The first bale of cotton for All county was marketed last Saturday and brought 12 cents pound with a $15.00 premium.

The Staked Plains Baptist Association, composed of five counties, was in session at Floydada last week.

The 9th Annual Floyd County Fair closed at Floydada Saturday. Big crowds and the best exhibits ever offered were reported.

Shamrock will have a splendidiseum course this year.

A contract has been closed by the commissioners of Hall county ty for the erection of a $13,000 bridge to be built across the Red River at Estelline.

Christopher Bros. will erect a handsome modern two-story brick building in Miami, work will begin at once.

The contract for the $66,700 highway bridge across the Canadian river near Canadian has been let to the Canton Bridge Company, Canton, Ohio.

Mr. McAllister and Miss Jessie Crawford of Hedley were married at that place last week.

The rain and wind storm on Monday of last week proved very disastrous at different points of the Panhandle. Hedley suffered to the amount of several thousand dollars not alone from the wind but also from lightning.

The commissions court of Carson county has set apart a sum of money with which to erect a small jail or calaboose at Groom.

Melon Season About Over

The local watermelon market took a decided slump the first of the week on account of a very cold norther that blew up early Monday morning. The ruling price for the better class of melons was fifteen cents and many loads sold as low as ten cents.

Another reason for the slump in the market was the fact that the season is about over and buyers are winding up their business preparatory to turning their attention to other things.

On the whole the melon crop this year was unsatisfactory as the production was far below normal and the quality of the fruit was not up to standard. The later melons, however, were of a much better quality, but did not set on well, probably on account of so much rain.

C. E. Anderson, who has raised several crops of melons here, has experimented with a new variety of melons this year, which he pronounces a decided success being a better flavored melon than the Alabama Sweet and a much better producer than either the Alabama Sweet or the Tom Watson. This new variety is known as the Excel and Mr. Anderson says it produced five or six times as heavily as his Watsons this year. It is an excellent shipping melon and will probably predominate the older varieties the coming season.

with a total cost of, including furniture and fixtures, $24,511.

In looking over exchanges we notice that every public school opened so far reports a crowded condition and the need of more teachers than employed previously. Immigration has naturally turned to the Panhandle during these "hard times" years.

J. J. Long has bought the Moezie News and will hereafter be its editor. Mr. Long is not an experienced newspaper man but promises to give the people something they will not be ashamed of.

The school board at Hereford will buy the big Christian College building, have it remodeled and use it for a high school building. The sudden increase in population has necessitated almost doubling the present school facilities at that place.

The Measure Of Greatness

Christ has given us a measure of greatness which eliminates conflicts. When his disciples disputed among themselves as to which should be greatest in the kingdom of heaven, He rebuked them and said: "Let him who would be chiefest among you be the servant of all." Service is the measure of greatness; it always has been true, it is true today, and it always will be true. That he is greatest who does the most of good. And yet, what a revolution it will work in this old world when this standard becomes the standard of every life. Nearly all of our controversies and combats arise from the fact that we are trying to get something from each other. Our enmities and animosities arise from our efforts to get as much as possible out of the world—there will be peace when our endeavor is to put as much as possible into the world. Society will have taken an immeasurable step toward peace when it estimates a citizen by his output rather than by his income and gives the crown of its approval to the one who makes the largest contribution to the welfare of all.—Extract from W. J. Bryan's lecture, "The Prince of Peace."

Life.

Life is a strong man's work to do
And a strong man's part to play;
And it is not bloom and it is not dew
And it is not birds in May.
Life is a thing that is sun to sun,
A thing to do that must be done;
A thing to measure and make a plan
With a strong, red blood of normal man.
Life is an unknown path to make
And undreamt dream to guess
With many a blow to give and take
And many a gift to bless.
Life is a thing that is going on
From dusk to dusk and from dawn to dawn:
A thing for men to go with, to lead.
Though the blades of a strike and the wounds may bleed.
Life is a straight man's course to go,
And a true man's part to play,
With a will immune to the bitter blow
And no way but the good right way.
Life is an iron and a thick ribbed bulk,
With woe to the weak and the worse, who sulk;
And woe to the men who are not strong souls
When the lightning leaps and the thunder rolls.
Life is all this, and beyond yet
The dark and the doubt and rear,
For strong men still who cannot off set
Their manhood with a tear.
Face life, then, for the thing it means
And not for a bundle of in-betweens;
A stein, high work and a strong work too,
For a strong man's heart and soul to do.

Universal Demand Is for Experience

By ED T. GILTZOW, Columbus, Ohio

Keenly conscious of the tragic fate certain to engulf the purposeless, shifting and subsequently unskilled individual—a consciousness bred of personal experience and observation and profoundly desiring to avert this calamity, I have sought in vain for an opportunity to enter, specialize and develop in the automobile industry.

One of the mountainous obstacles impeding the realization of this universal demand for experience and the seeming equally universal lack among employers of volunteers to contribute to the novice

Vocational training is an obligation which society owes its younger members because of the highly technical and complex nature of modern industry.

One cannot blame the young man, whether, as one contributor expresses it, he is "cognizant or not" of the danger of just floating through life, and the gainfulness of planning with his own God-given bent in mind

I have often heard it remarked that people of the new South were not so courteous as was the case in antebellum days, and perhaps this is true.

But, nevertheless, the people of Birmingham and other communities are well disposed and usually wish to help rather than hinder one another.

In taking a picture of this kind it is necessary to have an exposure of a few minutes without interruption.

This incident, I think, will go to show that by far the greater portion of the people of Birmingham, at least, are to all practical purposes courteous and kindly disposed and prefer to help rather than hinder the stranger.

One of the great sins of the age is superficiality—an indifference to the deeper meaning of things; an indisposition to think. It is the dusty outside, the frivolous glimpse of events

Many think this is no offense; that one is innocent if he is only superficial. We take to the frivolous and laughing side of things, just as we take to narcotics and intoxicants, because it is pleasant and tends to drive one from the anxieties and duties of the hour.

The Bible enjoins upon us to be sober-minded. This admonition is wholesome and exacting as any part of the Decalogue. It is based upon the idea that superficiality is destructive of mind and soul.

The frivolous person has no character, no purpose in life, no respect for wisdom and understanding.

The evil effects are everywhere shown—in church, in school, in court, in legislative hall, in shops; there is no insistence upon truth.

In a recent article on "City Gardening" the Siberian pea tree is mentioned as a late introduction by the United States government.

The tree—or, rather, large shrub—is an old acquaintance. The date of its discovery is given in Nicholson's "Dictionary of Gardening" as the year 1752.

In 1910 we planted seeds of it in the city nursery at the Gage farm and have them at present, about five thousand plants, besides a few sent to me a couple of years ago from the government.

It is a rather useful plant, one of its good qualities being its hardiness. But, though I have handled it for the last twenty years in the Chicago parks, I don't believe I have ever seen a flower on it here, although Europe it flowers very freely.

Its botanical name is Caragana arborescens.

What strange ideas many persons have of liberty! What an amount of mischief has been done to society by such "rabble charming words," as South calls them—words "which have much wildfire wrapped up in them"—as liberty, equality and fraternity!

How many who "bawl for freedom" confound it with license! A republic presupposes a high state of morals, but how can this be maintained without the habit of subordination and respect, and how can these be maintained without humility?

The true freeman is not only jealous of his own rights, but respects the rights of others, and is indignant when any man, ever meanest, is wronged or trampled under foot.

The man who is always boasting of his freedom is probably a slave to the meanest and most tyrannical vices, passions or prejudices.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

Children Who Insist on Being Real Americans

WASHINGTON—While the new "Americanization day" idea, for instilling the spirit and ideals of the United States into naturalized citizens, will undoubtedly appeal to many in Washington, a large number of the foreign-born of the city are already devoting much time and thought to becoming real Americans.

The foreign-born children are "all Americans," despite their foreign origin. It is doubtful if the much-discussed hyphen will ever be attached to them.

Another incident may serve to show the diligence with which the foreign born are seeking to become "true Americans." A reporter in search of children who, he had heard, could speak three, four or five languages went to one of the schools.

The teacher in charge called to one of the pupils known to speak a number of languages:

"Annie, can't you say something in your native language?" she asked the child. Annie immediately became bashful and refused to say anything.

"What language do you speak?" the child was asked. "I speak English," she answered.

"Yes, here at school. But what do you speak at home? What do mother and father speak?"

"Oh, they speak English, too," came back quickly. "They want to be American."

United States' Crusade Against Weight Frauds

AMERICAN consumers of print butter are paying more than $5,000,000 each year for butter they do not get. This is because the weights of the commodity they actually receive are materially less than those they are supposed to be buying.

It is because of the conditions of affairs of which these things are only samples that the division of weights and measures of the bureau of standards has directed many of its activities in recent years toward securing the enactment of better weights and measure laws by the federal government and the several states, and toward bringing about stricter enforcement of existing laws.

Training Good Cooks for Uncle Sam's Soldiers

OF late years—since 1906—the United States army has been no longer a mass of men who simply got food. They are now scientifically fed by men who have studied the subject, and in a practical way by presiding over ovens and stoves in schools.

The barracks kitchen is used for the preparation of most of the food, but there is also outside a "field kitchen," in which the cooking is virtually done in the open.

In the big, sweet-smelling bakery at the Washington barracks there are to be seen every morning about a dozen husky fellows—for they take their lessons by small details—all engaged in mashing the dough in working machines, poking it into the huge oven or fishing it out at the end of a long wooden pole.

The barracks kitchen is used for the preparation of most of the food, but there is also outside a "field kitchen," in which the cooking is virtually done in the open.

Experiments at the Government's Chicken Farm

THERE'S a sixty-acre poultry farm thirty minutes' ride from Washington, and beyond all doubt the work which is being done there would throw light upon at least one of the many problems which arise constantly to "stump" the chicken fancier, be he amateur or professional.

Whenever a local breeder of feathered stock is puzzled by a question of feeding, breeding or housing; whenever he is uncertain as to what strain of chickens had better be specialized upon to meet his particular need; whenever he would like to know how an expert would go about handling fowls with nothing more than the equipment expected of an ordinary, privately owned farm, it will pay him to look over this particular establishment.

KEEPING BABY WELL

MATTERS OF GREATEST INTEREST TO EVERY MOTHER.

Care of Infant in City Much Greater Than in Smaller Places—Welfare Societies Have Done Excellent Work.

(Prepared by the Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor.)

There is no doubt that the problems which arise in taking care of a baby in summer are more difficult for the city mother than for the one who lives in a village or in the country.

During the summer months in most of the larger cities there is an enormous increase in the number of sick babies, many of whom fail to survive this period.

The object of these welfare stations is to keep the babies well, and to prevent illness by watching the babies closely and by teaching the mothers how to take care of them.

These stations are sometimes maintained by the city and sometimes by a private society. The mother can find out the location of the station nearest her home from the papers, or by inquiring of the health officer.

The baby is weighed at each visit, and examined to see if he needs any special care. If so, the doctor explains this to the mother. The baby should be brought back to the station at regular intervals in order that the doctor and nurse can watch him.

The mother who is expecting the birth of a baby should go to the station about once a month during her pregnancy for advice about herself. The doctor and nurse will tell her what food is best for her to eat, how to take care of the breasts and nipples, and help her to prepare for the baby's coming in the best way.

If she is suffering from any ailment, such as vomiting, varicose veins, headache or swollen feet, she may learn what to do for these troubles, and if she desires to go to a hospital for the birth the station doctor will probably be able to arrange the matter for her.

After the baby is born and the mother is up and again, she may, if she chooses, send word to the station nurse, who will come to see her, now and then, until the mother is able to take the baby to the station again.

Mothers who are ill or worn out with the burdens of home, may find in a visit with the baby to such a station unexpected help in their problems. Some effort is made to teach mothers the rudiments of domestic science in the home, when this is needed.

Mothers especially who go out to work by the day, should try to send the baby to the station by a caretaker, for such babies need the welfare station's help even more than others.

If some member of the family is sick other than the baby and the baby is registered at the station, the nurses and doctors there will usually be able to advise her where and how to seek assistance.

These infant welfare stations are intended for the use of all mothers in the neighborhood who need help in the care of their babies, and no one needing it, should fail to avail herself of this opportunity.

Oil Cloth Table Mats. Oil cloth table mats for the children will save many soiled table cloths. They can be made by taking either a square or an oblong of white linen, drawing threads and hemstitching all around. Sew on a back, making the finished article look very much like a pillow cover with one end open for the pillow.

Dried Bread Crumbs. Dried bread crumbs absorb more liquid and, therefore, are better for a moist dish, but crumbs grated or crumbled from a fresh loaf take a lighter, more delicate color, and are better, therefore, for a very dainty dish.

To Keep Pies From Burning. To prevent cakes, pies and other pastry from burning on the bottom, sprinkle the bottom of the oven with fine, dry salt, and your cake or pie will bake perfectly.

SOME HINTS FOR BUILDERS

Great Care Should Be Taken in Selection of the Most Substantial Roofing Material.

If you were without preparation or plan, rudely placed in a wilderness, your first thought would be of food supply and your next of shelter, for these are the two most vital necessities of mankind. It is therefore natural that the best thought, and study are put upon these two essentials.

More forward steps have been taken in the building industry in the past fifteen years, as regards comfort, service and architectural beauty than in the fifty years previous.

Only in recent years has the handling of cement in building work been understood properly, and progress is still constantly being made with it. Modern hotels and office buildings are being equipped with sheet metal moldings and steel veneered doors.

One of the most significant developments of recent years is the crushed slate surfaced asphalt shingle which is, an new construction and old, rapidly supplanting the wooden article.

There are many reasons for this. The slate surfaced shingles add beauty to any building—in fact, there is really no comparison from an architectural standpoint. Crushed slate of pleasing tints of red or green, is employed as a surfacing. The shingles are uniformly eight inches wide and are exposed four inches to the weather. No painting is necessary as the red or green crushed slate is natural and therefore cannot fade.

The purchaser, however, should guard himself against buying a slate surfaced shingle that is not guaranteed by a reliable and responsible manufacturer. There are so many kinds of roofing and shingles on the market today each claiming to be the best that it becomes necessary for the buyer to get some satisfactory assurance that the roofing or shingles are represented honestly.

The art of bluffing lies in knowing when not to.

What does it avail a woman to have troubles if she can't tell them?

Be Warned in Time

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress. Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy—None so well-recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. None so universally successful.

An Oklahoma Case

"Every five or six years Mrs. T. Thompson, 400 W. Washington Ave., Oklahoma City, Okla., says: 'My kidneys were so badly congested a fever I caught cold and I suffered intensely from pains through my back. I felt stiff and lame and could hardly do my housework. Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened my kidneys and relieved the terrible pains in my back. I have felt a great deal better in every way since.'"

Paxtine

A Soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed For Douches

In the local treatment of woman's flu, such as leucorrhoea and inflammation, hot douches of Paxtine are very efficacious. No woman who has ever used medicated douches will fail to appreciate the clean and healthy condition Paxtine produces and the prompt relief from soreness and discomfort which follows its use. This is because Paxtine possesses superior cleansing, disinfecting and healing properties.

For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. "Women who have been relieved say it is 'worth its weight in gold.'" At druggists. 50c. large box or by mail. Sample free. The Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

Trip Around The World

The ladies of the Mothers Club are planning an entertainment for Saturday night, October 2nd which will be both unique and interesting to the participants and it is hoped will net a good sum for the work of the club. The entertainment is what is known as a trip around the world and several homes will be visited, at each of which some country will be represented.

Those who attend, and the public is invited, will meet at the O'Dell Hotel and be taken in automobiles to the D. B. Veatch home, which will be decorated to represent Japan. Here tea and wafers will be served on floor mats by Jadanese girls and a program of Japanese songs, etc., will be rendered.

The next stop will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morse where Germany will be depicted in decoration, refreshments and program. It is not belived, however, there will be any shrapnel or Krupp siege guns in evidence. The Kaiser and the Kaiserine will grace the occasion with their presence.

Moving again the party will next arrive in Mexico at the home Mrs. J. L. Crabtree and here scenes and so on will be made to represent this section of the globe. A program of Mexican music will be rendered, fortunes will be told and refreshments served. General Caranza and his wife will be in attendance.

The last stop will be back in America at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holt, where the party will be received by President Wilson and his daughter, Miss Margaret. Three cheers for the Stars and Stripes and the program will be completed by a series of musical numbers, recitations, ect., together with refreshments made in the U. S. A.

Will Have Big Dinner

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church announce that they will serve a dinner next "First Monday," in the building between the News office and Tailor shop.

Every one in this community knows just what to expect in the way of a dinner, for no where can be found more expert cooking than here. All you can eat is promised for the very small sum of 25 cents.

They will be glad to have your patronage. The proceeds will be used in futhering their work.

Restaurant, Ice House & Meat Market.

We want you to remember that we have opened up a first class restaurant and can serve you day or night. In connection to our restaurant we are handling ice and meat. We are killing our own meat so you are sure of getting first class, fresh meats, not cold storage meat.

Your patronage is solicited.

KING & CARVER.

The total cost of this delightful excursion will be 25 and 35 cents and it will be worth the money. Pack your trunks and be ready to catch the boat at the O'Dell Hotel promptly at eight o'clock Saturday evening, October 2nd, 1915.

Notice.

The public is hereby notified that in the future my price for cleaning closets will be as follows: Residence closets once a month, 50 cents; business closets twice a month, 50 cents each time. If you want your closets cleaned at these figures kindly notify me and it will be attended to.

Gate Keeper Is Killed

Elton W. McCaslin, machinist, acting gate keeper at the fair grounds in Amarillo was assaulted and fatally wounded about ten o'clock Tuesday night and died at midnight, as a result of an argument over payment of an admission fee.

"The man who attacked McCaslin, it is said, purchased a ticket, or tickets, and maintained that he had been "short changed." A quiet argument ensued and McCaslin said that he would count the change, and if he found himself to be wrong he would settle the matter. He turned around, with two other men, toward the ticket box to make the count. The man with whom he had the argument lagged behind.

When McCaslin turned his back the unknown picked up a large stick, struck him heavily upon the head, and then ran.

He was soon lost in the night and the crowd.

A motor car quickly took McCaslin to the St. Anthony sanitarium, where several doctors attended him.

At exactly twelve o'clock he died without a groan, never having regained consciousness.

The intention of the assailant was apparently not to rob McCaslin of his money, for when the cash was counted at the hospital not a cent was missing."

James E. Herrin, brakeman on the Santa Fe, of this city, was taken yesterday about two o'clock in Zita, Texas, eight miles from Amarillo, to the jail where he was arrested for killing Elton W. McCaslin, and confessed that he hit McCaslin, who died at midnight Tuesday night.

From the time McCaslin was assaulted until the time Hearin was brought to the county jail, city policemen and the sheriff with his deputies were making a thorough search of Amarillo and the surrounding country.

People who knew Hearin speak of him as being quick tempered and unreasonable.

The deceased is survived by his wife. He was forty-seven years old at death. The remains will be shipped to Union Grove, Wisconsin, for burial, by C. M. Eakle, undertaker.

About a year ago Mr. McCaslin visited McLean in the interest of the Maxwell car and will be remembered by a number of people.

Holds Meeting.

In response to the call of the president a few ladies gathered at the school building Friday afternoon to begin the work of the Mothers Club for the winter. In the absence of all officers the election of officers and a few other business matters were postponed until the next meeting.

Prof. Potts made an excellent talk along school lines and explained just what steps should be taken to raise the standard of this school. Sanitary drinking fountains will be ordered at once, practically enough funds having been left from last year to cover the expense. An effort will be made to have some kind of entertainment each month to raise necessary funds for carrying on the work. Mrs. J. S. Denson was put in charge of the first, which will be a "Trip around the World" and will be given next Saturday night.

Those present at this meeting other than the teachers were Mesdames Wolf, Denson, Holt.

A few trunks and suitcases at prices to move. C. C. Cook.

Sheriffs Sale.

The State of Texas, County of Gray. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County Greeting.

You are hereby commanded to summon E. F. Simmons, Wm. H. Stephens, C. L. Maple, Lillian Maple, A. J. Lee, W. H. H. Stephens, Cordelia A. Stephens and William A. Jackson by making publication of this citation once each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof in the McLean News, a newspaper published at McLean in Gray County, Texas, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Gray County to be holden at the court house thereof in LeFors, Texas, on the 4th, Monday in October A. D. 1915, the same being the 25th, day of October 1915, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on 14th, day of September A. D. 1915, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 512 wherein Sol Wintroub is plaintiff and E. F. Simmons, Wm. H. Stephens, C. L. Maple, Lillian E. Maple, A. J. Lee, W. H. H. Stephens, Cordelia A. Stephens and William A. Jackson are defendants, said petition alleging that plaintiff is the owner and holder two promissory vendor lien notes. The first which was executed by E. F. Simmons and payable to Thomas R. White Jr. dated October 9th, 1908, Due October the 9th, 1911, and given as a part of the consideration for Survey No. 43, in Block 25, Certificate No. 12-2326, H. & G. N. Ry. Co. Original Grantee containing Six Hundred and Forty acres and situated in Gray County, Texas. That a contract and vendor's lien was expressly retained in the deed from Thomas R. White Jr. to E. F. Simmons against the above described land to secure the payment of said note. The said note has been duly transferred to plaintiff and same is past due and unpaid and plaintiff sues for his debt in the sum of $1877.76 including principal, interest and attorney's fees, together with the foreclosure of his vendor's and contract lien as provided by law and all costs. Plaintiff also alleges that he is owner and holder of a certain vendor's lien note Date December the 10th, 1910, due two years after date and for the sum of $1924.00 and was given in part payment for the South half of the above described Survey and a lien reserved against said land to secure the payment of this note. That there is now past due and unpaid on said note $2752.26 and the lien reserved to secure its payment is in all second and inferior to the lien reserved to secure the payment of the Thomas R. White Jr. note hereinbefore set out. All defendants herein named except E. F.

"Better Quality For Less Money"

Large Dairy Farmers Use Texaco Roofing

THAT in itself is one of the strongest recommendations for this particularly valuable Texaco Product.

Dairy farming, with its necessarily large investment and its costly live stock, has become a valuable and efficient industry.

The experienced business man engaged in it uses Texaco Roofing to protect his cows from rain and damp.

Texaco Roofing is a paying proposition for him. Not only for the protection afforded, but for the low cost of upkeep and the ease with which it is applied. These features make it doubly valuable on your house, barn or factory.

Lay it yourself and make a perfect roof.

PROFIT IN ECONOMICAL FEEDING OF PIGS

Swinging Front to Pig Pens, to Prevent Pigs From Entering Trough Before the Food Is All In.

(By W. R. GILBERT.)

A mistake that we often make is that we wean our pigs too young. I believe in getting the little pigs started off to eat at three or four weeks old, and there is nothing better than a little milk and shorts to get them started. Then feed them liberally and by the time you wean them at eight or ten weeks old, you have a big, strong, lusty pig.

I am satisfied that a great many of our farmers lose all the profit in the business by the way they handle the pigs at the weaning time. I am a strong believer in raising the little pigs out in the open. Of course you must have shelter for them in storms and for feeding purposes, but let them have access to the earth; keep them on the ground and give them green food, and you will get them to develop bone and muscle and a strong stomach.

They are always on their feed and always at their feed. I like to have them out on a clover pasture or on peas and rape. For later pastures, rape gives satisfactory results. Of course, you must feed the pigs reasonably at the same time.

We all know that for economic production a mixture of several grains fed together will give better results than any one grain fed alone.

I cannot lay down a hard and fast rule. Some seasons oats might be very satisfactory, but if you get such a combination as high-priced oats it would be foolish to advocate them, especially when we have to purchase our feed.

During the winter months in a root-growing country I believe roots are a good food, and should compose a large proportion of the ration, and I believe in boiling the roots and feeding some grain.

Do not load them up with a great lot of water; feed the roots in rather a thick batter, and mix in your shorts and middings and whatever grain you might happen to have. For the larger pigs pulp the roots and feed the meal sprinkled on. In a section where winters are cold, it is well to take the chill off the food, and always see that the pigs clean the troughs up and do not leave any material in them.

A great many people make the mistake of having food left in the troughs. Pay particular attention to cleanliness, have dry beds and give them dry straw to lie on. The bedding should be changed often.

In the winter months give them wood ashes and charcoal and sod or earth of some kind. Earth seems to be absolutely necessary to keep the digestive organs in good condition. Milk is one of the best things for a pig. Nothing lengthens them out like milk, if properly handled.

GOOD RATIONS FOR EWES WITH LAMBS

Clover Hay Is Better Than Timothy—Mouldy or Sour Corn Silage Is Dangerous.

(By HOWARD HACKEDORN, Missouri Experiment Station.)

Clover hay and grain is a better ration for breeding ewes than timothy hay and grain.

Clover hay alone will maintain pregnant breeding ewes up to lambing time. After lambing, the addition of grain is advisable.

Corn silage when fed with clover hay, with grain, and with both clover hay and grain, is slightly better roughage than corn stover fed with the same combination of grain and clover hay.

Mouldy or extremely sour corn silage is a dangerous feed for sheep. Eleven ewes were lost in one week from accidentally feeding mouldy silage.

A ration of corn silage, clover hay and grain is the most efficient way of utilizing silage.

Feeding corn stover, clover hay and grain is the most satisfactory method of utilizing stover.

Corn silage and stover are better roughages than timothy hay when fed with grain.

ONE MAY PREVENT BLOAT IN CATTLE

Avoid Rank Grass and Wet Green Clover or Alfalfa—Some Precautions.

(By DR. A. S. ALEXANDER, Wisconsin Experiment Station.)

Rank grass and wet, green clover or alfalfa are likely to cause bloat in cattle. Bloat may be avoided if rigid precautions are taken. Here are a few of them:

Gradually change cows from winter grain and hay rations to fresh pastures and meadows.

Prevent indigestions, because indigestion is the direct cause of bloat.

Feed cows their usual ration of dry hay and grain before turning them out to pasture.

Keep cows off clover and alfalfa fields until dew or rain has dried off and never turn them on such fields in moisture-laden, "muggy" days.

Give cattle access to a mixture of salt and slacked lime.

Visit pastures frequently in early summer, and, if possible, take along proper remedies and instruments for relieving bad cases of bloat.

NOTHING BUT CORN IS UNSATISFACTORY

Where Fed Exclusively to Hogs the Animals Become Fat and Do Not Develop.

Investigators have proved that good feeders already know that corn—good corn—is a good feed for any animal, and that there is no need of withholding it from any animal needing food. At the same time, it is shown that corn alone is not nearly so good or so profitable a feed as corn supplemented by some protein food, such as tankage, linseed meal or soy beans.

In hogs fed exclusively on corn the animals become very fat and chubby, and do not develop properly; the bones are brittle and easily broken.

Sixty-five hogs were used in a recent experiment and they were divided into lots of five each. Twelve different rations were used, with corn alone in two of them and corn with some other feed in the others.

The hogs fed on corn and linseed meal and those fed on tankage gained the most; those receiving corn alone were most unsatisfactory.

Prevent Flies From Breeding.

Powdered hellebore mixed with water and sprinkled over manure will prevent flies from breeding and be an extremely effective means for their control. It is inexpensive and the thing of special importance regarding it is that it does not insure the fertilizing value of the manure, as do most materials used in controlling flies.

PICKLES THAT TEMPT

SOME RECIPES THAT ARE WORTH ATTENTION.

New and Old Varieties Mingled Here, But All Good—Baltimore Pickle Something That All Will Pronounce Delicious.

If in the course of the year past you have particularly liked the pickled walnuts that you had at Mrs. Brown's for dinner, or the piccalilli that Mrs. Thomas always serves with halibut, ask for the recipes for these dainties. They will probably be gladly given. It is usually flattering to feel that the food one serves is so appealing that others wish to know how it is prepared.

Here are some reliable recipes for tempting pickles, each of which adds zest to the appetite and flavor to the food with which it is served:

Ohio Mixed Pickles—Six green peppers and two red ones, one pint of small onions, one pint lima beans, one-fourth peck of string beans, one pint of celery, one pint of cauliflower, one pint of tiny cucumbers. Boil half-gallon of cider vinegar, to which has been added a quarter of a pound of white sugar, a little tumeric and a little celery seed. Boil all together for about twenty minutes, or until it is thick.

Variety Pickles—One gallon of cabbage chopped very fine, half-gallon green tomatoes, one quart onions, all chopped fine; four tablespoonsful of mustard, two tablespoonsful ginger, one tablespoonful cloves, one tablespoonful tumeric, one ounce of celery seed, two pounds of sugar, a little salt and a half gallon of good cider vinegar. Mix this well and boil for 30 minutes.

Ripe Cucumber Pickles—Fare, seed and cut in pieces 12 large ripe cucumbers. Cover them with boiling water, a handful of salt and let them stand overnight. In the morning drain and boil in water until they can be pierced with a straw. Drain, cover with cold vinegar and stand again for 24 hours. Drain and cover with the following: One quart of vinegar, three pounds of white sugar, three ounces of cinnamon buds, which have been scalded for a few minutes.

Baltimore Pickle—Two quarts of ripe tomatoes, two quarts of green tomatoes, one large head of cabbage, 12 medium-sized onions, three peppers, Chop fine, salt overnight and in the morning drain, and add to it two quarts of vinegar, a pound and a half of sugar, half a cupful of yellow mustard seeds, half a cupful of horse-radish, one tablespoonful of celery seed. Boil half an hour, or until well done.

Chili Sauce—Peel and chop one peck of ripe tomatoes; boil until thick and not juicy. Add one pint of chopped onions, one-half dozen large peppers, chopped fine. Let this boil for half an hour and then add half a cupful of salt, one pint of vinegar, a tablespoonful of cloves, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, two tablespoonfuls of whole mustard seed.

Kitchen Economy.

There are many thrifty cooks who have not learned that green peppers have an economic value equal to that which puts them at the head of savory dishes. They may be stuffed with anything left in the refrigerator except sweets. Using rice as a foundation, add chopped meat, tomatoes, onions, the last of the olives chopped off the pit, bits of bacon, cold potatoes or the cold corn left from some previous meal. Season the cut-off tops of the peppers, chop them fine and add them to the stuffing. Bake the peppers in a slow oven; they will incidentally enliven the family conversation by suggesting a guessing game—the one who guesses all the ingredients winning first honors.

Panned Baked Sweet Potatoes. Boil sweet potatoes until done, drain, peel and slice. Butter a baking dish, put in layer of the sliced potatoes, sprinkle rather thickly with light-brown sugar and dot with bits of butter. Add another layer of potatoes with sugar and butter, and so on. When dish is full, put in oven and bake, covered for half an hour, and uncovered for half an hour.

Eggs in Their Nests.

Two cupfuls of mashed or left-over potatoes. Shape into small nests in a buttered baking dish. Into these nests put a small piece of butter and break the eggs into them. Sprinkle salt and pepper over each one and then put in oven for a few minutes until eggs are set. Very good served hot with cold meat for supper.

Sealander Organdie.

Sealander organdie is the name of a lovely, new, transparent fabric which has both stripes and checks in a bit thicker weave. None of it could be called thick, however. It is as sheer as any material could be desired for summer frocks and has the merit of retaining its finish through laundering.

Glam Broth Cold.

Make one and a half pints of clam broth, season with salt, pepper and celery salt, strain and chill in the ice box. When ready for serving serve in cups with a tablespoonful of salted whipped cream on each cupful.

Chicken Patties.

Mince some of the white meat of cold chicken and season with lemon peel, nutmeg, salt, pepper, cream and a little butter; place over the fire and thicken with a little flour. When cold fill patty shells and serve.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! ACTS LIKE DYNAMITE ON LIVER

I Guarantee "Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Give You the Best Liver and Bowel Cleansing You Ever Had—Doesn't Make You Sick!

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lazy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, list 'em to me!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you feel "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store or dealer and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a outfit is quite complete in these days without a sweater of some sort. There is a wide and varied choice of sweaters, for they are claiming more attention than ever before in their history. There are finely woven sweaters of all the gay colors, which one sees at afternoon concert, at the country club, and in any other outdoor meeting places. There are sweaters of all materials, usually in more vivid colors than the all-silk variety. There are the practical wool sweaters, similar to that shown in the illustration, and belonging to the same class as the new models are carefully designed to the end that they may emphasize the right style. In the example pictured here, for instance, it is noticed that the sleeves are shaped and finished with a cuff and button. The patch pockets leave a turnover flap, and the new order of things in belts is recognized. The collar may be turned up close about the neck if required. Because this is a sweater for real comfort in cool days it is rather heavy. Its usefulness begins with fall, and continues to the coming of another summer, for it reinforces the too tight wrap in the depths of winter. It is an excellent model to choose for the young girl to wear to school during the autumn months, and nothing could be better designed or arranged for sports wear. Sweaters of wool stand the rough handling which they are likely to get from young people, and continue to look none the worse for it. Now that they are made in beautiful colors and with so much attention to style, the field of their usefulness is wonderfully increased.

Three New Models for Fall

All things, millinery requires careful choosing, and, after it is chosen, the hat requires careful placing on the head, if it is to fulfill its purpose. According to an old milliner's maxim that destiny is to improve the appearance of the wearer. "You look better with your hat than without it"—that is the exacting test which each new model is to be subjected to. The three new models for fall, which appear here, are types that will give a little study on the part of those who consider things before buying. They include a small turban with extension crown which forms a halo brim, and one of graceful wide-brimmed hats to which fashion is extending welcome. A number of these wide-brimmed hats are shaped with brims that curve upward at the back. This has been the underbrim trimming for some time, and it is not confined to wide-brimmed shapes. Short, curling plumes fit into the trimming underbrim in the most graceful way. JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

Potatoes have been grown in commercial quantities at the Fairbanks station for several years. The object of growing them there was to demonstrate that good potatoes could be grown in the interior, and the report says that the farmers in the vicinity have taken the hint. Nearly all of them now devote considerable acreage to this vegetable. One farmer estimated his crop as high as fifty tons, which, at 4 cents a pound, or $20 a ton, the lowest price at which potatoes have been sold in Alaska up to the present time, would bring him $4,000. Hog raising has also been started at Fairbanks, the hogs being fed on the unmerchantable potatoes.

BOY HAD USED HIS BRAINS Certainly Window Was Broken, But Also It Had Been Repaired, and What Then? An iron hoop bounded through the area railings of a suburban house and played havoc with the kitchen window. The woman waited, anger in her eyes, for the appearance of the hoop's owner. Presently he came. "Please, I've broken your window," he said, "and here's father to mend it." And sure enough, he was followed by a stolid-looking workman, who at once started to work, while the small boy took his hoop and ran off. "That'll be four bits, ma'am," announced the glazier when the window was whole once more. "Four bits!" gasped the woman. "But your little boy broke it—the little fellow with the hoop, you know. You're his father, aren't you?" The stolid man shook his head. "Don't know him from Adam," he said. "He came around to my place and told me his mother wanted her window fixed. You're his mother, aren't you?" And the woman shook her head also.

Did He Put His Foot in It? An English soldier, a member of the Second South Staffordshire regiment, says that one bitterly cold night in early spring he and his mates came out of the trenches. They were billeted in a barn, where they were packed in very close. "Though numb with cold, we were soon asleep," said the soldier, in telling the incident. "I was awakened in the night by one of my chaps trying to put his boots on. After he had been trying for a minute or two I heard the fellow next to him say: "'What the — are you doing?' "'Puttin' my boots on,' was the reply. "'Well, that's my foot, you fool!'" Naturally Indignant. Lige, an old darkey, was suing his wife for divorce, and stated in his allegations that his wife had run off with another negro and that she refused to return and live with him. A party meeting up with Lige remarked: "Lige, I understand that you are suing your wife for divorce?" "Yas sir, boss; I done gone and sued her." "Well, Lige, upon what grounds are you bringing your suit?" "Boss, it's jist like dis: She bin run' off wid 'nudder nigger 'bout fo' years and I jist made up my mind to quit her."

Clear Title. Uncle Mose aspired to the elective office of Justice of the peace in the "black bottom" part of town. One bar there was to his preferment. He could neither read nor write. His master advised him to go to the commissioner of elections and ask whether he was eligible. Mose went and returned. "What did he tell you, Mose?" inquired the master. "It's all right, suh," answered Mose; "dat gen'leman suttinly was kind, yas, suh. He tole me Ah was illegible fo' date office."

Gave Wifey Away. "My house is so well organized," said Mrs. De Gaw, "that I don't go into my kitchen once a week." "That's the pleasant way she puts it," her husband explained. "As a matter of fact, she's afraid of her cook."

Why He Missed Her. "So you're little Willie Woodby?" said the new minister after Sunday school. "I called to see your mother yesterday, but unfortunately she was not at home." "Oh, yes, she was," replied the boy, "but I guess she took you for the installment man. You look somethin' like him." Considerate. "They say Mrs. Brown hasn't paid her servants in three months." "Why does she keep so many of them, then?" "She says she feels it her duty to give employment to as many as possible in these hard times." Unpreparedness. "Was that speech you delivered extemporaneous?" "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "I had to read it from notes. I didn't have time to commit an extemporaneous speech to memory." Its Definition. "What's this call of the wild they talk so much about?" "The joy riders' honk." A divorce judge, like a poor marksman, makes a good many misses.

The General Says: Know why and know-how are essential to any success. Every one of us has to acknowledge that the same sort of military preparedness that fits a nation for its defense is the most effective principle in making an industry of any kind serviceable and profitable both to manufacturer and consumer. This Great Roofing Organization Is Trained Like an Army. Three enormous mills—officers and manned by the best trained force ever enlisted in an industrial army—three huge factories that are run like clockwork. Military exactness in the securing and selection of raw material, and in every step from then on until the finished product is distributed and sold. Constant readiness—being prepared every minute for the work to be done the next—Right there you have your finger on the great, essential reasons for the unflinching satisfaction every user finds in Certain-teed. ROOFING SHINGLES. This roofing certainly has no superior. It is the best roofing that can possibly be made and it is manufactured in and guaranteed by the largest Roofing and Building Paper Mills in the World. 1-ply is guaranteed 5 years; 2-ply, 10 years, and 3-ply, 15 years, and this guarantee means the minimum life of the roofing. Thousands of Certain-teed Roofs all over the country are outliving the period of the guarantee. When the General first entered the field the cost of roofing was two or three times more than it is today and the quality was not as high as Certain-teed is today. By reason of his enormous output the General has not only been able to bring down the cost and selling price of roofing, but he has also been able to raise the quality to its maximum. Today every fifth roll of roofing sold bears the Certain-teed label. Certain-teed roofing, shingles, wall boards, felts, building papers, etc., bearing the General's name, are sold by your local lumber or hardware dealer at very reasonable prices. Men and Women Grow Together.

If the suggestion that men and women will cease to be attractive to one another if women enter modern fields of labor, be based on the fact that her doing so may increase her intelligence and enlarge her intellectual horizon, it must be replied that the whole trend of human history absolutely negates the supposition.

There is not ground for the assumption that increased intelligence and intellectual power diminish emotion in the human creature of either sex. A Mill, a Shelley, a Goethe, a Schiller, a Pericles, have not been more noted for intellectual powers than for the depth and intensity of their emotions. As if with woman, the relation between intensity of emotion and highly intellectual gifts has yet closer. The life of Sophie Koxalevsky, a George Elliot, an Elizabeth Browning has not been more marked by a rare development of the intellect than by deep passionate emotions.

Gave Up A Position To Enter School.

When a young lady getting $9.00 per week, resigns her position to take a course in Stenography and Bookkeeping with a view to bettering herself, the lesson of her experience should be a valuable one for you. She was in the best position to judge of the Value of Business Training.

The girl has been but of school now just three months and is now getting $18.00 per week. Didnt it pay her? She doubled her salary for life, even if she never gets another raise, and all her expenses for board, tuition, and all while here cost her less than $130. She has made that back already.

Young man, young lady, the business world places the same estimate upon you that you place upon yourself. If you don't think your self worth educating, the Business man don't think you worth employing. Do you get the idea?

Your judgment tells you that you can make your salary from $5.00 to $10.00 per week higher by becoming business trained.

You know you are treating yourself shabbily by postponing this matter. Why don't you do justice to your self by deciding now in favor of a course of training?

Best of room and board here with private families at $3 per week.

Woodman Circle Picnic.

On Wed., Sept. 15, a jolly picnic was enjoyed by the members of the Woodman Circle. They assembled early in the day on the beautiful lawn at the W. B. Upham home west of town. A sumptuous basket dinner was spread under the locust trees at the noon hour. Later a bounteous water melon and canteloupe feast was enjoyed. Music and singing were mingled with friendly concourse, and hearty good cheer pervaded the atmosphere. The festivities were ended by a delicious ice cream course, and every body left with the wish that another such day might soon be spent.

The members of the Circle present were: Mesdames Whitley, Daugherty, Skidmore, Kibler, Bentley, Russel, Wilson, Henry, Noel, Easterwood, Piersall, Kolb, Foster, Upham, Smith, Bird. Specially invited guests were Messrs. Blaylock, Upham, and Rice, and Mesdames Sugg, Rice and Floyd.

McLean People Praise Simple Mixture
Many in McLean praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Alder-I-ka. This remedy is the most THOROUGH bowel cleanser ever sold being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gases rumble and pass out. Alder-I-ka cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM
F. C. Howe
On The Advantages of Free Ports
Mr. F. C. Howe, Federal Commissioner of Immigration, who is one of the best American authorities on marine commerce, in discussing the relation of free ports to the development of sea trade said in part:
"Ships will go hundreds of miles out of their way to avoid ports surrounded by a tariff wall. The only way, therefore, for a country with a tariff to compete in the shipping world with a free trade country is to establish free ports at strategic points along its coast line. Germany has done so, and in a comparatively short period has built up a carrying trade which before the war was seriously threatening England's supremacy. Hamburg, one of the three German free ports, now ranks as the second greatest seaport in the world, its total foreign commerce in 1913 being only $6,000,000 under that of New York.
The free port would offer great opportunity for financial operations, now made possible by the recent currency act. It would stimulate international banking, and would tend to shift the financial center of the world to this country. And America, by the logic of events, has become the natural center for the world's financing, just as London became that center several centuries ago, when it shifted from the cities of the Netherlands. But the financial center will only move to this country when it becomes a clearing house of goods as well as of money. For credit the world over is created by currently created wealth in transit or change so that even our financial expansion is dependent upon the opening up of American ports to the clearance of the wealth of the world. A port should not operate to yield a return on the investment, but to develop the prosperity of the country." In recapitulating the advantages, Mr. Howe brings out the importance of the free port in developing our shipping, and linking us with South America, Asia and Africa, and then concludes:
"The most important gain is the direct gain to America. It will cheapen commodities by bringing great quantities of goods to our doors for importation or export, as trade needs demand. It will stimulate the growth of exporting houses, which can hold goods for an indefinite period without the payment of tariff dues (often equal to the cost of the article itself) for disposal to meet the trade demands of the whole world. It will uphold international credit, and shift to America an increasing and ultimately a predominant share in international exchange.
Finally, America is the natural country to be the counter of the world. Its seacoasts face every other continent; it is the greatest of all reservoirs of raw materials and foodstuffs. In iron and steel and standardized production it is in a position to compete with the world. But international trade (and this is always overlooked) must be reciprocal. It cannot be one-sided. And credit balances cannot for any prolonged period be paid in gold. They can only be paid by exchange of wealth."

"You're a farmer, eh?"
"Say what kind of farm did you live on?"
"A homestead."
"What is a homestead?"
A homestead means that the United States government is willing to bet you can't live on it 5 years without starving to death.
"Where was your homestead?"
"In Arizona, and it didn't rain once the whole time I was there."
"Then how could you keep the air moist?"
"By walking over it."
"How did your walking over it keep it moist?"
"I wore pumps."
