

JAPS DEMAND THAT BRITAIN HALT ALL HELP FOR CHINESE

Complete Abandonment Named As Price For Lifting Blockade Against The Foreign Concessions At Tientsin

By The Associated Press
Japanese demanded unconditional abandonment of British support to China Saturday as the price for lifting the blockade against the British and French concessions at Tientsin.

The terms were set forth by the commander of the Japanese North China army who announced rejection of British efforts to negotiate the Tientsin crisis which began as a minor incident and ballooned into a diplomatic struggle between the two powers for prestige in China.

In the besieged concessions, where most of American residents of Tientsin live, a shortage of perishable foods became more acute as the Japanese blockade entered its fifth day.

Brition Arrested
Fuel was added to the tension in the North China port yesterday when Japanese soldiers arrested G. A. Smith, British explorer, after he engaged in an argument with a Chinese policeman outside the British concession.

Europe, which has been watching the labored attempts of Britain and France to draw Soviet Russia into their bloc of nations, had a demonstration of intention from the other camp.

Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels told a Free City of Danzig crowd that union of Danzig with Germany was inevitable and could be prevented by no power on earth—a frequent Nazi refrain.

In France, angry mutterings of sabotage appeared in some newspapers over the sinking of the submarine Phenix and the loss of the 71 men aboard off the coast of Indochina. French naval experts branded such talk "ridiculous."

The disclosure of a plot to assassinate King Carol of Rumania and officials of the Bucharest government precipitated a nationwide roundup of former members of the outlawed Fascist Iron Guard in the Balkan kingdom.

An orthodox priest was among seven persons held. The conspirators were said to have planned to toss hand grenades into the royal box at a horse race today in the Rumanian capital.

U. S. Commander To Be In Tientsin Monday
TIENTSIN, June 17 (AP)—Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, commander in chief of the United States Asiatic fleet, is scheduled to arrive Monday in Tientsin, where the small American community is affected by a four-day-old blockade of the British and French concessions.

Although the admiral is on an inspection tour arranged before the current crisis, signs tonight were he would be in this city while British-Japanese tension was at a dangerous pitch.

Today Yarnell was inspecting the United States embassy marine guard at Peiping. Two companies of the same marine detachment are stationed here. The admiral goes from Tientsin to Chinwangtao, 200 miles up the coast, to rejoin his flagship, the cruiser Augusta.

In the besieged concessions, in which most of Tientsin Americans live, shortage of perishable foods became more acute as the Japanese blockade ran through its fourth day. The concessions, however, were well stocked with staples such as flour and rice.

Lack of milk was the greatest inconvenience, meat and fresh vegetables also were missed although small quantities were brought in during the day.

Japanese authorities, accusing officials of the British concession here of harboring four alleged terrorists, placed a blockade around the British and French concessions Wednesday when the British refused to comply with Japanese demands that the four men be turned over.

The diplomatic impasse here continued, without a move on either side.

REVIEWING THE
WEEK
BY JOE PICKLE
Today is Father's Day—according to the decree of the special day makers. It is somewhat analogous to Mother's Day, but since Dad is made of pretty stern stuff, the money changers haven't been able to bring much sentiment out of him.

Most of us can remember when we arrived at that stage when we thought Dad could no longer lay on the well-deserved rod—and how we went on from there with a newer and deeper respect for him. Which, to our way of thinking, is one way of saying that the home is still built around the head of the house. Its influence is just as strong as Dad's.

City and county commissioners get together on the highway No. 8 south right-of-way through the park last week since the city made a mighty concession in the interest of cooperation. The concession happened to be the difference between $9,700 asked and $2,000 accepted. None has yet suggested it, but the county should well remember that cooperation works two ways—in obtaining relief from the city.

Mother Admits To Drowning Of Baby

Says She Wanted To 'Get Rid' Of Child After Divorce

FREMONT, O., June 17 (AP)—Prosecutor A. L. Hyzer announced tonight Mrs. Velma Baker Fink had confessed orally she killed her 10-week-old son, Baldon 'Buster,' whose body was found in a creek near their Clyde, O., home several days ago.

Lie Detector Used
The prosecutor said Sheriff H. L. Myers, a deputy, Mrs. Ora Baker, mother of Mrs. Fink, Edwin Baker, a brother, and Howard G. Robinson, were present at the time the confession was made. It followed, he said, a lengthy lie detector examination, ordered only a few hours after the infant was buried in a Clyde cemetery.

Hyzer quoted Mrs. Fink—divorced from her husband only 10 days ago—as relating she had decided to "get rid" of the child after quarreling with her mother over its care.

Last Tuesday night, the prosecutor continued, she took the child from a carriage in her mother's home, placed it in the automobile of a brother, and drove to a bridge crossing a creek four miles west of Clyde.

Upon arriving there, Hyzer quoted her as saying, she lifted the baby from the car and threw it into the water. The body was found 12 hours later.

Near collapse and sobbing hysterically, Mrs. Fink was taken to the Sandusky county jail, a few minutes after Hyzer made the announcement.

"I just can't believe it," Hyzer quoted Mrs. Baker as saying. Prosecutor Hyzer said the break in the case came after he questioned Richard White, a factory worker who said he was out with Mrs. Fink between midnight and 2 a. m. last Tuesday.

Mrs. Fink, who previously had denied she was out with anyone at that time, was confronted with White's statement. She then said, Hyzer reported, that she and her mother quarreled about caring for the baby after she returned from the date. It was then she decided to get rid of it, Hyzer related.

The body was found by deputy sheriffs about 45 hours later. Subsequent examination showed the child had been smothered before it was thrown into the water.

Baker, in reporting the child missing, said Baby Haldon, known to the family affectionately as "Buster," apparently was taken while Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Fink were together.

Steps Taken For Formation Of Soil Conservation Dist.

Initial steps toward the formation of a soil conservation district composed chiefly of Howard and Martin counties were taken here Saturday afternoon with signing of petitions asking the state conservation board to consider such a district.

There were indications that Martin county land owners would hold a similar meeting within the next few days and possibly would also gather signatures for a petition.

About 40 landowners from widely separated areas of the county signed the petition here Saturday. It was reported unofficially, at a meeting in the district courtroom, the proposal to formulate the district was outlined by O. P. Griffin, county agent, and was discussed by several others.

KILLS CHILDREN, WOUNDS WIFE AND THEN KILLS SELF
COLUMBIA, S. C., June 17 (AP)—A 34-year-old former convict, Neil Butler, who Sheriff T. Alex Helms said, shot himself last night after killing his two children and seriously wounding his wife, died tonight in a hospital.

Butler's two-year-old son, Joseph, and his seven-year-old daughter, Eyvon, died from pistol wounds a few hours afterward in a hospital.

The sheriff said Butler told him from his hospital bed: "I hope we'll all die. I don't want them to live and I don't want to live myself. If I can't have my children to raise, then nobody will."

MURDER CHARGES
MCKINNEY, June 17 (AP)—Two brothers, Melvin Johnson of McKinney and Glen Johnson of Sherman, were held here today charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Delmar Holt, 20-year-old McKinney negro.

BIG SPRING IN FESTIVE ARRAY FOR ANNUAL RODEO AND POSTMASTERS' CONCLAVE OPENING THIS WEEK

Decorations Go Up For Gala Events; Program Completed; Final Booster Arrangements All In Readiness

Big Spring Saturday assumed a festive atmosphere in anticipation of two major events during the week—the sixth annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo and the annual Texas Postmasters association convention.

Decorations were draped over the downtown area, plans were rounded out for two more motorcades to publicize the rodeo, Burke Summers announced 33 floats were entered in the Friday parade, and the rodeo jall was being put in shape to receive non-conformers to the western attire idea on Wednesday.

Nat Shick, host postmaster, announced that the program was complete for the state postmasters meeting and that he expected upwards from 350 delegates to register when the convention opens on Thursday.

Advertising Motorcades Scheduled
Service Clubs Will Sponsor Jaunts On Monday, Wednesday
Paced by a successful tour of the northern area last week under the sponsorship of the Lions club, the Kiwanis and American Business clubs will head for the regions to the west, south and east this week to further boost the rodeo and state postmasters convention.

Leave At 8:45 A. M.
V. A. Merrick, in charge of the Kiwanis trip to the west, said that 23 cars had been lined up Saturday for the Monday motorcade. The caravan will leave from the Ritz theatre at 8:45 a. m. and will carry the Melody Maids and Center Point Serenaders for entertainers. Plenty of room is available to those who wish to make the trip.

The American Business club motorcade leaves at the same hour Wednesday and about 15 cars have been lined up for it. It will swing through the territory to the south and east.

Stopping points and arrival time for the Kiwanis tour includes Stanton at 9:10 a. m., Midland 9:50 a. m., Odessa 10:35 a. m., Crane 11:30 a. m., McCamey 12:15 p. m. (lunch), Rankin 1:40 p. m., Big Lake 2:30 p. m., Garden City 4 p. m. and return to Big Spring at 5:10 p. m.

On the ABC itinerary are Fort Stockton, Sterling City, Water Valley, San Angelo, Tennyson, Bronck, Sweetwater, Boscoe, Lorraine, Colorado, Westbrook and Comaha.

Entering cars for the Monday trip were the First National Bank, the State National Bank, Walter Wilson, Keisinger Motor company, Ben McCullough, Jess Slaughter, Eberley Funeral Home, Big Spring Herald, Long Star Chevrolet, Inc., Big Spring Motor company, Curtis and Johnnie Nall, Ira Honeycutt, C. L. Rowe, Chamber of Commerce, Highway Patrol, R. & R. Theatre, Galvin Boykin, Texas Electric Service company, N. I. Bros., W. W. Barker, Ross Nursery, Lee Hansen and Clud's Service Station. Sol Krupp was added to the list of Wednesday trippers.

Henry D. Young, Fort Worth postmaster; W. T. Burnett, Brownville, former head of the state association; L. M. Jordan, Dallas, manager of the Sears-Roebuck Co.; E. E. Smith, Colorado City, president of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers association; and Ira Thurman, Big Spring.

W. D. DeGrass, Amarillo, president of the state association will preside, assisted by the vice-presidents—B. C. McElroy, Marshall, Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, and Dan J. Quill, San Antonio. Harry Mertz, McAllen, parliamentarian, and W. B. Luna, Dallas, secretary-treasurer, will be on hand. Election of officers and recognition of the next convention site are slated for the final day.

The convention in Big Spring is the farthest west ever held by the state postmasters unit, it was reported.

Scouts To Return From Camp Monday
Big Spring and Coahoma Boy Scouts who are rounding out their week at the council camp at Barkdale on the Nueces river will return here Monday.

C. S. Blomshild, camping chairman and head of the Big Spring district, said Saturday after a telephone conversation with Al Stiles, area executive at the camp, that the one week boys would leave early Monday morning aboard a Coahoma and Snyder school bus and that they would likely arrive here about mid-afternoon.

Local scouts remaining for two weeks will return aboard a truck on June 26, said the chairman.

TWO KILLED AND TWO INJURED IN CRASH
MARLIN, June 17 (AP)—Two persons were killed and two injured seriously today when a small pickup truck crashed into a bridge between Calvert and Franklin in Robertson county.

The dead were Aubrey Tullis, 36, of Henry's Prairie, and a negro who was riding in the rear of the truck.

Gully Tullis suffered a broken hip and possible internal injuries and E. Thomas' skull was fractured.

SEAMAN LOST FROM ROYALTY'S SHIP
ABOARD THE EMPRESS OF BRITAIN, June 17 (AP)—A seaman was lost overboard today from the Empress of Britain which is carrying King George and Queen Elizabeth home from their North American visit.

While fixing covers on a lifeboat, Samuel Batts, 23, a Newfoundland, lost his footing and fell 80 feet into the water. The liner stopped and made an unsuccessful search.

HEARING CALLED ON STATE RATE DIFFERENTIALS

Commission Wants Evidence To Show Why Variations Affecting Some Areas Should Not Be Cancelled

AUSTIN, June 17 (AP)—Persons from every section of the state will trek to the capital Monday for a railroad commission hearing which might result in cancellation of differential intra-state freight rates, long a source of complaint from many shippers.

Examiners expressed opinion the hearing might continue for 10 days or two weeks.

Specifically, the commission has ordered rail and motor carriers to show cause why differentials, applying generally to from, through or between West and Southwest Texas points should not be cancelled.

Before it reaches a decision it must hear volumes of testimony and any interested party, in addition to the carriers, may testify. The West Texas chamber of commerce and the Freight Rate Equality Federation, newly organized in West Texas, will present many witnesses. South and East Texas interests also will attend, as witnesses or observers.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson, a commission member, termed freight rate Texas' biggest problem, has urged full attendance and presentation of complete data and exhibits.

Other matters on which the commissioners have invited testimony are the reasonableness of intrastate class rates and also commodity rates which are based on percentages of the first class freight rate.

Thompson said the hearing is the result of a commission policy of "more action and less talk" which he hoped would bring about fair and reasonable rates within the state, based on facts given under oath.

Proponents of rate readjustment also are pointing a drive for changes in interstate shipping costs which, they contend, are working a hardship on the Southwest as compared with the east and north.

The freight federation, which has retained traffic and rate experts, is lining up a campaign for more equitable intrastate rates and the Texas legislature has appropriated $50,000 to aid in financing cases before the interstate commerce commission designed to reduce Texas levels to those of the east and north.

D. A. Bandeen, manager of the West Texas chamber of commerce and executive secretary of the federation, termed the hearing here "the biggest day since San Jacinto in removing shackles from the people of Texas."

The hearing, he said, is expected to open the whole issue of rate levels in zones of the United States. The W. T. C. C. and federation.

T&P To Aid In Flood Control Survey Here

The Texas & Pacific Railway company, whose right-of-way properties have been damaged on several occasions by overflow waters after heavy rains, has agreed to join the city of Big Spring and Howard county in financing a survey looking toward flood control prevention projects.

City Manager E. V. Spence returned Saturday from Dallas, where he conferred with the T&P's chief engineer, E. F. Mitchell, Division Superintendent A. E. Pistole, and other railway officials. He brought with him a letter for submission to the city commission, in which Mr. Mitchell pledged the railroad's contribution of one-third the cost of the survey, provided city and county join similarly in the project.

The city commission last week accepted a proposal from the engineering firm of Freese and Nichols to make the survey for $1,500, and the railroad agreed to pay $500. City officials are expected to put the proposal before the county commissioners court soon.

Freese and Nichols will check rainfall records, make a runoff survey, determine feasibility of installing storm sewers, building retaining basins and diversion channels, and making use of natural drainage channels such as Bear's creek and Sulphur and Mustang draws.

The $1,500 survey would extend See CONTROL, Page 12, Col. 5

MAN ELECTROCUTED

MINERAL WELLS, June 17 (AP)—Arthur Higgins, 25, was electrocuted at Possum Kingdom dam today when an electric line shorted on a shale wall.

Two other men working with him were severely shocked, but responded to treatment. The crew was standing in the water trimming a bank with the saw.

Higgins lived with his wife and small child in a camp near the dam. His home was a Bertram, Tex.

Feed, however, can be planted with assurance of yields up to July 20.

Over this area range lands were taking a beating from the sun and hot winds and only in areas visited by spotted showers were there any inviting patches of greenery.

GETS NINE YEARS IN SLAYING CASE

DALLAS, June 17 (AP)—Nine more years were tacked onto Guy Irby Nabors' prison life today for the pistol-slaying of Eddie Roark, his 43-year-old attorney.

The young Dallas desperado, under 12-year sentence as an habitual criminal, stoically accepted the new punishment.

Found guilty of murder with malice by a jury that pondered the case 20 hours, Nabors had pleaded self-defense. Roark was shot four times in the hallway of Nabors' home on May 12.

71 Deaths In Sub Disaster

PARIS, June 17 (AP)—France and her empire tonight mourned 71 officers and sailors of the submarine Phenix, a steel tomb deep in the China sea off the coast of French Indo-China.

The only trace of the third submarine in 24 days to carry seamen to their graves was a floating circle of oil which caimed a spot on the rough surface of Cam-Ha bay.

Abandonment of hope for those aboard the Phenix, officially announced as 71 men, brought to 199 the number of lives lost in United States, British and French submarines in a little more than three weeks.

Warships and sea planes of France's armed forces searched for the 2,000-ton submarine, which dived into the sea during exercises Thursday morning and failed to reappear.

A communique issued in Saigon, French Indo-China, said: "The cause of this catastrophe is still unknown and a commission of inquiry has been formed to discover it. The search continues actively and all means at the disposal of the Indo-China fleet are being employed."

It said the water there, 225 miles northeast of Saigon, was "more than 100 meters" (328 feet) deep. With abandonment of hope for those aboard, the navy's interest in finding the Phenix primarily was to determine the cause of the disaster.

The authorities wanted to still angry mutterings of sabotage with which parts of the French press greeted the news that a French submarine had followed the American Squalus, aboard which 36 died, and the British Thetis, aboard which 30 died, to the bottom of the sea.

Navy experts called the sabotage hints "absurd."

Postal Group Will Convene On Thursday

Featuring the appearance of Smith W. Purdum, fourth assistant postmaster general, and a program built around a western theme replete with a rodeo and chuck wagon dinner, the annual Texas Postmasters association convention will open here Thursday and continue through Saturday.

So arranged is the program that visiting postmasters will find much of their entertainment—including rodeo, chuck wagon dinner, dance and banquet—provided for in the registration fee.

Nat Shick, host postmaster said that advance registrations indicated a large attendance. He anticipated 350 and felt that the figure might go even higher.

Speakers before the convention include Purdum, K. P. Aldrich, Washington, chief inspector; Owen A. Keen, Washington, chief clerk; W. R. Briggs, Cincinnati, inspector in charge; F. L. Clapp, Fort Worth, inspector in charge; C. J. Taylor, Fort Worth, superintendent; Alvin S. Page, Fort Worth, inspector; Bert Smoot, Salt Lake City, Utah postmaster and former president of the national association.

Henry D. Young, Fort Worth postmaster; W. T. Burnett, Brownville, former head of the state association; L. M. Jordan, Dallas, manager of the Sears-Roebuck Co.; E. E. Smith, Colorado City, president of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers association; and Ira Thurman, Big Spring.

W. D. DeGrass, Amarillo, president of the state association will preside, assisted by the vice-presidents—B. C. McElroy, Marshall, Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, and Dan J. Quill, San Antonio. Harry Mertz, McAllen, parliamentarian, and W. B. Luna, Dallas, secretary-treasurer, will be on hand. Election of officers and recognition of the next convention site are slated for the final day.

The convention in Big Spring is the farthest west ever held by the state postmasters unit, it was reported.

Relief Fight Into Senate

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Senate leaders arranged today to speed action on the relief bill while economy bloc strategists decided to concentrate their efforts on preventing any increase in the $1,735,000,000 measure.

Passed by the house early today after a 14-hour session, the bill will be considered by a senate appropriations subcommittee next Tuesday.

Chairman Adams (D-Colo) said he hoped to send the bill to the senate floor toward the end of the week, and Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky), promised it would be given right-of-way.

Barkley said speed was essential because the existing WPA appropriation runs out on June 30. In addition, Harrington has said that the new allotment should be approved before that date in order to avoid administrative confusion.

Adams, a leader of the economy bloc, said an effort undoubtedly would be made to add to the measure $500,000,000 for public works projects. The house earmarked for FWA $125,000,000 of the $1,610,000,000 President Roosevelt requested for work relief.

Senator Mead (D-NY) and others, however, have contended that the WPA appropriation should not be reduced and that an additional $500,000,000 should be allocated for public works.

Although saying he would oppose such an appropriation, Adams told reporters that "the senate's authority" of projects, and has always been more in favor of public works than the house.

He said that in general the allotment, approved by the house "appear to be well-figured and fair."

"Neither the sponsors of the savings tax away with the legislation," he asserted, adding that a $150,000,000 allotment for the National Youth Administration was "a good compromise." Mr. Roosevelt had requested $200,000,000 and the appropriations committee had recommended $150,000,000.

Mrs. Phillips Dies; Service At 4 Today

Death's summons was answered Saturday by one of West Texas' sterling women, Mrs. Mary Lucinda Phillips, who knew the rigors of early-day ranch life, saw her land yield wealth in oil, and saw that wealth—given generously—help the causes of missions and hospitals, Christian education and orphan's training, and the work of the church in general.

Mrs. Phillips, widow of the late Hart Phillips, succumbed at 8:45 a. m. in the Hendrick Memorial hospital in Abilene, where she had been ill for an extended period. As her health began to decline, Mrs. Phillips, 72, secured a room at the hospital last September, and had been there at intervals for rest and treatment since. She had been unconscious for two weeks, and in a critical condition since Monday.

The body was returned here from Abilene Saturday afternoon, and funeral services are to be held at the East Fourth Street Baptist church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The pastor, Rev. W. S. Garnett, and a former pastor, Rev. S. E. Hughes of Abilene, will conduct the rites, and a special paper of tribute—Mr. Phillips—will be read by Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, vice president of Hardin-Simmons. Burial will be made in New Mt. Olive cemetery, under direction of Eberley Funeral home.

Newspapers will serve as pallbearers: Charley Tiptoe, Carl Tiptoe, Albert Harding, Aubrey Harding, Floyd See MRS. PHILLIPS, Pg. 12, Col. 5

ANNA BELLE EDWARDS WINS SECOND PLACE AT SPUR RODEO

Anna Belle Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Edwards, Saturday won second place in the Spur rodeo sponsors contest.

It was the first time that she had ever completed in any such event. Her sister, Mary Nell Edwards, last year won the sponsors contest in the Midland rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were on hand to witness her in her final performance and to see her receive her award. Their son, Sonny Edwards, was participating in the roping contests. Mrs. Sonny Edwards and Mary Nell Edwards were also in the party.

Cotton crop prospects looked none too promising Saturday as the county moved through its third consecutive day of sweltering temperatures above 100 degrees and the zero hour for planting cropped nearer.

Fully a fourth of the cotton farms of the county had no cotton up and the tender plants up to varying stands on other tracts were beginning to appear mighty sick.

See THE WEEK, Page 12, Col. 7

A week of dry, hot weather was climaxed with a maximum of 103 degrees Thursday, 104 degrees Friday and 101 degrees Saturday. No immediate relief appeared in sight for the forecast for Sunday and Monday in this area was generally fair with no promise of cooler weather until at least Monday.

Unless rains fall within a week, farmers cannot be sure that their cotton plantings will mature in time to make a crop before frost.

Feed, however, can be planted with assurance of yields up to July 20.

Over this area range lands were taking a beating from the sun and hot winds and only in areas visited by spotted showers were there any inviting patches of greenery.

Colbert, Stewart Starred In A New Comedy Drama

Ritz Offers 'It's A Wonderful World'

A new comedy theme, bringing a delightful new team in unusually novel and daffy complications, comes to the screen of the Ritz theatre today and Monday when "It's a Wonderful World" makes its local debut starring Claudette Colbert with James Stewart in the male lead.

Catching the elusive spirit of Claudette Colbert's Academy Award hit, "It Happened One Night," the new romantic comedy strikes out into new many channels both in characters and plot. Stewart is an All-American football player cast as a private detective hired to keep an irresponsible, oft-married millionaire playboy out of trouble. Miss Colbert is, of all things, a poetess. When the millionaire playboy is murdered and Stewart is innocently involved, Miss Colbert joins forces with him in solving the murder. The complications run wild, the work of the amateur detective is more than weird, and Stewart even socks Miss Colbert on the jaw. But it all romps to a happy, if unexpected, ending.

Involved in the hilarious doings are Guy Kibbee, Nat Pendleton, Frances Drake, Edgar Kennedy and Ernest Truex. Adding excitement to the comedy angles, the story offers a number of hairbreadth escapes, topped by Stewart's mad leap into a river from a speeding train while handcuffed to Pendleton. It has a performance of "What Price Glory?" in which Stewart wears blackface. In another scene Miss Colbert, believing she is in the hands of a desperate criminal, sets fire to her car with a cigarette lighter. There are a couple of spine-tickling murders, with a third barely prevented, and the hectic action moves through a series of no less than forty-seven sets encompassing the high spots and the hot spots of New York.

Directed by W. S. Van Dyke II, who lists among his successes "Stand Up and Fight," "Marie Antoinette" and "The Thin Man," "It's a Wonderful World" was produced by Frank Davis who has given the screen such films as "Lord Jeff" and "The Devil Is a Lissy."

A NEW COMEDY COMBINATION

Claudette Colbert and James Stewart are co-starred for the first time to make a comedy combination in the Ritz theatre's offering for today and Monday, "It's a Wonderful World." He's a private detective and she's a poet, and they merge forces to solve a murder mystery in hilarious fashion.

THE JAMESES

Having been to town once, the James family returns for appearances on the Lyric screen Friday and Saturday, in that saga of the colorful American outlaw, "Jesse James." Here are Jesse and Brother Frank, with Jesse's wife, Zee (Tyronne Power, Henry Fonda and Nancy Kelly).

Spy Story Has Jack Holt As The Hero

Timely, action-packed drama is promised Queen theatre audiences today and Monday when Columbia's "Trapped in the Sky" opens with Jack Holt as its star. The new film concerned with the sabotage in America's munitions industries recently uncovered by government agents as the work of foreign spies is said to be an exceptionally thrilling narrative told with breath-taking power.

'Jesse James' Returns To The Lyric

The most romantic outlaw in the history of America, the desperado whose daring colored a whole era and endowed it with the title of the "Serious Seventies"—the man who invented bank holdups and introduced train robberies—has been brought to the screen at last in Darryl F. Zanuck's production, "Jesse James," the 20th Century-Fox Technicolor epic, starring Tyronne Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott, which returns here for Sunday-Monday showings at the Lyric theatre.

"Jesse James" opens with the introduction of the "Iron Horse" in its journey through the old West, cutting ruthlessly across the farms of the simple, hardy pioneers.

It shows how Jesse James and his equally notorious brother, Frank (Henry Fonda), began their career of crime as a direct result of the murder of their mother by a unscrupulous hireling of the St. Louis Midland railroad, in the person of one Barshee, played by Brian Donlevy.

Jesse shoots Barshee and swears to avenge his mother's death. A murderer with an ever-increasing price on his head, he goes from raid to raid.

Love comes to Jesse in the person of Zerelda, better known as Zee, played by Nancy Kelly, a gently nurtured girl who gave up a life of ease to share the wild, reckless life of this hunted outlaw as his wife, and to bear his son alone in the hills.

When Zee finally leaves him, Jesse becomes a cold and ruthless desperado, and the film follows his reckless deeds across five states, climaxing in his betrayal and death at the hands of Bob Ford, the "dirty little coward" of song and story, who sold him out to the law.

Perhaps the best picture of this good bad man is contained in the words of the mayor of his home town of Sedalia, uttered months after Jesse James had died in the arms of his beloved bride.

The occasion was the dedication of an obelisk on the old James farm. "Jesse was an outlaw, a bandit, a criminal," said the Mayor, "but we aren't ashamed of him. Maybe it's because we understand a little that he wasn't to blame for what his times made him. All I know is, he was the doggedest, dastardliest, dastardliest buckaroo that ever rode across the United States of America!"

PROGRAM DIRECTORS CHANGED

MARY VANCE KENEASTER

LYNN BIGLER

Featured in the day's news from Station KBST is Lynn Bigler who succeeds Miss Keneaster today as program director of the local station. Miss Keneaster left yesterday for Abilene to become program director of Station KRBC in a series of temporary transfers announced yesterday. Bigler comes here from San Angelo where he was program director of Station KGKL.

New Program Director For KBST; Miss Keneaster Goes To Abilene In Series Of Station Transfers

Lynn Bigler, program director of station KGKL, San Angelo, for the past several years, today becomes program director for KBST, The Herald station here.

He succeeds Miss Mary Vance Keneaster who today assumes the duties of program director for KRBC, Abilene. Miss Keneaster replaces A. D. Whisenant at KRBC who in turn succeeds Bigler with the San Angelo station.

Announcements of the transfers were made yesterday by Howard Barrett, supervisor of the three stations which are under the general management of Elliott Roosevelt.

Effective Three Months "The transfers are effective for three months," Barrett said. "Each program director was eager to make the change. The transfers are a part of a general training plan designed to improve the three stations and to acquaint each station's program director with conditions in the other communities. We believe that as a result greatly improved program service will be a certainty for each when the directors return to their former positions next fall."

Bigler is well known throughout the San Angelo area, having been a member of the KGKL program staff for seven years. He has been program director for the past several years and brings a wealth of experience to his new position. Miss Keneaster's regular morning program, "Piano Impressions," which has been heard each week for the past two years, will continue to be heard daily but at a new time. In future the program, which has been logged the past several months at 10 o'clock, will be heard at 10:45 through the facilities of KRBC to KBST.

Listeners to KBST will have an opportunity to enjoy a new program feature Sunday when Slim's Octane Boys present the first in a new series of quarter hours to be heard each Sunday morning from 9 until 9:15 o'clock. This group has been heard in the San Angelo area over KGKL for several months, and their string band type of entertainment has been very popular.

The Octane Boys broadcast will continue to originate in San Angelo and will be carried by stations KGKI, San Angelo, KRBC, Abilene, and KBST, Big Spring.

Request Numbers A program of local interest is the Big Spring Motor company's show featuring the music of the Drifters. This program is conducted in the showrooms of the Big Spring Motor company, and everyone is invited to come down and enjoy the show. This program will be heard daily Monday through Saturday from 1 till 1:15, and will consist of numbers that the radio audience has requested. If you have a number you'd like the boys to play and sing address your requests to either the Big Spring Motor company or to KBST.

Church Program At 9:15 Sunday morning a new program will greet KBST listeners with the advent of the "Meditations of Calvary" featuring E. F. Moss, minister of the South Side Church of Christ of Abilene. The program will be heard each Sunday morning at 9:15-9:30, and from time to time will feature well known soloists and choirs of Abilene.

Organ Selections Schubert's "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Faun" will be played by Dr. Charles M. Courboin, Belgian organist, at 10 a. m. Sunday over station KBST through the facilities of TSN, Dr. Courboin, playing at the American Academy of Arts and Letters, will present also Bach's "Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor," Lamare's "Bee" from "Summer Sketches," and Widor's "Tocatta" from the "Fifth Symphony."

Duchin's Orchestra Eddy Duchin and his orchestra, now serenading New Yorkers on the Starlight Roof of the Waldorf Astoria, will top the "Show of the Week" to be presented by station KBST through TSN at 4:30 p. m. Sunday.

The "Show of the Week" has been running since last September and will conclude with the Duchin program. It will return to the air next fall.

Since its inception, the series has featured such band personalities as Leo Reisman, Buddy Rogers, Horace Heidt, Sammy Kaye, Mark Warnow, Tex To Rico, Vincent Lopez, Jimmy Dorsey, Bob Crosby, Henry Busse, Will Osborne, Larry Clinton and many others.

Ernest Chappell handles the news reports and emcee duties.

IN AVIATION-SPY DRAMA

The old reliable player of staunch roles, Jack Holt, has another of that type in "Trapped in the Sky," a drama of sabotage in army aviation which plays today and Monday at the Queen theatre. Katherine DeMille, pictured here with him, plays opposite Holt. Merge forces to solve a murder mystery in hilarious fashion.

Gas Company Meeting Ends

Annual district managers' meeting of the Empire Southern Service Gas company, held in Big Spring Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was concluded Saturday afternoon with final sessions in the Hotel Settles. The managers, their wives and invited guests were entertained Saturday evening with a chicken barbecue at the company's property on South Lancaster street.

Following the barbecue, members of the party adjourned to the country club, where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

The meetings were attended by the following: Ernest Tetens, manager, Hubert Adkins, salesman, Brady; H. M. Matson, manager, Gorman; Cecil Redding, manager, Clarksville, Ark.; Jasper Goodwill, manager, T. P. Harrison, salesman, Minden, La.; James A. Davis, general manager, J. P. Kenney, local manager, L. M. Brooks, salesman, Big Spring. Albert Matar, manager of the Bridgeport, Texas, properties, was unable to attend.

Holt is confronted by the enemies outside his normal sphere, an alluring young woman employed by the foreign government, as well as by opponents within, traitors who attempt to sabotage the test flights so that they may sell the plans to the highest bidder abroad.

The plot mounts from one dramatic incident to another, reaching an unexpected and thrilling climax said to be among the most sensational ever filmed.

Second Pool Indicated For Schleicher

SAN ANGELO, June 17—Rising of oil 1,500 feet in 43 hours in Harold B. Opp's No. 1 J. T. Jackson, offering prospects of a second pool in Schleicher county; provision for a pipe line outlet for the Crockett field on University of Texas land in the northwest corner of Crockett county and launching of a big drilling campaign in the Foster pool in Ector county were principal West Texas developments this week.

Gulf No. 1 O. B. Holt, which last week struck oil at a record depth in the Permian lime in northern Ector county, had no increase in oil but encountered a slight amount of water in deepening 42 feet to 5,200. It was to plug back to 5,177, and probably acidize, Conkling, Barnes and White No. 1 Thomas, closely watched wildcat six miles southwest of the Goldsmith field, had very slight oil showings from 4,285-86, from 4,331-81 and from 4,450-65 feet in drilling to 4,542 feet in lime. It showed a small amount of water from an unknown source.

Outposts Spudded
Southeast and west outposts to the Crockett field in Crockett county and a southeast outpost to the Shearer pool in Pecos county were spudded and Stanolind staked a Gaines county wildcat on the east edge of Cedar Lake. S. W. Richardson and The Texas Co. drilled in producing offsets to Richardson No. 1 Coe in the northwest part of the Slaughter field in Hockley county, the largest well in the West Texas Permian basin's most northerly producing counties, Hockley and Cochran.

Drilled on a 3,120-acre block for which the traded grazing leases in Menard county, Harold B. Opp struck oil and gas at 4,049 feet in No. 1 J. T. Jackson, four miles northwest of Eldorado, Schleicher county seat, drilled to 4,082 feet, still in oil and gas bearing Cisco limes, and shut down for 6 5/8 inch casing. There was no water with the 1,500 feet of oil that rose in 43 hours. A San Angelo and Menard ranchman, Opp's initial oil venture is 1,905 from the north, 2,070 feet from the east line of section 41-L-GH&SA. It is only one mile southeast of Phillips-Interstate No. 1 J. A. Whitten, which showed oil at 4,112, at 4,123 and at 4,905 feet, where it headed oil for three days in August, 1929, but failed to produce.

Acid Treatment
Indicated discovery oil producer in Schleicher county, southeast of two gas and distillate producers of the Cooper Gas company on the Bert Page ranch 10 miles southeast of Eldorado, Lone Star Gasoline Co. No. 1 Humble-Page flowed 64.90 barrels of 37.3 gravity crude the first 24 hours of a natural test through tubing. Lower

MARLENE HAS HER TROUBLES IN NEW YORK CITY—Troubles piled up in New York for Film Actress Marlene Dietrich as she passed through enroute to Europe. First she went to a night club, where Mrs. Dudley Roberts, Jr. (right), who was wearing a hooded gown almost identical to that of Marlene. The actress soon left and said she saw no dress like her own. At left she is dancing with her husband, Rudolph Sieber. Later, as Marlene sailed for Europe, customs agents seized part of her luggage, claiming she had failed to pay all of her income tax.

Pennsylvania—Strawn or Bend—lime carrying oil and gas between No. 1 J. A. Whitten, which showed oil at 4,112, at 4,123 and at 4,905 feet, where it headed oil for three days in August, 1929, but failed to produce.

HAVE FAITH IN ME—Elsworth E. Modberry, 23, Fond du Lac, Wis. hitch-hiker, charged with murder for the death of John T. Gray, Colorado Springs salesman, pleads with his young wife, Viola, to have faith in him when the two met in court at Akron, Colo., as his trial opened. It was their first meeting since his arrest in March.

Shackelford Ivy Field Is Extended

ABILENE, June 18—Extension of the northwestern Shackelford county Ivy field one location to the west with a natural flush producer estimated by owners as high as 7,000 barrels per day, and completion of other new wells in the two-county Avoca-Griffin-Ivy area headed developments this week in West Central Texas.

The Ivy field's big well—probably the largest ever completed in Shackelford county—is the Owens-Snebold Oil corporation and others' No. 1 J. E. McCown, located 330 feet out of the northwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 15B-BBB&C survey, a diagonal southwest offset to the same owners' No. 2 J. S. McKeever.

The well, drilled with spudder to top of the Palo Pinto lime at 3,144 feet where pipe was cemented, took oil saturation from 3,167 to a total depth of 3,190 feet and began flowing into tanks immediately. On the first 25 minutes of gauge, the well made 135 barrels of oil through casing. In overflowing two 250-barrel tanks in two hours, the well was estimated by owners to have averaged 275 barrels per hour, or a rating about 7,000 barrels daily. It was scheduled for running tubing under pressure this weekend, and will take a railroad commission gauge as soon as storage is cleared. Gauge was also awaited on the No. 2 McKeever, which had been tubed and shut in awaiting movement of lease crude.

508 Bbls. In Seven Hours
To the south Ungren & Frazier and others' No. 3 J. E. McCown had taken a railroad commission gauge of 508 barrels natural in seven hours, choked, from lime at 3,144 to 3,175 feet, total depth, establishing a daily potential of 1,743 barrels. Rig had been skidded east for No. 4 McCown, also in section 15B.

J. G. Hammond Inc. of Fort Worth also entered the new west side play and rigged up rotary north of the first extension well. No. 1 J. S. McKeever will be spudded 300 feet from the south and 306 feet from the east lines of the east half of the east half of the northeast quarter of section 15B.

Dancier Oil & Refineries Inc. No. 4 J. E. McCown started flowing at the rate of 100 barrels hourly after it had been drilled into lime from 3,155 to 3,205 feet, total depth. It is a south offset to the Ungren & Frazier producer.

On the extreme southwest end of the field, Owens-Snebold Oil corporation at No. 2 Hugo Haterius, in section 16B-BBB&C survey, flowed an initial of 55 to 60 barrels hourly from 3,175 to 3,211 feet, total depth, to broaden the pool one location in that direction.

North Location
The original Avoca field was given another location north extension by John-McGaha Oil corporation and Sinclair-Prairie Oil company No. 4 Olson, in section 16B-BBB&C survey, Jones county, which flowed an initial of 75 bar-

Odessa Plans Big Birthday Celebration

ODESSA, June 17—Commemorating this fast-growing oil and ranch city's 53rd birthday in August, civic groups of the city have formulated plans for an All-American Derby and Birthday Jubilee for August 1, 2, 3 and 4 which will be held under the shadows of Ector county's modernistic steel and glass courthouse.

The All-American Derby will be comprised of three West Texas born derbies, Horned Frog, Rattlesnake and Jack Rabbit, which will be held on the city streets.

Other features of the four-day celebration will be a street dance, a Tiny Tot Bathing Revue, a Boy Scout Field Day, a Pioneer Parade, an American Legion dance and two baseball games.

L. C. English, manager of the Odessa chamber of commerce, is in charge of arrangements.

The Lions club will stage the Jack Rabbit Derby, the Rotary club the Horned Frog Derby, the chamber of commerce the Rattlesnake Derby, the Daily Bulletin the Bathing Revue, the News-Times the Boy Scout Field Day, the Junior chamber of commerce the street dance and the American Legion the Legion Hut dance. The pioneer parade will be in charge of Murry H. Fly.

Baseball games will be arranged by the Odessa Baseball Park association between teams of the Permian Basin.

G. L. Brown of McCamey, originator of the McCamey rattlesnake derby will be in charge of the snake races.

rels hourly after washing in with pay from 3,225-36 feet. Rotary rig had been skidded to an east offset outpost for the same owners' No. 4 Swedish Lutheran church.

Bert Fields of Dallas added another 2,000-barrel well on the southeast side of the Avoca townsite (Griffin) field when his No. 3-B B. C. Humphrey completed a railroad commission gauge flowing 413 barrels of oil in three hours and four minutes. Production was from lime at 3,247-55 feet which had been treated with 500 gallons of acid. It is in the Humphrey addition of the townsite in section 22-H&TC survey.

P&G Servel Contest Is Popular

The nation-wide contest in which 60 refrigerators are being awarded every week grows in popularity with the women of this vicinity as the competition proceeds, according to an announcement from Al Rownds, sales manager of the Sherrod Bros. Hardware company, pointing out that approximately three more weeks remain for entering the contest.

"As we are now just about in the middle of the P&G-Servel Electro-lux contest, in the neighborhood of 180 refrigerators have already been won by contestants in all parts of the United States and Canada in addition to the 15 or more $500 bills that have gone to the cash prize winners in the competition," Rownds stated.

"Among the factors that account for the popularity of the contest are: First, the high standards of Procter & Gamble products, which are featured in the competition; second, the growing public acceptance of the Servel Electro-lux refrigerator and the desire of women for that type of household refrigeration; third, the simplicity of the terms of the contest and the task of writing the testimonials being so easy.

"Entrants are invited to submit a statement or 25 words or less to complete the sentence: 'I like P&G White Naphtha soap because....' The sentences are adjudged for their originality, sincerity, and conciseness of thought. The awards go to those who are considered the

CORRESPONDENT IS EXPELLED BY NAZIS

BERLIN, June 17 (AP)—Mme. Helena Heinsdorf, Berlin correspondent of Ilustrowany Kurjer Codzienny of Krakow, Poland, since 1929, was ordered today to leave Germany before June 24.

She is the 23rd foreign correspondent to be expelled from Germany since the Nazi regime came to power.

Mme. Heinsdorf said the Polish embassy had been informed the expulsion order was issued because of "the attitude of her paper toward Germany and her own personal attitude."

PRESIDENT FORGETS LITTLE MATTER OF 100 MILLION

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt frequently astonishes callers with the wealth of detail he keeps in mind about government affairs.

But yesterday he slipped up.

At his press conference he said a bill authorizing expenditure of $10,000,000 for strategic war materials had not reached his desk.

Later a check of the records showed he had signed the measure June 7. It is one of approximately 300 to which he has put his name this session.

best writers of the sentence.

"Twelve refrigerators a day are awarded to winning contestants. The contest began May 22, and will end July 2.

"Our company invites all those who have not already done so to call at our offices for contest entry blanks and for information regarding the contest."

PROPOSES ISSUANCE OF NEW CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Members of the senate after Mr. Clegg considered today a proposal by Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) to issue $2,000,000,000 of new currency, to be backed by that amount of gold.

Thomas had proposed that $1,500,000,000 of gold be taken from the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund and that $500,000,000 of "free gold" in the treasury be used to back the currency.

Thomas told the meeting his proposal, offered as an amendment to pending legislation extending the president's monetary powers, would "give a major measure of relief."

"It will do this," Thomas said, "by cheapening the dollar, raising the price level, raising the national income. I admit it will hurt the bondholder, hurt the big banks and hurt the members of congress, who receive a fixed salary."

New Boating Club To Have Entry In Rodeo Parade

The old saying, "There is nothing new under the sun," will be dispelled by the Big Spring Boating club when they enter a boat as a float in the rodeo parade. This new organization is endeavoring to interest the sportsmen of this area in the thrill of boating. The club can already claim the distinction of motor boating within the city limits of Big Spring. The club owns several small boats and the interest is high to increase the number by "selling" Big Spring on the idea.

READ THE FACTS ABOUT WARDS WASHERS AND BE CONVINCED!

Pictured at the right is a well known nationally advertised washer. Actually, it is no better than the Ward washer at the left. In fact, not so good! Yet, if you were to buy the washer at the right, you would spend considerably more money! Why? The national manufacturer must include in the price tag... first, the high selling cost... then, the huge national advertising cost... and finally, a high distributors' cost... all of which, when added up, is the reason for the higher price. Wards, on the other hand, eliminates these "selling extras." Ward washers are made by famous manufacturers for Wards 600 retail stores. Direct distribution... from-Factory-to-Wards-to-you... plus the economies of mass distribution means tremendous savings! At Wards, you pay for none of the "middlemen's" profits... none of the many selling extras, that others include! Wards puts the savings on to you... that's why you save!

Half Tripped In Final Lap, Wooderson Beaten At Princeton

Gigli Beaten By Pioneers Sat., 10-4

Marek And Either Soden Or McGahan To Work Today

Returning from a nine day road trip in which they scored four victories in ten games, Tony Rego's Big Spring Barons prepared today to tangle with the Pampa Oilers in two games in a scrap for third place in WT-NM league standings. The initial fracas was scheduled to begin at 2:30 p. m.

The Barons were defeated by the Clovis Pioneers, 10-4, in a Saturday evening battle. Art Gigli started on the hill for the Big Springers but was jerked in the initial frame when the Pioneers tallied six runs.

House Is Named Golf President

Drive For New Members Is Underway

Taking a definite form with the election of officers and appointment of working committees in its Friday evening parley at the city hall, the Big Spring Golf association set up its machinery today to increase membership and plan to ward the program at hand.

Unanimously named as temporary officers by the 26 representatives on hand were Marvin K. House, Sr., president; C. W. Cunningham, vice-president; Matt Harrington, secretary, and W. W. Barker, treasurer.

Tom Coffee, chairman, C. W. Cunningham, Harold Akcy, Shirley Robbins and W. W. Barker were named to a rules and by-laws committee while Matt Harrington, Tommy Neel, H. W. Smith, Tommy Jordan, L. E. Barber, Leo Floyd, Harold Akcy, Shirley Robbins and C. L. Rowe were nominated to serve on the membership committee.

Dues of $1 annually will be assessed all members. Second conference of the association will go into session July 5 at the city hall at which time both the rules and membership committees will make their reports to the president.

Present for the first meeting were E. E. Freeman, Guy Rainey, Neal Barnaby, Frank Morgan, Joe Black, Bert Shive, Charles Walton, Glen Hancock, Vernon Strahan, Dr. J. E. Hogan, Joe Glickman, Dr. P. W. Malone, James Campbell, Roy Lusby, Hank Hart and Cunningham, House, Barker, Jordan, Barber, Floyd, Neel, Akcy and Harrington.

They tell us Fincher Withers is but a sideline observer at Abilene now. The business men stepped in with the funds to rescue Tat's WT-NM league adventure but agreed to do so only under the consideration that Withers relinquish all rights to the franchise. With the combined assistance of the business men the club can stick it out through the season. Their new leader will probably be Walter Paschal, ex-Texas leaguer, who will serve as a playing manager. He's been playing with the Halliburton Cementers.

Meanwhile Midland's new pilot, who can hit... The Cowboys have Sammy Hale, is fitting into an average crowd of 300 admissions since the season. Lake Paschal he's a third sacker.

Last year's W-NM league batting leaders, those that are still in the family, aren't doing so well at the dish. Malcolm Stevens, third to Cecil Smyly and Hack Miller last year, is idling along with a .315 mark to date. Miller is five points off the .300 mark, a drop of some 70 points off his '35 mark. Neal Rabe, Amarillo manager, has only recently built his average to .313. Pat Stacey, a .323 finisher last semester, has .286 for the '36 campaign. The Abilene Apaches have but two regulars hitting above .300, are last in team batting with .214. The Barons are tied for the top in pulling down double plays, with 35 to their credit.

CURT SCHMIDT, THE BARON ACTIVE FOR THE PAST 18 OUTFIELDER NOW SUSPENDED, CAN WAREBLE SURPRISINGLY WELL... THE SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY LAD IS A REFORMED THIRD SACKER... JOHNNY SODEN, THE RIGHT-HANDER WHO HASN'T BEEN

Harold Akcy, Munny course pro, promises to supply the championship trophy in event the Big Spring Golf association decides to stage a city tournament this year. Speaking of golf the country club's membership is not what it should be. No material gain will be made until grass greens are installed. Should the change be made the course could become the most popular of golf in West Texas.

Watered day and night, the new high school football stadium turf on Eleventh Place is making wonderful progress, will be ready in plenty of time for the first game next fall. The stands on the old field north of town are due for early removal. Started long before the Big Spring project, the Sweetwater stadium will not be ready by September, it is reported. That city, incidentally, is working toward an ACC Denton Teachers college football game next fall. Bugs Morris ACC member, apparently is intent on moving all his games out of Abilene, if possible. Object behind the campaign is probably a publicity move for his school, an attempt to attract more students there. Games have already been arranged in San Angelo and Big Spring.

The city tennis league idea has not been given up. With membership to the association growing steadily President Harold Harvey hopes to be able soon to get such a unit functioning. The two new nets, ordered by the city and due for arrival next week, will be welcomed.

Muny Spring Golf Title At Stake

Morgan Opposes Rainey Over 18-Hole Route

The 1936 champion of the Munny spring golf tournament being conducted at the municipal course will be decided in a scheduled 18-hole match this afternoon between Guy Rainey, Forsan's long hitting ace, and Jake Morgan.

Morgan, medalist and a former champion, rules as slight favorite over Rainey who moved into the finals by mowing down Frank Morgan, defending champion, last week.

Morgan advanced to the last round with a 4 and 2 triumph over Lib Coffee last week. Coffee had previously decided Obie Bristol, one of the favorites.

Also meeting today will be Vernon Strahan and Bert Shive, survivors in first flight play. Doc Young has already gained honors in second flight play.

In other flights, M. K. House, Sr., has won championship consolation laurels, L. E. Barber first flight consolation, and George Hill second flight consolation.

Plan For Skeet Club Prospers
A skeet club for Big Spring is about to become a reality. Truett Thomas, leading the campaign for the organization, gave assurance during the Friday meeting of enthusiasts that enough local interest had been shown to go ahead with plans toward the formation of such a unit.

To Hold Regular Meeting Monday
Members of the advisory council of the city's recreation department will gather for their monthly meeting at the city hall Monday evening, 8 o'clock.

WENDLAND IS MUNY LEADER
AUSTIN, June 17 (AP)—Hot as the sun under which his blazing irons and woods wrote a brilliant 139, three under par, young Lonnie Wendland of San Antonio easily paced all Texas municipal golfers here today in the first 36 holes of their annual tournament.

Fenske Trims Kansan In Slow Time

Wayne Rideout Gains Three Quarter Mile Triumph In 3:02.8

By GAYLE TALBOT
PRINCETON, N. J., June 17 (AP)—Sydney Wooderson's long-heralded invasion of our running fields ended on a sour note today when the little Briton was bumped and half-tripped in the final lap of the Princeton invitation mile, and far from setting a new world record, finished last in a slow field of five.

With 30,000 cheering him on, the diminutive record-holder led the way until Blaine Rideout of the North Texas State Teachers clipped him on the last turn, about 200 yards from home. He faltered and half stumbled and fell back in the stretch as Chuck Fenske, former Wisconsin ace, came through with a rush to win in the comparatively poor time of 4:11.

The veteran Glenn Cunningham, also profiting by Wooderson's misfortune, came up to finish second, about five yards behind Fenske. Archie San Romani came in third, while Rideout just edged out Wooderson for fourth place. Wooderson was clocked in 4:13, as compared to his world record of 4:06.4.

There was no doubt Rideout's bump was accidental. It was clearly seen from the stands. With Wooderson striding along easily on the inside, the Texan made a sudden effort to crowd through from third place and grasp the lead. He cut it too fine as he attempted to edge past Wooderson, and hit him with his left leg. The 123-pound Briton half stumbled out several yards from the inside lane, and never fully recovered his long stride.

Apologizes
Immediately after they had passed the tape almost shoulder-to-shoulder, Rideout ran over to grasp Wooderson's hand and apologized for his interference. Wooderson mumbled his acceptance, but there was no doubt he was very unhappy. Asked if he

By ROBERT MYERS
LOS ANGELES, June 17 (AP)—Two new records went into the books and Southern California's mighty Trojan forces rode on to their fifth consecutive triumph today as the 18th annual national collegiate track and field championships came to a close in a brilliant climax of the 1936 college season.

Thirty thousand spectators, largest crowd in the history of the N.C.A.A. and the biggest track turn out here since the 1932 Olympics, witnessed the spectacle.

Record smashing feature of the day came when chunky Gregory Rice of Notre Dame reeled off the two-mile grind in 9 minutes 24 seconds, leaving a gallant Ralph Schwarzkopf of Michigan to trail by nine yards in second place and the N.C.A.A. meet record of 9 minutes 31.1 seconds set by Walter Mehl of Wisconsin a year ago to fall.

Juniors May Drill Free At Munny

Hoping that the local entry field in the second annual West Texas Junior Golf tournament, scheduled to be played at the Munny course July 13-14-15, will be much larger than last year's, Pro Harold Akcy called attention to the fact that any youngster eligible to compete in the meeting could practice on the course each Monday morning free of charge.

A total of 77 youngsters completed in the 1935 meeting and Akcy said he expected that number to be bettered despite the fact that there will be an entry fee of $1. Quality of this year's prizes will be much better than those offered a season ago.

UNLESS THERE'S A CHANGE IN SENTIMENT, SOLONS TO QUIT WITHOUT IMPOSING TAXES

AUSTIN, June 17 (AP)—Barring last-minute changes in sentiment, the longest Texas legislative session on record will drag to a close Wednesday without imposition of any new taxes.

Sponsors of the sales-natural resource tax constitutional amendment advocated by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel intend a final effort Monday or Tuesday to obtain another house vote on the oft-rejected measure. They admittedly faced a most difficult task, however, they were seven votes short of the needed number on a test only two days ago.

Other than the final vote on the tax plan, the principal remaining business before the lawmakers was adoption of conference reports on the appropriations bills and the county road bond assumption measure. The responsibility existed that a conference committee report on a general tax remission bill might be approved.

Proposals which perhaps had a chance of passage included suspension of the old age pension liberalization law until November 1, the outlawing of loan sharks, and a $1,300,000 deficiency appropriation for rural school aid.

As is usual near the end of a regular session, speculation was rife as to whether Governor O'Daniel would call a special session and if so, when. Numerous proponents of the sales-natural resource tax constitutional amendment predicted there would be no special session for new taxes.

Giants Come From Behind To Win, 7-5

ST. LOUIS, June 17 (AP)—The New York Giants won their ninth consecutive game today by coming from behind with a four-run flurry in the fourth to stop the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 5. Terry Moore, Johnny Mize and Don Padgett hit homers for St. Louis.

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP)—Bursting out with five runs in the ninth inning, the Brooklyn Dodgers broke up a scoreless pitching duel between Whitlow Wyatt and Earl Whitehill today and won the opening game of their series with the Chicago Cubs 5 to 0.

PITTSBURGH, June 17 (AP)—Relieving Al Hollingsworth in the second inning, Sylvester Johnson pitched excellent ball today while his mates pounded Pirate hurlers for 16 hits to win 11 to 2. The Phils put the game on ice in the first two innings by scoring seven runs off Rip Sewell.

JOHNSTOWN IS DWYER CHAMP

By MAX HILL NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Johnstown ran his principal three-year-old rivals dizzy again today, leaving Challedon and Voltant far down the stretch, as he won the Dwyer stakes at Aqueduct to bring his total earnings to $165,315.

William Woodward's champion three-year-old and leading money winner of 1939 won handily by a length and a half from Sun Lover of the Chicago owned Milldale stable.

He went to the front quickly and Challedon, owned by W. L. Brann of Frederick, Md., attempted to run with him for a brief period before reaching the turn. That was a mistake and after the field of five straightened in the stretch, Challedon weakened but still held third safely, five lengths in front of the unruly Voltant, which broke from outside the stalls.

"Big John" added $9,250 to his earnings through today's purse. His winnings for the year are $133,895. He paid Brann's color-bearer and Voltant back in full for the decisive racing they gave him in the Preknass mud last May. That was the only 1939 start he has lost, and then he was a bad fifth, sprawling far back in the mud.

The mishap climaxed a thoroughly disappointing program. There were no records, no nothing, to cheer the big crowd in the stadium, John Kugley, a 19-year-old New York high school student, supplied most of the excitement of the preliminary program by beating Archie Williams, Olympic 400-meter champion, in the quarter-mile.

Approximately 185 Persons Meet For All-Day Session And Banquet To Honor Grand Officers Friday

Members of a school of instruction and banquet honoring grand officers, members of Order of Eastern Star met in an all day session Friday at the Masonic Temple.

Approximately 185 persons registered for the school and more than 200 persons attended the dinner

RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Paul Jones, above, who before her marriage June 10th in Amarillo is Miss Addie Lee Cotten. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Scott Cotten.

Mrs. Maude Brooks was general chairman in charge and Mrs. Lela Wilson of Crane was in charge of registration. School began at 9:30 o'clock and Mrs. Nina Hendrick, district deputy grand matron Mrs. Velma Baker gave the invocation and James T. Brooks the address of welcome.

Grand officers were presented with gifts during the afternoon and hostess chapters were Colorado, Coahoma, Garden City, Lamesa, Stanton, Midland, Odessa, Crane, Andrews, and Big Spring.

Mrs. Lillian Bernard of Lubbock, grand examiner, awarded 125 certificates of efficiency.

Present matrons and past matrons entertained the grand officers with a luncheon at the Settles hotel where a pink and white motif was carried out. Pink roses decorated the tables and stars with western decorations were placed marks.

The banquet held in the evening at the Settles hotel was to honor grand officers and was arranged in a glorified ranch setting. Performers entered from a simulated bunk house and the Sunnyside trio consisting of Woody Cason, Vernon Payne, and Wayne Nance, sang several songs and were dressed as ranch hands. They were accompanied by Henry Long on the guitar.

Helen Blount played a piano solo and Mickey Joan McDonald gave an accordion solo. Howard Carmack, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Frazier, sang several numbers.

Winton Lee Coleman of Colorado City gave a pantomime and Maryjo Gregory, accompanied by Inez Rogers, sang a selection. Miss Edith Gay gave a vocal solo and was accompanied by Miss Roberta Gay. A reading, "The Cow-Puncher's Code," was also given by Eliza Smith of Odessa.

Mrs. Agnes V. Young was toastmistress during the evening and Mrs. Nora Williamson gave a toast to Grand Matron Mildred Harris of Waco, who was unable to attend. Mrs. Mary Debridge toasted the other grand officers.

Norman Read of Coahoma gave a talk before the group. Plate favors were glass cowboy hats in different colors of the order. Mrs. Fannie Carpenter was chairman of the decoration committee and Mrs. Ruby Read, deputy grand matron, had charge of the program, due to the absence of Mrs. Alma Blount, program chairman.

Honor guests included Mrs. Florence Read, right worthy grand Adah, Mrs. Agnes V. Young, past grand matron, Norman Read, grand sentinel; Mrs. Lillian Bernard, grand examiner; Mrs. Nina Hendrick, district deputy grand matron; Mrs. Ruby Read, deputy grand matron; and Mrs. Brownie Dunning, grand representative of Alberta, Canada. Mrs. Maude Caves, Mrs. Rhoda Kelly, Mrs. Hazel McDonald, Mrs. Fleta Allen, Mrs. Tommie Weatherby, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hendricks.

Slumber Party Given By Bobby Jo Grant

FORBES, June 17 - Imogene Stephens, a visitor from Amberst, and Maxine and Eva Merl Skiles, who are moving to Oklahoma, were honored with a slumber party given by Bobby Jo Grant Thursday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grant. Miss Stephens is a cousin of Miss Grant.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served to Betty Ruth Lamb, Ghenna Edwards, Mary Frances Crowley, Ruth Marie Roberts, Juanita Smith, Mary Louisa Sterling and the honored guests.

Women Have A Part In Rodeos

The feminine world plays its share in modern-day rodeos, and cowgirl sponsors and hostesses have a prominent part in the staging of successful western fetes.

In the top photo are Big Spring's Rodeo Widows (wives of the directors of the Rodeo association) who are joining their husbands in promotion of a successful event, and who make up a committee supervising sponsors' events. Back row, left to right: Mrs. Rowan Settles, Mrs. Charlie Creighton, Mrs. Jess Slaughter, Mrs. Curtis Driver and Mrs. M. M. Edwards; front row, left to right: Mrs. Harry Lees, Mrs. R. V. Middleton, Mrs. Ira Driver and Mrs. T. J. Good.

Official hostess to the dozens of cowgirl sponsors who will be here from neighbor towns to compete in contests and participate in social activities during the rodeo is Mrs. Modesta Good Simpson, pictured at the lower right. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Good, prominent ranching family.

Another member of a ranching family is Miss Annabelle Edwards (lower right), who this past weekend has been in Spur as Big Spring's representative in sponsor's events during the rodeo there. She was accompanied to Spur by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Edwards; Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Edwards, and by her sister, Miss Mary Nell Edwards, who will be "Miss Big Spring" at the rodeo here. Social Activity To Feature Rodeo This Weekend

Two Dances And A Breakfast To Be Given Here

It won't all be ridin' and ropin' over the weekend when it's rodeo time in Big Spring but there will also be a little dancing, plenty of good eating, and things even a tenderfoot would enjoy.

Several activities are being held during the rodeo to entertain sponsors and guests during the three days of the rodeo, June 23, 24 and 25.

The rodeo widows, consisting of Mrs. M. M. Edwards and Mrs. Jess Slaughter, co-chairmen, and Mrs. Tom Good, Mrs. Harry Lees, Mrs. Rowan Settles, Mrs. Charles Creighton, Mrs. Curtis Driver, Mrs. Ira Driver, and Mrs. R. V. Middleton, are to sponsor some of the affairs.

All sponsors and their escorts will be entertained at the sponsors dance to be held at 11 o'clock p. m. at the Crawford hotel on Friday. The dance is open to the public. Then on Saturday the rodeo widows will entertain with a chuck wagon breakfast at 9 o'clock at the city park. This affair is for sponsors only. Saturday evening a dance will be held at the Settles hotel with the sponsors again guests of honor.

The rodeo widows will also be in charge of registration on Friday morning where sponsors will receive badges and instructions at the chamber of commerce office at the Settles hotel.

TO McCAMEY

Mrs. F. L. Austin, employe of the business office of Montgomery Ward store in Big Spring, has resigned her position, and will leave Sunday for McCamey, where she will join her husband who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edgar have as guest, Jack Duncan of Iraan.

Women At Work

A 'Veteran' At Ward's

The oldest employe in the point of service in the local branch of Montgomery Ward and Company will be the achievement of Mrs. Roy Crook, head bookkeeper, when she rounds out her 10th year with the store in August. Mrs. Crook was graduated from the Big Spring high school in May 1929 and when the new building that was to house the Ward store began to go up, she set her eyes in that direction. Three weeks before the store formally opened she landed a job as combination artist and clerk. By that time that she painted show cards and signs and did some selling on the floor. Added to the fact that she didn't enjoy this as much as she did office work, was the other fact she knew her job would be temporary. However, in three months she succeeded in getting a job "upstairs" in the office as bookkeeper and has worked under five different managers. This has been her one and only job and from being one of two bookkeepers who did all the work in the beginning, she has progressed to the job as chief over three other bookkeepers. At first there were just two girls to handle both the credit and the manager's office combined but now there are 11 girls and two separate offices to handle the work. Mrs. Crook's hours are from 8:30 o'clock to 5:30 o'clock and her busiest times from September through December and March through the middle of May. Changes she has observed in her time on the job: the merchandise carried is of a higher type than it used to be; and while Ward's formerly had almost all rural trade, the store now has trade that is representative of both town and country. Quizzed about liking her job, Mrs. Crook laughed and replied "I must like it because I've stayed so long." But she insists her ability to go ahead is not due to any previous experience or because she is "smart" but just because she "worked hard to get along and learn all I could." But Mrs. Crook dispelled any doubts that anyone might have about her enjoying the job that she has held since the beginning of the local store by remarking that she "hopes to stay 10 more years."

Heat Replaces Health As Topic Of Conversation

By MARY WHALEY

"Gosh, it's hot today," has come to take the place of "Good morning" and "How are you," it seems. No one even cares whether it is a good day or if you are in good health. They all have the same thought on their minds—the heat. Sort of funny too, because it has been hot every June since they figured out the calendar and yet the human race seems to be surprised all over again each summer when the thermometer threatens to blow its top. I once thought of organizing a Society for the Prevention of Folks Saying "Hot Enough for You?" because it seemed sort of unnecessary. But seeing as how it would leave a large number of people tongue-tied from the last of May until September, I guess it's not a good idea. About the only thing I can think of is some sort of variation like "The red line in the thermometer is two points higher than it was yesterday" or even "Are the atmospheric conditions at a high enough peak for you?" It might take a while to break folks in to doing this but it would lend sort of an old world charm to things when the heat is making your eyes bulge and all that propaganda about trying an egg on the sidewalk is sort of silly—you know they could scramble them on your own head.

Devaluation Authority Opposed

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP)—Headed by Senator Glass (D-Va.), the senate's often-effective coalition of republicans and democrats opposed to administration fiscal policies has organized for a vigorous battle to strip President Roosevelt of his powers to devalue the dollar. "No country in the world ever benefitted by cheapening its money," Glass, one time treasury secretary, told reporters. "It's unsound for any administration to have that power." The fight against the devaluation authority will come to the floor Monday when the senate considers a house-approved measure to continue the presidential power for two years from its June 30 expiration date. The bill also would continue for two years the treasury's authority to maintain the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund and to buy domestically-mined silver at prices above the world market. Concurrently, there was an effort afoot to change the monetary law in an entirely different manner. Two western senators—Thomas (D-Okla.) and McCarran (D-Nev)—let the senate know they would demand a measure to provide: That until 1941 all domestically mined silver purchased by the government for monetary purposes be at a price of $1.04 an ounce; that the government acquire no foreign silver except "when it is offered in exchange or payment for American-produced agricultural commodities for export." The present price for domestic silver is 64.64 cents, fixed by presidential proclamation which expires June 30. Thomas said he would ask congress to direct adjustment of the value of the dollar to its 1926 level and issue $2,000,000,000 in additional currency.

Barbecue And Horse Show At Diamond M Ranch Today

Several Big Spring saddle horse enthusiasts and others will go to the Diamond M ranch, near Snyder Sunday afternoon to a barbecue and horse show staged by C. T. McLaughlin, head of E. T. McLaughlin & Co., drilling contractors, and owner of the ranch. Invitations were received by numerous Big Spring people early in the week. The barbecue will be at 2 o'clock this afternoon, to be followed by the horse show in which outstanding gaited and saddle horses owned by Mr. McLaughlin and other fanciers will be shown. It was announced here Saturday that most direct route to the ranch may be taken by way of Coahoma. The road turns north there, and "Diamond M" signs will lead the motorists all the way, with every turn being marked. Horses and colts from the Kelly, Mackey and May saddle horse training barn at Colorado will be among those shown. Mr. McLaughlin, well known in oil and livestock circles in this section, has an elaborate show place at his ranch. Beatrice Harris returned Sunday from a 10-day visit in Wister, Okla., with her parents. Putt! Putt! Putt! 2004 Scurry-adv.

Straight Method Of Taxation

Nearing a close is a session of the Texas legislature whose maneuvers have served to emphasize more than ever the strange and devious ways of politics. The session opened in January with distinct consciousness that the majority of citizens had, by their vote for governor, signified they favored larger pensions for more elderly persons.

Certain forces within, and perhaps outside, the state have taken advantage of this desire of the majority of legislators to finance a broader social security program.

We refer to the strangely determined effort being made to force adoption by the lower house of the sales-natural resources tax constitutional amendment.

This thing, if finally ratified, would freeze into the constitution of Texas a tax law.

To begin with, its adoption would be an abdication by the legislature of its constitutional function as the tax-making body elected by the people.

But, the people HAVE voted. They signified they wanted more money spent for various social security causes. They elected the members of the legislature to put their will into law.

The lower house has passed a bill—an unfrozen, relatively easily changed statute, if you please—that would levy sales and natural resource taxes to finance additional social security benefits.

Why is this not sufficient? Why this desperate reversal of the historical and constitutional way of making taxes? Why this desperate effort to follow the constitutional amendment route—a new and novel one insofar as Texas is concerned?

Taxes have been made, levied and collected in Texas through a century just as the constitution intended. It has been and is today the only proper method of raising revenues for the state.

The people of Texas should be everlastingly grateful to the 56 members of the house who continued under fire of unprecedented pressure to oppose this proposal on the last vote.

We are proud that Howard county's representative, Hon. Dorsey B. Hardeman, is listed in that stalwart group. It is only fair and just that he be given full credit for his stand.

The way is open to raise this social security money. It has always been open—it is the same way, the straight and level way that was opened in the beginning of the story of Texas as a member of the union of states.

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

THE LADY WHO DIETED THREE DAYS

FOUR BLIND DATES

By Edwin Rutt

Chapter 11 A BLASTED LIFE It occurred to Tacks that there was something vaguely reminiscent of the Ice Age in Packy's manner.

"All right," Tacks said hastily. "Let me take you home. Or else walk a couple of blocks with me." He indicated the massive door-man who stood aloof in Jovian altitude.

"Goodnight!" ejaculated Tacks. "Is that bushy-looking sap's name Dmitri?"

"It is," Packy said frigidly. "Did you wish to discuss his name?"

"As a matter of fact the bushy-looking sap, in private life, sounded off to plain Joe Banks."

"None on earth. But there's as much reason why you should give me a break as why you shouldn't, isn't there?"

"I don't know why I stay here and let you insult me," she said. "Tacks' showed contrition too quickly. The zephyr ceased blowing."

"I'm sorry," he said. "You got me sore for a moment."

"Really," Packy said, "this is a very pointless conversation. If you have anything to add, Mr. Adams, please add it. Otherwise I'm going."

"Wait a minute! Look here, Miss North. I admit I crashed your apartment house. I admit I wasn't any paragon of subtlety once I got there. I admit I lied to you in a small way. But what of it? Since then I've tried to make amends."

"I've written. I've tried to apologize and—er—fix things up over the telephone. Is there any good reason why we can't be friends?"

"I beg pardon."

"Nothing. I only murmured that you're a knockout. Can't I take you home?"

face, Packy came within an ace of rotogravure section? Polo ponies, fast cars, airplanes, Long Island, Bar Harbor and all the rest of it!

"I see," said Tacks, still grinning. "Just an invitation to the dance. But you haven't told me why yet."

"And I don't think I will. Now please go or I'll—I'll call Dmitri."

"At mention of his bewhiskered Nemesis, Tacks knew a moment of savagery."

"I just wish you would call him," he said darkly. "There's nothing I'd enjoy more than making a pass at that big baboon."

"I wouldn't take a chance with the other side of my face," she said cuttingly.

"We'll let that go," Tacks said, summoning what dignity he could.

"You leave," Jonathan Harland almost shouted at her, "my family out of this. You thought, you were dumb enough to think that I was trying to cash in on the Adams name? Why you're more impressed with the Adams name than I am."

"You're a masher, am I? Gee, I'm glad you told me. It clears the air—plenty. Listen, I'm going to do everything you ask. I'm not going to write you any more. You can sit by your telephone till the cows come home. I'm crazy about you, do you understand? I'm so crazy about you I don't know whether I'm coming up or going down. But if you think I'm fool enough to spend the rest of my natural life chasing around after a torch-singer who's got a lump of ice where her heart ought to be, you're loopy. I'll pay my bet tonight. And

"I'm sorry," he said. "You got me sore for a moment."

"I beg pardon."

"Nothing. I only murmured that you're a knockout. Can't I take you home?"

"Certainly not. You don't seem very quick in the uptake, Mr. Adams. I've tried awfully hard to make it clear that I don't want to receive letters from you. I've also tried to signify that I'd just as soon not have you telephone me. I'm now doing my level best to tell you that I don't want to stand here talking to you and that, if you came to this club tonight because you found out somehow that I work here, I—well, I wish you wouldn't do it again."

rotogravure section? Polo ponies, fast cars, airplanes, Long Island, Bar Harbor and all the rest of it!

"I see," said Tacks, still grinning. "Just an invitation to the dance. But you haven't told me why yet."

"And I don't think I will. Now please go or I'll—I'll call Dmitri."

"At mention of his bewhiskered Nemesis, Tacks knew a moment of savagery."

"I just wish you would call him," he said darkly. "There's nothing I'd enjoy more than making a pass at that big baboon."

"I wouldn't take a chance with the other side of my face," she said cuttingly.

"We'll let that go," Tacks said, summoning what dignity he could.

"You leave," Jonathan Harland almost shouted at her, "my family out of this. You thought, you were dumb enough to think that I was trying to cash in on the Adams name? Why you're more impressed with the Adams name than I am."

"You're a masher, am I? Gee, I'm glad you told me. It clears the air—plenty. Listen, I'm going to do everything you ask. I'm not going to write you any more. You can sit by your telephone till the cows come home. I'm crazy about you, do you understand? I'm so crazy about you I don't know whether I'm coming up or going down. But if you think I'm fool enough to spend the rest of my natural life chasing around after a torch-singer who's got a lump of ice where her heart ought to be, you're loopy. I'll pay my bet tonight. And

"I'm sorry," he said. "You got me sore for a moment."

"Really," Packy said, "this is a very pointless conversation. If you have anything to add, Mr. Adams, please add it. Otherwise I'm going."

"Wait a minute! Look here, Miss North. I admit I crashed your apartment house. I admit I wasn't any paragon of subtlety once I got there. I admit I lied to you in a small way. But what of it? Since then I've tried to make amends."

"I've written. I've tried to apologize and—er—fix things up over the telephone. Is there any good reason why we can't be friends?"

"I beg pardon."

"Nothing. I only murmured that you're a knockout. Can't I take you home?"

"Certainly not. You don't seem very quick in the uptake, Mr. Adams. I've tried awfully hard to make it clear that I don't want to receive letters from you. I've also tried to signify that I'd just as soon not have you telephone me. I'm now doing my level best to tell you that I don't want to stand here talking to you and that, if you came to this club tonight because you found out somehow that I work here, I—well, I wish you wouldn't do it again."

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—Random information service: Three days before the king and queen of England met members of congress in the domed rotunda of the capitol, a bronze statue of America's great humorist, Will Rogers, was unveiled there, a quizzical expression on his face, as if he were about to chuckle.

WAS COSTS ALREADY The war that hasn't started in Europe is already piling up war costs in the United States. The state department has informed congress that cable tolls after Munich ran $140,000 over the budget.

It has also informed congress that it has one typewriter 21 years old and a hundred or more which are beyond 16 years old, all of which it would like changed so it could be a little more up to date in its method of writing diplomatic messages.

And we can't overlook the air conditioning system installed in the legation at Bagdad which must be mighty popular now, what with desert winds blowing hot the way they do. Incidentally, it is the only one in the department. Even the main building in Washington hasn't one.

The foreign service also spends $4,594 for ice and drinking water in its various foreign posts. In some spots the water has to be hauled long distances donkey-back in jars.

Actually there is no telling where these state department reports may lead to. We find in one that the United States contributes $55 each year to keep certain tribes in Africa from getting spirituous liquors. They may have wines, of course.

Moreover, the German exchange manipulation that has tormented this government for several years now is working to our benefit in one respect. For $52,000 of Yankee money—the state department is able to get Germans to do $700,000 worth of work rehabilitating the old Blucher Palace in Berlin for use as an embassy. They are going ahead with the work even if our ambassador doesn't live there any more. That ought to be plenty of proof that we expect to be friendly with Germany again some day.

THINGS STILL DARK As long as we are into this business we might just as well let you know that George S. Messersmith, assistant secretary of state, is not too optimistic about a quick return to world normalcy. Supporting claims before the house appropriations committee for more state department money, he said: "Even though war may be avoided and the way opened for a return to more peaceful and normal conditions, the political, economic, and financial and general trading structure of the world has been so upset and such fundamental changes have been made that the return to normalcy would be bound to be slow and difficult. I can foresee, therefore, no material lessening of the burden of the department of state."

And further, he adds: "I think it is interesting for our people to realize that...the cost of building a single battleship (that is $70,000,000 to $100,000,000) is sufficient to maintain the department of state and the foreign service for five or six years."

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—The glamorous scrub-lady, Myrna Loy, sat on the couch in her portable dressing room and sipped a soft-drink from a bottle. Out in front of the camera the glamorous hero—Tyronne Power—stood in a hospital corridor and went through his business with a bottled soft-drink in hand.

Rehearsal time. Let-up time. Afternoon time, with a couple or maybe three hours to go before everybody could go home.

"It's a good role for me, a grand role," said the scrub-lady, whose red hair was bound in a pale blue cloth, and whose dress was scrub-lady style, pale blue with apron.

"First time you've been a real meanie since The Animal Kingdom, isn't it?"

"Uh-huh. Funny thing, when I read the book ('The Rains Came') I didn't think of myself in it at all. Maybe I thought, 'Grand part!' but that was all. It didn't register as a part for me. So I was more surprised than anybody else when Darryl Zanuck phoned and said he'd like me for it. My husband (Arthur Hornblow, Jr., the Paramount producer) objected violently at first to my doing it. So did Bill Powell (he is the Loy reel husband in their 'Thin Man' adventures) who laughed and laughed and said, 'Why, Myrna, you can't—I won't have it!'"

How Bill Powell feels about it now is not on record, but Producer Hornblow is reconciled.

"The girl is selfish and wilful and ruthless," said Myrna, "but the reason is that she's always questing for something she hasn't been able to find. She's understandable, hence not wholly unsympathetic. And she is regenerated before she dies—this is her regeneration costume. She's working in the hospital, scrubbing floors and doing menial chores, anything to help out after the earthquake. I like the part."

The scrub-lady was called to the camera. She took up her scrub-pail, marched into action. She was still the most glamorous scrub-lady I ever saw.

You have heard of embarrassing moments of the stage. The routine hazards of lost lines, props falling to floor, costumes disintegrating before the eyes of a hilarious audience. All these things pale before the Getsemans of young John Beal.

John was a star of the play "Soliloquy" last season—one of the Broadway year's least happy still-borns. John had faith in the production, which gave him his first departure from straight leading man roles. It made him a killer, a weakling—and its technique was novel: the star's thoughts audible to the audience via movie sound track. The production in San Francisco and Los Angeles trysts went off beautifully, reaped critical bouquets, including one from this corner.

Beal and company (his wife, Helen Craig, was co-star) set forth hopefully for Broadway. The dress rehearsal, at 5 o'clock before opening night, went off beautifully too.

Opening night. Curtain. And the sound-track BARKED. It barked and growled and hissed. And along in the third act it died entirely. There was Beal, who had recorded those "thoughts" three months before and practically forgotten them, left on the stage with no cues for the lines he knew. Stage floors never opened mercifully, so Johnny dug deep in memory and plowed up forgotten lines, serving as his own sound track.

He thought, hopefully, that 18 curtain calls afterward signified audience forgiveness for the sound track. He took, next day, a critical drubbing somewhat like that of Leslie Howard's "Hamlet."

He still thinks he had a good play, but is sure forever of soundtrack drama. Somebody, he is sure will click with the idea.

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP) — The administration decided today to ask congress for $25,000,000 to spend during the 12 months beginning July 1 on strategic war materials not produced in this country.

The figure was agreed upon at a White House conference between President Roosevelt and seven defense and fiscal advisers.

Congress recently passed and the president signed a bill authorizing expenditure of $100,000,000 on supplies of needed strategic materials in the next few years, but has made no appropriation.

The type of materials to be given priority will be kept secret.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

From 1, Settles Hotel. "Is the Universe, Including Man, Governed by Atomic Force?"

The Golden Text is: "To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in Him" (1 Corinthians 8:6).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all" (1 Chronicles 29:11).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "For right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeness, mortality" (page 492).

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN

501 North Gregg. T. H. Graulmann, Pastor.

9:45—Sunday school.

10:30—Morning service. The topic of the sermon will be "The Victorious Power of Faith."

Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. the Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Rueckert.

"The Half of the Cross," a sound movie, will be shown at the church Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

This talking picture was made in commemoration of the Centennial of the landing of the fathers and founders of the Lutheran church in the United States of the past one hundred years. A collection will be taken to help defray the expenses.

We cordially invite the public to attend our services, and also this sound motion picture.

MAIN ST. CHURCH OF GOD

Cor. 16th and Main Streets. Robert E. Bowden, Minister.

All services at the usual hour Sunday. Sunday school 10 o'clock; morning worship at 11 o'clock.

Sermon subject, "The City of God." You will be interested in the general theme and the sacred truths that center in and around this message. The Young People's hour at 7:15. The Young People will present a Father's Day program.

Come early. The evening sermon at 8 o'clock. Sermon subject, "What Is Conversion?"

What does the general masses understand conversion to mean? What external force does it involve? What part of the individual is changed as a result of the experience? These and other questions will be answered. Our Wednesday night prayer meetings are interesting and inspiring. You will find a warm Christian welcome at all services at God's church.

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL

501 Runnels Street. Oliver C. Cox, Rector.

9:45 a. m., Sunday school.

11 a. m., Morning prayer.

The sermon theme will be built around the teaching of the church for the second Sunday after Trinity, and will deal especially with the Parable of Excuses.

Holy Communion each first Sunday at 11 a. m.

You are cordially invited to worship with us.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

D. F. McConnell, D. D., Pastor.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject, "Faithfulness."

Evening worship, 8 p. m.

Young People's Vespers, 7 p. m.

The pastor will have charge of the morning devotionals next week, June 19-24, beginning at 8 a. m.

You are invited to tune in over KSBT.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m., the 20th, the Men-of-the-Church will have an inspirational meeting and dinner at the church.

FIRST BAPTIST

Rev. C. E. Lancaster, Pastor.

9:45 o'clock church school meets by departments.

11 o'clock morning worship and B.T.U. at 7 o'clock.

8 o'clock evening worship. The Rev. Aubrey Short, formerly pastor at Foreman, will occupy the pulpit at each hour in the absence of Rev. C. E. Lancaster who is confined.

LEGIONNAIRES IN DALLAS CONVENTION

DALLAS, June 17 (AP)—A floor show, a dance and registration, occupied members of the first division of Texas, American Legion, here today for a convention.

At a business session tomorrow the group will consider resolutions, one of them from the Dallas district, condemning organizations engaged in activities subversive to American ideals and policies.

James T. Crawley of Kosciusko, Miss., national vice commander for the southern area, will be the principal speaker at a luncheon tomorrow and Vincent Chiodo of Houston, state commander, will later address a joint meeting of the legion and auxiliary of the first division. A business session will then follow.

AMENDMENT FOES PROUD OF ROLES

AUSTIN, June 17 (AP)—Whether they are the "immortal 56" or the "56 obstructionists," house foes of the sales-natural-resource tax constitutional amendment espoused by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel evidently are not ashamed of their roles.

Big badges bearing the number 56 and nothing more made their appearance in the capitol today on laps of several opponents of the measure. They originated in the minds of Reps. Price Daniel of Liberty and Abe Mays of Atlanta.

Nine days ago, 56 representatives prevented adoption of the taxation amendment and two days ago 56 blocked adoption of a motion which would have permitted another vote on the proposal.

ducting a revival at Garden City. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Commencement program held Friday for the Bible school showed an average attendance of 170 and total enrollment of 226. It was believed to be the most successful ever held. Five were converted and six children dedicated their lives for special services.

Bible study for the women of the church will be held Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock at the church and prayer and visitation will be held. Lunch will be served at noon and Bible study at 1:30 o'clock.

FOUR BLIND DATES

By Edwin Ruff (Continued from Page 8)

I hope the next time some decent fellow falls sincerely in love with you, you'll have the wit to recognize it. Goodnight, Miss North. One thousand goodnights!

With a sweeping motion of his right hand he brushed two diminutive shop girls out of his path and strode away along Fifty-seventh street in high dudgeon, forgetting entirely that he who would stride in dudgeon does it with better effect if he is topped off by a hat. His hat remained in the check-room of The Heel Tap. But Tacks wasn't thinking of his hat. He was thinking of his life, now blasted beyond repair. Oh, he might live on, if course, barrenly, as lives the hermit who has renounced all. But it was going to be a thin business. In fact, it was thinning already.

He noticed it even in the short distance from The Heel Tap to the Penguin Club. But only when he was in his bedroom, pouring himself into crepe de chine pajamas, did it occur to him to link up the untoward events of the earlier evening with the somewhat reasonable remarks of Patricia that had set him off like a Roman candle.

Now, sitting on the edge of his bed, he saw it all. Because an alley-cat had tripped him and a doorman high-batted him and a taxi-driver laughed at him, he had let himself get worked up to such a pitch that he had barked at the world's most wonderful woman. And all because she had accused him, with certain justice, of being a maser. And that—why, by gosh, that was exactly what he had been like. A maser. What he should have done, he perceived now, was reason with her, prove to her that he was sincere. But instead of that, he had jumped down her throat. Oh, this was horrible. He bounded up, tripped over the crepe de chine pajamas and fell upon the telephone as if it had been a loose ball. But with the thing in his hands, courage deserted him. Gosh, he couldn't call her now. What a fool he'd look. Why, she'd laugh in his face or, rather, ear. And you couldn't blame her. No, he was licked, washed up. Nothing remained except to go to bed and dream about the might-have-been. Bumping the telephone down, Tacks went miserably to bed.

And meanwhile Miss Pauky North, very fetching in her black negligee with the white crescents, was gazing into a full-length mirror.

"I'm!" said Miss Pauky North. "A torch-singer. A hump of ice. I can go fry my hat, can't I, Wall, Y...oh, don't be a fool. Pauky. You—you can't afford to let yourself care."

Providence, Safety Record Marred, Starts War On Defective Autos

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 17 (AP)—The sharp crack of a tire-blowout broke the stillness of a quiet street in Providence last Sunday night—sounding the death knell of one man and the signal for the biggest "jalopy" cleanup in the history of the nation's smallest state.

That had tire on a nine-year-old automobile caused it to strike another machine, career to the sidewalk, and kill a pedestrian, 35 minutes before Providence would have started its 100th consecutive day without a highway fatality.

To this city of 250,000-odd persons, recognized nationally as the safest traffic city in its population class last year with a record of 111 "deathless days," that blot on its traffic escutcheon was bad. But it was particularly irksome to Patrolman Thomas W. Kierman, on whose beat the fatal accident occurred. He decided to do something about it.

On his own initiative, Kierman stopped three "jalopies" Tuesday and found their brakes were defective.

Patrolman Kierman told his superior, Captain Warren A. Martin about those brakes. Martin notified the state registrar of motor vehicles and Inspector John J. Egan authorized the police to remove the registration plates from the three rattlers at once. The drivers were ordered into court on charges of operating cars with defective brakes.

An hour later Chief of Police John J. Parker heard of Kierman's one-man campaign—and found his good. He ordered all precincts to take similar action.

That first day 305 motorists were stopped in Providence; 18 registration plates were seized; 94 cars were found with bad tires, and 14 with defective brakes.

Rosie Newcomer, Knott, has returned home for the summer after spending the year as a student at Hardin-Simmons university.
