of the condition of said estate and list of claims; any party to said cause, said receiver and any party who files his claim or demand with said receiver, may file in said cause on or before the 1st day of December, 1924, an answer to any claim or demand filed hereunder and may contest same.

3. The said receiver shall cause this order to be published forthwith, once each week for four successive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Big Spring, Howard County, Texas, and in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Snyder, Scurry County, Texas.

4. It is further ordered that any claims filed in accordance with this order which are not answered or contested on or before the 1st day of December, 1924, shall, in the discretion of the court, be deemed established as valid claims against said receivership estate.

W. P. LESLIE, Judge of the District Court of Borden County, Texas

Of this order you will take due notice and be governed accordingly.

The Neglected Farmer

Presenting the claim of agriculture to the attention of an audience at the Iowa State Fair, O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said:

"When the banks were having grave difficulties, Congress took a lot of time and study and evolved the Federal Reserve act. It was for a special class—the bankers.

"When the railroads were in difficulties following the war, Congress got busy and evolved the Esch-Cummings act. It was for a special class—the railroads.

"When the laboring man advanced the claim that they were not getting all that was coming to them and demanded an eight-hour day without a cut in wages, Congress evolved the Adamson law. It was for a special class—the laboring men.

"Surely, it isn't wrong to take care of the greatest producing class in the country, which is now in grave difficulties."

Harmonizing with, and reinforcing, this statement, George Peek, president of the American Council of Agriculture, on the same occasion, asserted in unmistakable language:

"If we have an Esch-Cummings law for the railroads, an Adamson law for labor, and a strict protective tariff for manufacturers, we are justified in demanding of Congress similar consideration of the farmer."

Quite right. But does the farmer himself choose to grasp the legislative helping hand? Is he ready for bungling lawmakers to become arbiters of his destiny?

The farmer has a just grievance. He has been much neglected. Few spoils have come to him, and what prosperity envelops him has been largely of his own making. But when he views the mess that has been wrought by would-be saviors of minority classes, he is inclined to mingle with his indignation a trace of sincere thankfulness. Sometimes he is glad that no one is "saving" him.—Farm and Ranch.

Abilene Wins, 19-0

Loading through three quarters of rather uninteresting football, the Abilene Eagles got a new lease on life in the closing minutes of the third quarter and eked out a 19 to 0 victory over Coach Joe Ward's Big Spring high school eleven here Friday afternoon at Parramore Field, Simmons. Neither team was able to gain consistently until the fourth quarter when Hodges was sent in at halfback, the Eagles chalking up seven first downs in the last 12 minutes of play.

The Big Spring team was clearly outclassed from the start but fought every inch of the way. The visitors failed to threaten the Abilene goal after the first few minutes or following the kick-off but the Eagles were unable to get the powerful offense going. Abilene made sixteen first downs in the course of the game as compared with six for Big Spring.

Merrick, Rix, Crossland and Segell, Big Spring backs, hit the Abilene line steadily for fairly good gains. Several first downs were made by the plunging backs in the drives against the line. Abilene was able to hold fairly well, however, and Big Spring was held in her own territory the greater part of the game.

FIRST QUARTER

Segell kicked-off 45 yards, Browne returning 11. Brown left end 4 yds. Compton left tackle 5. Abilene penalized 5 yards. Compton left end lost 1. Bryan punted 39 yards, Crossland returning 15. Merrick fumbled on a right end run, losing 2 yards. Merrick right tackle 5. Crossland right tackle 1. Segell punted out of bounds on Abilene's 20-yard line. Compton left end 4. Compton left tackle 3. Wells right end 2. Bryan punted 26 yards out of bounds. Merrick right tackle 2. Merrick left guard 2. Merrick failed to gain over right tackle. Segell punted to Browne on the 10-yard line. Browne returning 20 yards.

Compton left tackle 3. Pass, Walters to Harris, failed. Abilene fumbled, Compton recovering and returning to the place where the first down had started two plays before.

Walters pass 11 yards to Bryan who ran 32 yards for a touchdown. Bryan missed goal.

Bryan kicked off 45 yards, Crossland returning 10. The quarter ended before another play was set in motion. Abilene 6, Big Spring 0.

SECOND QUARTER

Segell kicked off 40 yards, Wells returning 8. Browne left tackle 3. Bryan right end 38 yards and first down. Walters left tackle 2. Walters right tackle 6. Bryan left end 0. Browne took Bryan's diagonal pass behind the line of scrimmage, advanced for first down, turned and cut back. He was tackled for no gain and the ball went over on the 38-yard line. Rix and Segell failed to gain on two right guard plunges. Rix right tackle 1. Segell punted 10 yards to Abilene.

FOURTH QUARTER

2 yards and a touchdown. Bryan missed goal. Abilene 19, Big Spring 0.

Wells kicked off 40 yards, Crossland returning 17. Segell right tackle 3. Crossland left end 11 on a fabe. He was tackled by Hodges after making first down. Merrick right tackle 1. Merrick right tackle 1. Crossland right tackle 1. Segell punted 29 yards, Compton returning 12. Wells off right tackle 2. Hodges right tackle 6. Hodges off left tackle 3 and first down. Walters passed 4 yards to Hodges. Wells left tackle 6 and first down as the game closed.

The line-ups:
Abilene—Bryan and Harris ends; Oldham and Flasher, tackles; Osborne and Bond, guards; Bounds, center; Wells, quarterback; Compton and Browne, halfbacks; Walters, fullback.

Big Spring—Collins and McGinnis, ends; M. Johnson and B. Carpenter, tackles; Arnett and C. E. Johnson, guards; Frost, center; Crossland, quarterback; Harwood and Merrick, halfbacks; Segell, fullback.

This is Fire Prevention Week
 Do you realize that you, reader, are paying, whether you wish to or not, your share of the fire waste, just as the Ancients made burnt offerings to their Pagan Gods? And that in addition to this money tribute, the Evil Spirit, Fire, at any minute may demand the Supreme Sacrifice of you or your family?

Fire waste is not paid for by the insurance companies—they only collect and distribute the fire tax, and you contribute even though you insure no property, for the cost of fire insurance is added by manufacturers and merchants to the price of their goods, and whoever buys any article of trade pays it.

Now for another side of the picture. Have you ever had the experience of being trapped in a burning building? Have your clothes ever been burned off your back? If you are one of the few who have had such experiences and lived to tell the tale you need read no further, this is not intended for you. But what of the thousands who have not survived? What can be done to stop the increase of their numbers? Can you be sure that you or one of your family may not be summoned this very day to join their ranks? The call comes to someone every thirty-five minutes.

An average of 15 thousand people burn to death and about 17 thousand are injured by fire in this country every year.

Property valued at more than 8 billion dollars was destroyed in the United States during the 45 years from 1879 to 1923.

The average annual fire loss during the last 10 years was 250 million dollars. In 1923 it was in excess of 508 million dollars; the cost of maintaining waterworks plants, fire departments and fire alarm systems for protection was as much more.

In other words, at our present burning rate one and one-half million dollars worth of property is lost every day in the year. It is but slightly less than the country's present expenditures for all forms of national defense. The government received but little more in revenue from customs in 1923. The fire loss would have paid the personal income tax that year with millions to spare.

Yet such speculations as these are in vain—the money has gone beyond reclaim; these millions are far worse than wasted.

At least 80 per cent of all the fires that occur are preventable. The outstanding causes are: defective chimneys and flues, gas—natural and artificial—hot ashes and coals, matches and smoking, petroleum and its products, rubbish and litter, sparks on wooden roofs, stoves, furnaces and boilers, electricity, spontaneous combustion and incendiarism. Every great conflagration that has taken place in the United States in the last twenty years, with two exceptions, originated from a small preventable cause.

Carelessness is responsible for most fires—carelessness about constructing and equipping buildings, carelessness in providing fire protection and enforcing fire prevention ordinances, and carelessness about common fire hazards.

Rubbish heaps are fire breeders. A clean city will have few fires. Attics and cellars should be kept free from combustible accumulations. Don't deposit ashes carelessly in wooden boxes, against wooden fences or other combustible surfaces.

Burning trash or autumn leaves too near buildings is dangerous. The careless use of pipes, cigars, and cigarettes causes countless fires. A lighted cigarette thrown thru an open sidewalk grating is supposed to have caused the Baltimore conflagration.

Smoking in mills, warehouses and shops, stables, garages and outhouses, should be absolutely prohibited. The match was designed to start fire, and it does. A thoughtful parent will have no matches in the home except those which light only on the box.

All electric wiring should be done by competent electricians only, and inspected before the current is turned on. Electric light bulbs should never be covered by cloth or paper shades or decorations.

Curtain and draperies may be blown against gas jets by draughts from open windows. Movable gas brackets, if used, should be guarded by stops, and the flame enclosed in wire cages.

Kerosene lamps should be kept scrupulously clean. Candles or matches should never be taken into closets or other places where they may ignite inflammable materials.

Public authorities should certify to the proper chimney construction of every house. Builders can easily cover up dishonest intent or negligence in chimney building.

Fires should never be relighted until furnace is overhauled. Pipes rust during the summer and may deliver sparks to the cellar. Smoke pipes should be taken down in the spring; the passage of moist air thru them rusts them rapidly.

A stove is a receptacle for fire, and should not be neglected; adjacent woodwork and the floor under it should be protected.

An open fire-place should always be protected by a wire spark-screen. Many children are burned to death by their clothing igniting at open fires.

Gas and oil stoves should be kept clean and free from leaks. Electric flat irons should never be left with the current on.

The commercial storage, handling and use of explosives, inflammable and combustibles should be regulated by public authority in the interest of the common safety.

Gasoline, naphtha and similar volatiles for domestic cleaning should be used always in the open air and by daylight only, and never near any open flame.

Oily rags or waste, used in furniture polishing or any sort of cleaning, should be burned at once after using, as certain oils ignite spontaneously.

Fire prevention is as important as fire extinguishment. Fire departments should prevent fires as well as extinguish them.

There is no mystery about Fire Prevention—it is a vital necessity. Fire Prevention is not a science—it is simply common sense.

Growth of Arbitration

There is a notable tendency in industrial, political and economic relations to resort more to arbitration and less to force.

The mailed hand of militarism, the boycott and the strike are less in evidence in international affairs and controversies between capital and labor.

More time and money are to be spent in the future in threshing out the economic details and arriving at the actual facts in differences arising between governments and struggles between employers and employees.

British Premier MacDonald, before the assembly of the League of Nations, says questions of security and disarmament must be settled by arbitration in future.

He declares that no permanent establishment of world peace is possible without a scientific system of arbitration being put into operation.

The indications in the industrial world point to the subsidence of manifestations of Kaiserism in settlement of labor controversies.

Valentino's return to the screen in any role would be a great event. But as the gallant hero of "Monsieur Beaucaire!"

With Bebe Daniels as his Lady Fair! And the glamour and pomp of a King's Court to lend enchantment to his glorious love-making.

You will never know the real greatness of the screen's greatest lover, 'til you see him as the handsome, daring, devil-may-care blue blood of France—

—wooing a Princess in royal moonlit gardens;

—dancing the minuet 'mid the flash of jewelled brocades and rare laces.

—clashing swords with his rival in love in the most gloriously exciting duel scene ever pictured.

Only Valentino could be Booth Tarkington's "Monsieur Beaucaire," the most romantic figure in American literature!

You've waited two years for a new Valentino picture, but just wait till you see it! It's the Great Lover in the greatest romance ever. If you think Valentino in "The Sheik" was worth talking about, how you'll rave about him in "Monsieur Beaucaire!" As the dashing, duelling, devil-may-care hero of Booth Tarkington's famous action-romance.

Such gorgeous love scenes, such stupendous settings, such glittering gowns, such thrills and heart-throbs have never before been equalled! Miss any one but this.

Non-Stop Run—El Paso to San Antonio

This is to advise you that we have completed arrangements with Mr. William Steinhart, owner of the Crockett Automobile Company, Hudson and Essex distributors of San Antonio, to put on a non-stop auto run starting from El Paso, November 5. Mr. Steinhart will leave San Antonio in ample time to visit the Hudson and Essex dealers in each town along the line on his way out to El Paso, as the most of them, together with the Hudson and Essex owners would like to have the opportunity to see the car that is going to make this run.

Mr. Steinhart is financing this proposition himself and not asking any favors of anyone, therefore, we feel it our duty to see that he is given every cooperation possible. The car will be loaded with official observer, and the newspaper men. The Mayor, County Judge and Chamber of Commerce of El Paso will be invited to write a short letter to be handed out to the Mayors, Judges and Chambers of Commerce along the line and at the same time a Committee in each town will be requested to wire or telephone the Radio Broadcasting station at the Southern Equipment Co. and the San Antonio Express the exact minute that the car passes each town. The Broadcasting station in turn will broadcast it all over the United States. This will advertise to the entire country the splendid highways that exist over the Glacier to Gulf and Bankhead Highways between San Antonio and El Paso. It will enable us to secure a lot of the California traffic that will be going to Florida in December and January.

How Folks Answer the Telephone in Other Lands

What do people say in various lands when they answer the ring of their telephone?

In England it is: "Are you there?"
In France: "Allo."
In Japan: "Moshi Moshi."
In Spain: "Oogia," meaning "I hear."

In Italy: "Pronto."
In Sweden: "Hallo."
In America, Germany, Switzerland and several other countries, the person answering the ring simply says: "Mr. _____," giving his name.

This method saves time and is a practice which is being followed more and more each day.

NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE

Big Spring Women Have Learned The Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches.

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and use Doan's Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well recommended by Big Spring people. Ask your neighbor. Read this case: "Quite awhile ago kidney trouble came on me all of a sudden. I had sharp pains in my back over my kidneys, which were so bad sometimes I could hardly catch my breath. Nights it hurt me so I would roll from side to side and was very restless. I had spells of nervousness when the least thing would irritate me. My kidneys acted irregularly. I felt all worn-out. I started using Doan's Pills and am glad to say they gave me immediate relief."

THE PASSING DAY

Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, University of Texas

One of the most difficult lessons to impress on students is the importance of being punctual in attendance at classes and meetings and in doing the work assigned to them. The fault must lie in the homes, for it is a lesson that has to be taught to every one. In fact it looks like tardiness is almost a national habit. When asked to do a thing, even the smallest children will almost invariably reply "In a minute," and the average small boy thinks he is doing well if an errand is performed within an hour or two of the time in which he is told to do it. With this condition in the homes, it is hard for teachers to change habits when the children go to school.

The worst thing about this habit of tardiness formed in youth is that it nearly always clings on through life. Most of us are inclined to put off the doing of a thing until the last minute, although we know that the longer action is delayed, the more difficult it becomes. Especially is a difficult task the more difficult and the more dreaded when it is postponed from time to time. It is axiomatic that most of our troubles vanish before they are reached, but a thing that has to be done grows larger to the mind with each postponement, even though it may appear insignificant when it is finally reached.

Every person who has served on a committee or attended a public meeting has been impressed with the great loss of time in waiting. Not one person in ten attends a meeting promptly, and those who struggle in appear to place no value whatever on the time of those who are forced to await their coming. You may have a right to waste your own time, but have no right to steal the time of any one else by keeping that person waiting for you.

The tardiness habit often hits farmers especially hard. I know a hard-working farmer, who does not appear to mind toiling from sunrise to sunset, but who never plows his land early enough, never plants his crops when they should be planted, and when he is fortunate enough to make a good crop he never gathers it soon enough to save it in its best condition. He wonders why, although he works harder than most of his neighbors, he does not prosper like they do. He does not seem to realize that it is because he never does a thing when it should be done that he is a failure as a farmer.

There are merchants who do not buy goods until they are to be found on the shelves of all the other stores, and the buyers have been forced to go to other places for them. There are other merchants who do not advertise until they see that other merchants are getting the bulk of their trade and they fall in line, and hope to get the trade that has been attracted to other stores or to other towns. Such merchants may spend one way or another as much money as their competitors in trying to attract trade, but they dilly-dally until competition gets ahead of them. They then wonder why they are not getting the business that goes elsewhere.

There are communities and towns that are afflicted with the tardiness habit to such an extent that they have come to be classed as mossback communities or "water-tank" towns. The inhabitants sit still and let places about them grow through progressive methods. They watch the trade that they would have drift to the towns that use modern methods to get business. They even see their children leave their homes in utter disgust with the slowness of the places where they have grown up. They appear oblivious to the decay and slow death about them. Apparently they do not realize that they could prosper just as richly as the others and that the poverty of their town in all the things that go to make life worth while is due to their disposition to put off action. It is folly to travel like a snail when others headed for the same goal are using automobiles or airplanes.

South Should Use Southern Products

We believe every person living in the South is interested in the things produced in the South, that he wants to help himself and his neighbor by showing his faith in the things grown and produced at home, and it has occurred to us to bring to your attention something that is most important, as it affects you and it affects a great Southern industry. The necessity is present for a greater consumption of cotton seed products.

It has come to our attention that efforts are being made by the manufacturers of compound lard to substitute other materials for cotton seed oil. These substitutions have already been made to such an extent that the identity of cotton seed oil as the base of compound lard is being threatened, and the consumption of this home product is seriously reduced. The manufacturers are able to make these substitutions within the law as their packages are labeled "Made From Pure Vegetable Oil." This broad description covers anything that can be classed as a vegetable oil. Coconut, soy bean, peanut, and sesame oils are substitutes relied upon; but with the exception of coconut, which is imported from the Philippines and is also produced to some extent in this country from imported raw material, an import tax is imposed, and coconut has now become the chief substitute for cotton oil in compound lard.

Cotton seed oil has long since been recognized as superior to any kind of cooking fat, and the value of cotton oil has been the foundation for compound lard. It would now seem criminal that the manufacturers of compound should betray the confidence of their customers by introducing an inferior ingredient into a manufactured product which won its preferred place with the consumers as a cotton seed oil lard compound.

You are a consumer of lard or lard compound. We believe it is to your interest to use compound lard, but you can and should insist that the compound that you buy is guaranteed to be made from "Pure Cotton Seed Oil." The packages should be so labeled. Do not accept a salesman's statement that "vegetable oil" means cotton seed oil. He either doesn't know, or might tell you anything to sell, but if the package bears a label, "Made from Cotton Seed Oil" they can't substitute. If you can't buy pure cotton seed oil compound lard, then buy cotton seed cooking oil which is pure, just as good or better than any kind of lard, and will go further pound for pound than any fat you can use.

Don't lay this aside and forget it. It is not advertising. We want your cotton seed to be worth the price of your labor. You must help to make it so. You are going to buy your supplies in the near future, and it won't cost you any more to remember when you buy cotton seed oil for your cooking fat you are benefiting yourself and your neighbor.

Labor Day Developments

Celebration of Labor Day brought out some vital facts about Our Country that should inspire citizens with patriotism, optimism and confidence in our political institutions.

It has shown that we lead the world in production because the average citizen works nearer 300 days in the year than in any other country in the world.

The workers draw as pay wages equal to more than one-half of the entire national income, and more than 60 per cent of that goes to those who get $2,000 or less each per annum.

Think of this, ye growers for the overthrow: 13,000,000 Americans have $7,500,000,000 in the savings banks; they hold 72,000,000 insurance policies of all kinds, for $55,000,000,000. About half our population, more than 11,000,000 families, own their own homes and 3,500,000 farmers own two-thirds of the land in use.

Our country has more spread-out ownership than any other. Railroads are owned by 2,000,000 persons; electric light business is owned by 1,500,000; telephone and telegraph systems are owned by 600,000 Americans, hundreds of thousands of these being wage workers.

Stock ownership by employees in the company that employs them is an ordinary and expanding fact in every line of American business, and political or municipal ownership is decreasing. How can you beat it, Mr. Political Theorist?

These facts are brought out by Collier's Weekly, a non-partisan publication.

She Is Not for Sale

That's the way a lot of families feel about good Bossie. She has been a faithful friend of the family giving all the milk they could use and even some to the neighbors.

Of course you always think that you feed her, but do you? Just plenty of feed does not mean proper feeding. Good old Bossie must have ration that she can really turn into milk.

Cow Chow produces more milk and more butter because it contains elements that are deficient in average ration. It keeps cows from robbing their bodies for milk-making nutrients and lengthens the milking period. By feeding Cow Chow you not only produce more pounds of milk, but you keep your cow in better condition.

Just try Cow Chow for a month, feed it as directed, and watch the difference.

Chamber of Commerce Notes

At a called meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon came up to be heard the proposition of joining with other cities and towns in West Texas where State Parks have been established, in employing a landscape artist to visit the various parks and outline a plan of improvements. D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Parks Board, is sponsoring this movement and is desirous of having the parks in West Texas improved at the earliest possible date. He believes that when a comprehensive plan has been made by the landscape artist it will be possible to secure convict labor from the State without cost to do the necessary improvement work on the various parks, and that is the plan that is now being worked out. This cooperation on the part of the various cities is needed if we want the State Parks to be placed in condition anytime soon, as the Parks Board has no funds with which to do any improvement work, and will not until the Legislature convenes. And then perhaps the appropriation may be small and will probably be used to help the towns and cities that are making an effort to help themselves. We have had an inkling this year of the number and value of tourists that are now passing thru West Texas and we realize that if we had an attractive State Park with every convenience and under proper supervision, many of these tourists would arrange to spend several days, and perhaps weeks therein. It is therefore to our interest to see that the Big Spring Mountain Park be among the very first to be made into a real park.

It was unanimously agreed that Big Spring endorse the proposition of Mr. Colp and bear her proportion of the expense. It was unanimously agreed that the membership of the Chamber of Commerce be assessed an extra monthly assessment to meet the cost of securing the landscape artist and complete arrangements for starting improvement.

The secretary was also authorized to dispose of the Tourist Camp house to the best advantage and apply the money secured in paying some of the indebtedness now held against the Chamber of Commerce.

It being stated that quite a few were requesting the opening of a road between Big Spring and the Reagan County oil field the following committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of securing a first class road to Big Lake or Best. The following were appointed: S. H. Hall, A. M. Fisher, W. B. Currie, I. B. Cauble.

The secretary made a report in reference to the success they were having relative to securing an agricultural exhibit for the Dallas Fair. Miss Hatch stated they had worked hard but were not securing as fine an exhibit as they had hoped to have and our folks need not expect Howard County to be among the leading prize winners and requested Fred Keating, superintendent of the U. S. Experiment Station, to explain just why we could not.

Mr. Keating stated that while Howard County's exhibit could be made to look quite attractive, we could not meet all the requirements for prize winning products because the past summer was one of scant rainfall and crops did not mature as they should. He also explained that we were short on a number of products which would cut down our score considerably.

WRAPS AND COATS

Still Cling to the Slender Silhouette

But that does not mean they are not entirely new and smart. There's a clever sleeve treatment, leg o'mutton sleeves for instance; there's the bordered edge—all these tendencies and more distinguish these fall coats and wraps the smartest in many a season.

STYLE AND QUALITY

Most women have two things in mind when they buy their Winter coat. First, that it shall be becomingly correct in style; second, that it shall be a quality that will give comfort and service at a fair price. This guided us in selecting our splendid showing of Wraps and Coats. Beautiful soft pile fabrics in the newest fall colors and most of them have luxurious fur collars, cuffs and trimming.

Priced $19.75 to $145.

SWEATERS in gay colorings

Smart brushed wool Sweaters in white, tan, bright green and new shades of blue; nearly all of them have contrasting color collar and cuffs. Priced $5.25 to $9. We're also showing a big assortment of infants and children's Sweaters in pretty styles and colors. Coat or slipover styles of plain or brushed wool. They're priced $2.25 and upward to $6.50.

Keeping Step With Fashion

Gone are the days when one bought good looking black Hose to wear with everything except perhaps, one's formal evening frock. Today it's a case of the right tone for the costume—and how it varies!

Selecting your new Fall Hosiery here means keeping step with economy as well as fashion. We're showing the famous Gotham Gold Stripe Hose at $1.85 pair; light brown, gunmetal, pussy willow, grain, sky and medium brown in chiffon or medium weight.

GLOVES

Fine quality kid Gloves in black and two new light tan shades with short ruffled cuffs of contrasting color; They're very new; priced $4 pair.
Two clasp dress gloves of imported kid in black, white and new brown shades; priced $2.50 pair.

How Many Yards of Flannelette? It's 12c and 16c yard

There are pajamas for Bobby and Daddy, nighties for Betty and Mother, to say nothing of what warm things for Baby. And think with what economy all that may be accomplished. Right at the beginning of flannelette season, so to speak, we are able to offer this material at such low prices. You will do well to anticipate future needs at this time, for these low prices are not likely to be duplicated in a long time. There are checked, striped and blocked patterns; full twenty eight inches wide.

Extra heavy weight Flannelette is shown at 24c and 29c yard. Thirty-six inches wide and shown in solid color and pretty plaid, striped and blocked patterns.
