Lion's Club Honors Outstanding Athletes

The Lion's Club of McLean met at the Country Corner for a special luncheon on Monday afternoon.

The Lion's Club and its visitors honored two local McLean High School students for their achievements in sports this past year. Johnny Haynes spoke to the crowd and explained that what is now called the sports banquet was originally started by the Lion's Club as a football banquet back in the 1960's. "There wasn't much for girls back then," he stated. "So we honored the football players, but things changed and it became the sports banquet." He also went on to say that over the years, the sports banquet became more of a school function, but the Lion's Club continued to give out its achievement awards.

"We don't just give this award out to the best player on the team," Haynes said. "We take a look at sportsmanship, effort, and morals. This year we just happened to get all these things." Mr. Haynes went on to present the 2005 Lion's Club Sports achievement awards to Brooke Seymour and Zane Richardson.

Brooke competed in basketball, track, cross-county, golf and is currently playing softball.

McLean I.S.D. Named As A Chapter 41 School For '05 -'06 School Year

"Robin Hood" will go on at least for now. When the 79th Legislature ended its session on May 30, 2005, it faltered in what Texas public schools considered to be their most important assignment, school finance.

What this means as of now is that Texas Public Education funding will continue as it has in the past, with the Robin Hood plan.

The Robin Hood plan takes money from wealthy school districts and gives it to poorer districts.

According to McLean I.S.D. Superintendent, Eric Smith, McLean will be a Chapter 41 school in the 2005-2006 school year. What this means for McLean I.S.D. is that it will be sending money back to the state for the poorer school districts.

"The Board and I were looking to the future when we proposed the tax rate at $1.35," said Smith. "Now we are prepared for this money shortage and for what is to come."

The Texas Supreme Court will hear an appeal to a ruling made by state District Judge John Dietz that stated that the current system of school financing is unconstitutional. District Judge Dietz ordered the Legislature to have a plan by October 2005.

If the Supreme Court chooses, they can overturn the ruling. However, they could uphold the ruling made by Dietz and order the Texas Legislature to approve a plan to be put in place immediately. If they fail, McLean I.S.D. and all Texas Public Schools could suffer.

"Go Wild...Read!" is the 2005 Texas Reading Club theme at the Lovett Memorial Library. The program provides opportunities for children of all ages to enjoy reading.

It begins on June 20 at the library. This free program is co-sponsored by the Texas State Library and Archive Commission and includes activities and events.

According to librarian, Sally Bohlar, more than 23 children read for over 115 hours last summer. "This year we anticipate that the children of McLean will break that record and read for at least twice as many hours," she said. Local school officials applauded the public library for its' efforts to help local school children maintain See LIBRARY, pg. 8

Education Explored In Old West Style

The 4th grade class went to Cheyenne Oklahoma last week to the Roll One Room School house. Mrs. Kristi Crockett and her 15 students along with one parent and Mr. Crockett had a wonderful time. They explored the 1910 era of how kids learned at school. Besides bringing our lunch in a tin can with no plastic, chips or drinks, everyone was dressed to play the 1910 part. After the lunch break, we got to go out side and play the games the kids played in 1910. Even Mr. Crockett had to play the loop game. (He was pretty good at it, I think I heard him say he use to play that game in school)????? I'm sure all the kids and adults will remember this trip for their life time.

New Open Meeting Law Training Required

Gov. Rick Perry's signing of SB 286 signals "new day" for open government. Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott today thanked Gov. Rick Perry for promptly signing a bill that will forge a new and more open relationship between citizens and public officials by requiring those officials to be trained in the state's sunshine laws.

"This is a new day for open government in Texas," Attorney General Abbott said. "I am thrilled to see the governor's signature today on SB 286, a law that will have a tremendously positive impact on the way government officials perceive their role, not as protectors of public information but as active participants in information-sharing with the public."

The new law, sponsored by Sen. Jeff Wentworth (R-San Antonio) and Rep. Todd Baxter (R-Austin), gives the Attorney General sole authority to establish the formal training necessary to ensure that all elected and appointed government officials have a good command of both open records and open meetings laws. The Attorney General's Office enforces the Texas Public Information Act, also known as the open records law.

The Attorney General's Office is developing the free training course, up to two hours in length, which includes on-premise, Web-based or video instruction, and also may certify training to be conducted by another government office or private entity.

The legislation, long supported by Attorney General Abbott, grew out of his desire to clear up confusion about open records law and change attitudes among government officials as they interact with the public at the local and state levels. The Attorney General's Open Records Division receives about 11,000 requests per year from government officials seeking guidance pertaining to disclosure of records to citizens and media.

The new law takes effect Jan. 1, 2006, and requires all newly elected or appointed government officials to enroll in this course within 90 days after taking office. Current government officials would be expected to enroll as soon as possible

A great benefit of attending the job fair is that you can make contact with several employers in a short time. Be sure to bring a good supply of resumes to the fair and be prepared to interview with prospective employers. And remember, appropriate dress and grooming are critical for making a good first impression. Some of the businesses accepting applications and interviewing at the Job Fair will include Centramedia, Innovative Staffing Solutions, Shepard's Crook Nursing Agency, Cable One, Halliburton, Sival's, Smithfield Premium Genetics, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Titan Specialties, Turner Energy and Texas Workforce Center.

GISD Plans Firm Enforcement Of Policies

Groom School Superintendent Terry Stevens reports that he is extremely pleased with his first year at Groom ISD.

"I must say that I have enjoyed my first year here at Groom." He commented, "The community and school have been wonderful to me and my family, and we hope that we have done the job as expected by this community. I have certainly learned a lot this first year as superintendent and I hope to keep getting better at the job as time goes by."

Superintendent Stevens met with teaching staff on their last day of their in-service for the year to discuss what had been accomplished and what needed improvement for the coming year.

Students and parents may wish to be aware of the following:

1. No cokes or candy will be allowed in the class rooms while instruction is going on, except for special occasions.

2. There will be a new semester exemption policy for the High School semester test. It will be as follows:

- 85 - 1 day absence
- 90 - 2 day absence
- 95 - 3 day absence

3. The Dress Code will be followed closer than it was this last year. While it has not changed, students should use the Code for a guideline when purchasing school clothes for the fall.

A complete copy of the student dress code is available in the student handbook, but the highlights are as follows.

- A student should dress in such a manner as not to be an embarrassment to themselves, students, faculty members or administrators.
- Any clothing which is considered indecent or overtly exposing will not be permitted. (Examples: exposed midriffs, tied up shirts, spaghetti straps)

- Clothing which promotes cults, gangs, alcohol, tobacco, drugs, suggests by print, graphic or picture anything lewd, offensive, in bad taste or obscene is not permitted.
- Clothing should be worn as designed. Shirts with square cut tails may be worn out. Shirts cut to be tucked in should be tucked in.
- Shorts must extend below the fingertips when arms are held loosely at ones' side. Mini skirts, etc., may be worn if they are no more than seven inches above the knee as measured from the floor while kneeling. Tight fitting shorts such as biker shorts are not permitted.
- No tank tops allowed, boys may not wear sleeveless shirts.
- Clothing that reveals bare skin when exposed under normal movement will not be allowed.
- No facial hair is allowed on boys
- Nose rings, eyebrow rings, tongue rings or any other body piercings may not be worn by boys and girls.
- No extreme hair color. Boys may not wear braids, ponytails or rattails. Boy's hair must not extend below the center of the ear and be off the collar. It also must be above the eyes.

- No hats, sunglasses or caps will be worn inside the building during school hours.
- Tattoos must be covered at all times.
- No student will be allowed to represent Groom School in any extra curricular or co-curricular activity who does not meet the approval of the sponsor or principal.
- The Principal has final say on what is or is not appropriate.

Parents are encouraged to use these provisions as a guideline when purchasing clothing.
