

Truman Sees Some Hope For World Peace

Says Commies Have Failed In Korea Objective

By ED CREAUGH
WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP)—President Truman said today the Kremlin's desire to dominate the world is obviously unchanged, "but I believe we are well on the way to preserving our freedom without paying the frightful cost of world war."

"The plain fact is," Truman said, "that the Communists have utterly failed in their objectives in Korea."

"The Communist aggression failed to shatter the United Nations. Instead, the Communist attack has made the United Nations stronger and more vigorous and has demonstrated that it can and will act to defend freedom in the world."

He added:

"But we must also be alert and ready to meet treachery or a renewal of aggression if that should come."

If it should come, the President said, the Communists will run against a solid wall of free world resistance with the growing might of this country and its new atomic weapons in the key defense position.

Truman's speech was prepared for the 150th Anniversary Convocation of the U.S. Military Academy. The President came here by train to deliver it in the role of Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces.

This role, providing civilian control over the military, is "nailed down" in the Constitution, Truman said. And—in what could have been an allusion to such steps as his dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur—he went on to say:

"Many Presidents, including the present one, have demonstrated that those words in the Constitution mean what they say."

He arrived here fresh from a conference with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who called at the White House soon after flying into Washington from Tokyo on his way to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme commander in Europe. Truman spoke at unusual length about the Korean truce negotiations.

He declared as firmly as ever that this country will not accept the Red demand for repatriation of all captured Communist soldiers whether they want to be repatriated or not.

He added:

Hear Defense In Sheriff Tax Case

DALLAS, May 20 (AP)—The defense began its testimony today in the trial of Tarrant County Sheriff J. M. (Sully) Montgomery, charged with income tax fraud for the years 1948-49-50.

The government rested its case yesterday.

Defense attorneys are expected to use some of the notes they took yesterday on the testimony of Robert E. Baskett, a government tax investigator who investigated Montgomery's financial affairs.

Baskett, on the stand most of the day, introduced a tabular form showing the sheriff's financial condition for the three years he is charged with tax fraud.

Sabres Bag Four Communist Jets

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—U.S. Sabre jet pilots reported they shot down four Communist jets over North-west Korea today.

A U.S. Fifth Air Force announcement said the new kills raised total destruction of Russian-built MIGs in the Korean War to 302.

City's Water Supply Now Solely Dependent On Wells

Since last midnight the city has been wholly dependent upon wells as a source of water supply, and this dependence upon the wells will be continued until heavy rain-fall replenishes the lake supply.

City officials said this morning that with the continued complete cooperation of citizens it is possible to continue to hold the safe maximum withdrawal figure at 3,000,000 gallons. This will depend to a large extent, they explain, on the capacity of the wells to continue to supply this amount.

But the well situation is at the best problematical and somewhat uncertain. It is not yet been determined whether the new wells on the Edmonson Ranch in Glasscock County are pulling from the same strata as the wells on the O'Barry Ranch, also in Glasscock. The city engineering department feels that some conservation should be practiced at the wells until a test can be made when the peak load requirement of the consumers will be reached in June and July.

"We must not put too heavy a load on those wells," an official commented, "because if we are pulling from an underground source that must be recharged, we cannot expect that recharge until we receive some extremely heavy rains."

Such rains will also rebuild the lake supply if they fall on that watershed.

So the word continues to be "Conserve all the water you can."

Red Prisoners Riot In Pusan; One Slain

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Communist prisoners of war in Pusan clashed with their United Nations guards today. One prisoner was killed and 85 were wounded.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U.S. Eighth Army commander, announcing the incident, reported one American guard suffered minor injuries.

Half the prisoners' injuries were minor, Van Fleet said.

The announcement said no shots were fired during the battle.

"An attempt by fanatical Communist prisoners of war to resist proper medical treatment of patient inmates of Enclosure 10 of the prisoner of war camp at Pusan was quickly suppressed early today by United Nations troops," the Tokyo announcement said.

It said the incident occurred at 6:30 a.m. (4:30 p.m. EST, Monday, day).

The U.N. guard comprised combatwise American infantrymen. They were armed but broke up the Red-led riot in 2 1/2 hours without firing a shot. The prisoners put up "bitter resistance," the report said.

Prisoners on the mainland are supposed to be anti-Communist.

The violently pro-Communist prisoners were kept on Koje Island south of Pusan.

The Army announcement said: "A small group of agitators among the 1,600 inmates of one compound in the enclosure had refused an order from U.N. authorities to come out of the compound for transfer to another compound. These agitators are part of a group of non-partisans who ordinarily work as attendants in the hospital."

"They were ordered moved because their actions for several days had been impeding proper medical treatment of patient inmates."

"An order for the group to report to the compound gate or be removed by force was delivered at 0930 hours. When it was again ignored it became obvious that these men were organizing other inmates to resist the removal. U.N. guard troops were ordered into the compound."

"Meanwhile, all prisoners in the compound were told to move to an open area to avoid possible injury in any disturbances that might be created. Only three prisoners obeyed the order. The U.N. guard detail, composed of combatwise American infantrymen, then moved in to enforce the original order. The guards were armed but used riot tactics and, without firing a shot, separated the prisoners whose removal had been ordered and brought them out of the compound, despite bitter resistance by many of the prisoners."

"In the struggle, one prisoner was killed, 85 prisoners were injured and later received medical care. Half the injuries were minor. One American guard received a minor injury. By 0900 hours U.N. authorities reported the 'situation well in hand' and said order had been completely restored in the camp. An official investigation is being conducted."

IS HE TRUTHFUL?

Truman's Speech Under Hot Attack

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's truthfulness came under additional Senate fire today.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) and Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) joined the chorus of Republicans and Democrats questioning the accuracy of statements Truman made in a political speech before the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) Saturday night.

Bridges, Republican leader in the Senate, said in a prepared Senate address that Truman's pronouncements are "losing their ring of truth."

Capehart accused the President of "a malicious untruth" in telling the ADA, self-styled liberal organization, that the Republican party wants to turn the country over to big business.

On the Senate floor yesterday Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) said Truman had not followed the facts in asserting that a bill passed by Congress to give the states title to the oil-rich submerged lands off their coasts is like "robbery in broad daylight."

"The President's statement on robbery is no more accurate than his statement on ownership of the submerged lands," Johnson declared. "Possibly if he had taken the time to look up the facts he would not have been so reckless in his language."

Johnson contended Truman's assertion that federal ownership of the lands had been affirmed by the Supreme Court was not an accurate statement of the facts.

This Democratic criticism of Truman's veracity was more than matched by Sen. Herman Welker (R-Idaho). Welker accused the President of making an "utter falsehood" in naming him as one member of a group of Senate GOP members who criticized Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) for defending some administration foreign policy decisions.

Truman told the ADA that Wiley had been jeered and sneered at by his Republican colleagues for saying there was some foreign policy actions of which every American could be proud.

The President named Welker, Bridges and five other senators as having joined in this castigation.

"If the President had used half-common sense or his ghost writers had checked the congressional record, they would have found I did not take part," Welker declared.

Welker said he had written Truman demanding a retraction and was going to answer "whenever the President of the United States stoops so low as to use my name in utter falsehood."

GOP Squabble Before Court

AUSTIN, May 20 (AP)—Texas' new election code gets its first high court test today in a suit involving rival Republican factions.

Eisenhower Republicans and Taft Republicans will give oral arguments at 2 p.m. in a mandamus action brought by the Eisenhower people.

They are trying to nullify six Taft county conventions which they said were illegal rump sessions. The suit asks an order to prevent the secretary of state from sending the disputed delegate lists to the Mineral Wells G.O.P. convention.

The court is expected to rule on two principal points: Whether or not it has jurisdiction under the new election law to rule in a party's favor; if so, what should it tell the secretary of state to do.

Grandstaff Under Bond Of $5,000

A bond of $5,000 was set in Milwaukee Monday for Frank Grandstaff, the ex-convict who composed the cantata "Big Spring."

District Judge Harvey L. Neelen of Milwaukee has ordered an arraignment in municipal court there for June 12.

Grandstaff was named in warrants issued following complaints from two individuals. A woman had called police Saturday when she said a man had tried to enter her apartment. She later identified Grandstaff as the man.

Later, a man reported that a burglar had stolen a wrist watch, a ring and some cash from his apartment. He identified the jewelry as some found in the washroom of a tavern where Grandstaff was arrested.

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—The House Judiciary Committee today approved a compromise bill providing for 16 new Federal judgeships, including three additions to the circuit bench.

Zweifel's CIO Charge Brings Swift Retorts

Eisenhower Camp And Union Fire Back At Him

DALLAS, May 20 (AP)—Dallas Eisenhower leaders and CIO leaders both scored GOP National Committeeman Henry Zweifel today for his charges that the CIO dominated Eisenhower precinct conventions in Dallas County.

Zweifel yesterday charged that the Eisenhower campaign was dominated by "the CIO and a group of internationalists" and later charged that the CIO's Political Action Committee secretly had much to do with dominating the precinct conventions by influencing political amateurs who attended.

Dallas CIO-PAC Director Roy Evans branded Zweifel's charges as "typically political." Mrs. Allie Mae Currie, president of the Dallas County Eisenhower-for-President club, said his charges were typical of those of a loser, and branded them as "smear tactics."

Zweifel is state campaign leader for Sen. Robt. Taft. Texas' GOPs are split over the nomination of Sen. Taft and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, and also over who shall control the party in Texas.

The Eisenhower people, claiming they were in a clear majority at precinct and county conventions, fear that the GOP state executive committee will attempt to seat minority Taft delegations at the state convention next Tuesday at Mineral Wells.

Unions Studying Single Plant Negotiations Having Effect

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three big railroad unions today studied a labor peace plan the White House hopes will end a three-year dispute on the nation's railroads.

The engineers, firemen and conductors' brotherhoods, with a combined membership of more than 150,000, were handed the contract proposal by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman yesterday afternoon. So were the railroads, and they accepted it quickly.

The unions were set for all-day, separate sessions. But they agreed to act as one on final acceptance or rejection.

Stelman's proposal, submitted on a take-it-or-leave-it basis, would do these things:

1. Boost wages for men in yard service by 37 cents an hour, of which 12 1/2 cents is already being paid.

2. Boost wages for men who work on the open road—that is, not in the yards—by 23 1/2 cents an hour, 8 cents of which is already in effect.

3. Give the train unions substantially what they wanted on a highly controversial working or operating rule involving crews which take a train through a divisional point. A change in this rule demanded by the carriers was described by union officials as the major obstacle to settlement.

They said that if the carrier demand went into effect workers in many cases would have to travel twice as far and move their homes to new terminals.

The carriers had wanted any disputes over interdivisional runs automatically submitted to binding arbitration. But the Steelman proposal automatically submitted to binding arbitration. # Military Pay Boost Gets Final OK

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—President Truman has signed the bill boosting pay and allowances in the military services by nearly half a billion dollars a year.

The White House announced the signing today. It came in time—Truman had until the end of this month—for the raises to become effective with this month's pay vouchers.

Intended to help offset higher living costs, they range from $3 monthly for privates and seamen to $65 for two-star generals and admirals.

They apply to approximately 3 1/2 million active as well as retired personnel.

In the final version of the legislation, there was no provision, such as the Senate once voted, to give an extra $45 monthly to men who are fighting in or have fought in Korea. This may be taken up later under a separate measure.

The pay raise bill calls for a flat boost of 4 per cent in base pay of all personnel and an increase of 14 per cent in allowances for food and rental.

It would give the average low-ranking enlisted man a $3 monthly raise, or 4 per cent of the present $75 pay. Most of these men have no dependents and their food and lodging are furnished by the government, so the majority are not affected by the increase in allowances.

Top enlisted personnel with dependents, the monthly increase in pay and allowances would range from $13 to $19.

Richard Burns In Graduating Class At Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS, May 20 (AP)—Thirty Texans, among them the only graduates in the 1952 class, are among midshipmen to be graduated June 6 from the U. S. Naval Academy here.

The brothers are Edward St. Claire Stolle and Thomas Joseph Stolle, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Stolle of Lytle. The father is a retired Army colonel.

The other Texans include: Richard Carrol Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayman L. Burns of 1710 East 17th St., Big Spring.

First Committees Meet To Map Work Program For C-C

Attendances at the first of the five afternoon meetings being held this week by the various divisions of the Chamber of Commerce was described as good, by J. H. Greene, manager.

A number of persons called at the office where they were served refreshments and then most of these attended the meeting of the Civic Activities Division in the ballroom.

This afternoon the committees composing the Commercial Division under the chairmanship of Roy Reeder will assemble for the 3:30 meeting, and a meeting of the Industrial Division of which R. L. Beale is chairman is scheduled for tomorrow at the same hour.

The committees composing the Industrial Division are those on established industries, new industries, manufacturing, buildings, aeronautics, labor relations, petroleum and industrial sites.

The Organizational Affairs Division will meet Thursday and the Special Committee Division on Friday.

Scurry Park Bond Vote Set June 7

SNYDER—Scurry County voters will ballot on a proposed $350,000 park bond issue on June 7.

Commissioners set this date in response to a petition. Earlier the Chamber of Commerce announced that a suitable 200-acre tract would be made available for a park in event the finances are provided.

Contemplated improvements would be a swimming pool, wading pool, three tennis courts, softball field, 20 barbecue pits, five picnic pavilions, and a community livestock building.

Yarborough Calls For Defeat Of 'Machine Regime' In State

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

Ralph Yarborough, candidate for governor, opened what he called the "people's campaign" last night and asked Texans to help him "beat this machine that has fastened itself on the state government."

The Yarborough speech was one of many political developments in a state seething with factional strife among both Democrats and Republicans.

"It's time to have done with an administration that has proved too cold, too hard, too unfeeling, to ruthless," Yarborough shouted over the 26-station hookup that carried his speech.

He called for elimination of corruption on the state level, said he was against "widespread extravagance and mushrooming bureaucracy in our state government," and asked for a "fight for state's rights."

Yarborough said he was running because he believed the present governor's record failed to warrant a "third term," and asked his friends to contribute everything from tables to postage stamps for his campaign.

He said he sought "no large loans from great corporations," but wanted the help of the "plain people."

He said he was running because he felt he was qualified and could handle the job and because he thought "1952 is the year to clean house." He said he asked the permission of no political or economic faction.

Governor Allan Shivers has said that Yarborough was the "personal, hand-picked candidate" of Fagan Dickson, executive director of the Loyal Democrats, a group opposed to Shivers' policies. Yarborough has disavowed the tag.

Yarborough's opening speech also named the following planks in his platform:

1. "We must have a positive,

RALPH YARBROUGH

progressive and efficient road-building program. . . The present administration's plot to take away the power of the county to build its own roads constitutes a dangerous threat to local government."

2. Said he opposed any addition to the gasoline sales tax, or diversion of occupation taxes to the highway fund.

3. "A drastic change in the iniquitous so-called 'safety inspection law' for trucks and autos."

4. "A preferential presidential primary so that the people can vote for the candidates of their choice for President."

5. "More comprehensive protection for the health of Texans," but opposed to socialized medicine.

6. "Return of local government to local hands."

7. "More just treatment of our elder citizens."

8. "Just laws protecting the small independent business men from unjust taxation."

Meanwhile, Yarborough's opponent—Governor Shivers—arrived in Washington last night for a campaign today to reserve the tidelands "for the school children of Texas."

Taft Forces Due Victory In Montana

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—With backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio apparently firmly in the saddle, Montana Republicans meet today to elect eight national convention delegates.

State Democrats convene here at the same time. They elect national committeemen and committeewomen this morning, then vote late this afternoon on 20 delegates with 12 votes to their national convention.

Both parties are expected to follow Montana tradition and not instruct their delegations.

Backers of Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Averell Harriman of New York expect to place delegates pledged to their men on the Democratic delegation.

Supporters of Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the GOP presidential nomination battled for delegates pledged to their candidates.

Last night, Taft leaders were claiming a 4-1 edge among state convention delegates. Eisenhower forces disputed this and said they would force a split delegation.

The Taft camp put on the only show of strength. They elected Wellington D. Rankin, Helena attorney and Taft supporter, national committeeman. He replaces Fred M. Robinson of Malta. Mrs. Gladys Knowles of Missoula, national committeewoman since 1946, was re-elected. She said she is staying neutral.

Munitions King Krupp Takes Wife

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AP)—Germany's once-mighty munitions magnate, Alfred Krupp, married a German-born American socialite last night at his mountain resort where Hitler used to relax.

The bride, Martha Vera Wilhelmine Knauer of Hollywood, Calif., wore a street-length white dress and a white veil. It was the second marriage for the 44-year-old Krupp. His first ended in divorce. Former ski star Fred Stoll and his wife acted as witnesses. Stoll later told reporters Krupp's bride left Germany in 1938 and became an American citizen. He said the couple had known each other for many years.

'Missing' Diplomats Are Dropped Off British Rolls

LONDON (AP)—Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean, the two diplomats whose disappearance has embarrassed Britain for a year now, were dropped quietly from the Foreign Office roster today. They have been absent without leave for long enough, Foreign Undersecretary Anthony Nutting explained, and their appointments are being terminated as "a routine disciplinary measure."

Nutting announced the action to the House of Commons yesterday.

Danish Youth, In America 4 Days, Saves Two Lads

CLEMENTON, N.J. (AP)—"I saw they were in trouble so I jumped in and pulled them out." That statement, spoken in Danish, tells the story of the rescue yesterday of two small boys from Clementon Lake by a 16-year-old Danish youth who arrived in America four days ago and is staying with his aunt.

The Danish youth, Yohan Svendstrup, was on his way to the grocery store. As he passed by the lake he noticed the two boys, Daniel Wayne, 3, and Francis Welsh, 3½, playing by the water.

Later, on the way back from the store, he saw the boys thrashing about in the water. He dropped the groceries, removed his shoes and stockings and jumped in.

He dragged the Wayne boy ashore and then returned for the Welsh child. Later all three were treated at Audubon Hospital for exposure.

in a brief statement on the two diplomats, last seen hurrying out of Britain to France on May 25, 1951.

MacLean, 38, was head of the Foreign Office's American Department. Burgess, 40, had just been recalled from the British Embassy

Franchot, Barbara Really Call It Quits

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The celebrated Hollywood triangle of Franchot Tone, Barbara Payton and Tom Neal has been reduced to a twosome.

Tone won a divorce yesterday from the blonde Miss Payton on testimony that she told him, "I want to be free to move where and when I want to."

After the trial her attorney said she's planning to do some moving—in the direction of Europe, and accompanied by Neal.

The two have separate movie deals cooking on the continent, the attorney said.

Texas Electric Granted Tax Benefits On Project

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Five Texas projects were among major construction projects approved yesterday by the Defense Production Administration for federal tax benefits.

They were:
United States Pipeline Co., a pipeline from Beaumont to Newark, N.J., $68,800,100.

West Coast Pipeline Co., a line from Wink to Norwalk, Calif., $6,035,294.

The Beaumont-Newark line qualified for 25 per cent write off; the Wink-Norwalk line for 25 per cent. Texas Electric Service Co., Ft. Worth, $11,279,145 for electric power, 45 per cent.

The Texas Co., $15,700,000 for gasoline production at Port Arthur; bulk of the project approved at 65 per cent write-off, other portions at 45 and 90 per cent.

Babcock and Wilcox Co., $2,271,000 for production of parts for power boilers at Paris in Lamar County, 50 per cent.

Russia Sneers At Capitalist Fishing Efforts

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio sounded a few loud sneers today at the achievements of capitalist fishermen. In Russia, a broadcast said, everybody fishes better.

The big fish story was set off by the return of a Soviet whaling fleet after seven months in the antarctic. The Russian fishermen, the broadcast said, had accounted for "great achievements."

"Vasily Tupikov, for example, killed 372 whales. A hero of Socialist labor, Afansy Purgin, killed 23 and Georuy Ofayannikov, 219," Moscow boasted, adding:

"The Norwegian harpooner, Marius Jakobsen, of 20 years standing and the best harpooner in the capitalist countries, has during one season killed only 151 whales."

"His record," Moscow calmly added, "was beaten by all Soviet harpooners."

Radio, TV Stations Get Protection On Political Libel

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith yesterday signed a bill to protect Missouri radio and television speeches from libel suits resulting from political campaign speeches.

No station would be liable for damages if a political candidate got sued for saying something libelous about an opponent in a radio broadcast. If you thought you had been libeled, you could sue the man who made the statement, but not the radio station.

Brink Robbery 'Confession' Branded As A Complete Fake

BOSTON (AP)—Deputy Police Supt. James F. Daley today branded as a "liar and faker" ex-convict Alfred A. Gagnon, who said he was one of the planners of the fabulous $1,219,000 Brink's robbery.

Gagnon of Pawtucket, R.I., named himself, Carlton M. O'Brien, Warwick, R.I., roadhouse owner, and Joseph F. McGinnis, former convict and Boston night club owner, as the planners of the nation's biggest cash haul.

He is held in Rhode Island State Prison awaiting trial on a charge of attempted robbery of a Providence diamond merchant.

O'Brien, 49, was slain in gangland fashion Saturday morning in front of his home. Two shotgun blasts snuffed out his life.

Daley made the accusation in an angry answer to charges from

Rhode Island Atty. Gen. William E. Powers that Boston police showed a lack of interest in information they had obtained indicating that the O'Brien slaying was tied up with the Jan. 17, 1950 Brink's holdup.

"This man (Gagnon) wasn't with the Brink's holdup, to March 5, 1950.

Texas Pastor To Represent Nation At NATO Parley

AUSTIN, May 20 (AP)—A Texas pastor has been named to represent United Nations Protestants at a conference on religion in North Atlantic Treaty Organization armies.

He is Dr. Blake Smith, pastor of the University Baptist Church here. Dr. Smith has been conducting a preaching mission at U. S. Air Force Bases in England.

He was named to represent Protestants of the United States at the NATO conference, opening today in Utrecht, Holland, by the chief of chaplains of the Air Force, who also sponsored the one-man preaching mission by the Texan.

1950, following the Brink's robbery," Daley asserted.

"That taken by itself brands him as a liar and faker and these facts are irrefutable."

Daley said evidence gathered by FBI, Boston and state police disclosed that Gagnon was in Tampa, Fla., from Nov. 1949, to March 1950.

He said every move that Gagnon made during that period, every place he visited and everything he did, was checked, double-checked and rechecked by FBI and Massachusetts authorities.

"We had the Gagnon story and the so-called confession to the Brink's case a year and a half ago," Lt. James V. Crowley said.

"We checked all phases of it. He did not name McGinnis at any time until after the O'Brien murder Saturday, and even then, as we later learned, he named him only in connection with the O'Brien murder."

McGinnis was released after lengthy questioning by police in the O'Brien shooting.

POTATO, $1.39; MEAL IS FREE

LITTLETON, N. H., May 20 (AP)—The potato shortage is changing menus in this town, heart of a Connecticut Valley spud-raising area.

Nick Perkins, proprietor of the White Mountain Restaurant today posted a big window sign which read:

"Special today, baked potato, $1.39." Nick tosses the rest of the dinner in "free."

Rocket Zooms Up To 57-Mile Level

WHITE SANDS, N. M., May 20 (AP)—An Aerobee rocket zoomed 57 miles above this Southern New Mexico proving ground last night in another effort to gain more information about the upper atmosphere.

Observers as far off as Carlsbad, N. M., and El Paso, Tex., about 90 and 50 miles away, respectively, reported seeing red and green grenade bursts set off from the rocket to mark its trail skyward.

The El Paso Times received a frantic call from one person who reported seeing an A-bomb blast.

Tally Clerks Unwilling To Speed Up Election Count

WAYNE, W. Va. (AP)—Two anxious candidates, only 41 votes apart, waited today while the attorney general considered the problem of the Effie, W. Va., polling officials who refused to count last Tuesday's ballots.

The 250 or so votes cast at the little polling place would settle the Democratic nomination for Wayne County sheriff. With all the other returns in, Clifford Hatten, of near Kenova, leads Walter H. Staley of Pritchard.

Last Tuesday night, right after the West Virginia primary, the five Effie election officials—four men and a woman—said the ballots were too long to count without extra help. They packed them in a can, slipped a lock on it and delivered the package to County Clerk App Queen.

The perplexed clerk kept the can until last Friday when he issued an order to the polling officials to the ballots.

Yesterday the five showed up, prepared to do their civic duty. The neck-and-neck candidates stood by — expectantly and uneasily.

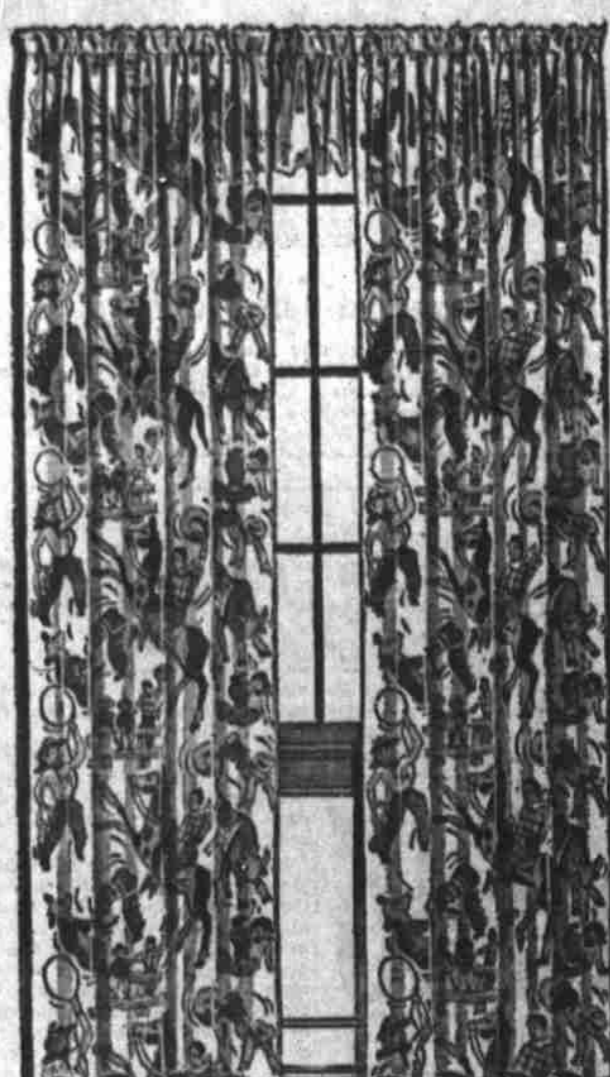

Then another stalemate developed. The five officials announced firmly that they would not do any vote counting while members of the County Court were in the room.

The County Court members were not inclined to leave.

The polling officials pointed out that if they had counted the ballots last Tuesday night, they would have done so in secrecy and they saw no reason why they shouldn't be alone for the job now. So the problem was tossed in the lap of the West Virginia attorney general, who said at Charleston that he'd try to find the answer and issue a decision later today.

Clergyman Conducts Rites For Son, Victim Of Mishap

SPIRIT LAKE, Wash. (AP)—Rescuers paused on a mountain path last night as a grief-stricken clergyman intoned the last rites of the church over the body of his son who died in an icy crevasse high on Mt. St. Helens.

The youth, 20-year-old Arthur Jessett, slipped into the narrow chasm at the mountain's 8,000-foot level while on a climbing trip with three companions Sunday.

He lived a number of hours talking to his companions as the slipping ice eased him deeper and deeper into the crevasse. Meanwhile, climbers fought frantically to rescue him.

Late yesterday, expert mountain climbers were lowered 75 feet into the frigid tomb and recovered the young University of Washington student's body.

The father, the Rev. Thomas E. Jessett, met the somber party as it descended through fog and rain to this mountain lake in Southwest Washington.

He opened the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer and read in a strained voice:

"Into thy hands, O merciful Saviour, we commend the soul of this thy servant, now departed from the body . . ."

Then the father dropped to his knees, faced the sky and cried: "My son! My son! My son!"

He rose and shook hands with each of the eight ski patrolmen who had recovered the body.

Two of the rescuers, Jim and Louis Whitaker, twin brothers from Seattle, had been lowered by ropes into the crevasse. They said the body was wedged tightly between the walls of ice.

They cut the ice away and the body was raised by ropes.

Observers as far off as Carlsbad, N. M., and El Paso, Tex., about 90 and 50 miles away, respectively, reported seeing red and green grenade bursts set off from the rocket to mark its trail skyward.

The El Paso Times received a frantic call from one person who reported seeing an A-bomb blast.

G. City Grads Hear Sermon By Rev. Avery

GARDEN CITY—The Rev. Maple Avery, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist Church of Big Spring, was speaker for baccalaureate services for the Garden City seniors Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. M. A. Barber played "Tannhauser's Grand March" for both the professional and the recreational.

The Rev. Jim Boswell gave the invocation. Jim Robinson read a lesson from the Old Testament, Job 28:12-21, and Shirley McLaughlin read Romans 12:9-21 from the New Testament. The class gave a prayer in unison. The speaker was introduced by Supt. J. F. Jones.

The seniors wore white caps and gowns with the blue tassels. Decorations were bouquets of white gladiolus with blue ribbons and each senior's mother was presented with a corsage of blue iris.

Seniors graduating this year are: Troy Cline, Bonnetta Cox, Clara Ann Halfmann, Teresa Ann Lynch, Shirley McLaughlin, J. C. Newell, Darja Ricker, and Jim Robinson. Ushers were: Ruby Overton, Wilburn Bednar, Genny Gandy, and Maurice Overton.

The commencement exercises will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Clyde Thomas Sr. of Big Spring will be the speaker.

Clearing Weather Over The State

By The Associated Press
Texas skies were clear to partly cloudy Tuesday with temperatures still cool for late May.

West Texas and North Central Texas registered rising temperatures in the afternoon with East Texas and South Central Texas delaying the rise until Wednesday.

Some rain fell during the wee hours of the morning in the northern Panhandle, but the skies were all clear at dawn. Only patchy fog was evident along the eastern border.

As the sun came up Tuesday temperatures ranged from Junction's low of 42 to a high of 63 at Galveston and Brownsville. Temperatures in the Panhandle almost, but not quite, matched the chilly hill country weather.

No rain was in sight Tuesday. But tail-end effects of Monday's cold front brought the following 24-hour rainfall totals reported by 6:30 a. m.: Abilene .20 inch, Houston .04, Beaumont .10, Galveston .01, and Texarkana .09.

Hunt Asks To Be Withdrawn As A Taft Delegate

DALLAS, May 20 (AP)—H. L. Hunt, oilman and prominent supporter of Gen. Douglas MacArthur for the Republican presidential nomination today asked that his name be removed from the list of Taft-MacArthur delegates to the GOP state convention.

The request was made in a letter to County GOP Chairman George Atkinson.

Taft-MacArthur supporters bolted the Dallas County GOP convention, held a rump session and made up its own list of delegates to attend the state conclave next Tuesday at Mineral Wells. This delegation will oppose Eisenhower delegates for seating at the convention.

Hunt said in his letter he was out of the state when the county convention was held and could not judge whether the bolt from the county convention was justified. He asked he be placed on the delegate list.

Kansans Worrying About The Weather On Ike's Homecoming

By JAMES E. LAWSON
 ABILENE, Kan. (U.S.)—“I wonder what kind of weather we'll have June 4?”
 That's the big question to the residents of this Central Kansas town who are getting ready for the mammoth homecoming of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, potential Republican presidential candidate.
 The Weather Bureau comes up with a sporting answer.
 “Five to one it'll be a fine day,” commented a bureau spokesman at Kansas City. “But when it does rain in these parts that time of year, brother, it can rain.”
 The people around here are more curious about the kind of day it will be than they are about what the general will have to say at his homecoming speech.

 Virtually every Abilene resident—man, woman and child—already has made up his or her mind on a choice for the next President.
 “We not only like Ike here, we love him,” said Charles Case, a retired merchant, in what just about sums up the attitude of the home folks toward a local boy who made good.
 During a two-day celebration starting June 4, the five-star general will lay the cornerstones for a museum to house his war trophies. The $100,000 structure is going up on ground adjoining the old Eisenhower family home, where Ike grew to manhood.
 Eisenhower also will make a public address, review a mammoth parade of 30 or 40 floats depicting his career and hold a press conference. One of the floats will show Ike in the White House.

 That's the official program. But the general arrangements committee expects the governors of about a dozen states and scores of other political leaders and national convention delegates to confer with the general about the presidential campaign being carried on in his behalf.
 No one seems to agree on the size of the crowd which will be on hand in this town of 7,000 population.
 R. B. Laing, a milling company executive and co-chairman of the general committee on arrangements, said:

 “We learned a lot about handling a crowd when Ike came home in 1945 after leading the Allied forces to victory in Europe during World War II.”
 On that occasion more than 20,000 persons flocked to Abilene. The arrangements committee feels there will be a lot more this time. Scores of special trains will help bring the crowd. Parking lots have been laid out within the city limits to accommodate 20,000 automobiles.

been drylot calves for 214 days and had gone into the feed pens from dry pastures.

Their average daily gain was 2.46 pounds and the gains were practically equal for those fed Redtop cane silage and those fed cottonseed hulls.

F. E. Keating, superintendent of the farm, says he believes the addition of two pounds of high quality alfalfa daily was very beneficial. In spite of the dry pasture and the drylot not a single one of the animals showed any symptoms of Vitamin A deficiency. The two pounds of alfalfa formed about 25 per cent of the roughage portion of the rations on the basis of air dry weight. The rations averaged about 58 per cent roughage and 62 per cent concentrate. All the calves showed a good capacity for feed, taking an average of about three pounds of dry feed per 100 pounds of live weight daily.

In some feeding areas, particularly New Mexico, cattlemen say they believe bonemeal is beneficial in preventing death from urinary calculi.

In this connection it is significant that the only two steers lost to calculi from the experiment were from pen 8 in which they received a mixture of bonemeal and salt free choice.

As Dr. Bob Crookshank, one of the Field Day speakers, pointed out, the calculi is still pretty much of a mystery and what works one place apparently doesn't work some other place. The study will be continued because as with polo and cancer in humans, the answer hasn't yet been found.

Some cowmen frown on the practice of forcing cattle to take salt with their feed. Usually calves in these experiments given their salt free choice average about one ounce daily.

In this experiment the supply of three ounces of salt daily per head in the feed had no apparent ill effect.

The steers in this particular experiment that got their salt free choice averaged 1.2 ounces per head daily, with the exception of one bunch of six head, and this lot averaged 2.24 ounces daily. During the first 56 days of the experiment they averaged 3.6 ounces daily.

The salt-in-the-feed was fed to stimulate water consumption with the idea that more frequent flushings of the urinary tract would prevent the calculi forming. Whether or not it did will be revealed by the bladder analysis being made.

During the course of the experiment of a few suffered from bloat and four had a respiratory disorder during the high winds and blowing dust.

Among recent Texas registered Hereford transactions Renfro Brothers sold 20 heifers to H. C. Baird, and E. D. Hopson sold eight cows and two heifers to Glenn Gripp. All these four Herefordmen are also Hereford (Texas) men.

Robert E. Manley of Abilene sold 17 heifers to Richard Butts, who lives on the Oklahoma side of Texas, and Jim Gill of Coleman reports the sale of 23 heifers to Hal Price Headley, well known Thoroughbred and Hereford breeder, and racing stable owner at Lexington, Ky.

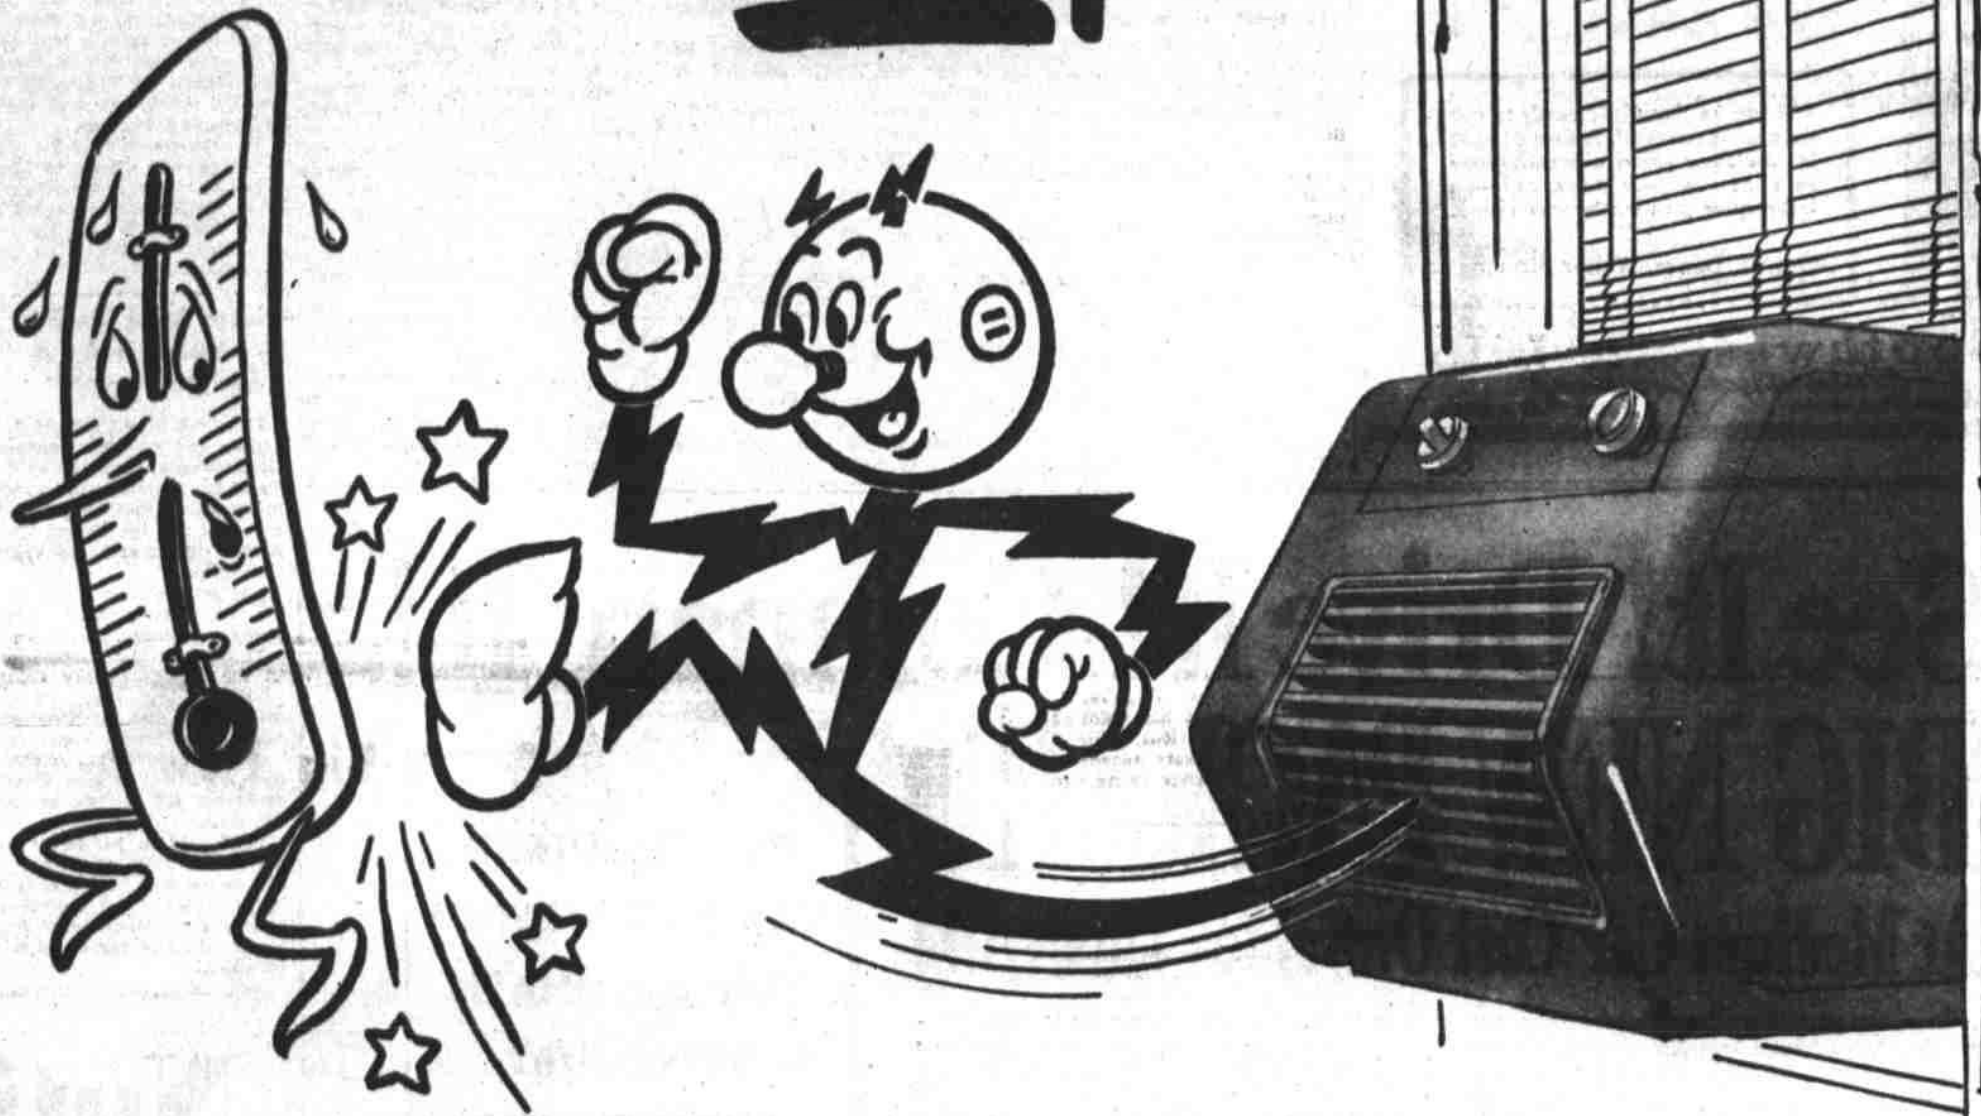

Cattlemen of the Southwest will be interested in the Central Texas Shorthorn sale at Stephenville tomorrow (Wednesday). Seventeen of Texas' best known Shorthorn breeders have consigned 21 bulls and 40 females of the beef type. The females include 14 mature cows, 17 bred heifers and nine open heifers.

Higher Prices In Effect On Canned Fruits And Vegetables

WASHINGTON (U) — Prices in many grocery stores go up 1 to 2 cents a can today on some canned vegetables, fruits and juices. Housewives can expect increases soon on a large variety of other foods.

The Office of Price Stabilization said it was granting the higher prices on vegetables, fruits and juices to compensate wholesalers for "markedly lower earnings."

Under this order some canned corn, green beans, peas, tomatoes, tomato juice, canned fruit cocktail, pineapple, peaches and pears.

OPS said most independent stores will be affected but few chain stores will be, since they normally buy direct from producers rather than from wholesalers.

The agency said it may issue before the end of this month an order permitting retailers to increase their markups on such foods as concentrated coffee, dry cereals, cookies and many canned meats. Canned tuna and salmon would be exempted.

This does not mean the retail ceilings of all canned goods will be lifted.

Hospital Meeting

HOUSTON, May 20 (U)—The Texas Hospital Association began its 23rd annual convention here today. About 1,500 persons are expected here from over Texas for the three-day meeting.

Buses Running Again In The Western States

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—Pacific Greyhound buses begin rolling today after 19 strikebound days in seven Western states.

Company officials said various lines would be rolling about dawn. A negotiated contract grants an immediate 4.6 per cent pay hike to some 3,000 drivers and station employees; a gradual change from a six-day, 48-hour week to five days and 40 hours with no loss in pay, and cost-of-living increases if the federal index rises.

The San Francisco area local of computer drivers voted 128-33 last night to return to work immediately, completing favorable action on the new contract, which runs two years. Some 2,000 main line employees okayed it 5-1.

The local first rejected the settlement 104-87, but reconsidered. Rejection by any one unit blocks settlement.

Special Court Is Suggested For European 'Pool'

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands (U)—The Netherlands suggested today that a special court be set up at The Hague to iron out differences which may arise among the six nations in the proposed European Defense Community (EDC) and the Schuman coal-steel pool.

The Dutch Foreign Office announced today that Foreign Minister Dirk U. Stikker this week will formally submit to the five other EDC nations—who also belong to the Schuman Plan—proposals for a new tribunal to solve any disagreements growing out of the working of the two international plans.

The other nations involved are France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The treaties making up each plan call for a judiciary to solve differences among the members. Apparently The Netherlands proposes to combine the two.

Union May Fight For Textiles

BOSTON (U)—A CIO-AFL battle for members was under way today as George Baldanzi, former CIO official who bolted to the AFL, announced his organization will throw all its resources into a drive to organize Southern textile workers.

Baldanzi, former vice president of the CIO Textile Workers Union, switched to the AFL United Textile Workers yesterday and said he hopes to bring 100,000 CIO members into the AFL fold.

The switch by Baldanzi stemmed from a recent convention battle in Cleveland, where Emil Rieve defeated him for the presidency of the CIO-TWA. That culminated a long dispute between Baldanzi and Rieve over executive and organizational matters.

Baldanzi, appointed AFL union's director of the national textile organization, said that 53,000 already have shifted from the CIO to the AFL in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, the Carolinas and Virginia.

Rieve said that his union has contracts with various mills and that even if workers secede, the union intends to stick by its agreements.

Canadian River Compact Signed

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, May 20 (U)—President Truman signed a bill yesterday which authorizes a Canadian River compact for Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

The compact to divide the waters of the Canadian River and its tributaries has already been approved by Congress and the three state legislatures.

The new law creates a Canadian River Commission to administer the compact.

Senate Gives Life To Law Changing Immigration

WASHINGTON (U)—An omnibus bill overhauling the nation's immigration laws has survived one of its biggest Senate tests but advocates of a liberalized immigration policy still plan major attacks on it.

The Senate yesterday refused, 44 to 28, to send the 302-page measure back to the Judiciary would have shelved it for this session.

Mexico Cotton Men Ask Govt. Help

MEXICO CITY, May 20 (U)—A group of Matamoros cotton growers has asked the government to provide 110 million pesos ($12,800,000) to save the area from bankruptcy due to drought.

The delegation arrived here yesterday. The farmers said 80,000 inhabitants of the cotton-growing area across the Rio Grande from Brownsville backed the petition.

They said growers have been able to plant only 310,000 acres of the million acres in the area. The group added that even the acreage planted will not yield any cotton unless the rains come soon.

New General On Truce Delegation

TOKYO (U)—Brig. Gen. Frank C. McConnell, assistant commander of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division, today was named to the U.N. armistice delegation in Korea.

McConnell takes the place of Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, who leaves June 9 to become superintendent of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Joy's place as head of the five-man U.N. delegation goes to Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, who has been a delegate since January.

More Collegians On Pantie Raids

By The Associated Press
The college boy craze to invade women's dormitories for panties flared anew on campuses from Vermont to Minnesota last night. Harassed police were caught between raiders and the beleaguered girls in the dormitories.

Similar collegiate outbreaks have occurred at other schools in the nation. Apparently, some persons believe, the spring revolts represent the students' way of letting off steam before final examinations.

Here are last night's developments in silken sorties:

At Evanston, Ill., some 200 Northwestern University women serenaded in front of the men's dormitories. The boys applauded the girls, and then 1,000 of them paid a "return visit" to the women's houses.

Singing and cheering, the male students snatched lingerie in five dormitories. But 30 women at a sixth house repulsed the invasion with buckets of water. Police seized nine students but released them after a lecture.

At Columbia, Mo., 3,000 University of Missouri men students assaulted sororities on their own campus and dormitories at Stephens College and Christian College, both women's schools.

Acting Police Chief J.L. Parks said damage might run into thousands of dollars at the three schools. He said he obtained permission to call out the National Guard but that the youths retired after he alerted the Columbia unit. The forays lasted four hours. No serious injuries were reported.

At Minneapolis, some 300 University of Minnesota men students raided three women's dormitories but the raid netted only four bras, four pairs of panties, and a silk slip.

Some 3,000 University of Connecticut students at Storrs, Conn., milled around the sorority quadrangle in another pantie raid. Girls retaliated by dousing boys with buckets of water.

The feminine filmy fad also sent some 400 students roaming the University of Vermont campus at Burlington, but the girls' dorms were stout bastions. A dozen students were locked up.

A mob of some 1,000 to 1,500 men students scammed into three women's halls at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. It was all in fun, the police said, and there were no incidents.

At Newark, Del., some 250 male students stormed eight coed halls on the University of Delaware campus. Girls at one house fought back with a fire hose.

Woman Suffers 14 Stab Wounds

HOUSTON, May 20 (U)—Mrs. Florida de Line, 49, was in a critical condition here today with 14 stab wounds in her body.

Officers yesterday found her husband, Charles Leonard de Line slumped in a chair dead, a 12-gauge shotgun on the floor by a flyswatter in his hand.

They had come to investigate after Mrs. de Line said he stabbed her in front of their home yesterday morning. She had run screaming to a neighbor's residence for help.

A coroner returned a verdict of suicide in De Line's death.

'Skylady Derby' Is Halted Because Of Gasoline Shortage

TOPEKA, Kan., May 20 (U)—Restrictions on the use of aviation gasoline caused the cancellation of a "Skylady Derby" from Dallas to Topeka.

The stock light plane race had been scheduled for Thursday in connection with the opening of the convention of the Women's National Aeronautical Association here. The derby will be held when the restrictions are lifted.

DESIGNING WOMAN

Bright Color Adds Spirit To Provincial Style Rooms

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

Although a room is established as provincial by the design of furniture and accessories, it needs the spark of bright color and eye-catching contrast to give it the gay spirit of provincial style. Try bright pastels with French Provincial and give the room cheerful pattern—a wall or two in one of the new French Provincial wallpapers can turn the trick by itself. Some of the new patterns, like this one, come boxed and ready-trimmed to make it easier for you to do your own paper hanging. It's called Country Life and contrasts shell pink, white, chartreuse and green on a deep gray background, or other bright pastels on white, brown or chartreuse. For a trial flight in paper hanging, use the new plasticized, non-staining wallpaper paste. It can be washed off paper even after it is dry, as ordinary pastes cannot, without leaving spots. There's more time for the paper hanging and paper is easier to handle because pasted sheets stay folded, as long as 15 minutes without sticking together. The paste also makes it easier to adjust the paper on the wall to match the pattern and fit seams.

Presbyterian Women Have Special Birthday Program

Members of the Presbyterian Women of the Church met Monday at the church for a birthday observance and recognition of the birthday objectives.

While the group was gathering, Mrs. L. B. Edwards played Negro spirituals softly.

The birthday objectives for the past year were two-fold. They were the Stillman College for Negroes in Tuscaloosa, Ala., and the Sunday School Extension work.

Mrs. Albert Davis was in charge of the program and three women spoke on different aspects of the college. They included Mrs. James Little, Mrs. G. A. Barnett and Mrs. Garland Lang.

Mrs. Joe Fowler Brooks sang "Lord, I Want To Be A Christian."

L. E. Milling spoke on "Sunday School Extension."

At the social that followed, hostesses were Mrs. Steva Tamsett, Mrs. Grady Dorsey and a Mrs. McKenzie.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a pastel arrangement of carnations and gladioli.

Mrs. McKenzie poured and Mrs. Dorsey served the cake.

Mrs. Smith Feted In Rupp Home

Mrs. J. C. Smith was honored with a pink and blue shower when the Concordia Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church met Sunday in the home of Mrs. M. W. Rupp.

Refreshments were served to 18.

Derdens Live Here Following Marriage

S-Sgt. and Mrs. Spruce Derden are making their home at 609 1/2 Main following their recent marriage.

The bride is the former Dorothy Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Patterson, 808 E. 10th. Mr. and Mrs. Riley M. Derden of Corsicana are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Maple Avery, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist Church, performed the double ring, informal ceremony Saturday evening at the church as the couple stood before an altar decorated with baskets of flowers flanked by palm leaves.

Laverne Cooper, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches and also accompanied Billy Radd, who sang "If God Left Only You."

The bride wore a street length white dress with matching accessories and a red rose corsage.

Lela Patterson, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

S-Sgt. William E. Nipp served as best man.

Mrs. Derden is a graduate of Big Spring High School and is attending Howard County Junior College. She is employed by the H. B. Reagan Insurance Co.

Her husband is a graduate of the Purdon High School and is stationed at Webb Air Force Base.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony.

The refreshment table was centered with the two-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Morrison, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, of Dallas.

Clark Report Due Soon On Koje Affair

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO (U.S.)—The Army in Washington can expect a report speedily from Gen. Mark Clark on the Koje Island Red prisoner riots. The report will cover, too, the case of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd, Koje prison camp commander who was held hostage four days by his own Communist charges. It also may go into promises—since repudiated—which Brig. Gen. Charles Colson made to gain Dodd's release.

Clark, United Nations supreme commander, will make the report to Washington as soon as a high-ranking board of inquiry in his Far East Command finishes its study. Before it are reports and recommendations on the riots and the Dodd case from Gen. James A. Van Fleet and his U.N. Eighth Army in Korea.

At least two prisoner riots have occurred on Koje. Ninety Red POWs and one U.N. soldier were killed in these uprisings.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, former U.N. commander in the Far East, is in Washington to answer questions by the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees on Koje and other Far Eastern affairs.

Captive Turns Captor In Brazilian Jungle Mixup

BELEM, Brazil (U.S.)—The captives reportedly have turned captor today in the latest episode of Brazil's jungle rescue mixup. A Brazilian major radioed he had foiled a rival search group which held him and an American aviation official hostage at the scene of last month's crash of a Pan American strato-cruiser.

This cryptic message was received last night from Maj. Miranda Correa as three planes with 35 Brazilian paratroopers were sent from Rio de Janeiro to rescue him and Scott A. Magness of Miami, Fla., U.S. Civil Aeronautics Authority safety adviser.

The pair, members of an official Brazilian-American expedition to the crash scene, had been reported held by some 35 Brazilians, Indian guides and newsmen as hostages to ensure their own safe evacuation by air. The latter were of an unofficial group sent to the crash scene by a Brazilian politician as a private gesture.

Correa and Magness were members of the official party which set up a base at Lagoa Grande, 900 miles north of Rio de Janeiro, and trekked through 35 miles of jungle to the scene where the strato-cruiser crashed April 29 and killed all 50 aboard. They reached the scene Friday.

DON'T TRUST CONVENTIONS

Many Texans Getting Fed Up With Political Party Sniping

Editor's Note: Capitol Correspondent Dave Cheavens of the Associated Press toured 25 East, Northeast and North Texas Counties to find out what the mid-day political temperature is. Here is another story reporting on his findings.

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN, May 20 (U.S.)—Some folks around the state are getting sick and tired of all this bickering between politicians and political factions of both parties.

That's the reaction this correspondent got from more than half the 114 voters interviewed in six days of talking politics mostly with non-professionals in East, Northeast and North Texas.

They were not as interested in politics as people I had talked to on earlier trips through West, Northwest and Southeast Texas. There seemed to be a general let-down of interest following the precinct and county conventions, but once they started talking, they spoke their minds freely.

Here were some of the most frequently heard opinions:

1. The more politicians talk about party loyalty, better bargaining position, political morality and obligations, the more distrustful the average voter becomes.

2. The little fellow doesn't have a chance because trade-outs and deals at the conventions usually determine who the candidates for President and vice-president are.

3. To get around that, there ought to be a more direct way, such as a preferential preference primary, for the ordinary voter to speak.

This correspondent, listened to talk of that kind usually after he asked the question: "do you believe the loyalty pledge should be required of candidates and voters affiliated with any political party?"

The answers, with a wide variety of qualifications, ran about fifty-fifty.

About half the voters, Democratic and Republican, said they would like to feel free to vote any way they wanted to in the general elections for President. The others would say something like this:

"Well, if you start out with one party you ought to stay with it."

In the 25 counties visited, the Shivers unfractured forces prevailed in the county conventions and there was less bolting by the Loyals than had been reported in other regions.

There was also widespread boycotting of the precinct conventions by voters who said they were too busy, or indicated they didn't think going to these neighborhood conventions would get them anywhere.

I got this reaction in the neighborhood of one big defense project with a huge civilian federal payroll:

"I didn't go to my precinct meeting because I know how I'm going to vote in November anyway."

The inference was that this Democrat would take whoever the party put up. I found that same feeling among many farmers who still thought of Republicans in terms of the depression and Hoover.

Clinic To Open Colonial Meet

FORT WORTH, May 20 (U.S.)—A golf clinic at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow, tomorrow, featuring 19 of the 48 entries in the field, will open activity in the seventh annual $15,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament here.

First round of the medal play affair will begin at noon Thursday. An 18-hole round is scheduled each day through Sunday. Carey Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn., is the defending champion in a field which includes Ben Hogan (the home town favorite), Byron Nelson, Jack Burke Jr., Lloyd Mangrum, Roberto de Vicenzo, Tommy Bolt and Jimmy Demaret.

There will be 16 threesomes teeing off Thursday barring any late withdrawals. The field was filled up to the intended 48-player maximum last night by the addition of Al Zimmerman, longtime club pro from Portland, Ore., who retired from his job to try the tour fulltime.

Zimmerman was staying in Dallas, where he's been practicing for the National Open at Northwood. He was here yesterday for a "social" game and left without knowing anything about officials' discussion of his invitation.

Scheduled to appear in the clinic tomorrow are Lawson Little, Earl Stewart Jr., Burke, O'Neal (Buck) White, John Palmer, Demaret, Marty Furgol, Joe Kirkwood Jr., Jimmy Clark, Bolt, Middlecoff, Mangrum, Nelson, Jimmy Thompson, Bob Toski, Hogan, De Vicenzo, Al Besselink and Bill Nary.

A Bible Thought For Today—

Infinite intelligence cannot be fooled, we cannot even deceive ourselves, so better be honest sincerely, turn from all wrong. "He that covereth his sin shall not prosper, but whose confesses and forsaketh them shall have mercy."
— Prov. 28:13.

Battleground For Tidelands Bill Now Will Center On The Senate

Addressing the Americans for Democratic Action during the week end, President Truman declared the tidelands bill an attempt at "robbery in broad daylight."

This, of course, confirmed the prospect that he would veto the legislation which would affirm the title of the states to submerged coastal areas. The House overwhelmingly passed the measure and the Senate gave it a good margin, though not the two-thirds that ultimately will be needed to override a veto.

In view of the fact that there had never been any question until 1947 but what the submerged areas belonged to and were under the control of the states, there is some reason to believe that the President is completely twisted in his application of the robbery title.

By a ruling which was unique in many respects, the Supreme Court of the United States suddenly ruled that the federal government had paramount rights to these lands off California. Since then the Court has extended the malignant doctrine to the states of Louisiana and Texas, the latter despite a solemn treaty to the contrary.

There has been more than a sneaking suspicion down here all along that robbery was taking place, but having been the object of the "big steal," we were convinced that federal government was architect of the robbery.

The President attempts in this stand a bold trick of propaganda—that of completely twisting facts. He also points the finger of scorn at the "oil lobby," which he hints darkly is at the bottom of the move for re-establishing the principle of state ownership. Finally, he contends that state ownership would "rob" the people.

Truth of the matter is that the oil interests probably could pull more chicanery—if they were so inclined—under federal control than under state supervision. As for robbing the people, who are the people involved?—those who have had their property arbitrarily confiscated or those in some remote inland point who will benefit only in theory?

Occupation Past, Japs Blow Off Steam And Some Get Pretty Silly

The AP notes that in newly-freed Japan the press is taking many jabs at the United States and Americans generally, but it doubts if this indicates any serious anti-American feeling among the masses of the Japanese people. However, the Communists are expected to exploit it to the full.

It was not to be expected that our military occupation of Japan so long would leave the Japanese without resentments, light as our military rule was.

One sore point now being exploited by the sensational press of Japan is the number of illegitimate children left behind by the departing Americans. Some claim these children number 200,000. One paper presented a symposium of local opinion in which 26 prominent Japanese bitterly criticized the Americans for various alleged personal humiliations at the hands of the occupiers, including being strangled by drunken soldiers.

All this is perhaps a more or less normal reaction to seven years of foreign occupation, and once they've got it off their chests the Japanese critics may simmer down.

One of the silliest performances in this line was a magazine article by Lt. Gen. Susumu Morioka, charging that the Bataan Death March was just "a victory of American propaganda." He asserts the Death March was in fact an act of mercy by the Japanese Army, which used that method to get the prisoners out of Bataan to keep them from starving there along with the Japanese soldiers themselves, since the Japs were also without food.

Thousands of semi-starved American and Filipino prisoners died in that brutal forced march—many of them killed for trying to dip a drink of water from irrigation ditches, or for accepting a gift of food from Filipinos along the line of march. Moreover, thousands more died in prison camps from starvation, lack of medicines and brutal acts of their guards. Japan will never be able to convince the civilized world that the Death March was anything but what it was—one of the most inexcusable, savage and uncivilized acts in the history of warfare.

Dem Budget Chairman Resigns; Is Highly Critical Of McKinney

WASHINGTON.—The personal and political expenses of Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney are causing a lot of backstage comment in top Democratic circles this week. They've also caused the resignation of the Democratic budget officer, William S. Bradley.

Bradley resigned with a caustic confidential letter calling attention to McKinney's personal expenses, which include $750 to the Marian Service Co. of Miami, reportedly for handling his yacht; a total of $26,000 for his suite at the Mayflower Hotel plus other personal expenses between January 1 and April 7; and $2,175 paid to a photographer P.H. Ho of Indianapolis, McKinney's home town, for "pictures of chairman."

The most amazing of McKinney's political expenses is $40,000 which was dumped into Cook County, Ill., to try to cut down the vote for Sen. Estes Kefauver during the recent Illinois primary. Use of national committee funds against a Democratic candidate in a primary election is strictly against all the political rules, and as a result, non-partisan members of the Democratic National Committee are boiling mad.

All this came to the surface when Democratic Budget Officer Bradley submitted his resignation, with a stinging private letter blasting the manner in which McKinney was conducting Democratic finances.

Bradley also sent a letter to two top Democrats, Jonathan Daniels of Raleigh, N.C., and Molly O'Riordan of Boston, itemizing the chairman's extravaganzas. These included personal expense checks paid to McKinney for $3,000 each on Jan. 1, Feb. 2, and March 24, plus $1,720.75 on March 25, the latter credited as "expense acct.—Florida." This was in addition to the $750 to the Marian Service Co. of Miami, reportedly for handling the McKinney yacht.

McKinney's total for expenses up to March 25 was listed as $10,574.22. This, however, did not include his bills at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, which added another $15,911.65 and brought the total up to $26,000 for three months only. However, this also covers the expense of Judge Joseph Howard, assistant to McKinney, who shares the same apartment.

In fairness to McKinney, it should be noted that he has not received a salary from the committee. However, the $35,000 salary of his predecessor, Bill Boyle, cost the Democrats less than the $100,000 annual scale of living to which the new chairman so far has been accustomed.

Bradley, who has been budget and controls officer under three previous Democratic chairmen, also had some critical things to say about Jackson-Jefferson Day dinners. This column has been able to obtain a copy of his confidential letter, dated May 13, to Chairman McKinney. Salient portions follow:

Since January 1, and as of April 30, 1952, your office has exceeded its budget by the amount of $18,912.90. This has been occasioned by your employment of more "assistants to the chairman" than were provided for in the budget, and at a higher scale of salaries, and the extraordinary liberality of the expense allowances granted them." Bradley told McKinney.

"I do not know the source of the information on which you based your public statement that 'the 1952 dinner was the most successful ever held,' but the budget officer continued, 'but it was completely erroneous. The records of the comptroller's office could have provided the correct figures, had they been consulted. The 1950 dinner, held in the armory, under comparable cost conditions, produced the following result total receipts—$581,543.00. Total costs—$120,872.88. Net receipts—$460,670.12."

"A notable example of the need for the establishment of controls is the recently held Washington Jefferson-Jackson dinner. In spite of the fact that the total receipts for the dinner ($422,048.00—including pledges) were far below expectation, the committee could have saved approximately $50,000.00 by the application of reasonable controls over spending and waste.

"For example, we paid for 5,500 dinners, yet we received contributions, including pledges, covering only 4,320 dinners—in other words, we fed 1,170 free-loaders, at committee expense. Perhaps 200 of these tickets were given to the staff and official guests—but what happened to the other 970? I do not think your records will disclose the names of the persons who received these free tickets—and yet, each ticket had a potential value of $100.00. The proper control of such an operation is exceedingly simple—immensely important. Some two months before the dinner, I made this suggestion to Judge Howard, again during your absence. I quote his reply: 'Since Wash Williams is dinner chairman, suppose we let him run it.'

"Of the total receipts, only $360,221.00 was in cash. Out of this, we will pay approximately $129,000.00 in dinner and promotion costs, leaving only about $231,221.00 in available cash, for the present use of the committee. A few practical economies, applied in contracting the dinner, but unfortunately, no adequate controls were maintained. As a result, on the basis of the 4,320 dinners which we paid for, the cost was $25.10 per plate—while on the more accurate basis of the 4,720 contributors, the cost was $32.08 each. This estimate is predicated on full collection of all pledges. If we fall in this, the per-plate cost will be considerably higher.

"Of the $61,000.00 in pledges, accepted in lieu of cash, approximately $18,000.00 came from persons who still owe us for their 1951 dinner pledges—some of whom owe for years even previous to that. All of these matters were called to Judge Howard's attention in ample time to have taken effective measures, had you so desired."

Corruption Talk Has Faded Away As McGranery Comes Up For Confirmation

WASHINGTON (U)—That lively-eyed Irishman with the quick tongue and the aggressive chin, Judge James P. McGranery, should know today whether he gets the job of lifting the rocks to see what crawls out.

This Philadelphia lawyer, an old Truman neighbor of other days, was picked by the President at the beginning of April to be the new attorney general and chief cleanup man in the field of government wrongdoing.

But it's getting to be so late in the day that if McGranery is allowed to have the job—the Senate was supposed to vote on him today—he'll almost have to go around with a lantern looking for knaves.

The beginning of April was also the beginning of the end of the old attorney general, J. Howard McGrath, whom the President fired the very same day McGranery fired his own hand-picked cleanup man, Newbold Morris.

That series of events may very well have been the climax to the whole story of government corruption which had for a while been the most sensational news in the country.

The fact that other news since early April has pushed corruption into the background a bit is either a tribute to the march of events or to the astonishing ability of the Senate to talk and do nothing.

Some of the loudest clamors for investigation of corruption were in the Senate, which nevertheless hasn't got around to acting on McGranery until now, almost two months after his appointment. And, until the Senate made a decision on McGranery, the whole problem of investigating corruption came to a standstill.

Before the Senate could vote, its Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. McCarran, had to investigate him, a task it didn't find time to undertake until a couple of weeks ago.

Several witnesses expressed a very bleak view of McGranery, an attitude which at least two of the committee members shared, although a majority gave him their blessing.

Those two, both Republicans, Ferguson of Michigan and Watkins of Utah, blasted McGranery yesterday in a 45-page report in which they concluded he is "unfit for the high trust and responsibility of... attorney general."

Gone Are The Old Days Of Bawling Out The Help

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The art of bawling out the hired hands has become a lost art in the American business world.

In the old days when a boss saw something he didn't like, he'd let out a yelp and dress the culprit down on the spot—in burning language more memorable than grammatical.

But today most bosses seem to have lost the gift of tongue-lashing. They have found it cheaper, by and large, to hire a psychiatrist to find out what is the matter with a derelict employe than it is to bawl the fellow out themselves and end up explaining it all to the U.S. Supreme Court.

So many employes know their rights now that an employer is hesitant about pointing out their wrongs.

Therefore, it came as something of a surprise to me to get the following letter:

Dear Sir:

"I have a problem. My boss bawled me out last week, and I have a feeling he's going to bawl me out again this week.

"I would quit and get me another job except it's such a nice place to work.

"The management even puts gin in the office water cooler. What can I do?"

Signed A terrified Young Man

Well, dear Terrified, your problem was so unusual that I took it up with the oldtimers I know who can still remember being bawled out by their boss—there are only a few of them left. Here is one solution: When the summons comes to go see the boss, walk into his office with a look of utter happiness.

Get it? You make him think you have no idea of what is going to happen. He feels like a cat playing with a near-sighted mouse.

As he sees off on your misdeeds, don't make the mistake of listening to him. You already know more about what is wrong with your work than he does. Concentrate on your acting. Let the smile fade from your face. Replace it with a look of amazement, then horror, then abject hopelessness.

Don't make the mistake of arguing with him about your rights. He wouldn't bawl you out in the first place if he hadn't already consulted a couple of attorneys and the National Labor Relations Board.

And don't interrupt him. Egg him on. If he gets tired of denouncing the faults you have he knows

This shellacking may have on McGranery, if he gets the job, the effect of needing him into showing what a rambunctious investigator he really is.

And, of course, the shellacking may have no such effect at all. Long before he was a judge, McGranery was a politician, an occupation which operates like a tannery: It toughens the hide.

Still, no matter what he does or fails to do, McGranery as attorney general could hardly be a happy man since corruption will be an issue in the political campaign anyway.

about, tell him a few he hasn't discovered.

As he launches out into a fresh tirade, lift your hanging head and let him see the tears in your eyes.

Let the tears fall on his desk... ploop...ploop...ploop.

The main thing is to keep him attacking you as long as possible. Just remember that bosses are like wives—after they wear out their temper they feel ashamed of themselves.

When he finally runs down his vocal chords, reach up with one hand and brush away your tears. Reach out the other hand and grab his hand and say:

"Thanks, chief, thanks. I know I'll be a better man for this."

Then, as you go out the door, turn and look at the family photo he has on his desk and say:

"Gee, chief, you've got a fine-looking family. Why do you make me cry?"

This will bring out the father in him. After all, isn't the office just one big happy family, too? He will feel so guilty that next week he will probably quietly give you a raise.

In any case he won't bawl you out again. He will be too hoarse.

Harriman Taking Appeal To Labor

BOSTON (U)—The American Federation of Labor Executive Council will meet today with Averell Harriman, Democratic presidential candidate.

The object of the meeting was not disclosed but it was reported that Harriman will make a plea for support of his candidacy.

Last night the 13-man council said its chief objective in the next presidential election will be to "break the power of a congressional coalition which controls the law-making machinery."

Murder Charges In Fatal Fight

MCGREGOR, May 20 (U)—Henry N. Argabright, 60, was charged with murder here yesterday after Alfred N. Taylor, 49, died of gunshot wounds.

Argabright and Taylor exchanged shots and knife slashes here Saturday. The older man went to MeCluskey Veterans Hospital with five knife wounds.

Taylor was shot five times with a .38 caliber pistol. Constable Billy Wheat said the pair had been "having trouble" for some time.

Around The Rim—The Herald Staff

Man Should Have The Courage To Reveal Just How He Votes

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald.—Editor's Note.

"Why is there so much secrecy about voting," the 14-year-old daughter asked. "That," I replied, "is a good question and one certainly deserving an answer." And then I tried to explain.

There is much secrecy about voting for public officials because the voting is done by the secret ballot. That is basic.

The secret ballot is a device created by the cowardly in order that they might conceal their true stand on public questions and public men from their neighbors and friends. There hasn't been a fundamentally honest election since the secret ballot came into being. It has made bigger liars and frauds of more people than all the other evils ever conceived by the mind of man.

The man or woman who doesn't have the courage to stand up and openly declare his or her choice between candidates, right out in the open where all may hear, doesn't have the courage of his or her convictions, and doesn't have the courage that a true patriot should have. The secret ballot is the device that permits every man and woman, who so chooses, and apparently most of them do, to be to every candidate for city, county or state office who seeks their vote in the face of opposition.

The secret ballot is the device that permits Republicans to meddle in the internal affairs of the Democrats in Texas, and that permits Democrats to meddle in the internal affairs of the Republicans in Vermont. It is a fake, fraud and subterfuge.

One of the finest and most courageous men I ever knew was an elderly gentleman who posed as being almost blind on election day and directed the marking of his ballot in a voice loud enough to be heard by everybody around him. He didn't care who knew he was against them. He sincerely believed it was a man's duty to declare himself, and to do it openly and above board. And he had the respect of the community. Men admired his courage even though they couldn't commend his judgment or emulate the example he set for them.

The elimination of the secret ballot and a return to old-fashioned voice voting would go a long way toward clearing up that corruption that runs rampant in government at all levels the country over. Of course such voting would bring on some fist fights, maybe even some shooting scrapes, but it would give more citizens more respect for themselves as citizens, and it would have the effect of keeping a lot of otherwise hopeless candidates out of the field.

The fact that the secret ballot gives people a chance to lie to candidates, and to their fellowmen, may be a small thing within itself, but so is a small rotten spot on one apple in a barrel of sound ones. The thing spreads.

Every time a man lies, directly or by implication, to a candidate he loses a little of his self respect and integrity. This loss to politics lowers his whole moral structure and he degenerates to the point where he doesn't mind losing a little more of his integrity to other things. In one different thing after another he loses still more.

It used to be that a man's word was as good as his bond. And it also used to be that men voted openly where all might hear. Ever since the coming of the secret ballot a man's word has been valued at less and less. The secret ballot has filled hell in a voice loud enough to be heard by everybody around him. He didn't care who knew he was against them. He sincerely believed it was a man's

Kefauver Gains On Eisenhower In Latest Survey Of US Voters

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J.—If Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower were the G.O.P. presidential candidate, and Sen. Estes Kefauver the Democratic standard bearer, the majority of persons questioned by the Institute say that at present they would vote for Eisenhower.

But the General's lead is not as great today as it was in April.

When voters were asked at that time how they would vote if Ike and the Tennessee Senator were the opposing candidates, Ike finished 2-to-1 in the lead. Today he runs ahead by about 1½-to-1.

Here is the latest standing in the "trial heat" between the two men:

"Suppose Eisenhower is the Republican candidate and Kefauver the Democratic candidate, which party would you like to see win the presidential election—the Republican party or the Democratic party?"

IKE vs. KEFAUVER
Eisenhower ..... 56%
Kefauver ..... 36
Undecided ..... 8

In April the Institute found the following vote:

APRIL 20 REPORT
Eisenhower ..... 60%
Kefauver ..... 30
Undecided ..... 10

In March Eisenhower polled 57 per cent to Kefauver's 32 per cent.

Comparison with Taft

When the Institute in a similar survey asked voters how they would vote if Senator Taft were the G.O.P. nominee running against Kefauver, the Tennessee Senator ran in the lead.

The vote was:

TAFT vs. KEFAUVER
Kefauver ..... 49%
Taft ..... 41
Undecided ..... 10

In that survey Taft was found leading Kefauver in two sections of the country—the East Central and West Central states. Kefauver topped Taft in the remaining three—the East, the Far West and the South.

What Trial Heats Mean

Any type of trial heat such as reported above is subject to obvious qualifications.

It is a measure of popular reaction to candidates only at a given point in time and is therefore no forecast of what might happen in an election which is six months away.

The type of campaign waged by the opposing candidates, the stand they take on election issues, the relative appeal of the rival platforms and the strength of local tickets, as well as many other factors, may influence opinion.

Shells Play Part In Money Story

Before the end of the Stone Age in Europe, some tribesmen probably used money of a crude kind. Most American Indians were in the New Stone Age when they were found by whites, and many of them used shell beads (wampum) as money.

Natives of various Pacific islands have used crude money in the form of shells. In New Britain and New Guinea, you may find natives who own strings of shell disks which have passed as money of a sort. The old rule was that the red disks had more value than white disks. This was due to the fact that red shells were harder to find than white ones.

In western Africa, down the coast from the southern edge of the Sahara Desert, the natives often employ cowry shells as money. (The cowry is a shellfish found along the coast of Africa, and elsewhere.) Other tribesmen of Africa employ salt as money, and there are places where iron bars, or the iron heads of spears, serve as standards of value.

No one can say where metal money was used in the first place, but Egypt seems to have a good claim. In the Land of the Nile, metal rings passed as money thousands of years ago.

A metal ring differs from a coin, and the question comes about the place where coins were first made. Here again, there is some doubt, but credit usually is given to Lydia as the first country to mint gold or silver coins. Lydia was in Asia Minor, and its minting started about 2,700 years ago.

The Chinese also used coins long ago. It is possible that they were first to mint copper, bronze or brass coins.

The Persians, Greeks and Romans adopted coins in early times. The Greeks of Athens may have been first to place a human head on a coin. The coins of Athens often carried an image of the goddess Athena on one side and the outline of an owl on the other side.

Sterling Explorer Gets Gas, Martin, Dawson Ventures Test

Humble No. 1 Foster, a north-west Sterling County wildcat, recovered free gas but no shows of oil or water on a drillstem test in an unidentified sand Tuesday.

Operator was coming out of the hole with the test tool after a drillstem test on DeKalb No. 1 Knox in north central Martin County. Top of the Ellenburger yielded only drilling mud in a drillstem test of Standford No. 1 Bodine, northeast of Ackert, and operator prepared for a second test.

Humble No. 1 Blocker, west of Stanton, recovered a small amount of free oil and water in the upper Dean sand and prepared to wash with mud acid preparatory to further testing.

Phillips No. 1-C Schar, in Martin County, was perforating before testing in the Spraberry.

Howard Field in southwest-ern Sterling County got a half-mile north outpost location.

Phillips No. 1-A Dennis, C NW SE 62 Georgetown RR, drilled to 8,773 in shale and chert.

Sinclair No. 1 Roy Reeder, C SW SE 41-07, H&TC, a mile north of the Vickers pool, drilled to 5,760 in lime and shale.

Cities Service No. 14 Dupree, C NW SE 67-M, EL&RR, drilled to 8,021 in shale.

Standard No. 1-A Bodine, C SE

NW 43-33-4n, T&P, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Ackert, took a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger from 10,814-831 with the tool open two hours. Recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud with no shows. The hole now is bottomed at 10,939 and operator is taking another drillstem test. Top of the Ellenburger is 10,815, a datum minus of 7,998.

Sinclair No. 1 Scott, C SE SE 101-M, E&RR, 10 miles west of Lamesa, drilled to 6,730 in lime and shale.

Sinclair Oil & Gas No. 1 Clark, C SW SE 41-35-4, T&P, prospector northeast of the Driver area in southwest Glasscock, still swabbed load after fracturing open hole above 8,830.

Standard No. 1-A Snyder, C NW NW 20-30-1s, T&P, four miles southeast of Coahoma, progressed to 5,311 in chert.

Shell No. 1 Southland Royalty was below 5,990 in lime.

Argo No. 1 Brown, C NW NW 15-36-2n, T&P, 17 miles northwest of Stanton, resumed drilling and was at 10,721 in new hole. The formation was lower Pennsylvanian limestone and shale. This project, twice abandoned, is sure to go to the Ellenburger.

DeKalb No. 1 Knox, C NW NE 253 Ward CSL, took a drillstem test from 9,285-9,457. The tool was open two hours and there was a good blow throughout. Operator was now coming out of the hole with the test tool.

Humble No. 1 Blocker, C NW NW 10-37-1s, T&P, perforated from 8,700-8,780 in the upper Dean and swabbed out the load. Then operator swabbed two hours, recovering 4 1/2 barrels of fluid, of which 9 1/2 per cent was new oil and the remainder water. The perforations were washed over with 500 gallons of mud acid and operator is now swabbing to test.

Pan-American No. 3 Breedlove, C SE NE 258 Briacoe CSL, drilled to 12,000 in lime.

Pan-American No. 4 Breedlove, league 255 Briacoe CSL, progressed to 12,000 in shale.

Phillips No. 1-C Schar, section 324 LaSalle CSL, 19 miles northwest of Stanton, perforated the 7-in. casing from 5,933-8,987 preparatory to taking a test in the Spraberry.

Standard No. 1 Cowden, C SE SW 30, 40-1n, T&P, drilled to 8,620 in lime and shale.

Standard No. 1 Flynt, C SW SW 15-248 Hartley CSL, progressed to 4,499 in shale sand.

S. F. Hurlbutt No. 1 Ina Wallace, C NW NW 24-13, H&TC, was east 7,534 in chert and lime.

Magnolia No. 2-D Conrad, C SE SE 71-23, H&TC, drilled below 4,333 in lime and chert.

American Trading No. 1-A Howell was at 7,396, possibly in the Ellenburger.

Honolulu No. 4-A C. H. Sugg will be a half mile north outpost to the southwest Sterling County production in the Weddell Spraberry pool. It is 660 from the south and 1,954 from the east line of the most westerly west line of section 45-Wm. Dean Survey, on a 3,320-acre lease. It is projected to 5,200 with rotary.

Humble No. 1 Dayvault, C NE NE 13-15, H&TC, in southeast Sterling, decided to go on to 4,000 before shifting to bigger rig. Currently it is at 4,593 in lime.

Humble No. 1 W. L. Foster Jr., C NW NW 4-31-4s, T&P, only 2 1/2 miles east of the Glasscock County line in northwest Sterling County, took a drillstem test from 7,700-7,750. The formation is in a sand that may be in the lower Permian or the upper Pennsylvanian. Tool was open for one hour and 45 minutes. Recovery was 150 feet of slightly gas-cut mud and 5,600 feet of free gas in the drillpipe. There were no shows of oil or water. Operator is now drilling at 7,774 in sand and shale.

Parochial Oil No. 4 H. Bode, previously announced as an abandoned location, apparently relocated 990 from south and east lines of section 22-22, H&TC, 15 miles southwest of Sterling City. It is the Parochial Bade-Queens Sand area. The original location was 330 feet from the south and 990 from the east lines of the section.

Howard County political candidates will begin action Friday night on a schedule of community rallies which will continue until the first primary July 26.

The first engagement is scheduled for Friday night when Rebekah Lodge No. 284 will sponsor a rally, said Walker Bailey, who is in charge of the schedule.

Only two dates remain open, and these are expected to be filled within the next few days, Bailey said.

Rallies are being scheduled on Friday nights, except for Memorial Day (May 30) which will remain open, and for July 4, when the date will be switched to either Thursday or the following Monday. The July 4 week end and July 11 are still open.

The remainder of the schedule lists the following political rallies: Knox, June 6; Lomax, June 13; Forsan, June 20; Gay Hill, June 27; Midway, July 18; and Big Spring, July 25.

Diplomas Go To Sterling And Lamesa Grads

Only 69 employees of food handling firms in Big Spring had enrolled in the food handlers school being conducted daily at the Municipal Auditorium, when the second class was formed yesterday afternoon, according to Liga Fox, sanitarian.

Fox said this was a much smaller enrollment than had been anticipated since there are a great many employees of such places who do not have either temporary or semi-permanent licenses as food handlers.

This morning he was telephoning as many of the operators of such establishments as he has been able to reach urging them to have their employees enroll. He said the response to these calls has been good and that a larger attendance is expected at this afternoon's class.

As soon as the school is over Friday a drive will be made to institute prosecutions against employers who hire unlicensed handlers and against the handlers themselves, Fox said. Persons enrolling as late as this afternoon's class still have time to complete the course, he said.

Two sessions of the school are being held daily for the convenience of all employees.

Commencement exercises at Lamesa and Sterling City added impetus to the graduation parade in this area Monday evening.

One hundred and one students received diplomas at Lamesa where students did the speaking. There were 11 graduated from the Sterling City High School.

Eighth grade promotion exercises were held at Forsan Monday evening, and at Knott, Garden City, and Sterling City the eighth grade ceremonies were set for Tuesday evening.

At Lamesa, Nathan Boardman, president of the Senior class, gave the welcome. Jerry Brown, salutatorian (95.72) and president of the student council, spoke on "Service." Betty Campbell, valedictorian, (96.03) gave the featured address.

A male quartet from the graduating class, composed of Jerry Howell, Kenneth Flowers, Don Stevens, and Euel Ray Hill, sang "God of Our Fathers," and the high school A Cappella choir directed by James T. Loden, sang two selections. The band, directed by Charles Hoffman, played the "Light Cavalry" overture in additional and recessional music.

Abe Holder, high school principal, recommended the candidates for graduation and G. B. Waddeck, superintendent, made the acceptance. Ray Culp, assistant principal, announced the special awards. George Roswell, San Angelo and former superintendent of schools at Coahoma, was the speaker at Sterling City.

Among the ranking students of the class were Larry Glass, Patsy Davis, R. H. Radde and Ginger Lane. Besides these, members of the class are Joe Mullins, Garland Cates, William E. (Bill) Cole, Hollis Kennamer, Mary Davis, Charles Drennan, Carol Campbell.

Tuesday the senior class left on the traditional trip which this year will take it to Mexico. Accompanying the class, announced Supt. O. T. Jones, will be Bill Hood, class sponsor, and Mrs. Hood, Delbert Haralson, junior sponsor, and Mrs. Haralson, and the room mother, Mrs. David Glass.

Faith In Nation Essential, Coahoma Grads Are Told

Young people today must have faith in the United States of America, District Attorney Elton Gilliland told the Coahoma eighth grade class at commencement exercises Monday night.

The district attorney urged the students to prepare themselves to help maintain an America which deserves the faith of its citizens. One of the best ways to accomplish this, he reminded, is for young people to seek as much formal education as possible.

H. L. Miller presented diplomas to 44 students, the largest elementary school graduating class in the history of Coahoma's school system.

The class entered while Beverly Miller played the processional, and the Rev. Robert Hawkins, pastor of the Coahoma Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation. David Stoker was presented in a vocal solo, and another musical number featured the elementary school girls chorus. The class was introduced by W. A. Wilson.

Several high school honor awards were presented during the eighth grade commencement program. These included Joyce Hicks and Billy Joe Cramer, athletic awards; Bobby Read, citizenship; Virginia Gorrell, best all-around girl; Jimmy Knight, best all-around boy; Francene Walker, scholarship; Dorothy Faye Self and Clinton Wood, band awards.

Ralph White, president of the school board, pronounced the benediction.

Director Sought For Rent Office

Arch L. Propst, Dallas, is serving here as area rent director pending the selection of a permanent director.

He said some progress was being made in naming of a replacement for R. H. Weaver, who recently resigned the post.

Propst came here early in the year when the office was established originally after Big Spring and Howard County had been declared critical defense housing areas. When the office was manned, he returned to the area office in Dallas.

Rainmaker Film Will Show Here

The public is invited to attend a showing of color film picturing the rainmakers at work, at the Settles Hotel tomorrow morning at 10, according to Sam Allen of Lamesa, manager of the West Texas Weather Improvement District.

The film will also be shown to the agriculture students at the Howard County Junior College at 11 a.m. and to the Veterans Class at Knott at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. The picture was produced by the Corporation of Denver of which Dr. Irving P. Krick is president. The WTWID, including Howard County, has a precipitation contract with the WRPCD.

Broncs Rap Braves In Series Opener

Baez Achieves Third Victory

SWEETWATER, (AP)—The Big Spring Braves broke a 4-4 tie in the seventh inning, went on to defeat the Sweetwater Braves 11-4, in the opener of a three-game series here Monday night.

Bert Baez, Big Spring pitcher, started slowly but finished strong to rack up his third victory.

The Braves used two errors, a walk, and singles by Al Valdes and Rick Gonzalez to score three times in the seventh and go ahead to stay. They had led off with a run in the first inning, tied the score at 3-all in the fifth. Sweetwater had moved ahead, 3-1, in the third on a double by Tony Traspuesto, a walk to John Miller, a force out, and consecutive singles by Luis Suarez and Warren Siler, Suarez coming in on an error. Big Spring went ahead in the fifth on five walks and one single, and the Braves made it 4-4 when Suarez doubled and scored on Charley Buck's single in the same inning.

Big Spring added four in the eighth on a single by Buddy Grimes, a triple by Juan Vistuer, a walk to Ozzie Alvarez, a single by Valdes, a long fly by Baez, a walk to Gonzalez and a final single by Al Costa.

Sean Higgins, who relieved John Miller in the fifth, was charged with his first loss of the season for Sweetwater.

The meeting was the first of the season between the two teams and amounted to Big Spring's tenth victory of the 1952 season. It left them only half a game out of seventh place and left them within seven games of the top.

Gil Guerra probably will take the slab for Big Spring against Sweetwater tonight in the opener of a three-game set.

Karras Signs With Cards

Johnny Karras, seated left, fleet University of Illinois halfback, receives pen from Managing Director Walter Walforn as he signs to play with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League. Looking on are Harold "Red" Grange, left, former Illinois great, and Joe Kuharich, new Cardinal head coach. Karras, 24, shares the Illinois all-time season scoring record of 13 touchdowns with Red Grange and Buddy Young, now with the NFL's new Dallas entry, the Texans. (AP Wirephoto).

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Wondering about the fortunes of the Big Spring Braves? A veteran campaigner with the club says he figures the Steeds will gather their forces and finish 1-2-3 in the standings.

He thinks Havana will come through with some help. Too, he allows as how some of the rookies who are not carrying their share of the load will come around.

When he heard that Raul Sanchez (the ex-Bronc) was returned to Havana by Washington, he thought the local outlook looked that much better for the simple reason that the Cubans could now afford to send the Big Springers another front-line pitcher.

It would be nice to see Mike Fornieles put in here again, wouldn't it?

Remember Bob Spence, who's left-handed slants used to give Big Spring trouble back around 1949? He was with Sweetwater then. Spence is now with Borger of the WT-NM League, having been traded to the Gassers by Albuquerque.

Tony Iglesias, who finished the 1951 season with Big Spring in with Chickasha of the Sooner State League this year.

WHERE DOES THE EXTRA BITE ON TICKETS GO? There's something about small order football tickets I've never understood!

If you order $3.00 tickets by mail, you always enclose 25 cents extra for postage. It doesn't cost anywhere near 25 cents to mail tickets to any point in the country.

The extra charge is minor to the customer but the income mounts up, if it is multiplied thousands of times. Where does it all go?

The ex-major league outfielder who was supposed to put in here and didn't was Bobby Estelle, one-time Philadelphia Athletic. Estelle decided to stay out of baseball this year because he had ballooned up to 250 pounds. 'Too, his knees have gone bad.

Tommy Phillips, a 16-year-old Negro catcher living in Midland, is getting a tryout with the Dallas Eagles.

Chances are Phillips will wind up at Longview or some Dallas affiliate for seasoning.

In the past, the Longhorn League has had a few umpires who were too autocratic. They had neither the education, temperament nor background to handle the authority given them.

This year's crop seems to be different, though. They're hustling, bearing down on almost every play and generally blend into the surroundings, which is what an umpire should do. It makes for better baseball.

Record Field To Line Up In Open Play This Year

NEW YORK (AP)—It's getting harder and harder for a fellow to get a spot in the United States Open Golf Championship and this year only about one in 12 players who try for it will make the grade.

Entries closed yesterday and when Joe Dey of the United States Golf Association finished tabulating them, he mopped his brow and said:

"When I And we thought we had a big entry last year when we set a record high of 1,511. This time—allowing for a recount that may vary it about five in either direction—we have 1,700 entries."

So it's a new record high for the second year in a row for the annual tournament scheduled for the Northwood Club in Dallas on June 12-14 and where it will end no one knows.

For the ordinary guy, though, it's going to be tough. There are 162 places in the Championship, but 29 of them will be filled by the big boys who qualify automatically. That leaves 133 places for the lesser known hopefuls to shoot for.

Honolulu's qualifying round will be held on May 26, but the other 27 sectional tests will be on Monday, June 2. Dey said officials have to go over the lists of entries again before they decide how many places to allot each section. That probably will be announced next week.

Of the players who are exempt from qualifying are the former champions, the low 20 and ties in last year's tournament, the amateur champion and the PGA titleholder.

Ben Hogan is the defending champion in this one, Sam Snead the PGA winner and Billy Maxwell the amateur kingpin. Besides Hogan, the other 10 former champions are Gene Sarazen, Craig Wood, Lawson Little, Cary Middlecott, Chick Evans Jr. (an amateur), Olin Dutra, who resides in Mexico, Ralph Guldahl, Lloyd Mangrum, Tony Manero and Lou Worsham.

Crozier Gains Playoff Spot

One team already has qualified for the Texas Schoolboy Baseball Tournament at Austin June 2, 3 and 4, and seven others will do so this week.

Crozier Tech became the Dallas district representative Monday night by beating Adamson and Woodrow Wilson 5-4.

Amarillo and Austin (El Paso) are engaged in a bi-district series and are Laredo and Edinburg.

Starting Tuesday are these series: Abilene vs. Wichita Falls, Tyler vs. Sherman, South Park (Beaumont) vs. Bryan, Reagan (Houston) vs. Austin.

Starting Wednesday are Crozier Tech vs. Paschal (Fort Worth).

Waco already is in the state tournament. The Tigers beat Highland Park (Dallas) in a bi-district series wound up last week.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20 (AP)—Joe Hartedgen, 144, New Orleans, was awarded a split decision over Alfred LaGrutta, 142, Milan, Italy, in a ten-round bout at the Coliseum arena last night.

Delatorre Homer Wins For Tribe

By The Associated Press

Odessa made the most of only five hits Monday night in the Longhorn League to stretch its first place lead.

The Oilers were granted only five bingles by Lefty Lloyd Wallis of Vernon but Leo Eastham and Felix Castro blasted home runs to provide Odessa with a 7-4 triumph.

The win moved the Oilers two full games in front of San Angelo, idle with rain postponed its game with Roswell.

Big Spring smacked Sweetwater 11-4 and Midland bested Artesia 7-5 in the other games.

Benefited by six Vernon errors, Odessa was never behind after Castro knocked a grand slam home run in the second inning. Eastham broke up a 4-all tie in the fifth with a two-run homer.

Julio de la Torre decided the Midland win over Artesia with a two-run homer in the top of the ninth inning. Eddie Jacome won the pitching decision from Mike Rodriguez, both going all the way in a giving up 14 and 13 hits, respectively.

Layne Defeated By Matthews

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Harry (Kid) Matthews cleared his first major heavyweight hurdle here last night. Matthews, 183½, Seattle, looked impressive in punching out a 10-round decision over Rex Layne, 196½, Lewiston, Utah.

Layne was the first heavyweight of reputation that Matthews had met.

His manager, Jack Huxley, said after the fight he hoped to sign Matthews for a match sometime in July with Rocky Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., better who knocked out Joe Louis.

Howton To Pass Up Pro Game

HOUSTON, May 20 (AP)—Bill Howton, Rice's All-American end, and Sonny McCurry, his fellow wingman, have decided to pass up professional football for at least a year.

Howton already had signed a contract to play with the Green Bay Packers in the National Professional Football League, but decided that he would continue work on his degree at Rice next season, as well as continue coaching at Kinkaid School here.

McCurry will do the same thing. Go to Rice in the mornings, and then coach at Kinkaid in the afternoon.

Headmaster John H. Cooper at the Kinkaid private school made the announcement.

Garcia Stingy With Runs, AL Records Show

CLEVELAND (AP)—Opposing batters have been getting more safe hits off Mike Garcia than any other Cleveland Indian hurler, but Garcia has the best earned-run average in the major leagues.

The answer to that paradox is that the hits against Mike seldom are for extra bases and seldom pay off in runs.

The 28-year-old righthander has allowed 65 hits in 63 innings, but his earned-run average is an even one. He has five victories, two losses and six complete games in seven starts. In one of his losses the Tribe was shut out, 1-0.

Sunday, Garcia beat Philadelphia 6-0 for his fourth straight triumph and first shutout. It was a typical illustration of how Garcia yields hits, but not runs.

The Athletics tapped nine hits, but all were singles. They got only one base on balls, and they left 10 men stranded.

Garcia is the only one of the Tribe's big four who's not been tagged for a homer so far this season. Early Wynn's been belted for six, Bob Feller for five, and Bob Lemon for four. Five two-baggers make up the extra-base bloop total against Garcia.

The singles don't seem to bother the hulking, 290-pound fastballer. "Guess I hear don't just a little harder with men on base," he says.

Garcia relies mainly on his fast ball in the tough spots, and his control is good. In his last four victories, all complete games, he has given exactly three bases on balls—one each in three games, and none in his May 11 victory over St. Louis.

Mike says he tries "to work along with the batter's weakness, but in the tough spots I put it down the middle with all I've got."

All Texas Loop Contests Close

By CHARLEY ESKEW
The Associated Press

The Texas League is no place for the weak-hearted.

The loop Monday night added four more one-run decisions—of six games played—to a season that's already accounting for about a third of its decisions by single tallies. Of 152 games thus far, 48 were settled by the minimum difference.

Against Shreveport, Beaumont used a 3-2 victory in the first game and a 6-2 win in the nightcap to strengthen its hold on the league lead by two and a half games.

Manager Joe Schultz proved a little nervous as his team took two one-run losses at Dallas' hands, 1-0 in the seven-inning game and 6-5 in the finale. Schultz got riled at an umpire's decision and was banished from the park.

Fort Worth, winner of only three by one run, remained in second place although Oklahoma City slapped the 10th such defeat on the Cats 5-4.

San Antonio was issued nine walks and six errors by third place Houston and the Missions took advantage to the tune of 11-7. Lefty Jim Post relieved Starter Tommy Fine in the fifth and nabbed the victory. Jerry Witte, Houston first sacker, blasted his ninth home run in the ninth with two mates aboard.

Delatorre Homer Wins For Tribe

By The Associated Press

Odessa made the most of only five hits Monday night in the Longhorn League to stretch its first place lead.

The Oilers were granted only five bingles by Lefty Lloyd Wallis of Vernon but Leo Eastham and Felix Castro blasted home runs to provide Odessa with a 7-4 triumph.

The win moved the Oilers two full games in front of San Angelo, idle with rain postponed its game with Roswell.

Big Spring smacked Sweetwater 11-4 and Midland bested Artesia 7-5 in the other games.

Benefited by six Vernon errors, Odessa was never behind after Castro knocked a grand slam home run in the second inning. Eastham broke up a 4-all tie in the fifth with a two-run homer.

Julio de la Torre decided the Midland win over Artesia with a two-run homer in the top of the ninth inning. Eddie Jacome won the pitching decision from Mike Rodriguez, both going all the way in a giving up 14 and 13 hits, respectively.

Layne Defeated By Matthews

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Harry (Kid) Matthews cleared his first major heavyweight hurdle here last night. Matthews, 183½, Seattle, looked impressive in punching out a 10-round decision over Rex Layne, 196½, Lewiston, Utah.

Layne was the first heavyweight of reputation that Matthews had met.

His manager, Jack Huxley, said after the fight he hoped to sign Matthews for a match sometime in July with Rocky Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., better who knocked out Joe Louis.

Howton To Pass Up Pro Game

HOUSTON, May 20 (AP)—Bill Howton, Rice's All-American end, and Sonny McCurry, his fellow wingman, have decided to pass up professional football for at least a year.

Howton already had signed a contract to play with the Green Bay Packers in the National Professional Football League, but decided that he would continue work on his degree at Rice next season, as well as continue coaching at Kinkaid School here.

McCurry will do the same thing. Go to Rice in the mornings, and then coach at Kinkaid in the afternoon.

Headmaster John H. Cooper at the Kinkaid private school made the announcement.

BROWNFIELD THURSDAY

Dooley's Giants Oppose Hobbs Here Wednesday

Though the Broncs are out of town, there'll be baseball aplenty for local fans this week.

The powerful Big Spring Giants, a colored team which has already played three games and won as many, have rented Steer Park for games on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The Giants, managed by Harry Dooley, will play the Hobbs, N. M. Tigers on Wednesday and the Brownfield Red Sox Thursday. Both games start at 8:15 p.m.

Dooley, one-time regular with the Kansas City Monarchs, will play first base.

He's investing heavily in youth. Jimmy Lee Jolley, a star pitcher with the Giants, is only 19 and still in high school. Robert L. Brown, an outfielder and a student at H.C. JC, is 18. Alvin King, agile shortstop, is the only 16 and an Eighth Grader.

Other players with Dooley are Claude Tucker, 27, an outfielder and the cleanup hitter; Sandman Miller Guider, 23, second baseman; Allen Earl Gilbert, 18, a pitcher; Oscar Hill Jr., outfielder; Wallace Ringo, outfielder; Sarge Edwards, pitcher; and Clarence Polard, pitcher.

The Giants defeated Sweetwater, 26-2, Colorado City, 14-8, and Snyder, 14-7, in their early games. Jolley pitched one of the games, Polard the other two.

Admission prices for the game have been set at 75 and 40 cents. There'll be a special section reserved for the white customers.

Can The Barber Be Beaten? Bucs Awed

ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The seven National League rivals of the New York Giants were wondering today if Sal (The Barber) Maglie is ever going to be beaten. And you can't blame the Pittsburgh Pirates if they shake their heads in an emphatic negative manner.

The 35-year-old righthander from Niagara Falls, N.Y., hasn't been beaten this year. He's racked up seven victories to run his undefeated string over a two-year span to 10. He has met and whipped all except the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs.

In 62 innings on the mound, he has allowed only seven earned runs for the enviable average of 1.00.

The Pirates have a special respect for Maglie because he is unbeatable. When he blanked them 4-0 on seven hits yesterday in one of the three games played in the majors it marked the 13th straight time the curve-ball ace has turned back the cellar-dwelling Bucs.

Third baseman Bobby Thomson supplied the batting power for Maglie's second shutout of the season. It put the Giants back in a tie for first place with the Dodgers, who played a 1-1 tie with the Cubs in a game called by rain

Navarro Wins Three State Athletic Championships

CORSICANA, May 20 (AP)—Four championships in one year is the record of Navarro College in the Texas Junior College Conference.

The Bulldogs last week won the baseball crown by beating Amarillo to wind up the most successful athletic year in their history.

Previously Navarro had won the football, track and golf championships. Only the basketball and tennis titles eluded the Bulldogs.

A. Lee Smith and Ralph Hollywood, in their first year as Navarro coaches, and R. L. Arnold Jr., golf coach, admit they couldn't have had things much better.

"We were lucky, and we had some good boys," says Smith, who is an Austin College graduate and who came to Navarro from Hillsboro Junior College. At Navarro he is head football coach and track coach.

Hollywood also gives the credit to the boys. He is line coach in football, and head coach in baseball and basketball. He coached last year at Belton High School.

After Hollywood's team had clubbed Amarillo J.C., 16-0 to take the baseball title, the boys bought a box of cigars on the way home and broke training. They gave Hollywood, who doesn't smoke, a cigar. It was loaded. It exploded.

In football, Navarro won seven, lost three. All losses were non-conference games.

Navarro took only nine competitors to the conference track and field meet in Denton, April 24. The Bulldogs, competing against 11 junior colleges, collected 25 points for first place.

In golf, Navarro competitors took both team and individual titles. Johnny Garner won the individual title, and he teamed with Wayne Warrington to take the team title. Both are Corsicana boys.

In winning the baseball title in a playoff with Amarillo J. C., the West Zone titlist, Navarro broke a 13-game winning streak compiled by the West Texans. Hubert Boales, Navarro's right-hander from Florence, hurled a two-hitter and rap-

JUST LIKE LITTLE PIGS

Potato Shortage Makes Hot Issue

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—This year's potato shortage seems to be providing just about as heated a debate on the federal farm program as did the government project of killing little pigs to raise pork prices in the early 1930s.

Officials say there's considerable criticism of ceilings on potato prices and a lack of price supports.

The pig-killing program raised such a furor that, every time meat has become scarce since then, the Agriculture Department has been flooded with an avalanche of mail harkening back to those days.
