Three Members Of Knott Family Die In Arizona Crash

Two men and a boy, all connected with a well-known Knott farm family, were fatally injured Saturday in the collision of their automobile and a truck nine miles west of Williams, Ariz., on U. S. highway 66.

The four-year-old boy, James V. Lloyd, died enroute to a hospital. Willard (Buster) Jones, 23, and Earl Rainey, 21, reportedly uncles of the child, succumbed to injuries a few hours later.

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK

War or no war, the most important single development for this area during the past week was rain. Right now we have ample planting moisture at the very moment it is putting us off to a fine start in the food and feed for victory program.

Speaking of weather, the city is glad to see it rain. Until last week water consumption was running about a million gallons daily above normal due to requirements at the army flying school site, the T. & P. railroad, and watering of lawns and gardens.

We have lived longer than we ever thought we would — namely to see a city vote unanimously on any question. That 210-0 margin given water and sewer bonds on a re-vote last Wednesday is truly remarkable.

Things happened in a hurry the latter part of the week when announcement was made of a contract school to be located north of here for pre-flight training in connection with a glider program at Lamesa and at other points.

USO needs your dollars to reach its quota this week. Fine progress has been made toward a goal which is three times what it was a year ago, and a little more help from all those who have forgot to have a part until now will mean the quota raised.

Farm Security Administration reported last week that the total amount outstanding in three counties to 149 active accounts was $89,000, despite the fact $30,000 was loaned out since last July.

Two new deep oil tests are being launched for this area, one in Borden and one in Martin county.

Not that attendance at a program is a fair test, but the consistent failure of first voters to show up at these "I Am an American Day" affairs in their honor makes one pause and think, if by chance, it is a measure of their interest in their right of franchise.

Guys Who Know Say: There Ain't Gonna Be Any Rubber Soon

AKRON, Ohio, May 23 (AP) — America, here it is, straight from the horse's mouth: You can forget all about tires, golf balls, tennis balls, hot water bags and anything else made out of rubber until at least 1944—because there just is not going to be any.

That is what the men who know told correspondents on the National Association of Manufacturers "production for victory" tour of war industries—men like Harvey Firestone, Jr., of Firestone, Thornton G. Graham of Goodrich, F. W. Littlefield of Goodyear, and William O'Neill of General.

They know a lot more about rubber than anybody in Washington and they held out not the slightest hope of relaxing any of the rubber restrictions for the rest of 1942 and all of 1943.

But—they said—the whole industry is going to bat to make all of the tires, tread, insulating wire and anything else the army, navy and air force need.

A great deal of the facts and figures they gave are and must remain military secrets. If you were told how many tons of crude rubber have been allocated for use as tires for armored cars or treads for tanks in 1943, German agents might figure out how many of these war weapons we are planning to produce.

The best that can be said is that the majority is going to help the United Nations fight the axis, and that the average American hasn't a prayer for a new set of tires or a dozen golf balls or even a balloon for little Johnny.

Project Officer For Air School Here Announced

The army's project officer during construction of the advanced flying school in Big Spring has been named, and he will assume duties Monday.

He is Lieut. Col. John W. White, being sent here from the Midland Army Flying school, where he has been director of flying. Announcement from Midland said that Colonel White will become director of training here upon completion of the school. Colonel White, it is understood, already has made arrangements for a residence in the city.

Thirty Miles Of Co-op Line Up

Thirty miles of line have been strung on the Caprock Electric Cooperative B section, O. B. Bryan, superintendent, reported Saturday.

The loop with wire in place is northward from Lenorah in Martin county to Tarzan and above. Poles are in place for filling in gaps around Courtney community and for a small spot in Midland county, and swing around south to the Lomax community in Howard county.

Bryan estimated that poles were either up or holes dug for 70 miles. Monday the pole crew will move in north of Brown and push northward toward the Dawson county line.

Meanwhile, preparations are being made to transfer the REA headquarters from here to Stanton, said Bryan. The office is to be moved next Saturday and open in Stanton the following Monday morning.

Amarillo Defense Area Expanded

DALLAS, May 23 (AP) — The Amarillo, Tex., defense-mental area, originally designated as Potter county, was extended today to include Randall county, the office for emergency management announced.

The Amarillo area was one of six whose size was increased by Price Administrator Leon Henderson because of expanding war activities and construction of additional army camps.

Sheepherders Far From Ration News

ALBUQUERQUE, May 23 (AP) — J. B. Graybe, gray-bearded shepherd, came to town for his regular supplies.

"And some sugar," he told the grocer.

"Your ration card please."

"What's that?" was the puzzled response.

News travels slowly in the hills where the sheep are.

Russians Withdraw Troops From Kerch Peninsula

Moody Would Have Pappy Peddle Flour

Ex-Governor Opens Campaign For Senate Place

TAYLOR, May 23 (AP)—From a platform in the town in which he was born, Dan Dan Moody, candidate for the United States senate, tonight suggested that Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel should be returned to the flour business.

In the first stump speech of his campaign—moved from the city hall lawn to the high school auditorium because of unfavorable weather—Moody attacked O'Daniel as a man without qualification for the office.

"Many men have more qualifications than I have, but I am willing to match mine against theirs and let the voters make the decision," Moody asserted.

The audience sat attentively through the speech, which was not interrupted by applause until he lambasted O'Daniel.

He attacked O'Daniel's senate vote to "disband the trained army and send it home just a few days before Pearl Harbor" and the senator's opposition to construction of a pipeline from Texas to the Atlantic seaboard.

"Why does a man utterly unqualified to hold the office of senator seek to return to it?" he asked. The only answer that I can visualize is that he wants the salary."

Moody declared that in his opinion O'Daniel, a man who lived in Texas nearly 15 years before he thought enough of his responsibilities as a citizen to qualify to vote "should never have left the flour business."

Moody was introduced by M. B. Conoley, Taylor civic leader, as a man who can meet the qualities of courage demanded in times of emergency.

Construction Of Amusement Projects Halts

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — The war production board today ordered that all construction of public amusement projects, such as race tracks, theaters and baseball parks be stopped by June 6, and warned that "other kinds of non-essential construction may be halted by subsequent orders."

In many instances where work is halted by the government, WPB will take immediate steps to requisition the materials and equipment left on the job.

East Getting Only Half Enough Oil

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — Available transportation methods are carrying only half as much oil to the east as is needed, Representative Mansfield said on a Texas Forum of the Air program prepared for Sunday broadcast.

While the railroads are doing a good job, their services must be supplemented by additional pipeline and barge facilities, he declared.

Five Marine Corps Privates Honored

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — Five marine corps privates decorated by the army for bravery at Corregidor, won their recognition for rescuing wounded comrades under fire, the navy announced today.

The five awarded the silver star included Lloyd T. Durbin, Tyler, Texas.

Posts Bond In Shooting Case

LUBBOCK, May 23 (AP)—D. G. Boyce, 45, posted $3,000 bail after pleading innocent to an assault with intent to murder charge filed today by Sheriff Ed Hofusack of Hockley county in the shooting last night of John L. Perry, 18.

Perry is in a critical condition in a Littlefield hospital.

Kharkov Battle See-Saw Affair

Russian troops have withdrawn from the Kerch peninsula in the eastern Crimea after fighting bravely for days against the crushing weight of the Germans, Moscow announced today, and on the Kharkov front a million men continued a bloody battle for the initiative, the Germans throwing strong tank forces into the fray.

A Russian communique said the withdrawal had been accomplished "in full order" and that both troops and equipment were evacuated. With their occupation of the peninsula, the Germans were separated from the Caucasian lands which they covet only by the narrow Straits of Kerch.

The German triumph left the long-beleged garrison at Sevastopol the only Russian defenders in the Crimea, and Sevastopol itself was being subjected to increased pressure. The Russians made no mention of losses on the Kerch Peninsula. Several days ago the German high command claimed that 150,000 prisoners had been taken there.

The Russian armies battling at the gates of Kharkov consolidated new positions in the face of heavy tank and infantry counter-attacks and broke up a new counter-attack, the midnight communique said.

The Germans claimed to have regained the initiative at Kharkov, and although the Russians denied this, the communique indicated that the two sides both were a give-and-take proposition with the final outcome still in the balance.

The scene was one of wild confusion with each side hurling all the armaments of their arsenal into a campaign of bloody and stubborn attrition. Whatever the outcome of the battle — and it was one of the world's greatest — the fact emerged that Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's bold attack had at least upset the German dream of an easy spring drive into the oil-rich Caucasus.

Elsewhere in the world at war, action was limited. The Chinese, who said they killed perhaps 12,500 Japanese who landed on Chuan-shih Island at the mouth of the Min river in Fukien province, withdrew to designated positions. In other sections of vast China, the Japanese fought inconclusively to extend their conquests of five years.

A Berlin report of a French fleet built around a battleship being at large in the Mediterranean appeared to be baseless axis propaganda.

The RAF returned to the attack on Europe's second front, blasting the Nazi submarine net at St. Nazaire. German battleships along the occupied French coast shelled the channel. From Australia, Allied bombers crippled two more Japanese ships and destroyed or damaged 13 planes. Bombers from India raided a Japanese air base at Akyab in conquered Burma.

Mexico moved decisively toward war on the axis after two of her ships had been sunk. The African front was quiet, and in France and Greece 20 more hostages were shot down by the Nazis.

The reich minister of food and agriculture, Richard Walther Darré, developed one of those mysterious German illnesses and took a long leave of absence, within a few days after Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering had acknowledged a crop failure.

Consolidation Of Schools Defeated

Consolidation of Chalk and Forsan schools in southern Howard county was defeated by vote of Chalk residents Saturday.

Chalk voted against the merger, 49 to 48. Forsan favored the consolidation, but exact vote was not learned.

'We're Going To Make It,' Says County USO Chairman

"We can make it; and we're going to stay with it until we do make it,"

This was the word Saturday from County Chairman Ben LeFever as the second annual United Service Organizations drive cut into the last thousand of a $4,200 quota.

Saturday evening incomplete reports showed $2,500 raised on the quota, leaving $900 yet to go.

"We still have many units yet to report complete," declared the chairman. "We are within striking distance and we urge everybody who is working to exert that little extra effort to get over the top. Those who have not been given an opportunity to contribute may leave their donations at the USO desk in the chamber of commerce office."

One of the most heartening examples of giving came from the Moore community. Under the direction of Jerome Lusk, a committee Saturday went to work on residents of that area as they came to town, and had raised just a few cents in less than 24 hours.

All but four men in the community had been contacted.

Investigation Of Medical School Secret

Regents Refuse To Divulge Prospects Of Reorganization

GALVESTON, May 23 (AP)—The secrecy shrouding University of Texas regents' asserted show-down inquiry into the disension-embroiled medical branch lifted momentarily today when the board declared removal of the school to another location was not an issue.

At a press interview, the regents asserted it would be premature to express any opinion regarding dismissal or retention of Dean John W. Spies, center of a months-long controversy, or other members of the faculty, some of whom have opposed the dean's policies.

The board made it plain that it was not considering a new location for the medical branch since the school was placed in Galveston by virtue of an amendment to the state constitution.

Members said they had not discussed vesting more authority in University President Homer P. Rainey or Spies, the latter of whom recently complained he lacked sufficient power to deal with elements assertedly causing conditions which have kept the state institution in a state of recurrent turmoil.

"It is the intention of the board to call all the available witnesses and develop all the testimony in regard to the controversy at Galveston," the board stated formally, "and after we have arrived at a definite conclusion, a formal statement will be issued to the public."

The regents reiterated their intention to complete the investigation at the current meeting and disclose the information, it probably would consume several days.

Neither of the first two witnesses, Dr. Spies and Dr. Donald Dunoan, would comment on their testimony to the board when they emerged from the conference room.

Saving Of Wool Is Under Study

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — The war department named a committee of experts today to study ways of saving wool "without deviating seriously" from the army's existing standards for clothing and equipment.

The committee will study the possibility of saving wool "without deviating seriously" from the army's existing standards for clothing and equipment.

Some U-Boat Captains Kind, Others Cruel

16 was abandoned, but later righted itself and was towed to a gulf port.

Thirty-six persons met death aboard the American vessel sunk May 19, the worst disaster yet reported in the gulf attacks which began 18 days ago and which have caused the loss of nine ships and 144 lives, with damage to two other ships.

Although set afire instantly, listing and abandoned by the remainder of the crew after 21 persons were burned to death or fatally burned, the ship attacked May 16 in the gulf later righted itself and was towed into a gulf port.

A U-boat commander dipped the nose of his craft to lift an injured seaman above water to allow his shipmates to save him, the captain of the ship that went down in the Caribbean May 13 declared.

Then the commander called out in broken English: "You can think Mr. Roosevelt for this. I am sorry."

A different story was told by Robert Emmett Kelly of Philadelphia who said when his ship was sunk last January the submarine crew members shot survivors with rifles as they struggled in the water.

Thirty-three died, some crushed by the ship's propeller, others by shots in the water and still others of starvation or suicide before being rescued after the sinking near Panama.

Two hundred and ten merchant ships have been sunk by submarines in the Atlantic area since the war's beginning.

Bob Hope, Madeleine Carroll Offer New High In Fun In 'My Favorite Blonde'

Fun Film Plays At Ritz Today And Monday

Bob Hope's pictures are getting to be events with the vast legion of the radio-film entertainer's fans. But "My Favorite Blonde," Sunday-Monday offering at the Ritz theatre, is hailed as more than that. Advance notices call it the tops in laugh hits.

Hope's co-star is blonde, beautiful and terrific Madeleine Carroll who proves herself a superlative comedienne. Bob sails his gags across and Madeleine bats them back with a speed that makes the audience limp. Laugh piles on laugh and thrill piles on thrill without pause in this latest, fastest and funniest of the Hope's pictures.

Madeleine, as a gorgeous British secret agent with a horde of German spies on her heels, touches off the fun when she ducks into the stage door of New York's Paramount theatre. Bob, as Larry Haines, a ham vaudeville whose partner, Percy, the Penguin (more about Percy later), gets all the applause, is just coming off stage. In a screamingly funny sequence, too devious to detail here, Bob gets mixed up with Madeleine and the spies and starts for Hollywood with the German agents in furious pursuit.

The rest of the picture is a chase that makes the Keystone Kops of blessed memory look like helmeted turtles. Bob gets himself charged with murder, robbery, wife-beating and misrepresentation. He steals an oil tank, an airplane, a bus and a hearse. He spends one night with Madeleine on a roof and another in a freight car. Finally justice triumphs and the wicked spies, headed by a sinister, black-garbed Gale Sondergaard, are outwitted. It might be added that the final outwitting was the work of neither Hope nor Madeleine but rather of Percy, the Penguin.

Percy is a personality. He permeates in and out of the picture with invariably hilarious effect. There is a scene in a Pullman car where he wanders out of Bob's upper berth, clad in pajamas and slippers, and throws the passengers into no end of excitement. Then there is the scene where the spies have Hope trussed up in a coffin and are staging a funeral. Percy wanders after the cortege, tipping off the cops that the corpse isn't as dead as appearances would indicate. That's when Percy saves the day. As a scene-stealer, Percy out-Hopes Hope.

Three's A Crowd—But the skeleton doesn't seem to be particularly interested in Adele Longmire and Regis Toomey. If all happens as they uncover a nest of killers in the thrill-show at the Queen today and Monday, "Bullet Scars."

Synthetic Rubber, Gasoline Materials May Be Recovered By Same Process

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—The Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) has worked out a process by which basic materials for synthetic rubber and better aviation gasoline can be recovered simultaneously from petroleum, and calls it "the biggest development since we began experimenting with synthetics."

The new process was announced on the heels of a recommendation by Jesse Jones, secretary of commerce, that America's synthetic rubber goal be boosted to 1,000,000 tons a year from a scheduled 800,000.

"This process may double or triple the capacity of the plants that are now being built to produce materials for artificial rubber," President W. S. Farish of Standard said yesterday in describing the new technique, worked out by scientists of the Standard Oil Development Co., a technical subsidiary.

Robert P. Russell, vice president of the development company and a key man in the discovery, said it could be used by refiners using the fluid catalytic or alkylation process with very little change in equipment.

Farish said the details had been made available to the federal petroleum co-ordinator and other government agencies, and would be available generally under the U. S. oil industry's patent licensing plan.

It was emphasized, however, that any increased output would not be sufficient to mean tires for the average motorist at least for the present.

Machine Shop Class Is Open At A&M

The Big Spring office of the United States Employment Service is trying to find applicants interested in machine shop training for a class to be conducted at A. & M. college starting June 5. Men 18 to 60, physically able to do this type of work, who are not immediately subject to selective service, who have had mechanical experience of any type and who are interested in attending the class should apply at the local office of USES at 105 1-2 Main street.

No tuition will be charged. The course runs approximately 12 weeks and expense to trainees will be around $5 for text books, and board and room for about $30.

Two From Colorado Go Into Aviation

COLORADO CITY, May 22.—Colorado City soon continue to take the slogan "Keep 'em Flying" personally. Two of them have this week been accepted as flying cadets.

Dick Lowe Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jones who live on the Jones ranch near Vincent, will train for the army air corps at Lubbock where he has been attending Texas Tech.

Edward Beale, who was given a furlough immediately after his recent enlistment in the air corps, will report to Randolph Field June 8.

Security Office To Obtain Death Proof On Military Men

Arrangements are being made by the Social Security Board to obtain proper proof of death for individuals who died when serving in the armed forces, announced Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Big Spring field office of the board. This plan is to enable prompt settlement of the claims of survivors under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program.

"When such deaths occur in the United States, the usual proofs provided by statements of undertakers, physicians, or registrars of vital statistics are preferred," Adams said. "If death occurs outside the United States, proof may be established by letters of condolence sent by the heads of the respective military departments to the next of kin or by official reports of death which the war and navy department and the marine corps have agreed to furnish to the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance."

Adams said that the board will no longer request federal departments engaged in war work to provide information from their records in regard to proof of birth for claimants. This is because of the increasing pressure of war work on the army, navy, state and other governmental departments. In addition some of these departments have been or may be moved from Washington to other cities.

Mexico Moves Nearer To War With Axis Nations

Defensive Preparations Are Made

MEXICO CITY, May 23. (AP)—Mexico moved decisively closer to war with the axis tonight and President Manuel Avila Camacho prepared a long list of measures to place the nation on a defensive war footing.

Congress is expected to be called next week—probably Thursday—formally to declare war on Germany, Italy and Japan in a move that would place every country in north America in battle against the axis. It would be the first declaration of war in Mexico's history.

All property of enemy nationals is expected to be seized. Troops already were reported moving to strategic zones to protect railway bridges, tunnels, communication lines, war factories, airfields, oil fields and pipelines. The oil wells on the Gulf and Pacific coasts are expected to be submarine shelling such as axis U-boats have directed against the Dutch installations at Curacao in South America.

The fields have been under strict military control since Mexico ruptured relations with the axis shortly after Pearl Harbor.

Small detachments of troops marched through the streets two or three policemen stood before important axis establishments. The capital was tense but orderly.

Highway Dept. Gives Leaves For Men Going Into Army

AUSTIN, May 23 (AP)—An order of the state highway commission authorizes leaves of absence for engineers and technicians who enter the direct employ of the U. S. corps of engineers, regardless of whether they serve in uniform or as civilian workers.

"It is the desire of the highway department to share its technical force with the corps of engineers as needed to give full effect to the war effort," the order stipulated.

Already the department, the state's biggest, has lost 15 per cent of its technical and engineering personnel to the armed forces of the nation and 23 per cent to civilian defense or war activities.

Officials said the order extends action previously taken offering full compliance with the selective service act which stipulates that employes entering the armed services be given jobs upon their return at a salary equal to or better than received when they departed.

Livestock Diseases To Be Discussed At Garden City

GARDEN CITY, May 23.—Dr. L. B. Boughton of the ranch experiment station at Sonora will be at the courthouse in Garden City Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock to make a talk to the ranchmen of Glasscock county.

Dr. Boughton will discuss some of the common livestock diseases and some suggestive methods for detection and control of these diseases. The talk will be informal, and will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

County Agent Berry Duff, who arranged the meeting, is urging all ranchmen to attend and clear up their stock-disease problems.

Canning Center To Be Opened At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, May 23.—A community canning center will begin operation in Colorado City June 20 for the benefit of Mitchell county families during the canning season.

Three large canning units with a capacity of processing 50 cans each have been installed in a downtown building. The project is being sponsored by the Home Economics group, a food-for-defense organization, with the cooperation of the city and county.

In return for use of the equipment each family will donate 20 per cent of the food brought in to fill cans, furnished by the city and county, to be distributed to WPA lunch rooms.

The Home Economics group will furnish trained supervisors who will, with assistants, direct the use of equipment. The center will operate from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. five days a week.

Members of the supervisor group are Mrs. Jack Sanders, Mrs. F. C. Shillingburg, Mrs. J. D. Williams, Mrs. W. H. Toney, Miss Frances Epps, Miss Beth Gullede, Miss Vera Crippen, Mrs. J. Ralph Lee and Mrs. C. A. Horton.

General Showers Bring Cheer To Section

Solons Agree On $42 As Private's Pay

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Rejecting proposals to set the lowest pay in the fighting forces at $50 monthly, a senate-house committee today agreed on a $42 minimum.

This, the figure approved by the senate, is exactly double the $21 a month now paid army privates and navy seamen when they first enter the services.

While the house voted for a $50 minimum, Chairman May (D-Ky) of the house military committee said he expected the joint committee's decision to win house approval.

Both the senate and house must ratify the committee's action. If President Roosevelt then signed the legislation, the pay boost would become effective one month later.

Legislators said they were uncertain whether the raise would apply to the women's army auxiliary corps.

In addition to increasing the pay of enlisted men, the measure would boost the base pay of second lieutenants in the army and marine corps and ensigns in the navy from $1,500 to $1,800 annually.

Rental and subsistence allowances for all officers also would be upped.

The committee agreed to make the pay adjustment permanent.

Mexican Army Ready For War

MEXICO CITY, May 23. (AP)—General Salvador Sanchez, chief of the Mexican army's general staff, said that "all measures have been taken" to meet a war crisis and other measures have been taken or are planned to put the nation on a full war footing.

This action followed fast upon the government's decision late last night to declare war on the axis.

The navy department has taken over all lighthouses and other aids to navigation to operate them in the interests of national security. Squads of troops patrolled the capital and other cities of the republic and General Sanchez said the army is now responsible for public order.

There's no place like home—for fires, says Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, but they can be prevented if you drive out the hazards.

Rain Falls At Ideal Time For Planting

Farmers, ranchers and even city officials wore smiles Saturday following the second general shower during the week.

From all over the area came reports that there was now sufficient planting moisture, and that only in isolated spots had the rain been hard enough to endanger young stuff or plantings not yet up.

The U. S. department of commerce weather bureau at the airport had .45 of an inch and the Catfish community had slightly more. Still farther to the west, Lomax community reported half an inch.

Immediately north of Big Spring the U. S. Experiment Farm gauge showed .90 of an inch, bringing its total for the week to 1.35. The Moore community, to the north and west, had an inch, and the territory in north of Fairview to the north county line generally reported an inch or more.

To the east reports ranged from little more than half an inch to an inch.

The rain was considered to have fallen at an ideal time for planting.

Verdant and dense sod together with the steady character of the rain did not result in a great abundance of run-off for tanks.

Neither city lake, said Frank Covert, in charge of the municipal property on Moss and Powell creeks, received any additional water in the basin, although there were good showers at the dams.

However, the mid-week shower, followed by the one Friday evening had relieved water demands on the city by about a million gallons a day.

Mrs. Doolittle Gets Fine Chinese Vase

QUINCY, Ill., May 23. (AP)—Mrs. James Doolittle will soon have a fine Chinese vase as a memento of her husband's air attack upon Tokyo.

Sam Wong, a Chinese restaurant owner, originally offered the vase or $1,000, its equivalent in cash, to the first American aviator who dropped a bomb on the Japanese city. When he learned that army regulations forbid soldiers to accept prizes, Wong proffered the vase to the wife of the brigadier general who led the raid.

Naval Fliers Reveal Destruction Of Ten Enemy Ships

(Editors Note) The following is a first-hand account of an attack by air units of the United States fleet on Japanese forces in New Guinea on March 10—a time between the battle of Measarak Strait and the battle of the Coral sea. Reference to the New Guinea action was contained in a navy communique issued at Washington on March 13.)

By WILLIAM HIPPLE

ABOARD A WARSHIP WITH THE U.S. PACIFIC FLEET (Delayed) (2)—Striking at Japanese forces attempting March 10 to establish bases in New Guinea, air forces of the U.S. fleet halted the move and destroyed or crippled 10 enemy vessels.

The action took the Japanese by surprise as they moved against the undefended ports of Salamaua and Lae. One officer reported "all except unimportant units were sought out and visited with sudden and very unpleasant destruction."

Two cruisers were destroyed by bombs dropped from planes of the Pacific fleet. Five transports were sunk, beached, or left ashore. One destroyed was blown up, another sunk and others damaged by smaller bombs and strafed by machine gun fire.

An auxiliary was listing heavily and sinking when last seen. A seaplane was destroyed by U.S. fighters. The attacking force also damaged or sunk many small boats and barges and inflicted high losses among enemy personnel.

Against all this damage the only loss to the U.S. force was a scout plane downed by anti-aircraft fire.

The action put the U.S. naval forces directly into the "hot corner" of the Pacific where the Japanese apparently were aiming at invasion of Australia and disruption of the American supply line to that continent.

Salamaua, only 430 miles from Australia, is a point from which raids could be made not only against Australia, but against the Australian outpost of Port Moresby in southern New Guinea.

One young U.S. flyer described the action as "a cinch, a dive-bomber's field day. The Jap ships were going crazy down there trying to get away," he said, "but we nailed them—and how!"

That morning all hands were at their battle stations. Aviators were studying their maps and figuring their navigation. The problem was to plan the attack in such a manner that each group of planes would arrive at the objective at exactly the proper time and be clear of the area when the next group arrived.

Suddenly from the bull horn, the voice of the air officer bellowed: "Pilots, man your planes!"

And after a short interim the final orders from the air officer came over the bull horn: "Go get 'em gang!"

Lusty cheers rang out from all hands and a moment later the first fighter was airborne.

It was a strange, thrilling sensation to sit there and listen by radio to our fliers as they dealt death and destruction to the enemy.

"There are two ships in Salamaua harbor," one pilot told another. "You take the first one. I'll take the second. Let's get 'em all. Turn loose. Give him hell."

Then a few seconds later, a calm, "you got him that time!"

"Get the destroyer on our left."

"Okay, let's go back again and get the enemy ship to the left. Okay."

"Attack cruiser! Attack cruiser! Boy, let's get it! Let's get it that Jap over there."

"Enemy about four miles out in the harbor. I'm going over."

"Let's take a look at these islands. Have you seen any aircraft?"

"I'm going to get that cruiser on the way down. I'm on the way down."

"Oh, boy, did he go up!"

"Who said that? Joe, see you okay?"

The planes were certainly having great success. Now and then progress of the attack was announced over the public address system. The crew members hailed, listened in tight silence, then cheered jubilantly.

Finally, we heard a speedboat leader call to his men: "Let's go home. Join up!"

The attack was over.

Memorial Day Rites Planned By VFW Post

Observance of Memorial Day on May 31 will be sponsored, as has been the custom for some years, by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post, it is announced by N. C. Dalton, adjutant.

Details for the program will be announced later, Dalton said, but the VFW unit will decorate the graves of all service men. He added that relatives of all ex-soldiers buried in the local cemetery mark those graves so that the VFW could mark these resting places appropriate ceremonies.

Dalton also reminded that May 30 will be observed as annual "Buddy Poppy" Day, and that the public's support is solicited. The poppies distributed by VFW members and their helpers are made by disabled ex-service men who are paid for their work. Money above the actual cost of the poppies is used for charitable purposes among the destitute of the community.

Bombers Lose Saturday Game After Thrilling Win Friday

Locals Open With Amarillo Here Today

The Johnson, big right-hander, will go to the mound at 2 p. m. today when the Big Spring Bombers open a series with Amarillo, after having dropped the final game to split with Lubbock's Rubbers here Saturday night.

Behind the two-hit pitching of Andy Rivich, the Rubbers ousted the Bombers, 5-1. Friday Big Spring had won a close one 4-3.

Castino was the big mofa for Lubbock Saturday night, bringing his mofa from behind in the sixth with a looping homer with Jenders aboard. He doubled down right field line in the seventh to score Stephenson and Jenders after Bill Evans, Bomber twirler, had let McLean home on a weak ball.

It was a heart-breaker. For after letting two on by him, Evans had struck out two men. As he prepared to pitch to Jenders, the ball slipped from his hand, and McLean was tagged home.

Brown singled and Rabe doubled to open the second for Big Spring, but Whetley was out, third to first. Bobby Savage, home town boy who played his first game with the Bombers Saturday evening, walked to fill the base, but Evans lined to Rivich who promptly doubled Brown off third to kill the threat.

The Big Spring run came off Whetley's walk in the fifth. He was safe when Savage's bunt was played to second, went to third on Evans' sacrifice and scored on Timmons' fly to center. Only once after that did as many as four Bombers get to bat in an inning.

Savage figured in as beautiful a play as has been seen hereabouts in many moons when he ran far to his right in fielding Knight's hard grounder in the sixth. He whipped it across with perfect lead to Evans who was crouching at full stride from pitcher's box to make the put out.

Timmons turned in an unassisted double play, taking Castino's liner in the ninth with the bases loaded and cutting off Rivich.

Cochrane To Manage Service All-Stars

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Mickey Cochrane, who piloted the Detroit Tigers, to the 1935 world championship, today was given the job of selecting and managing the all-star service baseball team which will play an all-star major league game in Cleveland July 7 for the benefit of the army and navy relief funds.

New Lieutenant Gordon Cochrane of the navy, the former Tiger manager was chosen by Colonel John Thomas Taylor of the war department, and Commander Gene Tunney, who is in charge of all navy sports activities.

Cochrane, who came to Washington from the Great Lakes naval training station for a conference, said he would pick a squad of 25 or more from the professional players now in the armed forces.

There's no question that Cochrane can put a great team on the field. To start with, he has three of the brighter stars of the game in Bob Feller, Cleveland's pitching ace now in the navy; Hank Greenberg, hard-hitting Detroit first baseman-outfielder; and Cecil Truitt, Washington shortstop and runner-up for the American league batting championship last year. Greenberg and Travis are in the army.

Here are some of the others Cochrane may call on:
Pitchers—Johnny Rigney (Chicago White Sox), Bill Posedel (Boston Braves), Porter Vaughan (Philadelphia Athletics), Hugh Mulcahy (Philadelphia Phillies), and John Grodzicki (St. Louis Cardinals).

Catchers—Ken Sylvester (New York Yankees), Don Padgett (St. Louis Cardinals) and Joe Grace (St. Louis Cardinals). Grace also has played outfield and infield.

Infielders—Henry (Cooks) Lavagetto (Brooklyn), Benny McCoy (Philadelphia Athletics), Johnny Strum (New York Yankees), George Archa, Johnny Lucadello and Johnny Berardino (St. Louis Browns), Al Brancato (Philadelphia Athletics).

Outfielders—Sam Chapman (Philadelphia Athletics), Buddy Lewis (Washington Senators), Pat Mullin (Detroit Tigers), Carvel (Bama) Powell (Boston Braves).

While Jordan was being purposely passed, he suddenly whacked at a pitch. Umpire Gunter flagged him out instead of allowing it to go as a hit because he believed Jordan had one foot out of the batter's box when he swung. When the runner died away, Brown lifted a high one to right and Martin was in after the catch in a close play.

Bowling Tourney Will End Today

The city bowling tournament definitely ends today, and all teams or individuals who haven't posted scores by time the alleys close will be out of the picture, Stanley Wheeler, tournament director, reminded last night.

Schlitz beer still holds the team lead with 3,195, while C. R. Anthony is second with 3,181 and R. B. theatres third with 3,068.

In doubles Ramsey and Douglass remain ahead with 1,358, Russ and Alexander second with 1,315 and Eason and Neville third with 1,281.

Howard Smith, first year high school bowler stands at 725 in the singles division with 75, McNallen second with 719 and Huff Peters third with 683. A representative of the women, Betty Vineyard, is fourth with 655.

Over-all scores leaders are McNallen with 2,017, Ramsey with 1,994 and Smith with 1,913.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23 (AP)—The country's war worried golf professionals, meet of whom have had their incomes cut in half already by the rubber and gasoline shortages, are preparing to engage in their annual financial strife at the Seaview country club next week.

Homer Gives Giants Win

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—A three-run homer by Billy Jurges paced the New York Giants to a 5-8 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers today behind the seven-hit pitching of Tom Sunkel, who registered his first triumph of the year.

In handling the National league leaders their third straight set, the Giants pinned the loss on starter Kirby Higbee, his fourth against two wins.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23 (AP)—A balk by John Sain sent Danny Murtaugh across the plate in the ninth inning to give the Phils a 5 to 3 victory over the Boston Braves today after the Braves scored two runs to tie the score in their half of the ninth. Murtaugh had singled and went to third on Nick Etten's double.

PITTSBURGH, May 23 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates nosed out Chicago in the eighth when Cully Lanning, pinch hitting for Johnny Lanning, singled to drive in two runs for a 5-4 victory today. The Cubs scored all four runs in the second off starting pitcher Bob Klinger.

ST. LOUIS, May 23 (AP)—Stan Musial hit a home run with two men on base in the seventh inning to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 6 to 3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today. The Reds used four hurlers, including Joe Baggus, who pitched only to Musial.

Friday Fans Saw Thriller By Bombers

Fans saw a thriller-diller Friday evening when the Bombers had to stage a desperate rally to reclaim a game that almost slipped from the grasp.

After blanking the Rubbers through seven frames, George Milstead weakened in the eighth as Stephenson doubled—the first hit of the game for more than one base—and Pitcher Helms singled him home and advanced to second on the throw. In Anton singled Helms home, but was called at second on Peterson's throw to Martin, who whipped it to Timmons for the kill.

The ninth frame, however, was the breath-taker. Still nursing a three-run lead, the Bombers shook when Altenburg opened with a double and Knight got the only walk. Milstead issued all night.

Shublin was out to right, but Surada's triple, which looked for a moment to have been snagged by Brown in left, scored Altenburg and Knight. Stephenson hit a roller to Jordan who promptly whipped it to Rabe, killing Surada coming home. Helms—he tried hard enough to win—singled in Stephenson. Anton singled to send Helms to third.

But here the Bombers for second on an attempted steal. Rabe whipped the ball to Milstead, who whirled it to Jordan to catch Helms off. Little Pepper Martin came through beautifully in the crucial spot, doubling to open for the Bombers in the ninth. Peterson was safe when Surada mishandled his warm grounder to second and then stole second.

While Jordan was being purposely passed, he suddenly whacked at a pitch. Umpire Gunter flagged him out instead of allowing it to go as a hit because he believed Jordan had one foot out of the batter's box when he swung. When the runner died away, Brown lifted a high one to right and Martin was in after the catch in a close play.

Timmons, a pitcher by trade who has been playing all over the infield for the Bombers, led local hitting with three bingles. Jordan had two, including a scratch infield fly. Martin's double was the only big Spring hit for more than one base. Sparking catches were made of Stephenson's liner in the third by Timmons and of Knight's drive to right by Peterson in the seventh.

Red Cross Golf Tourney Slated For Next Sunday

Adamson Wins State High School Baseball Event

DALLAS, May 23 (AP)—Adamson's Leopards of Dallas won the fifth annual state high school baseball tournament tonight, crushing favored Carthage 15-0.

Scoring four runs in the first inning and with Herbie Moore pitching his second low-kicker in two nights, the Leopards had little trouble with the heralded East Texans.

Again it was Hendrik Hollibaugh, rollicking shortstop, who led the way, his two-base blast in the initial inning setting off a scoring spree that shocked the Bulldogs and beat them before they could get started.

Each individual golf course over the country will conduct its own tournament under its own terms and competition will be only within the one course.

Both golf courses are in the best of shape, following good rains this week. Grass greens both at the Country Club and municipal course are in excellent condition, and fairways are also in good shape.

At Many, Akay announced that entry fee will be only 50 cents, all of which will go to Red Cross. Two certificates will be given, one to the medalist and one to the leader in the flag tournament.

Only one round will be played by each entrant.

Most Softball Teams To See Double Duty

All but the Radford Grocery team and the service club aggregation made up of ABCers and Lions will see double duty on this week's schedule of city softball league play.

Games are scheduled for Tuesday and Friday night. Tuesday, ABC-Lions meets the State Hospital ten at 7:30, and at 9:15, the Boy Scouts clash with the league leading W. O. W. team.

Friday's schedule includes Boy Scouts vs. State Hospital at 7:30, and W. O. W. vs. Radford at 9:15. The last event shapes up as the week's feature since it pits the two top teams.

Baseball Up Against Woe
CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Baseball's advisory council—Commissioner K. M. Landis and President W.H. Harridge of the American League and Ford Frick of the National league—came face to face today with two new major difficulties tossed up by the war.

Conferring here Monday in emergency session, the top men of baseball will tangle with a couple of matters as serious as the earlier war-imposed problems of selective service's inroads on player material and the extension of the player's limit deadline.

They must (1) unravel a transportation situation created by a ban on the night-time staging of the New York all-star game July 6, and (2) act on an Office of Defense Transportation request that different daily game times be arranged so homework-bound fans won't add already clogged transit facilities at peak traffic hours.

In both decisions the wishes of the United States government undoubtedly will dictate the final answer.

Rubber Shortage Or Not, Many Cars Still Being Used By School Pupils

Maybe of high school students don't read the newspapers, or then again maybe they don't believe what they hear about tire rationing, but whatever the cause, finals, dates, history notebooks and the like are the biggest worries the students seem to have.

Some of our owners by actual count, and nearly all of whom live within walking distance of school, are still plunging down the hill at rubber wearing speed before school, at noon and at 4 o'clock.

World events that are shaking households from coast to coast like the shortages and possible gasoline rationing haven't made a dent yet in their consciences.

Before the lack of rubber had folks worrying, the high school students drove their cars to school each day. Now that car owners know they are riding on their last rubber tires—students are still driving their cars to school each day.

Maybe this is a last gesture of independence before gasoline is doled out, maybe each student has space in the garage, or they again maybe they refuse to believe rubber is gone until the thing is proved.

Doctor Posts Bond In Slaying Case

BUENOS AIRES, May 23. (AP)—Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron was released on $50,000 bond and his wife on $40,000 bond after waiving a preliminary hearing before Justice of Peace S. J. Farquhar today in connection with charges of assault and intent to murder Dr. Roy Hunt, Littlefield physician.

Dr. Hunt's condition was described as "slightly better" this afternoon. He was shot twice in the body Thursday morning when he answered a call to the roadside near Littlefield.

Seniors To Hear Rev. O'Brien At City Auditorium Tonight

Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist church, will deliver the senior sermon this evening, as Big Spring high school graduates gather for the devotional feature of their year-end exercises. The program will be at the municipal auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Rev. O'Brien will speak on "The Science Of The Cross."

Supt. W. C. Blankenship will preside, and following the invocation by Rev. R. Elmer Dunham of the East Fourth Street Baptist church, the choir and congregation will join in the doxology. A hymn by the choir will precede the Scripture reading by Rev. Homer W. Haislip of the First Christian church, and the choir will sing an anthem before Rev. O'Brien's message.

Benediction by Rev. Ernest E. Orton of the Nazarene church, responses by choir and congregation and the recessional will conclude the program. Irby Cox will direct the music and Mrs. C. W. Norman will be accompanist.

at the morning services at the Church of the Nazarene. The Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed with Rev. Thomas Ahern assisting the pastor. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Orton will sing "Living For Jesus."

There will be no evening services because of the high school commencement program and Wednesday evening's prayer service will be dispensed with because of graduation exercises.

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 24.

The Golden Text is: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42:11). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (II Corinthians 5:8).

Regular hours will be observed Sunday morning at the Main Street Church of God, but all services are to be dismissed during the evening so that the congregation may join in the senior sermon, said the Rev. R. E. Bowden, pastor.

Back from a successful meeting at Enid, Okla. he speaks in the morning on "What Can One Man Do?"

The 11 a. m. service at First Presbyterian church will honor Presbyterian high school seniors. "A Spiritual Lesson from Physical Crosses" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. O. L. Savage, and Cornelia Fraser will sing. At the evening hour services will be dismissed because of the baccalaureate sermon at the city auditorium.

A men's meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. Hubert Hopper, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Midland, as speaker.

"The Vine And The Branches" will be the sermon topic of Rev. J. D. Holt, pastor, for the 11 a. m. service at the North Nolan Street Mission.

B.T.U. will meet at 7:30 p. m.

Forty-Two Navy Patrol Bombers Dwindle To Two, But Japanese Paid Dear Price

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Forty-two navy patrol bombers battling from a base in the Philippines; two left 90 days later in Australia.

The navy told today, in the language of the men and officers who did the fighting, how its Patrol Wing 10 fought the PBY flying boats against swarms of Japanese Navy Zero fighters. Six out of seven of the squadron's personnel survived, but Patrolwing 10 (the navy's designation for the unit) was disbanded in Australia.

"Some times they'd knock over a Jap Zero, and some times the Zero would knock over the PBY. But there were lot more Zeros than there were PBY's and the thinning out was continuous," the navy explained.

Men of Patrolwing 10, the navy said, "flew into hell and some times flew out again, but more often they swam out, or crawled into the steaming jungle with Japanese machine gun bullets kicking up flurries in the beach sand."

The account of Patrolwing 10 started on the morning of December 8—December 7 this side of the International Date-line.

Told that Japanese warships were 150 miles off Luzon on the day of the Pearl Harbor attack, ships of the wing flew down on the enemy from the sun and dumped tons of bombs, then headed back for their base at Cavite. But that base had been fired and the wing was forced to ditch. Chief Machinists Mate Mike Kelly of Mendham, N. J., said:

"The Japs finally hunted our bases down and we went to another base, and still another, moving south all the time, still patrolling but each night coming home to roost at a new position."

On one occasion, Kelly said, six of the wing took off for what seemed to be a perfect setup—a Japanese cruiser, some destroyers and transports, reported to be without fighting protection. They found the vessels — but Japanese fighter planes were hiding high in the sky.

"They started to dive on us, but we kept on our course and went in to bomb the vessels below," Kelly reports. Another group of bombers already had attacked. Anti-aircraft guns were barking. One plane in Kelly's section went down. The other two escaped.

Not so with the other section of the flight. All were shot down. But luck held for some of the latter. John Cumberland, aviation chief machinists mate, Selma, Kas., told of one of the ships going down. "We plugged up the shell holes in the boat," he said, "and floated for 80 hours before we were picked up."

On another occasion, a bomber piloted by Machinists Mate C. Richardson, Savannah, Ga., was attacked by nine Japanese fighters after it landed in the water. There were over 700 holes shot in the ship but Richardson was wounded only in the hand and leg.

Lieutenant (J.G.) H. R. Swanson, Stockton, Calif., and J. S. Clark, aviation machinists mate, Fairhope, Ala., said their plane was tied up at Bataan peninsula because a motor had burned out. On Christmas morning they were ashore when two Japanese planes spotted their bomber.

Swanson told of hearing all guns on his ship answering enemy fire. "We crept closer so we could see what was happening. Just then the bow gun stopped firing. We figured whoever had been manning it had been hurt x x x we went in to the plane through a hatch and got the surprise of our lives. There was just one man in the plane — mechanic, Roland Foster. He'd been firing all the guns himself."

Foster, of Harvey, N. D., also had been fighting a fire between loading his guns. The enemy was driven off.

Because their planes were wrecked, some of the Patrolwing 10's men and officers went to Bataan to fight as ground forces but the bulk of the wing worked southward. "Some of the men were kept busy detecting Jap convoys through Turkey Lane — Macassar Straits to the layman. Some of them stalked Jap task forces," the navy said.

Then Japanese fighter groups began following bomber home from patrol and attacking them on the water. The crews would man their guns until the fire got too hot. Then they'd jump into the water and swim ashore. The Japs after potting at the swimmers until their ammunition or fuel ran low, would turn about and leave.

The patrol wing finally reached Port Darwin, where it maintained regular patrols until February 1943.

Family Saved Off Sinking Ship

NEW ORLEANS, May 23 (AP)—The near miraculous saving of a Texas family of four from aboard a medium sized American merchant ship sunk in the Gulf of Mexico May 19 with loss of 36 lives, the worst ship disaster yet reported in the gulf, became known here today.

The family was Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Downs and their children, Raymond Downs, Jr., and Betty Lucille Downs, 11, of San Antonio, whose courage was praised by the few surviving seamen who helped to unite them after separate rescues.

Carl J. Leclerc of Daney, Mo., reported the eleven-year-old girl swimming about as calmly "as you please" after the ship went down. He put a life preserver on her and swam a half mile where he obtained a plank on which he placed the girl.

The parents and son got clear on a life raft and eventually were united aboard a rescuer's fishing boat.

"Those kids could sure take it," a seaman reported. "Not once did they show they were very scared or raise a ruckus of any sort."

The family was en route to San Antonio from a Central American city.

Crash Of Bomber Takes Five Lives

TACOMA, Wash., May 23 (AP)—Five airmen were killed today when an army bomber crashed and burned on nearby McChord Field. The air corps said the plane was on a routine flight.

It was the sixth bomber crash in the Pacific northwest this month with a total loss of life of 20.

YOU MAY NOT BE ABLE TO FIGHT...

BUT YOUR DOLLARS CAN!

Today, Americans are dying so that America — your free America — can live. The men in our armed forces are out there fighting every inch of the way... fighting for your right to the freedom for which this nation stands... freedom the axis hordes would take away! Our fighting men need more planes, more tanks, more guns... they must have more and better weapons than our enemies have, if America is to smash through to Victory! We can... we will... we must provide them.

WAR STAMPS AND BONDS give each one of us an opportunity to help win the war... an American way to find the billions needed for Victory. Every Stamp and Bond you buy will help our boys at the front... and keep the sides over America clear of Axis raiders. And remember, your government guarantees that your money will come back to you with interest, as much as $4 for every $3 when Bonds are held to maturity. Send more of your fighting dollars out to win the war. Give our boys in uniform a hand!

Missionary Is Guest Speaker At Mother Daughter Banquet

Miss Eva Sanders Of Nigeria Makes A Talk On Carrying The Great Commission To Africa, YWA Group Is Host At Event

Miss Eva Sanders, returned missionary from Nigeria, was guest speaker for the Mother-Daughter banquet held Friday night at the First Baptist church by the Y.W.A. group. Miss Sanders talked on "Three Ways of Applying the Great Commission to Nigerian Needs."

Much of the missionary's talk dealt with Lucille Reagan, Big Spring missionary and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Reagan, who spent her life as a missionary in Nigeria and whose death occurred there some years ago.

A display of curios included a 11 foot boa snake skin, Hols, women's costumes and jewelry, grass mats and leather purses, all brought from Nigeria. Miss Sanders also presented a Nigerian doll made of wood to Miss Ann Attaway as the youngest daughter present at the banquet. Evelyn Eppier acted as toastmaster and the program was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Harrison. Lucille Reagan and Jeanne Emery, accompanied by Mrs. Inez Ewa Jean Attaway gave a toast to the mothers and Mrs. F. D. O'Brien had a toast to the daughters. Jeanne Emery also gave a total piano number, "Shepherd's Song."

The Rev. O'Brien gave a toast to the Y. W. A. Mrs. W. J. Alexander produced the guest speaker. The table was arranged in the Victory shape and three dots in a dash. YWA colors of blue and white were used throughout the decorations. Members of the Women's Missionary League were in charge of the meal serving were Mrs. M. E. Harris, Mrs. C. T. Clay, Mrs. C. J. High School Seniors Complimented With A Banquet At The Church

East 4th St. Baptist Gives Colonial Dinner For Graduates; Lamesa Man Is Guest Speaker At Friday Night Event

Thirty-eight senior students were honored by their church with a Colonial banquet Friday night at the East 4th St. Baptist church. Guest speaker was Stansel Clements of Lamesa who talked on "Planning of Life."

Enthusiastic groups who attended voted to make the banquet an annual event. Guests entered the room through an arch of roses and old fashioned mixed bouquets in crystal baskets were spaced down the tables. Pink and white tapered lighted the tables. Programs and menus were hand-painted with pink and white roses and a silhouette of a graduate.

Newlyweds Visit His Parents In Coahoma
 Ensign and Mrs. George M. Boswell, Jr., are visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Boswell of Coahoma following their marriage last Sunday in Waxahachie.

Mrs. Boswell is the former Mary Middleton, daughter of Mrs. Robert Stewart Middleton of Waxahachie. The marriage took place at 8:30 o'clock in the Middleton home with the Rev. F. Homer Tregler, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, reading the ceremony. Harold Boswell of Coahoma attended his brother.

Ensign Boswell received his commission with the U. S. naval reserve at the Naval Reserve Midshipman's school, Northwestern University, Chicago, on May 14th. He is assigned to active duty with the U. S. fleet and is to report soon to the west coast.

Mrs. Boswell was graduated from Waxahachie high school, at North Texas State Teachers college, Denton, with a major in homemaking education, B. S. degree. Ensign Boswell was graduated from Coahoma high school and received his B. S. degree from Texas Tech. Take A Listen Girls, Here's What Some Of The Boys Have To Say About Our Slacks, Fashion;

(Editor's Note: We asked some of our most dashing male celebrities to comment on women's fashions and makeup. Here's the result:

FRED ALLEN (Stage, Screen, Radio): "In this open-toed, wedgy-wacky world, nothing I could say about women's fashions or makeup would help the sartorial nightmare. A battalion of men could shout protests 24 hours a day in 4-hour shifts over every radio station in the country and the girls would continue to paste on thread eyebrows, celluloid fingernails and silk fringe eyelashes with all the enthusiasm of a man sticking one-cent stamps on a ten dollar parcel post package."

GUY LOMBARDO (Orchestra Leader): "I think tall women should dress 'tall'—wear high hats with tall feathers if they feel like it and high-heeled shoes. If short women try to look tall and vice-versa—which seems to be the theory of some style writers—they'd all end up looking alike, and that would be monotonous."

TED HUSING (Radio Star): "I think there's a place for both the suave and the simple in feminine fashions. Simplicity during the day—sophistication at night. Summer prints with small hats or calots are attractive for daylight. By the same token, makeup should be sparing in daylight hours—daring at night."

FREDDIE MARTIN (Orchestra Leader): "I'll be honest. I've only become fashion-conscious since I started my engagement at the swank Waldorf-Astoria. One change I've noticed is a trend toward simplicity, less frills on hats, dresses and shoes. Of course I think it's important for women to look their best these days, and the new styles add rather than detract from their appearance."

BOB HAWK (How'm I Doin?): "If women would dress to please men instead of trying with each other they'd be a lot more attractive. Men like simple clothes that show off carriage, poise and figure. We don't like a lot of frills and folders that give a girl a figure nature never intended."

MARK WARNOW (Orchestra Leader): "If it's red, it's in the fashion grooves for me. From what I've seen, today's styles seem highlighted with torrid colors. Maybe it's the South American influence, maybe it's just that the ladies, bless 'em, are all out for morale-boosting and realize that bright colors are as good a way as any to lift the spirits."

PHIL BAKER (Comedian): "This freezing order on women's clothes leaves me cold! Do they mean to say that we've got to keep looking at the same goofy headgear the girls are wearing this spring for the duration? And what about those slacks, without enough slack to 'sm'? Of course, the skirt length is another matter—go on, ask me what I think about that. That's the $64 question."

OLE OLSON (Sons O' Fun): "I like more femininity and less masculinity in a woman."

LOU HOLTE (Stage - Screen Comedian): "I don't like a woman with a run in her stocking and I like 'em better in riding habits than any other costume."

WILLIAM GAXTON (Broadway and Hollywood): "I don't like them in slacks and I like them in negligees."

VICTOR MOORE (The Timid Soul of Comedy): "I would like to be sure it's a woman when she's walking down the street. I don't like short skirts on long women."

EDDIE DAVIS (Night Club Owner): "I don't think any girl can look like a fashion plate in a hat that looks like a blueplate. I like slacks on women like Katharine Hepburn but I don't like them on women like Mae West. Girls with curves look anything but nice when they retreat in trousers."

JACK DEMPSEY (Fistic Restaurateur): "Good colors, good lines, clothes so simple and smart they take on the personality of the wearer. The kind of clothes that make you say 'What a pretty girl' rather than 'What a pretty outfit!'"

ERRA STONE (Henry Aldrich): "I like my gals feminine, prefer fluffs and frills to uniformity. It's because I see so much of it in the Army and it's a relief to see a pretty girl dressed in completely feminine clothes."

W. E. Gibson is in Houston on business trip. He will return to the office Monday morning.

Miss Laneous Notes
By MARY WHALEY
Sunday school and school picnics used to be the highlight of our entertainment world when we were pig tail size. The gallons of lardonade, the piles of sandwiches and the dozens of hardboiled eggs that we consumed even amazed us. Now it floors our imagination.

On picnic day, the whole family was up and about a hour mightily early. The whole family was up and about a hour mightily early. The whole family was up and about a hour mightily early.

Picnic fare was made and put in huge baskets and wrapped in glassed paper. We even got sniffling enough once to get a picnic basket with a cover. Our job was to stuff the deviled eggs and an even amount of the stuffing went into the eggs and into us, so that our appetite for breakfast usually vanished.

Then we hurried, we were always late, and joined the crowd at the school house where the youngsters played hide and seek through the crowd, chased each other and generally added to the hubbub of getting on the special street cars.

The cars were made with long wooden seats that ran the length of the car, so our parents stowed us on the inside so they could enjoy the ride. We used to think if we ever grew up to be big enough to ride on the outside where you could defy fate by hanging more outside than in, then our world would be complete. However, this is another life-long ambition that we never accomplished. By the time we got grown up, the street car company was using the safer, boarded up cars.

At the picnic grounds we had races, which we always entered but never won, swung on the swings till we were dizzy, ate at tables loaded down with good food until we nearly popped, and finally had to be carried home too tired to take another step.

We looked forward to those picnics from year to year. Because of chiggers, too much lemonade and food, and a good case of sunburn, we always ended up sick but it never spoiled anticipation for the next picnic.

HD Reporters Plan Broadcast
The Howard county home demonstration club reporters association, in meeting Saturday afternoon, voted to sponsor a radio program on July 6 in form of a skit bringing out items of news or success stories in various clubs.

During the business hour Mrs. M. M. Fairchild was appointed recreational leader for the next meeting, June 27. The contest for subscriptions to the paper, which the association is sponsoring, was discussed.

Those present were Mrs. I. H. Severance, Coahoms; Mrs. Shirley Fryar, Hixby; Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, Overton; Mrs. C. R. Smith and Mrs. Paul Adams, Knott; and Fentilla Johnson, home demonstration agent.

Schools' Year-End Exercises Are Scheduled This Week

Seniors Will Get Diplomas On Wednesday

The public schools' part in winning victory and establishing a permanent peace will be the theme of the commencement exercises of the Big Spring high school of 1942, scheduled for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the municipal auditorium.

Principal address will be by Dr. C. L. Wiseman, associate professor of education, Southern Methodist University, whose topic will be "The Public School Adjusts for Victory and Peace," and Grover Cunningham, Jr., named in competition as the student speaker, will talk on "Our School Adjusts for Victory and Peace."

Diplomas will go to 140 seniors, with presentation by Ira Thurman, secretary of the school board. Special awards will be made by Principal J. A. Coffey.

Following the professional by Betty Farrar and the invocation by Rev. O. L. Savage of the Presbyterian church, Cornelia Frazier, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Frazier, will give a vocal solo. There will be an ensemble musical number preceding Dr. Wiseman's address. Benediction will be pronounced by Rev. H. C. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church and Wanda Don Reese will play the recessional.

Majority Of Local Grads Hope To Go Immediately Into Jobs

Only about 15 per cent of the 1942 senior class of Big Spring high school have immediate hopes of going to college and a mere 10 per cent or so more ever entertain any hopes continuing their scholastic training.

Most have intentions of going at once into productive service, or into training for specialized work. Briefly, these are the results of a survey conducted earlier in the season by John Coffey, high school principal, in a questionnaire incidental to checking on plans for members of the graduating class.

Twenty-three said they intended to go to college. Of this group, agriculture will claim one, and one each will go into pre-med, pre-law, and physical education training. Two each would take a fine arts, home economics and arts and science course. Three have their hearts on a business course, five on engineering, and five on nothing in particular. Sixteen others said they might go to college some day but had no definite plans.

Four of their classmates wanted to take beauty courses, five had their minds made up to train for nursing and three more were toying with the idea. Three were set to join the air corps, two the army, and 12 wanted to secure some business training.

A dozen and a half were all set for work of any type and 11 wanted to get into office work. Five each wanted to take postgraduate training and defense work, 21 were just flat out undecided.

But not one young miss. She definitely had a career in mind. "I'll take a Mrs. degree," she said sweetly.

Rev. Gerhart Speaker At Colorado

COLORADO CITY, May 23 (SpI) Commencement exercises marking the close of the 57th session of Colorado City high school were held in the high school auditorium Friday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Willis P. Gerhart, rector of the Church of Heavenly Rest in Abilene, delivered the commencement address.

Other numbers on the program were the professional march by the high school band directed by R. P. Rose; a flute solo by Martha Jane Watson; the salutatory, Jan Lee; piano solo by Mary Price; the valedictory, Harold Berman; a violin solo, Janis Brannon; and "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" played by the band.

Presentation of awards and diplomas was made by Frank Kelley, vice-chairman of the board of trustees. Eighty-three students received diplomas.

In addition to the two highest honor students, honorable mention was given for high scholastic standing to Mary Price, Ronald Pritchett, Frank London, Winston Gann, Ruth Woodell, Bill Coffey, Jr., Dorothy Womack, Luella Gaylor, Sue Hardegree, Verna Campbell, Edna Earle Haslewood, Craig Foster, May Dean McCordle, Marjorie Pickens, Dorothy Nell Moser, Thelma Brown, Bruce Nuckolls, Ida Lee Hall and Ethel Bodin.

Program advisor was O. W. Cline, accompanist, Mary Price. Teachers sponsoring the 1942 graduating class included Mr. Cline, J. C. Koen, Miss Gladys Miller and W. V. Wheeler.

Sanders, Doris Satterwhite, Barbara Seawall, Billy Shaw, Frank Sholta, Delbert Shultz, Lois Simmons, Wilda Faye Simpson, C. A. Smith, Davis Smith, Howard Smith, Lois Smith.

Honor Students—Esig Levy Arnold, left, and Willie Pearl Tonn are honor students at Midway where they were members of the graduating class the past week. Although the youngest member of the class, Esig also was the leading boy student of Howard county besides being valedictorian at Midway. He had a perfect attendance record for four years. Someday he wants to become a lawyer. Willie Pearl served as 4-H club president, was on the girls basketball team, was voted most popular girl besides being salutatorian. 23 Are Awarded Diplomas In Coahoma School Program

COAHOMA, May 23.—Twenty-five members of the 1942 senior class of Coahoma high school were graduated here Thursday evening in ceremonies which featured an address by the Rev. John Mueller.

Among awards made at the commencement program was the citizenship award made by the high school faculty annually to the graduate voted as having made the greatest contribution to the school in scholarship, leadership, service and character. Miss Gay Nell Yardley was the recipient this year.

To the class of 1942 went a $25 Victory Bond from the graduating class, and the class also joined with the faculty in presenting Supt. George M. Boswell with a lifetime membership in the Texas State Teachers association.

On the commencement program were Miss Yardley, who gave the welcome; Earlene Reid, who spoke on "Work Without Hope"; Gray Birkhead, Ben Logan, Grant Young, Jr., and Max Wheeler. Boswell introduced the speaker and presented diplomas while the Rev. N. W. Pitts gave the benediction.

Members of the senior class were Gray Birkhead, Wanda Blair, Hollis Bond, Harold David Boswell, Carmen Brooks, Eddie Carpenter, W. D. Coates, Jack Coffman, Martin Hubbard, Benjamin Logan, Evelyn Loudamy, Earlene Reid, Hollis Sandridge, Virginia Satterfield, Shirley Tonn, J. W. Warren, Max Wheeler, Elmo White, Willis Winters, Coetta Wirth, Buren Wolf, Lloyd Wolf, Gay Nell Yardley, and Grant Young, Jr.

COAHOMA, May 23.—Commencement exercises for the Coahoma eighth grade were held Wednesday evening, with the principal address being delivered by District Attorney Martelle McDonald. Special awards were made by Miss Nettie Lee Shelton and D. L. Townsend.

Certificates went to the following: Sybil Myers, Ray Echols, Elouise Lumpkins, Bobbie Joe Bell, Elaine Harris, Harry Smith Echols, Russell Logan, Tommie Clark, Mavis Rice, Jamie Lou Brewer, T. K. Hardy, Ruby Helen Lindley, Marion Roberts, Reba Lee Davis, Freddie Kiser, Loma Jean Buchanan, Dick Bartlett, Nelson Petty, Bill Woods, Murray Petty, Helen Lay and Martha Jean Wells.

The welcome was given by Elaine Harris, who also introduced the speaker. Special numbers were given by Harry Smith Echols, a group composed of T. K. Hardy, Mavis Rice, Ruby Helen Lindley, Jamie Lou Brewer and Marion Roberts, and a trio composed of Elouise Lumpkins, Russell Logan and Bobbie Joe Bell.

Certificates To Go To 190 7th Graders

Certificates denoting their promotion from the seventh grade into high school will go to 190 elementary school graduates at their program to be given at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the municipal auditorium.

Students and faculty members alike will appear on the program, with King Hides, principal, making the featured talk. The pupils also will hear a message from Supt. W. C. Blankenship, following their certification for promotion by Principal J. A. Coffey.

Presentation of the certificates will be by George White, member of the school board, and Rev. O. L. Savage of the First Presbyterian church will present the Cushing Awards, special honors that go to the boy and girl, selected as outstanding in the class on the basis of future valuable citizenship. The awards are made available annually by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cushing.

Student speakers will be Marilyn Keaton and James (Bobo) Hardy. The class will sing two songs and these students will present musical numbers: Gene Nabors; Marilyn Keaton and Mary Nell Cook (duet), and Helen Blount. Invocation will be by Rev. Robert J. Snell of St. Mary's Episcopal and benediction by Rev. Blair Morris of the Prairie View Baptist church.

UMW And CIO Face Possible Rupture

WASHINGTON, May 23. (AP)—Strained relations between the CIO and its founder union, the United Mine Workers, may reach a crisis when the miners' policy committee and executive board meet here Monday to pass on President John L. Lewis' past and proposed courses of action. Some labor men saw in the situation the possibility of an open break between the UMW and the CIO with attendant complications to the new AFL-CIO peace movement initiated yesterday by the AFL.

If CIO President Philip Murray attends—and intimates say that is his intention—dramatic events may develop.

Editorial — Problems Of Forced Saving

Compulsory saving is bound to come in the United States if the war lasts as long and costs as much as military observers expect. Voluntary campaigns have the merit of permitting the individual to write his own ticket according to his circumstances. But they do not keep up with the war cost and, more serious, they do not withdraw from circulation anything like the amount that must be withdrawn if inflation is to be prevented.

Representative Albert Gore asserts there will be an "inflationary amount of $35,000,000,000 available this year and the amount of income floating around to purchase these goods—unless Spartan measures are taken to absorb some of the income into war savings and taxes. He proposes a compulsory savings plan which would begin with pay-check deductions of 6 per cent or more and follow a rising schedule to the point of requiring investment of all net income of an individual above $25,000. This probably is a drastic schedule which would undergo some softening under congressional debate but it poses an issue which congress and the administration soon must face.

Adoption of a compulsory savings plan will run into several complications in its effect on differently situated individuals. So, for that matter, does the selective draft for military service, and while the draft has been formulated to work as equitably as possible, its necessity is no longer contested.

There are some persons whose incomes have not risen while others have risen sharply during the last year or two. Some are paying off debts while others have a clear opportunity to save. Some type of tax would be desirable which would force a larger saving from incomes exceeding those from static incomes. It might also be proposed that a credit be given for any debt payment, since these have the same economic effect as savings. Beyond this, the point probably will be raised that idle capital funds or past savings should be forced into government service to help win the war along with the levies on current earnings.

There are incidental complexities in the satisfactory working out of a compulsory savings plan. They are not so serious as to weigh in any appreciable degree against consideration of such a plan. But they should be solved in an equitable manner as possible in order to make the general policy most acceptable.

Man About Manhattan—Old Astoria, Of Movie Fame, Now Army Camp

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—As the crowd files, Astoria, Long Island, is just a subway jump from Manhattan. Astoria is a legend-haunted point of interest for those who remember motion pictures as dim, jerky silent things that went in for the curse-you-Jack-Dalton type of entertainment. Mae West, John Barrymore, Helen Morgan, Pearl White, Lillian Gish, Norma Shearer began their film careers there. It was there that Jimmy Durante made his first film, and there that Jesse L. Lasky became the number one big shot in an industry that eventually became turtle-shelled under the word Hollywood.

I mention this because strange things are happening around the old Astoria studios. They have been snatched over into barracks, and the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army has moved in. These men are making training films for the government, and among them are Jeffrey Lynn (who played the part of the soldier poet, Joyce Kilmer in the "Fighting 69th") Gil Scott of the Zanuck tribe, Ben Bernie's son Jason, Harry Hopkins' son Bob, producer Eddie Small's son Buddy, and yep, Jesse L. Lasky's son Jess. Jr. Jim Broderick and Jimmy Ballant are also there, actors once but soldiers now.

Washington Daybook—The Man Who Won't Say Yes

(Last Of A Series) By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Leon Henderson, chief of the Office of Price Administration, is Washington's no-man, and I think he loves it. Being only about 5-foot-6 and weighing more than 300 pounds, triple chins and all, Henderson looks soft but don't let that fool you. He's as tough as that proverbial boot. He can hit with his fists just as hard as he can with his mind, and that's hard because with the latter he has bowled over about as many congressional committees and Washington critics as any man in the capital.

It wasn't "no" that brought Henderson into the government nine years ago. It was that much more expressive slang expression, "nuts." After he had said it publicly a few times in referring to the late Gen. Hugh Johnson's NRA, the grizzled old chief of the recovery act said in effect, "If you are so darned smart, come on down here and prove it." Henderson did. He has been around ever since, doing a score of shores, every one of which has involved yelling an emphatic "no" at a lot of important people.

As head of the Office of Price Administration, with the new price control law now in effect, he is saying "no" to more people than any other man in the United States. Without detracting at all from the credit due Bernard Baruch, that grand old man of World War I who is one of the president's closest advisers in World War II, I think the price control act can be called Leon Henderson's baby. Last year when overwork had forced a vacation in Puerto Rico, Henderson met Harry Hopkins on the latter's way back from London and the story goes that out of that session, with Henderson doing most of the talking, came the anti-inflation drive.

BRIGHTON, England, May 23. (UP)—Boxer Tommy Farr lost a fight for a seat on the town council today, getting only four votes out of 70 cast.

"I'll try again as soon as there's another vacancy," said Farr.

Austin May Employ Women As Police

AUSTIN, May 23. (UP)—Women policemen may take their place on the Austin force before the war is over, Chief R. D. Thorp said today—and he admitted he wasn't more than half-joking.

Thorp counted 13 men who have gone or are preparing to go to the armed forces or to other war work.

Chapter 12 JOE SHOWS UP

Kathleen came down to breakfast on Monday morning wearing white shark-skin slacks, and a bright yellow sweater. Her hair was combed back from her forehead, and tied with a yellow and green ribbon. She looked like a little girl, her uncle thought, as he glanced up from his paper and saw her.

"No stockings?" he questioned, eyeing feet encased in sandals.

"Stockings aren't being worn this year, only on special occasions," said Kathleen. She sat down at the table. "Are you going to use your roadster this morning, Uncle Frank?"

"I was," her uncle replied. "But I can walk, since I'm only going to the office. Why?"

"Nothing much. Only I thought I'd drive it out to the barn. It's pretty far to walk in these things I've got on."

"I presume you got the idea for the get-up from the actresses—since they are all wearing pants."

"Slacks—not pants."

"Overall, as a matter of fact," said Uncle Frank. "I saw one of the girls wearing 'em last week. . . . She was on a ladder, painting. Darned funny occupation for an actress, seems to me."

"They all work like that in summer theatres," Kathleen explained. "They pitch in and paint scenery, sell tickets, and even sweep out the theatre. I think it's a grand idea."

"Probably. But I'll bet those same actresses wouldn't think of taking the broom to their own apartments."

"Still sore at actresses, I see," said Kathleen dryly. And then: "Do I get the roadster?"

"Yes, my darling, you get the roadster."

"Thanks. You're a darling your self—at times."

"When I can be used," said Mr. Frank. He took a long swallow of coffee. "Speaking of being used, how goes it with the director and the actor?"

"Not so good, I'm afraid. I've wasted a whole week."

"How's that?"

"Giving Paul so much of my time, when Paul's the one I should have been trying to impress." Kathleen smiled brightly. "But I start afresh this week—with a heart-to-heart talk with Paul this very morning."

"Sorry, Honey."

"You're a determined young female," Uncle Frank said. "No use trying to discourage you."

"No, there isn't," said Kathleen. "So don't start talking me again about that selfish blonde actress in New York. We don't all have to be like her." She frowned. "Besides, I've as much right to use the theatrical people as Joe. I notice you always encourage him."

"Naturally," said Uncle Frank with exasperating calm. "Joe's got talent for writing. He shows it in that column he does about Linnville County folks. I'd like to see someone get interested in his play."

"How sweet of you!" said Kathleen. "But you don't have to worry about Joe. He can manage. He was on a picnic yesterday with Ruby Howard."

"What of it? You were out furniture hunting with Fred DeMille."

"Oh, the devil!" Kathleen flared. "There's no need trying to talk to you."

"Sorry, honey," Uncle Frank looked at his watch. "It's time for me to get along. The real estate business is about as active as an over-fed kitten, but I have to be at the office, just in case. See you at lunch."

"Don't be too sure," Kathleen told him. "I may stay out at the barn, and lunch with the actors. But I'll have Lizzie prepare something for you, since you, since you'll be lurching alone."

"And don't you be too sure I'll be lurching alone," Uncle Frank came right back. "Maybe I'll bring Miss Howard out to keep me company."

"All right, go that," Kathleen said eagerly. "She has a say-so about who plays with the company, so be nice to her. It will help."

"Help who?"

"Ms."

"Still the selfish little wench!" "You'll have to work fast—or Joe will beat you to it."

"Oh, well, he's a worthy rival," said Uncle Frank. "And I wish him luck." He watched Kathleen's expression. "Having an actress for an inspiration—and maybe for a wife—ought to help a playwright. Help him to go places, you know."

"Humph!" said Kathleen. "Uncle Frank let the matter rest right there, and hurried off. No Luck."

Not long after his departure Kathleen was driving his roadster out toward Joe's Old Barn Drama House. But she didn't have her heart-to-heart talk with Paul.

"Hello, loveliness!" he greeted. "Can't chat with you now. We've got to rehearse after all. One of the company's got a bum ankle, and another's got to take over."

"An actress?" said Kathleen. "No, one of the men."

"Oh! That's too bad. If it was only one of the actresses, I might . . ."

Someone called Paul before she could finish. She said "Damn" under her breath, and turned away. She was looking up at the old weathervane her Great-grandfather Vaughan had put on top of the barn, when Joe Neely drove up.

"What brought you out so early?" he asked.

"I like the early morning," returned Kathleen.

Joe grinned. "Honey, you lie terribly," he said.

"Isn't it pretty early for you?" Kathleen said.

"Sure it is," said Joe cheerfully. "But I wanted to get the items for my column. I want to get it all written, so I can give more time to the play."

"So you're working on that again?"

"You bet I am!" said Joe. "Ruby wants to have me read the new version to her as soon as possible."

"So you're calling her Ruby?"

"At her request, yes."

"What happened to Daisy Doran?" I thought she was the one you were interested in."

"Daisy's okay . . . but Ruby's the one who can do things for me." Joe looked Kathleen straight in the eye. "I'm taking a page from your book."

"What's gathering news for your column got to do with you being here at the barn theatre?" Kathleen wanted to know, ignoring Joe's remark.

"I came by to get a program of this week's play," Joe replied. "I need it in writing my review." He stepped closer. "Listen, Kathleen, he said softly, "why not come with me while I'm gathering news? We can have a ride, and stop off somewhere for sats."

Kathleen thought a moment. It would be nice riding out in the country with Joe.

"All right, Joe," she said. "I'll go."

"Swell!" said Joe. "I'll run in and get the program, and be right with you."

It was when they were driving through a shady, lonely lane on the way to call on a farmer's family that Joe brought the car to a standstill.

"What's the matter?" Kathleen asked. "Why are you stopping?"

"For this!" said Joe. He took Kathleen in his arms. "And for this!" He kissed her.

Seek To Condemn Land For The Army

AUSTIN, May 23. (UP)—On file today in federal court here was a bill seeking condemnation of 2,100 acres of land in the western section of Caldwell county for use by the army.

The petition stated the government wants immediate possession of the land to be utilized for the construction of facilities for use of the air corps and for other military uses incident thereto.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds — No Glamour On $36 Per Week

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Another side of Hollywood: Laura Oakley, blonde, pert, petite, is a movie white collar girl. Five and a half days a week, from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., she operates a comptometer through which pass columns upon columns of staggering figures.

The figures, some of them so many digits the machine won't take them, represent various movie production costs—including star salaries. Laura Oakley's fingers tap out the digits firmly, without pause, and never once—to her recollection—has she compared those frequently astronomical sums with her own $36 a week.

"People," she says, "are entitled to what they can get as long as in getting it they don't step on anybody else."

Laura is one of 7,774,000 earners in the country who draw between $30 and $40 a week. She has been in the Universal accounting department for five years.

White-collar girls in other cities may picture their sisters in Hollywood as living lives steeped in glamour. Laura Oakley likes working here because, aside from liking her job and her office associates, it's "like working in the country at noon we can take our lunch boxes up on the hillside and get some fresh air."

Taking her lunch is one of Laura's pet economies—leaving more of her $4 to $5 a week (personal allowance) for pet luxuries: waves, shampoos, and manicures. Budgeting is fairly new with her—the idea of her mother with whom she shares a four-room apartment in a four-family flat in Los Angeles.

Divorced three years ago, Laura receives no alimony, is "head of the house" on her salary. "When there are no children and the wife can work, I see no reason for alimony," she says. Other members of the family: Butch, the dog, and Tippy, the cat. "Living on a budget is easier—if you stick to it—than otherwise," she has discovered. The budget will let her start buying War Bonds within a few weeks. She owns no car, shares transportation expense with co-workers.

In a town where wardrobe and make-up are trade items, this white-collar girl emphasizes neither. "I shop with a particular need in mind—and I've learned not to get sidetracked."

She likes to work in neatly tailored slacks. She has no "girdle problem" because she takes vigorous setting-up exercises and follows a diet heavy on vegetables and fruit. Nights, she goes bowling, dining, dancing, to movies, or does U. S. O. work.

She has never gone to Ciro's but has been to the Derby, Chasen's, the Bar of Music, and a club called the Countess Sonia's. She has never had any acting ambition. She pays guild dues of $2 per month. Her hobby is writing—"just for fun," she says.

Of Danish descent herself, her favorite movies are Scandinavian. Sonia Henia's. But her first loyalty is to the "U."

"When I see people enjoying one of our movies, I feel a sort of pride because it was made at our studio," she says.

Equipment Is Moved In For Martin Test

Staking of locations for two wildcats in Reagan county and moving in of equipment for a 7,700-foot wildcat in Martin county, where a 5,100-acre block was leased, were among principal West Texas oil developments this week.

Derick was being built for Magnolia No. 1 Earl B. Powell, proposed 7,700-foot, rotary wildcat in Martin county, C SW SW 18-19-T&P, 7 1/2 miles north of Stanton. The test will be on a 6,585-acre lease.

Sunray Oil Co., of Tulsa purchased from J. E. Mabey of Tulsa 10-year commercial oil and gas leases on 8,001 acres in northwestern Martin county, reportedly for a bonus of $5 per acre and an annual rental of 50 cents an acre. The blocks comprise sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 17, 18, 23, 24, 28, 27, 28, 43, 44, 45, 55, 56, 64, 65, 66, 77, 78, 83, 84, 85, 86, 96, 97 and 104, in leagues 255, 256, 257 and 258, Briscoe county school land.

Oil No. 1-C W. L. Foster, first Sterling county wildcat to explore the Ellenburger, C NW NW 26-12-SPRR, was abandoned at 8,117 feet in Ellenburger dolomite after swabbing and flowing sulphur water through 9 5/8 inch casing at a rate estimated at 175 barrels hourly. An oil string was not run and cemented at or near the top of the Ellenburger, reported to be 4,082 feet, 5,784 feet below sea level, as reported earlier.

Along Glory Road With Gospel Trailer

By EYDEL SIMS
Wide World Features
FORREST CITY, Ark.—Adapting the methods of the late Senator Huey Long to the example of John Wesley, an East Arkansas Methodist preacher has multiplied his field of evangelism many times with a $230 "gospel trailer."

In its first month of operation alone, the tiny trailer attracted 4,850 hearers in the sparsely-settled region while its founder and operator, the Rev. Paul Galloway, preached to only 1,443 persons within his church here.

Mr. Galloway said he built the trailer because he decided so much "political ballyhoo" was spread by sound trucks that "something good ought to come from them."

A novel idea in the Methodist church, it has caught on rapidly. Church officials in other states have asked for plans and blueprints, Mr. Galloway says.

A two-wheeled affair with neither roof nor walls, it is built on simple lines. On the platform are a pulpit with amplifier attached a turntable stand and storage space for Bibles and hymnbooks. From the two outside corners rise two speakers. Cost of the trailer itself was $125; the public address system took $150 more, and $15 was spent for recordings of religious music.

More than 80 per cent of those who crowded around the loudspeakers are not regular church attendants, the Rev. Mr. Galloway says, but an "amazing" number return time after time to listen, and already many of them have begun attending church services regularly as a result.

During its first month, the trailer traveled approximately 400 miles, but its founder plans a wider scope for its activities in the future. In two weeks during July, it is to go to 47 communities within a 300-mile radius of Forrest City.

Bishop C. C. Seelman of Oklahoma City dedicated the trailer early in April in a service appropriately combining the official dedication rituals for a new church and a new organ.

Reviewing the extensive out-of-doors evangelical activities of John Wesley, founder of the Methodist church, the official state organ of the church said of the gospel trailer:

"We rejoice that Methodism is going back to the masses."

Ray Thomas Shot In Cleaning Gun

Ray Thomas, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas, was accidentally shot in the leg Saturday while cleaning a .22 rifle preparatory to a hunting expedition.

The bullet struck under the knee and ranged upward, but the injury was not thought to be serious.

NOISY DUMP!

MIDLAND ARMY FLYING SCHOOL — If all the practice bombs stored in the "dump" at this world's largest bombardier college were dropped at the same time, the tonnage would be 17 times greater than that dropped by the British in their recent devastating raid on the Nazi port of Rostock. No estimate is available on noise.

A SURE HIT!

MIDLAND ARMY FLYING SCHOOL — Even a Hollywood press agent would admit that the world's most bombastic film is being shot at this world's largest bombardier college. Every bomb dropped over targets by student bombardiers is photographed, providing an incontestable basis for grading the proficiency of Uncle Sam's "Hell from Heaven Men."

Army Modernizes Old Caboose CAMP CLAIBORNE, La.—The army has streamlined "the little red caboose." In the old caboose the brakeman sat in a cupola on a "monkey seat" overlooking the tops of the cars. In the new car built by the 711th battalion he sits in one of the six-foot wide bay windows extending a foot from both sides of the caboose.

Here And There

Sam Williams, negro, was being held in city jail late Saturday in lieu of $15 he was fined on his plea of guilty to a simple assault charge growing out of the cutting of Jack Ayres, who was allegedly engaged in a bit of gaming with Williams.

Big Spring retailers will cooperate with a national plan to promote sales of stamps and bonds at a specific time on July 1, Benjamin H. Namm, national chairman of the drive, was advised Saturday. The plan for all retail stores to cease all sales for 15 minutes at 12 noon on July 1 — and to give that time over to sale of bonds and stamps.

Directors of the chamber of commerce will have their regular semi-monthly board meeting Monday noon.

Guys like Joe Pondirk us for the simple reason that when we start telling about how good our garden is looking — he starts telling about having polished off a meal with lettuce, mustard greens and English peas from his own back yard plot. At least our envy is greener than his garden.

Feeding tests will be finished up at the U. S. experiment station on or about June 2, Fred Keating, superintendent, said Saturday. The animals have done real well on gains during the past two six-week periods.

Now that this is sufficiently old, it can be told. While we were thinking our early May weather was cold, our troubles are small compared with those of James Ripps, who wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ripps, that a week brought snow at Cheyenne, Wyo.

Mrs. E. L. Pierce, Ackerly, has two sons in the army, another who is in defense work and a son-in-law in defense production. Her sons in service are Pvt. Gilbert Pierce, Orlando, Fla., and Sgt. Odia Pierce, Broinquen Field, Puerto Rico. Another son, Willie D. Pierce, is a welder at Los Angeles, Calif. Sons-in-law in defense work are Quinton Graham, Brooks Field Texas and Doyle Crane, Los Angeles, both aircraft workers.

Dr. G. S. True has been on the sick list for the past week.

The city hall is undergoing a program of refinishing. Interior of the fire station has been repainted and this week workers will move into the administrative portion of the building. The jail is to be given a new coat of paint, too, before the project is completed.

Word from England that Robert Louis Hewitt had probably lost his life during operations with the RAF brought the casualties of war to Big Spring this past week. Hewitt, son of Mrs. E. C. Hewitt of Stephenville, got his first air training here, in the CAA program directed by Art Winterhiser. He resided in Big Spring for several months.

A John Tarleton graduate, Hewitt took training in the American School of the RAF at Glendale, Calif., and had served in the British unit since May, 1941. From England, Hewitt had written wanting candy. He received boxes not only from friends in Stephenville, but from some in Big Spring.
