

Town Meeting Set For Friday

A Town Meeting was set for Friday at 7 p.m. at the McLean High School auditorium to discuss the possibility of re-opening the McLean Hospital, according to George Terry, mayor of McLean. The meeting was set following a discussion with a prospective doctor Monday afternoon at the City Hall. Mayor Terry, several councilmen, and about 25 townspeople, along with Gray County Commis-ioner Ted Simmons met with the doctor from Kansas and George Griffith who is a hospital administrator. Following the discussion, Terry said that the group decided to call the Town Meeting to find out how the townspeople feel about reopening the hospital. "We will have to reobtain a Certificate of Need, and we will have to decide how we can raise funds to re-open the facility," Terry said. The doctor who visited Monday asked that his name not be publicized since he is still under contract at another facility. However, he said that his cousin and his cousin's wife were both doctors and would be interested in establishing a practice with him. He and his cousin plan to visit McLean Saturday following the town meeting to continue discussions with the City. Terry said that Gray County officials and McLean City officials will attend the Town Meeting Friday night to answer questions from the people in the area. At the meeting Monday afternoon, the group discussed the possibility of establishing a hospital district in the south part of Gray County. Simmons told the group that a hospital district can only be created by the state legislature and then approved by a vote of the people in the area. He said that the legislature would not meet again for two years, so a hospital district was not an immediate solution.

Council Passes Resolution

All members of the McLean City Council were present at the regular meeting June 14 for a lengthy session. The only official action the council took was to give the Housing Authority a waiver for the ad valorem tax for one year only, to pay the current bills, and to pass a resolution to borrow money to pay for the seal coating of the city streets.

County Commissioners Accept Airport Bid

Julia Clark The Pampa News The Commissioner's Court of Gray County accepted the $51,200 bid submitted by Lewis Construction Company of Pampa for runway repairs at Perry Lefors Airport at a regular meeting Wednesday.

The $51,200 bid by Lewis Construction Co. was awarded, pending approval by the Texas Aeronautics Commission of the $6,820 increase in the estimated cost of the project.

In May the TAC approved a grant of $37,500 to Gray County, based on the original estimate of $50,000 to seal coat the main runways and adjacent areas. At Wednesday's meeting the court decided it had enough money to accept the $51,200 bid, plus 10 percent for the consulting engineer's fees, plus $500 for a contingency fund, for a total project cost of $56,820.

The court will submit the new figure to TAC for approval. If the TAC approves the new cost, he state through the TAC, will share the cost of the project on a 75 percent - 25 percent basis, with the state picking up 75 percent or $42,615 ($5,115 more than the original grant).

The court decided to review the 11 bids for construction of a county agricultural building in McLean. It will reconvene Friday at 10 a.m. to award the bid. The bids ranged from a low of $38,975 submitted by G & H Steel Building in Claude to a high of $56,157 submitted by Heavy Duty Steel Building of Pampa. The 5,000 square foot multipurpose building will be used by the McLean community for FFA and 4-H shows and other community activities.

An amendment to the budget to pay Texas Mental Health and Mental Retardation for contract services was approved. The county will pay MHMR $10,900 a year for an employee for the Pampa Satellite Center.

In other business the court adopted a court order and resolution for a cooperative emergency management plan. In explaining the need for the court order and resolution, Steve Vaughn, emergency management coordinator which has always existed in between the cities of Lefors, McLean and Pampa and Gray County. If all the entities approve the plan and organization, the area would become eligible for federal funds should a major disaster strike.

Lubbock Man Charged In Hit-And-Run Accident

Benito Galarza, 24, of Lubbock was charged on June 8 with failure to stop and render aid. The charges stemmed from a hit-and-run accident involving the Rev. Billy Wilson, pastor of First United Methodist Church in McLean, who was injured in the accident June 1 in Lubbock.

According to the Lubbock Police report, Galarza was northbound on Avenue Q in a 1965 Chevrolet when he ran a red light and struck Wilson who was walking east across the avenue. Galarza allegedly left the scene and proceeded north on Q to Fourth Street.

As of June 15, Galarza had not been arrested, although bond had been recommended at $2,000. Wilson, who was taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, was admitted as a patient and spent eight days in the hospital.

He suffered an abrasion to the scalp, cervical strain, hematoma to the right thigh, and a possible concussion in the accident. He returned to McLean June 9.

Ben Coma Wins Annual Ranch Horse Race

The largest crowd in the history of the event, gathered Saturday afternoon north of McLean to watch the annual running of the McLean Ranch Horse Race. Some observers estimated the crowd at well over a 1,000 people who gathered along the stretch of grass track to watch 14 horses from local ranches run 440 yards.

Winner of the race was Ramon Ben Coma, riding a horse from the Brass RO Ranch. Second place went to Joe De Leon, riding a horse from the Haynes Triangle Ranch; and third place went to Trip Townsend, riding a horse from the Franklin Ranch.

Who says life in a small town is dull?

Last weekend in McLean, there were so many activities that we needed a schedule to arrange our time.

Oldtimers tell me they don't ever remember a carnival as such in McLean before. (Or does Martha Jo Bailey really qualify as an old timer?) Martha said she remembered a circus here years ago, but never a carnival.

The midway was bright, attractive, with good crowds every night. Hopefully, the group made enough money that they will make McLean an annual stop.

From almost anyway you look at it, the weekend of festivities in McLean was a success. Every event, from the cutting horse contest to the horse race to the parade to the barbecue was well attended. June Suggs tells me that 221 exes registered during the reunion, and that 331 barbecue tickets were sold.

The fact that we had perfect weather for a change contributed to the success of the activities. Perhaps the McLean Rodeo has outlived its rain jinx of the last few years. The sunny weather made all the activities more fun.

I think the parade was the best that I have seen in McLean in the last 15 years. Many of the townspeople went to the extra trouble to prepare entries for the event, and we received lots of out-of-town support for the parade.

Special thanks have to go to George Terry and J. Boyd Smith for organizing the parade.

And speaking of people who worked hard...Gwen Henley, each year, does an absolutely fabulous job of keeping the complicated books for the rodeo. Her jobs begin early and ends late (after the performance and after the after-performance ropings). If you've never tried to keep up with that much money, and keep all those times and scores straight, and pay-off impatient cowboys, and col-

Sen. Sarpalius' DWI Legislation Signed Into Law By Governor Mark White

(Austin) ... Texas' tough new driving while intoxicated legislation, sponsored by Senator Sarpalius, was signed into law today by Governor Mark White. According to Senator Sarpalius, "The new law represents a significant step toward reducing the number of drunken drivers on Texas roads and highways." In its final form, the measure toughens fines and sentences for those convicted of driving while intoxicated, the new law eliminates deferred adjudication, and it includes a new state definition of intoxication.

Governor White signed the bill saying, "Senator Sarpalius deserves an enormous amount of credit for the passage of this law. It's one which I'm sure everyone will be proud of."

State Representative Terrill Smith, who sponsored Sarpalius' bill in the House said, "I've never before seen a Senator who was willing to work as hard on a bill as Senator Sarpalius did on the DWI Legislation."

Senator Sarpalius says, "Our goal is to save lives. We heard many cries from families who had lost loved ones as a result of drunk drivers. This law was spurred by those outcries, and I'm proud the legislature stood together and passed a bill which will act as a deterrent to driving while intoxicated."

Under the new law, a first-time offender will face a maximum punishment of two years in jail and a $2000 fine. A first-time offender can receive probation without going to jail by participating in an alcohol or drug dependency evaluation, and completing the other necessary conditions of probation.

Jail time will be mandatory for repeat offenders. Second time offenders will face jail time of from 15 days to two years and a fine of $300 to $2000. On a second DWI conviction, a person will have to serve at least three days in jail as a condition of probation.

A third-time offender will face from 30 days to two years in the county jail or from 60 days to five years in the Texas Department of Corrections and a fine of from $500 to $2000. On a third conviction, a person will have to serve at least three days in jail as a condition of probation.

Under the new law, a first-time offender must take the DWI educational course to avoid mandatory license suspension.

After a second DWI conviction, a juvenile will lose his or her license for a year or until he or she reaches the legal drinking age, whichever is longer.

The new law also includes a new state definition of intoxication. Under the new law, a person would be legally drunk if a test for alcohol in the blood showed a concentration of 0.10 percent or more. Previously, the blood-alcohol level was considered only "evidence" of intoxication.

"Studies show that people with a 0.10 percent blood-alcohol level are too drunk to be driving," according to Senator Sarpalius.

The new law also eliminates deferred adjudication for any DWI offender, meaning that any person convicted of drunken driving will be unable to have the offense removed from his or her record after completing probation.

The new law provides tougher penalties which are designed to encourage repeat offenders to seek treatment for alcohol problems. Those willing to enter alcohol treatment programs will face more lenient jail terms than those who refuse.

The new law requires the director of a treatment facility to notify the court should the person not make a good faith effort to participate in treatment. The new law also allows the court to order the defendant to pay for all or part of the cost of such a rehabilitation program.

"The new law is designed to keep the repeat DWI offender off the street and get him or her into an alcohol treatment program. We realize that just locking up drunk drivers won't accomplish very much," Senator Sarpalius says.

Senator Sarpalius believes the new law is one Texas can be proud of. The law goes into effect January 1, 1984.

Residents' Granddaughter Attends Senior High Workshop

Val Marie Gordin, granddaughter of Wanda and Arnold Sharp of McLean, spent the week of June 4 through 11 at Northwestern Oklahoma State University in Alva, Okla., attending a workshop for senior high school music students. The show choir/chorography clinic taught students to combine dance movements with vocal music to enhance a stage show. The week ended with a program given by the students on Friday night for parents and friends to demonstrate what each had learned.

Miss Gordin, daughter of Gary and Peggy Gordin, will be a junior at Dumas High School. She was recently presented with an award for having a straight 'A' average for the 1982-83 school year. The high school art department also presented a special award to Miss Gordin for an original art design. She signs also as a member of the Dumas High School choir and studies voice privately.

Last summer, both she and her mother toured Europe and sang with the Texas American Youth band and chorus.

She will be appearing June 23, 24, 25 with the Dumas Little Theatre in Neil Simon's "Plaza Place".

Miss Gordin is the grand niece of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Blaylock and Jack and Relia Ayers. Great-great-aunt is Saffronia Pettit.

"F.D.R. An Intimate History" by Nathan Miller. In this, the only one-volume complete biography of FDR in print, Nathan Miller looks at the man whose remarkable talents and brilliant personality helped change the United States more than any other president. From his youth at Hyde Park, Groton, and Harvard, to his political education supervised by Louise Howe, as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, to his governorship of New York (which was but a carefully planned step on the road to the White House) and the dizzying madness of the 1932 convention, Miller charts the forging of Roosevelt's political and personal character - if indeed the two can be separated. For despite the hurdles thrown in his path, defeat when he ran for vice-president in 1920, disabling polio, the near wreck of his marriage to Eleanor, he proved himself unfailingly quick and discerning in marshalling his awesome charm and pragmatism to achieve his goals. The excitement of the New Deal, "one of the few successful gradualist revolutions in History", is explained, as is FDR's controversial handling of the Second World War. As this fascinating biography demonstrated, history and Roosevelt conspire to create, if not always a hero, always a man.

You will certainly enjoy "FDR, An Intimate History", and it is now available at Lovett Memorial Library.

Dale and Rose Steel also had a big responsibility this year in organizing the rodeo and keeping all the entries straight. In fact, many, many people worked hard to make the weekend a fun, memorable occasion for all those who attended. I had a wonderful time. How about you?

Food Bank Will Take Livestock Donations

The High Plains Food Bank will help producers process meat from unmarketable livestock and distribute it to needy people, according to Bill

Graham of McLean. He said that producers can donate any animal they can't market (crippled, underweight, etc.). The food bank will process the meat and issue all donors a receipt for the full market value of the meat saved from the animal. The donation can be used for a tax deduction, Graham said.

NEWS STORY FROM BISMARCK, N.D. Ed Bickle, a 71-year-old retired farmer from Tuttle, N.D., was taking a morning stroll recently when he found a wallet lying in a ditch. Bickle said, "I walked by and turned around and picked it up. It had $1,320. There were 13 $100 bills." The wallet belonged to Arthur Pykles, a retired policeman who had lost it during a hunting trip in the fall of 1981. When Bickle phoned Pykles with the news that the wallet had been found, Pykles told him to keep $500 as a reward and to send him the wallet along with the rest of the money.

Septagenarian Bickle Found the wallet of officer Pykles. In the purse of the fuzz Bickle found that there was Enough money his fancy to tickle. Thirteen hundred and change was in there, Enough money to raise every hair On poor Bickle's head, And to keep him well-fed, And assure life in an easy chair. But honesty was Bickle's lord, So he returned the policeman's hoard. And the cop was quite happy, If a little bit sappy. He gave Bickle five hundred reward. While this story is not such a crisis, A question in my mind arises. Now I'd like to know About that bunch of dough, And I'll bet that the answer surprises. Please tell me how a retired dick'll Amass such a wad, is he fickle? I don't know the reply, But I'll bet by-and-by That the officer's wife pickles Pykles!

Have a Picnic Shopping for Bargains in the WANT ADS

In The Kitchen

by Linda Haynes

At a recent church youth meeting, the sponsors served something they called a "Pile-up". I was impressed by the ease of preparation, the gusto with which the teenagers consumed the dish, and the inexpensive, but delicious quality of the food. If you are feeding a crowd, increase the proportions of the dish. The recipe is designed to serve about 10 to 12. This can be served family-style or buffet style.

Corn Chip Tacos
2 1/2 lbs. ground beef
1 large onion, chopped
2 tsp. chili powder

2 tsp. dried whole oregano
2 tsp. ground cumin
2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. garlic powder
2 (8 oz.) cans tomato sauce
3 (6 oz.) cans tomato paste
4 cups water
1 (10 oz.) pkg. corn chips
2 green peppers chopped
1 avocado, chopped
1 small head iceberg lettuce, shredded
3 tomatoes, chopped

1 cup sliced ripe or pimento-stuffed olives
2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
taco or picante sauce
Cook beef and 1 large onion in a Dutch oven until meat is browned. Drain. Add next 9 ingredients; simmer 1 hour over low heat, stirring occasionally.

Arrange cornchips on serving plates. Spoon meat mixture over chips. Layer with onion, green pepper, avocado, lettuce, tomato, and olives. Top with cheese. Serve with taco or picante sauce.

DOWN MEMORY LANE

Compiled By Sam Haynes From The Files Of The McLean News

10 YEARS AGO...

E. M. Bailey, Ed.
Rev. Robert Brown has been appointed pastor of the First United Methodist Church and the Heald Church for a fourth year. It was recently announced at the closing session of the annual Northwest Texas Conference in Abilene.

One hundred twenty two ex-student and seven ex-teachers of McLean High School visited the area museum during the home-coming weekend, June 8th and 9th.

On Sunday Emmett Thompson and family of Quannah visited his sister, Mrs. Willie Boyett. Visiting with her this week is her sister, Mrs. Maude Prefontaine of Ada, Oklahoma.

20 YEARS AGO...

Jack Shelton, Ed.
Young Pat Windom was the only McLeante to reach the finals in the Shamrock Golf Tournament Sunday. Pat, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Windom, took second place in the third flight of the tourney, losing his bid for the championship on the 18th hole.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ashby of Fort Worth spent the weekend visiting with Mrs. R. N. Ashby and the Homer Willsons. Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ashby of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Johnston, Jr., and son, Dickie of San Angelo are visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Johnston, and his grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Alexander.

30 YEARS AGO...

Lester Campbell, Ed.
Mr. and Mrs. Wes Langham of Pampa visited Friday night and Saturday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Langham. Saturday night and Sunday visitors in the Langham home were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Baker and family of Pampa.

Fire of an undetermined origin damaged the Dawson Magnolia Station, on the north lane of U. S. Highway 66 in McLean, to the extent of more than $1,000 early Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chislett and children of Compton, Calif., and Mrs. Glen Kenkel of Courtland, Calif., visited in the Clyde Willis home Tuesday.

40 YEARS AGO...

T. A. Landers, Ed.
Clyde Carpenter, who has been in training in California for the past three months as a naval cadet, has successfully completed his pre-flight course and was transferred this week to the Naval Air Station at Oakland, Calif., where he is now ready to begin his primary flight training.

A white leghorn hen belonging to Mrs. M. D. Curry laid an egg measuring 8 by 8 1/2 inches last week. Mrs. Curry had the egg on exhibition in McLean Saturday. It appeared to have two shells.

The All-Church Council of Women will be hostess to enlisted men and their wives at a basket picnic Thursday July 1, at the city park, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

50 YEARS AGO...

T. A. Landers, Ed.
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ashby and son and daughter, Norvin and Miss Nora, were in Altus, Oklahoma, last week, where Norvin had his tonsils removed.

Aid will be asked of the National Industrial Recovery Act, for $15,000 to build a cheese factory at McLean, according to action taken by the city council Monday afternoon. Several interested citizens appeared before the council in behalf of the cheese factory, and due to the short time in which to file requests for aid, it was voted to ask for aid in the name of the city and later turn the proposition over to a private individual stock company, or whatever plan the people desire.

News from Pakan.....
Paul Macina, W. H. Bruce, Susan and Edward Pakan and Paul Stauffer were in Wheeler Saturday afternoon.

60 YEARS AGO...

T. A. Landers, Ed.
Dwight Upham had a very painful accident Tuesday. While helping to pull a stalled auto with a horse and saddle, the saddle girth broke and gave him a nasty fall, spraining one ankle pretty badly. He is now walking on crutches, but doing as nicely as could be expected.

The Board of Directors of the McLean Melon Growers Association met Wednesday and elected F. P. Wilson as sales manager and A. W. Haynes as inspector for the coming season. Everything is being shaped up to handle this year's Texas sweethearts from McLean to the best advantage to the local membership.

A number of young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Shaw Tuesday evening. Outdoor games and music were the principal forms of entertainment. Refreshments of punch and cake were served to the following: Misses Minnie Morse, Sallie Campbell, Ruby Mary Anderson, Vera Wilson, Laura Bumpus, Lula Peters, Mammie Burrows, Inez and Jewel Shaw; Messrs. Houston Bogan, Hansel Christian, Charles Jordan, Bryan Burrows, J. F. Watkins, John Haynes, Emery Crockett and Jenkins Shaw.

70 YEARS AGO...
A. G. Richardson, Ed.
F. H. Yokely last week completed negotiations whereby he takes over the entire ranch holdings of John W. Puckett, known as the old Byron ranch, about fifteen miles northeast of this city. The consideration was not made known but the deal involved a considerable sum. Included in the transfer were about twenty-two hundred head of the cattle, twenty head of horses and other equipment, also the different land leases, some of which run for several years. Mr. Yokely has installed Clyde Cash ranch boss and will begin immediately the work of refurbishing and fixing up the ranch headquarters, where he will also make his home.

Prominent among the visitors in the city is J. L. Davis of Nocona, Texas, who is spending some time here as the guest of his nephew, Geo. Bourland. Mr. Davis was identified with the pioneer builders of Texas, having come to this state in 1854 and settled on what was then our frontier.

Twenty ladies responded to invitation given by Mrs. S. O. Cook on Thursday afternoon to meet her guest, Mrs. Siler Faulkner of Lefors. After spending a delightful hour in merry jests and pleasantries of the day, score cards were handed round designating their palces at the tables for progressive forty-two. Game succeeded game sending the players to mingle with each. Pine Apple Ice Cream and cake were served after which, with Mrs. Roy Rice at the piano and a chorus of voices to trill the melody of a number of popular songs, another hour melted away. Mrs. Cook's ability to entertain is never doubted and each guest was loth to say goodbye when time for departure arrived.

Applications Still Available For Camp

Applications are now available at The McLean News office and at the American National Bank in McLean for the McLean Basketball Camp which has been set for July 11-15. The camp will be directed by Sheri Haynes who has coached the past four years at Lockney High School. She will be assisted by Sam D. Haynes who is currently coaching at Clarendon High School.

The camp will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the McLean High School gymnasium. Boys and girls will be taught fundamental drills, game situations, and will be given short lectures concerning the mental aspect of competition.

A camp demonstration has been set for the Friday following the week of camp.

Boys and girls who will be fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth graders in the school year of 1983-84 will be eligible to attend. The camp will be limited to the first fifty boys and girls who sign up.

Cost for the camp is $50 for approximately thirty hours of instruction, a personalized t-shirt, and insurance coverage for the camp. A deposit of $25 should accompany the registration and the remaining may be paid the first day of camp. No refunds will be made, Miss Haynes said.

THE TWO McLEAN teams played each other in the final home game for the groups last week in McLean. The two teams are playing this week in a tournament at Clarendon to end their season. Tuffy Sanders tags up on first base before the ball is pitched to first baseman Daniel Harris. [Photo by Linda Haynes]
