Mrs. F. F. Gary Succumbs Here After Illness

Mrs. Lillian Gray Largent Gary, 75, widow of a pioneer Big Spring merchant, died at her home at 611 Rannels street Saturday at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Gary was a member of a cultured pioneer Colorado City couple and it was there that she met and married Frank Gary on Jan. 3, 1894.

Not long afterwards they moved to Big Spring where he opened a general mercantile business, which he subsequently moved to Midland.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

The Texas & Pacific Railway company, which has been making news here since it first stretched into town right behind the buffalo and Indians, set the pace last week with an announcement that division headquarters are being returned within 45 to 60 days.

Speaking of the T&P, brings to mind that Big Spring furnished a generous amount of the copy for the current issue of the T&P Topics, company magazine.

Angry Southerners Promise To Carry Issues To Missouri, 14 Other States

BIRMINGHAM, July 17. (AP)—Rebel Southern Democrats today named two Dixie governors to lead a fight to take the solid South from Mr. Truman in November over racial issues.

Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was selected for president and Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi for vice president.

Earlier they had announced the southern ticket would make the campaign in Missouri and 14 other states, including all of the usually heavily Democratic deep South.

The resolution nominating the two men also called another meeting of Southern revolutionaries here Oct. 1. Unlike today's session, the October meeting would be limited to delegates from each state numbering the same as their presidential electors.

Today's sessions were noisy. Police Chief Floyd Eddins estimated the afternoon crowd at 7,500, considerably more than capacity of the auditorium here.

The morning attendance was estimated at 6,000. In seconding the two nominations, Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) made the forecast that "the race next November is between Gov. Thurmond and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey."

"Truman will not get a single electoral vote," he shouted. Nomination of both candidates was by acclamation.

Tempers in the jam-packed City Auditorium flared when a self-styled presidential candidate, Herbert C. Holdridge of Washington, D. C., objected to the nomination of Thurmond and Wright.

Holdridge, whose campaign literature described him as a "peace general candidate," shouted his protests and was quickly surrounded by a mob of shouting, excited delegates.

Thurmond and Wright were escorted to the platform at 6:50 p. m. besides the usual state flags and banners, one of the demonstrators carried a framed picture of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

Battles Roar Outside Walls Of Jerusalem

Seven Sorties Of Airplanes Bomb Tel Aviv

CAIRO, July 17. (AP)—Fighting stopped in Jerusalem today but the war roared on elsewhere in Palestine.

Twin-engine planes bombed Tel Aviv in seven sorties today, the Israeli government announced. One of the raiders was shot down. The announcement said six persons were reported killed and twenty wounded.

Israeli planes struck at Arab troop concentrations and communications in the Tulkarm area of central Palestine and at Syria concentrations at Mishmar and Hay Yarden in northern Galilee.

Count Folke Bernadotte headed for the Holy Land with the belief that the Arabs will accept the United Nations cease-fire order before the three-day time limit expires Sunday.

But there is little expectation here the Arabs will obey the U. N. order. Many Arabs here believe the Arab states will (1) continue fighting, (2) wait to see whether the security council will adopt sanctions and (3) then decide whether to impose counter-sanctions, such as suspending oil deliveries to the United States, navy and Western Europe.

Security council members already are reported studying possible steps to enforce the order if the Arabs reject it. But delegates to U. N. officials alike hesitated to talk of what might happen if the truce order is rejected.

Howard Soars Beyond Loan Drive Quota

Howard county soared 43 percent beyond the quota for the Security Loan campaign, unofficial figures showed Saturday.

Sales of the past two weeks aggregated $191,406.25, of which $31,406.25 was in E bonds. These showed a total of $467,727.75 for the entire campaign, according to tabulations released by Ira Thurman, county bond chairman.

Latest figures showed $74,000 in E bonds and $86,000 in G bonds. The totals do not take into consideration $50,000 in C (tax) bonds.

The final figures will not be available until all clearings have been made with the Federal Reserve bank in Dallas, but Thurman was confident that Howard county's record would stand up. He issued a statement of thanks to all individuals and firms who contributed to the success of the drive by purchases and urged continued systematic savings.

U.S. Fears Berlin Crisis Is Near War

Air Corridor May Provide A Start

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—In the opinion of top American officials Russia is pressing the Berlin crisis dangerously close to open warfare this weekend.

The possibility of one or more deadly incidents in the air corridors leading to Berlin is now rated high since the Russians announced they would make extensive training flights across the routes traveled by western cargo planes.

One highly placed authority reported that the Russians appeared to be misjudging entirely the determination of the western powers to stick in Berlin. He withheld the use of his name. If this analysis is correct it means a complete failure to date of the American-British-French diplomatic effort to impress on the Kremlin the firmness of their Berlin policies.

Since the end of the last war State department and military experts here have generally taken the line that a new conflict with Russia could only result from blundering by one side or the other in the "cold war."

Almost exactly two years ago there was a similar feeling of tension among top government officials here over the shooting down by Yugoslav fighters of two American transport planes. Demanding restitution and a release of passengers held prisoner from one plane, the United States gave Marshal Tito an ultimatum and he backed down.

The Soviet government, specifically Premier Stalin, was widely credited with exercising a restraining control over its then great ally Tito. One of the things which worries State department officials now is that they can't figure out where any restraining influence can originate in the present crisis when Russia is directly involved.

There is a strong belief here that the hot-heads in the politburo have gained the upper hand over those who normally might caution restraint. Some of Russia's actions were described as almost directly provocative. An example is the deliberate assignment of an unusually large number of planes to make training flights in areas where desperate fear that they are losing ground in eastern Europe, and need some spectacular triumph to recover.

Such things, according to this theory, have put the Soviet high command — the politburo — in a mood to listen to its extremist members and to make risky decisions. There is considerable belief that one such decision was to try to get the needed spectacular triumph now at cheap price by forcing the western allies out of Berlin with a policy of starvation and a bluff about the use of military force. This would be in line with long-range Russian policy on Berlin and Germany.

U. S. DISPLAYS AIR MIGHT

Fully Armed Superfortresses Zoom In British Isle Bases

SCAMPTON, England, July 17. (AP)—Giant Superfortresses lying with fully loaded guns zoomed into British bases today in a spectacular display of America's air might.

They were manned chiefly by combat-hardened crews. They touched down at Scampton, Waddington and Marham fields on the western edge of East Anglia — the flat country from which the Eighth Air Force mounted its World War II air attacks against Germany.

The Superforts bomb bays were empty. When the planes landed, the gunners carefully removed the belts of ammunition from the gun-feedways. The crews were confined to their bases for 48 hours. No explanation was given.

The first 46 of the bombers arrived today. A dozen more are still to come from Goose Bay, Labrador, with the next arrival due at dawn, U. S. Air Force officials said, serving crews at Goose Bay were too small to get all 60 planes off today.

Some of the Superforts were diverted to Prestwick, Scotland. They landed at Waddington. Twenty came in at Marham and 12 at Scampton. The first arrivals landed in bright sunlight but those that arrived tonight landed in a drizzling rain.

Lt. Carl W. Stucki of Portland, Ore., a navigator on one of the late arrivals, said his plane flew through "strictly bad weather — soup all the way."

Officially the Superforts — the plane which seared the hearts of many Japanese cities during the war are on a routing navigational training exercise. Six squadrons of the 28th group from Rapid City, S. D., and the 39th group from MacDill Field, Fla., are involved. Officers who made the flight treated it as a coincidence that the move came at a time of rising tension between Russia and the Western Allies over the blockade of Berlin.

BACK ON JOB

Lewis Hershey Again Heads Draft Setup

WASHINGTON, July 17. — Major Gen. Lewis B. Hershey got his old job back today.

He's director of Selective Service again. Hershey's formal re-appointment by President Truman was another step toward national preparedness as unrest in Europe continued.

The task of assembling manpower is one with which Hershey is highly familiar. He first was appointed director of Selective Service in 1941 and was responsible for setting up the organization under which 10,000,000 men eventually were supplied the armed forces, and under which some 36,000,000 men were registered and classified for military service.

This time Hershey's prime job is the registration of youths 18 through 25 under the new peacetime draft act.

An executive order dealing with registration will be issued by President Truman next week, the White House announced.

The order in which various age groups will be called among those eligible for service under the draft has not yet been disclosed.

Registration of males from 18 through 25 is expected to begin about Aug. 15. Only those between the ages of 19 and 25 will be subject to the draft. Meanwhile 151,000 of the 19-year-old group can volunteer for a special one-year term of duty in the armed forces.

Mishap Causes A 'Big Haul'

An automobile mishap east of Coahoma late Saturday was indirectly responsible for a "big haul" by local law enforcement authorities.

City police issued a ticket to the driver of one car headed down East Third street in pursuit of an ambulance which was proceeding to the wreck. State highway patrolmen cited another individual to justice court in Coahoma for the same offense a few moments later as they approached the scene of the mishap.

The highway patrolmen then intercepted another car and brought its four passengers to Big Spring, where the driver is due to face charge of driving while intoxicated and the other three are to be charged with drunkenness.

The activity prompted officers to renew their warnings to motorists about following emergency vehicles answering calls.

Donovan Urges Retaliation Against Reds

BERLIN, July.— Maj. Gen. William (Wild Bill) Donovan urged world-wide retaliation against the Soviet Union today.

He suggested that the Western Allies might deny the Russians access to the Panama and Suez canals and to the Kiel Canal in Germany. He said also that the western powers might urge Turkey to take measures in the Dardanelles to prevent the passage of Soviet ships.

"If the Soviets want to make the squeeze on Berlin an economic war, we should not confine it to here," said Gen. Donovan, who was the war-time head of the United States Office of Strategic Services. "We should go to other places in the world where they are weak."

Donovan said the western powers should stand firm in Berlin.

Rodeo Workers Take To Tasks

Special committees named to supervise detailed planning in connection with the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo have plunged into their tasks and final arrangements for the big show are taking shape rapidly.

Charles Creighton, rodeo chairman, reported Saturday.

Box seat reservations are now being accepted at the office of Ira Driver in the First National Bank building, and early demands indicate that all box space will be snapped up quickly, Creighton advised.

Local officials also have been reassured by the Sellers organization that livestock to be used in this year's event will match that used in previous shows.

Plans also are being made for booster trips into neighboring towns. The trips will be made shortly before the rodeo, which is scheduled for Aug. 4-6-7.

Polling Places Set To Open 8 A. M. Saturday

Howard county's 15 polling places will be opened to voters in the Democratic primary at 8 a. m. next Saturday, and all balloting will cease at 7 p. m. L. S. Patterson, county Democratic chairman, has reminded.

The county chairman also warned that voters should inspect their poll tax receipts to make certain that they are listed in the correct precinct. It is always possible that some persons will be recorded in the wrong precinct, he explained, and changes can be made only by the county tax assessor-collector.

Although Monday brings up the deadline for changing precincts in cases where voters have moved from one to another, since payment of poll taxes, those who need to change precinct listings because of error may do so through Friday, Patterson said.

Persons who have poll tax receipts that bear the wrong precinct number would be unable to vote at all in event of a challenge at the polls.

Polling boxes in the county include No. 1, Big Spring; No. 2, Big Spring; No. 3, Big Spring; No. 4, Big Spring; No. 5, Vincent; No. 6, Gay Hill; No. 7, R-Bar; No. 8, Big Spring; No. 9, Coahoma; No. 10, Forsan; No. 11, Center Point; No. 12, Moore; No. 13, Knott; No. 14, Morris; No. 15, Soash.

Blount Gives His Platform

In a statement released to the press this weekend, Rep. R. E. (Peppy) Blount listed his platform in his campaign for re-election.

Sallient points in the platform were:

Continued refund of gasoline taxes to farmers and stockmen; more and better farm to market roads; increased assistance to $50 per month for the aged needy; redistricting; submission of the veterans bonus issue to the people in a constitutional amendment; support and higher salaries for school teachers of Texas; conservation of natural resources; complete opposition to any new taxes except a tax on natural resources going out of the state; permanent improvement of the Texas prison system and eleemosynary institutions; health program to reach and serve every person in the state.

He said he would ask for reappointment to the livestock and stock raising; oil, gas and mining; aviation; and public land committees, the ones on which he served during his first term.

HIS PLATFORM

1. There should be closer co-operation between the county and the state highway departments and closer work with the city council.
2. There should be a study made at public hearings with decisions openly arrived at, to determine whether there is any discrimination at the present time of property valuations in the county.
3. Our county has been backward in providing recreational facilities to curb juvenile delinquency and to provide adult recreation.
4. A fair valuation of city and county property for taxation. But no increase in the present tax rate.

point of sending water over its spillway at a depth of two feet. At that moment Devil's creek was still a raging torrent and its waters were being funneled into Powell lake. But a chunk of the diversion dam gave away and diffused the surplus water around Powell dam.

School trustees asked businessmen for their advice last week and they got some ideas on how best to meet with the financial situation created in part by excess collections. After weighing the situation, the board will have to take action. Most of those at the meeting felt that an outright refund on excess was part of the answer and a $1.50 rate the other.

Big Spring will have some distinguished visitors today and tomorrow in directors and stock holders of Cosden Petroleum Corp. They can see easily the physical set-up; we hope they will sense the unusually fine type of organization that goes with it.

Pastures are making a bid for recovery after reaching the lowest ebb in years. Veteran cattlemen say that much will depend upon the next two weeks. If a rain should come to keep cover growing, it might make it full. Otherwise, the mending process will be slow.

The state board of control is to recommend a generous ($2 million) new building program for the Big Spring State Hospital next year. This is a future project, dependent upon the solons' whims, but it does point to prospect of continued activity here.

The annual rodeo event is just around the corner, and with the prize list up to 3,400 plus entry fees, the list of contestants should be bigger than ever. Earl and Jack Sellers have never failed to put on an exciting and fast moving show here and the Aug. 4-8 run is to be no exception.

Commissioners court last week approved its minutes of acceptance of the state's offer on constructing and maintaining 12.2 miles of road and taking over about 30 more. Later in the week details were discussed with S. J. Treadway, district engineer, and real progress is being made.

Precinct conventions are a part of next Saturday's primary, and with all state conventions coming up for democrats and republicans alike, they could be important in a presidential year.

C. S. BLOMSHIELD

Blomshield Is Renamed Head Of Polio Group

C. S. Blomshield has been re-elected chairman of the Howard County Infantile Paralysis chapter. He was returned along with other officers for another term at the regular annual meeting Thursday evening. Others were J. H. Greene, vice-chairman; Ira Thurman, treasurer; Christene Jagers, secretary.

Reports at the meeting showed only two cases of polio in Big Spring during the summer season. One case resulted in slight impairment and the others apparently will leave no muscular involvement, said Mrs. Louise Horton, nurse for the Big Spring-Howard county health unit.

The city has resumed its DDT spraying, using the fogging machine which the local chapter helped to make possible, the meeting was told. Residents are being urged to join with cooperative spraying to make the control of flies and mosquitoes more effective.

From the board came a reminder to parents to exercise strict sanitary controls, to be on the watch for symptoms which might be indicative of polio. Salient ones include fever, headache, a seeming cold and stiffness of the neck. Individuals were advised to avoid fatigue.

Two Require First Aid After Run-In

John E. Garcia and Luz De Los Santos required medical attention for injuries received in an altercation on the north side of town early Saturday night, police reported. Garcia was released from the hospital after first aid treatment, but De Los Santos remained for further treatment, although he is expected to recover.

A third Latin-American was detained in the city jail for questioning in connection with the incident.

McNary, secretary; Pete Harmonson, sergeant-at-arms. The board of directors is composed of Chad Rockett, V. A. Whittington, Dr. Clyde Thomas, and Roy Reeder.

Douglas Orme administered the oral oath of office as installing officer. In remarks preceding the installation Orme, first president of the club, recalled its growth from 20 members to 94. In going over the accomplishments of the club in the past term, Orme paid special note to Carl Gross, delegate to ABClub National convention and to Roy Reeder, elected lieutenant governor of district six. Orme presented Lee Harris with the past president's pin.

Speaking in official capacity as district officer, Roy Reeder, stressed the individual as the foremost component of a club and cooperation between the individual and other members as the second point. Closing lines of his talk was a quotation: "Building a room for a dwelling... Building a house for a king... Only by working together can man accomplish anything."

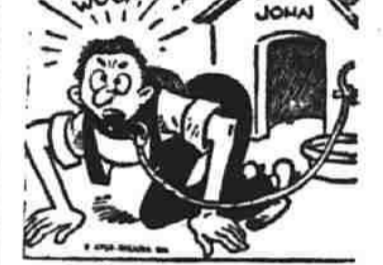

Mrs. Harlan Choate, president of the XYZ auxiliary, spoke her thanks on behalf of other wives, present at the affair as special guests.

Special recognition was paid those members coming into the club since Jan. 1. It was announced that the club would participate in a rodeo booster tour Tuesday August 3. Harris was master of ceremonies.

AMAZED AT QUICK ACTION OF MERTO

"For the past ten years I have been troubled with severe gas pains which seemed to press against my heart and made it difficult to breathe. I had a pain under my heart that was almost unbearable at times," writes Mrs. Alma Cummings of Waco. "My food would not digest and would come up my stomach. I had had many spells and when these attacks occurred I felt all pulled up. My appetite has greatly improved and I can now eat lots of things that I couldn't eat before taking this wonderful medicine. "Since taking Merto I feel like a different person. It is certainly wonderful to get up in the morning and do a day's work, without that tired, worn-out feeling. I certainly would recommend this to anyone who is troubled as I was at the time I started on this medicine. You can get Merto from any Texas drugist at the new MERTO price."

I have not been privileged to see and discuss problems with all the residents of my precinct. Regrettably, I shall not be able to visit with everyone personally. So I must grasp this opportunity to solicit your support.

To the Voters of Howard County:

I take this method to express to the good people of Howard County my sincere appreciation for their support in the past, thereby enabling me to serve in the capacity of sheriff of Howard County during the past three and one-half years. During the time that I have served as sheriff I have put forth my best efforts to make you an efficient officers I have endeavored to enforce the law and to do and perform the various duties required of a sheriff.

Since I announced by candidacy for re-election, I have endeavored to see as many of the voters of the county as possible and to express to each of them my appreciation for past support and solicit the vote of each one in the coming election. Wildcats Slated In Dawson, Martin

Wildcats have been staked in southeastern Dawson and Martin counties, and operations will start in the near future.

In South-Central Martin county, W. H. Black Drilling company is to start drilling at once on its No. 1 C. M. Houston, to be a 5,500-foot prospector to test into the San Andres-Permian line.

It is 660 feet from south and east line of section 3, block 27 TP survey, T-1-N.

The development is seven miles west and 10 miles north of Stanton, and 18 miles north of Midland.

It is on a block of 5,700 acres, which has been held for several years by Humble Oil & Refining company.

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting permission to start drilling at once on its No. 1 S. E. Lee, as a 10,600-foot prospector in miles southeast of Lamesa.

The development will be 440 feet from north and east lines of section 47, block 34, TP survey, T-5-N.

It is near the shallow Spraberry field, and adjacent to a deep wildcat drilled about a year ago by Seaboard, which had some interesting shows of oil in several pre-Permian formations.

Operator was not able to develop any of the indications for any sort of commercial production.

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1-E Wilson Bryant, Central Midland county prospect, 14 miles south of the city of Midland had reached 11,944 feet in lime and shale, and was making more hole.

This development is 660 feet from north and 1,940 feet from west lines of section 36, block 9, TP survey, T-3-S.

The Texas Company No. 1 Scharbauer, slated 12,000-foot venture in West Midland county, one mile south of the Midland Air Terminal, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 30, block 40, TP survey, T-7-S, had penetrated between 7,100 feet in shale, and sand and was continuing. It has not reported having logged any signs of oil or gas since starting operations.

Fullerton Oil Company, Phillips Petroleum company, Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., et al. No. 1 Strain, North-Central Mitchell county wildcat nine miles north of Colorado City, and 660 feet from south and east lines of lot 10, Reigers survey, had reached 7,854 feet in Mississippian chert, and was continuing. It is logging no shows of petroleum.

Jergins Oil company, of San Antonio, is to start at once on its No. 1 M. D. Self, as a 6,000-foot wildcat to explore into the Simpson section of the middle Ordovician, in Southwestern Crane county. It is 660 feet southeast and southwest of the west corner of section 12, block 3, H&TC survey, but in section 20, block 3, H&TC survey, about a mile from a producer from the Simpson in the Tucker field.

Frank George Frankel, of Houston, and associates, have staked location for their No. 1 Tankersley, in Southeast Irion county.

The project is slated to go to at least 7,800 feet to test into the Des Moines section of the Pennsylvanian. It that formation should be barren the prospector may be carried on down to around 8,500 feet to explore into the Ellenburger.

It is to be at the center of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 7, CC&SF survey, certificate 3-410. It is approximately one mile northeast of the two-well Tankersley field, where Shell Oil company, Inc., has two small producers from the Des Moines, on Tankersley lands.

Couple Reunited After 27 Years Of Separation

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—The gray-haired, white-faced woman, her eyes covered with dark glasses, was led gingerly from the plane. She stepped onto the field.

From a bench in the La Guardia Field rotunda yesterday, Leonard Uren, now white as the temples, jumped up and hurried towards the woman. He put his arms around her and kissed her.

"Annie," he said, "my Annie. It's good to see you, lass. You had a good trip, Annie?"

"I'd a lovely trip," she said. "You're tired?"

"No, Leonard, I slept a good part of the way."

"You're glad to be here, lass."

The woman nodded: "Yes, I am. We were a long time parted, Len."

The man paused and said softly: "Never more, lass, never more, till death."

Annie, now 60, and Leonard Uren, 53, were reunited. Twenty-seven years ago last June, five days after their wedding, Annie and Leonard Uren of Redruth, England, parted. He was going to America to get a job and make a home for her. He went to Ironwood, Mich. where he now works for the Oliver Iron Mining Company. The money didn't come in as fast as he thought it would and Annie's trip was put off.

The bride herself delayed coming. "I guess she got cold feet," Uren said.

But Mrs. Uren had another explanation. "I though I was handicapped."

She had become blind. She had lost her sight as the result of working in munition plants in World War One.

Annie Uren smiled: "I'd never know you by your voice, Len. You've a real Yankee brogue, now."

Registration of a new Boy Scout troop to be sponsored by the First Christian Church of Big Spring was announced Saturday by local Scout officials.

Members of the troop committee include Chester Cathy, chairman, Russell Mouglin, Duval Wiley, Vellie Sorrells, Otto Havins, Wendell Parks, Maurice Koger.

Scouts who have registered for membership in the troop are David Garvie, Roy Hickman, Justin Allen Holmes, Harold Rosson, Don Williams, Archie O. Thompson.

Pioneer Film Producer Dies

HOLLYWOOD, July 17. (AP)—Col. William Nicholas Selig, who succumbed yesterday at the age of 84, produced the first motion picture made in Hollywood and was author of scores of innovations which now are common-places of movie making.

Selig had been in the movie business 11 years when, in 1907, he foresaw Los Angeles as the logical home of the film industry and made the first movie here. He used the roof of a building at Eighth and Olive Streets. The picture was a version of Alexander Dumas' "Count of Monte Cristo."

It turned out to be one of the most successful films of its time.

Six years later Selig launched a newsworld, the first venture of its kind.

Selig was a patron of science and founded many expeditions to Africa, the upper Amazon and China. He founded the Los Angeles Selig Zoo, now known as Lincoln Park. He was the oldest authority on motion picture history.

Among his disvoceeries in films were Tom Mix, Kathryn Williams and Bill Farnum.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Pinkham Selig, survives.

Tired, "All-In" Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get up in the morning still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wear down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that 855 Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the 855 Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, 855 Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, blost and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich red-blood. Start on 855 Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—burnish all out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. 855 Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Sterling Parrish

Deserves Your Support For A Second Term

As

State Senator

From The 30th Senatorial District

His Record Is One Of Achievement For His District

There is no guesswork about what Sen. Parrish can and will do, for his record is one of industry and accomplishment for the best interests of the most people in his district. Sen. Parrish is a Do-er, not a promiser.

Here Is Part Of His Record

SENATOR STERLING PARRISH INTRODUCED the last senatorial redistricting bill and fought for it.

CHAMPIONED farm-to-market roads. Chairman Jno. Reddit of highway commission paid Sen. Parrish tributes for working unceasingly for lateral roads.

FOUGHT hard and long for better teacher pay, more adequate support for schools and teachers; was author and co-author of several school bills.

In addition, Sen. Parrish has worked diligently for more buildings for the Big Spring State Hospital; pressed passage of the library bill advanced by Howard county; has consistently supported legislation for the conservation of petroleum, soil, water and other natural resources. He helped create state's aeronautics commission; he got the highway commission to hold its only meeting outside of Austin in West Texas; he secured appropriations for underground water surveys.

CONTINUED battle for gas tax refund to farmers. His father, Pink Parrish, helped get it for farmers; Sterling Parrish is determined to protect it.

OPPOSED as vigorously as possible for four years all Fair Trades and price-fixing and raising legislation. Bitterly opposed to penalizing the consumers.

SUPPORTED all veterans legislation and will continue support of all sound veterans programs. WORKED for more adequate old age pensions.

(Pol. Ad. paid by Friends and supporters of Senator Sterling Parrish, who urge you to return him for his second term.)

The under-water shelf around the United States is believed to hold large deposits of oil. Oil wells have already been tapped in the tide-lands of California and, more recently, in deep water off Louisiana in the Gulf of Mexico.

WEST TEXAS OIL

Shows Logged In Scurry And Coke

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, July 17.—Showing of oil in a Pennsylvanian lime section by a Magnolia wildcat, 3 1/2 miles east of Sun's discovery in the Canyon in southwestern Scurry county and swabbing of oil lightly from the Palo Pingo in a Coke county wildcat shared West Texas attention this week.

Magnolia No. 1 Winston Bros. in Scurry county, 3 1/2 miles southwest of Snyder, recovered 10 feet of free oil, 1,500 feet of oil-cut water blanket and 180 feet of oil and gas-cut mud on a 38-minute drillstem test from 6,790-6,810 feet. On a retest, with packer at 6,795, it recovered only 20 feet of slightly gas-cut mud, cored ahead to 6,380 and was testing again.

The time was reported topped at 18 feet higher than the Canyon in Sun No. 1 Emil Schattell, pool opener 3 1/2 miles west, but it was uncertain whether the sections are the same. No. 1 Winston Bros. is 330 feet out of the northeast corner of tract 72, subdivision 37, Kirkland & Fields survey, with elevation 2,360 feet.

Standard of Texas staked No. 1 Jesse Brown, proposed 5,000-foot wildcat in northwestern Scurry, C E NW 44-37-H&TC, nine miles northwest of Snyder, on a block of approximately 20,000 acres.

Hickok and Reynolds, Inc., and Dan Auld No. 1 E. C. Rawlings, Coke county wildcat C NE NW 45-1A-H&TC, 1 1/2 miles west of Bronco, swabbed naturally one barrel of oil hourly from the Palo Pinto through casing perforations at 4,370-90 feet. It was to be acidized at 5,640 feet-3,800 feet below sea level, and plugged back from 5,802 feet.

Al G. Hill of Dallas No. 1 R. H. Harris estate in the west corner of Homann survey 522, mile and a half east of the south part of the Jameson (Strawn) field in northwestern Coke county, topped the Ellenburger at 7,010 feet, 5,020 feet below sea level. It recovered sulphur water from 7,021-43 and was to run 3/4-inch casing to test a Strawn sand that yielded oil on a drillstem test from 5,808-23 feet.

A failure in the Devonian and Silurian, Phillips Petroleum No. 1-T University became the Tubb discovery in the Shafter Lake Wolfcamp and Devonian field in Andrews county. Through casing perforations at 6,910-56 feet, it pumped 26 barrels of 24 gravity oil and seven barrels of water in 24 hours. The section had been acidized. The well is a south outpost, C NE NW 36-13-U.

Mid-Continent No. 9-9 University flowed 482.09 barrels of 44 gravity pipeline oil in 24 hours to become the first completed producer from the Wichita-Albany in the southwest part of the Fullerton field in Andrews. Bottomed at 7,968 feet, it was gauged through a 16-64-inch choke from pay topped at 7,968 feet and acidized with 500 gallons. Location is 660 feet from the north, 810 feet from the west line of the south.

D. D. Feldman, Oil Carriers, Inc., et al, No. 1 Max Pray-State of Texas, another East-Central Upton county prospector, treated the top of the Ellenburger at 11,530-610 feet, with 1,500 gallons of acid, through casing perforations.

Operator was swabbing to clean out and test. It was reported that after the acid the section showed a slight increase in gas from the approximately 10,000 cubic feet per day, developed in a drillstem test on that zone prior to the injection of the acid.

Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1-E-A Barnett, East-Central Upton county wildcat, two and three-quarter miles north and west of the discovery of the Benedum field, ran a 35 minute drillstem test in the Devonian, at 10,635-722 feet.

Recovery was nine stands of gas cut drilling fluid. There were no indications of oil, nor of formation water. The project is making more hole.

Location is 1,960 feet from north and west lines of section 40, block Y, TCRB survey. It is going ahead to the Ellenburger.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Barnett, in the same general area with the Republic Natural prospector, and 1,960 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 4, block Y, TCRB survey, was making its third try for a drillstem test since it entered the Ellenburger at 11,650 feet.

Total depth is now at 11,700 feet. Two previous efforts to run drillstem tests were unsuccessful, when the packers failed.

White Eagle Oil Co. will drill 12,000 feet if necessary to explore the Ellenburger in northwestern Reagan county eight miles west of Stiles and about the same distance northeast of the Benedum pool opener in Upton. It No. 1 R. E. Ringo estate will be in the NE NE 8-11-E&V, on a 10-section block. Grady H. Vaughn of Dallas plans to start at once a western Sterling County wildcat, No. 1 TXL, 1,960 feet from the north, 2,360 feet from the west line of section 1-31-5e-T&P. The test will be 50 feet east of R. R. Herrell and Steve Currie No. 1 TXL, which had some Clear Ford shows in drilling to 2,433 feet in 1946. Vaughn acquired from Herrell and Currie leases on the north half and southeast quarter of section 1-31-5e-T&P and the south half of 1-132-5e-T&P. He will drill 5,000 feet.

Sun Completes Scurry Opener

Sun Oil company No. 1 Schattell, new discovery from the Canyon lime section of the Pennsylvanian, in Southwest Scurry county, has been officially completed.

The well made a 24-hour flowing potential of 479.7 barrels of 44 gravity oil, natural, flowing through a one-quarter inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 315-1. The producing section is at 6,858-91 feet. The zone from 6,816 feet to 6,858 feet, is also oil saturated, and showed for commercial production while drilling was in progress.

That interval is not now being produced, as it is back of the 7-inch casing, which is cemented at 6,838 feet.

This wildcat has not and is not making any formation water. It is seven miles southwest of Snyder, and 1,960 feet from south and west lines of section 186, block 97, H&TC survey. The new producer and field opener is now on regular production.

East Howard Venture Rigs

Cascade Petroleum Co. was rigging up rotary tools at the end of the week for the No. 1 W. M. Spears, an east Howard county wildcat.

ELECT Cecil H. Barnes

For

State Representative

He is of an age where he is at his best for the work of a legislator. He is married and has three children. He taught three years in Texas public school. He has been an active lawyer for over fifteen years, and has been successful in business ventures for over twenty years. Seasoned and experienced men are needed in the Texas Legislature.

The public needs to know that there are now twenty-seven Austin students in the Legislature. This year there are one hundred students running for election and re-election to the Legislature. This is a good thing for the students who happen to choose the University of Texas for schooling, but is it wise? If this trend of electing students continues unabated our State Government will be operated from the University campus. It is apparent, not only to the people, but to the vast majority of students over Texas, that it is not wise nor sound.

In the Interest of Experienced and Able Service in the Legislature Elect Cecil H. Barnes

ELTON GILLILAND your County Attorney

Background and Experience

Elton Gilliland came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gilliland, to Big Spring as a lad in 1932. He was graduated from Big Spring high school in 1936, took pre-legal training at Texas Tech, working his own way, and, after separation from the Armed Forces, earned his law degree at the University of Texas. He was in private practice and served for several months as county attorney at Stanton before returning here to make his home.

Personal Message To Voters:

"During the past month, since announcing, I have worked long and hard in an effort to see every voter personally. Although I have given out more than 5,000 cards, I realize it will be humanly impossible to see all, and I want these people to know that I offer my self for office, unfettered by promise or connections, ready, able and anxious to devote my entire time to the duties of going right down the line in prosecuting violations of the law. I appreciate the work my friends have done and earnestly urge you to give me a chance to serve you."

Wish you had Wings? Why bother!

You've been there, we know - trapped in the crawling snarl of a sunny weekend's traffic - tangled in the huffing, puffing push of a city's busiest rush hour.

And more than once you've wished for wings - so you could duck all this, dodge the jostle, the push, the stress and strain.

Well, look about you, good sir, for the long, sleek new Buicks with the word "Dynaflow" on their taper-thru fenders.

They've got the answer - to easy, open-road flight and to the spot where traffic's densest and the driving tension greatest.

With Dynaflow, you just sit there, press the gas treads - and steer!

At a crawling 5 mph, you roll as smoothly, easily, lightly as at a winging 45.

At every opening left by a stalling, laboring neighbor, you have instant-quick power-surge to let you take advantage of it.

Upgrades? A little pressure on the gas treads handles them. Stop signs? Your foot brake stops you, holds you - till you can feed the gas and go.

You forget shifting entirely - in fact, no gears ever shift as you drive - yet the moment any bottleneck breaks, you move smoothly, swiftly up to boulevard speeds, pacing the pack.

Smoothly did we say? The word is hardly adequate. This velvety lift, this soaring swoop of power, this utter freedom from any break in your stride are things you need to experience to judge.

Why not try it out? Your dealer will do the best he can to arrange a trial - just as he'll take your order any time, whether or not you have a car to trade. See him - and you'll stop wishing for wings!

*Dynaflow Drive is optional as extra cost on Buickmaster models only.

What's different about DYNAFLOW DRIVE?

To an efficient new pump (left above), Buick engineers have added a true turbine (right) and an ingenious new super-charging assembly (in hand) which produce a torque-boosting action in starting and accelerating. The result is the first device on any American passenger car which employs liquid to fill the function of both the clutch and the usual low, second and high gears. The clutch pedal is eliminated and a simple control gives you manual selection of power ranges and direction.

BUICK alone has all these features

- * DYNAFLOW DRIVE * TAPER-THRU STYLING * RIGID TORQUE-TUBE
- * FLEX-FIT OIL RINGS * ROAD-RITE BALANCE * QUADRIFLEX COIL SPRINGING
- * SOUND-SCORER TOP LINING * VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE * SAFETY-RIDE RIMS
- * HI-POISED FIREBALL POWER * DUOMATIC SPARK ADVANCE
- * TEN SMART MODELS * BODY BY FISHER

First Group Of Americans Arrive For Olympic Tourney

Others Due At Scene Wednesday

LONDON, July 17 (AP)—American Olympic athletes began dropping out of the sky today, and within another few days Britain's playing fields and swimming tanks will be crowded with the flower of Uncle Sam's youth.

From Southampton the entire shipload will be transported by bus to living and training college at Wimbledon.

On Thursday morning the entire American contingent will gather at Uxbridge to raise the stars and stripes over the camp.

Then will follow an address of welcome by Lord Burghley, the former British hurdler who is chairman of the olympic organizing committee, and Avery Brundage, America's olympic president, will respond.

Harrison Hoyt of Bethel, Conn., may become the only amateur reinsman ever to win the famed Hambletonian, Kentucky Derby for trotting horses. Hoyt's Demon Hanover is rated one of the favorites to cop the $60,000 chase here Aug. 11.

Ghezzi Maintains Lead Over Demaret

PITTSBURGH, July 17 (AP)—Vic Ghezzi, mechanical man from Englewood, N. J., virtually wrapped up the $16,500 Dapper Dan Invitational Golf Tournament today with his third sub-par round—a two-under 70 which gave him 202 for 54 holes.

This maintained his five-stroke advantage over colorful Jimmy Demaret, of Ojai, Calif., who also kept a sub-par pace over rain-softened fairways. Demaret rallied after a shaky front nine at Alcoma Country Club and equalled Ghezzi's 70 by coming home in 33. He was 69-68-70—207 at the 54-hole mark.

LOOKING 'EM-OVER

With TOMMY HART

Blame this story on Frank Bridges, the veteran scout of the Chicago White Sox who has been in Big Spring the past several days eyeing baseball prospects for his bosses.

It seems a preacher, taking inventory of the good he had accomplished and the people he had converted in a community, ultimately came to the conclusion that the only party who had not responded to his crusade was a baseball player. He sought him out.

Asked why the athlete did not attend church on the Sabbath, the minister was told, "I play ball on Sunday."

"But that's not right," protested the man of religion. "The athlete had an answer for that, too, 'Look, parson, you work on Sundays, too, don't you?'"

"But I'm in the right field," the parson insisted. "I am, too, doctor," pointed out the ball hawk, "and those left handed hitters are giving me the devil."

LOCALS IN NEED OF ANOTHER POWER HITTER

Bridges, by the way, was more favorably impressed with Frank Perez, Orlando Echeverria and Ortillio Bosch than any one else he saw in a local uniform. . . . He says Frank will go places if he works on that side arm delivery. . . . When the Sox ivory hunter saw big Bob Cowser run to first base his second time at bat in the Thursday night game here, he wondered aloud why the Odessa management didn't call Robert a cab. . . . It becomes more and more evident that the Big Springers are going to need another power hitter in the stretch drive. . . . According to responsible sources, Jim Hart, who twirled relief for the Odessans here in the first game of the series, is but 16 years of age. . . . How many spectators noticed that Sammy Malvica, coaching at first base for San Angelo, was stealing most of Tony Traspuesto's signals and flashing them to the hitters? . . . Samuel may be somewhat shy on ability (because of poor eye sight), but he's one of the craftiest operatives in the lower minor leagues.

YOUNG HURLERS MUST LEARN TO SIGHT PLATE

Something like 9,000 tickets were sold during the Broncs' last home stand, which extended through eight days and night. . . . That runs the draw for the year to better than 43,000. . . . Last year, the aggregate for the entire season was but 43,000. . . . Joe Dean Phillips, the San Angelo outfielder, uses a broken bat each time he goes to the plate. . . . He nailed it together and has become too fond of it to let it go into retirement. . . . When will the young pitchers in this league learn that a hurler must wheel and locate the plate before losing the ball? . . . Several are attempting to throw in the direction of the dish without taking the trouble to zero their sights. . . . J. B. Garland, who beat the Big Springers here the other night, was purchased conditionally for $300 by Angelo from Lamesa. . . . That was before it was discovered that Garland brought a sore arm along with him. . . . When Claud McAden, the Colts' business manager, learned of the ailment he called the Lamesa management and told it the deal was off. . . . The Lobo business office then asked Mac to keep the hurler and forget about the money.

Ben Steiner, the umpire who became recognized here because of his weakness for overruling his partner's decisions, has quit the arbiting business to return to his business in Abilene. . . . Ken Cluley, the Angelo outfielder, is on option from Visalia, California. . . . Doctors say Roland Vidora of the local club's pitching staff is suffering from neuralgia. . . . Jimmy Baker, who went all the way on the mound for San Angelo in that 19-inning clash with Midland some time ago, is now paying the price of over work. . . . He has a sore arm and may have to go home. . . . The Ballinger Cats have been trying to talk trade with several Longhorn league clubs, using Floyd Geiger, a limited-service second sacker, as bait. . . . Orlando Moreno, the former Big Springer now with Havana, is hitting Florida International league pitching at a 268 clip, far under his average here a year ago.

UMPIRES STILL MISSING MOST CORNER PITCHES

Satchel Paige, the fabulous Negro pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, once struck out Dizzy Dean on three pitches—all curve balls—after he had been told Jerome Herman said Paige had a "real fast ball but no No. Two pitch." . . . Paige called in his outfielders and retired the opposition, not once but twice. . . . The first time was at Savannah, Ga., the second at Hutchinson, Kansas. . . . Jake Christie, the one-time nemesis of the Big Spring-WT-NM league team, was sold by Greenville to Shreveport recently. . . . Most of the umpires in the Longhorn league are still not giving the pitchers a break on their corner deliveries. . . . The arbiters could also do a lot toward speeding up the games, which have been getting slower and slower. . . . It is interesting to note that the Cotton Bowl in Dallas will be able to seat 67,435 persons. . . . Will the architects of the new Memorial stadium in Austin be able to top that?

Durocher's Giants Trip Pirates, 6-5

PITTSBURGH, July 17 (AP)—Leo Durocher's debut as manager of the Giants today proved a success as the New Yorkers came from behind to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-5 after seeing an early 4-0 lead collapse. Bobby Thomson's pinch single scored the tying and winning runs in the eighth inning. Ralph Kiner put the Bucs into a temporary 5-4 lead when he slammed his 25th home run with two mates aboard in the seventh.

Yanks Gain Ground As Lopat Shines

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—The New York Yankees moved to within two games of the league leading Cleveland Indians today by defeating the St. Louis Browns 4-0. Southpaw Ed Lopat was touched for 11 hits but managed to fashion his eighth victory, his sixth in succession and his third shutout.

Webb, boxing coach at the Naval Academy, has coached seven Olympic winners for the U. S. since 1920 when the sports was included on the Olympic program.

All-Star Teams To Be Piloted By Webb, Rigby

Harold Webb, manager of the Midland Indians, and Lloyd Rigby, manager of the Vernon Dusters, will direct squads in the annual Longhorn League all-star game at Odessa Tuesday.

Rigby will fill a double roll as player-manager for the east contingent, while Webb will pilot the west. Rigby was selected to work in the short stop slot on the east squad during balloting last week.

The west squad is composed of players from Midland, Odessa, Big Spring and Sweetwater, while players on the east are from the rosters of Ballinger, San Angelo, Del Rio and Vernon.

Webb Is Fined $100 By Loop President Green

Harold Webb, owner-manager of the Midland Indians of the Longhorn baseball league, has been fined $100 and severely reprimanded for the part he played in an incident in a July 10 game between Midland and Odessa at Midland.

Jim Prince and Harvill Jakes also drew $15 fines and Prince, along with Webb, was put on probation for the remainder of the season with "ejection from any future game meaning automatic suspension."

Green's announcement leveled four charges at Webb:

1. The Midland manager failed to provide adequate protection of umpires.
2. He failed to leave the field when directed to do so by Umpires Milton Eiler and Joe Tondrick, who ejected him and his players.
3. He returned to the field to dispute another decision later in the game.
4. He employed physical force against Tondrick during the course of the initial argument.

Webb, Green stated, had apologized for the incident, had apologized for the incident, had apologized for the incident, had apologized for the incident.

Bums Sweep Two From Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, July 17 (AP)—Rookie George Schuba and Roy Campanella hit home runs and Southpaw Paul Minner pitched excellent relief ball to lead the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 10-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in the second game of a double header today. The Dodgers also won the opener 8-4, Jackie Robinson snapping a 4-4 tie with a three-run homer in the eighth.

Polly Riley Wins Southern Crown

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 17 (AP)—Polly Riley of Fort Worth, won the Southern Women's championship today by defeating Margaret Gunther of Memphis, 3 and 1, in the 36-hole finals over the Belle Meade course.

Stranahan Takes Canadian Tourney

HAMILTON, Ont., July 17 (AP)—Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, won the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship for the second straight year today. He defeated Joe Stoddard of Hamilton, 9 and 7, in the 36-hole final match.

Sheriff's Posse Racing Program Carded Today

Horses Gallop Up To 440 Yards

The horses run here again today. Second racing program planned by the Howard County Sheriff's Posse association, featuring quarter horses, will be unveiled at that organization's track west of town starting at 2 p. m. and indications are there'll be eight or ten races. The public can gain entrance at the field upon payment of $1 each.

Owners will test their steeds at from 220 to 440 yards, some of three stallions in them.

The tentative program lists six races and, according to Dr. M. H. Bennett, head of the program committee, there'll be others lined up today. As of now, however, the lineup will go something like this:

1. Pete Howze's "Lady" vs Bill O'Neal's "Sidewinder" at 220 yards.
2. Dick Fitzgerald's "Lucky" vs Sam Joiner's "Polly" at 220 yards.
3. M. H. Kelly's "Kelly Sue" vs Howard Reed's "Flying Babe" at 440 yards.
4. Hack Wright's "Pepper" pitted against Merrick's and Douglas' "Blondie" and Doyle Vaughan's "Piccolo" at 300 yards.
5. L. J. Stewart's "Brown Jug" vs Jim Davidson's "Suzy" at 220 yards.
6. Darrell Douglass' "Terrapin vs Vaughan's and Tucker's "Little Jim" at 300 yards.

LEGION DIAMOND TEAM CLASHES WITH MIDLAND HERE AT 3:30

Dr. Kenny Swain's Big Spring American Legion Junior baseball team, victors in four of seven games to date, tangle with the Midland Legionnaires in a 3:30 contest at Steer park today, their final district outing of the year.

The local lads have bowled over Coahoma twice, Midland once and Odessa once. They lost to Lamesa once and Odessa once.

Swain's troops still had a chance to tie Lamesa for the league lead until they were surprised by the Odessa Blue Sox Thursday night.

Lamesa has clinched the top spot and will represent this district in the state playoff. Lamesa lost only one decision and that to Midland.

Howard Jones will probably twirl for the Big Springers today. Jones has been very effective since attaining top condition.

A win today would enable the locals to finish in second place in the standings.

Rainwater Plays Madison Today

One match remains to be played in the first round of the City Junior gold tournament now in progress at the Mundy course.

Charles Rainwater pits his game against that of Moe Madison in a test carded for today.

The winner faces the tournament medalist, Bobby Hohertz, in second round action. Hohertz won his way into the second round by thumping Lacey Patterson.

In lower flight play, Paul Shaffer and Charley Wright advanced to the semi-finals with victories over Gene Reynolds and Marvin Wise, respectively.

In the first flight, Charles Franklin won from Bill Stover, Roy Hickman defeated E. C. Tate, Luke Thompson ousted Wiley Wise while Bobby Stevenson trounced Jess Suter.

War Birds Host Coahoma Nine

ACKERLY, July 17.—Ackerly's Eagles, currently in second place in Tri-County league standings, will be favored to edge the Coahoma Bulldogs in their 3 p. m. outing here today.

The War Birds have lost only once in second half play and to the pace setting Forsan club. The Bulldogs, a first half contender for the lead, has won only one game in second half play.

Bill Brown, who set a new league sirtkout record with 20 in last week's contest against HCJC, will probably twirl for Coahoma.

The Eagles must win to remain in the scrap for the second half flag.

Chisox Edge Nats

WASHINGTON, July 17 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox capitalized on pathetic Washington pitching which yielded eight walks and 12 hits to defeat the Senators, 9-7, here today. Ike Pearson, second of three Chicago pitchers, received credit for the victory.

Merchants, TP Shops Winners

The Merchants and T & P Shops team chalked up Mundy softball league wins in abbreviated contests unveiled at the city park Friday night, the Merchants humbling McKee's Construction company 10-9, in a six-inning debate, while the Railroaders swamped the Ready Mixers, 21-9, in five heats.

McKee's tallied two runs in the sixth inning of its struggle with the Merchants but time ran out on the Contractors. The bout was called because of the league curfew.

The Merchants could manage only four hits off Robertson, McKee's hurler, but took full advantage of his wildness.

McKee's banged out 11 blows off the slants of Cotton Mize, including three for three by Robertson.

In the second game, T & P Shops rattled the proverbial boards for 11 runs in the first inning and coasted in from that point.

Bobby Wright paced the T & P offense with three hits in four expeditions.

Merchants . . . 133 030-10 4
McKee's . . . 105 012-9 11
Mize and Harrison; Robertson and Calvin.
T&P Shops . . . 111 06 04-21 15
Ready Mix . . . 0 3 0 06-9 7

BIG SPRING HARDWARE CO.

117-119 MAIN STREET, BIG SPRING, TEXAS

TO THE PEOPLE OF HOWARD COUNTY

Two years ago I made the race for Tax Assessor-Collector of this county, and you gave me a very large vote. I am very grateful to you for this, I have often recalled this in much appreciation. As you know I am again, asking you to elect me to this office, on the basis of my qualifications and my eagerness to serve you.

I am a native Texan, a school teacher, a veteran of World War One. I have lived in Howard county many years—have taught school at Lomax, Coahoma, and in the city schools of Big Spring, and I am persuaded that the people for whom I have taught will report that I have done my work with a large measure of success.

In 1917 I volunteered for foreign service with the United States Army, and soldiered in Europe, and after it was all "Over, over there" I came back to Texas and was honorably discharged, after eighteen months service in France, Belgium and Germany.

Now I trust that my training my qualifications to serve you, and my contribution to "The American Way," both in peacetime and war, will commend me to you and win for me your confidence and your support.

If I am elected, the duties of the office will be my only concern, I shall have no other interests to claim my time and my attention, I shall devote my time and services to the duties of office.

To my Buddies of 1917-18, to the veterans of World War Two, to all the people of Howard county, I submit my candidacy.

I thank you again for the splendid vote you gave me two years ago. I thank you for your kindnesses, and assurances of support in the present campaign.

I am Thankful that I am an American, a Texan, your neighbor, and I shall be very happy indeed to be your Tax Assessor-Collector.

Bosch Drives Tally Across In 13th To Sweep Series

Helba Credited With Second Win In Two Nights

A long double by Ortillo Bosch in the 13th inning scored Orlando Echeverria with the run that enabled the Big Spring Broncos to nudge the Odessa Oilers, 5-4, in a thrill-packed Longhorn league fracas here Saturday night...

The extended struggle, which lasted through three hours and five minutes and was not over until 11:35 p. m.—15 minutes before the league curfew would have been executed—represented a three-game series sweep from the grim visitors and ran the Big Springers' lead to 5½ lengths over the field.

Lefty Gumbo Helba, cool and cautious, received credit for the victory, his second on successive night, after relieving Freddie Rodriguez in the fifth frame at a time the guests were threatening to blow the Hosse's barn down.

Each team tried to give the decision away several times but the other nine usually would not hear to it. Big Spring had a chance to pull a squeeze play for a tally in the ninth and again in the 11th but the orders were to 'hit away' and runners died on third.

Odessa loaded all stations in the 12th but Helba worked out of a jam by felding Fauceit's bleeder and catching Brinkopf at the dish.

CLEANING THE HASSOCKS — The infield fly rule was brought into play on Big Spring in the first when Ace Mendez hit a blooper that Phil Wells could not get under.

Runners were on first and second at the time and moved up a base...

PEREZ LEADING HURLER

Pat Stasey Backs Into Batting Lead

By remaining virtually idle during the past three weeks, Pat Stasey of Big Spring has taken over the batting lead in the Longhorn baseball league in games through Tuesday, July 13, with an average of .359, Jim Price of Midland, who had been in the top spot for a month, slipped to second place with a mark of .378.

Prince had taken the lead in total bases with 188 and in doubles with 28. Bobby Fernandez, Big Spring, still leads in total hits with 194. Jake McClain, Big Spring, was out front in runs scored with 88 and stolen bases with 33 while Kenny Peacock, Sweetwater, was setting in pace in home runs with 21 and runs batted in with 90.

Jimmy Perez, Big Spring, was the leading pitcher among players who had been action in ten or more games. Perez had won nine and lost one.

PHILS OUTLAST CARDS IN SLUGFEST, 11-10

ST. LOUIS, July 17 (AP) — Granville Hamner doubled twice and batted in seven runs to help the Philadelphia Phils nose out the St. Louis Cardinals today—11 to 10. Close behind Hamner was Del Ennis, also with two doubles and three baserunners sent home. Stan Musial and Nippy Jones homered for the Birds — Musial's coming with the sacks loaded in the second inning.

GRUDGE MATCH CARDER AT AC MONDAY NIGHT

The battle is being billed as a grudge match. Curtis was the arbiter who took a thorough going over at the hands of Murdock last week. He asked for this one. Murdock can be expected to bring his favorite weapon, the Python, into play if given the slightest opportunity. It will be Curtis' job to see that the Texan doesn't get it. In the added attraction, O'Dowdy is throwing big Al Getz of Pittsburgh, Penna., against Gil Knutson of Davenport, Iowa. Getz is one of the best known gladiators ever to appear here. He is another noted for his villainy but he carries on when he is taking a battering from the opposition — something to see.

Knutson is one of the ring's nicer men, perhaps too nice for his own good. He rarely gets out of temper, even when the opposition is acting up. Chances are Getz will inspire him to change his attitude tomorrow evening. The show gets on the road around 8:30 o'clock.

Echeverria's Hit, Stellar Relief Hurling Propels Broncos To Win

Held at bay for six innings by the effective pitching of Ed Arthur, the Big Spring Broncos ran wild in the seventh inning and went on to trounce the Odessa Oilers, 5-4, in an exciting Longhorn league baseball game here Friday night.

Arthur had given up only two hits when Justo Arplazu walked to the dish on just Big Spring's half of the seventh. A misplay by Leon Brinkopf on Arplazu's ground ball at third seemed to unnerve Arthur and he cracked wide open. Hits by Tony Traspueto and Ace Mendez loaded the sacks.

Arthur asked to see it through and paid through the nose. Orlando Echeverria blasted a double into right field, sending three runs home, and came to a stop representing the tying tally. Arthur begged to keep plugging away and managed to get Pinch Hitter Pat Stasey on a fly but then Ortillo Bosch doubled to score Echeverria and later came home himself on a long fly by Jake McClain.

That would have been enough but the Steeds added another tally in the eighth on hits by Mendez, two stolen bases by that fleet-footed individual and a single by Bosch.

Jimmy Perez, who started on the pitching rubber for Big Spring, was a mystery to only big Bob Cowser. Cowser whiffed three times and later went down swinging at a pitch thrown by Jimmy's successor, Lefty Gumbo Helba.

But, with Joe Moody, John Fauceit and other Odessa players, it was another matter. The Oilers went out and helped themselves to three runs in the fourth and picked up another in the sixth on Moody's long home run.

Helba put out a fire in the sixth and breezed through the seventh, then checked out for a pinch hitter. He was destined to gain credit for the win, his third against five losses.

HOSPITAL JOB PROGRESSES — Workers toil at preparing footings for a section on the south end of the Veterans Administration hospital here as others install forms for first floor columns on the northern section in the background. The men are mostly at basement level, but others may be seen descending into holes for footings. These are sunk to a depth of 24 feet and are dug by hand. Below, the concrete for the laundry wing, on the extreme north end of the building, is poured. This view is taken from the northwest and looking to the southeast. At the point where the scaffolding rises, the main portion of the building will tower for six stories. (Jack M. Haynes Photos).

Hospital Project Takes Shape As Forms Set For Second Story

Rising forms are beginning to convey the idea of progress as the Veterans Administration hospital project comes up out of the ground. Actually, the job has been progressing smoothly for months although it was below ground and thus out of sight. This accounts for the estimate of 14 per cent of completion for the job, according to Louie G. Bradley, engineer in charge for the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

Cooper Brown, superintendent for Robert E. McDee, general contractors, said Friday that there were around 225 men on the job, counting those employed by Farwell & Co., plumbing sub-contractors, Paul Wright, San Antonio, electrical sub-contractor, and Southwest Steel Company, sub-contractor for steel and placing steel forms.

To date, 308 footings have been poured and 259 columns. These figures become impressive when it is realized that most of the footings go down for 24 feet to seat in red clay. After footings are poured, and columns poured on top of these, the fill is made, wet and tamped with air hammers so that it is almost hard as brick.

The north end of the job is beginning to take shape, for the extreme northern wing—that for the laundry unit—has been poured, as has the emergency wing, which juts out to the east toward Gregg street. Both of these will be one story.

Immediately to the south, the first section of the main building is going up with forms now being fitted into place for the second story. Abutting this unit, the floor for the center section of the main building is being prepared for installation of column forms for the second floor. Beyond this point crews are pecking, digging and blasting away to get in footings and excavate for basement areas. This beehive of activity continues right on down to the City Park road, where the main building will terminate.

On the whole material supplies are coming along well, and Brown said that unskilled labor has been steady and sound. Finishing stone is on hand together with common brick. The first carload of face brick has arrived.

The plan of work is laid out so that work can be concentrated on the north end of the building so that it can be virtually completed by the time all preliminary work has been done for the center and south ends.

Center of the vast building will face in a southeasterly direction, or roughly toward the intersection of Gregg street and the City Park road. The front will be of polished marble and doors will be solid glass. The building itself will be a light cream color and the center section goes for six stories, with a pent house and elevator housing rising through seventh and eighth floor levels.

Foundations are in for the attendants quarters, the powerhouse, the shops and garage. To the west on the slope of a hill, first work on a 250,000-gallon water storage tank is beginning. This is to stand well over 100 feet high. At the extreme southwest corner of the hospital tract, form lumber is being moved in for the superintendent and nurses quarters.

During the past week a 75-foot flag pole arrived on the scene. This has a heavy casting for the base, and the pole itself is in two sections, resembling bid dimension oil-field pipe. This will be topped by a big copper ball (12 inches in diameter) and plated with 23 carat gold.

Former Waco Mayor Dies At His Home

WACO, July 17. (AP)—Dr. Herschel Frank Connally, 40, former mayor of Waco and executive secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners, died at his home here late yesterday of coronary thrombosis, a heart condition.

Gov. Dan Moody appointed Dr. Connally to the State Board of Medical Examiners in 1945. He was mayor of Waco in 1945.

FROM OLD TEXAS SEA BED

Baylor Geologists Unearth Remains Of Marine Monster

WACO, July 17. (AP)—One day millions of years before the garden of Eden was in bloom a sea monster died in the great prehistoric lake that covered what is now central Texas.

It settled to the muddy floor of the shallow sea.

In time it became caked in mud and silt and was preserved in its tomb beneath the water.

While it lay there undisturbed 80,000,000 (M) years or more great changes were slowly taking place on the earth above. The lake dried up. Man appeared. Civilization came.

By now erosion of the soil above was beginning to expose the skeleton of the ancient marine reptile to the surface of the earth, in a trickling spillway behind a huge 20th century reservoir dam.

And there it was found the other day by two school boys and a middle-aged fisherman.

Geologists from Baylor University in nearby Waco were notified. Aided by geology and zoology students, they carefully chiseled away the blue shale from enough of the valuable fossil to allow the bones to stand out in sharp contrast.

But there was little or no question in their minds what it was. From its characteristics they determined that it was a four-flippers plesiosaur, a reptile which lived in the sea more than 80,000,000 (M) years ago.

"It's remarkable well - preserved," observed Richmond J. Bronaugh, assistant professor of geology at the university.

The skeleton measured almost 20 feet in length. A section of the tail was missing. The head was three feet long, a foot broad and tapering off to a long-pointed jaw. Teeth marks were visible. Fifty or more vertebrae showed distinctly.

In the midsection of the curled framework the geologists found a small, perfectly shaped round rock. They said it could have been part of the "grave." The plesiosaur used to digest its food much like a chicken grinds food in its gizzard with small pebbles.

The plesiosaur, said Bronaugh, was not a "picture book" animal of the dark ages.

"Most people get the impression that all prehistoric animals had long necks, huge bodies and short tails, but this one for example is almost opposite. It has a short neck and a long tail," he said.

The sea-going plesiosaur lived at the same time as the dinosaurs which then roamed the earth.

Bronaugh said the plesiosaur was a product of the mesozoic era, and was more closely associated with the upper cretaceous period, most recent of the "age of reptiles."

The discovery of the rare fossil was marred by a near tragic accident. Sightseers flocked to the site and geologists quickly decided that the sooner the skeleton was removed to the safety of the university's Strecker Museum the better.

They began to cut away an oblong slab containing the skeleton. They soaked sacks in plaster of paris and pasted them on the slab to strengthen it and to help hold the bones together.

After the slab was cut out and the plaster of paris nearly hardened they turned it on its side to lift it on a truck.

They saw a sickening crack speed across the slab. There was a second. A third. The slab fell broken out of their grip. The petrified skeleton which had survived the ages was now in several pieces.

"It wasn't too bad," Bronaugh said later. "We had half-expected it to crack. We can put the 'critter' back together with little trouble."

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

BSFS Transfers Its Operations

Big Spring Flying Service has transferred its operations from hangar No. 2 to hangar No. 1 at the Munny port, putting in the building with their manager's office and thus handling to transient craft which might be in need of service.

Hardly had the move been completed when BSFS got a call to service the CAA ship, "Harlow," which made an emergency landing at the field Thursday due to gear trouble. The unit was repaired quickly and the ship continued its flight to Fort Worth.

A Mr. Witt, Fort Worth, regional CAA official is expected this week to conclude agreements which will lead to construction of the new municipal terminal building. Most of the agencies affected have given their reaction to plans and it is hoped that these may be advanced to the final state around Aug. 1.

Park Aerial Survey of Louisville, Ky. last week completed an extensive aerial mapping program for the U. S. government. During the time they were mapping most of this West Texas area from the air they were headquartered here.

Sale of 145 octane gasoline, the highest octane made for aviation purposes, is zooming at the Munny port. Jack Cook, manager, said that several long range Navy fighter and bomber craft had put in here for fuel since Big Spring is the only point between Fort Worth and San Diego offering the 145 octane. Meanwhile the commander of VRF-2, San Diego base for the Navy ferry pilots, and his staff put in for an inspection of the Big Spring port, where a big Navy volume is handled. The Navy is due to send a considerable amount of equipment here to facilitate servicing of its planes.

Laymen's Meet Ducats On Sale

Tickets are to go on sale this week for the city-wide laymen's meeting set for Aug. 3 at the First Methodist church.

The affair, a non-denominational gathering of laymen from all the churches, will have the First Methodist men as hosts. Food will be served by women of the church.

Plans call for special numbers, male quartets, etc., and music during the meal by the "Gulley Jumpers," a musician unit organized by Murph Thorpe.

Speaker for the occasion has not yet been announced. Lawrence Robinson, Henry D. Norris and Royce Satterwhite have been named to the program committee.

The U. S. Army assigned two men here last week to watch after some 190 Steerman planes stored at the south end of the ramp. They are Pvt. Cecil H. Johnson, Waco, and Pvt. Walter E. Davis, San Bernardino, Calif.

Landings are on the increase at the Munny port, and part of the gain is due to numbers of Good-fellow Field (San Angelo) pilots putting in here on their cross country training.

O. D. Sellers, Santa Fe, N. M., hanged his plane at Hamilton Field during the weekend when he flew home to visit with his parents near Gall. Last Sunday he brought his mothers, Mrs. Parrish, here and piloted her on her first airplane ride.

Three solo flights were reported at Hamilton Field. They were made by Leland G. Holt, Charles Sullivan and Jack Pearson. Cross country operations are on the increase, both from Hamilton Field and in craft stopping at the field for refueling.

Canning Season Is Here Again

Canning season is here once again with all of its hustle and hurry to gather the foodstuffs, prepare them and get them put away for the winter, so these busy Home Demonstration Club women and 4-H Club girls in Forsan remind us as they go about the task of canning.

Various methods can be used in preserving foods, such as drying, canning by water bath or, in more recent years, pressure cooking and freezing. Club work enables the housewife to learn more of the modern efficient methods of preserving vegetables, fruits and meats.

Today's pictures are of the activities involved in canning, namely gathering, preparing, processing, labeling and storing.

UPPER LEFT are Mrs. G. G. Green and Mrs. J. M. Craig, president of the Club, as they gather corn for canning.

UPPER CENTER shows Madge Louise Anderson and Barbara June Green as they sample the tomatoes that have been canned to give their reaction to the taste of the fruit.

UPPER RIGHT is Mrs. Green as she illustrates the use of a water bath cooker in the canning of tomatoes. This kind of processing is especially good for tomatoes for they are not so apt to cook to pieces; but will stay firm and look pretty in the jar. Even though it is a slower method, it is recommended for show purposes.

LOWER LEFT, Mrs. J. D. Leonard demonstrates the use of the pressure cooker which has been especially good for the preservation of meats.

LOWER CENTER shows Mrs. Frank Thieme as she cuts up cucumbers in the process of making bread and butter pickles. These are made from cucumbers that are too large to make good pickles.

LOWER RIGHT is Lelia Mae Fletcher, 4-H Club member, as she labels cartons of food to be placed in the frozen food lockers, until time to be used.

BELOW is pictured Mrs. J. M. Craig placing the jars of canned tomatoes on the shelves of the cellar as Mary Ann Green assists her.

Let Them Drool Over Your Recipes Or Else Cook Your Man's Goose

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Newsfeatures Writer

If there's the slightest chance your husband might be a candidate for a political job—a big one, that is—get out the cookbook, madame, and study hard.

It is positively un-American for the wife of a candidate to be ignorant of, or to scorn the business of, bending over a hot stove. The little woman of the big politician who can't whip up a nine-course dinner before you can say "electoral college" is courting defeat at the polls.

The recent frenetic Republican activity in Philadelphia, where there were more favorite sons than states, was conclusive proof. The ladies of the hopefuls had more recipes on the tips of their tongues at press conferences than the boys had planks for the platform.

Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey—and remember who won—came armed with two old faithfuls: Berkshire soup and Mexican macaroni. Mrs. Arthur Vandenberg gave chapter and verse on her favorite "Vandenbergers"—doughnuts—described a special sauce for corned beef hash and told how to shuck oysters. Mrs. Robert Taft pulled a switch. She was accused of being a gourmet, denied the accusation and talked about dieting, a subject close to the heart of voting masses.

Mrs. Stassen privately confessed favoring lamb chops and salads. At the end of the week, the notebook of a reporter who attended to ladies' news conferences looked like the log of a home economist.

My notes on Mrs. Dewey's questions-and-answers indicate that Berkshire soup was the first thing she learned to cook. It consists of tomatoes, onions, corn and seasoning whipped together with a cream foundation and "is a filling meal in itself." Mexican macaroni is served "with a highly seasoned tomato sauce" and baked in a casserole.

"Vandenbergers" have nothing to do with beef, but are doughnuts made with a cup of mashed potatoes instead of a like amount of flour and the dough cut in the shape of spades, hearts, clubs and diamonds. Corned beef hash should be served with a highly seasoned tomato sauce (maybe the same as Mrs. Dewey's) and, if supper is buffet, a sign saying "this sauce is for the corned beef hash" adds a gay note. Oysters should be shucked with a special knife and it's best to hire an expert oyster shucker to do the job.

Mrs. Taft is forever going on a diet, but the trouble is, she says, she doesn't stick to it long enough. She believes in lots of proteins.

There's precedent and sense in this kind of news conference talk. It's safe and sane. It keeps the ladies out of the dangerous mine fields of politics. It sets comfortably with the folks back home.

Remember what Mrs. Roosevelt—a lady who could hardly be called dedicated entirely to house-keeping chores—did for the simple scrambled egg and the frankfurter? She made a rite of scrambled eggs (double boiler-made) for Sunday night suppers, and she gave a hot-dog picnic for the King and Queen of England. Purveyors of those two food products undoubtedly had to pay higher income taxes the next year.

Mrs. Wendell Willkie, a forthright woman, never was able to understand the public's interest in her kitchen skills.

"Everybody wants to know how to make lemon meringue pie and fry chicken," she complained during her husband's campaign eight years ago. "Why do they care?"

Mrs. Willkie had no special recipes and no interest whatsoever in preparing either dishes.

And Wendell Willkie lost the election to the husband of the lady who scrambled eggs and roasted hot-dogs.

Tailoring Instructions Are Given At HD Club

Instructions on tailoring were given by Margaret Christie, County Home Demonstration Agent, at the meeting of the Center Point Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ernest Hull.

Special emphasis was placed on shrinking, cutting and marking.

She showed the club the general uses of the tracing wheel, the hem gauge, and the marking board or marking paper. She suggested that material should be checked as to color fastness and shrinkage.

She gave instruction on altering patterns, and said that the best fall colors will be all shades of gray, dark green, brown, black and navy blue.

During the general discussion the good and bad points of different material were discussed: the new nylon fabrics are being used to a greater extent due to the fact that no ironing is necessary, they dry quickly and do not stretch.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF FAT?

When you buy Barcontrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not buy for a printed diet. Barcontrate is not a vitamin tablet to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Barcontrate. It contains no harmful drugs, but does contain ingredients to make you feel better.

Barcontrate when mixed with grapefruit juice does this: First, cuts down your desire for sweets and fatty foods, but you do not have to FORGE yourself. Barcontrate takes care of your DESIRE. Second, decreases and eliminates, so that water is expelled away—almost like sweating fat. At the same time you feel better, more pep, more alive, but never starved or hungry.

Big Spring

The Return Of An Old Friend

Big Spring people will regard news of the decision to return division headquarters of the Texas and Pacific Railway company here as economically, psychologically and sentimentally important.

Looking toward revamping the operational set-up before he takes over as vice-president in charge of operations, L. C. Porter, made formal announcement Friday that the new plan would mean a return to the three division system employed by the carrier until about 1939. For that reason, it will be a sentimental landmark for this community, for since its beginning the T&P and its division headquarters have been linked almost inseparably with the development of the city and area.

Porter, W. G. Vollmer, the T&P president, and others undoubtedly see the move as an advantageous one for the company. Certainly it is for Big Spring because it means that nearly two-score key employees will be transferred here. No official estimate has been made, but the payroll involved probably lies somewhere between $150,000 and $200,000 per annum.

Naturally a development of this sort has its psychological impact, for it confirms the impression of a steadily unfolding series of signs that things are on the up and up. The presence of two score new families, all solid citizens, to help share in the growth of this community and its institutions is stimulating.

How About A Vote Torch?

By Frank Grimes
Herald Special Writer

They were having a bit of trouble getting the Olympic torch, with its symbolism of peace and fellowship, from Greece to London where the Olympic games are to be staged.

Original plans called for utilizing the heat of the sun's rays to light the torch at Olympia in Greece, site of the ancient games. Relay runners were to bear the torch from Olympia through Corinth, Athens, Delphi and on to Missolonghi, where the fabulous Lord Byron, great friend of Greek liberty, fended and died in 1824. At Missolonghi the torch would be taken on a British warship to Bari in Italy, thence by relays of runners across Europe, by ship across the Channel, and on to London.

But due to the presence of guerrillas in the vicinity of Olympia a change was made in the schedule. The Greek army could guarantee only four hours of time, instead of the four days required to cover the Greek leg of the journey, so the torch was taken twenty miles from Olympia and put aboard ship there.

Thus not even a civil war will be allowed to keep the torch from pursuing its steady course to London, though it did force a change in the routing. For the love of sport men will go to almost any length, take almost any chance or pains, overcome almost any difficulty.

We fell to thinking of this in connection with the primary election in Texas, which is a far piece from Greece and London in space, and an even farther piece from the Olympics in spirit and determination.

For it is evident as of today that a great many voters of Texas aren't going to take the little trouble necessary to vote in next Saturday's primary. Countless millions of the earth's inhabitants would give the last crust of bread for the privilege of voting for men and measures of their choice in a free election, but anywhere from 35 to 40 percent of the qualified voters of Texas think so little of it that they'll stay away from the polls come Saturday.

Unless interest picks up in these last few days, a record low vote for a major presidential-year primary in Texas will be registered. The voters are not taking much interest in local races, there is no contest to speak of in the gubernatorial and other state races, and not as much interest in the senatorial race as there should be.

This is an unfortunate state of affairs. The privilege of voting should be cherished and exercised. We should at least be interested in precinct, county and district. We may never see a U. S. senator or shake a governor's hand, but we're in frequent contact with many of the lesser officials. We should manage to meet as many of these as possible—it really is difficult to dodge them sometimes—and make some effort to arrive at a just appraisal of their qualities.

If we simply fail or refuse to take the trouble of voting—and for most people it involves very little time and effort—we forfeit the right to criticize justly or to praise manfully, for we will have had nothing to do with electing either the good or the bad.

ANIMAL ACT A NECESSITY IN POLITICS

By HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA, July 16. (U.P.)—Political conventions are getting more and more animal.

Unless Hank Wallace can pull a rabbit out of his hat at the national convocation of his third party here next week, he may have difficulty in impressing the dazed citizens of the City of Brotherly Love.

Because the Republican and Democratic Conventions have convinced them that politics is going zoological. They are getting fond of the fauna.

It's been a refreshing course in nature study for many grownups whose only other recent contacts with the animal world have been a few prejudiced slaps at mosquitoes or breakfast interviews with the end products of absent hens.

The parade of the four-footed kind here began with the arrival of "Little Eva," who came with one trunk and a worried look to support the presidential candidacy of Senator Robert Taft.

She won many hearts and has the happy memory of shaking hands with the senator. But somebody slipped a court order on this small fugitive from a circus. And what happened to Taft left many admirers of the elephant Devey-eyed.

Then came a national convention of the sure-footed Elks, who had their political problems too—in lodge measure.

No sooner was the last weary antler out of town than the donkey serenade of the Democrats began. And a few of the delegates lived right up to the traditional stubbornness of the animal on their placards. They walked right out of the party harness, and are still ambling in southern pastures.

But the final touch was ornithological. The friendly allied florists of Philadelphia, who had put together a 4,000-flower American flag for the Republicans, outdid themselves for the Democrats.

They plucked 8,000 red roses, white carnations, blue corn flowers and green and bronze magnolia leaves. And they fashioned them into a gigantic floral liberty bell. And beneath the bell they copped up 48 pigeons to represent doves of peace.

The idea was that after President Truman arrived on the platform the pigeons were to be loosed and soar up like man's ancient white hope of a world free of war. But pigeons and peace are hard to regulate. Nobody had bothered to brief the birds. When they were released it was long past midnight, well beyond their bedtime hour. They stuck drowsily in their cramped cage. For them it was too late for liberty.

"Shoo," said Convention Chairman Sam Rayburn of Texas.

"Shoo" of the pigeons apparently weren't from Mississippi or Alabama. They just wouldn't walk out. A few finally did bolt the coop, but they whirred aimlessly around, slipped through the white hair of a platform dignitary, or settled on nearby electric fans waiting for Truman to speak.

It was just a case where people for once were having more fun than pigeons.

The Nation Today—

Bold Stroke By Truman

What chance do the Democrats have of fining the presidency and capturing control of Congress in the November elections.

The great string of Democratic victories, which started in 1932, broke in 1946 when the Republicans won control of Congress.

With President Roosevelt dead, the Democrats have lost his political genius end vote-winning magic.

His tight control on the Democratic Party held it together. President Truman hasn't shown yet that he has the same grip.

That's illustrated by the anger and walkout of southern delegates on the convention floor over the civil rights issue.

In winning election to the presidency four times, Mr. Roosevelt's victories were so large over the country generally that he could have won without the votes of the southern states.

But this year no one is predicting any such kind of sweep for the Democratic ticket of Mr. Truman and Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky.

In a close contest with the Republicans, the votes of those southern states might mean the difference between victory and defeat for Mr. Truman.

So he seems likely to suffer if some of the southern states refuse to support him and throw their electoral votes to some one else, although not necessarily to a Republican.

But a big change might happen between now and election day in November.

For one thing, Mr. Truman accepted the nomination Wednesday with a speech that brought the delegates shouting to their feet. Until then, except for their outbursts of anger over civil rights, the delegates had been a dreary looking crew. He also announced he was calling Congress back into session.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Auction Proves State Department Doesn't Know Its Art 'Propaganda'

By DREW PEARSON
By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON.—It was just about a year ago that the Republican Congress was berating and bulldozing Assistant Secretary of State Bill Benton for the State Department's art exhibit—especially the portrait of the fat circus girl.

Benton was called up to Capitol Hill, literally made to stick his nose in each portrait, as Congress scoffed at modern art. He was all over, the Republicans proceeded to cut the State Department's cultural and propaganda funds to ribbons. Wasting money on crackpot art, they decreed, would not happen again.

Even President Truman joined privately in the fray by writing Benton a letter about art. In the end, Secretary of State Marshall decided that Benton was "too hot" politically and his resignation was accepted.

That was all about a year ago. Now comes the sequel.

The art exhibit which the congressmen thought was such a waste of money has been sold—at a profit. The State Department bought the collection for $56,000 and has now sold it for $78,658—a profit of more than $23,000 to Uncle Sam.

The "Circus Girl" by Yasuo Kuniyoshi which the congressmen so scorned, sold for $2,000. The State Department had paid $700 for it.

Bill Benton, now a private citizen, tried to buy some of the pictures when they were up for auction, but was outbid each time. He didn't get one.

NOTE.—The congressional cut in the State Department's general propaganda funds was about as tragic as the congressional refusal to fortify Guam before Pearl Harbor. The art collection was not important but the curtailment of other propaganda was. Fortunately, Congress has now seen the error of its ways and has restored part of the money.

WHO SHOT TOGLIATTI?
There may be more than meets the eye behind the shooting of Italian Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti. In brief, the long arm of Moscow, rather than the anti-Communists, may have engineered the attempt to bump him off.

MORE
Here are the inside diplomatic facts which point to this possibility.

While it's always difficult to know what cooks inside the Kremlin, it's now pretty well established there's been a serious row between Foreign Minister Molotov on one hand, and Russia's No. 2 strong man, Cominform Boss Andrei Zhdanov, on the other.

The dispute preceded the break with Tito. Zhdanov thought that Tito should be made to go through with the Cominform plan for communizing Yugoslavia. Molotov, realizing the opposition Tito had from the peasants, felt that Moscow should give him more time.

When the matter came to a vote inside the Kremlin, diplomatic sources say that Zhdanov won by three votes. So Tito was denounced publicly.

Moscow now knows the bad reaction to washing the Cominform's dirty linen in public. As a result, Molotov's hand has been strengthened; Zhdanov may be on the skids.

Molotov is reported to have argued that instead of breaking with Tito, he should have been quietly assassinated. This could have been done without pinning the blame on Moscow. Or, Molotov argued, a rival Communist Party should have been built up inside Yugoslavia to take over from Tito. Neither was done.

TITO AND TOGLIATTI WERE FRIENDS

So now, it may be Moscow is profiting from past mistakes as far as Italy and Togliatti are concerned.

Togliatti was a friend of Tito's, made several trips to confer with Tito, receive a stock of Yugoslav arms from Tito.

It is also known that Togliatti, Tito and George Dimitrov, the Bulgarian Red chief, always voted together at meetings of the Cominform.

Furthermore, after the Italian elections, Togliatti went on record for the Marshall Plan. So it may be that the Kremlin, dissatisfied with Communism's failure in Italy and determined to carry out a strong, revolutionary policy, decided to get Togliatti out of the way.

Grant Alters Film Plans For Part In 'War Bride'

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD.—Cary Grant's film plans have been shuffled again and he will now play the title role in "I Was A Male War Bride." He was scheduled for a British movie after his current "Every Girl Should Be Married." But he can't wait for the English film to be prepared, and Joseph Cotten will do it instead. Cary goes into 20th-Fox's hilarious story of a European who marries an American woman and tries to gain entrance into the U. S.

Franchot Tone is greatly perturbed about 20th-Fox's treatment of the career of his wife, Jean Wallace. "She has appeared in only one picture in four years," he says, "and they won't give her a release. We may see our lawyers about it."

Jimmy Stewart has been dropping hints all over Universal-International that he wants to play in the film version of "Harvey." Playwright Mary Chase is working on the screen version, but so far no one has spoken to Jimmy about playing it.

Claudette Colbert says she hasn't given up her year to direct pictures and will get around to it some day. I hope it's not soon, because

POLITICOS MUST AVOID SHOW KILLING

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
By The Associated Press

A couple of radio executives give us the word that political candidates pick their broadcast time with great caution, mindful of the fact that when they replace a popular program it costs votes.

Irate listeners, it would seem, are likely to scratch the name of the fellow who does them out of the latest installment of their favorite mystery or soap opera.

Candidates really steer clear of replacing the hot programs, one of the radio experts told us. "When they do step in and take away the time of a popular show, our switchboard is flooded with complaints."

The politicians are fortunate in one thing—this is summertime and some of the best of the radio shows are taking a vacation.

Radio stations are not compelled by the Federal Communications Commission to sell radio time to any candidate. If they sell time to one candidate, however, they must make an equal amount of time available to his opponents, during a similar broadcast period.

Should a candidate desire to take over the time of a network show, it is up to the radio station to decide whether or not to sell him this particular time. If the station decides "on the basis of public service, convenience and necessity" to allow the candidate to buy the time, the station advises the network that the regular show will be replaced. That's all there is to it.

The station has the say in what it's going to broadcast.

About charges: Politicians for state or national offices pay more for radio time than the candidates for city or county offices.

One of the radio men told us the staff of his station always enjoys the situation when two candidates for an office happen to be at the station at the same time. "While one of the candidates is broadcasting and the other is waiting his time to talk, they watch each other through the glass partitions."

Berlin Block Is Fantastic

It looks as though world opinion may have to be called upon to settle the struggle between Russia and the western democracies over Berlin—provided the veto-ridden United Nations is capable of furnishing a soundingboard to register the global viewpoint.

Moscow's blunt rejection of the American-British-French demand that she lift her food-blockade of Berlin has created one of the most amazing situations ever recorded in the history of civilized man.

In an effort to force a political concession from the democracies, the totalitarian dictatorship of the mighty Russian Empire has deliberately set about to reduce the some 2,400,000 inhabitants of western Berlin to hunger and cold and other privations. The idea is so fantastically ruthless as to be almost unbelievable.

It's Berlin's location, of course, which makes such a scheme possible. The huge metropolis lies in the heart of the Soviet zone of occupation in eastern Germany. The railways supplying the American, British and French zones of western Berlin pass through Soviet territory.

To counter this terrible menace America and Britain have been doing a unique job of flying supplies—food, medicines, fuel—into the beleaguered capital.

The provision of food for Berlin presents a staggering problem. There is a scarcity of other essentials, including coal for fuel.

The immediate object of the Communists probably is to force the western allies out of Berlin or compel them to abandon their project of forming a western German government in their three zones of occupation. The ultimate Red objective undoubtedly is to gain control of all Germany and Sovietize it.

Many diplomatic observers figure the only thing that might check-mate this plot—short of war, which nobody wants—would be democratic world opinion, backed by a threat of punitive sanctions. It is on this basis that the western powers are considering presenting the issue to the United Nations.

In any event, the United States last week reiterated its intention of staying in Berlin.

Through With It

MANHATTAN, Kan. (U.P.)—After 26 years, Mrs. H. C. Hincheliff got her $20 back, but not her purse, from the thief who took it in a Denver, Col., city park. An anonymous note writer who mailed the bill said, "I don't need it now."

Cat Joins Squirrels

HOPEDALE, Ill. (U.P.)—A mother cat raised her young in a hollow tree trunk 10 feet above the ground. Snoop, the pet cat of Joan Hieser, took her family of four into their tree home three days after they were born. Squirrels put up a chatter, but got used to it.

Farms Safer

TOPEKA, Kan. (U.P.)—Kansas farms are becoming safer as places to work. Agricultural accident fatalities have declined for five straight years, a board of health survey showed.

Around The Rim—By The Herald Staff

Tabulating Votes Tough

Come next Saturday night, and The Herald staff will be enveloped in what is about the toughest, most wearing job that occurs in newspaper routine. It's the biennial nightmare we call "gathering the returns."

You, who will be interested only in trying to find out who won what political race, probably don't care much about the blood, sweat, toil and tears that have to be given up for the sake of getting those returns. But I wanted to draw on your sympathy a little bit.

To give you a little of the mechanics of the operation:

First of all, there has to be drawn up, well in advance, a master board, which contains every name on the Democratic ballot, and every voting precinct in our own county. Many sample ballots have to be printed in advance, to have handy for taking down returns as they are called in. Tabulating crews have to be organized, for compiling periodic sub-totals to pass on to the editors, to the radio, etc. Arrangements have to be made to have certain personnel at certain polling places, to have others on the long-distance lines.

The Herald is a member of the Texas Election Bureau, a cooperative of Texas newspapers that has in recent years done a remarkable job of gathering decisive returns quickly and accurately. This newspaper is responsible for sending in to the Bureau the Howard results on state races, and has to do this at intervals through Saturday night.

The Bureau, in turn transmits its totals regularly through the night to all member newspapers, by fast telegraph or teletype wire.

The reporting of special district races poses another problem. In the case of the huge 30th senatorial district, covering all the South Plains areas, The Herald arranges to be responsible for a certain number of the counties, then exchanges its returns at stated times during the night with the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal and the Plainview Herald, which have been assigned certain counties to handle on their own.

In the case of the legislative district, returns are exchanged with the San Angelo Standard-Times, and in the case of the 11th Civil Appeals district, with the Abilene Reporter-News. Special correspondents have to be alerted in each of the counties, and you can see that this requires a lot of time and work on the long distance telephone.

In our own county, The Herald depends heavily upon the various election judges, and usually they are most prompt in their cooperation. They want to send in their own count quickly, so the whole results will be known quickly. The telephone girls are always cooperative, too, and that helps immensely.

After all the returns are collected, there's a heavy job of tabulating, and of double-checking. Then, stories have to be written from the results, and the whole business has to be set into type.

If you can visualize all this mad scrambling, which has to take place in the space of four or five hours, you can appreciate why you some times get short answers on the phone on election night, and why most news men have dark circles under their eyes the next morning. Of course, they feel no worse than the defeated candidates—BOB WHIPKEY

WEEKLY OIL

Tidelands Fight Will Be Renewed

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, July 17. (U.P.)—Proponents of state ownership of submerged tidelands are packing their bags for another trip to Washington.

President Truman's recalling Congress into session July 26 has removed some of the disappointment found when the National Democratic Convention did not follow the Republicans by including a state ownership plank in its platform.

Sen. W. H. Moore (R-Okla.) greeted the President's action by expressing hope he will be permitted to again put up his bill giving jurisdiction over tidelands oil to the states. Meanwhile, offshore operations along the Louisiana coast are picking up, with two companies releasing optimistic reports.

Kerr-McGee Oil Industries and Associates have proved a second shallow pay zone in their lease 10 miles off Point Au Fer, Terrebonne Parish, the new well flowing 364 barrels of oil in 12 hours and 647 in 24.

California Company, a subsidiary of Standard Oil of California, reported reaching a depth of about 7,000 feet in its first exploratory well in Louisiana open waters and said prospects for discovery of a new field are favorable. California's well is approximately four miles northeast of the Mississippi River delta. New Orleans sources say the well, 18 miles southeast of a small gas-distillate producer of the Barnsdall Oil Company and Seaboard Oil Company, has an estimated showing of 75 to 100 feet of oil sands.

Kerr-McGee's new well has a sand zone at 2,908-24 feet, which compares with a first pay zone at 1,734-50 for the nearby discovery well which was brought in late last year with a flow of approximately 800 barrels daily.

Production: Two new records were established by the oil industry for the week ending July 10, a statistical report from the American Petroleum Institute indicates. Gasoline production jumped 203,000 barrels to 18,244,000 for the week, an all-time high.

TINY INFANT SURVIVING—Sady Kathleen Ann Eldridge, who weighed less than 1½ pounds at birth three weeks ago, naps in her incubator after weighing in July 15 at 2 pounds, 1 ounce. She's not much bigger than the pencil, she's holding. Nurse Victoria Harris watches the tiny girl, who wasn't given much chance of survival when she was born two and a half months prematurely. WEEK'S BUSINESS

Local Building Figures Near $6 1-2 Billion

City building figures for 1948 were approaching the six and a half billion mark by the end of the week, despite a summer slump that has virtually halted all but a limited amount of residential work. The city issued 10 permits during the week, two of them for new residences. Estimated costs for the week amounted to $16,365, which brought the year's total up to $6,406,255.

Real estate transactions gained slightly, according to warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office. Twelve instruments recorded during the week involved transactions totalling $42,010. The warranty deed total for the year is $1,367,360.

New motor vehicle registrations continued at about the same rate as for previous weeks. The county tax assessor-collector's office issued licenses for 20 passenger cars, seven trucks and two motor scooters during the week.

Crosby And Fontaine Combine Their Skills In 'Emperor Waltz'

Paramount's lavish and lyrical musical, "The Emperor Waltz," is the new Ritz billing beginning today.

"The Emperor Waltz" is a king-sized romantic comedy with music, written, produced and acted by cinema sovereigns, which reaches a royal highness in majestic settings, bright comedy, rousing romance and scintillating melodies. The story is by Brackett and Wilder, who, respectively, produced and directed the film which co-stars Bing Crosby and Joan Fontaine. All mentioned are members of that select Hollywood hierarchy—Academy Award winners.

Against the eye-filling Technicolor background of the Austrian Alps and the splendorous court of Emperor Franz Josef, "The Emperor Waltz" tells the gay story of a brash young American phonograph salesman who includes a beautiful countess in his territory. He scandalizes the court by daring to make love to her; she lifts the royal eyebrows a little higher by daring to return that love.

It's a tenuous love affair that runs into aristocratic obstacles: in fact, it is on the verge of breaking up when a concurrent romance between Bing's mutt, Buttons, and Joan's pedigreed poodle, Scheherazade, cutely proves that love is thicker than blue-blood.

With the aid of the dulcet Crosby croon, Bing high-pressures Joan into buying his line, utilizing his full bag of vocal tricks including his old "boo-boo-boo" and some new yodeling. He sings three numbers for which Johnny Burke wrote new lyrics: "The Emperor Waltz," "Friendly Mountains" and "The Kiss in Your Eyes." An oldie, "I Kiss Your Hand, Madame," is sure to have a re-birth of popularity after folks hear Bing warble it and a lot of people are going to emulate Crosby's whistling of "The Whistler and His Dog."

Technicolor 'Tycoon' Featured At Terrace

Romance and adventure are stressed in RKO's Technicolor offering, "Tycoon," which opens today at the Terrace Drive-In theatre with John Wayne and Laraine Day co-starring.

Revolving around an American engineer's efforts to build a railroad through the Andes under heavy odds, the story gives the husky Wayne a colorful role as the engineer, and puts Miss Day, striking in a brunette get-up, in a dramatic portrayal as the daughter of a Latin mother and Yankee father.

Most of the hero's troubles come from the stubbornness of the heroine's millionaire father, the "tycoon" of the title, who contracted with the engineer to build the road but refuses to let him do the job the way he wants to do it. When a romance starts to bud between the engineer and the girl, paternal objections rise to the boiling point, and the older man deliberately sets out to ruin the young "upstart" by withholding supplies.

The conflict grows in intensity when the couple are married and the bride goes to live amid the turmoil and strain of the construction camp. The drama builds to a stirring climax that makes the film a memorable piece of screen fare.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke turns in a notable performance as the stern "tycoon" Judith Anderson as Miss Day's sympathetic tutor, James Gleason as Wayne's partner, and Anthony Quinn as a Latin engineer, all do excellent work in support. Richard Wallace's direction of the production by Stephen Ames is tops.

The picture is a study of light and reflections of bells ringing in the night. Russell Janney, who wrote the novel from which the film was made, used bells in such a setting as the medium through which an ugly, gossiping mining town is changed into one of love and beauty.

RKO's film version of the Janney novel stars Fred MacMurray, Frank Sinatra and Valli, the sensational new find from Italy.

The novel, itself was the leading best seller of 1947 in the U. S., although it had no book club connections.

Technicolor Western Ation Is Scheduled In State Attraction

Columbia used the towering peaks of the High Sierras, the Technicolor camera and the talents of Robert Young and Marguerite Chapman to make the new State attraction, "Relentless," a story of adventure in the west.

Young plays his first cowpoke role in this story of a wandering cowboy and a gal in blue jeans who plunge into a murderous game of hide-and-seek from the snow-capped Sierras to the sun-scorched desert. The cowboy kills a horse thief and becomes a hunted fugitive when he is framed by desperado Barton MacLane. Realizing that he can clear himself of this and two other murders, Young turns pursuer himself by relentlessly trailing MacLane.

Wounded by a pursuing posse, Young is forced to bargain with Akim Tamiroff, a gambler, to conceal him in return for a half interest in a fabulous gold mine. His pursuit of MacLane is resumed and it rises to a crescendo of suspense when he starts across the desert and corners him at the mine. MacLane is shot, however, by Tamiroff's henchman, Mike Mazurki, who is about to dispose of Young in like fashion, when Miss Chapman arrives with sheriff Willard Parker to set things straight.

Young's performance as the light-hearted cowboy whom events force into grimmer pursuits, will gain fans. He should achieve rank with the best of the brawlers, riders and marksmen with his performance. Miss Chapman delivers a clean-cut portrayal of the outdoor girl who aids the cowboy to defeat his enemies and evokes in him a great love.

Parker, as the stalwart sheriff, is impressive, while Tamiroff comes through with another portrait of a villain. Barton MacLane and Mike Mazurki are a pair of Western menaces. Robert Barrat and Clem Bevans, as an affable storekeeper and desert rat, respectively, complete the featured cast. Frank Fenton, Hank Patterson, Paul Burns, Emmett Lynn and Will Wright are also seen.

George Sherman has handled the directorial reins. Winston Miller wrote the screenplay. Eugene B. Rodney produced.

RE-ELECT
R. E. (PEPPY)
BLOUNT

for
STATE REPRESENTATIVE
(Second Term)

Having been a life-time resident of Howard County and being familiar with all our common problems I humbly submit my candidacy for re-election as your State Representative. Due to the size of our district it has been impossible for me to see each voter personally. Please allow me to use this method of appealing to you for your support.

I am a veteran, married and diligently striving to complete my course of education in the University of Texas to better equip myself to serve you. I need this job and your vote on July 24 would be greatly appreciated.

At the present time I am a member of the Livestock and Stock Raising, Oil, Gas, and Mining, Public Lands, and Aviation Committees of the House of Representatives. If re-elected your State Representative I will ask for reappointment to these committees that are of vital importance to our District.

I am neither bound by any political commitments nor am I "attached" to any group. I pledge to continue to face the problems of our state with a fair and open mind, and to seek solutions in the best interest of the people.

I fought for American Principles of Government in the South Pacific and I will continue to fight for the preservation of Americanism and Constitutional Government in Austin.

SPECIAL SESSION SOLONS WILL HAVE TO BATTLE MANY TOURISTS

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—President Truman is calling Congress back into session right in the middle of the biggest tourist rush in the capitol's history.

Returning lawmakers are going to bump into swarms of summer visitors. They are trudging through the halls of the capitol at the rate of about 2,000 a day.

Harry C. Nash has guided tourists about the capitol for 34 years—at 25 cents a head—but he has never seen anything like it before. "Last year was good, but this year is better," he said, "They wander in from all parts of the world. Some of them don't even know what building they are in, but they want to take a look around."

It seems everyone who hasn't had a look at the nation's capitol is heading this way this summer. And they find the two-bit tour of the capitol one of the few real bargains left for tourists.

What do they like best? They enjoy most the story which guides tell on sly old John Quincy Adams and his secret "listening post."

While he was a representative, the story goes, Adams had an uncanny knowledge of the opposition's whispered plots across the room. No one knew how he did it and he kept the secret until his death.

Then his diary revealed the mystery: Adams' chair in the house chamber sat on a spot which caught the clear echo of a whisper many yards away. It was a trick of sound bouncing from the domed ceiling to the spot where Adams sat.
