Groom Children Perform In Programs

The St. Mary's Children's choir presented the musical program "King Jesus." The program is set in the village where two years before the shepherds were visited by angels telling them of Jesus' birth. The village people were about to take part in the very first Christmas pageant when the three kings appeared looking for the new King of wonder and power. What they learn from each other that night helped them all remember why Jesus left Heaven and was born as a baby in Bethlehem.

The Shepherds in the presentation were Joe Britten, Nick Ashford, Bart and Bronte Britten, Travis Britten, Blake Barnett. The village women were Melissa Treadwell, Melanie Friemel, Halie Kotara and Stephanie Ollinger. The three kings were Terry Eatmon, Brad Sustaie and Toby Burgin. Their entourage included Trisha Treadwell, Sheri Koetting, Angie Conrad, Jessica Friemel, Daniel Treadwell, Buck and Dusty Babcock and Chris Ollinger. Angels were Karen Conrad, Allison Eatmon, Amber Weller, Sarah Britten and Hilary Irby. Mary and Joseph were played by Tami Ashford and Bo Burgin.

Soloist during the play were Hallie Kotara, Stephanie Ollinger, Tami Ashford and Bo Burgin.

Directing the presentation were Nila Burgin, Debbie Ollinger and Melanie Bridgman. Narrators were Kay Britten, Lucille Britten, Gary Friemel and Donald Burgin. Music was coordinated by Julie Friemel.

A parade of tiny Christmas trees began the program. Singing and swaying to the music were three year olds, Brett Britten, Clay Britten, Jill Britten, Lainie Britten, Staci Britten, Cody Babcock, Brin Burgin, Amanda Conrad, Caren Howard, Mike Irby and Lance Ollinger. The four year old class including Cassie Ashford, Nicole "King Jesus" a musical production was presented by the young vocalist at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Youngsters at the First Baptist Church took their audience back in time to that special time when Jesus was born.

Barnett, Cody Bivins, Garrett Britten, Kari Britten, Trey Britten, Wyatt Britten. The five years old's were Marcie Babcock, Brooke Britten, Macie Britten, Ross Brooks, Skye Brown, Russell Conrad, Fred Irby, Sarah Looten, Courtney Sustaie and Aaron Weller.

The teachers of the tiny trees are Marla Britten, Belinda Britten, Cindy Babcock, Karen Brown and Tammy Bivins.

A special thanks to Janelle Sustaie for video taping the program and all fathers that helped set up and break down the props.

First Baptist Church

The annual First Baptist Christmas nativity was held on Sunday December 18, at 7:00 p.m.

The evening began with a solo by Melissa Fields, "Praising The Lord", accompanied by Connie Fields. The stable was created as angels, Suzi Pool and Dara Whatley entered, followed by the barn animals; Caleb Pool, Dean Fields, Clay and Wade, Ritter, Michael Stephens, Michael Lewis. Mary and Joseph were portrayed by Michele Stephens and Jeremy Lewis. Highlight of the evening was a second solo by Suzi Pool. The kings brightened the festivities with humor as they entered on camels, they were Doug Fields, David Fields and C.J. Whatley.

The puppet group performed numerous Christmas carols throughout the evening as follows Rhett Patterson, Ty and Tom Lambert, Seth Ritter, Stacey Fields, Aimee Lyles, Shannon Miller and Darcee Lyles.

The narration for the evening was voiced by Kiley Lambert. The sound system was managed by Bobby Pool.

The finale of the evening was a candle service while the congregation and choir members sang "We wish you a Merry Christmas".

Helpers that contributed their time in preparing for the event were Nancy Patterson, Carol Fields, Connie Fields, Marion Pool, Becky England Britten, Sharlene Lewis and Bea Stephens.

A reception followed with the Puppet People serving. Santa Claus arrived bringing joy to young and old.

Moraniec Home Wins Top Prize For Home Decorations

The Groom City Council once again sponsored the Christmas Decorating Contest on Monday, December 19. Judges selected the home of James Moraniec as first place winner, receiving a cash prize of $25.00. Placing second with her handmade decorations was Darlene Jones. She receives a cash prize of $15.00. The Gary Davis residence placed third with their array of lighting. They will receive a cash prize of $10.00. Bunny York received an honorable mention along with the Golden Spread Motel.

Nila Burgin Selected Over 37 Applicants

The Groom Independent School District School Board selected Nila Burgin, to fill the position as school secretary. This position was recently vacated by Mary Wood. The Board agreed to a salary of $7,640 per year.

Burgin is a graduate of Groom High School. She attended Amarillo College, Texas State Technical Institute. Her past experience included working for the Carson County Appraisal District, Lucky 13 and Wheeler-Evans Elevator.

Nila is married to Donald Burgin. The couple has three children, Bo, age 11, Toby, 8 and Brin, 3.

The school business office reported that 38 applications were accepted and fifteen applicants took a composition, typing and writing skills test.

Local Happenings . . .

Kountry Cousins met last Friday, December 16, 1988 in the home of Phyllis Jackson with JoAnn Byrd as co-hostess. Each member was asked to bring a food dish for the noon meal.

A short business meeting followed the meal. The next meeting will be a salad meal on Jan. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone who wishes to join Kountry Cousins and attend our nighttime meetings should contact Bea Stephens or Susan Turvaille for more information. After adjourning, members enjoyed opening their Christmas gifts and finding out who their secret pal was.

Supper

A pot luck supper and Christmas Social sponsored by the Groom Community Center Association was held at the Center on Saturday, December 17 at 6:00 p.m.

Pre-meal arrangements were handled by Mary Lee Friemel and Sybil Harrell. Guests were welcomed by Johnny Brumley and Greg Lamb was song leader. Shirley Fields was organist. Art Britten provided dinner music on the organ.

Ticket sales for an afghan donated by LaVesta Barnett was handled by Barney Davis. The afghan was won by Glynn D Harrell who then put it up for auction. Billy R. Fields was high bidder. Proceeds from this will benefit the Center.

Santy made an appearance and handed out suckers and candy canes to the 47 in attendance.

It is hoped this event will become an annual occurrence.

Country Neighbors

Sybil Harrell and June Pool hosted the December meeting of the Groom Country Neighbors in the Harrell home Wednesday afternoon December 14, at 1:30 p.m.

Gifts brought for the Girls of the Borger Campus of Girlstown were displayed and packed for delivery by Emolea London and Mary Britten.

The Hostess Gift was received by Burnice Brown. Games of 42 and Skip Bo were played. Other present were Mesdames; Mamie Ritter, Stella Patterson, Wynona Koetting Theresa Wills, Doshia Cornett, Thelma Pool, Mertie Schaffer and Lula Wall.

Happening

Jeremy Mulkey of Panhandle and Rob Hopkins of Martin, South Dakota, students at Texas Wesleyan College at Fort Worth, visited Jeremy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Glynn D Harrell on Friday afternoon.

Mary, John, Kyle and Jill Howard attended Christmas festivities in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Clark this past weekend in Chillicothe.

Basketball Update

Tuesday, December 13, was an exciting game for players and fans alike. The Groom Tigerettes faced Miami. In the third quarter the Tigerettes fouled down to three players; Heather Patterson, Lesa Sweatt and Kristi Case. These three young ladies completed the game with a final score of 55 to 53, Miami's favor. As the buzzer sounded Groom was attempting a shot that would have tied the game. High point scorers for the game were Shannon Fields with 22 points, followed by Lesa Sweatt with 13 and Jenni English with 10.

The Tigers finished the evening off right with a win for Groom with the final score 59 to 45. Jeffrey Fields leading in scoring with 16 points followed by Mike Conrad with 14.

Hedley VS Groom
December 16,

Groom 63
Hedley 17
High Points for the games was Shannon Fields with 24, followed by Kristi Case with 16 and Jenni English with 11.

These girls were playing without the aide of Karen Bohr who has been out with a injury. Coach Branch reported that the girls have picked up the slack and gone on and done a great job.

Groom Boys 74
Hedley Boys 33
Helping run up the score was Michael Rose with 16 points, followed by Mike Conrad with 14.

Coach Lamb reported that the Tigers are 10-13 in the Season.

Groom Girls 46
Kelton 20

Katonia was high point for the game with six points followed by Julie Lyles and Jolee Burger with 4.

Groom Girls 14
Panhandle JV 44
High point for the game was Julie Lyles.

Groom 46
Miami JV 21
High point for the game was Katonia with 16 points, followed by JoLee Burger with 12 and Julie Lyles with 10.

Coach Branch reported that the Varsity girls are holding a 7-6 record.

The past few weeks we have been "hitting the road" hard keeping every girl in the program active. At present the girls have a 7-6 record and they are continuing to improve. The J.V. team has just completed competition in the Briscoe tournament. These girls did well competing against Kelton varsity and Panhandle J.V. Although the division of varsity and junior varsity did not help as far as the win-loss column, it will prove beneficial in the future. All girls have gained valuable playing time.

To the parents and family of the Tigerettes, I would like to express my appreciation for your patience and support throughout the first part of this season. With the Christmas season and the week-end tournaments, this time of year becomes very hectic.

My association with these young ladies has truly been rewarding. Their enthusiasm and youth are refreshing, their energy is never-ending, and their inexperience on the court keeps me humble. But, through it all, I am proud to be a part of each and everyone. Somehow, sanity will prevail!

As parents, be proud, of and thankful for each of the young ladies. Tigerette basketball is improving!! So, Karen, Jenni, Carlene, Julie, Heather P., Shannon, Susan, Elizabeth, Heather B., Katonia, Kristi, Jolee, and Lesa-Have a safe and happy holiday. Spend time with your family, eat moderately, stay in condition (Run), and be prepared to come back and make a strong run in district. Merry Christmas to each of you and your families.

Appreciation

Words can not describe my feeling when I relive the afternoon of Tuesday, December 6, when so many of my friends came to the museum to greet me, and I was able to review the many nice things so tastefully arranged in our museum.

I want to urge you to support your museum for it has great possibilities and is one of the best small museums in the country.

With love for all and as Abe Lincoln said, Malice toward none.

Letter To Santa

Dear Santa,
Are you feeling well? I hope you are! For Christmas I would like baby grows. My brother wants a tool set. The only thing rong with that is he doesn't pet up dads tools! Broot and Shannan need a sweater, and some ear muffs! Every time Shanen sees the car she goes crazy and when they come in Shanen runs threw the house as fast as she can. But Brut does something even worse than that, he licks you to death and he also scratches me to death.

Love,
Kimberly
