FIFTH U.N. ASSEMBLY REJECTS CHINESE RED SEAT AT WIND-UP

PARIS, Nov. 5 (AP) — The fifth United Nations General Assembly rejected today a Russian demand that the question of giving China's seat to the Communists be given priority in the sixth assembly, opening Tuesday.

The vote was 11 for, 20 against and 11 abstentions. Russia's Jacob A. Malik threw the explosive question of Chinese representation into what diplomats had hoped would be a non-controversial, ceremonial windup of the fifth session.

He angrily declared: "It is time to put an end to this disgraceful attitude toward the Chinese people."

T. F. Tsiang, Nationalist Chinese delegate, denounced the Russian proposal as calculated to "decrease peace." He said the regime Malik proposed to admit has been denounced by the assembly as an aggressor in Korea.

Britain and France abstained on the vote. Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb said he abstained because he was sure the question would come up tomorrow, when the sixth Assembly convenes, anyhow.

Malik, arguing for his resolution, noted that a special committee for the assembly had been unable to agree on recommendations about who should represent China. He called this "astonishing."

After rejection of the Soviet demand, the rest of the meeting went off as scheduled.

The big four — U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman — were not present.

US Peace Formula Basis For Speech

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP) — President Truman and Gen. Eisenhower confer on western defense problems today in a confidential meeting affording an opportunity to talk politics—if either man wishes.

Another topic is a foreign policy speech the President will make Wednesday night. This is understood to be concerned with a new American move toward a settlement with Russia, to be made in the United Nations General Assembly opening in Paris Tuesday.

The White House said Mr. Truman will make his address at 9:30 p.m. (CST) Wednesday. It will be carried on all major radio networks. It will be built around a formula for disarmament and atomic controls, peace in Korea and other major East-West issues.

Eisenhower arrived Sunday and said he was here "for one purpose only — to talk military affairs with my superiors in the Pentagon and elsewhere in Washington."

Asked whether he would see Sen. Duff (R-Pa.) who is booming Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination next year, the general replied that he had not heard from Duff "either directly or indirectly in a long, long time."

His first visit to the capital since Feb. 16 was billed officially as being made to report to Mr. Truman and others here on his progress as commander in chief in building an international army for the defense of Western Europe under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Eisenhower arrived in the U. S. Saturday and went to Ft. Knox, Ky., where he and Mrs. Eisenhower visited their son, Maj. John Eisenhower. He disavowed any intentions of talking politics with the President.

He also declined a yes or no answer to a question as to whether "come what may," he would not be a candidate for President next year.

"Of course you can't say that," Eisenhower responded. "I will not indicate political leanings of any kind. I'm going a job. That's my statement."

Yet the schedule arranged today provides a prime opportunity for an exchange of views between him and the President on political affairs.

It was expected that during the morning Eisenhower would meet with Secretary of Defense Lovett. Then at 1 p.m. he was due to go to Blair House, the presidential residence, for a luncheon with Mr. Truman, just the two of them.

Politically conscious Washingtonians found it difficult to think that in this confidential man-to-man session the President would not at least try for some indication of whether he might be confronted any time soon with the necessity of finding a successor to Eisenhower in the critical European command which the general holds.

At 3 p.m. the President and the general were due to meet with Lovett and Undersecretary of State James Webb, as well as other state and defense department officials, in the Cabinet room at the White House.

Official informants said Eisenhower was aware of the things the President would talk about Wednesday and that Mr. Truman would discuss the matter further with him when they met.

The main topics of their discussion, however, arise out of the increasing difficulties which have beset Eisenhower in trying to get together a sizeable international force for the defense of Europe in any reasonable time.

County Commission Is Busy With Bills

A stack of bills for the month of October kept county commissioners busy this morning. Members of the court returned over the weekend from Corpus Christi where they attended the annual state convention of County Judges and commissioners.

Iran Is Temporarily Operating Refinery

TEHRAN, Nov. 5 (AP) — Iran announced today that "with the help of God" it has begun temporary operation of a major unit of the Abadan Oil Refinery, from which the British were expelled in the British-Iranian oil quarrel.

The government announcement said proudly that Iranian engineers and workers, without foreign help, started up "apparatus No. 79," one of the major refining units of the vast installations.

The government said plans call for operating the unit only a month, to refill storage tanks with oil for domestic consumption.

This unit, which has a yearly capacity of three million tons, will produce automobile gasoline, kerosene, diesel fuel and asphalt, and would permit refining about 250,000 tons in a month. When operating fully, the Abadan refinery produces about 25 million tons of petroleum products a year, including high octane gasoline from a super-modern catalytic cracker.

Arms Census, Including Atom Weapons, May Be US Proposal

PARIS, Nov. 5 (AP) — The United States was reliably reported today to have decided to propose a worldwide arms census including a complete accounting of all atomic weapons.

The plan, which will be placed before the United Nations Assembly here this week, calls for a strict system of verification for the atomic accounting. This may prove a stumbling block which could hold up indefinitely any disclosure of the number of atomic bombs in the U. S. and Russia.

Informed quarters said the arms proposal was the heart of the reported peace plan which President Truman will announce Wednesday night and which Secretary of State Dean Acheson will lay before the United Nations Assembly, perhaps Thursday.

Inclusion of atomic weapons in the proposed arms census represents a drastic change in U. S. policy. The census question has been before the U.N. since 1948, but was blocked by the Russian veto because the U. S. refused to include atomic weapons.

Word of the U. S. policy shift leaked out as the 50-nation Assembly prepared to launch its 18th meeting tomorrow. The U. S. was reported asking Britain and France to support its new peace formula, timed to beat Russia to the peace punch before the Soviets have a chance to renew their expected peace offensive.

Main points of the arms census are expected to be: A U.N. demand upon all countries for a complete accounting of all troops and weapons.

An ironclad system sending inspectors into any country to make first-hand verification of the figures submitted.

Russia has agreed in general terms to accept a system of inspection of atomic facilities, but her terms were never spelled out in concrete form.

The Russian idea was for inspectors to be admitted periodically to established facilities. The Russians never have said they would give completely free access to U.N. inspectors to travel about the Soviet Union at will.

The arms census plan is intended

Huge Atomic Blast Set Off

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Nov. 5 (AP) — The fifth atomic blast in the current test series exploded at 10:31 a.m. (CST) today.

Thirty seconds later the atomic cloud customary in the detonations could be seen from Las Vegas rising over the Yucca Flat test site, 75 miles away.

It was a big one, perhaps the biggest yet, reported observers here who have seen the previous blasts.

There was a purplish color to the mushrooming cloud.

An indication of the size and power of this detonation was indicated by a series of small explosions in the area.

The cloud rose to its stem, and the mushroom above quickly acquired formations that looked like two ice caps.

Then it settled and within a few minutes the stem began to wither and break up. The great white cloud took on a coral pink cast, while at the base an angry-looking purple cloud spread over the desert.

An AEC spokesman warned newsmen to waste no time after the detonation in departing Mt. Charleston, the vantage point from which they have observed the tests at Yucca Flat 50 miles north.

No such warning was issued before the first four explosions in the series. Presumably Mt. Charleston was expected to be in the path of "wind-blown radioactive particles."

The AEC also notified the Civil Aeronautics Administration to warn all planes to avoid flying above 21,000 feet, again presumably to avoid radioactive dust.

The CAA was told to keep planes between Las Vegas and Albuquerque clear of the 11,000 foot level. This indicated another bomb drop by planes from the special weapons command at Albuquerque.

High level observers on hand included Gen. Curtis Le May, head of the Air Force's strategic bombing command, and AEC Commissioner T. Keith Glennan.

A strong likelihood is that the series will end with the next blast, or one more. The four previous explosions included a tiny tower shot Oct. 22 and three bomb drops of increasing intensity Oct. 28 and 30 and Nov. 1.

The Nov. 1 bomb drop tested 5,000 troops in Exercise Desert Rock, the nation's first atomic maneuvers. All troops were stationed outside the danger area. Three dogs placed closer to ground zero, the spot directly under the burst, were killed. Four sheep were dazed, but survived. The animals were believed to have been less than a mile from the ground zero.

Major equipment, including tanks and jeeps, was not greatly affected.

Mrs. Helen Boland Succumbs In Dallas

Charlie's "eyes" have gone out. Mrs. Helen Boland, who said she had to get well because "Tim Charlie's eyes" died Sunday.

The tiny flame of life, which had glowed dimly since her case was diagnosed as bulbar polio here last week, flickered and died at 11:30 a.m. at the Parkland hospital.

She had been in a respirator since friends here made it possible to have her flown to Dallas for special treatment last Tuesday. Doctors told Charlie that it would be impossible to tell for about a week if she would be able to pull through the ordeal.

This was Mrs. Boland's second attack of polio. The first, sustained as a child, left her crippled.

It was 13 years ago that she met Charlie Boland, and they were married. Charlie could get around all right except that his vision was almost gone. She was less active because of her crutches, but she could see. Helen Boland became Charlie's eyes.

The two set up shop in the Post-office lobby a few years ago. Postmaster Nat Shick was satisfied these two could and would run a stand the way it ought to be run—and they did. Thousands knew them, though perhaps not by name. So it was that many had sought out H. T. (Tiny) Walton and Murph Thorp to make contributions to a get-well fund for Helen Boland.

Man Is Crushed To Death In T&P Railway Coal Car

A man tentatively identified as Walter J. Laakey, about 35, was found crushed to death in a T & P coal car in the local yards early this morning.

Police theorized that Laakey had entered the car and had buried himself under newspapers to keep warm when several huge power poles in the car crashed down on him, pinning his legs and body against the floor. He was dead when found by George Hecker, a switchman. A switch engine is thought to have caused the poles to shift position.

Efforts were being made to find relatives of the victim, who is believed to have recently returned from a former home in Detroit. Letters on his person were addressed to that city and his home address was listed as 6933 Jefferson street in Detroit.

It also is believed he had worked for a time in mines in Arizona and was headed in that direction to resume employment.

A card on his person directed that Richard L. Balsteros of 518 West 1st, Temple, Ariz., be notified in event of death or accident.

Laakey was slightly built, weighing between 100 and 115. He had grey eyes and brown hair.

Building Permits Near $3 Millions

Building permits are knocking at the $3 million level.

Totals for October stood at $390,515 for 110 permits, according to F. W. Bettis, city building inspector.

This was the best month since April and brought to $2,972,655 the aggregate of permits for new construction this year.

The number of permits was equal to the year's previous record of 119 in January. In terms of dollar volume, however, there were three months — January, March, and April — which outranked October.

Bettis said that the total number of permits for the year was 827. It therefore appeared unlikely that the 1,000 mark in permits would be reached this year.

Record by months (number of permits in parentheses) follows: January (119) $390,515; February (98) $306,950; March (72) $439,025; April (108) $411,855; May (51) $179,355; June (72) $117,850; July (81) $100,000; August (90) $160,145; September (81) $214,485; October (110) $390,515.

Opposites Attract In New Shoe Designs

Opposites attract. It's an old saying, and if you don't believe it, have a look at the new shoe fashions that out this season. Or ask the girls who are head-of-the-class.

Opposites in textures are now all the thing. Opposites in colors are a new fashion dish, too. Leading shoe designers have mated their softest-napped materials together with sleek ones in the same shoe. They've splashed vivid colors contrarily against dark ones. And the results prove, as far as fashions go, anyway, that opposites do attract—the eye.

This year's smoothest-girl-on-campus wears her shoes "half-smooth." She flashes to class in a flat that's half sleek leather, half suede. The foot she dangles under a coked toe will look trim and cozy in worsted flannel pumps set off with polished calf.

The soft suede numbers she boasts for rush parties and campus teas will have vamps touched with braid, inset with nylon mesh, or applied with reptile of an opposite shade.

A closed pump heads the list in her shoe wardrobe. And she'll tell you that it's now better with a "tapered look," smarter if it's "slim of heel" no matter what the height. If she says, "I love squares," she is not talking about fellows who aren't hep. She's referring to squared vamp designs that are the latest style feature of opera pumps.

She's fond of low shell-cut vamps, too, and of shallow wafer platforms on well-toe pumps. She's crazy about new medium-high heels that are curved slimmer than before, that are shapely as high heels yet comfortable for walking.

But beyond all other pumps, every coed now wants a pair with the half-and-half look. Apparently the collegiennes and the shoe designers put their heads together and decided that "two ideas are better than one." So now her idea of a well-stacked opera is suede with a collar and tall heel of gleamy calf.

She might choose brown calf on deeper brown suede to add richness to her outfit. It has the same advantage as the convertible casual - to - date clothes this girl swears by. It can either double for her dress pumps, or take the place of a tailored spectator.

Done with bright red heel and collar on black suede, it's a nice formula for catching a man's eye, too—one thought which the girl in school seldom forgets. Another snappy team of opposites in opera pumps is black suede combined half-and-half with dark red or salt-and-pepper colored lizard, or lizard-to-match on navy or brown.

In fashion's new shoe vocabulary even the word spectator rates a new definition. Time was when it meant invariably a pump with tailored trim applied in conventional manner covering the toe and rear of the shoe. Now, the spectator comes to college as a pump decidedly more sleek of line and with lots of "material difference."

Registering as a new favorite is a worsted 100 per cent-wool grey flannel spec finished off with shiny black calf. Calf trim covers only the tall heel itself and skirts the lower portion of the vamp, or else circles the entire shoe like a side-wall rim—just on sweeping line.

Everywhere in the young girl's shoe wardrobe, the two-leather story repeats itself. She insists that even those loafer-style moccasins, her old campus standby, now look better "half-smooth." So whether she picks them in new charcoal grey (Grey is a color to watch—it's big fare this Fall), or navy, green, or cognac suede, each must have dandy matching calf trimmings for contrast. She'll want them to have perfectly flat spring heels made all-in-one with the heels made all-in-one with the latest campus craze.

Pride of her wardrobe to many a teen-ager—and to girls who have long since put away their books to follow careers, too—are hand-sewn moccasins, the simplest shoes made. But in order to meet school requirements now, the new handsewn sport bold white contrast stitching.

Two-color wedges will live up even the dullest class. Red-calf-grey-suede combinations are brass newcomers. Suedes of a green that's fresh as the freshmen have butterscotch tan trimmings. Wool flannel teams up for class with slick polished leather in medium-high wedge silgs—seated in flecked grey with black, or chocolate with brown.

New flats styled British manner take their contrast trimmings in the form of a mudguard that circles the base of the shoe giving the appearance of a platform. Crepe soles, big favorites for Saturday strolls and sport activities, are right in swing with the trend to opposite textures. Pale neutral crepe rubber makes natty contrast against suede uppers of deep admiral blue, dark grey, or woody green.

Callers included Lawrence Robinson, Oscar Nabors, Garner McAdams, Charles Hordenbaum, Jane Thomas, Bill Cook, Gordon Hughes and Leonard Miller.

Students of Mrs. Homer Willoughby will present the other part of the program. All parents are urged to attend.

DESIGNING WOMAN

Dual-Purpose Furniture Is Answer For Small Quarters

The floorplan sketched is typical of thousands of one-room apartments in new buildings all over the country. They're minor miracles of compactness. — they include adequate storage space, bathtubs are full size, kitchens are fully equipped. But after the space for a dressing room closet, a coat closet, a linen closet, a bathroom and a kitchen is measured off, there's not too much area left for sleeping, eating, working, lounging and entertaining.

Here's how furnishing and decorating problems were solved by one busy career girl. Her first decision was made about sleeping arrangements. Since members of her family often visit, she wanted two beds and chose two plain mattress-on-boxsprings that could be sofas by day and beds by night. Wide bolsters make them comfortable to sit on and tailored upholstery fabric covers give them a sofa-like look.

Her next idea was to settle for as few pieces of furniture as possible so the room wouldn't look cluttered, but to find the exact pieces that would be most useful in the space. She shopped long and earnestly for a chest until she found one the length of the short wall between the living room and the dressing room, a chest that stored from the floor up and made every inch count. Extra clothing goes in the bottom drawers, extra bedding and linen in the center drawers.

Table linen, writing supplies and silver in the top drawers and a glass-walled superstructure on top of the chest shows off and stores best dishes.

The dining table had to be a small one so a card table size was chosen, but it's a card-dining table that flips its top over to double its size. The coffee table had to be a big one because Miss Career Girl likes big table style and because one had to do. The chair is the most comfortable chair she could find, not a bulky one but deeply upholstered. With no room for tables beside the sofa beds, floor lamps which are easy to adjust provide light at the right heights.

Two more tables were added, however, — two little tables that can pull together to become a larger table. They also have cushions so they can be used for seats.

The color scheme? Walls are creamy pale brown, sofa bed covers a deeper shade of the same. Draperies are brown, black, white and turquoise on a cream background. The chest and coffee table are finished in medium light brown and the rest of the furniture woods are black. The big lounge chair is turquoise and the cushions on the small black tables are turquoise. The floor is black asphalt tile on which are brown and white rugs. Lamps are brass and light wood and brass is used for a number of accessories.

Ike's Return Stirs Speculation, And His Statement Raises More

You take a fellow like Ike Eisenhower—one of the best known and most popular men in the world, politics aside—and make him one of the most desired and undusted political figures of his time without his having opened his trap about politics, and it gets to where every time he brushes his teeth or has his orderly dump his ash-tray it's big news of world-wide significance.

He would have to be replaced as bossman of NATO, and our European allies would want to know about that well ahead of time. When Ike was picked for NATO Mr. Truman was variously accused of (1) sending him out of the country to get rid of him, (2) building him up as a foil to Senator Taft's ambitions, (3) to influence Congress in providing extra funds for European aid. Actually, the eleven other NATO members asked for Ike.

Congress Should Not Be Above Any Codes For Government Workers

Is Congress a law unto itself? Should any legislation looking toward a higher code of ethics for others in government apply with equal force to Congress and its members? A Senate Labor subcommittee headed by Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) thinks the answer to the second question should be yes.

Factors or would-be contractors, loan applicants for privileges in the public domain, men who want to get into the armed forces usually as commissioned officers, and others who want to get out, veterans who have been delayed or denied and many others come to their senator or congressman.

Steel Employes Can Boost Pay With New Plan

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5. (AP)—Some 25,000 workers in Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation plants will be able to boost their earnings as much as 35 per cent, under a new pay incentive plan approved by the government.

The plan, sanctioned by the Wage Stabilization Board and the CIO United Steelworkers, supercedes a "work load incentive" program which applied to only about 700 employes.

A Jones and Laughlin spokesman, disclosing the government's action, said Sunday night the plan will increase steel production and employes' earnings and is strictly "non-inflationary."

Wage Stabilization Board officials said the incentive plan is intended primarily for a new steel works recently dedicated here.

The program, known as "equipment utilization type plan," is based on how much a given machine can produce.

AREA OIL

Mitchell Wildcat Will Test Reef; Glasscock Well Flows

Northwestern Mitchell county had a deep wildcat location Monday, one which may go to the Strawn section of the Pennsylvania.

A previously shut-in Spraberry discovery five miles north of Stanton has been retreated and has been swabbing about four barrels of oil per hour.

An outpost to the Driver Spraberry pool in southwest Glasscock kicked off and was flowing to clean and test after hydraulic treatment.

Borden
A Hobo pool location in southeast Borden county is Standard of Texas No. 4-4 T. L. Griffin, 660 from the west and 1,860 from the north lines of section 39-35, H&T, rotary to 7,500.

Gulf No. 3-B Glass, C SE SW 10-36-1n, T&P, plugged back to 8, and hydraulically fractured with 3,000 gallons. The hole was loaded and then flowed 83 barrels of load oil through 4 choke in eight hours. Then it died and operator swabbed another 177 barrels of load oil and five of basic sediment and waste in eight hours and is still swabbing.

Deep Rock No. 1 McWhorter, C NE NE 31-35-1n, T&P, five miles north of Stanton, was treated with 3,000 gallons of kerosene with jet-breaker and surface tension-breaker and then with 10,000 gallons of 7 1/2 per cent mud acid after being shut-in for several months. TCU Fumbles

Texas Christian back Bobby Jack Floyd (32) fumbles the ball when tackled by Baylor players in first quarter of game played at Waco. The ball was recovered by Baylor back J. Reid, not shown.

Baylor players are center C. O. Brocato (54) and end Red Donaldson (83). No. 87 is TCU and George Wilson (83). TCU won 20-7 to take the top spot in the Southwest Conference. (AP Wirephoto)

McKown Doesn't Look Like Star But, Oh Boy!

FORT WORTH, Nov. 5. (U)—He doesn't look as much like a football player as the water boy. He has no speed, throws the ball sideward like a baseball pitcher, kicks as though he has stumbled backward and has as much grace as a bulldog on a slick dance floor. Yes, that's Ray McKown, who's leading TCU toward the Cotton Bowl.

He was the fellow who shot down Baylor Saturday and removed the last unbeaten team from the Southwest Conference. He also kept TCU undefeated and untied in the conference.

McKown is a football accident. Three guys who were supposed to play quarterback for TCU got hurt. McKown was the only fellow left to take over the job. And how he did it!

His greatest day was against Southern California. He made 340 yards rushing and passing. McKown scored two touchdowns and set up a third with a cleverly executed inside kick in a last quarter surge that beat Texas A&M 20-14. The week before he engineered a last period drive that got three touchdowns against Texas Tech.

Ray was a defensive back when he started his sophomore season at TCU. He was only fair as a freshman and in spring training. Dutch Meyer was doubtful about it but put Ray in at safety. McKown was the goat in his first game as Kansas threw two touchdown passes in the territory he was supposed to be covering. He also called for a fair catch in that game with his opponents 40 yards away and repeated the error against Nebraska.

The 19-year-old Texan improved and finally was accepted as a regular defensive back. McKown boasts 545 yards passing — he's third in the conference — and 245 rushing. He leads the conference in punting with an average of 39.5 yards. He has scored five touchdowns.

TCU folk wish he looked like a football player but they certainly aren't complaining about the results. Shortstop Eddie Lake of the San Francisco Seals and formerly of the Detroit Tigers established a home run record for the Seals Stadium. He had hit 18 homers there with one week of the season remaining.

BOWL PICKING TIME

TCU Has Inside Track In Loop

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Southwest Conference football teams with a mathematical chance at the championship are to submit preferential lists for the Cotton Bowl next week.

All seven members would have to turn in such lists. But Saturday and at least three teams could definitely fade from the picture. Baylor makes its last feeble bid at Austin against Texas, the team with the best season record but second in the conference race.

Rice, which, like Texas, has lost only one game, engages those fireballs from the Orkars — the Arkansas Razorbacks — at Houston in a night game.

SMU, which could get back into the race only if everybody lost two games apiece, and Texas A&M, which could return only if everybody lost three, play at College Station.

TCU, leading the race with an unbeaten record with three games to go, takes the week off.

Last week found SMU, Baylor and the Aggies fading badly. Baylor, unbeaten but once tied, was knocked down by TCU 20-7. SMU, with one loss, was kicked around by Texas 20-13. A&M, with a defeat and a tie, took it on the chin from Arkansas 33-21.

Rice won an inter-sectional game from Pittsburgh 21-13. It helped conference prestige. This league now has won 14 games against outside foes while losing seven.

Two inter-sectional games left on the schedule. Baylor plays Wake Forest at Waco, Nov. 17 and Arkansas meets Tulsa at Little Rock Nov. 24.

Texas A&M continues as the leading offensive team, rolling up 368.7 yards per game. Texas is tops in defense, allowing only 213.7. Gib Dawson of Texas is the leading scorer with 48 points.

Two quarterbacks starred brightest in last week's games, with Lamar McLean of Arkansas accomplishing the most. McLean, the big blond sophomore, gained 263 yards passing and running, made two touchdowns and passed for another against the Aggies. Ray McKown of TCU rolled up 201 yards against Baylor, scoring one touchdown and setting up another.

Dick Ochoa led the Texas ground assault that humbled SMU with 139 of the 237 Texas yards.

Abilene will be the center of attention this week in the Texas Conference pigskin chase, with Abilene Christian and McMurry colleges staging their homecoming games.

Abilene Christian, which had its title ambitions spilled with a 13 to 14 loss to improved Texas A&I, last week, faces Austin College in a 3 p.m. game. McMurry meets Howard Payne in an 8 p.m. contest.

Rugged Midland Bulldogs Meet Steers Friday

The Big Spring Steers stick their heads into the lion's mouth this weekend. Beaten soundly by Lamesa last week, the Longhorns challenge the club Friday night that had slaughtered that same Lamesa outfit, 33-7, only the week before—the Midland Bulldogs.

Only a miracle can deprive the Bulldogs of the district championship now. They took care of what was generally regarded as their most serious opposition last week, the Vernon Lions.

If the Steers are to make any kind of a showing against Midland, they're going to have to tackle better, block better and run better than they ever have before.

In Ralph Brooks, the Midland team has one of the finest all-around backs in West Texas. Brooks has been the spearhead of the Midland attack all season.

Brooks has plenty of help from such lads as Larry Friday, Robert Keisinger, Stan Coker and Dalton Byrley, to name a few.

Doyle Maynard, Big Spring's sophomore speedster who missed last week's game with Lamesa due to food poisoning, may be ready for the Bulldogs. The Steers missed him sorely.

The game will be the next to last home attraction of the year for Big Spring. After the Midland bout, Vernon is booked to play here on Nov. 16. The Steers wind up their season on Nov. 23 in Sweetwater.

Yearlings Look To Next Game

Yearling football coaches replayed the Junior high school's game with Odessa's Bowie numerous times over the weekend after returning here, and the result was always the same—Odessa 13 Big Spring 6.

It was a bitter pill for the locals to swallow, but they got it down and will try to bounce back this weekend in a game with Lamesa here. That engagement, incidentally, will be played Saturday night in Steer stadium.

Any way you look at it, the Yearlings did very well against Odessa. In the first place, Bowie was playing "catch-up." They had lost their first game of the season to the Yearlings, 6-0, and since hadn't been pressed by any of their foes.

Big Spring grabbed a 6-0 lead Saturday and might have gone further out in front had a first half drive not flamed on the opposition's ten-yard line.

As it was, the Bowie team had to go like all get-out-to win. The score was 7-6 until the last ten seconds of play when the Odessians had time to throw two passes and get another TD.

LITTLE SPORT

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Barney Barnard, Sr., the Lamesa golfer who died recently, was on hand for all but one of the 19 Big Spring Invitational tournaments, was an active player in 17 of those. Injuries kept him from competing in that one but he dropped in to kibitz, just the same.

He was one of the big reasons relations between the two clubs were always so cordial.

MORE FOR MONEY? In the Haskell-Big Spring football game several weeks ago, fans were treated to no less than 152 plays, 79 of them with Big Spring on the attack.

Apparently, there was less action when the Steers played Plainview the following week, for the ball was in play only 118 times, with Big Spring on the attack 63 times.

There was no doubt but that the Plainview outing was the more exciting from the standpoint of the spectators, though.

It's a shame a Clarendon high school had to forfeit those four games in District 1-A.

The lad who cost the Broncos the game, Jimmy Mooring, had been in high school more than eight semesters, true, but he was only 16 years of age.

Ed Beach, a fine footballer for Wichita Falls last year, has quit Oklahoma university, reportedly to enroll at Schreiner.

TOO MANY OFFICIALS? The Pacific Coast football conference may follow the example set by the National pro league and use five game officials in 1952.

The Big Ten already uses five game supervisors, the fifth of whom is known as a "back judge" and who plays opposite the head line man. His job is to follow the movement of the offensive team.

There have been times in games here this year when four officials seemed too many. One of the arbiters had a habit of getting into the way of Big Spring ball carriers.

His doctor now says Don Heinrich, the great University of Washington pass thrower, may not be able to play football in 1952.

In fact, Don's coach, Howie O'Dell, says there's only one chance in ten he'll see action next fall.

On the subject of the University of Washington, it could steal some of West Texas State's thunder and trot out the "world's tallest basketball team" this season.

According to reports, the starting five will average 8-feet-7.

WACO HOSTS TEXARKANA

Nine Of 4-A, 3-A Districts Have Undisputed Leaders

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

At least one district championship can be decided this week in the upper divisions of Texas school-boy football.

Mainly—the 47-game schedule in Classes AAAA and AAA is a "leveling up" but if Texarkana wins at Waco Friday it can sew up District 5 in Class AAAA.

The Dallas District also has a crucial game — Sunset vs Adamson. Sunset, Adamson and Woodrow Wilson are tied with 2-0 records.

Another important game matches Grand Prairie with Paris in Class AAA. The winner will become a prohibitive favorite for District 3.

Nine of the 16 districts in the two classes have undisputed leaders. They are:

Class AAAA — 1, Lubbock; 2, Ysleta; 3, Arlington Heights (Fort Worth); 5, Texarkana & Ray (Corpus Christi); 7, Lamar (Houston).

Longshoremen Voting Today In NY, Boston

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—Insurgent AFL longshoremen were trying today to avert a back-to-work vote in New York's longest and costliest port strike by threatening to picket a union-sponsored meeting.

The wildcat walkout of stevedores entered its fourth week with an estimated 100 vessels and a billion dollars worth of goods immobilized in the world's biggest harbor.

Both New York State and the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, which has opposed the rebellion by some members, scheduled new efforts today to halt the strike.

In Boston, also tied up by the walkout, an all-day vote will be conducted, on whether to return to work.

The port remained relatively quiet over the weekend. No pickets were out Sunday and some 1,500 non-striking ILA members worked.

An estimated 20,000 longshoremen have been striking here and another 1,900 in Boston.

The wildcaters want negotiations reopened. They demand a 25-cent-an-hour wage boost and other pact changes. The contract granted a 10-cent increase, brings the pay to $2.10 an hour.

Baby Swallows Pins; Two Still Stuck As Operation Undecided

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5. (AP)—An 11-month-old Filipino girl with pins in her stomach and lung — was in St. Francis Hospital today while specialists decided whether to operate on her here or in Chicago.

The child, Elvira Difuntorum, was flown from the Philippines. No bronchoscope in Manila was small enough for the operation.

Elvira, daughter of a 32-a-week Manila laborer, swallowed nine pins but got rid of seven.

Tax Rebels Ask Public Hearing Over Protests

MARSHALL, Nov. 5. (AP)—Ten Marshall wives protesting the collection of social security taxes from household servants want their protest aired at a public hearing.

The ten stood fast Sunday on their decision not to attend individual tax delinquency hearings Wednesday in Dallas with Treasury Department officials.

"We feel the public should have more information concerning the iron curtain with which the Internal Revenue Department has surrounded itself," the women said in a statement.

Ellis Campbell Jr., tax official in Dallas, wrote the women that a public hearing could not be granted "because the Congress has made no provision for public hearings in the Internal Revenue service concerning specific tax cases."

Recently the Internal Revenue service took small amounts from some of the women's bank accounts. The wives said they were waiting for word from Washington on their request for a refund "of money confiscated from our accounts without due process of law."

233 Are Named On New Casualty List

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5. (AP)—The Defense Department identified 233 more Korean war casualties today. Of the total, 76 are dead, 137 wounded, 14 missing and six injured in battlesome accidents.

The latest summary listed 14,393 killed in action, 68,641 wounded and 12,558 missing.

Abdullah Planning To Head For Samia

EL PASO, Nov. 5. (AP)—Sheppard (Abdullah) King III planned today to put his wild three-day tour of Mexican night clubs behind him and head for the arms of his Egyptian betrothed.

The Houston oil heir, whose romantic high jinks led from Paris to the Rio Grande, planned to leave tonight or tomorrow for Dallas.

"The time will depend on how I feel," he said Sunday night before leaving for his third round of Juarez night spots.

After two weeks in Dallas he will fly to Egypt. His Cairo marriage to Egyptian Dancer Samia Gamal is set for Nov. 22.

King's marathon celebration followed his quickie divorce Friday in Juarez from his wife, Gloria. The two had been divorced before but remarried last June — a ceremony Gloria says, in a pending annulment suit, she doesn't remember.

King sped to El Paso and the Mexican divorce courts in his flashy Cadillac after legal maneuvering in Houston postponed court action on the annulment matter until December.

The glib Texan said he would remember his Juarez jaunt for two things — tequila (a fiery liquor) and the Mambo (a fiery dance). Nothing could make him forget the moon-drenched deserts of Egypt and his true love, he asserted.

"Just wait until I get my little Samia over here," King said. "She'll be the hottest little thing in the country."

Samia has scheduled a tour of U. S. night clubs beginning Jan. 1. Sheppard indicated he would travel with her.

'Bluish-Black' Mole Could Mean Cancer

By FRANK CAREY
 DALLAS, Nov. 5. (AP)—Be wary of any "bluish-black" mole on your body: it could be a "dangerous" cancer, two doctors said today.

Dr. James A. Hendrick of San Antonio and Dr. Grant Ward of Baltimore told the Southern Medical Association:

"Bluish-black moles can be one of the most dangerous cancers occurring on the human body. When these moles are located on areas where they may be irritated, they undergo cancerous change and are quickly disseminated over the entire body which prevents their cure."

They said "any solitary mole" could be cut out by the patient's doctor and examined under the microscope to determine if it is cancerous.

"The form of treatment of moles with caustics, acids, electric needles, or radium is extremely dangerous," they said, "as these agents frequently will not destroy the mole but may stimulate growth to the extent that it cannot be cured."

The doctors made the report in connection with a scientific exhibit they staged dealing principally with cancer of the head and neck.

(An authoritative medical reference book defines that while all moles and related growths are potentially malignant, the development of cancer tends to be more prevalent among those growths which are deeply colored, flat, smooth and hairless.)

Hendrick and Ward also discussed non-cancerous blood vessel tumors — or "birthmarks" — and said many can now be removed with dry ice, radium, x-ray or certain injectable solutions "with excellent cosmetic results thereby preventing these individuals from being cosmetic cripples all their lives."

TEXAS BRANDS SAM

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
 S. H. Pehler, who in the '30s headed out for the far northwest ridge, Texas, and his ranch on Buford Creek, followed the custom of the free ranging cattlemen of the day by placing his first name SAM on the right side of his cows.

There was a variety of earmarks to be found on the free range cattle of the early '30s, each of which seemed bent on destroying the ear entirely so that rustlers would have little or no ear left to work on.

Son Watches Father Die After Boat Is Upset In Ocean

LONG BEACH, Calif., Nov. 5. (AP)—"I'm too tired — goodbye," whispered Wilbur Cooper, 44. Then he released his grip on his overturned skiff and slid into the depths of the Pacific.

His son Irving, 20, and a friend, Robert Oxenfeld, 20, also clinging to the boat watched helplessly.

A short time later, a passing cabin cruiser spotted the two young men and pulled them aboard, two hours after their boat upset off shore.
