

New Farm Parity Basis Is Vetoed By Roosevelt

Bankhead Bill Is Termed As Inflationary

Wholly Inconsistent With Stabilization Program, FD Says
WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP) — Branding it inflationary and dangerous, President Roosevelt vetoed today the Bankhead bill to increase farm prices by excluding benefit payments in figuring the farm parity price formula.

Returning the measure unassigned to the senate, Mr. Roosevelt said in a message: "I am compelled to this action by the deep conviction that this measure is inflationary in character. It breaks down the barriers we have erected and which we must maintain in order to avoid all the disasters of inflation. It is wholly inconsistent with our stabilization program and, therefore, dangerous alike to our constructive farm policy and to our whole war effort."

Administration opponents of the bill, which won easy victory in both house and senate, have estimated it would add approximately $1,500,000,000 to the nation's annual food bill. It takes a two-thirds vote of both the house and senate to override the president and make a vetoed bill law. The Bankhead measure originally passed the senate by a vote of 78-2. The house showed a standing vote in its favor of 149 to 40. Few opposed it in debate in either chamber.

Mr. Roosevelt contended the measure would go beyond the goal of parity income and give farmers "an unwarranted bonus at the expense of the consumer." He said the farmer is substantially better off than in the last war but would not remain so "if we set loose an inflationary tornado."

What he called the present relative favorable position of American farmers, he said, can be held only if the general stabilization program succeeds, and all groups except those on the very margin of subsistence are willing to recognize that for the duration they not only cannot expect to improve their living standards, but must indeed be willing to bear their fair share of the cost of stabilization.

Mr. Roosevelt, himself, estimated the bill might swell the cost of living more than 5 per cent and add more than $1,000,000,000 to the consumers' food budget and several hundred million dollars to the cost of feeding the armed forces and supplying our allies.

If by this bill the cost of basic foodstuffs is forced up, he said, and the national war labor board increases wages as a result, "no start or what those increased one can tell where increases will wages will ultimately cost the farmers and all people of the nation."

If food prices and wages rise, the chief executive continued, the cost of armaments, ships and planes necessarily would mount and the government would have to borrow even greater sums to meet the cost of the war.

Tulsa Woman Was Seeking Husband, Witness Declares

TULSA, April 2 (AP)—With dramatic suddenness, after only a few words of testimony from T. Karl Simmons, wealthy oil man, the state rested today in the preliminary hearing of Mrs. Ella B. Howard, charged with slaying Simmons' wife.

Called to the stand from the judge's chambers where he awaited earlier testimony, Simmons donned black glasses as he took the chair before the crowded courtroom. After his identification, County Attorney Dixie Gilmer asked: "Is Mrs. Simmons living or dead?" "Dead" replied the witness.

"That's all," said Gilmer and when the defense declined cross-examination, the state rested. TULSA, Okla., April 2 (AP)—A witness testified today that Mrs. T. K. Simmons went to the hotel room of the woman accused of murdering her convinced that her wealthy husband was keeping a rendezvous there.

The witness, George Sheehan, Simmons' office manager, said at the preliminary hearing for Mrs. Ella B. Howard, trim Fort Worth divorcee, that he argued in vain with Mrs. Simmons, prominent socialite. "She told me," Sheehan testified, "Mrs. Howard was registered in the hotel and she thought Mr. Simmons was up there with her."

To a jam-packed court room of Common Pleas Judge Grady S. Cornett, Sheehan traced his role in the night of March 28 in the swank Mayo hotel. Mrs. Howard followed the proceedings intently while outside Simmons, a wealthy independent oil operator, waited for his turn on the stand.

Sheehan said that Mrs. Simmons had called him to come down to the hotel, where he met her in the lobby. She insisted that he find out from the clerk in what room Mrs. Howard was registered. The Simmons official added that he told her she "had no business going to Mrs. Howard's room," and the well-known horsewoman conceded she had considered telephoning the police.

Sheehan said he entered an elevator with Mrs. Simmons and rode with her to the ninth floor. He knew, he added, that Simmons was at another downtown hotel but said nothing to her. He took a few steps down the hall with her, Sheehan continued, and then noticed that Mrs. Simmons held her purse in the other hand.

"It seemed to me I ought to look in there," he testified. "You were looking for pistol," said defense counsel. "Or a knife," Sheehan added. County Attorney Dixie Gilmer's objection to this line of questioning was sustained. Finally Sheehan was permitted to say "I was just making sure she wasn't armed."

He said, however, that Mrs. Simmons was wearing a fur cape and he made no effort to search her person. Then, Sheehan concluded, he returned to the elevator and went back downstairs. The state was attempting through the hearing to establish a motive back of the gunplay which Mrs. Howard said resulted when she attempted to wrest a pistol from Mrs. Simmons.

Although a quota has not been assigned, it is indicated that Howard county may be expected to invest $750,000 in government securities during the April drive. The sum will include not only the E, F and G savings bonds, but all treasury securities, including 1-1/2 pct. bonds, tax notes and certificates of indebtedness.

The nation as a whole is asked to raise 13 billion dollars to help finance the war. The first War Loan in December had a goal of nine billion and exceeded the sum by about two billion. Thursday's sale of war bonds here totaled $6,500, issuing agencies reported for the first day of the month.

Ruling Awaited On Labor Measure
AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Governor Coke R. Stevenson said today he would delay action on signing or vetoing the Manford labor union registration bill pending a study of validity of some of its provisions by the attorney general's department.

At a press conference the governor declared he would not announce a decision before Monday. He said the measure, requiring the registration of unions and controlling to some extent their financial affairs was in the hands of Assistant Attorney General Richard Fairchild. The governor estimated he had received between 1,000 and 2,000 telegrams with a ratio of approximately 10 to one favoring veto. It was his impression that most of the telegrams came from union officials and members.

Russians Push Toward The Black Sea

Troops Closing On Important German Positions

MOSCOW, April 2 (AP)—Three more villages have fallen to Soviet troops closing about Novorossisk and other German positions along the Black Sea coast, the Russians announced today, but elsewhere on the long front only minor activity was reported by the Soviet noon communique.

The advance in the Kuban valley of the Caucasus last night followed gains reported previously in the midnight communique. Although the direction of the advance was not immediately defined, it was believed to be in an area north of Novorossisk with the Red army expanding its gains out of recaptured Anastasevskaya, 33 miles north of the Black sea port.

Air duels continued in the area, the Russians asserting that nine enemy planes were shot down and three damaged when Soviet airmen intercepted a Nazi air force raid. The Russians announced they were consolidating positions northeast of Smolensk in the drive for that German base and that German counterattacks were repulsed. A company of German infantry was wiped out in one sector; at least 60 Germans were shot down as they attempted to storm through the wire about one recaptured position in another sector, and about 200 were killed in engagements south of Bely, it was said.

The struggle for mastery of Donets river positions on an arc east of Khar'kov was marked last night by the exchange of gun-fire, with heavy losses inflicted on enemy infantry attempting to attack, the noon war bulletin said. Russian counterattacks threw back a German force in the Sevsk area, 170 miles northwest of Khar'kov, it was said.

Scout Leaders Course Begun

More than a score of men took part in the initial class for Boy Scout leaders Thursday evening in the First Baptist basement, and steps were being taken Friday to swell attendance for the second meeting. H. D. Norris, field executive, pointed out that there was still time for men to enlist for the course and get credit for it since requirements are based on attendance of six of the seven sessions. Moreover, there will be a make-up meeting, he added.

The Rev. Jim Moore and John Coffey were in charge of instruction for the first meeting, and the Rev. Moore served as scoutmaster pending return of the leadership training chairman, the Rev. P. D. O'Brien. Sam Winham, C. S. Edmonds, Charles Crouch and Jake Morgan were chosen as patrol leaders.

Under terms of the bill, county attorneys, district attorneys or the attorney general could be inoperative proceedings to prohibit collection of interest in excess of 10 per cent.

New Source Of Milk For City Is Studied

Scurry County May Be Able To Furnish Part Of Supply
Representatives of Scurry county milk producers were here Friday to confer with distributors on the possibility of diverting production to the Big Spring market. G. G. Gordon and H. O. Baird, both of Snyder, arrived at noon to talk with creamery managers, chamber of commerce officials and city health authorities.

Scurry county was said to possess a surplus of its milkshed, whereas the Big Spring market, already hard pressed, was in close straits following the dispersal of the Hank McDaniel dairy herd, largest in the area, on Monday. Loss of production from this herd was estimated at around 400 gallons daily. Some small part of it, however, was still coming into the local market through other channels.

Whether the Scurry county supply was all type three, produced under regulations for bulk marketing to cheese plants, etc., or whether there was a volume of it under grade A specifications was not known immediately. Shooting down of the 16 Zero in the aerial dog fight off Guadalcanal brought to 902 the number of Japanese planes announced here as lost in the Solomons. Lewis Charges Intimidation

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, charged today that agents of the military intelligence were intimidating miners "with the implied suggestion that a second military front is to be established in the coal fields of the Lewis." Lewis told newsmen after a negotiation session with the northern Appalachian soft coal mine operators: "A new disturbing factor has entered the situation out on the coal fields. I refer to intimidation actions and tactics of the military intelligence in the fifth and sixth corps areas and perhaps elsewhere. Agents of military intelligence are appearing at our district offices demanding names of coal companies, locations of mines, names of officers and members of local unions with the implied suggestion that a second military front is to be established in the coal fields of the country."

Jap Destroyers Are Blasted By Yank Bombers

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—American bombers battered a Japanese force of five destroyers southwest of Kolombangara while almost at the same time, fighter planes were engaging 30 to 40 Japanese Zero fighters and shooting down 18 of the enemy planes, the navy reported today. In these Solomon Island engagements, six United States planes were lost in the aerial combat, fought northwest of Guadalcanal Island, but Results of the attack by bombers on the Japanese surface force were not observed, the navy reported in communique No. 332 which told also of two more attacks on the Japanese base at Kiaka in the Aleutians. Shooting down of the 16 Zero in the aerial dog fight off Guadalcanal brought to 902 the number of Japanese planes announced here as lost in the Solomons. No official explanation of the presence of the Japanese force off Kolombangara Island 190 miles from Guadalcanal, was given. 34 Take Tests For Military Thirty-four youths Friday morning stood examinations for possible army and navy college training. The tests, part of a nationwide program, were to ascertain the abilities of applying young men for specialized army training or as prospective naval officer material. John A. Coffey, who with Pat Murphy supervised the tests, said that papers would be sent directly to the University of Texas for grading and that probably the applicants would hear directly from them around April 15-20. Of the number taking the examinations, 25 were high school seniors and six others were graduates within the past two years. There were three other young men under miscellaneous classifications who also qualified for the tests.

New Air Route To Open Next Week

NEW ORLEANS, April 2 (AP)—Pan American Airways system officials announced today that the first flight over the newly-approved New Orleans-Guatemala air route was tentatively scheduled for late next week. Theatre Patrons Respond To Appeal For Red Cross

That West Texas folk are fully aware of the importance of the work of the Red Cross in wartime is exemplified in fine response to the theatres' Red Cross Week which opened Thursday. In three R&R showhouses here, 323 was contributed during the one day. Theatre observance of the Red Cross Week continues through next Wednesday, and at the Ritz, Lyric and Queen each day will be shown a special film, "Somewhere in This World," in which the commentary is made by Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker. The picture explains the functions of the Red Cross as the only official auxiliary of America's armed forces. Boy Scouts and Red Cross workers are at the theatres each day to accept individual contributions.

Registration Of Cars Gains

When the storm subsided and the office of the county tax collector and assessor got back to normal again, clerks reported a sale of 4,985 1943 passenger car licenses through the first day of April or 145 more than were sold last year. Commercial licenses came to 880 or the exact number issued in 1942 and farm licenses amounted to 263, ten more than sold last year. In all 4,930 tags were issued through Thursday, and Friday morning clerks were keeping busy enough with latecomers who had to pay a penalty tax of 30 per cent or pay 25 cents for an affidavit declaring their car had not been driven. However, clerks estimated that the biggest part of the job was done and that there would probably not be very many more customers for 1943 tags.

Although the Howard-Glasscock chapter is over its quota in the recent War Fund drive, the national Red Cross allotment has not been met, hence the national theatre participation. In announcing the latest local total, The Herald erred Thursday in ascribing a $1,923.88 gift as being from civilian employes at the Bombardier school. This sum included all contributions from the military personnel at the post also, and one of the remarkable items in the local drive was the 74 spouses of officers and men at the air field. They set the pace by being practically 100 per cent.

Montgomery's Men Mopping Up Pockets Of Resistance

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 2 (AP)—The British First Army was reported today edging east and north of recaptured Sedjenane while Americans in the central sector engaged in some fighting and Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery maintained pressure upon the new German-Italian lines 24 miles north of Gabes. "The Tunisian front was generally quieter yesterday," a communique announced, indicating a lull in preparation for the next round of the battle to drive Field Marshal Erwin Rommel into the sea. "Our patrols were very active over the whole front."

A report from the Eighth Army said "winkling out" was proceeding, which was assumed here to be General Montgomery's way of saying that his troops were mopping up the remaining enemy pockets of resistance north and west of Oudjda, itself 13 miles north of Gabes, and consolidating for the next thrust. United States forces of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., were again in action, but no details were available here. (The Algiers radio reported, without official confirmation, that Patton's divisions had established a junction with the Eighth Army by a push eastward from the El Guestar sector.) Slowed by mine fields, the British and French forces commanded by Lieut. Gen. K. A. N. Anderson pressed from Sedjenane, 40 miles southwest of Bizerta, toward Matruh, 18 miles south of that naval base, and made good almost the last of the losses in the fighting a month ago. (The Algiers radio said First Army vanguards were in the vicinity of Matruh.) Even as the lull developed in land operations, Allied airmen pressed their destructive blow despite bad weather and fresh details became available of the raid by 100 light and medium bombers yesterday upon El Messaoui air field at Sfax, the biggest single operation by the western desert air force since the days of El Alamein. As in Wednesday's raid by almost 100 U. S. flying fortresses upon southern Sardinia, all the raiders returned. Heavy anti-aircraft fire was encountered over El Messaoui, but no enemy planes attempted to interfere in the fighting. North African air force bombers escorted by Spitfires bombed La

Because They Were 'Children Of Sin'

DENVER, April 2 (AP)—An unwed mother has admitted, Detective Capt. James E. Childers said, that she drowned her three newborn babies and hid their bodies in a hope chest because "they were children of sin." Bernice Williams, 23, signed a statement admitting the slaying. Childers announced, after a calm recital of how she bore the babies unattended, the first one in 1941. She was taken into custody without charge and held without bail, pending further questioning today. "I did it because I didn't want anyone else to have them and I was afraid I could never bring them up," the officer quoted the trimly dressed brunette as saying: "Three tiny bodies, two of them almost mummified, were found yesterday wrapped in cloth and cardboard, stuffed in a chest stored in an apartment house basement. A caretaker notified the coroner's office after detecting an odor near the chest. "I couldn't help it because they were born," Childers quoted the young woman as saying. "I'm just constituted that way. They were children of sin and it was best that they should die. Nobody but me knew about them until today—not even the fathers. "My physique is large and my condition never showed." Childers said her signed statement contained these details: That she was unmarried, and that the babies were born in April of 1941, February of 1942, and February this year. That she laid off work, as a department store buyer of infants' wear, only three days at each birth, and performed the necessary surgery unaided, at night, in the bathroom. That she submerged each infant in a bathtub of water for 20 minutes, then wrapped it in a cloth and hid it under her bed until she was able to carry it downstairs to the wooden chest. The first two children were girls, with the same father, her statement related. The third was a boy, by a different man.

STARS IN DALLAS
DALLAS, April 2 (AP)—Jinx Falkenburg and Paulette Goddard, movie actresses, and Bob and Tom Falckenburg, nationally known tennis players, will appear in a Red Cross benefit exhibition tennis match at the Southern Methodist University gymnasium here tomorrow night.

Cronin Won't Be Too Active On The Field

MEDFORD, Mass., April 2 (AP)—This may be an old-timers' year in baseball, but it isn't going to be for Cronin.

Some of the fans herabouts have been wondering whether the 36-year-old manager of the Boston Red Sox would undertake to return to a regular role as the result of shortstop Johnny Pesky's entry into the navy.

The question never quite reached the proportions in Boston that Leo Durocher's plans for playing stirred up in Brooklyn, but the answer is the same. Like Durocher, Cronin may play a little, but not any more than he has to.

Four Names To Appear On City Ticket

Line-up for the city commission election next Tuesday apparently is complete, although deadline for filing by petition does not fall until Saturday.

More Hunting Arrests Due To Meat Shortage?
AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Texans in growing numbers are using the most elaborate methods to get around the law against illegal slaughtering of deer and migratory wildfowl.

Game department officials said today that wardens from all parts of the state are reporting considerable increases in the number of arrests for such hunting. They admit that the hunters far outnumber the wardens, because much of this outlaw game taking comes at night when apprehension of violators is difficult.

Almost invariably persons arrested for night and out-of-season hunting say they are resorting to it because their families are meat hungry.

That's an old story from backwoods violators, but a new note from shooters who hail from the city.

There is no inclination on the part of game, fish and oyster commission officials to wink at violators or seek legislation relaxing bag and season limits, for either fish or game. Wardens have been instructed to crack down in each case.

Large concentrations of wild ducks and geese along the Texas coast have brought a parallel increase in illegal hunting in that area and along with it a mobilization of state and federal game law enforcement officers.

STILL NEGOTIATING
NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—Contract negotiations between northern and southern Appalachian bituminous operators and the United Mine Workers apparently remained in an early discussion stage today with no sign that agreement was near.

intercollegiate record in the shot put.

Coulter smashed the record in a practice session this week.

The high jump mark established in 1940 by Boynton of Oklahoma A. & M. and Walters of Baylor University will be challenged by Pete Watkins of Texas A. & M. college and Jerry Donovan of Drake University, Des Moines.

A second Drake entrant, Billy Moore, who was second to Cornelius Warmerdam in the Malrose games at New York this season, will be vying to beat the 14 feet, three-eighths inches mark of Nebraska's Hunt.

Oklahoma A. & M. will threaten the mile relay record. The Stillwater Aggies use a combination that features Jim Metcalf and Ralph Tate. To win the Aggies must beat Texas A. & M. and East Texas State Teachers College entries.

Max Minor, the Texas flyer, will try his hand at the 100-yard dash and the broad jump, then step into the quarter-mile relay combination. Oklahoma A. & M., Howard Payne and Texas loom as the four teams to lead this event.

Howard Payne is favored to win the 880-yard relay and the Texas Aggies, Texas, North Texas and the Oklahoma Aggies are due to fight it out for the distance medley crown.

Texas A. & M. gets the favorite's call in the sprint medley.

Downtown Stroller

Lunched downtown with Mrs. DICK McNAMARA the other noon, discussed among other things, our mutual love for chocolate cake which was agreed was few and far between these days, more's the pity.

JOE EDWARDS stopped us en route to the ration office to tell us there was no news in that spot, except that LOUISE WHITAKER was getting married come Saturday. All of which made us believe that the various ration panels meeting at the ration board office had been kidding LOUISE but she doesn't seem to be bothered.

Standing in line, where she had been off and on for two days was CONSTANCE CUSHING, trying to get a car license for her car. Since we couldn't find a "stand in" for her in the line, we couldn't get out for a cup of coffee. And by the way, next year think we'll hire out for plenty an hour to stand in line for other folks to get their new car license. Might pick up quite a bit of change that-a-way.

Mrs. J. N. GREENE and Mrs. JOE POND and her little daughter, PRISCILLA, were riding by the other noon and gave us a lift to work. PRISCILLA is growing so tall, it seems hard to believe she was just a tiny little girl the last time we saw her.

ANDREW MERRICK went out to the bombardier graduation Thursday and really threw bouquets at the speaker, DR. D. M. WIGGINS. Said it was one of the best talks he had heard in a long time.

Bombardier Instructors Finish Course

Four key officers of the Big Spring army air forces bombardier school have completed nine weeks of detached service during which they were members of the first class at the air forces central instructors school for bombardiers in Carlisle, N. M. In operational training units, they received additional training and observation with air crews training for combat.

Of especial interest is the fact that the first class at CBIS was composed of leading present instructors of bombardier schools. These men together with other experienced instructors and officers just back from combat pooled their experiences and made up the course of study that was presented in the school, the course which, with variations, will be presented to succeeding classes.

Officers from this field were Lt. Olin Mann, squadron instructor, Captain James Charles Logan, director of ground school, Captain Edward P. Harrison, senior instructor, Lt. Charles Muse Cary, squadron instructor.

Creation of the air forces central instructors school heralds a new era in aerial devastation of the axis. Students in this "teachers' college" of the air are the top-notch instructors of the nation's bombardier schools. They will return to their regular stations to instruct cadets which will receive the benefit of ideas and training given at CBIS.

Thirty Women To Participate In Scout Class

Thirty women have enrolled in a Girl Scout leaders training course which will open Monday, it was announced Friday by Mrs. A. B. Partridge, chairman of organization.

The course will be directed by Mrs. Warren N. Edson, a veteran Girl Scout leader who at one time was in the movement professional. Plans call for two-hour sessions on Monday and Wednesday for three consecutive weeks. These will start at 3:45 p. m. Other women who desire to take the course should contact Mrs. Partridge or report for the initial class Monday afternoon.

Consultants in the course—those who will assist in its operation—are Mrs. M. L. Wishoff, Mrs. Dan Conley, Mrs. Vic Blankenship, Mrs. C. S. Edmonds, Mrs. V. A. Whittington, Mrs. Wayne Pearce, and Mrs. Partridge.

Those who will participate in it include Mrs. Boyd McDaniell, Mrs. Larson Lloyd, Mrs. Frank Mognett, Mrs. Richard Allen, Mrs. Thelma Price, Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Mrs. Ray Lipe, Mrs. John Ackery, Mrs. Roy K. Gilliam, Mrs. Albert Fisher, Mrs. Cal Boykin, Mrs. C. J. Staples, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. John L. Matthews, Mrs. D. C. Rhoades, Mrs. H. H. Rutherford, Mrs. Ennon Lovelady, Mrs. Vic Blankenship, Mrs. Florence McNew, Mrs. Marie Dunivan, Mrs. Wayne Pearce, Mrs. H. B. Culley, Mrs. G. R. French, Mrs. Manley Cook, Mrs. C. S. Edmonds, Mrs. Harold Akey, Mrs. V. A. Whittington, Ruth Burnham, Carmen Arroyo and Catherine Malloy.

FLOWER HAT—White flowers are combined by Screen Star Frances Gifford (above) to make this attractive spring hat. Spathiphyllum or lilies are adaptable.

Raid On Sardinia Designed To Halt German Withdrawal

LONDON, April 2 (UP)—The smashing 100-plane flying fortress raid on Sardinia was interpreted here today as defining the possible route and probable fate of any axis attempt to duplicate Dunkerque in a retreat from Tunisia, but unofficial observers suggested it was more likely the Nazis would fight to the death under orders from Adolf Hitler to buy more time for defense of the continent.

Despite the cost in men and material, and its effect on the morale of the German people, such a stand would fit the recent defense-mindedness displayed by Hitler and his general staff when faced with the gathering power of the Allied onslaught.

A decree of doom for Col. Gen. Jurgen von Arnim's hastily-gathered army and Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's veteran Africa corps would be dictated by these necessities:

1. An attempt to delay the Allied mopping-up of North Africa to the last minute, taking the heaviest toll in the hope of gaining time against the inevitable invasion of the continent.

2. The need to husband what is left of the Italian war fleet against invasion day, rather than risk the extreme losses that powerful Allied air and sea concentrations might inflict on covering vessels as well as any evacuation fleet.

Reports reaching here from Bern indicate that Hitler already may have given Marshal Rommel orders to hold to the last man, but Rommel probably will not be sacrificed.

These reports indicated Rommel would be named commander in chief of the whole southern European coast—which Prime Minister Churchill called the underbelly of Europe—and would direct defenses from the Italian shore to Spain.

Here 'n There

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ripps have received word from their son, James Ripps, of his promotion in the U.S. department of commerce weather bureau at Cheyenne, Wyo. He is to leave sometime after April 15 for a six weeks course at Omaha, Neb. and possibly later for assignment at Boston.

Those guards, who by reputation are impervious to mercy, have a soft spot after all. While serving as OD at the Big Spring Bombardier School last week, Capt. W. E. Turner, public relations officer, found things stirring around the reservoir post. A detail had been set for carrot and lettuce scraps to feed a bunch of cotton-tail rabbits which frequent the place. This continued practice of the guards had made the native hares so bold as to come to the guard hutment for their food.

Soon to receive his silver pilot's wings and an important assignment in the army air forces with the completion of his advanced flight training at Pampa's army air field is Aviation Cadet Robert Shipp, Jr., 21, son of Robert Shipp of Artesia, N. M. He is a former resident of Ackerly. A graduate of Ackerly high school, class of May, 1938, Shipp attended Texas Technological college two years.

Pvt. John R. Steward, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Steward of 102 N. 2nd street, has been stationed at Texas A. & M. college for a five months instruction course prior to his appointment as an aviation cadet.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"How about joinin' us in a game, Judge?... I'll drop out for a while."

"Sorry, Phil, but I can't today... I'm on my way up to the hospital to see how Frank's wife is coming along. I just dropped by to give you the answer to that question you asked me about synthetic rubber yesterday in the barber shop. I looked it up and found out that the beverage distilling industry's facilities for producing grain alcohol make it possible to include 200,000 tons of rubber from grain in the government's 870,000 ton synthetic rubber program."

"I also verified the fact that no distiller is making whiskey today. They all stopped making whiskey last year and are working night and day, 7 days a week, producing war alcohol for the government... for smokeless powder, chemical warfare materials, medical supplies, as well as for synthetic rubber. It's a mighty good thing these distilleries were in existence ready to do this important job."
