Letter To

The Editor

Letter to the Editor:

I realize McLean is a sports minded community. At least football minded. Football season is over and we have two fine high school basketball teams.

The McLean fans are very few, and we appreciate all of you. But the young people that play notice the few fans also. We played Groom in McLean last Tues. night and I was embarrassed at our small crowd.

There were twice as many fans from Groom. Where are all those people that have attended games in the past. Our kids need your support in all types of sports. Come on out Tuesday and Friday nights and let the T.V. have a rest.

A dedicated Tiger Fan.

School Board Takes No Action

McLean Independent School Board met in regular session last week. All board members were present with the exception of Joe Magee. The board met for about 30 minutes in executive session to discuss renewal of Superintendent Rex Peeples contract. He is currently working under a two year contract that expires July 1, 1992. The board chose to take no action at this time and look again this time next year. Board President Jake Hess stated that Peeples had been given an excellent rating in his evaluation. He went on to say that he really liked to take one year at a time.

In other business, Rex Peeples presented the board some sample policies with the request that they review them for discussion at a later meeting.

66 Station Draws Visitors From Near And Far

Have you been by the factory building lately? You will be surprised to see how much work has been done on the inside. It is very remarkable how good the turn-out has been in regards to the work. This project is going to work for our city! Some of the workers came to McLean in their Campers and stay overnight near the factory so they can work as much as possible.

After the 66 station was restored last spring even with the truck, grease rack and everything painted and shining, we had a lot of visitors during summer vacation. Some of those who registered are Danny Scott (The 66 peddler) 1226 N.S. 80, Oklahoma City, Okla. 73114. The A. C. Moores, 241 Central Parkway, New York, N.Y. 10024. Quinton Lannor, Box 794, Daisetta, Tex. 77533. John oreway, Keller, Tex. 96248. Rusty Simmons, 1995 S. Humbolt, Denver, CO. 80110. David Johnson, 20 Shermear Rd., Montgomery, Ill. 60538. Gary Lemons, 1604 Ellison, Wellington, Tex. This is only part of the people who registered here this summer. There were lots of people who didn't register.

Lydon, London, England. Kenny Smith, 792 Wenden-

NOTES & TALES From OLD ROUTE 66 by D. Trew

One of the main reasons that Ruth and I attended the Oklahoma 66 Convention, was to hear a report by Robert Gaines, Parks and Wildlife supervisor, who is heading up the study to make Old 66 a historical monument. I felt sorry for Mr. Gaines because he spoke over an hour, and didn't really have anything to tell us. I'm sure he is a smart man, and I'm also sure he is sincere. But this appears to be one more government project that will be slow and bogged down in the mire of red tape and endless studies that go on and on and on.

The bottom line seems to be, that hundreds of groups such as the Old 66 groups, are all trying to get their respective projects nominated and funded. This just will take too much tax money, so all will have to be done with private funding.

The Parks Bureau will try to recommend how we do it and develop guidelines for us to follow. Instead of becoming a national monument, it will more likely be designated a part of a national trails system in conjunction with other highways. The study, if funded, will take two years minimum and then turned over to Congress. When and if they decide to act on the study recommendations, again funding will be critical, and no telling when anything will be done.

So, with this information, right from the horse's mouth, we'll just have to roll up our sleeves, raise our own money, and go on as if the study never existed, hoping in some way, some day, maybe something good might come out of it. But in my opinion, don't hold your breath.

Eye Care For Our Troops

With America setting its sights on bringing peace to the Persian Gulf region, we'd best see our way clear to bringing quality vision care to our troops, experts agree.

To meet the eye care needs of troops assigned to the Middle East, eye care professionals in the U.S.

Protective eyewear is distributed to our troops in the Persian Gulf.

military are providing eyewear designed to protect against the environment, including sunglasses and sun, wind and dust goggles, reports the Better Vision Institute (BVI), a nonprofit organization dedicated to improved education about eye care and vision disorders.

Vision experts agree that regular eye exams and routine use of safety eyewear are equally essential for civilians. For free brochures on protective eyewear and vision care write: The Better Vision Institute, 1800 N. Kent, Rosslyn, VA 22209.

PAPER OR PLASTIC?

Which bag do you choose at the grocery store check-out? Today, more American consumers, like you, want to make that choice with the environment in mind. Here are some facts about plastic grocery bags that might help that decision:

- Plastic grocery bags are 100% recyclable through a growing network of collection programs around the country.
- Plastic bags are less bulky in a landfill than paper bags—accounting for six to ten times less the waste by volume. And because modern landfills limit biodegradation for health reasons, paper bags will take up more room for years to come.

• Plastic bag production uses half the energy of paper bag production.

• In the manufacturing of plastic bags, fewer emissions are released—up to 63 percent less—compared to paper bag production.

Knowing the facts is essential to making the right decision for our environment. For more information, please contact The Council for Solid Waste Solutions, a program of the Society of the Plastics Industry, Inc., at 1275 K St. NW, Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20005.

RURAL TEXAS BENEFITS FROM FmHA PROGRAMS

More than 3,958 loans and grants were made for a total of $306,240,000 in Texas for farming, rural residences, community facilities, and business development during fiscal year 1990 by the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), according to Neal Sox Johnson, FmHA State Director for Texas.

Farm lending amounted to $196,310,260 through 2,692 loans. The bulk of these loans went for short-term operating purposes--2,435 loans for $173,511,840. An additional 130 loans amounting to 17,351,590 went to buy or enlarge farms or make major improvements in them. Loans also were made to 114 farmers and ranchers who suffered losses due to natural disasters. These loans amounted to $5,025,020. Funds also were made available for soil and water loans, Indian land acquisition, and state mediation purposes.

"Our farm loans are taking on a new character," said Johnson. "Once again the percentage of farm loans made by private lenders with an FmHA guarantee has increased. In addition, we have assisted large numbers of minority and socially disadvantaged borrowers through our outreach program and through the limited resource program."

Under the rural housing program, lending amounted to more than $67,568,719 through 1,257 loans and grants. Most of these loans provided single family homes for low-income families who otherwise could not have purchased a home. Nearly 826 single family housing loans were made for $27,835,470. An additional $37,205,039 was made available for rental housing which provided more than 866 apartments for rural residents, including 637 for migrant workers. The agency's housing funds also provided housing repairs, site development and the preservation of homes in rural areas.

In the community facilities program, 58 loans and grants for $26,014,500 were made for water and waste disposal systems. An additional 5 loans for $1,686,800 were made for other community facilities, such as medical facilities, fire and rescue stations, libraries, and community buildings. Funds also were used for rural development loans and grants, watershed and flood prevention loans, and resource conservation and development loans.

In the business and industry program, 8 loans were made for $15,225,000, including loans made under programs recently enacted to assist businesses which suffered economic losses as a result of natural disasters.

The B&I program operates primarily through loan guarantees with banks providing loans and FmHA serving as a guarantor. "This keeps federal outlays at a minimum and makes private lenders an integral part of rural development," Johnson said.

tion in San Antonio in November.

True said some of the Texas proposals will be in the AFBF policy book. "We did get our resolution in that would allow wheat growers to graze out wheat and still collect farm program benefits. That was very important to Texas wheat producers, True said.

The Texas delegation also agreed with resolutions passed on management of set aside acreage under the 1990 Farm Bill, and the protection of private property rights.

Losing Texas proposals included a plan to index target prices to the cost of production, and a resolution that would make federal crop insurance an option separate from the provisions of the 1990 Farm Bill.

True said the national policies adopted here feature much flexibility. "It is a program, that for the most part, we can support," True said.

Sinus Survival

If you're the one of every seven Americans suffering from sinus trouble, running your eyes over a new book can help take some of the pressure off your nose.

Dealing with sinus trouble need no longer be such a headache.

Called "Sinus Survival", and written by Robert S. Ivker, a physician who's successfully treated over 20,000 sinus patients, it's a self-help book aimed at the non-medical person. It offers diagnostic tips; various treatment alternatives, both traditional and holistic; and preventive recommendations such as:

*Start the day with a hot, steamy shower to open the nasal passages.

*Use air cleaners, humidifiers, and salt-water nasal sprays.

*Drink six to eight glasses of clean water a day.

*Eat a well-balanced diet, including plenty of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, fish, and poultry.

*Exercise regularly.

*Avoid cigarettes, extremely dirty and dry air, dairy products, decongestant nasal sprays, and antihistamines.

In addition, the book contains all of the non-traditional remedies Dr. Ivker used to cure his own ten-year chronic sinus condition.

The book is available at local book and health food stores, as well as many pharmacies. It can also be purchased by calling 1-800-835-2246 Ext. 47; or by sending $11.95 (includes shipping) to Sinus Survival, P.O. Box 620236, Littleton, Co. 80162-0236.

Challenge Being Made By Local Girl Scouts

Groom Girl Scouts are hosting a blood drive on Jan. 31st. The girls are challenging the Boy Scouts to meet or beat them in the number of donors that give blood that day. Local residents may be contacted by the scouts on or near that day and reminded to give blood.

There will be a poster where donors can credit their pint of blood to either the Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts. If in the event a donor can't decide we will credit one-half pint to each group.

The last blood drive held in Groom raised only 11 pints. The most in recent years was 39 several years ago. Girl Scouts are shooting for 50 pints. With the crisis in the midwest, blood may be needed in great quantities. It is our civic duty as Americans to be prepared if blood is needed.

A representative from Coffee Memorial Blood Bank will be at the Community Center on Thursday, Jan. 17 at 5:30 p.m. to present information and answer questions about giving blood. The public is invited as well as Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts and their parents.

Glen Milner Receives Three Life Sentences

After entering a plea of guilty on one count of murder and two counts of attempted capital murder, Kenneth Glenn Milner was sentenced to serve three consecutive life sentences. A Carson county grand jury re-indicted Milner last Monday on two counts of attempted capital murder. Originally he had been charged with two counts of aggravated assault and two counts of attempted murder. The capital murder charges carried a higher penalty, including the death penalty or life sentences, than the 2 to 20 years the original charges carried.

Milner is a self proclaimed satanist who on the evening of July 13, killed Frankie Garcia of Panhandle, attempted to kill Jimmy Britten of Groom and Kenneth Williams of Panhandle.

Judge Forbis discounted the prosecution claim that Milner should be charged with capital murder because Milner kidnapped Garcia. In order to prove capital murder, District Attorney David McCoy had to establish that another felony or theft had taken place along with the murder. McCoy alleged that because Garcia was enticed to the murder scene by Milner's deception, MEDICINE MAN ...

Ferdinand Lindheimer was a man fascinated with plants. While farming near Houston, in 1843, he wondered if he could make a living from botany. He struck a deal with a Harvard professor; he was to collect and mount specimens for $8 per 100 plants. He traveled alone throughout much of the frontier of Texas. The Indians didn't bother him, they believed he was a medicine man who used the plants in magic potions.

Milner

he was in effect kidnapped.

Forbis said that the necessary elements to define kidnapping were not found in this case but regretted changing the charge to murder because it does not carry the death penalty.

During testimony on the attempted capital murder case involving the assault on Jimmy Britten, Britten testified that Milner gained entrance to his home by preying upon the acquaintance Milner once had with Britten's step daughter, and asking to use the telephone. Milner attempted to disable Britten with a stun gun and slash him with a razor.

"He said he had already killed one person that night and wasn't leaving till he killed me," Britten told the judge.

Britten received 200 stitches due to alteration.

Kenneth Williams, the other victim, in the second capital attempted murder offence, testified that Milner rang his doorbell between 2:30 and 3:00 a.m. on July 14th, asked him to come outside and talk.

When Williams refused, Milner fired three shots through the door. Williams was hit by two of the shots, one in the right leg and just below the heart.

Knocking Williams to the floor, he said "It was Glenn Milner who shot me."

Williams' two children came into the room and saw him, he told them to run and hide...he was afraid Milner would return and kill them all.

The shooting put Williams in the hospital for several months and crippled him financially.

"Mentally, this is something that will never heal," Williams said. "What he has done to my kids is wrong. No court on this earth can make a punishment that this deserves. Only God can do that and I have faith that he will.

Williams biggest fear is that Milner could eventually walk the streets again.

"He could come back and kill my kids-finish the job. And I believe he will do it.

Milner could be eligible for parole in 45 years.

Terry Timmons, Carson County Sheriff, was the only witness called to the stand during the Garcia murder trial. He stated that the sheriff's department had been called in the Britten and Williams cases. The department was not even aware of the Garcia murder until Milner told them.

Milner told them that Garcia's body could be found at the barn next to the "Haunted House," on an abandoned farm 4-1/2 miles northwest of Panhandle. Timmons stated that Milner showed no remorse, even expressed hatred for Garcia.

Milner had a history of bizarre behavior that included suicide attempts and boasts of his satanic activities. Steve Sherwood, a classmate of Glynn Miler's stated, "It wasn't a secret, he told people about it."

One of the people he apparently told was Gray County D.P.S. officer Johnny Carter. Carter

arrested him on June 23rd for driving while intoxicated.

At the time of the arrest, Milner told the officer that if he took the cuffs off, he would kill him. Milner said that he had to kill someone of authority to get power from his group. He also admitted to thinking about killing his parents. He said that he would do something on Friday the 13th that would "shake up" the whole town.

According to authorities, Milner had a hit list with 8 to 10 names on it, including a Panhandle police officer and several other Panhandle residents.

In his confession, he told police that he had planned to attend a Friday the 13th birthday party at a nearby lake and kill teens as they went to the restroom or passed out. He planned to immobilize them with the stun gun and then kill them. He wanted to "rack up the body count" like Camp Crystle Lake in the Friday the 13th films.

Milner also made a video tape sometime before the murder and attempted murders, attesting to his desire to go on a killing spree. He apparently intended to kill himself before the video tape could be viewed. When Milner was arrested for events that took place the night of July 13th, Milner held the gun to his own head and threatened his own life, but dropped the gun saying, "I forgot the word."

Milner's attorney, Douglas Woodburn, said that Milner has seemed to have a 180 degree change of heart at this point. He claims to have found God.

As Kenneth Glenn Milner was loaded into a plane to take him to Huntsville, he told spectators, "God Bless you."

Teamwork Focus Of Cookie Sale

Local Girl Scout troops met Saturday afternoon for training on the 1991 cookie sale which begins this Friday, Jan. 18th. Mary Sue Lyles, Product Sales Chair, conducted the two hour course that covered safety rules, new products and the incentive program. Lyles was assisted by Senior Girl Scout Troop 57, Darcee Lyles, Rebecca Conrad and Melody Burton, members. Two troops of girls attended the training. Karen Brown, leader of Troop 42, and Donna Burton, leader of Troop 21, stated that girls must have training and parental permission before starting the sale. Anyone who missed the session will receive one on one training.

The cookie sale is important to troops for many reasons. Although the money it makes is important because it pays for most of what the girls do all year, there are other aspects that are more important. The sale teaches the girls many of the life skills that they need for growth in maturity. Marketing skills, self confidence and team work are just a few of the abilities that the cookie sale will aid. Although each girl is urged to do her very best, Girl Scouting does not advocate competition among the girls to see who can sell the most. Teamwork, to raise money for the troop as a whole, is the focus.

Coaches Comment On Teams Performance

Coach Branch stated Tuesday morning that he was pleased with the performance of the Varsity Girls so far.

"We had a tough week last week," he said, referring to opening of district play. "We got off to a tremendous start facing McLean and Claude in the same week."

Coach Lamb was equally pleased with the Varsity Boys performance, "The Tigers are off to a really good start," he said.

The Tigers and Tigerettes are both 2-0 for the district season.

On the sick or injured list this week is J.V. player Kenzi Burger and Varsity Tigerette Karen Babcock.

Cub's 8th Grade Teams Victorious Over Claude

Eighth grade girls were also victorious, beating Claude 35 to 28. Misty Homen lead the scoring with 13 points. Stacy Fields and Melissa Treadwell tied for second with 8 points each.

In boys action, the upset of the evening was the 7th grade boys game. Colts overpowering the Cubs 31 to 11. High point was not available. Eighth graders redeemed Groom's record by winning 39 to 26. Again High Point was not given to the Groom News.

Rough Describes Groom - Claude Games

A "standing room only" crowd turned out Friday night to watch long time rivals. Groom and Claude, battle it out on the basketball court. No one seems to know why they are such rivals...many families are related to each other in the opposite towns. But the action is always a bit more exciting than usual.

The junior varsity girls began at 4:00. Usually only parents and grandparents make it to these games that come so early in the day. Not so, in this case, as the gym steadily filled. By the time the junior varsity boys game began a good seat was hard to come by.

The J.V. girls began a fast paced game and quickly took the lead. Roughness was the order of the day, with lots of tied up balls and players skidding across the court. The second half found Tigerettes scoring streak go cold. The Claude coach received a technical foul for arguing with an official. Final score Claude 36, Groom 24. High point was Melody Burton with 10 points. Kenzi Burger and Rebecca Conrad tied for 2nd high point with 4 each.

Junior Varsity Boys also lost with a final of Claude 64, Groom 42. High point was not made available.

In the varsity girls game fast and rough were still the name of the game. Many skinned knees and bumped heads were had by both teams. A Claude player was cited a technical foul for intentionally fouling. Half-time found Claude behind by 3 points, score 23 to 20. Tigerettes came back fired up. Mustangettes held them all the way with the score going back and forth. Kristy Case scored a total of 23 points, Shannon Fields scored 9. Final score Groom 50, Claude 46.

Varsity boys continued the "ruff and tumble" action with the final game of the evening. Groom got off to a slow start trailing by 2 at the end of the first quarter. By halftime the spread had been widened by 11 points with Claude leading. Groom came back after the half time intermission with one eye on the scoreboard and the other on the basket. They quickly ran the points up to 44-49 in Groom's favor. Jeffery Fields lead the scoring tallying 32 points, Mike Conrad came in next with 16. Final score Groom 76, Claude 56.

Another returning team of sponsors is Miller Lite and Channel 11, sponsoring a star for their fifth and fourth years, respectively. This year, it's the Feb. 25 performance, featuring Clint Black. Returning for their third year is Chevy First Team, who will be sponsoring the Feb. 21 Garth Brooks performance. Also returning for a third year is Snickers Brand, partnered with first-time corporate star sponsor, the Houston Chronicle. They'll be behind the final Sunday performance of Reba McEntire, March 3. The Texas Gulf Coast GMC Truck Team comes back for a second year as a corporate sponsor, supporting the Judds performance, Feb. 22.

Dick Graves, Show president, noted that all early indicators lead Show officials to expect a great year. "We've got the biggest star line-up in our history, we've kept ticket prices low and we're helping young people all over Texas. That's real winning combination," he said.

Ticket prices remain at $5, $10, & $12, depending on seat location. Tickets are available at all Rainbow Ticketmaster and Ticketron locations, including the Astrodome box office.

Ticket purchases will be limited to 10 per performance per individual from the time the ticket outlets open, 9 a.m., Friday, Jan. 11, until the close of business Sunday, Jan. 20. At the start of business Monday morning, Jan. 21, there will be no limit on ticket purchases at the ticket outlets.

The 1991 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo opens with horse show competition Thursday, Feb. 14 and other livestock competition and Go Texan activities begin Saturday, Feb. 16. All events conclude March 3.
