Robert Hinderson Assumes Duties Of SPS Manager

Robert Hinderson recently assumed duties for Southwestern Public Service Company in the White Deer-Groom area, a 29 year employee. Hinderson and his wife Sherry presently reside in Pampa, but plan to find a home in White Deer in the near future. The Hindersons are parents of a 27 year old son who was recently married.

Hinderson stated SPS has been involved in converting the present 2400 system to a higher (13,200) system throughout the area, including White Deer. Plans for the future include removing all the old Sub-Stations and clearing away out dated equipment. A new SPS office is being planned for White Deer he stated. Possibly at the location of the old sub-station at 2nd and Swiss Street. Hinderson replaced James Duke at Groom. Duke retired last Friday after serving Groom for the past 17 years. Residents may contact Hinderson at 883-2631 or toll free 1-800-343-7458 day or night to report an emergency or any other problem.

SPS Move To Hurt Groom

Officials of the City of Groom, Groom Schools, and Groom Economic Development Corporation wrote letters and made phone calls last week to the District and Division Managers of Southwestern Public Service after learning that a service representative would not be relocated in Groom after the retirement of James Duke, local service manager for many years.

The officials asked SPS to re-evaluate their decision because it would mean that Groom would be without service at least one hour under the present circumstances.

SPS chose to locate a service manager in White Deer to service both Groom and White Deer. White Deer has previously been serviced out of Pampa, some twelve miles away.

The officials complimented SPS for their service and their lead in Economic Development of this area and expressed how this would economically hurt Groom.

Local citizens may wish to express their concerns individually, but the above officials felt they needed to pursue this immediately.

Groom voters will vote this Saturday, May 6, 1989 in the city and school elections from 7:00 a.m. til 7:00 p.m. in the school business office. Mayor Al Homer is being challenged by John Alan Homen for the city's top position. Alfred Homer is seeking his fifth term as mayor where he says his candidacy is based on his eight years of experience and his performance as mayor. Homer said, "The city is in good, sound financial shape and after the water well built eight years ago is paid off next year, the city will be without debt." Homer added that plans are underway to begin working on resurfacing the city roads.

John Alan Homen said, "My primary concern is the survival of this community and with this in mind I will concentrate on improving the economy such as cleaning up the abandoned buildings and properties in town. I believe in doing this it will attract new businesses and families to our community." Homen said, "By achieving these goals it will help our struggling school system, which I feel is the heart of the community."

The city council seats open are now held by Jerry Thornton and Ronny Fields, both are seeking re-election and both are running unopposed. This will be Thornton and Fields second term if re-elected.

Alison Kotara & Jay Cassidy United In Marriage

Alison Elayne Kotara and Jay Patrick Cassidy were united in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony on Saturday, April 29, 1989, in a double-ring candelight ceremony at St. Theresa's Catholic Church in Panhandle. Msgr. M.J. Matthiesen officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kotara of Panhandle. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassidy of Panhandle. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. J.V. Lynch of Dallas and Mrs. Sam Kotara of Groom. The groom's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Goodnight of Memphis.

Prelude and wedding music was performed by Jim Gardner of Amarillo. He accompanied Shirley Greener of Amarillo as they both sang "The Wedding Song" and "Time for Joy" during the seating of the parents. Jim and Shirley also sang "Two Candles" during the lighting of the unity candle.

Vows were exchanged before an altar centered with large baskets of fresh white tulips and daisies. Behind the main altar were pyramid candelabras intertwined with fresh greenery extending into two seven-branched candelabras accented with ivory bows. The kneeling rails and aisles candelabras were accented with fresh greenery, baby's breath and ivory bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a designer gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice of beaded Alencon lace was complimented with an off-shoulder neckline, scalloped in Alencon lace and seed pearls. The lace extended over the shoulder edge of imported English net puffed sleeves. The bodice came to a point in the back and the softly gathered silk organza skirt was edged in scalloped Alencon lace and the lace circled the edge of the cathedral-length train.

The bride wore a tiara of tiny seed pearls and Alencon lace with a two-tiered cathedral-length veil that was accented with tiny seed pearls.

Alison carried a bouquet of ivory tulips accented with fressia and wrapped in ivory net and silk ribbons.

For something borrowed and something blue, she wore a blue garter worn by her mother in her wedding. In her shoe, Alison carried a 1964 penny for the year of her birth.

Patricia Looten served her sister as matron of honor and Kathleen Kotara served as maid of honor. Darci Hatter of Weatherford, Ok., served as the bridesmaid. The attendants were attired in ballerina-length flora print gowns. The bridesmaids each carried a bouquet of pink tulips accented with pink satin bows and ribbons. Cassidy Ann Daniel of Big Spring, and Rachel Cassidy of Plano, served their uncle as the flower girls. They also wore ballerina-length flora print gowns.

The bridesmaids were escorted in the church by John Cassidy of Plano, served his brother as best man; Todd Lamberson of San Angelo and Jimmy Crowe of Corpus Christi served as the groomsmen. Guests were seated by Tom Kotara, Stan Kotara, Dan Looten and Bill Hagen.

The groom, groomsmen, ushers, and fathers wore black designer Christian Dior tuxedos with full dress styling with satin notch lapels and self-faced top collar. Accessories for their ensemble were ivory pleated front shirts with turn down collars black satin bow ties and cummerbunds. The groom's boutonniere was white fressia and baby's breath. The groomsmen, ushers and fathers all wore boutonnieres of pink alstromeria and baby's breath.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony at St. Theresa's Parish Hall, which was decorated with white lattice work in a garden theme. The Bride's table featured a five-tiered cake with cascading spring flowers, mints, fresh mixed cocktail nuts, and punch. The Groom's table featured a chocolate-cinnamon cake topped with a replica of the Texas Tech Double T, fresh strawberries and fruit dip, and coffee. Servers included Sherry Adams, Missy White, Paula Muncy and KayLynda Bull.

The band, The Campbells, played for the dance which followed the reception. A buffet of rolls, barbecued brisket, ham and turkey, fresh vegetables and fruit, various cheeses and dips, chips and crackers were served to the guests.

The couple was showered with family-grown wheat as they departed on the honeymoon to Victoria Island in Canada.

The bride graduated from Texas Tech University in December 1987 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing. She will be employed with SIR Insurance Agency in Dallas. ## Local Scouts Honored

The annual Girl Scout Banquet was held Friday evening in the Groom Community Center. A potluck meal was served to the 75 in attendance with ham furnished by the service unit.

Ann Hernandez of Pampa, is the field executive of Groom and was present to honor the ladies that spent many hours this past year making scouting a success in Groom. Karen Brown was named Leader of the Year. Donna Burton, Marsha Conrad, Belinda Britten and Mary Sue Lyles received awards.

Seven young ladies bridged from Daisy Scouts to Brownies during the evening festivities. The new Brownies are; Skye Brown, Frances Britten, Brooke Britten, Courtney Sustaie. Michelle Stephens, Macie Britten and Jessica Moore.

Brownies bridging to Junior Brownies were; Tammy Ashford, April Burton, Angela Conrad, Maggie Thomas and Kay Lynn Britten.

Two young ladies, Jill Howard and Darcee Lyles bridged from Junior Scouts to Cadettes.

The Daisy Scouts entertained the group with a special song about a hunter. The Brownies performed many scout songs and a melodrama was performed by the older girls.

During the course of the evening each scout was recognized for their hard work throughout the year.

Aimee Lyles, Rebecca Conrad and Melody Burton received their Silver Leadership award which has taken the girls about two years to complete.

Girl Scouts
Cadettes: Aimee Lyles, Rebecca Conrad, Melody Burton. Juniors: Darcee Lyles, Jill Howard, Kimberly Branch, Tamara Moore. The Cadettes were in full force presenting an action packed melodrama at the banquet.

Local Scouts Pay Tribute To Volunteers

In honor of National Volunteer's Week the Junior-Cadette Girl Scouts have been interviewing volunteers in our community. We found out several interesting things.

People are motivated to volunteer for all kinds of reasons. But the reasons they continue are all the same. They are very devoted to their cause or organization. Their time is so very precious they would not waste it on anything they did not believe in. It seems that all our volunteers get something back as well, A sense of Pride, Accomplishment, or A feeling of fulfillment that can not be received for doing a job for pay. Many times these folks have a counterpart that received pay for the same kind of work. Of course everyone had something they did not like about their job. But the benefits far out weighed the liabilities.

It's odd but most of our volunteers also seemed to be some of the busiest people in town. Their lives are very full excluding their volunteer activities. From this we can deduce that they are not giving their time because their days are empty. Most also had to take some kind of training in order to do their job.

To find out how our volunteers see themselves we asked them this question: "If Stephen Spielberg were to make a movie about you and your volunteer job who would play your part?"

Bobby Cornett, Groom Day Co-chair, interviewed by Darcee Lyles, he said his part would be played by Tom Cruise, Al Homer, Mayor, interviewed by Rebecca Conrad, his part would be played by Larry Hagman, Kim Branch reported interviewing Mary Sue Lyles, Girl Scout Volunteer, her part would be played by Carol Burnnett, Bea Stephens, Local Boy Scout Leader, her part would be played by Meral Streep said Melody Burton, Lynn Pool, ambulance attendant, interviewed by Tamarra Moore, her part would be played by Diane Carrol, Aimee Lyles interviewed Rex Peeples, a member of the G.E.D.C., his would be played by Yul Brenner, and so far as myself, Donna Burton, I was not interviewed, but if you are listening Mr. Spriburg, you might try Woopie Goldberg or maybe Erma Bombeck.

REMINDER

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit of Odessa, Texas, which services McLean, today received the certification of the American College of Radiology Mammography Accreditation Program.

Mammography is an x-ray examination of the breast, which the American Cancer Society and other medical experts see as the best means for the early detection of breast cancer.

Remember

MOM

Mother

What is Mother? A smile just any ole time a kiss on a owie, that brings instant healing. A refuge in the time's of life storms. A lap to sit upon, a busom to hug. Security in our childish fears and nighmares.

A kiss upon the cheek, a word of encouragement. The best cook in town, a friend all around. She's the one who always; said I know you can do it. She'll stand by you wherever you are, and when you are accused, she'll say not my Johnny, or not my Sussie... that's my Mom.

Call you Mom this Mother's Day, send her the best flowers you can afford. Next year may be to late. Mom is now gone to be with the Lord and oh how I wish I could just give here a call and send her a dozen red roses, but I just know somehow she is looking down from heaven and knows my heart. So please don't forget Mom this year.

Arbor day was celebrated in McLean this past Friday, April 28, in an unique and special way for the youngsters at McLean Elementary School. The fifth grade class documented the special day by planting a Fruitless Mulberry Tree. Funds were raised by the class to purchase the tree. The purchase of the tree also provided the class with an outing to Alanreed to pick out the tree from the Bruce Family.

Planting the tree became a school event with many parents and students from kindergarten through fourth grade assisting the class in their project. A special program was presented at this time. Heather Hess recited the following poem during the program; I think I shall never see a Poem lovely as a tree. A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed against the earths sweet flowing breast, a tree that:

looks at God all day, and lifts her leafy arms to pray; A tree that many in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair; Upon whose bosom now has lain; who intimately lives with rain. Poems are made by folks like me, but only God can make a tree.
By Joyce Kilmer

During the summer months and during the last few weeks of school each student in the fifth grade class will help care for the tree, by carrying water to the tree each day.

Everyone present at the program took part in the celebration. Those in attendance were asked to shovel dirt back into the hole, to symbolize their participating in Arbor Day.

An overhead view shows the crowd that came out for the event.

During the Arbor Day Festivities, Heather Hess read a poem about trees. What began as a class project grew to a school-wide event as classes from Kindergarten through Fourth Grade gathered to take part in the excitement.

Prescription Transfer

A prescription can easily be transferred from one pharmacy to another. Simply bring the old prescription bottle to help provide directions for use, and one phone call to your doctor can transfer the prescription. The bottle is not always necessary, but it speeds up the process. It is helpful to do this a few days before you run out of medication.

Do not hesitate to phone and ask about prescription transfer or prescription price.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

In reference to your letter from Mr. Christian, published 4-27-89: Mr. Christian probably would not have been cited had he not had 2 outstanding warrants for his arrest on other traffic citations in other cities.

Also, since there seems to be a great deal of interest in the large number of tickets that our officer writes, I would like for you all to consider the following:

Since Mike Colley went to work here on November 15, 1988, he has written citations for 30 violations. 10 of these were on locals and 20 were on people from out of town. They were as follows:

6 running stop signs, 5 no insurance, 5 no drivers license, 1 animal at large, 1 speeding, 1 no headlights 1 allowing an un-licensed driver to drive, 1 unsafe passing on the on the right, 1 unsafe backing, 1 duty on striking an un-attended vehicle, 2 wrong way on a one way, 1 expired registration and 1 disorderly conduct (Urinating in public view).

Our Court has fined 16, dismissed 1, deferred 5, sent 3 to defensive driving, and has 5 outstanding warrants. We have collected a total of $509.50 in fines and $477.50 in court costs. The court costs are sent to the State. Your Judge is not paid and spends his vacation time going to school to be able to do this for you.

I assume that you have all noticed that there are not nearly as many problems with animals running loose in the City. I also assume that some of you have notice that a stop sign is beginning to mean something. Mr. Colley has given a tremendous number of verbal and written warnings in an effort to help you without your being fined.

For five months, I feel that this is not a terribly large number of citations. Especially since Mr. Colley is giving an average of 15 warnings per week instead of citations. Also, if you as citizens would like for the Officer to drive a police vehicle and wear a uniform, please let your council know. It is up to them to provide these items.

Folks, our effort here is to keep you from getting hurt or your property damaged or stolen. Our intent is certainly not to make money. If it were, there would be many more citations and many less warnings.

Thanks,
George Green

Drug Bust

A McLean woman was arrested around 3:40 a.m. today on charges of possession of a controlled substance following a tip that she was transporting narcotics through Pampa.

Pampa police said they received information that Kimberly Dawn Morris, 22, of McLean has narcotics in her car, which was stopped at the intersection of Texas and Frost streets.

A search of the car found no drugs, but one small baggie containing a substance which is believed to be methamphetamines was found during a search of Morris for weapons or drugs.

Prior to Morris being placed into a cell at city jail, a strip search of the woman by a female member of the Pampa Police Department revealed two more containers of a substance believed to be narcotics hidden in a body cavity. Police estimated the street value of the drugs to be between $400 and $500.

A second woman, Bonnie Sue Bailey, 24, of Shamrock, was arrested after she was observed by police near the Morris vehicle, a police report indicates drug paraphernalia was found on Bailey, she was also arrested on a warrant stemming from an earlier incident involving paraphernalia.
