

Snyder Stiffly Opposes House Tax Slash Bill

Secretary Backs Original Plan By President

WASHINGTON, March 1. (AP)— Secretary of the Treasury Snyder today stiffly opposed the House-passed bill to cut income taxes $6,500,000,000 this year.

In its place, Snyder said, Congress should follow the $40 off-for-everyone plan of President Truman.

He said Mr. Truman's plan is fairer to everyone and would mean no money lost to the government because higher taxes on corporations would make up the difference.

The house bill would cut taxes from 30 per cent on the lowest income people to 10 per cent on the highest, with no offsetting business levy.

The treasury chief did not appear in person. His prepared testimony was submitted to the committee at the start of its hearings on the bill which the House passed a month ago.

The senate group appears likely to recommend a $5,000,000,000 cut. Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) already has said Mr. Truman's plan has no chance in Congress.

Referring throughout his statement to the house bill by its number—H. R. 4780—Snyder's statement said:

"H. R. 4780 would exempt 6,300,000 from income taxation in comparison with the 10,300,000 exempted under the President's program."

"Moreover, 13,000,000 additional taxpayers with the lowest incomes would receive more tax reduction under the President's program than under H. R. 4780."

"These are the groups most urgently in need of relief from the high cost of living."

The full Senate plans to start debating the question about mid-month.

A check among the seven republicans and six democrats on the committee indicates they'll recommend holding the tax slash to about $1,500,000,000 less than the House voted.

Czech Cabinet Slates Meet

PRAGUE, March 1.—Czechoslovakia's new communist-packed cabinet, whose leaders already have made broad promises to farmers and workers, will hold its first meeting tomorrow.

Some foreign correspondents were invited to meet this afternoon with the new cabinet members.

Vlado Clementis, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, told a communist youth audience yesterday the foreign press "has started a campaign against us." He said it was the worst since that of Paul Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's propaganda minister.

Communist premier, Klement Gottwald, addressing a farmers' rally, promised up to 120 acres for each of those working the land. He urged the output of more food to help workers fulfill an industrial two-year plan.

Judus Duris, minister of agriculture, laid down a broad farm aid program of land, loans and subsidies to be accomplished by independence day, Oct. 28. He said less than 4,000,000 acres had been distributed and almost 20,000,000 acres were still in big parcels. Land taken from churches, he said, will be paid for.

They spoke to the farmers in Wenceslas square. The communist-controlled government radio had predicted Saturday that 120,000 farmers would take part in the rally. Less than a quarter of that number did.

Extension Asked For Trade Pacts

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Truman today asked Congress to extend the reciprocal trade agreements act for three years, until June 12, 1951.

Mr. Truman said in a message that the trade agreements act has been in effect for 14 years and has become "an essential element of United States foreign policy."

WON'T DISCUSS CANDIDACY

Truman Says Politics Slows Settlement Of Problems

KEY WEST, Fla., March 1. (AP)— President Truman refused to discuss his own candidacy and attributed to 1948 politics today the failure to get speedier settlement of foreign and domestic problems.

Speaking in a palm-shaded yard of this submarine base where he is vacationing, the Chief Executive gravely declined to talk about Soviet pressure on Czechoslovakia and Finland or the continued disorders in Palestine.

He did say that he has been in daily communication with Secretary of State Marshall through the State Department, but he said he could not answer in each case when reporters asked:

1. Did he think the time has come to form a military alliance in western Europe?

2. Were there any conditions under which United States troops might be sent to Palestine.

Presidential year politics, he said, is having a very bad effect on all attempts to settle foreign affairs and domestic problems, too, particularly the housing program.

He said he was not quarrelling with any one since it is a situation that develops in presidential campaign years.

He said there are so many candidates in and out of the Senate. He couldn't blame any one for this natural circumstance, but added it does make a difference.

On the domestic front, Mr. Truman said the increased steel price was a good argument in favor of his anti-inflation proposals to Congress which included a request for standby wage-price controls and rationing.

Mr. Truman said he had been too darned busy with affairs at home and abroad to do any thing about his own candidacy when reporters asked the "jackpot question" whether he was running.

The President said flatly the Russians have made no overtures looking to a meeting with Premier Stalin in Stockholm or anywhere else.

No such overtures have been made, formally or informally, he said, either through the White House or the state department.

He has not changed his position that if there is to be another "big three" meeting it must be in Washington.

S' Antonio Lawmen Seize Marihuana

SAN ANTONIO, March 1.—Marihuana with an estimated value of more than $100,000 in the illicit drug market, was seized and three men arrested by five city detectives under the direction of Narcotics Sgt. Albert Guerrero and George Turegano of the San Antonio police department last night.

Two of the men, 37 and 17 year old Mexican aliens, were arrested in two automobiles enroute from Mexico and Laredo to San Antonio on the Laredo highway near here.

The other, 25 years of age, and termed a "wholesaler" by Guerrero, gave Laredo as his address.

They were taken to the city jail. The weather bureau admitted to 60 mph constant speed of the westerly wind, and the CAA control tower registered up to 65.

This left plenty of room for higher figures in gusts, which the instruments here do not register.

Although the wind was diminishing—only a mere 30 to 50 mph at 1 p. m.—it was not before tons of soil had sailed on eastward.

Joe Fletcher, assistant director of public safety, said road blocks had been abandoned. Rangers and local officers are still working on the case.

The short, stock bandit robbed the Buffalo Citizens State bank of $2,000 Friday. He held up Sam Burroughs, president of the bank and A. A. Rainer, a teller, using what they believed was a German Luger pistol.

Interment was in the city cemetery with Eberley Funeral home in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were Harvey Fryar, Merle Hayney, Cliff Neal, J. L. Baugh, Floyd Hull, J. T. Cook, Howard Massey, Joe Wood.

City Is Preparing For Highway Project

The city will begin compiling cost figures immediately for curb and gutter installations on the Lamar highway from the Gregg street viaduct to the north city limits. City Manager H. W. Whitney said this morning.

Paving has been authorized by the state highway department for the street, provided the city furnishes right-of-way and curbs and gutters.

As soon as cost figures are compiled, property owners along the right-of-way will be contacted. The property owners will realize a 50-foot paved street from the project at a cost of only curb and gutter installations.

Stern Gang Claims Triple Blast Credit

Twenty-Seven British Troops Killed On Train

JERUSALEM, March 1. (AP)— The Stern gang said today it set the triple blast which wrecked three railroad sleepers yesterday, killing 27 British troops and injuring 33.

"This is our answer for last Sunday's Ben Yehuda street crime," the Jewish underground group declared. It referred to the Jerusalem bombing which killed 54 Jews on Feb. 22.

Haganah, Jewish militia, said it had "unconfirmed reports" that British troops had arrested 24 Jews at Mikve Israel, near Tel Aviv, last night and had "turned them over to an Arab mob as retaliation" for the train attack.

A police source in Jerusalem said it had reports the 24 Jews were taken on the Cairo Express.

L. Gen. G. H. A. MacMillan, commander of British forces in Palestine, said three mines shattered the wooden troop cars southeast of Tel Aviv. They were jammed with soldiers returning from leave in Cairo.

MacMillan said a fourth mine failed to go off. Had it exploded, he said, the toll might have been 50 or more.

Sappers who dismantled the dud said it contained 100 pounds of explosive and was connected by a 40-yard wire to an electric plunger.

The three sleepers, part of a northbound Cairo express, were passing through a Jewish citrus belt 15 miles southeast of Tel Aviv when they were blown up. The blast ripped the tracks and hurled pieces of wreckage into the nearby orange trees. It was the fourth attack on the Cairo Express.

The explosion climaxed a day of scattered violence in the Holy Land.

Jewish informants in Tel Aviv said six Jews were killed when a Haganah reconnaissance patrol was ambushed in the town of Salama near Tel Aviv. British police recovered the bodies.

Eight Jews, reported to be sternists, robbed the Jerusalem municipality office of 800 pounds ($3,200).

In Haifa, 800 Jews were taken from the illegal ship "Builders and Fighters" which the British intercepted Saturday night, and shipped to Cyprus aboard a British transport.

Most of the passengers were said to be from Romania, Bulgaria and Poland.

General Manager O. B. Ellis is to lay his long-range program and plans for expansion and improving the system's industrial facilities before the board at their regular bi-monthly meeting.

Reportedly attached to the report will be a strong plea that the board seek new state legislation which would enable the system to sell its products to other state institutions at a profit.

Current statutes limit sales prices only to the cost of material involved. Approval by the state legislature would be necessary for such a profit-system to be placed in operation.

Also included in today's report, Ellis' first detailed recommendations since he assumed direction of the far-flung prison system January 1, are believed to be suggestions which he feels will improve the morale and rehabilitation possibilities of inmates.

Buffalo Bandit Stumps Officers

AUSTIN, March 1.—State police reported today they were up against a blank wall in their hunt for the Buffalo bandit.

Bloodhounds were unable to pick up any tracks leading away from a dead-end road 10 miles north of Buffalo in Freestone county.

Joe Fletcher, assistant director of public safety, said road blocks had been abandoned. Rangers and local officers are still working on the case.

The short, stock bandit robbed the Buffalo Citizens State bank of $2,000 Friday. He held up Sam Burroughs, president of the bank and A. A. Rainer, a teller, using what they believed was a German Luger pistol.

Senate Opens Debate On Aid

GEOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY OF RUSSIA'S CONTROL IN EUROPE — With domination of Czechoslovakia, Soviet Russia's area of control, domination or influence in Europe has increased — since the 1939 pre-war era — by more than 500,000 square miles. This is more than the combined areas of Texas, Montana and New York State. Russia's western pre-war boundary was about 400 miles west of Moscow. Now, the sphere of Communist domination extends well over 1,000 miles west and southwest of Moscow. More than 400,000 square miles are included in the countries, outside Russia proper on the west, which have come under Communist control since the war. Upwards of 100,000 square miles, formerly Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania and parts of Finland, Poland and Romania have become part of Russia proper at various times since 1939. Discussions Begin On Finn-Red Pact HELSINKI, March 1. (AP)— Discussions began within the Finnish government today on Prime Minister Stalin's proposal for a Finnish-Russian treaty of friendship and mutual assistance.

President Juho Paasikivi, it was learned, will be told Wednesday of these final decisions of major political parties on the idea, which is expected to be submitted to Parliament. The government's official statement on the subject is not expected before Wednesday night.

Well informed sources said the president is in favor of signing such a treaty. Over the weekend he received K. L. Kulo, head of the pro-Moscow socialist unity party.

The executive committee of the popular democrats, a bloc of the communists and the socialist unity party, is to discuss the proposal later today. Premier Mauno Pekkala is to attend.

Pekkala and Eino Klipi, minister of education and member of the Foreign Relations committee, both have recovered from slight colds and have resumed their duties.

Press and radio here published yesterday the text of Stalin's letter to Paasikivi, dated Feb. 22 and closing, "with deep respect."

The letter proposed negotiations in Moscow or Helsinki toward a "pact of friendship cooperation and mutual assistance against possible German aggression."

Well informed sources said now that the letter is published, getting the pact has become a point of prestige for the Soviet Union. They said they believe President Paasikivi feels this way:

To turn down the Soviet bid would aggravate Russian-Finnish relations to a dangerous degree. To accept it could mean Finland might find favorable conditions as possible toward keeping national independence.

K. A. Fagerholm, social democratic speaker of the Finnish parliament, said in Stockholm last night. "We do not want to see x x x events of the kind now occurring in some other countries who have closed agreements with the Soviet Union."

World War III Prevention Is Asked By Solon

Vandenberg Makes First Relief Appeal

WASHINGTON, March 1. (AP)— Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), appealed to the Senate today to "help stop World War III before it starts" by approving the European recovery program.

The Foreign Relations committee chairman opened debate on the $5,300,000,000 Marshall plan by telling his colleagues they face a decision "that can be a turning point in history for 100 years to come."

Denouncing "treacherous Moscow propaganda" that has "charged us with iniquitous American imperialism," Vandenberg said the 16 western European nations must be saved from economic chaos.

"This vast friendly segment of the East must not collapse," he said in a prepared address.

The communist conform, the Michigan senator said, is frankly calling on its adherents to wreck the Marshall plan.

Yet Vandenberg said there is nothing in the proposal to help western Europe economically that "threatens the Soviet police empire with any sort of consequence which she does not herself choose voluntarily to invite."

"Peace with justice is our utterly paramount concern," he declared. "Any thought of another war is abhorrent to our soul."

As Vandenberg took the floor there were indications that the Senate will approve the recovery program in about the form voted by the foreign relations committee—after 10 days or two weeks of debate.

Vandenberg said he has no quarrel with those who disagree with the plan to make American funds available over a 52-month period to aid European nations rebuild.

"But I am proud to say to those who disagree that they have not escaped to safety by rejecting this plan," he said. "They have simply fled to other risks and, I fear, far greater ones."

The plan, he said, "strives to help stop World War III before it starts."

Some members, including Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Republican policy committee, have said they will vote to cut the $5,300,000,000 limitation on aid spending for the 12 months beginning April 1.

Defending this amount, Vandenberg said it is better to "start with figures which enjoy the preponderance of supporting evidence rather than to arbitrarily slice off what might be the difference between success and still-bigger failure."

He noted that Congress will be called upon to review the whole program next January. That is not too long, he said, "to wait for the accounting with so much at stake."

ARMY APPREHENDS CHIEF NAZI WOMEN, THOUGHT TO BE DEAD

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 1.—The arrest of Frau Gertrud Scholtz-Klink, 46, head of the women's branch of the Nazi party throughout the war, was announced today by agents of the U. S. Army. She was long thought to be dead.

She was apprehended near Tuebingen, in the French zone, yesterday on a secret tip. With her, the agents said, was a one-time aide of Heinrich Himmler, SS (Elite guard) Col. August Heissmeyer, to whom Frau Scholtz-Klink was married in 1940. He also was arrested.

The agents said Col. Heissmeyer was carrying a poison vial of the type used by Hermann Goering in Nuernberg prison. They said he made no effort to use it when French and American agents walked in.

They said Frau Scholtz-Klink, who was reported to have taken her own life at Konstanz in April of 1945, was wanted by the United Nations War Crimes commission.

She had been identified with the Nazi party since 1929, the agents said, and was known for her exhortations—echoing those of Adolf Hitler—to German women to bear many children. In 1940, when she married Heissmeyer, she had four children. Heissmeyer at that time had six.

Officials said she was regarded as a close associate of Hitler. She had held the title of "Reichsfrauenfuhrerin," or director of women's party work, for 12 years, until the end of the war.

The Army's dossier on her shows she also was head of the women's branch of the German Red Cross and of the women's labor front.

The Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, said she was credited with founding homes where selected German girls could meet selected German men to breed a "super race," but the agents said they had no confirmation of such a report.

TO COOL OFF DIXIE REBELS

Administration Turns Heat On Wallace

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Truman Administration tried today to deflect some of the heat of the southern democratic revolt by turning new fire on Henry Wallace's third party.

This strategy, as outlined by a party official who asked not to be named publicly, is to try to minimize intra-party differences over the President's civil rights program.

Many of the southerners are as opposed to Wallace and what he stands for as they are against Mr. Truman's racial views. Thus on the Wallace score, at least, they think alike with the national democratic organization leaders.

Senator McGrath of Rhode Island, the democratic national chairman, sounded the new administration note in a week-end speech at Indianapolis. He said "a third party has as much place in American politics as does a third party on a honeymoon."

McGrath added that if Wallace goes on with his campaign he and his supporters "will either waste their votes or x x x give aid and comfort to reactionary candidates."

McGrath did not mention the President's civil rights program specifically.

Administration supporters thought for a time they had a new southern ally in their new party strategy.

That was because Senator Connally of Texas also aimed his main fire at Wallace and steered clear of the civil rights issue in the formal address he prepared for a Jefferson-Jackson day dinner at Raleigh, N. C.

But Connally, one of the few southerners who didn't boycott the party dinner here last month which Mr. Truman addressed, apparently changed his mind on the way.

He departed from his advance text to take strong issue with the President's call for anti-lynch, anti-poll tax and anti-job discrimination laws.

Declaring that Mr. Truman's civil rights program threatens a lynching of the Constitution," the Texas senator added: "We shall resist it. We shall not take it lying down."

Nevertheless, Connally was the only speaker at the Raleigh fund-raising banquet who mentioned the President by name. He said:

"President Truman has had to face more difficult and perplexing problems than any other man who succeeded to the presidency. I sympathize with him in his difficulties."

Of Wallace, Connally said the country is faced this year with his "hopeless and fantastic candidacy"

Soviet 'Democracy' An Illusion

If anyone harbors illusions about the democracy of the Soviet Union, developments of the past week should remove them.

What happened in Czechoslovakia is a fair example of what has happened and will happen in any country which falls under the domination of the Kremlin.

Under the guise of crisis after crisis, the Russian government, through communists in the country under attack, ultimately confronts officials, who constitute the dike against communism, with a hard choice of resignation or bloody civil war. So far, they usually choose to step aside rather than see their own brothers bathed in blood.

Alas, it isn't that simple, for their brothers frequently bath the defenders in blood. Those who were the "opposition" are quickly rounded up; professors are removed from university posts if they have not held with communist theories; youth leaders are uprooted if they are democratic in nature; officials are whisked away or placed under house arrest if their record has not been one of sympathy with the comrades. And not a few of these disappear in the night never to be seen by man again.

This is the "democracy" of the Soviet at work. It is the only language that dictatorship knows, and it doesn't sound at all like the democracy we have experienced. Certainly there is grave doubt of any compatibility between the two.

A Plan Worth Further Consideration

This week, the county unit plan, its administration and its advantages will be discussed at the highway engineering short course at Texas A&M college.

It doubtless will be an interesting discussion, but the difficulty is that, with few exceptions, only engineers and contractors will be on hand to hear the merits of the plan debated.

It would be helpful if informational meetings on the unit plan could be given a wider course in order to bring the possibilities not only to attention of officials but to the public as well.

Fundamentally, the county unit plan calls for employment of an engineer and supervision of the road program under his direction. The commissioners court continues to be the policy body, but it is relieved of the necessity of minute detail and administration.

Such a plan may be put into effect upon a vote of the people. It can be put into effect by a commissioners court at anytime the court should elect to undertake a unified, coordinated administration of road affairs; but under the law enacted by the last legislature, adoption of the unit plan can be made incumbent off the court.

Whether this should be proposed here at this moment we are not prepared to say, but with the county anxious to embark upon a cooperative road program with the state highway department, it is important that its road operations be administered with utmost efficiency.

Secret Mission Is Sent To Arabia

WASHINGTON.—An ultra hush-hush military mission is leaving for Saudi Arabia this week. Just what this group of about 200 American officers and technical sergeants will do in Arabia is supposed to be a strict secret, but real fact is they are to train an Arab air force and re-equip abandoned U. S. airfields.

The first $1,500 pay of a commissioned officer is tax-exempt, too. So he doesn't have to file a return unless he had $2,000 or more in service pay.

Russia. They were cooperating well together.

In the years that followed, Benes continued to try to work with Russia. But as he sits almost alone in his presidential palace, he must now realize how impossible that is.

For cooperation has to be a two-way street. And the biggest thing Henry Wallace and the other well-meaning people around him have to learn is that working with Russia leads down a one-way, noncooperative street way to end in a blind-alley dog fight.

Members of the military mission were selected after elaborate screening tests, then given instruction in the Arabic language, espionage and demolition work. The group will leave from Washington, New York and Miami, all wearing civilian clothes. In order not to attract attention, they will proceed in small details and by round-about routes.

For instance, one detail will go to Paris, then Germany, then Greece, and finally to the Arabian-Iranian border.

Shortly after World War I when Czechoslovakia was a thriving young republic and I was a struggling young newspaperman, I interviewed Eduard Benes, the man who now sits almost alone in Prague's presidential palace. Prague was a glamorous place in those days and Czechoslovakia was considered the bright star of Europe. It was one of the new republics born of the war of which great things were expected.

Benes and Thomas Masaryk, exiles in the United States from Austro-Hungarian rule, had sat down in Pittsburgh with copies of Woodrow Wilson's speeches and on the basis of those speeches they had written the magna charta of their new country. When they took it to Wilson, naturally he gave his enthusiastic blessing.

But Benes and Masaryk meant what they said. And during those first years after World War I, their vigorous republic lived up to their hopes and dreams. Masaryk is dead now and his son, the present foreign minister of Czechoslovakia, is a virtual prisoner in Prague.

Benes now is old, but when I saw him in Prague twenty-five years ago, he was young and full of hope. His hope was for a United States of Europe—an idea which, if then carried out, might have prevented World War II and the backwash of communism that followed.

But what I remember most about that talk with Benes was his reference to Russia. His country, he said, was next door to Russia and had to work with Four days later he escaped and was able to return home, bearing evidence of a brutal beating.

The Senate hearings on Edward Tamm, No. 3 G-man, now elevated to a judgeship, illustrates the difficulty. J. Edgar Hoover has had in holding good men in the FBI.

After spending years training good men, they frequently go on to more lucrative private business. Tamm's promotion to a judgeship was an effort to show that reward comes to those who remain faithful to government service.

Trained as a lawyer, Tamm rose to one of the highest spots in the FBI. Not only as a reward but also for the psychological effect on other FBI men, Attorney General Tom Clark recommended Tamm's appointment as judge in the District of Columbia.

Now some senators protest. UNDER THE DOME The Italian government has asked for an immediate $70,000,000 loan from the United States to use Italy through April. That's Italy's election month.

The French cabinet has voted to ask $300,000,000 more from the United States for March and April to keep the Schuman government's head above water.

The Greek government, with the advice of the U. S. mission in Greece, is issuing orders that all pro-communist rebels are to be killed. No more prisoners are to be taken. In other words, the situation in Greece is desperate.

Mrs. Chase Giving Woodhouse, of the women's division of the Democratic National committee and former congresswoman from Connecticut, will soon join the Wallace third-party movement. It was democratic members of the House Foreign Affairs committee who led the news-reel-radio man against Henry Wallace when he testified on the Marshall plan.

most of the republicans were in favor of letting Wallace get all the publicity he wanted, but democratic Congressmen John Kee of West Virginia and James Richards of South Carolina urged that newsreels, radio and television be barred.

Kosciusko, Miss., Feb. 2.—George Thomas, a young Negro, was shot to death by a policeman who reported that he arrested him for attempting to break into a White's home. The officer said that en route to the jail, Thomas tried to overpower him, and he shot him. The autopsy showed that Thomas was shot three times, once through the arm, once through the lower body and once through the heart.

Incident No. 2 at Kosciusko occurred on the same day, when Lucey Futch, a young Negro veteran driving a truck for a Jackson wholesale firm, was reported the victim of a mob. On hearing this report, Futch's mother and wife went from Jackson to Kosciusko to find him, but were given the run-around by police.

No Retirement Worry

A real sailor, who has followed the sea most of his adult life and is unhappy away from it, fancies he'd like to die in harness. Not so with the railroader, at least most of them I have come to know. They dream of retirement, figuring they've earned a rest when they've ridden their iron horse to a stop for the last time.

Tap the brain of the average engineer or conductor, fireman or brakeman, if such were possible, and you'll likely find him dreaming about a small farm, complete with rustic aromas, or a house far removed from any railroad track where the sound of the engine whistle might disturb his slumbers.

Saddled with responsibility for so long, they usually yearn for the carefree life.

Among those who have retired from service here within the past few years and who are realizing the fruits of their labors are A. P. Clayton, G. I. Phillips, Billy Powers, Jack Weir, Eddie Watts, K. S. Beckett, A. B. Wade, B. Nelson, Ed Briley, Frank Hendrix, W. R. Marlin, Walter Miller, D. C. Jones, George Neel and F. W. Bettie.

Mistake At Pilsen

NEW YORK (AP)—America only fights one war at a time—but European powers tend to have the next one always in mind.

That is why Soviet leaders asked that United States forces halt in 1945, so that Russian troops alone might have the glory of capturing Berlin and freeing Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia.

And that is one reason why Czechoslovakia today is wearing the new political look—with a "made in Moscow" label clearly showing.

For nearly three years Soviet propaganda has drummed on the theme that Russian troops saved Prague while the Americans dawdled in Pilsen, 50 miles away.

This was in the closing days of the war. Prague patriots were fighting the Nazis in the streets. Delegations slipped through the lines to Pilsen to seek American help. I was there and saw American officers and men volunteer to go.

The answer was "no." The Russians had asked that the Third Army halt at Pilsen and wait for the Soviet troops to link up with them. An order came down from higher headquarters braking the American columns.

It was useless to try to explain to the pleading Czechs. They knew only that the Americans could have come to the defense of Prague and didn't—and that the Russians did.

But least the present absentee landlord of Czechoslovakia think a new totalitarianism can subdue the people Hitler couldn't break, I'd like to reprint here portions of a dispatch I filed from Pilsen on May 7, 1945.

It describes the first homecoming parade of Czech soldiers who had fought for years with the British army—and now again were under their own red, white and blue flag.

"There were only a few of them—one company of tired and dusty men who hadn't seen their native land since before Dunkerque, where they fought with valor. Czechoslovakia's second largest city gave them a conqueror's welcome.

"They were a symbol of free Czechoslovakia—the little country of greatness, pride, democratic and progressive."

"They came into Pilsen behind General Patton's American troops.

"Czech crowds loyally cheered every Yank. But you could feel they were waiting for something—something they hadn't seen for years: a Czech army marching through a Czech city under its own flag.

"Shortly before dusk word swept through the crowds that the Czech troops had entered the city. A few moments later the first car rolled into the city square.

"I have heard many crowd demonstrations, but none like the peculiar sound that rose from those oppressed people celebrating their first full day of liberation. The column contained only about 50 cars—a few ackack guns, some Bren carriers, civilian cars and a few wheezy old derelict trucks decked with flowers and banners. Three German tanks could have destroyed it in fifteen minutes.

"But, as a symbol, that column was matchless. A cry burst from every throat as the first vehicle entered the parade area, and as each car limped past the volume grew greater.

"It wasn't staccato like the yell of an American crowd. This sound had compounded in it sadness and exhilaration and pride—and hope, too. It sang in the ears like a strong wind pushing across tumultuous surf.

"Old men and women who have seen the birth and death of two world wars wept together. And young girls and children seeing them were moved, and wept, too, without knowing why.

"One truck that brought the loudest cheers had painted across its side:

"From Dunkerque to Pilsen to Prague."

The Czechs have always found a way to come back.

Colorful Little Cafe

Thousands of sandwiches were sold on the premises. Other amazing amounts are skedaddled by messengers into the surrounding theaters, office buildings, rehearsal halls and the other startlingly varied establishments of the area.

It's frequently a quick stop-over for folks on the way to the theater who, like myself, often wolf down a sandwich, cole slaw and a bottle of soda in order to make a certain by 8:40.

I have seen all sorts of customers devour the heavy delicacies in its narrow showcases. . . . But the most impressive paramani addict is a gentleman whose imperturbable elegance has impressed more sophisticated folk than myself.

Dressed in a fur-collared overcoat, his hat perched at the most sedate angle approved by that men's fashion magazine, do this role and you can have your pick next time. Next time never seems to come.

I'm tired of studio renegeing and broken promises. . . . Payne's plaint is typical. Briefly catalogued, here are the most common beefs from actors:

1. No choice of roles. (See above, or anybody at Warners.)

2. Roles not big enough. (Gene Tierney, who refused "Unfaithfully Yours" and was replaced by Linda Darnell.)

3. No loan-outs to other studios. (Van Johnson, others.)

4. Other stars getting favored roles. (Dana Andrews, who says he has long played second fiddle to Gregory Peck.)

5. No cut on loan-out fees. (Bill Holden, Red Skelton.)

6. Tight-laced, long-term contracts. (Larry Parks.)

7. Being typed. (Maureen O'Hara, Jane Russell.)

8. Getting inferior billing. (Maria Montez, who sued over her "The Exile" billing.)

9. Not enough money. (name any actor)

Watch Your Income Tax Exemptions

WASHINGTON, AP—Watch your exemptions in filing your 1947 income tax return.

You get a $500 exemption for:

1. Yourself, always whether single or married.

2. Your wife, if she had no income of her own or is filing a joint return with you.

3. Each dependent.

When a husband and wife file separate returns, he claims his own $500 exemption and she claims hers.

If the husband had no income but the wife is filing she claims his $500 exemption, plus $500 for herself.

A dependent is any close relative, of any age, who got more than half his support from you in 1947 and had less than $500 income of his own.

Even though he turned over to you all of that less-than-$500 income, you don't have to report it but can claim a full $500 exemption for him.

You can't claim as a dependent anyone who had $500 or more income even though he received more than half his support from you.

You can claim these people as dependents:

Your child or grandchild; a stepchild but not his children; a legally adopted child; a brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister; your parents, grandparents or other ancestors; your step-father, step-mother; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, all related by blood; and your in-laws: father-in-law, brother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law.

What of a dependent who dies during the year? You can claim him for the full year if he died in 1947 as early as Jan. 1, 1947. For example: If a child was born to you on Jan. 1, 1947 or any time up through Dec. 31, 1947, and lived only a few minutes and then died, you can claim him as a dependent. You cannot claim as a dependent a stillborn child.

Service men's wives should remember:

The pay of enlisted men and non-commissioned officers is tax-free. So those who had no other income don't file a return.

If you're married to a serviceman who had no income but service pay, you can claim a $500 exemption for him, if you're filing a return because you had income of $500 or more of your own.

The first $1,500 pay of a commissioned officer is tax-exempt, too. So he doesn't have to file a return unless he had $2,000 or more in service pay.

Disaster Awaits Red Concessions

Moscow's rape of Czechoslovakia brings western democracies face to face with the grim certainty that further concessions to Russia or her slave-states lead down the broad highway to disaster.

The reaction from the chancelleries of democracy show they are recognizing belatedly that they've been giving aid to their enemy on the battlefield—providing him with ammunition to use against them.

They are realizing that Russia meant it when she declared war to a finish against the democracies.

They are learning tardily that there are times when even the exponent of the golden rule no longer can turn the other cheek but must stand up for himself.

On top of the joint American-British-French condemnation of the Red aggression in Czechoslovakia, we get an illuminating declaration from French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault. He told the national assembly that the communists seizure of Czechoslovakia menaces the liberty of the rest of Europe, and pushes the continent back to where it was when Hitler was climbing to power.

"An event of incalculable consequence," he declared, "has now rendered futile all efforts to liquidate Europe from an intense tyranny. . . . It is impossible to think that these maneuvers in the East can be pursued without leading to some change in the hearts of Frenchmen."

Blunt language that. And it comes from the foreign minister of a nation which has pursued a policy of trying to act as mediator between Russia and the Anglo-American democracies. It comes from the member of a government which itself is threatened by the Red scourge.

Bidault might well have been more inclusive in his remark that the liberty of Europe is menaced. The liberty of the United States and all the rest of the Western Hemisphere is menaced. The liberty of Asia is menaced. Let's be realistic for once and recognize that this bolshevik drive is a world revolution—so described by bolshevism itself.

We don't need to abandon the idea that right will triumph in the end, but we shall be foolish if we don't stop to consider how long it may take that "end" to arrive. We are entitled to try to ensure that it doesn't come after you and I have been killed off. It would be nice for this generation as well as posterity to have a little peace, and be able to lie on its back in the sun and wiggle its toes.

Benes and Thomas Masaryk, exiles in the United States from Austro-Hungarian rule, had sat down in Pittsburgh with copies of Woodrow Wilson's speeches and on the basis of those speeches they had written the magna charta of their new country. When they took it to Wilson, naturally he gave his enthusiastic blessing.

But Benes and Masaryk meant what they said. And during those first years after World War I, their vigorous republic lived up to their hopes and dreams. Masaryk is dead now and his son, the present foreign minister of Czechoslovakia, is a virtual prisoner in Prague.

Benes now is old, but when I saw him in Prague twenty-five years ago, he was young and full of hope. His hope was for a United States of Europe—an idea which, if then carried out, might have prevented World War II and the backwash of communism that followed.

But what I remember most about that talk with Benes was his reference to Russia. His country, he said, was next door to Russia and had to work with

True Stories Of West Texas—N. H. Kincaid

When Big Foot Wallace Got Lost

Big Foot Wallace, hero of the Mexican war and Indian fighter of West Texas, was lost. Lost in a hotel in New Orleans. Twice he had started out, after listening attentively to the desk clerk's directions; and twice he had somehow found himself back in the main office.

"Yeah, old Dead-Eye Pete, that's me," Wallace muttered, disgusted. "An Injun fighter that can't read the signs! And he kicked his booted toe against the wall as he considered his predicament.

Big Foot was faced with a new situation and he was quite frankly surprised at his reaction. Why should he feel embarrassed about being unable to find his room? Perfectly at home in the saddle or behind a good team as he drove the stage from San Antonio to El Paso in those troublous days just preceding the Civil war, he had lived in the midst of danger from the unknown.

There had been the time when through sheer wit he had eluded old Bajo el Sol, the Comanche chieftain raiding the Big Bend country, when he had tried to get possession of the U. S. mail. And there had been other experiences, after the days of regular warfare against Mexico, when, as a Ranger, he had brought in some pretty tough hombres along the western border.

Fear he could recall, but this feeling that he was experiencing now was something different. And he wasn't sure that he liked it. In fact, he decided quickly, he didn't like it at all. "Why," he muttered, "I'm acting like a loco tenderfoot."

Quickly he whirled and strode decisively in the now familiar direction of the registration desk. "Look here," he said to the surprised clerk, "I want one of those uniformed guides!"

Big Foot Wallace followed the bell-hop through the maze of halls in New Orleans' old Poycune Hotel as it was in those pre-revolutionary days. Reaching his room and satisfying himself that his things were all intact, he whirled in time to catch the boy as he was turning to leave.

"Now Son," Big Foot drawled gently as he turned the key in the door, "I don't aim to lose my trail again. You sleep over on that there couch and we will leave here together in the morning."

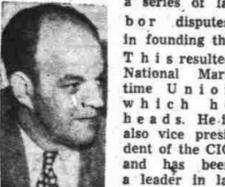

The boy nodded meekly for his eyes were focused on an old sawed-off six shooter that Big Foot seemed to have grasped from the air and was toying with absently as he spoke.

But Wallace didn't notice the boy's fears. He was at ease again and quite happy. Back on his old footing he was master of the situation.

TES Announces Plans To Add 3000 HP To Generating Unit

A 3,000-horsepower increase in the capacity of Texas Electric Service Company's Big Spring power plant on Northeast 2nd Street was announced Tuesday by C. S. Blomfield, electric company manager. Work already has started on preparing the foundations for two new generating units of 1,500 hp each, which were ordered last year, and are scheduled for delivery in May, Blomfield said.

"Big Spring has grown rapidly in recent years," Blomfield declared, "and the demand for electric power has grown even faster. Big Spring businesses and homes are using much more electricity for lighting, air conditioning and other purposes, while local industries are using greater amounts of electric power for almost every type of operation. Outside of Big Spring, the Howard County oil fields also are heavy users of electric power for oil well pumping and pipeline pumping.

"The enlargement of the capacity of our Big Spring power plant is part of Texas Electric Service Company's five-year $37,000,000 construction program to increase greatly the power supply of this and other West Texas areas it serves. In addition to the plant improvements here, the company is building a new power plant in Ward County, near Monahans, to provide additional power to the Permian Basin oil fields and the cities and towns in that area. An extension of our Big Spring-Lamesa power line is being built to Denver City in Yoakum County to interconnect with a neighboring

CULLIGAN SOFT WATER SERVICES USED IN OVER MILLION HOMES

Residents of Big Spring are afforded opportunity to enjoy the advantages and economies of soft water in their homes and places of business through Culligan Soft Water Service, an organization that serves an estimated one million Americans.

While Big Spring's own service is locally owned and locally operated, there are hundreds of Culligan Soft Water Services exactly like ours all over the United States. In towns and cities from San Diego, Calif. to Schenectady, N. Y. and from Virginian, Minn. to San Benito, Texas, every day Culligan servicemen are bringing the same softeners into basements, utility rooms, porches and kitchens in over 1,500 cities, towns and villages.

The first Culligan Soft Water Service was started in March, 1938, and in less than 10 years it has spread through 38 states and to Alaska.

The Culligan service provides soft water by furnishing zeolite cylinders to its customers. Zeolite (sodium silico aluminate) filters out the calcium and magnesium salts in the water, thereby removing the cause of hard water. Calcium and magnesium salts are responsible for the waste of soap that makes washing difficult.

Time To Freshen Summer Clothes

In these waning weeks of winter, mothers usually begin to dig into closets and trunks for spring and summer clothes and start preparing the garments for fulltime use when the hot weather moves in to stay.

The Flexform method is guaranteed to restore the garment to its former measurements. Its size control insures a perfect fit every time.

Quake Shakes California Homes

LOS ANGELES, March 1 (AP)—An earthquake of moderate intensity awakened residents throughout a pie-shaped belt of southern California early today but apparently caused no damage.

It's greatest force was felt in the San Bernardino valley, 40 to 60 miles east of Los Angeles.

The quake was felt at 12:13 a. m. (PST) with an aftershock a minute later.

The tremor, which shook homes and rattled windows, was the second in 12 days. A severe quake jolted the Los Angeles area Feb. 19.

The cities of San Bernardino, Riverside, Upland and Pomona all reported a fairly severe jarring tremor this morning.

Nine-Year-Old Beaten To Death

HOUSTON, March 1 (AP)—A nine-year-old girl was near death today after being brutally beaten as she lay in her bed early yesterday.

Police theorized the child, Mary Ruth Jirasek of Houston, awakened to find a burglar in her room and was slugged to prevent her outcry.

Police found broken, blood-stained bits of a pistol grip nearby.

Mrs. James Emmett Goodman, 62, her grandmother, said she was awakened when she heard the girl moaning.

Man Is Missing

Pepper Martin Named Pilot Of Angelo Baseball Colts

STARTS THURSDAY

Denton, Johnson City Early Favorites In Cage Playoffs

By The Associated Press
Texas interscholastic league officials worked out pairings today for the triple-barreled State basketball tournament which begins firing away Thursday.
Twenty-four teams, among them six former champions, will converge on Austin for the twenty-eighth annual cage meet with 1947 titlists in the Class A and Class B divisions back to defend their laurels.

Here is the field for the big meet:
Class AA—Amarillo, Bowie (El Paso), Denton, Crozier Tech (Dallas), Temple, Lufkin, Milby (Hous-

Plans To Open Drills March 20

Robert Foy (Pepper) Martin, popular center fielder of the 1947 Big Spring Colts, Sunday signed a contract to pilot the new San Angelo entry in the Longhorn baseball league.

Martin reached an agreement with C. West, owner of the Angelo club, at the Longhorn league meeting in Abilene. He said the terms were "very satisfactory."
Pepper, long time resident of Big Spring, had been traded to Bridgeport of the Class B Colonial league for outfielder George Sift by Big Spring last fall. West bought his contract outright from Bridgeport. Sift will report here in the spring.

Born in Russell county near Ballinger, Martin moved here with his parents in 1929. He is 24 years of age. A former Big Spring high school football star, Pepper will be starting his fourth season in professional ball this year. He played about 30 games with Pampa and Big Spring in the old WT-NM league in 1942, was with Lamesa of the WT-NM league in 1946, then was sold to Big Spring in '47.

An infielder when he broke into pro ball, he moved to the outfield in '46 with Lamesa.
He enjoyed his best season in the play-for-pay ranks last year when he hit .312, clouted 31 home runs and had 133 runs batted in. He was third high in the league in homers and fourth in RBIs.

Martin served three years with the Navy Sea-Bees during the war, most of it overseas. He was in New Hebrides and Okinawa much of the time and managed to play ball at both places.
Married, he said he and Mrs. Martin planned to move to Angelo as soon as they could find living quarters. He plans to open spring drills here March 20.

When Hal Jackson, now starring on defense for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League, was a member of the Chicago Black Hawks, he suffered a shoulder injury that required 175 stitches to mend.

Little In Front At St. Pete

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 1. — Lawson Little of Cleveland yesterday won the top $2,000 prize money in the St. Petersburg Open golf tournament with a 16-under par 272 for the 72-hole event.

Little, a former National Open, National Amateur and British Amateur champion, toured the 6,436-yard Lakewood Country Club course in 33-34—67 yesterday, five strokes better than par.

Bobby Locke of Johannesburg, South Africa, took $1,400 second place money with 275. Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., with 277 was good only for a third-place tie with George Schouh of Marmaroneck, N. Y. They collected $900 each.

Boy Is Drowned In Raft Accident

MEMPHIS, March 1. — A makeshift raft overturned on a deep creek yesterday and an 11-year-old boy drowned.

Don Moss, 12, said he tried to save his brother, Bobby, but that he had to let go within a few feet of the bank. He said Bobby had been told to stay off the raft, but didn't heed.
The boys are the sons of Navy Lt. and Mrs. Joe Moss, formerly of Paris, Tex., and Norfolk, Va.

Monahans Team In Top Spot

Tiny's Beauty shop of Monahans won team honors in the first annual Wear-Ever Women's bowling tournament completed at the West Texas bowling center Sunday night, compiling a score of 2,640 in its three game set to finish 48 pins ahead of Odessa's Texans.

Kay's Bookstore, Sweetwater, wound up in third place to share in the prize money. The Nolan county entry had a score of 2,523. Out-of-town entries dominated the two-day show. M. Whisler and Ila May Luce of San Angelo captured first place in Class A doubles with a 993 tally. A. Galloway and B. Welch, Lubbock, were not far behind with 936.

Class B's blue ribbon was won by G. Tyson and N. Crossland, Lubbock, who had a 995. H. Lowe and D. Alexander of San Angelo followed with 936 while Vera Dozier and Mary Ruth Robertson, Big Spring, managed a 913 for third place.

In Class C play, top laurels went to Tiny Yates and Lou Thomas, Monahans, with a score of 834. Loveta King and Evelyn Clements, Odessa, were in second place with an 828 while June Barnett and Jo Sisco, Monahans, trailed with 819.

In singles competition, Ruby Lee Pearson, Ila May Luce and Nita Pearcey, all of Angelo, finished in that order with a 513, 492 and 486, respectively.

In Class B play, Sadie Walton, Odessa, was first with 525. N. Crossland had the runnerup spot with 495 while Jo Burk, Odessa, collected third place money with 489.

Evelyn Clements, Odessa, won first place in Class C play with 458. Jane Buennett, Monahans, was second with 438 and Loveta King, Odessa, third with 430.

All-events honors went to Ila May Luce, N. Crossland and Evelyn Clements in Classes A, B and C, respectively. Luce had a 1476, Crossland 1538 and Clements 1342.
In all 85 women took part in the tournament. Seventeen teams competed.

AT GRAPPLE CLUB

Freeman Tries Funk Again This Evening

Dory Funk, the hard-hearted hombre from Hammond, Ind., and Ace Freeman of the Bronx, N. Y., exchange pleasantries again in the spotlight event of the Big Spring Athletic club's grapple program tonight, then get down to the business of trying to knock each other's block off.

The two banged away without appreciable results last week, unless you count the blood that Funk lost and the fact that Referee Olan Boynton disqualified Funk on a technicality.

Freeman emerged from the bout unscathed and perhaps should have settled for that. However, he readily agreed to try the tiger-tempered Mr. Funk again.

The Ace, who can be leather-tough and razor-sharp when the occasion demands, apparently will be primed for this one. There obviously is no love lost between the two.

In his 8:15 o'clock opening, Promoter Pat O'Dowdy is sending Hy Sharman of Salt Lake City out against Pierre LaBelle of Paris, France.

Sharman hasn't been frequenting the local haunts of late. He was active here more than a year ago, however, and a few of the regular patrons will remember him.

LaBelle has quite a local following. If he could receipt for a victory or two, he'd no doubt be even more popular. One or two of the parties have kicked the daylight out of him but he always seems to come up smiling.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Herschel "Mule" Stockton, the Big Spring high school football and track coach, has suggested that the Bronco management hold off putting up the right field fence until after April 3, date of the Big Spring Relays.

The barrier covers portions of the track. None of the distance races, from 440 yards on up, could be run if the uprights were in place.

STOCKTON PLANNING ON TWO-MILE RELAY TEAM
Stockton is planning to have a two-mile relay team this year. Two of his distance runners, Leon Lepard and James Fannin, are about the best in this section at their respective specialties, the 880-yard and mile runs.

Stockton put the watch on Fanning in the half-mile jaunt one day last week and the red-head covered the distance in something like 2:04 minutes.

The U. S. Army Air Force took over the Miramar hotel in Santa Monica, Calif., during war time and used it as a rest center. Now the Pittsburgh Pirates are using it as a base for spring training.

SPORTING NEWS RECORD BOOKED COMING OUT SOON
The Sporting News, baseball's trade journal, comes out soon with its 1948 Official Baseball Guide and Record book, which contains all official records of major and minor league teams for the 1947 season, the Longhorn league included. The cost will be $1.

Something like 800 persons showed up for the opening game of the Longhorn league season here last year, despite the fact that the stands had not been completed, the playing field was more like an ash-heap and most of the fans used the honor system to pay their dues.

The local club will not make a bid for the attendance trophy this year but hope to have something like 2,000 people looking on when they open April 22 against Midland. Reason they are not planning on bidding for the cup is that the stands will be smaller than in other parks.
The ducats will be on sale in advance, however. They'll be priced at $1, as is the custom on opening day. The added cost gives the management a big boost in meeting its expenses. The tariff at all games thereafter will be pegged at 75 cents.

BRASFIELD TOP CAGE REFEREE, SAYS HAMBRICK
H. G. Hambrick, who is taking his Stanton high school girl's basketball team back to the state meet at Hillsboro next week, says Earl Brasfield of Brownfield is the best arbiter he's seen in action this year.

Brasfield refereed in a couple of state girls' meets in Arkansas before coming to Texas. He is also recognized as competent fems' coach.

Citation New Wonder Horse Of Racing World Following Victory At Hialeah

NEW YORK, March 1. — The Kentucky Derby is a couple of months away but many race goers will provide you with the name of the winner of the Run for the Roses today — Citation. Warren Wright's sensational three year old colt.

Citation enhanced his rapidly growing reputation by streaking to a six length victory in the $0,000 added Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Saturday.

The win was the magnificent colt's 12th in 13 starts and overshadowed Talon's winning of the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap at Arcadia, Calif.
Citation, going to the post as a 1 to 5-favorite, shortest priced starter in the 19-year history of the Flamingo, toured the mile and one eighth in 1:48 4-5. Only Brevity's 1936 time of 1:48 1-5 bettered this time in the Flamingo.
The win added $42,000 to Citation's earnings. He topped last season's two-year-olds with $115,680 and now has netted $219,155.
Jockey Alfred Snider had little trouble bringing Citation in ahead of Big Dial, owned by Trainer E. E. Hart and George M. Jacobson of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Stanley Sagner's Saggy came in third in the seven horse field. Citation returned $2.40, $2.90 and $2.10 across the board.

Ben Jones, general manager of Wright's Calumet farm stable refused to discuss Citation's next start or Derby plans for the colt.
"That's too far off, we don't know just what our plans will be but Jimmy (trainer, H. A. Jones) probably will take him East," Jones said after the race.
At Arcadia, Talon really had to step to grab the $100,000 handicap. The six-year-old Argentine galloper won by a nose from On Trust in one of the closest windups of the 11 runnings of the event.
Eddie Arcaro was aboard Talon who returned $6.90, $4.10 and $3.10. Double Jay was third while top weighted Sannon II of Australia finished last.

Broncs To Open With Indians This Season

Big Spring's Broncs will open their 1948 Longhorn baseball league schedule in Midland, Wednesday, April 21.

The league schedule, adopted Sunday at a meeting of circuit directors in Abilene, extends for 140 games and ends Monday, Sept. 6. Other opening day games sends Del Rio to San Angelo, Odessa to Sweetwater and Ballinger to Vernon.

Del Rio and Angelo are new members of the league, which operated as a six-club circuit in 1947, its first year of operation.

The league's all-star game will be played in Odessa's spacious park July 20. The classic was unreeled in Ballinger last year, the West winning.

Umpires of the George Barr and Bill Klem schools will be assigned to work loop games this year. League President Howard Green told directors Sunday.

The league ruled that box seats deal only with the exhibition games and the regular season play. In event of a playoff, there is to be a new sale with the old box seat holders having first choice at the ducats.

Disaster doesn't knock!

A mother is putting her child to bed a tornado imprisons them in the wreckage of their home

Youngsters are busy in a schoolroom an explosion tears the building apart

A disabled veteran builds a little business in his home a river flood sweeps it all away

ANY of these tragedies could happen to you and yours . . . for Disaster doesn't ask permission. It strikes without warning.
But where Disaster goes and Panic prevails, there too is the Red Cross. Prepared for action, calm in the face of danger, experienced in the succor of suffering humanity, the Red Cross brings relief quickly, generously, efficiently.
And . . . afterward . . . the Red Cross stands by the injured and the desolate through difficulties Disaster caused . . . to help rebuild their homes, restore their strength, and give them new courage to carry on.
The Red Cross doesn't stop to ask questions—it knows no boundaries, no prejudices, no limitations. All it asks is your help—for it cannot exist without you.

IT'S YOUR RED CROSS... KEEP IT GOING Give Generously!

Mims Announces For Re-Election To City Office
Beginning of a new month brought out the first candidate for city commissioner today when George Mims announced that he would seek re-election to the post he now holds. Mims, one of three commissioners whose terms expire in April was elected two years ago in one of the most active city campaigns ever conducted here when the three successful candidates were chosen from a field of seven. This morning Mims said he was entering his name on the ballot for a second term to signify to the voters a willingness to serve on the commission again, providing balloting indicates approval of city administration during the past two years. He said he had no campaign statement to make other than activities of the commission during the past term. "The record is there," he said; "and if the voters register approval at the April 6 election, I will gladly serve again. Otherwise, I will cheerfully step down with no ill feelings toward anyone." Mims' announcement came one week before the ballot is to be closed. Under new regulations, the city secretary can accept nominations only through March 6, a month before election date.

Porter Is Mail Superintendent
Approval of the appointment of Athel A. Porter to be superintendent of mails at the Big Spring post-office was announced today. He succeeds Lindsey Marchbanks, who retired on total disability under civil service regulations due to illness. Marchbanks' retirement became effective on Jan. 31, and Postmaster Nat Shick recommended Porter as his successor. The new mails superintendent is a veteran of more than 20 years standing with the post office department. After having served as substitute clerk while he was in high school, Porter entered regular service as a clerk in 1928 and has served in various capacities continuously since. Shick said he regarded Porter as being "unusually well qualified for the position by reason of his long experience and knowledge of the job, and able to give the people of Big Spring and area excellent service."

Lions Should Get Red Cross Material From Dr. Swain
Members of the Lions club, who are joining other service club men in the city in soliciting for the annual Red Cross Roll Call, were instructed today to pick up work-packets at the office of Dr. K. R. Swain, chairman of the club's activity. Swain said Lions should call for the material promptly so that the club's part of the canvass may start at once. Invitations have been extended to all Cub Scout leaders and parents to attend a special meeting Tuesday night in the St. Mary's Parish Hall, D. M. McKinney, cubbing commissioner, reported this morning. The session, which is scheduled for 7:30 p. m., will be one of the most important of the year for Cub leaders, McKinney said. Plans will be developed for re-registering and re-organizing packs in the district.

County Heads Hold Routine Meeting
Howard county commissioners court attended to routine matters in a session Monday morning. Two welfare matters, one involving a child desertion and a hospital bill, the other a Latin-American woman abandoned with eight children and no means of support, were reviewed by Mary Cantrell, county welfare worker. The court passed on routine bills and took under advisement the purchase of signs warning against livestock on roads, dips, school zones, and no dumping. Also discussed, but without action, was the matter of a cattleguard revision in the south part of the county. Services Scheduled For C. W. Born Infant The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Born died Monday morning at a local hospital. Services will be held Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Nalley Chapel with the Rev. N. L. Sulter, pastor of the Church of God, officiating. Interment will be in the local cemetery. Placed In Jail Four Negroes, one of them a woman, were placed in the county jail this morning and charges of participating in a disturbance were to be made against them later in the day. They allegedly were fighting when stopped by the police.

Girls Carry On After Many Years' Battle

TROY, N. Y.—After fighting 100 years for women's rights, leading feminists smile when asked if man still is boss of the world. Asked if women are happier galavanting around in public life, or taking care of families, they explode: "That's a silly question." But asked what the next century holds in store for women's emancipation, they talk for hours. An array of the leading feminists of the day rededicated themselves to an assault upon man's mastery of the world—a fictitious theory, some claim—at Russell Sage College. The two-day conference marked the centennial of the first women's rights convention at Seneca Falls in 1848. "It was no place for a man. Surrounded by hundreds of career women, a few gentlemen present were willing to concede that it is a woman's world. There were feminine doctors, scientists, engineers, educators, authors, judges, politicians, business women—and even mothers. They orated for two days about the victories the fair sex has scored over the male since those dark days when Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott raised the banner for women's emancipation. The men squirmed. Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse of New London, Conn., executive director of the women's division of the Democratic national committee and a former Democratic congresswoman, threw a barb at man's smugness in a pre-convention interview. "Remember, sir, there are potentially 1,000,000 more women voters in the United States than men." "It is my hope that the concept of minorities—including that of women—will be broken in the near future," she continued. Miss Josephine Schain of New York City, United States delegate to the United Nations conference on food and agriculture at Hot Springs, Va., in 1943, and chairman of the foreign policy committee of the Greater New York League of Women Voters, said women exercised great interest in national and international affairs. "The four walls of a home can not corral a woman today. When a woman rears a son, gives him to the world as a fighting man and learns that his body has been washed up on a beach of an Okinawa, she develops intense interest in international life," Miss Schain continued. The women could have pointed to a census bureau report for proof that men were no longer corraling women within the four walls of a home. Twenty out of 100 married women living with husbands worked or were looking for jobs last April, compared with 15 out of 100 in April, 1940, the bureau reported. Mrs. Woodhouse told the Troy conference that "women have a bad habit of living longer than men." She considered this proof that women had to step into public life whether they wanted to or not. "It is a matter of self preservation," she noted.

Frills Billowing From Milady's Skirt Is Only Part Of Costume

It's no slip of wind or costume, nor even a slip of the slip when color and frills billow from the base of milady's skirt these days. No catastrophe has befallen the shoulder strap since she completed the lengthy getting ready process and departed from home. It's just another fad of the season. It has at long last become fashionable for the petticoat to show beneath the dresses after all those years of tugging and pulling. So don't be surprised to see a billow of filmy lace showing beneath the skirts, in the same color or contrasting colors. The lace trim doesn't have to be even around the bottom to be there intentionally, either. It may dip in the front, back or the sides. Neither has the lady companion forgotten to take off the dress that she wore yesterday if a bright taffeta material is showing. That is just another variation of the style which provides a striking contrast to her dress. Incidentally, these petticoats help the looks of that last summer's dress that shows its age this spring by the length. A few stitches here and there with the petticoat to give it length and a dress is given new life. At any rate, the lady is not embarrassed when her slip shows several inches below the dress and its not because she doesn't know about it, because more than likely, it is all intentional and at a pretty price out of her savings. The petticoat has had an interesting history. Time was when it was classed as an "unmentionable" and the female was not properly dressed unless she wore at least six at a time. The ones worn underneath were more than likely made of a simple pattern but the others were frilly and lacy usually to make the dress stand out and as the woman had more time to spend in making such garments she was judged by her "underthings." Then it went through a stage of being tailored, but for the spring season, it is a part of the outer costume.

JayCee Casaba Tourney Opens At Texas A&M

COLLEGE STATION, March 1 (AP)—Texas' State Junior college basketball tournament opens today as a "guinea pig" for suggested rules changes. Coaches of the 16 teams bidding for the title last night agreed to try three of the four suggestions. They turned down one which would allow each player more than five personal fouls. All of the rules to be tried during the three-day tournament are apt to be presented the National Basketball Coaches association for use in 1948-49. Marty Karow, Texas A and M basketball coach and tournament director, said. The three rules which will be in force, here are: 1. Allow coaches to talk to their players during time-outs. 2. Toss up each jump ball in the nearest of the three circles painted on the court. 3. Raise the arm of the player who is charged with a personal foul to clarify in the minds of the spectators as well as coaches and scoring officials who is charged with the rule infraction. Several of the proposed rules changes have been tried out in other parts of the country this year. Karow said he talked to his players during time outs when they played Ohio State at Columbus, Ohio, in December. The Aggie basketball coach aims to make a full report of the experiment of the National Basketball Rules association. The 16 coaches think the idea will work just fine. None of them feels it will hurt his team's chances to any great extent, if at all. Tyler, winner of the Southwest Junior college conference, and Wayland head the list of teams bidding for the state's first Junior College championship. Others are: John Tarleton, North Texas Agricultural College, Allen Academy, Blinn, Lon Morris, Lamar, Corpus Christi, Amarillo, Hillsboro, Paris, Ranger, McNeese, Lake Charles, La., Kilgore and Texas Lutheran.

Two Southwest Teams To Stay Busy This Month

By The Associated Press. A couple of games are left in the Southwest conference basketball season but top interest centers on Baylor's chances for a bid to the National Intercollegiate Athletic association regional tournament at Kansas City. Texas handed the Southwest conference champion Bears their first licking in loop play, 32-29, last week. An undefeated record would have made a strong talking point for the Bears in reaching the NCAA meet without a playoff. Arizona, Border conference champion, is clamoring for a playoff with Baylor to determine the Southwest entry in the tournament. Eugene Lambert, Arkansas coach and head of the district selection committee, hasn't even hinted at a course to be followed in making the selection. While the Bears fret over the NCAA choice, Texas was eyeing the New York Invitational tournament in Madison Square Garden. Jack Gray's Longhorns received and accepted a bid last week. Texas Christian and Southern Methodist will close their seasons Wednesday at Fort Worth. Texas A&M and Texas will wind up the season on March 9 with a game at Austin. The game was postponed for this week. George Kok, the giant Arkansas center, bowed out of collegiate play with conference and scoring honors. His 33 points against Rice in his final college game gave him 233 for the conference season and 469 for all year. Slater Martin, Texas' floor ace, held down second place in both season and conference scoring, with 295 and 157 points respectively. DiMaggio Will Bid For Batting Title This Year

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 1 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio has served notice on Ted Williams that he is out to wrest the American league's batting championship from the slugger outfielder of the Boston Red Sox. The star centerfielder of the New York Yankees, who nosed out Williams for the league's most valuable player award last year, says he thinks a .350 percentage can do the trick. At least that is the figure he has set his sights on for 1948. Williams won the batting title last year with a mark of .343. "I'm really looking forward to a fine year, one of my best," said DiMaggio yesterday. At one time or another Joe has led the league in batting, runs batted in, home runs, triples, hits and runs scored. "I feel as good right now as I ever have at the start of spring training in all my years with the Yankees," he said. "My arms and legs are in great shape. My weight is okay. I'm just itching to get a bat in my hands." The Yankee Clipper said he was fully recovered from the elbow operation he underwent last fall. He expects his throwing arm to be as strong as ever this season. The wound on his left heel, where he was operated upon a year ago for the removal of a spur, is still open. It won't be fully healed for another year. "But it doesn't bother me," Joe said. "I can run hard on it without feeling any pain."

East Fourth Has A Record Sunday School Attendance

Climaxing a revival which closed Sunday night, a new record for Sunday School attendance was established Sunday morning at the East Fourth Street Baptist church. The attendance in regular classes reached 632, nine more than the previous high on record. More than 60 persons responded to the invitation at the close of morning and evening services, resulting in 51 additions to the church membership at the morning service and a dozen more at the evening services. The Rev. Graves Darby was visiting evangelist during the revival.
