The McLean High School graduating class is trying to get information about its class members so that The McLean News can do a story about them. The class needs information or addresses for the following people: Idella Gadberry (teacher), Robert Batson, Tommy Beck, Pat Cobbs Beck, Pauline Gordon, Joe Wayne Hill, Jimmy Holland Brown, Dora Mae Overton, Kathrine Watt, and Alva Rae McDonald. If you know anything about these people please call Dorris Windom at 806/779-2218 or Zora Petty Billingsley at 806/355-4997.

A case of this nasty flu which has been making the rounds in McLean certainly taught me a good lesson this week. I can be replaced! I finally gave in to the fever, and went to bed Friday afternoon, but I was worried about the football game that night. Our advertising manager Kathy Carter ably filled in with the camera, as she did the week before, and she got some good pictures, so no one missed my presence there.

My family managed to eat without me spending the whole weekend in the kitchen, and the teacher actually was able to teach Sunday school without my pertinent comments.

For most women there is at least a good side to the flu. Several reported to me that they lost three to five pounds with the nasty bug. That's why I know that life is not fair! I felt just as rotten as any of them did, but I gained five pounds by staying in bed. See what I mean?

Have you noticed all the extra football games we get now because of the cable? I always thought Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon games were bad enough, then the networks added a Monday night game. Last year they added insult to injury and started having an occasional Thursday night game.

But the cable is the last straw! If you carefully read the schedule, you could watch a football game of some sort almost every night of the week.

The National Football League players met Monday afternoon and decided to go on strike.

County To Erect Ag Barn For Residents

A new building for the youth of McLean has been budgeted by Gray County, according to Gerald Tate, president of McLean Ag Boosters. Tate informed city officials of the proposed addition at the regular city council meeting Sept. 14.

The 5000-square-foot building will be built with over $30,000 of the county's budget, according to Tate. The proposed site is adjacent to and includes the present site of the McLean youth project farm. According to Tate, the building will be used as an ag barn for McLean youth, and will accommodate other functions as well.

"This is a real windfall for the city's youth," Tate said. "We're very fortunate that we're going to get it. Not only will it be great for ag purposes, but we can use it for lots of other things for the youth. It will be especially useful for those times when the weather is bad. That size building will take care of almost anything."

The city council voted to either deed the city-owned land to the county or give the county a long-term lease, in order that building construction might begin as soon as possible. The land plot to be deeded will measure about 312 feet square.

In other business, a delegation of McLean citizens presented fundraising proposals for a city-owned swimming pool. Councilmen appointed a 13-member ad hoc committee to begin raising money to build the pool. Committee members named were Karen McClellan, Becky Stubbs, Margaret Milam, Lynda Syfrett, Martha Jo Bailey, Debbie Fitch, Tim Fitch, Kathy Carter, Miro Pagan, Thelma McCarty, Ruth Boucher, Billie Kingston, and Linda Haynes.

McLean resident Wayne Bybee appeared before the council to request that the street in front of his residence be filled, and to ask that the council contact the county to fill several more streets which were in need of repair. Councilman George Terry agreed to contact the county about the streets.

Aldermen also approved the first reading of ordinance 206, which fixes the city tax rate for 1982 at 45 cents per $100 for real and corporate property within the city limits.

Councilman James Barker noted that trees and rubbish recently left on the track field have become a fire hazard. After much discussion, councilmen agreed to allow McLean citizens to take trees and concrete into the city landfill, so long as the trees were cut into lengths no larger than eight feet in length. The city council also voted to adopt McLean's Lovett Memorial Library bylaws as suggested by the library board.

Attending the meeting were Mayor Sam Haynes, Councilmen Barker, Terry, Charles Milam, Dale Glass, city superintendent Bob Glenn, city secretary Stella Lee, Gerald Tate, Ruth Boucher, Linda Haynes, Tim Fitch, Debbie Fitch, Martha Jo Bailey, Wayne Bybee, and Lisa Patman.

Valley Patriots Stun McLean Tigers In 54-3 Debacle

In a stunning blow Friday night, the Valley Patriots overran the McLean Tigers 54-3. The game was the third for both teams, and brought Valley to 2-1, while McLean dropped to 0-3.

For the Tigers, the first eight minutes of the game were spectacular. A strong Tiger defense forced two punts from the Patriots, while offensively, McLean kept the ball in Valley territory. After forcing a punt fumble, the Tigers took the ball over at the Patriot's nine, and with 4:30 showing on the first quarter clock, Tiger Lance Stovall kicked a three-pointer for the first score of the ball game.

"We played a good game for the first eight minutes," said Tiger head coach Joe Riley. "But we just lost it after that. We had a lot of enthusiasm and intensity going into the game, but it was gone after that first quarter."

And Valley took advantage of the Tigers' loss of spirit as they began to collect touchdowns early in the second quarter. By the end of the first half it was McLean 3, Valley 34, and the Patriots were not done yet.

Two minutes into the third, Valley began another scoring trek that would continue through the remainder of the game, ending with a final scoring touchdown that left the Patriots on top, 54-3.

"Valley has an excellent football team," Riley said. "Although we did show that we are capable of playing good football, things just went wrong for us."

McLean has an open date this Friday. The next football action for the Tigers will be Oct. 1, when they play Groom at McLean. The contest with Groom will be McLean's homecoming game.

"We urge all the Tiger fans to come out and support the team during the Groom game," Riley said. "It really means a lot to the players to have the town behind them. We all appreciate the loyal fans we have here."

The McLean-Groom game is slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 1 at Duncan Field in McLean.

Cubs Outscore Lefors 14 - 8

The McLean Cubs scored their first victory of the season Thursday night when they hosted the Lefors Bandits.

McLean ended the game 14 to 8, although Lefors hit paydirt first in the game.

The Bandits scored midway through the second quarter on a two-yard run.

They ran the extra point to end the half at 8-0.

During the third quarter of play, Clint Herndon ran seven yards for a touchdown, and Darren Johnson ran the extra point across to tie the game at 8 points each.

Herndon ran 27 yards in the final period to ice the game for the Cubs. The try for the extra point was no good and the game ended 14-8. The Cubs are now 1 and 1 for the season. They will play at Claude tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 p.m.

Sen. Bentsen To Dedicate Pampa Home

Senator Lloyd Bentsen will dedicate the Hughey Home for retarded adults this Saturday, September 25, according to an announcement Monday from Bentsen campaign headquarters in Austin.

Bentsen, who pushed through Congress legislation providing tax relief to low income disabled Americans, will dedicate the home in ceremonies at 10 a.m. Saturday.

"It is vitally important that we give disabled Americans every opportunity to lead normal, productive lives," Bentsen said.

"This home, made possible by the generosity of a Pampa resident and the cooperative efforts of Gray County volunteers and the State of Texas, will provide that opportunity to six disabled Texans between the ages of 21 and 55."

The house in which the new facility is located was donated, completely furnished, by Don Hines of Pampa in memory of his grandparents.

City Rebate Up Slightly

McLean's monthly rebate check for September was up slightly over last year's pay period. The 1982 payment is $1,798.40, compared to $1,232.75 for last year. The total for 1982 is $19,196.66 as compared to $19,080.56 in 1981.

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday sent the biggest check ever for a single month's tax collections -- $49.2 million -- to 967 Texas cities as their share of the one-percent city sales tax for Sept.

The statewide total is up 20 percent over last September's payment of $41 million. The payment reflects taxable sales made in July and reported to the state by the end of August.

Houston received the biggest share of the one-cent local sales tax with a check for $11.6 million. So far in 1982 Houston's payments are up 15.3

The Chamber is sponsoring the course free of charge to anyone who wants to take it, she said, but drivers must sign up with either Mrs. Hess or Jane Simpson.

The course will be taught Oct. 16 in the McLean Lions Club Building by Gary Burgdorf, a safety officer with the Department of Public Safety. The session will begin at 8 a.m. and last most of the day, Mrs. Hess said. Those who participate may bring a sack lunch, and the

CORRECTION

The McLean News printed the wrong amounts for the cafeteria income in the school board story in last week's edition. Breakfast income was $67.90 with $62.69 federal reimbursement due; lunch income was $2,180.50 with $611.72 federal reimbursement due. The total income for both programs was $2,248.40 with $674.41 federal reimbursements due.

We apologize for any misunderstanding because of the error.

THESE HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAMES MAY NOT HAVE A PREPONDERANCE OF SOPHISTICATED, NFL-TYPE ACTION— BUT THEY DO HAVE TOUGH TRUANCY LAWS TO PREVENT PLAYER STRIKES...

DISTAFF

In case they don't know, let me assure them that the women of America are on their side.

I think you guys with your $200,000 a year salaries are grossly underpaid. I think you should insist that the owners give you 90 percent of the television money and all the gate receipts. I strongly suggest that you stay on strike until you get all your demands (or at least until February, whichever comes first).

I'm sure that nice wimpy-looking player representative (Garvey, is that his name?) could enlist millions of women across the U.S. to march on the picket lines for the players. We'd do anything to get the constant football games off television.

Of course, I guess it means if the players go on strike, the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders are also out of work, doesn't it? Gee, that really upsets me.

But everything is kept in balance in our society. If there is a strike, and the players and coaches and cheerleaders are without work, millions of American husbands and wives may begin talking to each other, and getting reacquainted, then the divorce courts will be full, putting lots of lawyers and judges to work.

Regardless of the outcome, I think that a strike by the players will sour even the most die-hard football fan against the spoiled professionals. How many workers, fighting a recession, trying to pay higher and higher bills on a shrinking salary, are going to sympathize with the whiny players? I predict that the strike will be the most disastrous thing to happen to the football professionals, and will signal the end of America's obsession with over-paid, over-rated professional athletes.

At least, I hope so.

Whenever I wonder what this column will be about, I manage to uncover some sort of goof to write about. For someone who is a perfectionist, I can really foul up. Not only did I get all the figures wrong in the school board story about the cafeteria, I managed to leave several bits of information in the bottom of my "current" basket at my desk.

The only way I have discovered to get all the bits of information into the paper is to place each item as it comes in, in a basket by my typewriter. Each week I work through that basket until I reach the bottom, and hopefully we get everything in.

This week I must have gone to sleep before I reached the bottom. So here goes a long list of apologies: Apologies to Judy Morris for mistyping all her figures on the cafeteria, apologies to Ruth Trew whose family reunion story was left out, apologies to Mrs. Hommel whose cooking story was left out, and a great big apology to Virginia Dalton. Week before last Virginia advertised a garage sale, but we got the date wrong, so she patiently put up everything and called us. I took a new ad for her garage sale which was to be last Friday. Guess what? That ad never made the paper, so Virginia prepared everything for a garage sale twice which was never advertised.

I apologize to all of you, and hope to do better in the weeks to come.

Wendy Valley Reunion Set

Legislation by Senator Bentsen, attached to the Disability Amendments of 1979, enables disabled Americans who work in such workshops to pay lower taxes than they would have otherwise paid.

Amarillo's September check was up 12.24 percent over 1981, with a total receipt of $7,007,271.84 for the year.

Pampa's tax receipts were up 17 percent from 1981. The City has received a total of $1,213,876.53 for 1982. Shamrock's receipts are up 33.54 percent, for a total receipt of $108,746.49, as compared to $81,430.64 for 1981.

Westgate Mall Plans Oct. 6 Grand Opening

With four new major department stores scheduled to open, and with both exterior and interior construction near completion, the co-developers of Westgate Mall have announced the regional shopping complex will be ready for its grand opening on Oct. 6.

When fully completed, the 1,036,000 square feet mall will house five department stores, including Sears, Dillard's, Mervyn's, and Beall's department stores, and approximately 120 local, regional, and national specialty stores, boutiques, and restaurants.

The regional mall, which will become the major shopping complex for Amarillo, and the entire panhandle of Texas, is located on a 149 acre site at Interstate 40 and Coulter Street in Amarillo.

Westgate Mall is a development by Jacobs/Kahan & Co., the nation's sixth largest shopping center developer, and a joint venture with Homart Development Co. It is designed by Law/Kingdon, P.A. of Wichita, Kansas.

The flair of the West and the romantic, adventurous spirit of Texas is reflected throughout the interior and exterior design of Westgate Mall. Warm earth colors and natural materials will carry out the strong influence of the southwest.

Adding to that flavor will be heavy wood timbers and exposed wood beams, skylights beaming light throughout the mall, and remarkable landscaping strewn with native stones.

Shoppers walking through the center court will find themselves immersed in sunlight thanks to the vaulted skylights circling the perimeter of the ceiling area and highlighting the lush landscaping beneath. Laminated wood beams expose the timber trusses which support the wood deck. Reaching to this deck are large sandblasted columns to give a natural finish.

The center court features an amphitheatre with a multi-level fountain surrounded by foliage. The floor will be tiled in light and dark brown. Wood benches are conveniently placed throughout the center court.

A red brick exterior will complement the motif of the mall's interior. Dramatizing the southwestern rustic motif are the canopies of sandy brown concrete supported by laminated wood beams oriented in a stepped tier fashion.

Westgate Mall also features a mini-court area which will incorporate many of the same exceptional features of the center court. There, underneath the ceiling configuration of exposed wood trusses, laminated beams, wood decking and skylights, shoppers can stop and eat in a sidewalk cafe, appropriately named the Food Fair.

This food court area combines a number of restaurants serving a variety of menus from light snacks to full meals. The Food Fair's dramatic decor will distinguish it from the rest of the Mall.

The restaurants will line the perimeter of the Food Fair, and each will have its own canopied front.

The central area of the Food Fair will highlight groupings of dining tables and abundant trees, shrubs, and flowers, giving the dining area an atmosphere similar to the romantic French sidewalk cafes that line the streets of Paris.

Extensive interior and exterior landscaping is a major part of the Mall's overall design. Both fixed and movable interior planters will feature a variety of trees and shrubs, and flowers, and plans call for the literally hundreds of flowering plants to change with the seasons each year. Towering Ficus trees will also be planted in the ground beneath the Mall's floor, and surrounded by metal geometric patterned tree grates.

Trees, shrubs, and flowering plants are located throughout the site, including four oases featuring individual groupings of Magnolias, Red Oaks, and other varieties of trees found in the Southwest.

The Mall's lighting, heating, and cooling systems are controlled by a state-of-the-art energy management computer system. The computer will automatically turn lights on and off as needed, and provide constant monitoring of the Mall's interior temperature, insuring shopper comfort, as well as energy conservation. Additional energy will be conserved in the Mall's exterior and parking area lighting. The lighting fixtures are being fitted with metal halid lamps, providing more illumination than ordinary lighting with less power consumption than conventional lamps.

With construction nearing completion, leasing of the Mall is now more than 65 percent complete. The dramatic blend of architectural design and variety of design makes Westgate Mall the most exciting new shopping center in the state, and a boom to the Amarillo economy.

Homemaker News

By Donna Brauchi

Many homemakers have a problem when they try to remodel their kitchens. They start with a great design, they have the money, they find a contractor who provides the labor, but they end up with a domestic, if not a structural disaster. The kitchen is no longer a room with cupboards and appliances. It is now a living center, a social center, a family center, an entertainment center, a sleek and sophisticated result of intelligent planning, skillful engineering, product knowledge, and experienced coordination of several crafts and trades.

Tips for Success

The key to successful kitchen modernization is planning; planning to get the job accomplished and planning to live with it while it is being done. The first step to success is to find a competent kitchen specialist. It should be someone who knows kitchen products and equipment and how to design them into a kitchen plan that will serve the needs and desires of your family.

Finding the Right Specialist

How do you find the right specialist? Look for kitchen firms with showrooms and then visit the showrooms. Ask them how long they have been remodeling kitchens, and for the names of satisfied customers you can call for reference. The competent kitchen specialist will not try simply to sell you a kitchen. He will want to interview you. The competent specialist will not try simply to sell you a kitchen. He will want to design something that will thrill you for years to come.

Plan For The Installation

Modernizing a kitchen requires that the old kitchen be taken out, with the temporary loss of gas, water, and electricity in that area of the house, until the new kitchen has been installed. In some simple remodeling jobs this might be only a day or two. But in most full modernization projects it can take a week, even a little longer. This is where you must do some planning yourself. The kitchen specialist can give you fairly precise dates when either gas, water, or electricity will be off. Mark them on a calendar and make plans for these days to eat out, visit relatives, or take a vacation. If you don't feel you can trust your kitchen specialist sufficiently to leave town, you have selected the wrong contractor. The important thing is to have a definite plan of action. There will be inconvenience, but there should be no surprises.

Pioneer Room Use Policy Approved By Council

A policy for use of the new Pioneer Room at Lovett Library was adopted last week by the

McLean City Council, according to Martha Parker, librarian. "All community organizations are invited to use the room for activities designed to encourage cultural, aesthetic, and intellectual values of the community," Mrs. Parker said.

The room will be closed to purely commercial use, she said.

According to the written policy of the library, the room may be used under the following circumstances:

1. That there is no conflict with library plans, operations, or previous commitments.

2. That the proposed use is compatible with the purpose of the library, that is, civic, educational, or cultural.

3. That there is no admission charge.

4. That no expenses accrue to the library.

5. That the library is reimbursed by the user for any breakage, damage to the building, or any equipment loss.

6. That only light refreshments will be served. No alcoholic beverages will be served in the meeting room at any time.

7. That no smoking will be permitted at any time.

Loose Marbles

by Lisa Patman

Spending the summer without air conditioning has been a real learning experience at the Marbles household. It's not that we don't like air conditioning, mind you. It's just that we had intended our continuous house remodeling to be past the air conditioning stage, but the famous Marbles Construction Crew missed the deadline by a few months. We expect the air units to be installed just in time for Christmas. The heaters should be ready by next Independence Day.

But, as I was saying, we have learned a lot—like which deodorant really works, how to drink tepid soft drinks, and the Joy of Ice.

It's amazing the things a person will do when he has the misfortune to be un-airconditioned in the scorching days of summer. For example, I found that my slightly air-conditioned office became especially appealing, and I astounded my boss by putting in 12-hour days. My work may have lacked inspiration, but at least I didn't sweat on it.

It was the same for the rest of the family. Old Dad stayed at his office a lot, and the kids found lots of excuses to spend time at their friends' air-conditioned houses. For family togetherness we retreated to the air-conditioned car and drove like crazy.

There have been advantages. Just the other night a cool front came through, and I found myself shivering under two blankets, wrapped in my heavy winter robe, and wearing wool socks. It was 72 degrees in the house. Somehow I had become so accustomed to the heat that 72 felt like a raging blizzard.

Real winter weather should be truly interesting. But the most incisive judgment came from my son Wacko during football practice. "How come," asked a curious coach "you don't sweat like the other boys do? You sick or something?"

Wacko's answer? "Football practice is a snap compared to that hell-hole I live in."

Indeed. I like the ring of it—A man's home is his hell-hole or A breeze, a breeze! My kingdom for a breeze.

Garden Clean-up Reduces Disease

Homeowners can help prevent future plant disease problems in flower beds and gardens by practicing some simple preventive maintenance this fall.

Plant disease organisms usually overwinter in infected plant parts such as leaves, stems and rotted or dried up fruits. Removing infested plant material from flower beds or gardens will help reduce next year's disease problems.

Remove infected leaves and fruits from plants and prune stems or branches back six or more inches below the last sign of infection. Use disinfectant dip such as a 10 percent solution of household bleach for the pruning instrument to avoid mechanical spread of the disease.

Fall plowing can follow this clean-up. Deep burial of plant residues is one method of disease control that has been successfully used by farmers for many years.

Breathe, Little Boy Breathe!

Stephen B. Seager, M.D. This book is the fascinating story of Stephen B. Seager, and his thrilling encounters with heart attacks, diabetic shock, attempted suicide, auto, motorcycle and hang gliding accidents, a child's drowning, a botched abortion and numerous other life-threatening experiences he has met as an emergency room doctor for over five years in a metropolitan hospital.

This volume is actually the account of the making of a doctor. It shows in vivid clarity how the doctor copes with the unending strains of his work while struggling to retain his professionalism and humanity. It is an unusually dramatic and powerful book, and it is true.

A dramatic insight is gained into the minds of the doctor who in many cases must play God, and how, even in the midst of the incredible tension, a touch of humor somehow finds its way into the frustrating, depression causing incidents, which occur in rapid succession.

You will turn again and again to "Breathe, Little Boy, Breathe" to relive the electrifying scenes and wonder at the emotional power exhibited as these all-to-common emergencies unfold before your eyes. It certainly is a book you will not soon forget, and will be especially beneficial to persons taking emergency medical training, nurses, etc.

Dr. Seager is imminently qualified to write this type book as he received his M.D. degree in 1976, interned at Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, served the aforementioned time as an emergency room Dr., and is now Director of the Lincoln Institute of Medical Research. He has written two scientific papers, published three medically-oriented magazine articles, and has published his first book in "Breathe, Little Boy, Breathe" which is now available at Lovett Memorial Library.

No Injuries Reported In Wreck

A California man narrowly escaped injury Sunday when he turned left from the right hand lane of Interstate 40 near the Walnut Street intersection. The accident occurred at 12:50 p.m.

The McLean News exchanges newspapers with dozens of area weeklies, and we always enjoy looking at the methods of other editors. One of our favorite exchanges, however, comes from far away Harvard, Mass. We began receiving The Harvard Post about three years ago, and have been fascinated by the regional differences. One thing that is the same across the country, however, is women's interest in new, tasty recipes. The Post featured the following recipes a few weeks ago, and we thought we would share them with you.

- Ellis's Mom's Cabbage Salad
 1 three-pound head of cabbage, shredded
 1 onion, sliced in small pieces
 1 pimiento, cut up
 1 cup vinegar
 1 cup water
 1 tablespoon salt
 1 tsp. celery seed
 1/2 tsp. turmeric
 1 tsp. mustard seed
 1 tsp. whole allspice
 1/2 cup sugar
 Make a small cheesecloth bag and put the mustard seed and whole allspice in it. Into a small saucepan put the vinegar, water, sugar, celery seed, turmeric, and cheesecloth bag of spices. Heat and simmer for about 30 minutes. Pour the liquid over the

- cabbage, onion, and pimiento. Stir it around just a bit and let it stand at least 24 hours before using it.
Summer Squash Casserole
 3 cups summer squash or zucchini, cut in bite sized pieces

- 2 shredded carrots
 1 small onion, minced
 1 can undiluted cream of chicken soup
 1/2 cup sour cream
 1 8 oz. pkg. Pepperidge Farm stuffing mix
 1/2 cup melted butter
 Saute the squash lightly in a little vegetable oil. Mix the stuffing mix with the melted butter, then combine half the stuffing mix with the melted butter, then combine the stuffing mixture with the other ingredients. Put in a casserole and top with the rest of the plain buttered stuffing. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes or until the casserole is brown and bubbly.

You can prepare this ahead and refrigerate the mixture, but allow extra cooking time.

House Joint Resolution 1 proposes a constitutional amendment that prohibits any state ad valorem tax. Receipts from previously authorized state ad valorem taxes that are collected after the effective date of the proposed amendment shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the county collecting the taxes and may be expended for county purposes. Taxes collected before that date shall be distributed by the legislature among educational institutions eligible to receive those funds under prior law. The proposed amendment also repeals a section of the Constitution levying an ad valorem tax for a construction fund for 17 state colleges and universities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing the state property tax."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 62 as amended by Senate Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would eliminate the $80,000,000 ceiling on state welfare aid during any fiscal year. The amendment would set the state welfare spending limit at $160,000,000 for the 1982-1983 biennium. The amendment further provides that, for each subsequent biennium, the maximum amount spent for state welfare shall not exceed one percent of the state budget.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to provide assistance through the appropriations process to needy persons and to place a ceiling on payments for needy dependent children at one percent of the state budget."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt machinery and equipment used in the production of farm and ranch products from taxation. No dollar limits would be imposed and the exemption would apply to corporations and partnerships as well as to families and individuals.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment exempting implements of husbandry (agricultural machinery and equipment) from ad valorem taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 77 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to set a four year maximum term of office for board members of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts.

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide terms not to exceed four years for members of governing boards of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 119 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize Tarrant and Bee counties to hold county-wide elections to abolish the county treasurer's office by majority vote.

Should the county treasurer's office be abolished, the duties, powers, and functions of that office would be transferred to the county auditor or the successor to the auditor's functions.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Tarrant and Bee counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would raise the constitutional interest rate limit on state general obligation bonds from 6% to 12%. The new 12% ceiling does not, however, apply to bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment increasing the maximum interest rate allowed on state general obligation bonds to a weighted average annual interest rate of 12%."
