THE SUCCESS
 MAY 22, 1931.

We don't understand why Bro. J. L. Keeney, Bro. Harp, Bro. Fred T. Neill and Bro. Hartgraves, of Menard, had their hair-raising, wind-splitting side-bursting and whoop-a-wee on Sunday, a day of our worship, and then have their committee to send us a complimentary pass. The Temptation of Christ on the Mount, was a light affair, compared with ours, but we escaped the evil thereof and trust that next year they won't make a mistake and get their Rodeo on Sunday.

When one portion of an organized body of people get to pulling against another portion of the same organization, it is a hard matter for that group of people to succeed, no matter whether it is a church, school, county, state or city organization, to make good satisfactory headway there must be considerable co-operation. And we a lot about co-operation these days.

O. Suddeth was in the city Saturday accompanied by his nephew Orvil Suddeth, former editor of the Paint Rock Herald, who is visiting on the Suddeth ranch. Orville made The Success office an appreciated visit as he likes the smell of printers' ink.

Mr. Doc Kerr went to Brady Saturday and brought his son Jack home. Jack has been in the Brady hospital since his operation for appendicitis, his mother being with him. We are glad to see Jack back at home again.

Otto Sauer was in from the stock-farm Saturday and added his name to our ever growing subscription list. Mr. Sauer hails from Blanco County and has found the land he has been looking for.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lewis were shopping in the city Saturday.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH TEXAS

Read all the Texas newspapers for a month, including editorials and "letters from the people," and you might come to the conclusion that the state has gone to pot. If, however, you enlisted the aid of a staff of Philadelphia lawyers, the chances are you'd have pointed out to you a very significant, thing: Texas suffers from most states because many of her ills are self-inflicted.

Ninety per cent of the editorial walling is founded in one or another of countless objections to our tax policy. (Some editors call it "lack of policy.") Almost as great a percentage of popular complaints is similarly grounded. Wipe the inequalities, the injustices, the discriminations and the absurdities from our tax laws, and it seems we will have wiped away the pallor of economic ailment and raced ourselves forward upon the highroad to robust health and happiness.

Whatever may be our attitude upon the cigarette and gas bills, we must admit they were railroaded through the present legislature as more or less makeshift bridges to span a revenue emergency. Expediency, then, may be one of the fundamental faults in our tax structure. Whatever may be our attitude in the suppur tax controversy, we must confess that some foe of that natural resource industry is prosecuting a private feud through legislative channels. Partisanship, therefore, becomes a second inherent fault in tax legislation.

Neither expediency nor partisanship should be tolerated in the building of a tax system for a great commonwealth. They are opposed to the constitutional principles of equality; they defy the fundamental concepts of democratic government.

A sane, sound tax system must be built scientifically and impartially; it must be equal and uniform in its distribution of the burden; it must avoid carefully the taints of confiscation and favoritism; it must be fair.

Then, in no more hours than it takes days, the legislature could pass its appropriation and revenue bills and go home; business and industry would be spared the expense of costly lobbies; the state would be saved thousands of dollars of legislative expense.

Edgar Spencer was in from the ranch Saturday.

IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.
