Water District Application To Be Filed Soon

Application for the creation of a water improvement district, embracing five cities now comprising the Colorado River Municipal Water association, likely will be filed next week. John D. McCall, attorney for the association, said that the application awaited only the field notes on the municipal boundaries of Snyder, Mayor D. K. Ratliff has promised these next week. In October the state board of water engineers had appropriated water rights on the upper Colorado above Colorado City to the extent of impounding 110,000 acre feet of water. The water board, when it acts first on the application, must give three weeks notice by publication, after which a hearing will be held. Then the board names five temporary directors who will serve until an election can be called and the district can name permanent directors and possibly vote revenue bonds for the project, which is estimated to cost upward of $10,000,000. Location of the dam, which would represent about one-fourth of the total cost, is about five miles above Colorado City. The T&P Railway company has offered free easement for pipeline along its right-of-way from Colorado City to Odessa. Cities cooperating in the association are Big Spring, Snyder, Midland, Odessa, Colorado City.

Grain, Flour Curbs Lifted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—President Truman announced today that the Agriculture Department will permit distillers and brewers to use more grain, and will remove limitations on the domestic distribution of flour. The White House announcement attributed the move to the favorable grain supply and the shortage of transportation facilities for relief exports abroad. The statement said Secretary Anderson is taking these actions today. 1. Remove the limitation of the domestic distribution of flour. (This limitation is now 85 per cent of last year's monthly distribution.) 2. Permit brewers for the quarter beginning Dec. 1, 1946, to use as much grain as in the corresponding months of 1945 and 1946 but retain the prohibition against their use of wheat and the limitation of the use of rice. (Currently brewers are allowed only 90 per cent of the grain used last year.) 3. Permit distillers to use unlimited quantities of corn below grade three but retain the prohibition against their use of wheat and the limitation on their use of rye.

St. Nick In Town Tonight To Open Christmas Season

has been connected at the tree on the northeast corner of the courthouse lawn, which is used each year during the treasure hunt. In addition, the city's Yule season lights were being erected this morning, and most of them are expected to be ready for the big gathering at 6 p.m. Local merchants also were applying last-minute trimmings to window displays, all of which feature Christmas decorations and gift merchandise.

Holiday Results In 63 Traffic Deaths

By The Associated Press Traffic accidents cost the lives of at least 63 persons — more than the toll estimated by the National Safety Council — as the nation observed the Thanksgiving holiday yesterday. Violent deaths from miscellaneous causes totaled 13. The safety council, which today reported 3,120 traffic fatalities in October and a total of 27,520 for the first 10 months of 1946, had estimated 50 persons would die in motor mishaps on the holiday. It said, however, that normally 110 persons are killed in traffic on a November Thursday, including deaths occurring later from injuries suffered that day. California, Illinois and Michigan each reported five traffic deaths yesterday while four fatalities each were reported in Arizona, Florida, Georgia, New York and Ohio; three each in Indiana and Pennsylvania; two each in Colorado, Connecticut, Missouri and North Carolina, and one each in Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Washington. The safety council said the traffic toll for the first 10 months this year was 25 percent higher than for the same period in 1945 and estimated that the fatalities for the entire year would approximate 34,000.

Cause of a Thursday morning fire at the Rogers Grocery, 609 Gregg, still was undetermined this morning. Fire Chief H. V. Crocker reported, but damage still was being surveyed.

Early estimates by the chief had placed total damage at more than $20,000, which included that sustained by the building, the grocery stock and fixtures and by furniture owned by White's Stores in the basement.

Crocker's revised report today listed losses on a percentage basis as 20 per cent for the building, 50 per cent for the groceries and store fixtures, and 40 per cent for the stored furniture.

Firemen were called back to the scene at about 5:45 p. m. Thursday, when amouling sacks of sawdust blazed up. No further damage was inflicted, however.

COORDINATION OF WELFARE WORK IS AIM OF NEW CENTRAL AGENCY

Initial steps toward the creation of a social service exchange were taken at a meeting of representatives from various welfare agencies at the Red Cross headquarters Friday morning.

Those attending favored the creation of an exchange of information on cases handled by the various agencies and organizations and called a second parley for 10 a. m. Dec. 6 at the Red Cross offices.

The exchange would function as a clearing house on information concerning the various services of participating members so that each might function more efficiently and with minimum duplication.

No decision was reached as to the method of handling the exchange or location of the central office. It appeared that it would be January before it could go into actual operation.

Lewis Must Face Contempt Trial

Russia Again Hits Monopoly On Atom Bomb

Termed Menace To World's Security

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Nov. 29. (AP)—Kuzma V. Kiselev, foreign minister of White Russia, told the United Nations today there now is a warning of a third world war with "atomic factories working at full power" and added: "The monopolistic possession of the atom bomb cannot last forever."

He was joined in the Russian effort to scrap the atom bomb by Andrei Vishinsky, deputy foreign minister of the Soviet Union, who said:

"The atom bomb is a sword of damocle suspended by a thin thread. Only by removing such a menace can we establish security." Vishinsky added that the UN must guard against failure to generally disarm in all countries and on all weapons "starting with the most dangerous."

"Why not prohibit the manufacture of the atom bomb if you don't plan to use it?" Vishinsky declared, stressing that point as the principal Soviet objection to the American atomic energy plan.

He then turned to the veto and said that Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had clearly stated that any control system would operate within the framework of the security council and thus be subject to the big power veto.

Strongly supporting the Soviet Union's arms reduction proposal with its attendant agreement to international inspections, Kiselev emphasized the failure to reach agreement between United States and Russian plans over control of the atom bomb.

Kiselev took the floor after Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex.) demanded that the UN take action on an arms reduction plan at the current session of the general assembly and cautioned against any move to sidetrack the Atomic Energy Commission.

Judge Holds Court Has Right To Enjoin Miners' Walkout

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough ordered John L. Lewis to trial for contempt charges today and upheld the court's right to enjoin a walkout in the soft coal mines despite federal anti-injunction laws.

Overruling Lewis' motion for dismissal of the contempt action brought by the government, Goldsborough declared: "The Norris-LaGuardia act did not and does not apply, and the court has the same rights as it had prior to passage of the Norris-LaGuardia act."

Goldsborough said his court had the right to enjoin "a labor union which was about to do something against the good of the public and the union itself."

Lewis and his United Mine Workers contended that the Norris-LaGuardia act, curbing the use of restraining orders and injunctions in labor disputes, nullified Goldsborough's restraining order of Nov. 18 and was grounds for dismissal of the whole contempt of court action, saying Lewis had the right to ignore it.

Government attorneys on the other hand contended the law did not apply where the government itself was acting as operator of the 3,300 soft coal mines seized during another crippling strike last spring.

Goldsborough's ruling cut short a day and half of argument by attorneys for Lewis that the court lacked authority to restrain the UMW from terminating its government contract. This notice by Lewis was followed by a walkout of 400,000 miners.

"The court repeats," Goldsborough said, "that this proceeding was for the sole purpose of maintaining the status quo in this dispute."

Before handing down his decision, the judge had remarked that Lewis in effect had "pleaded guilty" to contempt by refusing to obey the court's order to keep the coal contract in force.

This was promptly challenged by one of Lewis' lawyers, T. C. Townsend, who said: "He hasn't entered any plea of guilty, your honor."

"The defendant pleaded guilty before you came to town, if the Norris-LaGuardia Act does not apply," Goldsborough said. (At Wednesday's hearing the judge observed at one point: "If the defendants disregarded the restraining order, then they are guilty of contempt of court whether the Norris-LaGuardia Act applies or does not apply.")

After some argument over legal technicalities, the judge ruled: "The motion to discharge and vacate the motion is overruled."

Through Attorney Edmund Burke, Lewis claimed the government's case actually is a criminal action instead of a civil proceeding, as designated, and therefore should be thrown out.

On this argument, too, the judge interrupted to say: "The restraining order was not issued for the purpose of punishing a contempt of the Smith-Connally Act, (which forbids strikes against the government), but for the purpose of letting the court decide whether the coal contract with the government could be terminated."

"Then it is not a punitive proceeding, Sir?" Burke inquired. "It is exactly what I said it was," Goldsborough declared.

He also told Burke: "If you know the exact difference between a civil and a criminal contempt, you are the only person in the United States who does."

Assistant Attorney General John F. Sonnett, chief government counsel then announced: "We are prepared to meet the requirements for both a civil and criminal contempt action."

As the paralyzing strike entered its ninth day, a rising tide of unemployment left at least 90,000 idle in other industries directly affected by the walkout, dimmed darkened cities in more than a score of states, and passenger service on coal-burning railroads was sharply curtailed.

Steel fabrications predicted wholesale layoffs idling 100,000 within a week in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio.

The body is lying in state at the Eberley funeral home.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gandy; two sisters, Lily Mae and Mary Lucille; a grandmother, Mrs. L. C. McCarty; uncles Gus Candy of Mt. Vernon, Willie L. McCarty of Odessa, Oscar J. McCarty of San Angelo; aunts, Mrs. H. R. Robertson of Odessa, Mrs. Jim Huiett of Big Spring and Mrs. Minnie McCarty of Cuthbert. Other relatives who will attend the funeral will be Tom and Glenn Williams of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. James D. Porter of Sweetwater.

NEW APPOINTEE ON COMMERCE STAFF WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—President Truman today announced the resignation of Alfred E. Schindler, undersecretary of commerce, and the appointment of William Chapman Foster of Long Island, N.Y., to succeed him.

The White House said Schindler, a former St. Louis sales executive, had left for some time that he must return to his private business, but at the request of the secretary of commerce he consented to stay on pending selection of a new undersecretary.

Several influential Democrats said privately they hope Mr. Truman produces middle-of-the-road proposals for legislation on labor, housing, taxes and expenditures, the military draft and possibly army-navy merger.

They would prefer that he not attempt to cover the broad field of suggestions he made to the last congress. At that time Mr. Truman asked legislative branch nominally con-

LLOYD H. THOMPSON

Thompson New Minister For First Christian

Lloyd H. Thompson, state evangelist for the Christian church, has accepted the call to be minister of the First Christian church in Big Spring.

He will begin his ministry here Sunday, lay leaders of the church have announced. Rev. Thompson, who recently filled the pulpit for the church, succeeds Rev. J. E. McCoy, who last month went to an Oklahoma pastorate.

The new minister of the First Christian church has been state evangelist for his denomination for more than three years, having served every type of church in that capacity. He has been much in demand on return engagements.

A native of West Texas, Rev. Thompson was born at Henrietta; was graduated from Texas Christian University; and held pastorates at Fort Stockton, Pecos, and Morningside church (Fort Worth) where he was for eight years. In addition, he served as minister at Capitol Hill church in Oklahoma City, and at Nowata, Vinita and McAlister, Okla.

Sunday at 11 a. m. he is to speak on "Come, Tarry, and Go," and Sunday at 7:30 p. m. on "VI is the Sign."

Mrs. Thompson and a son, Arch Oliver, 12, will come from Dallas next week to make their home in the Christian parsonage. They have one other child, a daughter, Bettye June, who is in college.

TRUMAN BEING URGED TO HOLD HIS RECOMMENDATIONS TO FEW ISSUES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—President Truman reportedly is being urged by some Capitol Hill friends to center his fire on a few major issues in recommendations to the new Republican-controlled Congress.

Several influential Democrats said privately they hope Mr. Truman produces middle-of-the-road proposals for legislation on labor, housing, taxes and expenditures, the military draft and possibly army-navy merger.

They would prefer that he not attempt to cover the broad field of suggestions he made to the last congress. At that time Mr. Truman asked legislative branch nominally controlled by the Democrats to act on 21 separate proposals. Republicans and anti-administration Democrats joined in smacking down many of these and altering others out of recognizable form.

With the Republicans now in control of the legislative machinery and likely to pursue their own objectives, many of the Democrats think it would be wise for the President to present his ideas only on the top issues.

One of these is likely to be labor control legislation, on which the Congressional approach probably will be affected vitally by whether the coal mines still are idle when the legislators meet January 3.

Second Anniversary Occurs For Surgery Helping 'Blue' Babies

By ELEANOR GRIESEMER
BALTIMORE, Nov. 29. (AP)—Two years ago today, little Miss "E.M.S." was wheeled into the surgical amphitheater at the Johns Hopkins hospital for a delicate operation to correct an insufficient flow of blood into her lungs.

"E.M.S.—her identity is a medical secret—died, but the operation performed 270 times since that first attempt, has given new hope to the parents of "blue" babies throughout the world.

The surgical technique, developed by Dr. Alfred Blalock and Dr. Helen B. Taussig, head of the Children's Cardiac Clinic, has been successful in about 80 per cent of the cases.

There was no "blue" baby operation on the schedule today. Ten-year-old Judy Conner, Richmond Hill, N. Y., was to have been the "anniversary" case, but her operation has been postponed a few days.

In the two years since E.M.S. was operated on, the hospital has been besieged with letters and tel-grams from parents of afflicted children. The cardiac clinic has scheduled 250 more operations and has made appointments for examinations at the rate of two a day through next May. It has 200 other requests for appointments.

Each "blue" baby was born with a malformed heart which prevents the blood from getting enough oxygen. Without the operation, virtually all are doomed to semi-invalidism and early death.

The artery which pumps blood to the lungs of these babies is defective. The delicate operation, sometimes lasting three hours, consists in joining a branch of this artery to a branch of the aorta, which carries blood to all the body except the lungs. An auxiliary supply of blood is thus pumped to the lungs via what physicians call the subclavian or innominate detour.

Recently doctors at Northwestern University have announced a successful experiment using the aorta itself to supplement the pulmonary artery.

YOU CAN GET THE DOPE ON 1947; FARMERS' ALMANAC OFF THE PRESS

A pint sized, yellow covered booklet familiar to more than 15 generations of Americans has reached the news and magazine stands on schedule again with release of the 1947 edition of "The Old Farmer's Almanac."

Since 1792, when it was founded by Robert B. Thomas, the almanac has been a "must" on the yearly reference list of many Americans, especially farmers and rural residents. The issue for 1947 contains the same type of information the booklet has featured for 155 years as well as resembling previous issues in appearance.

The annual features include times of sunrise, sunset, moon rise, moon south, rise and set of the planet, the farmers calendar, historic dates, tables of measures, fish and game laws for all states, word charades, puzzles, poetry, postal laws, extension directors, feasts and fast days, holidays, anecdotes, chronological cycles, length of days, election days, tides, times of frost, lists of government officials, etc.

The various tables are computed for Boston, Mass., but readers can apply the information to any part of the United States through use of accompanying correction charts.

Although the almanac may have lost some of its nationwide popularity to modernism, it still is relied on in many homes. Originally it was designed to give information and some entertainment to families during the early period when publications were few and poorly distributed. Still following the same pattern, thousands of people find it interesting reading and a handy reference.

ATHENS, Nov. 29. (AP)—Premier Constantin Tsaldaris is scheduled to fly to New York Sunday with the presumed aim of laying before the United Nations a complaint that Greece's northern border has been violated in continuing fighting between leftist bands and Greek troops.

The Greek government has repeatedly asserted the bands have been supplied from within Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia.

(The Greek information office in London said Monday that a formal complaint would be made to the U.N. Security Council.

(In Sofia yesterday, George Dimitrov, Bulgaria's new communist premier, told the national assembly his government "categorically rejects the slanderous accusations x x x that bands from Bulgaria have penetrated Greek territory."

(He said he stood for "a just and worthy peace with the United Nations, sincere collaboration with all neighbors, including the Greek people" and "continuous friendship with the Soviet Union.")

AUSTIN, Nov. 29. (AP)—The first forcible escape from Travis County's jail since last night, when Sheriff Rip Collins said three men escaped by tying a jailer to the bars of a cell.

The break came around 10:15 p.m. and was reported some 15 minutes later when the jailer, Virgil Pope, managed to free himself, the sheriff said.

According to Collins, Pope was investigating what he thought to be an empty cell, but when he opened the door, the three men jumped on him. The sheriff said they tied Pope to the bars of the cell, took his keys and made their way unnotified down the stairs and out of the building.

The three men were said to be Cornell Dawson Turner, charged with robbery with firearms; Ernest Jones, charged with auto theft; and Kelley Riley, charged with auto theft.

Collins said state, county and city police had been alerted and a blockade thrown on all roads leading from Austin.

Cortes' Remains Taken From Urn

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 29. (AP)—A skull, bones and a rolled document were taken from a crystal and gold urn here last night and pronounced the remains of Hernan Cortes, conqueror of Mexico.

The document, dated December 6, 1836, was found to agree in detail with a copy possessed by the Spaniard Baeza Y Moreno, one of the four discoverers of the hidden urn.

Historians assumed from the date that the urn was removed from its former resting place in the chapel of Jesus hospital during the anti-Spanish plots of 1823, but was not hidden in the wall of the chapel until 13 years ago.

Contents of the document attested to the authenticity of the urn's contents and briefly recounted their history to that date. It was signed by church authorities.

Refugees Must Leave Palestine

JERUSALEM, Nov. 29. (AP)—The Palestine government's high court rejected today an attempt to prevent deportation of nearly 4,000 uncertified Jewish immigrants to Cyprus, and it was announced officially that three British troops would leave immediately with the refugees.

Speculation arose that the court decision might cause underground violence, dormant for 10 days, to flare anew. A Jewish agency spokesman, denouncing the ruling as "legal absolutism," said it had caused rising tension in Palestine.

The Jewish community council in Jerusalem appealed to Jews to keep three minutes of silence at 3 p.m., halting all business and traffic, in sympathy with the deportees.

City Officials To Harlingen Meeting

Big Three Asked To Lead In Full Disarmament

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—A group of senators and leaders of national organizations called upon the Big Three today to break trail for world disarmament by outlawing not only the atom bomb but weapons of all kinds.

In a joint broadside they said that while the United States, Russia and Great Britain all have asked for an agreement to prevent atomic war, "each is keeping national armaments which can at any time break the agreement."

"An international law to make aggressive war an international crime is a great step forward," the Thanksgiving Day testimonial said, "but you can go all the way. You can take away the weapons that make it possible."

"There would be no need for strategic war bases, no more power politics except the powers of peace, x x x Even the talk of war would become only that of dead history."

The signers addressed their message to President Truman, Prime Minister Stalin of Russia and Prime Minister Attlee of Britain.

In a separate letter to Mr. Truman, Chairman Thomas (D-Utah) of the Senate Military Committee, suggested it is "your task" to find a way of accomplishing the desire for disarmament which "has long been with us."

"The leadership," Thomas said, "must come from spokesmen for America, Russia, or Great Britain, or from all three acting jointly."

DOOR DELIVERY ON AUTO FIRES

City firemen are receiving curb service now.

At about 12:30 a.m. today, the night crew received a verbal alarm, but it was not necessary to move equipment to extinguish the blaze.

The morning reports showed that Bobby Calley of Forsan noticed a fire in the front seat of the automobile he was driving, and by sprinkling the blaze with water at a filling station, he was able to bring the machine to the fire department's door. Firemen gladly finished the extinguishing chore.

Land Under Water No Joke To Miami

By WILBUR JENNINGS AP Newsfeatures
MIAMI, Fla.—The Florida peninsula has growing pains! Where only a few months ago vacationers swam and fished, and sailboats cut pretty pictures, Miami today is preparing to build homes.

The Miami area's man-made colonies of 25 islands, 22 of them inhabited, is being enlarged with six new ones being brought up from the depths of Biscayne Bay. Big hydraulic dredges suck the bay's bottom upwards through 20-inch pipes working 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

It's Worth $3,500 an Acre The cost of the land presently

REAL ESTATE is pumped up at 24 cubic feet per second by these big dredges at Miami. In a few years—mansions.

ISLANDS dredged up from the sea sell for $3,500 an acre. Six more are being added to Miami's 25 in Biscayne Bay.

through pipes—sometimes a mile in length—at the rate of 24 cubic feet a second until the filled land rises some, five feet above sea level, the requisite height for a man-made island.

Where the islands are pumped-up rock, building begins immediately. Sand, however, must be allowed to settle. Some of the original Miami sand islands stood for 11 years before building was permitted on them.

Miami Beach proper is the largest island in the area, 99 percent of it having been filled in from 1912 to 1914.

But disregarding Miami Beach, the richest of the other islands is exclusive La Gorce. Even though only about half of it is built up at present, its 1946 real estate evaluation is set at $1,922,110. The highest assessed is Di Lido, $2,117,690, which is more highly developed.

Why It's Famous
 The assessed valuation of property on 23 of the islands totals $31,235,610 for 1946—a figure which makes it easy to see why the waterfront area came to be known as the "gold coast."

Many of the island mansions with luxurious yachts anchored at their front doors were built in the lush 1920's and since have changed hands, but to ogle-eyed tourists the sightseeing guide points out the home or former homes along "millionaires' row" of such persons as Harvey S. Firestone, Major Albert Warner, Moe L. Annenberg, John Jacob Astor, III, Warren G. Wright, Gar Wood, Fred Snite, Jr., R. J. Reynolds, Jr., Harry Richman, Damon Runyon, Ambassador William D. Pawley,

Soviet Zone In Germany Being Subdivided

BERLIN, Nov. 29. (AP)—A spokesman of the German central administration of the Russian occupation zone said today the Soviet zone of Germany was being split into five states with separate provincial governments for each.

The policy of splitting the Russian zone into states, each with a government, represents a sharp change in Soviet policy for Germany and was interpreted in some quarters as indicating Moscow has swung over to the western view Germany should have a government on "federal-state" lines instead of a strong central administration.

Until now the Russians have strongly opposed the view put forth by Secretary of State Byrnes that the future German government should be along federal lines, with powers divided among the states on one hand and a central machinery on the other.

The official spokesman said the fact of the establishment of the five states "would have to speak for itself."

Disturbance Follows Negro Grid Game

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 29. (AP)—Muskogee authorities cancelled a negro dance and ordered all beer taverns in the city closed last night as a precaution against disturbances after a football game fight in which one negro was killed, two others were injured and two white policemen hurt.

Chief of Police R. E. Davis said Oliver Davis was shot fatally through the heart. Jack Cato was in a critical condition from a bullet wound and Eugene Gaines suffered knife wounds and bruises. All three were Tulsa negroes.

The fight began during a football game between two negro high schools, Davis said, and policemen Bill Swanson and Carol Huggins, white officers, were hurt slightly in attempting to quell the disturbance, and retreated.

TRIES CHIMNEY FOR AN EXIT
NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 29. (AP)—A pair of blistered hands and a slight cough from coal gas inhalation were pertinent reminders today to 23-year old Thomas Dowling of the Thanksgiving morning spent clambering up and down the inside of a 182-foot chimney.

Dowling who lives in nearby Orange told Lt. Andrew Perkins of the Pennsylvania Railroad police that he awoke yesterday after a pre-Thanksgiving celebration to find himself locked up in the Pennsylvania Railroad station heating plant.

He boosted his five foot, 10 inch frame up the chimney—seven feet wide at the base and four feet at the peak.

But when he got to the top, Dowling said, there was no way of getting down the outside. He shouted for help. An attendant in a nearby parking lot opened a big iron door at the base of the chimney. Dowling clambered down and was taken to City Hospital for treatment.

YESTERDAY TODAY AND TOMORROW

You often hear it argued that a man or woman may be just as good a Christian outside the church as in, or that it is not necessary to go to church to be a good Christian.

Perhaps this is true, but it is true in the same measure that a football team does not have to be close to the goal line to score. The fact remains, however, that unless there are most unusual circumstances or an exceptional team is playing, good plays in the middle or the other end of the field never get across the goal.

God, in His Wisdom, knew that man needed the association with others of like faith to encourage and stimulate him to the highest kind of living. He established the Church so that believers might be brought together in the protectiveness of the institution through service and worship.

If God recognized the danger of trying to get along outside the Church, who are we to argue. Our place is in the Church, using our talents, for no one else can use them for us.

Some Important Council Decisions

It is too early for final opinions, until a complete summary of the work accomplished by Boy Scout leaders at Midland is available, but on the basis of preliminary information, it would appear that the session was one of the most important ever held by those responsible for operation of the council territory.

The decision to transfer district headquarters from Sweetwater to Midland, while possessing more popular appeal, is not the most significant development. Either Midland or Odessa happen to be near the center of the elongated territory, while Sweetwater is at the extreme eastern end. This is not to say that it was improperly placed in the beginning, but rather that population shifts have completely changed the picture of scouting in this area in the past 10 years.

More significant is the analysis report on the financial obligation to the council. In the beginning, Big Spring and Sweetwater were the biggest cities and naturally assumed a major portion of the load. Although the west end population now outweighs that of the east end, the opportunity of financial responsibility has never kept pace. Adoption of new formulae will tend to bring that point into focus. Similarly, and more important, it should bring attention to need for greater expansion of scouting in the rapidly developing areas.

Finally, a decision to proceed with plans for developing a camp in the Davis mountain area is of great consequence, for this is a big financial undertaking. Doubtless, the area selected is picturesque and offers sound advantages in its seclusion. Yet its inaccessibility presents some grave problems. In the development of this phase, the council will be wise to move with great caution and only on a sound financial footing. Meanwhile, there is nothing wrong in having faith in such a project.

New Industry Blossoms In Area

Three brothers have spent $78,000 in developing old sulphur mines north of Toyah. Material from the mines is being crushed and mixed with chemicals, yielding a product good as fertilizer for soils of high alkali content, according to operators.

Some of this material already is moving to other parts of Texas, notably the lower Rio Grande valley, San Antonio and Wichita Falls.

The important thing about this is that it represents a development of industry based on raw materials in West Texas. This is the base upon which industrial development of West Texas must rest in general.

Those who dream of belching smoke stacks and great plants may be doomed to disappointment in this area, for that is not the test of an industry. The test is markets and raw materials.

Doubtless opportunities are about us if we have vision to see, initiative to act, and courage to finance. Someday someone is going to perfect a plan for harnessing the wind for power to extract nitrogen from the air and thus make another important fertilizer available economically. We may make brick from clay. We may learn to use flowing sulphur water from oil tests for alkali soil irrigation. The field is open, and Toyah's step points the way.

Texas' Mental Hospitals—Paul Bolton

Improving Hospitals Up To People

Editor's note: This is the seventh and last of a series concerning Texas' mental hospitals.

AUSTIN—In a current issue of Readers' Digest, Dr. Walter B. Pipkin observes in substance that the people alone are to blame for the deplorable state of mental hospitals from one end of the nation to the other.

It is true that until the people demand a governmental function it will not be performed. How far the people will go in demanding that Texas make over its mental hospitals into real curative centers, where there is hope—how far the people through their government should go—is a problem involving the philosophy of government. Board of Control Member Hal Logan, the nominal supervisor for eleemosynary affairs, points out that in governmental theory at least, those able to pay are supposed to pay ($3 a week, which far from covers costs). Is it a governmental function to provide psychiatric treatment, which is perhaps the most expensive and uncertain of all the expensive and uncertain forms of healing?

Any study of the state hospitals points that up as a paramount question which the people have to answer before the course of mental treatment can be charted. And those who believe the step should be taken now to transform our hospitals from mere refuges for unfortunates should be aware that it doesn't appear to be in the cards for the next legislature which would have to provide funds.

The best information now available is that the supervising board of control will recommend only the most nominal increases. Board members say the 1947-48 budget will be announced some time after Thanksgiving. They have been reticent in talking about it in advance. But this appears likely:

1. Eleemosynary employees may expect to share in the 15 per cent pay raise which will be recommended for all state workers. If pay scales were inadequate to get the highest type personnel at old living costs, they will remain inadequate.

2. Maintenance appropriations necessarily will be increased, perhaps by 20 per cent, because of the increased cost of food and supplies, which represent a big part of the biennial appropriations.

3. The board does not want to say it will recommend new buildings, until after the budget actually is completed, but some building is forecast to replace those which have become obsolescent.

These steps—the only ones now in sight—will at least keep the institutions up to present standards, if that is what the people want done.

One further advance is in contemplation: The possible creation of a model reception center at one institution. All the experts have consistently recommended that such a reception center be established at each hospital.

The theory is that the new patient should not be thrown immediately into contact with other and confirmed mental cases which might horrify him and intensify his mental illness. As stated as far back as 1938, a reception center should be a place where "the new patient would be received with tact and kindness so as to make him feel that everything possible will be done for him to make him well." As stated in the 1943 survey, "Every hospital for mental illness should be provided with a fine reception building in which any patient can be given intensive study and proper care for at least a short period."

In this period of intensive study and proper care, the theory is,

Chitlins For Dinner

NEW YORK, (AP)—If the thought of turkey hash today wearies you, hearken to the tale of a delayed Thanksgiving dinner in wartime — the first "champagne and chit'lin" party ever held in the western front.

The promoter was Lt. Roy Wilder, on leave at the president's request from the New York Herald Tribune.

When the First Army press camp was squatting in a cow pasture in Normandy that had been cleared of German mines, there came a package from Spring Hope, N.C. "A quart jar of chit'lins from mom!" whooped Wilder.

He had to explain to all the Dam-Yankees around that "chit'lins" — the dictionary calls them chitterlings and says they are the small intestines of a pig prepared for eating — are highly savory to homesick gentlemen from below the Mason-Dixon line.

Roy, together with Lindsey Nelson, a Knoxville newspaperman then with the Ninth Infantry Division, and Don Whitehead of the Associated Press, gathered around the holy jar and swore a great oath on the memory of Stonewall Jackson.

"We'll eat these chit'lins in Germany on Thanksgiving!"

Roy put the jar in a padded box. The box bounced safely across France, into Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. Came Thanksgiving and the First Army had a big toehold in Germany. But the boys couldn't all get together, so the party was postponed.

The jar of chit'lins retreated along with the Army during the battle of the bulge, and nobody felt like a party that black Christmas.

Next March the Army pushed across the Rhine at Remagen, so Roy decided that was worth celebrating with the chit'lins. At midnight Roy woke up the cook and had him light the army gasoline stove.

"How you want 'em — semi-crisp?" said Roy, emptying the precious innards into a skillet. He wouldn't trust the cook, a northerner, to do the frying.

"Crisp," said Don.

"Any damn way," said Lindsey. The smell of crisping chit'lins rolled through the copy room. As they finished their stories, the muddy correspondents trooped in uninvited and joined the party.

Champagne corks were popping, cognac bottles flowing from several cases donated by pals in the Ninety-ninth Division which had some cures may be effected; perhaps it would never be necessary to place the patient within the various wards where his chances of cure lessen; perhaps the establishment of such a center might pay for itself in cutting down the potential number of permanent charges of the state.

But the legislature is constitutionally opposed to spending money on intangibles, hence it's likely that only a single reception center will be recommended, built, and the results shown to some future legislature to justify the extension of this plan which has been so generally approved by doctors.

THE LITTLE SAVAGE—

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

They All Love Kate

NEW YORK — In the welter of publicity attending the rapid rise of the Sinatras, Van Johnsons, Dinah Shores and Danny Kayes, there has been a tendency to ignore the amazingly sustained popularity of a young lady whose talents are as large as her own matronly facade — Kate Smith.

In the last few months Kate has streamlined herself, dropping about 35 pounds, but her popularity from coast to coast has not become lean; in fact, it picked up at the same time she was slimming her figure.

In the last Hooper rating published as I write this, Kate had attained the much-sought spot as radio's number one feminine entertainer, and was beaming with extra delight over the fact that she is just a couple of negligible decimals below Bing Crosby. Kate and Bing's careers started at approximately the same time, hit the heights almost simultaneously, and on top of everything else, Bing is one of her favorite people.

THE folks writing the popular classics of stage and movies are, I'm sure, passing up a hefty bet in ignoring the assured talents of the tuneful Kate. If someone came along with a play suggesting the qualities of a "Going My Way" or "The Bells of St. Mary's," or "The Smith gal would prove her virtuosity which folks who didn't see her in George White's "Flying High" and "Honeymoon Lane" aren't aware of. I think some smart writing fellow would find himself a fortune if he were to fashion something for Miss Smith.

He'd have a lot to start with. Kate's audiences was estimated at one point, perhaps a little over optimistically, as 75,000,000 persons. A closer count, taking an average would be 20,000,000 listeners; approximately 6,000,000 who hark to her daytime commenta-ing, the remainder to her Sunday nights how.

WHILE no exact statistics are available, it is a known fact that Kate has been the top distaff earner in her field, with records and public appearances adding to her radio play, although her public showings during the last few years have eschewed play-for-pay while she concentrated on dates at Army camps, Naval stations, hospitals, cantinas, etc. Her potency as a radio favorite was graphically determined when she appealed to all the Smiths among her listeners to go to blood banks and give a pint. She thereby sent 25,000 owners of that traditionally popular name to their local Red Cross centers.

Lewis Would Like To Favor Brother

WASHINGTON. — Only a few people in the high bureaucracy of the United Mine Workers know it, but John L. Lewis has troubles of his own among his top-level executives. Despite his calm, David-fighting-Goliath, public-be-damned attitude Lewis is in the middle of a vital tug-of-war regarding his own successor as president of the union.

It is no secret that Lewis's health is not good. Not only did he have a close call during his appendix operation last summer, but since then he is reported to be suffering from arteriosclerosis, which keeps sufficient blood from going to his head, and in some people causes mental delusions.

At any rate, Lewis knows that his three-decade dictatorship of the miners must soon draw to a close, and already he is thinking about ways and means of preserving the Lewis dynasty.

His logical successor is Thomas Kennedy, secretary-treasurer of the miners and former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania. One of the most popular men in the union, Kennedy has consistently polled a vote as great or greater than Lewis's and is completely independent of Lewis's support.

Kennedy is more studious, more statesmanlike, than Lewis, is one of the great parliamentarians of the country, frequently disagrees vigorously though privately with John L. Labor leaders have always wondered why Kennedy, a close friend of Phil Murray's, did not resign from the miners when Murray left; but at any rate he preferred to stay on, perhaps because of his $18,000 salary.

As secretary-treasurer he would easily be the rank-and-file choice of the miners to succeed Lewis, John L., however, has another man in mind — his brother.

BULLDOZER DENNY

A. D. "Denny" Lewis, 57-year-old bulldozing roustabout, is head of the mine workers catch-all District 50, is strictly a roughneck, has none of his brother's brains, oratorical capacity, or courage.

Several years ago John L. set Denny up as head of District 50, a union which takes in everything from chemical workers to dairy farmers, and which Lewis established to compete with AFL and CIO unions in various industries. Denny devoted himself to setting up a construction workers' union in competition with the AFL, but never got very far. The fact is that organizing costs for District 50 are five times as high as any place else in the union movement, partly because of the paid thugs, petty mobsters and gunmen kept on the payroll for use when the going gets tough.

Lewis's secret strategy is to resign as active president of the union, become president emeritus at full salary, and name bull-necked brother Denny as acting president. This Lewis could do through his control over the union's executive board. However, "Denny" could never keep the miners together. He never will become better than a paid union hack. Even among John L.'s closest collaborators, his friends are few. Denny is known throughout the union as the chief of John L.'s espionage organization, with the job of finding out who is saying unkind things about brother John behind his back.

This is the set-up inside the United Mine Workers, and it isn't an easy one for John L. Lewis. If he is able to outwit Tom Kennedy and manipulate his succession into family hands, it will be an even neater trick than standing the government of the United States on its ear.

STATUE TO HARRY TRUMAN

One labor leader who won't forget his grudge against President Truman is silver-crested A. F. Whitney, head of the railroad trainmen, whom Truman castigated publicly last spring. Whitney tells this story about a mythical statue to be erected to Truman in Washington.

"Let's put the statue next to the Washington monument," proposed one member of the committee to honor Harry Truman.

"No, George Washington never told a lie," replied the committee member representing the trainmen.

"Well, let's put it next to Roosevelt's statue," was another suggestion.

"No, Roosevelt always kept his word," replied the trainman. Finally, the trainman suggested that Truman's statue be put next to that of Columbus. "Why?" asked a member of the committee. "Because," replied the trainman, "Columbus didn't know where he was going, didn't know where he was when he got there, and didn't know where he'd been when he got back. And besides, he did it all on borrowed money."

NOTE — One reason trainman Whitney is so sore at Truman is that the railroad trainmen raised considerable money to re-elect Truman as senator from Missouri in 1940 when many people thought Larry was licked.

TWO SENATOR TAFTS

Ohio is now supposed to have two senator Tafts — Bob and Kingsley. However, quite a dispute is raging as to whether Kingsley A. Taft, a distant cousin of Bob's and elected for the unexpired term of former Senator Harold Burton, is at the moment an actual member of the Senate.

The question revolves around whether Kingsley began being a senator on November 6, the day after election, or has to wait until December 15, when he will receive his commission of office from Ohio's secretary of state. In other words, whether he will be a senator for 59 or for 19 days.

Kingsley has resolved matters temporarily by moving into an office on Capitol Hill, where he is quietly answering mail and performing other senatorial chores. Also, he wants to be on hand in case of a special session of Congress.

Meantime, the pot boils in Ohio. You might think that whether he serves for 19 or 59 days is an inconsequential matter, but it has kicked up a furious controversy among Ohio politicians, particularly the forces of John Bricker, who want to remove Kingsley Taft as a full-term senate prospect should Bricker or Bob Taft land the GOP presidential or vice-presidential spot in 1948.

If either of them gets the GOP nomination, it would create a senate vacancy, opening the door for Kingsley Taft to run again; and the Bricker outfit doesn't want another man with the vote-catching magic of the Taft name on the hustings. They also feel that he can do a lot more self-promoting in 59 than in 19 days, especially if there is a special congressional session before December 15.

To this end, the Bricker boys have been planting stories that Kingsley is a "squatter" with no right to be in Washington. They quote Ohio law, which fixes December 15 as the day he should begin his brief term. But Kingsley, a quiet-spoken Harvard law graduate with 41 months of war service, claims to have an even better authority on his side — the U. S. Constitution.

It looks as if he has won the verdict in one of the dizziest teapot tempests in Capitol Hill annals. (Copyright, 1946, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

A Dog's Best Friend Is A Youngster

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

Man's best friend is a dog, and a dog's best friend is a boy.

Take Spud, the eight-year-old Chesapeake retriever belonging to handsome young John G. Work, Jr., of El Paso.

The two went into the Franklin Mountains one afternoon. Spud was chasing an animal along the top of a windswept 7,000-foot peak when he was hurt.

It might have been a bobcat, or he could have been chasing a rabbit and tumbled off a ledge. Anyway, he limped back to John, crying and limping. His face was badly clawed and a leg cut.

John tried to carry the dog, but his 60 pounds was too much. He saw it was too late to take a round-about road back to town, and Spud was too badly injured to go back down the steep ledge they had climbed. The dog, crying and whimpering, wouldn't budge.

"There was nothing to do but stay with him," John said simply. He was wearing light clothing, and one shoe had been ripped to ribbons by jagged rocks. He built a fire and huddled with his dog through a night of freezing, gusty weather. He warmed the little water he had in his canteen and bathed Spud's wounds. He used cardboard found near a beacon light as a shield.

A Spud didn't sleep much, and John woke up every hour or two to put more wood on the fire.

Meanwhile, John's parents became alarmed, and a search began. A rescue party of sheriff's deputies, his father and Boy Scouts found the dog and his master the following morning.

Back home, Spud was honored with a steak but he was too tired to eat. John bathed Spud's wounds and the dog sank contentedly into a heavy but troubled sleep.

John suffered no ill effects. He downed two big meals and played football in the street before taking an afternoon nap.

The family had been beside themselves with worry but six-year-old Alice, his kid sister, more or less voiced their sentiments: "He should have come home, but I'm glad he brought Spud back."

Cartoons Declining

HOLLYWOOD. (AP) — There hasn't been cause for Thanksgiving among those who like movie cartoons. Donald Duck, Bugs Bunny and Andy Panda appear doomed to cavort less and less on the nation's screen, and may face eventual extinction.

That's the gloomy outlook presented by Hollywood cartoon makers. Columbia has already abandoned its screen gems, and other announcements are in the making.

Walter Lanz, president of the Screen Cartoon Producers Association, declares the public will see less cartoons in 1947, and as for 1948—well, he shudders to think of it.

The reason for this pessimism is that cartoon costs have risen 165 per cent since 1941, while rentals to exhibitors have upped only 12 per cent. Although theater attendance is the greatest in history, cartoons get only a flat $2.50 to $4 for each play date, while the better features get a healthy percentage of the take.

Added to this is the trouble in getting color prints, and the public will not accept black and white cartoons.

Eh, what's up, Bugs Bunny? Worried?

Sweetwater Registers 24-7 Win Over Big Spring Herd

Barron Plunges For Local TD In Fourth Period

SWEETWATER, Nov. 29. Pat Gerald's Sweetwater high school football war chariot—which threw a wheel but once over a ten-game schedule—performed according to specifications and design in running down the Big Spring Steers, 24-7, here Thursday afternoon.

The triumph enabled the Red and White wind up in second place in the 3-A marathon, a lap behind the Odessa Bronchos, while the Steers chugged across the finish line in a dead heat for the fourth slot—a decided improvement over last year's windup, at which time they neglected to harvest a single league win.

Operating behind a forward wall which was ponderous as a Macedonian phalanx, the Mustang backs made merry at the expense of their guests, banging across for one touchdown in the first round, two more in the second and a final one midway in the fourth.

In between, the Bovines cashed in on one of three scoring opportunities to escape a whitewashing. Jackie Barron, it was, breaking the ice on a one-yard power thrust into the line after suction-digged Horace Rankin had fired the boiler with a nifty 25-yard pass completion.

That turn of events occurred early in the fourth stanza, Big Gee Harris made a pseudo effort at booting the seventh point and passed to Bobo Hardy in the end zones to wind up the Big Spring scoring for the long afternoon.

The Cayuses waited until near the end of the first period to apply the blackjack punch for their initial tally. It took a 37-yard quick kick by Don Lambert to set the stage for a queer bounce and floated out on the Big Spring one-yard line.

Rankin was up to the task of kicking away, getting 37 yards on his try but Doll Feagan was under the ball and scrambled back to Big Spring's 23 before the wings could hit him down. From that point, it was easy. With Lambert, Feagan and De-Gaish rotating, the Ponies move down to the one from where Lambert split the line for the score.

Early in the second, the Mustangs applied the Pegasus touch by going overhead for 62 yards and a tally. DeGaish maneuvered behind the Big Spring secondary, latched on to a pass from Feagan and romped 62 yards to pay dirt. It all looked very easy.

Later, an over-the-line interception by big Abe Lincoln cleared the tracks for still another Sweetwater counter. Lincoln dragged the ball down in midfield and roared uphill to the Big Spring 17 before Harris knocked him out of bounds. Power plays moved the ball to the one, from where Lambert went over.

The Bovines failed to register a down renewal in the first half, in fact gained on 16 yards all told, but finally came alive after the intermission.

The Steers moved all the way to the Sweetwater one-yard line the first time they got the ball after the rest period. A gang of simian-armed linemen were to deprive them of a score at that point, however. Harris made a thrust at the double stripes and wound up where the play started and Hardy did no better on the next play.

Then it was Harris time again, this time on an end sweep. The Mustang pachyderms wshed up to the play, however, and were descending upon him when Big Gee changed his tactics and let loose with a pass in Marv Wrights direction. It was short, but just right for the enemy's Feagan who scooped it up and set sail for the other end of the battle ground. A couple of Big Spring linemen fouled his running gear out around the Ponies' seven.

Hardy, a vital target all afternoon, had set the grand-stand juries to chattering in the midst of the Big Spring offensive by third-basing Harris on a forward-lateral that netted 51 yards. He was deposited on the yellowed turf by Lambert on the Mustang 14. From that point, a roughing penalty inflicted against Sweetwater helped tremendously.

Rankin was a constant threat for Big Spring, especially on downfield boots. Once Lambert punted 40 yards but lost it all when The Hoss beat it back for 40. Another time, Rankin all but got away on a kickoff, scampering 55 yards downfield before he was brought to earth.

Up front, Bobby Hollis, Ike Robb and Harv Wright played great defensive ball. The Steers missed Larry Hall's line-backing, though Harold Berry played creditably.

While Cornell's big red loss to Penn at Philadelphia, 26-20, after scaring the daylight out of the Quakers, the game was one that Ed McKeever, who is leaving Ithaca after two seasons, can point to with pride.

The husky Penn forces were expected to trample McKeever's crew but Cornell drew first blood, scoring the first time the Red put the ball in play from scrimmage and adding two more touchdowns in the final period after the Quakers thought they were out of danger.

By losing, Cornell lost the mythical Ivy league title. The championship toes to Yale which has a 4-1-1 record.

The Texas Longhorns presented the venerable Dana Z. Bible with a going-away gift in a 24-7 victory over Texas A&M. Bible, who steps out of the coaching ranks after 34 years, saw his team—rated No. 1 in the nation in mid-October—salvaging a third place in the Southwest Conference standings after an in-and-out season.

Andy Kerr's Colgate Red Raiders came through in storybook fashion to make his exit from the grid picture a pleasurable one. The Raiders were trailing Brown 7-0 going into the third period. Between halves Kerr pleaded with his charges to go out and get three touchdowns. They did just that and won 20-14.

The Texas Longhorns assured of tying for the lead in the Southwest Conference, was beaten by Tulsa 14-13 despite a two-touchdown rally in the second half. The victory seemed certain to keep Tulsa in contention for a bid to its sixth straight bowl appearance.

The University of Kansas wound up its most successful season in 16 years with a 20-19 triumph over Missouri's big Tigers.

The victory gave the Jayhawkers a tie with Oklahoma for the Big Six crown. Each team has four victories and one defeat.

In the Southern Conference, William and Mary trounced Richmond 40-0 to gain the runner-up spot to North Carolina's champions and win the Virginia State title. Wake Forest snowed under a crippled South Carolina crew 35-0, Virginia Tech downed its traditional rival, VMI, 20-7 and Davidson beat Furman 13-7.

Denver, Big Seven Conference leader, trampled Colorado College 28-6 in a non-league game, while Utah State defeated Utah 22-14 and Colorado U. shut out Colorado A&M 18-0.

Bradley University was beaten by St. Louis 36-20 and Fresno State shaded Idaho 13-12. New Mexico A&M won from Texas College of Mines 14-7 and Wichita defeated Arizona State (Tempe) 34-19. Chattanooga thumped Cigar Bowl-bound Rollins 34-6.

Both Bobby Hollis and Ike Robb played outstanding ball against the Mustangs yesterday, improving their chances for the all-district team.

To fight the average home for a year, 800 pounds of coal must be burned in a powerhouse boiler.

Sites For 4 Prep Playoff Contests Already Decided

By The Associated Press

Upsets and indigestion walked hand-in-hand with traditional grudge games yesterday as Texas high school football teams celebrated Thanksgiving Day before record-breaking crowds.

The upsets came when Wichita Falls, Denison, and Tyler walloped and edged favored opponents to annex district titles.

As for indigestion, hardy fans left holiday dinners to brave huge ticket lines. At Fort Worth, 25,000 watched North Side and Paschal tangle, while at San Antonio, 23,726 looked on as Brackenridge and Thomas Jefferson met for the city crown.

Both crowds bested the accepted record of 22,000 plus set earlier in the year at San Antonio. With very few exceptions, stadiums bulged the state over.

Undefeated records were prime targets, as three were shattered. Wichita Falls lambasted Graham, 28-6, in District 2-AA; Denison beat Sherman, 13-6 in Dist. 5-AA, and Tyler squeezed past undefeated, but once tied, Marshall, 7-6, in Dist. 11-AA.

No sooner had the final whistle sounded than hi-district game sites were decided in four instances. Wichita Falls will play in Amarillo and Edinburg meets.

Thomas Jefferson in San Antonio Dec. 7, while Conroe plays at Tyler and North Side (Fort Worth) tackles Adamson (Dallas) in Dallas Dec. 6.

All save one of the 16 district champions have been determined and Temple will invade Waco to-night to settle the 10-AA title question.

The majority of interest centered yesterday on the five games that determined championships.

Highland Park (Dallas) bounced back into the state playoff picture, easily defeating McKinney 32-6 before 7,399 fans. Last year, the Scotties and Waco shared the state crown. They are champions of District 8-AA.

The Coyotes of Wichita Falls racked up their third straight title in upsetting Graham.

Denison won on a fourth-quarter touchdown by Guy Newman.

Eight thousand watched Tyler nose out Marshall in its home bulwark. Both teams scored in the final quarter, but Paul Beckman's placekick proved the margin of victory.

The North Side game was a thriller from start to finish, the Fort Worth elevens battling on even level most of the game. Again, an extra point proved the difference in determining a district winner, this one Dist. 7-AA.

Two games that meant only added prestige were Odessa's 55-0 victory over Midland and Thomas Jefferson's 39-6 trouncing of Brackenridge. These two are early favorites to battle for the state title.

District champions are 1 Amarillo; 2 Wichita Falls; 3 Odessa; 4 Ysleta; 5 Denison; 6 Highland Park (Dallas); 7 North Side (Fort Worth); 8 Adamson (Dallas); 9 Mineral Wells; 10 undecided; 11 Tyler; 12 Conroe; 13 Lamar (Houston); 14 Pasadena; 15 Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio); 16 Edinburg.

Undefeated teams remaining are Odessa and North Side. Undefeated, but tied, are Pasadena, Lamar, and Thomas Jefferson.

Fast Fight Is Aired on KBST Tonight

Charlie "Lulu" Costantino (above) of New York goes after his ninth straight victory when he faces Philadelphia's Eddie Giosa in Manhattan tonight. This lightweight headliner is billed for ten rounds.

Formerly an outstanding contender for world featherweight honors, Lulu (The Candy Kid) is now rated among boxing's foremost 135-pounders. One of the capiest boxers in action today, he knows all the tricks of the back-busting industry and possesses terrific speed.

On the other hand, Giosa's tough And, as they say in cauliflower circles, he's completely willing. He tears right in and keeps hammering away. Chester Rico, Roman Alvarez, Johnny Dell, Pat Scanlon are included on his list of victims.

Enjoy the excitement, blow-by-blow, on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KBST (1490 on your dial) at 9 p.m.

And remember men . . . LOOK sharp! FEEL sharp! BE sharp! Use Gillette Blue Blades with the sharpest edges ever honed!

Texas Hands Bible Parting Gift By Bowling Over Farmers, 24-7

AUSTIN, Nov. 29. (AP)—Dana X. Bible bid farewell to the coaching profession today—but not to football.

The little general of the gridiron, who saw his Texas Longhorns close his career in a blaze of glory by beating bitter rival Texas A&M 24-7 yesterday with Bobby Layne putting on one of his greatest one-man shows, departed soon after by plane for Philadelphia to see the Army-Navy game.

Perchance he also will be talking a little football business there. As athletic director at the University of Texas, Bible has announced big plans for making his school a national power in the game. He is going after the top teams. Not only to be played in the East, Midwest and on the Coast but to come to Texas for major inter-sectional battles.

Bible smiled misty-eyed yesterday as his boys flocked around him upon finishing his smashing conquest of Texas A&M in the fifty-third meeting of the two state schools. "The boys wanted to uphold a tradition—that of never being defeated by A&M in Memorial Stadium," he declared.

"They said they were glad they could give me a good parting gift—and I know of no nicer gift they could have given me than this. It was a hard-fought game and we beat a team that played hard football."

Assistant Coach Blair Cherry will succeed Bible as head mentor of the Longhorns Jan. 1.

Memorial Stadium was jammed with the largest crowd that ever saw a Southwest Conference football game—48,000—as the jittery but fighting Longhorns maintained a jinx over the Aggies that now has extended 23 years.

Equally as jittery were the Aggies but they couldn't recover from their miscues as did the Longhorns.

Layne kicked a 21-yard field goal, made a touchdown, completed five of eight passes for 108 yards and rolled up 67 yards on the ground. However, Bobby was charged with 33 yards in losses most of which came from a bad pass-back from center to cut his rushing net down to 34. He got off one quick-kick that traveled 68 yards and all the way around was a thorn that pricked A&M into maddening defeat.

Bobby personally accounted for nine of the Texas points and set up another touchdown with his running and passing.

A&M scored its touchdown in the last two minutes of the game—the first time an Aggie team has gotten one from a scrimmage play in the history of Memorial Stadium. Stan Holling, brilliant Aggie passer, accounted for it. Holling, who completed eight throws of 14 attempted for 145 yards, lofted 31 yards to end Charley Wright for the counter.

Texas, by winning the game, finished in third place in Southwest conference standings.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Despite the fact that he was all but stopped cold in the final two games, big Gerald Harris led all Big Spring high school backs in rushing during the 10-game season just completed by piling up 473 yards in 96 tries, averaging something like five yards every time he carried the maver on a running play.

Nimble Horace Rankin was head and shoulders above all the others in total offensive gains. His 311 paces in 92 rushing plays supplied him with an average of 3.4 yards an excursion. He completed 24 passes in 57 throws for 416 steps and 34 yards. His total would thus amount to the rather astonishing total of 761 yards, more than one third of what the Bovines picked up all told.

The Big Springers ankle for a total of 93 down renewals, gained 1234 yards rushing (net) and pushed on for another 892 yards through the air for a grand total of 2126 paces.

The ten opponents, on the other hand, made 120 first downs, got 1709 yards on scrimmage plays and 686 yards passing for a combined sum of 2395 yards.

Rushing records of other local backs:

BOBO HARDY—227 yards in 79 carries. Average: 2.9 yards.

JACKIE BARRON—45 yards in 14 tries. Average: 3.3 yards.

GEORGIE WORRELL—129 yards in 26 attempts. Average: 4.9 yards.

ERNE ACHE—26 yards in 9 drives. Average: 3 yards.

GORDON MADISON—No gain in two tries.

PETE FUGLAAR—7 yards in 4 gallops. Average: 1.8 yards.

Barron has completed four more passes (28) than has Rankin but his aggregate gains amount to a bit less. His receivers have ambled 389 yards downfield. The little quarterback has thrown no less than 70 aerials in the ten games.

Both Harris and Madison have tried their luck at passing, but neither has experienced any success unless one considers Big Gee's try or point after Thursday's game with Sweetwater. Harris tried two others in that contest and failed to connect while Madison has taken to the air waves once and missed.

Hardy gathered in two over-heads Thursday and meandered 72 yards to run his completions to 17 for the year and his aggregate gains in that department to 264 paces.

Other receivers and their gains are:

HARRIS—4 for 65; MARY WRIGHT—11 for 145; WORRELL—2 for 22; RANKIN—3 for 34; JIMMY JONES—1 for 14; B. E. LEES—1 for 3; ENSOR PUCKETT—6 for 128; EDDIE HOUSER—4 for 70.

Hunter Bags Deer With One Shot

A sportsman who wastes no time or ammunition is Neal Barnabe.

Neal Thursday drove 330 miles southward into the deer country, bagged himself a handsome 6-point buck with his first shot and returned to Big Spring, all within 18 1/2 hours.

He sighted the animal within ten minutes after taking up the hunt. The deer dressed at about 125 pounds.

It was Barnabe's first deer hunt this year and he went alone. The kill was made near Uvalde.
