Sammy Sain Elected To Captain Golfers

Sam Sain, the old time baseballer who quit the game when he broke his arm in a battle at Coahoma several seasons ago, has been named captain of the Sand Belt golf team

Sain, who long had harbored hopes of taking up golf when he retired from baseball, nursed his shots along slowly, finally getting the knack of pushing the little white pellet into its rightful place and is really blossoming out as an "artest" now. He's the No. six man on the Sand Belt aggregation here.

Giants Look Like Champions As HOSTAKIS Teams Wind Up Spring Training ON WAY TO

turning from a spasmodic tour of the training camps from Louisiana through Florida, the thought persists that the best looking team of the lot were your old pals, the New York Giants, as handled by Writin' Bill Terry. Even though they do belong to that new minor league—the National—the Giants are the estimated most assured clew of the lot.

Considering that beating they took from the Yankees in the world series last fall, their morale world series last fall, their morale and confidence is the more remarkable. Their camp was atmost the only one of a dozen visited where there was not heard a whisper, sooner or later, of petty strife between individuals, or where the manager was not distracted about something or other.

The Style Leaders

ST. LOUIS, April 4. (47.—Style leaders convening here today foresaw the end of "platinum" blondes and a preponderance of "brass" hued tresses for this year.

Stani Mars, New York, president of the coiffure division of the national hairdressers and cosmetogosts' association, led those who foresaw the new "brass" hair style.

"The extremely light platinum blonde color is not so popular any more, he explained. "Women want to emphasize more naturally the beauty of their hair."

Mars believed hair parts would be changed to run "vertically behind the ears," with the hair combeed weil off the face.

"The upward trend of hairdress is apparent," he added. "As for longth, women will prefer about four or five inches in front, and three inches for the back."

Guaranteed cure for Spring Fever....

This remedy you must make yourself. The prescription is simple. Just this: Get interested and get busy!

The best place to start is where you live. Look over the old place with a seeing eye. Look for wide-open chances to clean up and replace and renew. Keep looking. You'll discover a dozen spots that seem a little neglected . . . the porch steps, perhaps, or the kitchen closet, or maybe the bathroom. The front hall could use some colorful small rugs . . . that table is fairly crying for a fresh new cover . . . why, the whole house needs sprucing up-now doesn't it?

It's so easy to do and it needn't cost much - if you take one thing at a time. So decide now to watch this paper for bargain news, about things you need now or will be needing very soon.

Watch the advertisements closely. You'll find many that seem addressed directly to you. Don't miss a single item that may benefit you or your family. There's plenty of news in the advertising columns-good news for wise buyers!

Of course it is possible that Mr. Crowley made his charge in the manner Jim Ferguson was wont to do in his early days—just made it and left it to the other fellow to rustle up the denial.

Having said that the people are interested in certain definite matters. Mr. Crowley will be in position to tell the people the details. Some of these he listed are relief to a debt ridden and a tax ridden state, how these debts are to be paid without inflicting further punishment on the farmer, wage earner and independent business man, how old age pensions are to be paid and taken out of politics.

Yea, this campaign is going to be good, even though there are no candidates of the caliber of James Stephen Hogg engaged in it. There is a pointed weapon. has a new president—Jean Hersholt—and a new set-up under jurisdiction of Actors, Writers and Directors guilds.

The fund, to help those within the industry down on their luck, has been operating with insufficient money, and Hersholt's first step will be a scheme to more than double the present intake.

Clients of the fund will remain anonymous as before. The names of some of them—once great stars—would be startling if revealed.
