"Stones And Pits" Are Collected as One of Ways to Help Win War.

A few peach stones may save a soldier's life. This is the theory upon which members of the Junior Red Cross are working here in making collections of many varieties of stones and pits from which carbon is later to be extracted to protect American Soldiers from German gas. The following statement has been made by the local chapter of the Red Cross: The following information and advice is being acted upon by the people of Amarillo. The Junior Red Cross is receiving "stones and pits" at every school building and in several of the business houses. "A few peach stones may save a soldier's life." Leave yours at the schools or at the stores downtown: Peach stones, prune pits, plum pits, apricot pits, olive pits, cherry pits, date seeds, Brazil nut shells, walnut shells, butternut shells. These are collected for the army at the request of the United States food administration. These stones and pits should be thoroughly dried in an oven or in the sun before turning them in. These materials are urgently needed to make carbon which is to protect our men overseas from German poison gas.—Amarillo Daily.

Red Cross to Handle Christmas Gifts for Men Abroad

Christmas packages for two and a half million or more American soldiers who will be in France during the holiday season this year, will be delivered under an arrangement with the Red Cross, announced today by the war department. In order to control the flood of gifts that otherwise would make the handling of them impracticable, the department has decided that only one parcel will be accepted for each man. General Pershing is forwarding coupons bearing the name and address of each member of the expeditionary force, to be distributed to the next of kin. These coupons must be attached to standard containers, nine by four by three inches in size, which will be provided by local Red Cross chapters upon application. All packages must be mailed before Nov. 15.

W. H. Barnes

W. H. Barnes, age seventy one, died Wednesday, September 18 at 2 o'clock p. m. Mr. Barnes has lived in and around McLean for about fifteen years and was well known to everyone. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. He had been in a hospital in Chicago for some time, and until two or three days before his death was thought to be improving. The News extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Sitter-Watkins

Evan Sitter and Miss Leona Watkins were married at Sayer, Okla., Sunday, by the pastor of the Methodist church. Both of these young people have lived near McLean for a good many years, and have a host of friends. The News joins in wishing for them a long and happy life.

Robert Jones of Alanreed was in our city Tuesday.

Bond Buyers' Roll of Honor

THE NEWS WILL PRINT NAMES OF ALL PURCHASERS IN McLEAN. The News expects that Liberty bonds will be sold in every home in McLean. Uncle Sam has apportioned to us the neat little sum of _____, and we are going to buy that much and more. Every person who buys all the bonds he or she can is doing a real "bit" toward defeating the kaiser, and entitled to the credit of doing it. Their names should have a place on the McLean roll of honor, and the News proposes to put them there. While we are confident every home in this community will be represented by at least one name in this roll of honor, we are in hopes that for very many of the homes the name of each member of the family will be included in the list. We should like to see this roll of honor contain the names of every man and woman, every boy and girl in McLean. This roll of honor will be printed in the News, and the only way to get on it is to buy at least one bond. We do not propose to print the amount of bonds you buy, because that would be unfair to those who can buy only a small amount, and the person who can only afford to and does buy one $50 bond is entitled to just as much credit as the person who can afford to and does buy a much larger amount. The name of every real, 100 per cent American—and the News believes all the people of McLean are that—will be found in this McLean roll of honor buyers. Beginning with the first issue after the sale of bonds opens the News will begin printing the names of purchasers, giving in that edition all names that have been reported to the sales director up to the day before the paper is issued. Each following issue will contain additional names of purchasers, and this will continue up to the time the sale closes and the names of all purchasers have been printed. If you buy a bond and do not find your names in the issue of the News following its purchase be sure to report it to this office at once as it would not be fair to our town to have the name of a single bond purchaser omitted. After the close of the sale we will print the complete lists of one or more sheets in a form to be preserved and prized in every home in this community. Copies of these sheets should be sent to your friends and relatives, and especially to former townspeople as they will greatly appreciate them. Leave orders for the number of these you may want at the News office before the sale closes. We are told by those who are familiar with farming in France and England that girls and women are taking their brother's and husband's places in the fields. We do not believe these girls and women are more patriotic than our women and girls.—Exchange.

Ever Hear of Sing Khai Foo?

He was a Chinese money lender. Made loans to his customers and then had them ambushed on the way home by hired murderers who killed them and returned the money to Old Sing Khai Foo.

Whenever Sing Khai Foo made a loan he required the borrower to cover the loan with a mortgage on all of his property. This way he not only got his money back, but all the property of his victim as well.

Not all the Sing Khai Foes are in China. Some of them are in America—right here in Texas. They are the people who buy a few War Savings Stamps, lend a little money to the Government, and then stab it in the back by purchasing non-essentials and luxuries.

Before you spend, ask yourself this question: "Can my Government afford for me to spend this?" Don't stab America in the back. Buy U. S. War Savings Stamps. Help your country. Help yourself.

Girls' Work on Farms

Girls anxious to do their part in helping win the war, as many of them are, need not look beyond the farm for a place to serve their country. Farm work is as important as any and more important than most other work in winning the war. Food our soldier boys must have, so must others in necessary war work.

Farm work under progressive farming methods is no harder than other work girls are doing. In fact, we believe it is easier and as remunerative as the work many girls are doing in factories and in offices. Where improved implements and machines are used girls may do farm work satisfactory to themselves and to their country.

It now seems that if the farm is deprived of much more help—as seems it must be—girls will find an excellent opportunity, operating tractors, riding cultivators, managing mowers, binders, hay presses, etc.—Farm & Ranch.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is now on us.

Our Great Government is calling on us for a loan of several Billion Dollars to help finance the war.

The Government is not asking you to give this, it is asking you to loan it what you can.

Now how much are you interested in winning this war? The amount you subscribe will help that much though it be small.

If you are able to subscribe we are expecting you to do so. The Government is calling on the Council of Defence to help and do its whole duty. We hope you will weigh well this proposition and loan to your Government every dollar you can spare.

There is a true saying like this:

You will not be judged by the tears you shed over the lists of the dead or injured that may come to us from time to time. Your Dollars will tell how much you are interested. You need not tell us of your PATRIOTISM

PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Again the Government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes this appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first-until now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our Government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

If the house next door was burning, with your friends inside, would you stand idly by and watch it? All Europe is aflame! Your friends, your brothers, your sons are there, fighting the conflagration.

Your neighbors, in the larger sense of the word, are fighting for their homes, their wives, their children and their children's children.

Your help is needed—needed now! Can you withhold it?

Letter From W. A. Erwin

Dearest Folks:

Have been working so hard have hardly had time to write.

This push is keeping us on the run. But since I'm arranging for the funeral of my bunkie this afternoon, and was shot down twice yesterday myself, and it is raining today so I've been ordered to repose until tomorrow.

Lts. Wold and Wooten were shot down by five Boches. Those on the ground who saw the fight said they put up a wonderful fight. Shot my pal Wold, the pilot, through the arms in two places and through both hands and body. By clever maneuvering and fighting he got away, but had to steer the plane with his knees. Then about 100 meters from the ground he evidently fainted from the pain, because the machine crashed with both of them.

Your prayers were certainly around me yesterday. Early at 4 o'clock I went over the lines. Was "archied" considerably but none hit near enough to worry.

Then again at 7:15 again went over with 3 spads. We met about 7 Boches and later 4 more joined the fight. Had a good fight. One of our machines fell and three of the Boches. My guns jammed with a Boche on my tail and one on either side I dived—my machine was hit but I wasn't hit. Again went out at 11 p. m. to get some photographs of the lines, with another observer and two spads, about 5 kilometers into Germany we ran into 10 Fokkers, part of the old Eichtofen circus. One of the spads was hit and dived out of the fight immediately. My plane being a two seater and loaded with camera, etc. was to slow to get away, so I had to fight them. The first one came head on into me. Both of us firing until he pulled up. I got him. He wobbled a minute, then left the fight in a straight nose dive 12,000 ft. I don't suppose there was enough of him left to bury. Then they were all around me, was humanly impossible to do anything with ten of them, so I'd fight a while and maneuver then dive for our lines, then straighten out and fight some more because they were on my tail and if I'd continued the dive long would have finally got a shot home. Am sending you report of my plane sergeant so you can see how narrow the escape was. Finally I saw I had no chance unless to fool them, so I went over on my back and then into a spindling nose dive. They shot away my rudder control and hit my observer while doing this but it fooled them. They tho't they had me so did not follow me down. When about 1000 ft. up I straightened out and managed to regain our lines without my rudder, took my observer to the hospital and found he was only slightly wounded and will be out in two or three days. A bullet grazed my helmet, clipped a piece of leather off over left ear. Otherwise we had a very peaceful trip. My squadron was hit hard yesterday. We lost five during the day. The Hun are making a desperate attempt to regain mastery of the air in our sector, without it they are blind, so they've brought up scores of new squadrons and we are greatly outnumbered for the time being. Can't go out without running into a flock of them.

I certainly hope the high command sends us some replacements and new squadrons quick because it is very costly attempting to maintain our supremacy against overwhelming odds, in fact it is humanly impossible.

We are pushing on in our sector, the American troops continue their offensive spirit. The morale is wonderful, that's the only way we are able to beat the Hun in the air, and two of us get away with 10 of them on us. We've got them on the jump, but the war is a long way from won. Our losses will be great yet. No one who sees the actual conditions has an idea that Germany is about "tucked out" not so, she is still on the job and able to put up a hell of a scrap, and will do so, but train everything and everybody on them for they must be crushed. It's the task of this generation. You can't imagine this war, it's not in your power. Only to see it, feel it and go through it, can you know anything of the horror of it. There is no glory in it. The glory is in the souls of the men who are making the sacrifice, and they don't need to live long. Any man who dies over here on his duty has lived a useful life and done a great life's work. I can't regret a thing. If it is my turn I'll be proud to have that opportunity and while you may not be glad, still you can rejoice that when I was weighed I was not found wanting. The man who has passed through these months and weeks and years over here, Hell will have no terrors for. Hope they don't go there but it would be like being on repose compared to this d--- place.

Hope you can read the sergeants report. It may be interesting to show your friends.

Have been at the front now not quite a month (that is over the line, have been up here for some time) and have been recommended for decoration three times. I am going to get the Croix de Guerre with the palm for the Liason I conducted last week when my observer was killed in the same plane with me.

With gobs of love,
(sgt.) Bill Erwin.

Pilot Lt. Erwin; Observer Lt. Spencer. Light lower wing; 1 bullet hole through front strut at end of wing. 1 hole through spar near end and 1 through spar about center of wing which nearly tore spar completely in two.
2 Lower wing left: 1 hole through fuselage, 1 hole through lower aileron.
3 Fuselage 4 holes through body; one of which went through the observer's seat tearing his flying suit and the other on rudder control and another on server's safety belt.

4 Right upper wing. 1 hole near fuselage; 2 holes in center section above gasoline tank. Sgt. W. N. Buchard, in charge 2nd flight.

Miss Kate Wilson left last Saturday for El Paso where she expects to spend the winter.
