Girls 4-H Club Work Gaining In Interest

By Lora Farnsworth

There have been two Girls 4-H Clubs organized in Schleicher county this month, one being in Eldorado and the other in Bailey Ranch Community. All other school centers are too small to justify clubs, however, individual demonstrations will be set up in different communities by girls of club age.

Since the Eldorado Girls 4-H club is represented by girls from various communities there will be three garden demonstrators and two bedroom demonstrators in the club. Bailey Ranch 4-H club will have one demonstrator in each of the demonstrations.

Every girl in the clubs will try to achieve the following goals:

Bedroom:

Wallace Announces 1935 Bankhead Quota

College Station, Jan. 31.—The national quota for 1935 under the Bankhead Cotton Act has been set at 19,569,000 bales of 500 pounds by Secretary of Agriculture, Henry A. Wallace, according to information received by the Extension Service.

In addition to tax exemption certificates to be issued for the 10,500,000 bales, certificates for approximately 9,000,000 bales of 478 pounds of lint cotton issued in 1934 are in the hands of producers.

Individual allotment under the Bankhead Act will be, as nearly as possible, for each cooperating producer that quantity of cotton equal to 65 per cent of his base acreage times the average yield of the farm for the base period. In accordance with the terms of the act, some exemption certificates will be available for producers on farms not previously engaged in cotton production.

Emergency Feed Loan Limit Raised

College Station, Jan. 31.—In instances where the applicant has no feed on hand and the general weather conditions have been severe, the regional emergency crop and feed loan offices serving the primary drought areas have been authorized to allow up to $1.50 a head a month to purchase feed for farm cattle, $9 for farm work stock, and $2 for range cattle according to information received by the Extension Service from the Farm Credit Administration. Otherwise maximum base rates now in effect will be continued.

"The increased amounts will apply only in exceptional cases where the applicant's feed has been exhausted and weather conditions have been severe," Norman Monaghan of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration said. "Each application for increased allowance will be considered on its own merits and must be accompanied by detailed information as to the crop on hand and weather conditions."

Applications for loans may be made to the county crop and feed loan committee serving the applicant's county.

Early History Of Texas As Depicted From Records Of Mexican Government

(Note: The following is one of a series of weekly articles taken from the Bexar Archives at the University of Texas. This collection, considered the greatest single historical treasure on the North American continent, has been catalogued and is now being translated by The University of Texas. It consists of 400,000 pages of original Spanish handwritten documents comprising the official archives of the Mexican government for the Department of Bexar, which covered almost the whole of what is now the State of Texas, for the period from 1731, soon after Texas became a separate province of Mexico, to 1836, to the Battle of San Jacinto. This series of articles will consist principally of quotations from the documents, many of which have heretofore been unpublished, and will reveal for the first time what actually transpired during the century in which Texas was transformed from a wilderness inhabited only by savage Indian tribes to an independent American republic.)

Austin, Texas, Jan. 25.—In order to understand the long struggle with the French over the colonization of the territory of Texas, or Texas, as depicted in the official records of the Mexican government for the province, or department of Texas, found in toto in the Bexar Archives of the University of Texas library, it is necessary to know that this contest had been going on for centuries before the coming of Moses and the Spaniards from the basis for plan for settling the region with Anglo-Americans.

The contest between the French and the Spaniards forms the basis for much of the bulky documentary archives of the Mexican seat of government at San Antonio de Bexar. It may be said without dispute that had it not been for the international wasteland until the natural overflow of population from the congested eastern part of America forced expansion. Neither France nor Spain was particularly anxious to send explorers into the territory, but each was spurred on by the exploits of the other. Later, when Spain held Mexico in thrall and France had possession of Louisiana, each was driven to establishing missions and garrisons in order to protect their rights in the field.

The French claim to Texas was based on La Salle's frustrated attempt to plant a colony on Lavaca Bay in 1685. Spanish exploration of the region pre-dated this effort by fully a hundred and fifty years.

Following Columbus' discovery of the West Indies in 1492, the Spaniards colonized those islands, and continued their search for a westward passage to India. Their expeditions covered the whole of the

One New Provision In Government Cotton Acreage Plan

According to information received by the county agent's office the government's provisions relative to the acreage a farmer can plant in cotton in 1935 are the same as those of 1934 with one exception. This additional provision deals with the land which was not planted in cotton prior to 1934 and it reads as follows:

"In such case the base acreage shall be the actual acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm in 1934, and the average yield per acre shall be assigned by the community committee, subject to the approval of the county committee, as a fair and equitable average yield for land of similar character in the particular community for the period of 1928 to 1932; provided, however, that the base acreage allowed shall not exceed one third of the acreage in cultivated land on the farm in 1934, and, provided further, that if the acreage planted to cotton by contract signers in the county in 1934 plus the acreage rented to the secretary of agriculture in 1934 is less than one-third of their cultivated land, the base acreage allowed shall not exceed the acreage represented by such average thereto, as determined under administrative ruling No. 2 (Form No. Cotton 5).

danger of French encroachment. Spain had in recent years been awakened to menace of other countries in her colonial possessions. The English had in 1655 seized the Island of Jamaica from Spain and eleven years later France had established colonies in several West Indian islands. The French invasion of Texas, immediately adjacent to the Spanish outposts of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila, was the last straw. The Spanish sent out expeditions to search for the French invaders. Three searching parties were unsuccessful, the fourth, in 1689, found the abandoned Fort St. Louis and took two of the few remaining survivors captive.

In 1690, Father Massanet, accompanied by military escort, established the Mission San Francisco de los Tejas near the Neches River, the first Spanish mission in Texas. It failed, and more than twenty years elapsed before real colonization was to begin.

French colonists in Louisiana, however, settled in Louisiana in Coach Billy Cooper and his basketball proteges will leave today for Big Lake where they will enter the seventh annual Reagan County high school basketball tournament to be held there today and tomorrow. From advance reports this tournament promises to be one of the best of the season and a large number of high school quintets from this section are entering.

The Eagles will be pitted against the Water Valley quintet in the first round of play. Coach Cooper is confident that his team will continue the great showing that they have made recently and advance high in the tournament.

The Eagles displayed great form last Saturday night to defeat the strong Ozona team 20 to 11 at the local gym. Cooper's second team walked away with a contest against Ozona's second team on the same night, winning 37 to 10. In the games at Ozona Friday night, the first team was defeated by the Lions by the slim margin of 20 to 16. The second team, however, piled up a 31 to 8 score victory over Ozona's second team on that night.

Teachers Win Seventh Straight Victory

With Dave Williamson and Billy Cooper leading the scoring parade, the Teachers' entry into the City League ran their string of consecutive victories up to seven this week by defeating the Printers 58 to 41 Monday night and taking a 33 to 41 contest from the Cowboys in Wednesday night's play. Dave Williamson went out far in the lead among the City League scorers by piling up 24 points in Monday night's game and 27 Wednesday night. Cooper scored 19 points against the Printers Monday night and 17 against the Cowboys Wednesday night.

The Cowboys made their initial entry into the winning column last Monday night by trouncing the Lumber Jacks 52 to 21. The Printers advanced to second place in the league standing with a 37 to 27 win over the Lumber Jacks Wednesday night.

In next Monday night's games, the Teachers meet the Lumber Jacks and the Printers the Cowboys.

The first ten high scorers in the City League play to date are Williamson with 126 points, Conn Isaacs with 112, Curtis Duncan with 79, Billy Cooper with 77, Stud Ballew with 70, Aris Carr with 45, Jack Whitten and Hayne Graves with 39 each, Glenn Ratliff with 36 and W. R. Cook with 32. R. J. Page leads in personal fouls with 27.

Cosden Wins Christoval Tournament

The Cosden Oilers of Big Springs defeated the strong Christoval Bats last Sunday night to win the annual Christoval Independent basketball tournament.

Eldorado entered a team in the tournament and advanced through the first series of games by defeating the Diltz Baker's of San Angelo 24 to 23 Saturday. The Eldorado team was unable to continue in the tournament, however, turning their position over to the Bakery boys. Players making up the Eldorado team were Dave Williamson, Conn Isaacs, Billy Cooper, J. Carlton Smith, R. E. Cook and Ed Ratliff.

The Eldorado quintet came back to the local gym Saturday night and engaged the army quintet from Fort Clark in a close game, the Army boys winning 52 to 31.

Packer Fails To Hold In Page Well Test

The second attempt to test the oil showing in the John M. Cooper No. 3 Bert Page well was made last Saturday but the packer held off long enough for the swab to run four times. It was set at a depth of 60 feet off the bottom, total depth being 5,978 feet in lime.

It is understood that plans are now underway for another attempt to test the oil showing. The well is located nine and a half miles southeast of Eldorado in the north west quarter of section 40, block L. C. S. A. S. No. 2.

KING FOOTBALL

(From Interscholastic Leaguer)

"Football is undoubtedly king of school and college sports. The Interscholastic League championship series has been carried on this past year with less friction, better observance of eligibility rules, greater evidence of good sportsmanship than ever before. While it may appear that the addition of another conference in this sport is a move towards further over-emphasis, the reverse is really true. It would be better if still another conference were added, for the reason that the multiplying of conferences shortens the playing period, restricts amount of school time necessary, and lessens expense, and eases the competitive drive. Moreover, multiplication of conferences equalizes competition, brings schools together more nearly the same size. There are some manifest evils existing. Some school boards pay the coach out of gate receipts, or at least supplement his salary from this source. This subjects the coach to entirely too much temptation, and places an undue emphasis on winning. It is a bad policy, and there should be a rule against it. The age limit should be lowered to 19; and, perhaps, the scholarship rule should be strengthened somewhat."

(Note: The following comments which hold a local interest come from the pen of Jim White who carries a "Round the Supper Table" column in the Brownwood Bulletin.)

It certainly pays to be a favored child of predestination and born in the Promised Land. One is fortunate, indeed, to be a native of Texas, but when the very heart of this great state is the place of nativity, then the cup of good fortune runs over and joy is unrestrained. F. M. Brooks probably had these thoughts in mind when he came here forty-five years ago to rear his family, and the record he and Mrs. Brooks have made fully substantiates our oft-repeated theory that Brown county boys and girls always make good.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks have reared eight children. Walter, the eldest, is a successful farmer in the Bangs community; Edgar is postmaster at Eldorado; Glenn is professor in Howard Payne College; Troy is pastor of the Baptist church at Nederland, South Texas; Doyle has been appointed relief administrator of Taylor county; Roscoe is operator of the Brownwood Feed Company. The two girls, Mrs. Edgar Owen of Bangs and Mrs. Floyd Sansom of Goldthwaite, complete the family roster. All were reared in the Baptist church and the Democratic party and their careers reflect much credit upon their parents and their home county.

C. C. Doty made The Success office an appreciated visit Monday, but had nothing to give out on the weather. He intimated he would soon visit his grand children on the Perry ranch in Crockett County.

STUNT NITE, A WORTH WHILE MOVEMENT

A number of organizations and several individuals of Schleicher County have been working diligently for sometime toward the procurement of a County Home Library. There is every need for such a library and the Parent Teachers Association assisted by several civic clubs of the town and county now have a move underway which should bring in several dollars to the library fund. This move in question is "Stunt Nite" which will be staged at the high school auditorium on the night of February 8. A very small admission charge will be made to the public for "Stunt Nite", the admission being so small that all of us can afford to bear it. The proceeds will be turned to the library fund.

Aside from the purpose for which "Stunt Nite" is being staged, which alone should draw a capacity crowd, the entertainment will be fully worth the admission price. Practically every civic organization of the county is entering a stunt and as the stunts will be had upon a competitive basis, we have every assurance that they will be entertaining. Most of us spend so much money on entertainment and why not now back enough for "Stunt Nite."

Every organization and every individual in Schleicher County interested in the advancement of education and the proper educational facilities should work whole heartedly toward the realization of the County Home Library.

From many states come reports like the following from Mr. W. M. Henderson, of Jasper, Fla.: "I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught twenty years. I take it for constipation that gives me a dull, tired, aching feeling, and I have headache, too. Black-Draught relieves me of this trouble. After a few doses, I feel as good as new. I keep it in my home. I have a big family. When one of us is ailing (from constipation), we take Black-Draught and almost always feel a lot better. ## SCORN NOT THE LOWLY LEFTOVER

Dab of This and That Often Makes Tasty Dish.

By EDITH M. BARBER

SOME housekeepers have a prejudice against leftovers. I do not share this feeling. I actually welcome them. Nothing is more fun than to find in the refrigerator a dab of this and a dab of that and to combine them with the help of a few eggs, some white sauce and a few bread crumbs, which may themselves be a leftover, and to evolve a completely new dish.

There are any number of dishes whose names suggest special delicacies and which can be made from leftovers. I am speaking of timbales and souffles which demand a foundation of soft bread crumbs and milk or a white sauce combined with eggs and strained or minced, cooked vegetables, meat or fish. You may even use mixed vegetables or a combination of vegetables with the last pickings from the fowl or roast.

Then there are those scalloped dishes which may be made from any leftover materials placed in alternate layers with buttered crumbs in a greased baking dish. White sauce or tomato juice may be used to moisten them if you like, and I must not forget croquettes which have a very thick, well-seasoned white sauce for their base.

Be sure to chill your croquette mixture before you attempt to mold it into little pyramids or rolls which are then dipped in sifted dry bread crumbs, beaten eggs and crumbs again. I particularly like sweet or white potato croquettes because this is such a good use for mashed potatoes when you may have supplied too liberally. These are merely moistened with egg, seasoned with onion juice and parsley, if you have some on hand, before they are crumbed and fried in deep fat.

Meat Timbales.

- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup minced veal, chicken or ham
- 4 tablespoons butter
- Salt, pepper
- 2 egg whites

Put the crumbs in the milk and cook until very soft. Add meat, butter and seasonings, fold in the beaten egg whites, and pour into buttered molds, filling not more than two thirds full. Set molds in pan of hot water and bake in a medium oven about one-half hour. Serve with white sauce, seasoned with mushrooms, vegetables or cheese.

Vegetables With Curry.

- 1 onion, minced
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- Salt, pepper
- ¼ teaspoons celery salt
- 1 cup milk
- Leftover vegetables

Fry minced onion in butter, add flour and seasonings. Add milk and stir until smooth and thick. Pour this sauce over diced vegetables and chopped parsley. Heat thoroughly and serve with boiled rice.

Baked Fish in Cheese Sauce.

- 8 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups milk
- ¼ cup American cheese
- ¼ cup chopped mushrooms
- 1 or more cups flaked fish
- ¼ can shrimp
- Salt, pepper, paprika

Birth Is Paid for With 3,000 Pennies

Austin, Texas.—A baby is worth slightly more than twice its weight in copper, a local physician has discovered.

A note explained that the pennies were in payment for the child. The couple evidently had been saving them for a long time.

mushrooms, flaked fish and shrimp in greased baking dish. Season and pour over cheese sauce. Bake in a moderate oven until thoroughly hot and brown on the top. Bread crumbs can be sprinkled over the top. The sides of the baking dish can be lined with leftover mashed potatoes and the creamed mixture poured in the center.

Dressing for Green Salads.

- Livers of 2 chickens, boiled
- Yolks of 2 hard cooked eggs
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- ¼ teaspoon white pepper
- 3 tablespoons vinegar
- ¼ cup olive oil
- Chopped parsley
- ¼ teaspoon worcestershire sauce

Mash and mix to a paste the chicken livers and yolks. Add seasoning, pour in olive oil drop by drop, stirring until the consistency of thin mayonnaise. Mix with salad and chopped parsley.

Lights of New York

By L. L. STEVENSON

Most New Yorkers would not have done what Herbert H. Holland did. The great majority would merely have shrugged their shoulders and gone about their business. Some might have laughed about it later but many would have said nothing—the New Yorker does not like to seem a sap, and that's the way most persons feel when they receive the attentions of a pickpocket. But Holland, a law student in St. John's Law school, over in Brooklyn, is of different stuff. He believes that citizens have a duty to their community. Doing that duty caused him some exertion and the loss of time. But that did not deter him. He did what he thought was right. So, William Johnson, a negro with a coat to cast record as a pickpocket, has been held without bail to await grand jury action.

Holland, a passenger in the subway during the rush hour, felt a tug at his hip pocket as he was leaving the train at Fourteenth street. Turning quickly, he grasped a hand. In that hand was his check book, he testified later. The owner of the hand was Johnson, who, it developed, has done time in Sing Sing, in Sacramento, Cleveland and elsewhere, and who has been arrested 49 times for picking pockets. Johnson dropped the check book between the cars and grinned. The crowd forced Holland outside. But he got back into the train and rode as far as Brooklyn bridge. There he found an officer and Johnson was arrested.

Being a law student, Holland didn't stop at that. He went back and looked for the evidence. A subway employee had found the check book. Holland took the matter up with the company and got permission for the employee to go to court to testify. That clinched things and Johnson went to the Toms. After it was all over, Holland explained that he knew he was losing nothing—that he never carried money in his hip pocket, and it was easy to get another check book. But there was that consciousness of duty to his community, so he acted.

In his recently published book, "Tin Box Parade," Milton MacKaye, former Post reporter, relates a number of interesting incidents in connection with the Seabury investigation of municipal affairs, which led to the resignation of Jimmy Walker and the ousting of Tammany. According to MacKaye, a big break in the investigation came because one of Mr. Seabury's bright young lawyers was kind to a bank teller. The young lawyer assigned to go over Walker's bank accounts met with no success. Then he decided to go through them again. The teller detailed to assist him wanted two days leave. His wife was ill and alone at home, and he thought he should be with her. The bank refused the leave.

Hearing of this, the Seabury assistant went to the bankers and told them he was willing to postpone his investigation if the teller got his leave. On his return, the grateful teller informed the investigator that as he had done him a good turn, he was ready to do one himself. He told the investigator to look carefully at a check with a certain number. The investigator did, and what he found led to the discovery of one Sherwood, supposed to have been Walker's financial agent.

Another story has to do with Al Smith during the bitter Democratic state convention in 1932. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Smith wanted Herbert H. Lehman nominated for governor. John F. Curry, Tammany leader, advised by Max D. Stener, didn't. After some wrangling, Al informed Curry that if he didn't name Lehman, he'd come down to New York, run for mayor and take the city away from him. "On what ticket?" asked Curry. "On the Chinese laundry ticket," rasped Smith. Mr. Lehman became governor of New York.

To Out-Herod Herod

IN THE old morality plays King Herod was always depicted as cruel and ferocious and to exceed even him in violence one had to be indeed inhuman.

The expression to out-Herod Herod owes its origin to Shakespeare who used it in scene two of the third act of Hamlet, that famous scene where Hamlet gives advice to the players. We find it so: Hamlet:

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounced it to you, trippingly on the tongue; but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had as lief the town-crier spoke my lines. Nor do not saw the air too much with your hand, thus; but use all gently . . . O, it offends me to the soul to hear a robustious periwig-pated fellow tear a passion to tatters, to very rags, to split the ears of the groundlings who, for the most part, are capable of nothing but inexplicable dumb-shows and noise; I would have such a fellow whipped for o'er-doing Termagant; it out-Herods Herod; pray you, avoid it."

Spectacles Collection

Feature of Hobby Show

Boston, Mass.—One of the most interesting displays at the first New England Hobby Collectors' show was that of Dr. C. G. Berger, a collector of old spectacles.

His exhibit included the gold-rimmed glasses worn by President Taft's grandmother. Doctor Berger also showed spectacles that were made of wood, some that were tied over and under the ear, a few that were held in place by springs which pressed cork pads against the temples, and still others that had two extra lenses to be swung into place when the wearer wished to read.

Mussolini Makes Farm Lands Out of Marshes

One of the pet projects of Premier Mussolini is the development of that section of Littoria which was made into farmlands after being reclaimed from the Pontine marshes. During a tour of the province he showed his skill in agricultural arts by sowing corn seed on some newly turned soil.
