Brits Smash Nazi Counterattacks

Hitler Breaks Silence, Declaring Hope Of Victory Is In National Fanaticism

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—Long-silent Adolf Hitler, speaking at the funeral of Gen. Eduard Dietl, Nazi commander in Finland who was killed in a plane crash, said "in the fifth year of the war we often find ourselves confronted with difficult situations" but expressed belief "national fanaticism" would bring victory.

The speech, made at an unspecified time and place, was distributed tonight to the German press and broadcast by DNB.

Hitler's last previous address was Jan. 30 and broadcast on the 11th anniversary of his rise to power.

"In this fifth year of the war," Hitler said, "we often find ourselves confronted with difficult situations, yet none of these bears comparison with the Narvik expedition with which I entrusted General Dietl because I believed he was the man to persevere to the end with what was a seemingly hopeless enterprise."

At Narvik, Hitler said, Dietl performed a "miracle of military ability and human personality" to beat a "far superior enemy."

Lauding General Dietl's Nazi zeal in handling soldiers, Hitler added "may all German officers and general learn to be equally hard yet kindly, equally ruthless in their demands yet understanding toward troops. May they learn to radiate confidence in times of crisis so as to carry men with them."

"For how could a struggle which has behind it all the fanaticism of a nation and otherwise than in victory, quite irrespective of what the situation may be at the moment?"

Hitler described Dietl as "this true and dear friend who for me was a prop—a prop above all in the German officer corps."

Japan Launches New Drive From Canton Area

Campaign Started As Offset To Month Of Damaging Reverses

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Beaten on all fronts outside of China throughout the costly month of June, Japan has launched a new drive from Canton designed to complete the conquest of 2,000 miles of railway linking her East Asia garrisons.

The campaign started near the close of the most disastrous month of the war for Japan's air force—at least 1,638 planes destroyed and 50 probably lost against 180 United States planes lost.

Nipponese columns pushed up from Canton along the winding mountain railway to join other forces, 250 miles away, pressing toward the coast from flaming Hengyang.

OFFICER BATTLES WITH CONVICT—A policeman fires at a wall tower in which a convict identified as Salvatore Appitito was trapped during an escape attempt at the Maryland penitentiary June 30. The convict later killed himself with a shotgun with which he had held guards and officers at bay. The officer, photographed during the battle, already has put several holes through the tower window. American Troops Clean Up Tip Of Cherbourg Area

By GLADWIN HILL
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Sunday, July 2 (AP)—Britain's Second army knocked out 25 German tanks and hurled back a dozen enemy counterattacks southwest of Caen yesterday, while American troops cleaning up the northwestern tip of the Cherbourg peninsula captured 2,000 Germans — boosting axis dead and prisoners on the American front alone to nearly 50,000 men.

Both the Allies and the Germans were rushing men and material into the line arching on three sides of Caen for impending critical tank battles on the 120-mile invasion route to Paris, and Marshal Erwin Rommel himself was reported to have arrived at the Caen front.

Headquarters communique No. 52, issued at 11:30 p. m., said: "No further gains have been made in the strong Allied bridgehead across the Odon river" southwest of Caen.

A local enemy movement in the vicinity of Esquay, two miles southwest of Caen, was noted by headquarters which also said that enemy infiltration attempts from the east "were unsuccessful."

Front dispatches said the Germans also hit the west flank of the Allied bridgehead a dozen times during the day "with no success at all." These jobs were beaten off in the Cheux, Grainville-Sur-Odon and Cheux areas, which are from three to four miles northwest of Esquay and on the north side of the Odon.

The destruction of 25 more Nazi tanks made a total of 167 demolished by the British since D-Day and a total of 347 destroyed or disabled.

All organized German resistance on Cap De La Hague, northwest of Cherbourg, collapsed yesterday, said a late dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Hal Boyle, who reported American troops in the area had captured 5,000 Germans in 42 hours, including their commanders, Lt. Col. Mueller and Lt. Col. Kiehl.

A dispatch from American headquarters said the Americans had buried 4,212 Germans and captured more than 42,000 for a total of at least 64,212 in the overall Cherbourg peninsula operation.

Field reports from the British sector told of German troops going into battle straight from the march. One German officer drove furiously all the way from Paris to help direct German counterattacks. "He drove straight into our lines and was captured," a British officer added.

With Marshal Erwin Rommel taking over personal command in the field after the death of Col. Gen. Friedrich Dollman, the Germans attacked both flanks of the British Odon river bridgehead on a 15-mile front between Caen and Villers-Bocage, enemy communication hub which the RAF's big bombers flattened Friday night with a 1,120-ton raid.

(A DNB broadcast said Allied landings were "being effected" behind a thick smokescreen east of the Orne estuary on the coast north of Caen, and that 300 ships were involved, including several battleships fighting a duel with Nazi coastal batteries. There was no Allied confirmation.)

The majority of Big Spring offices and stores will remain open Monday, while several firms have announced that employees will be allowed a holiday Monday and Tuesday in observance of July 4th.

City and county offices, the postoffice and other businesses will remain open. Corden office employees will take Monday off and will work Tuesday, while several drug stores and beauty shops will observe both days.

Eerie Blitz—BRITONS ASK FOR ROBOT DETAILS

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—The nazis have maintained their ceaseless, eerie blitz on southern England for 16 straight nights, hurling winged destruction across the channel, and in the face of rumors and anxiety in this country today—especially in the regions thus far out of the range of the flying bombs—the government may unfold more of the story of these attacks.

As the Germans continued trying to counter their battle reverses with the blind bombardment, pressure developed in parliament for a franker official reporting on the weapon.

Prime Minister Churchill watched intently for more than six hours yesterday the fight against the weird, explosive-laden projectiles. He may make a brief statement to common Tuesday. But indications were that he would not disclose much.

From the Germans themselves came more detailed descriptions of the venal weapon. The Berlin radio described them as having a "rocket-propelled gear," giving a speed of 375 miles per hour. The broadcast said each robot was loaded with 2,260 pounds of explosive, that its range was fixed before firing, and that it was launched from underground emplacements.

Surrendering Germans Clog Soviet Advance

The German White Russian anchor of Minsk was doomed last (Sat.) night as troops entrusted with defenses before the city surrendered in such road-clogging numbers that they impeded the advance of Red armies bearing down from the north, east and south.

Tattered, demoralized enemy remnants staggered back into Minsk and not even the lash of the Gestapo or Hitler elite troops was expected to make them put up a struggle for the fortress city standing on the road to Warsaw and Berlin—now 600 miles away.

The Russians presented Hitler crushing through his strongest fortifications along a 250-mile sector and killed or captured at least 196,000 troops.

These, with possible loss of 100,000 more in Normandy, and an equal number in Italy wiped out most of his reserves of from 30 to 40 divisions and now forces his commanders to borrow from one front to meet the threats to another.

Minsk was outflanked on the north, Borisov, 46 miles north-west, fell to the Russians, and the Red army was streaming across the Berezina river east of Minsk on a 70-mile front.

The Germans threw in 15 violent counter-attacks in defense of Polotsk, at the northern end of the front, but Russian forces already had crossed into old Poland and the city was outflanked. The Red army in the south cut into the heart of the Pripyat marshes, brushing aside attacks launched by fresh German reserves.

Germans Fall Back In Italy

ROME, July 1 (AP)—The German lines fell back tonight all along the 185-mile Italian front under blows of the Fifth and Eighth army marching on the prize cities of Livorno (Leghorn), Florence and Ancona.

The Fifth army beat back a tank-led counterattack and fought into the outskirts of Cecina, on the Tyrrhenian sea coast only 20 miles below Livorno.

The French of the Fifth army fought a mile through the mountains to within six miles of Siena, a highway center 31 miles below Florence. British, South African and Indian troops in the center moved up both the east and west shores of Lake Trasimeno against sporadic resistance.

The Eighth on the east crossed the Chienti river—a barrier which had blocked its advance for several days—and the Germans fell back toward a line along the Musone river, 10 miles from the Adriatic port of Ancona.

DANISH PATRIOTS FLY ALLIED FLAGS AND VOW FIGHT TO DEATH

By ROBERT N. STURDEVANT
STOCKHOLM, July 1 (AP)—Allied flags flew tonight from barricades in the streets of Copenhagen, where 15,000 Danish patriots, brandishing machine-guns and rifles, were reported ready to fight to the finish against a German garrison of 3,000 being bolstered hourly by other troops rushing in from Zealand.

After a night of street fighting, during which one unconfirmed report said German planes machine-gunned the demonstrators, the patriots broke out United States, British, Russian and Danish flags and hung them defiantly above their impoverished "fortresses."

The Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet quoted a report from the underground that the demonstrators—who began a general strike yesterday—now were 15,000 strong. The general strike was described by the free Danes as 100 per cent effective, and as a result food supplies shrank, water and electricity were cut off, and all transportation was at a standstill.

Unconfirmed reports said more than 700 persons had been killed or wounded, while the free Danish press service reported that violent street fighting had sent 400 persons to hospitals.

The Germans closed the harbor of Copenhagen today, the press service said, and the last ferry departed for Sweden at noon.

With Denmark almost completely cut off, it was difficult to obtain a clear picture, and most of the reports came from the underground or from the few refugees who managed to get to Sweden.

A report circulating in Malmo said the Germans had threatened to shoot hostages and bomb the capital unless the Danes called off the strike.

Rush Boosts Car Use Stamp Sale To 3,600

The rush to purchase federal tax use stamps for motor vehicles continued Saturday at Big Spring postoffice, the total reaching 3,600 when the postoffice closed.

It was estimated numerous car owners still were without the stamps. Requirement that the 1944 stamps be on all motor vehicles in use went into effect Saturday.

Sale of the stamps will continue through July at the postoffice. After July, application must be made to the internal revenue department.

Over-All Bond Quota Exceeded, But County Short Of It's E Goal

Saturday marked the day that Howard county went over the top in its Fifth War Loan drive and accomplished its goal of $1,590,000. But no premature celebration was planned, for still lacking in the drive is $154,146 in E bonds.

Congratulations came over the weekend from C. R. Hendricks, regional manager, R. E. Harding and J. B. Thomas, co-chairmen of the War Finance Committee and Nathan Adams, state chairman of the War Finance Committee. These men sent praise for making the over-all quota but pointed out that "we wish to convey to all your committee our best wishes and deep appreciation . . . but call attention to the importance of the series 'E' quota . . . we know that the good citizens of your county will keep up the good work and also go over the top on your series 'E' quota."

FDR Calls For Sound Economy

BRETTON WOODS, N. M., July 1 (AP)—Calling for "a dynamic and a soundly expanding world economy," President Roosevelt sent a message of confidence and hope to the opening session of the United Nations monetary and financial conference today.

Delegates from 44 nations, joined by an observer from a 45th, Denmark, heard Mr. Roosevelt's greetings as they assembled in the mountain-encircled Mount Washington house for three weeks of discussions out of which may grow new mammoth international financial institutions.

They immediately and unanimously named Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, head of the American delegation, as conference president and heard him predict their decisions "will shape to a significant degree the nature of the world in which we are to monetary fund designed to stabilize."

The party will consider proposals for an $5,000,000,000 line world currencies and a $10,000,000,000 bank for reconstruction and development. Emphasizing that their discussions will affect "ordinary men and women everywhere," Mr. Roosevelt said that only through a dynamic and expanding world economy can the living standards of individual nations be advanced to levels which will permit a full realization of our hopes for the future.

Morgenthau pleaded with the delegates to conduct their talks "not as bargainers but as partners; not as rivals but men who recognize that their common welfare depends, on peace as in war, upon mutual trust and joint endeavor."

WOMEN ROPERS

PECOS, July 1 (AP)—Women are competing for the first time in the 1944 renewal of the Pecos rodeo which open 4 here tonight.

Fern Sawyer, Crossroads, N. M., and Margaret Montgomery, Ozona, Tex., were among the sixty-one roping teams entering the tying contest.

TRAINS COLLIDE

HOUSTON, July 1 (AP)—Two Missouri-Pacific trains, one a local and the other an extra loaded with gravel, collided head-on south of Bay City near Lotts about 5:50 p. m. today, derailing three cars loaded with ballast. Two men, the engineer on the local and the brakeman on the ballast train, were injured.

Big Crowd Due For Program

Congressman George Mahon will deliver a patriotic message Tuesday evening, July 4th, at 8:30 o'clock at the amphitheatre to open the county-wide program to be held in the city park.

The program, the only entertainment planned for the day, is expected to draw a large crowd of Howard county citizens since gas and tire rationing is expected to keep people home for the traditional holiday.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

Joe Pickle

Efforts by internal revenue agents to enforce the automobile stamp will meet with a majority response. More than 3,600 drivers paid out the required $5, leaving at least 1,500 who haven't lined up the log. Doubtless the 3,600 believe that misery loves company.

Allied Bombers Blast At Robot Installations

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Sunday, July 2 (AP)—Two separate forces of Allied heavy bombers, one British and one American, attacked German robot bomb installations across the channel in northern France shortly before dusk yesterday, beginning a new month of operations after they and other planes had flown more than 100,000 sorties in June.

The American formation was composed of less than 250 Liberators, and escorting fighters shot down eight Nazi fighters, sprayed 29 barges, three locomotives, nine railway cars, three anti-aircraft cars and five trucks with machine-gun bullets.

The bombing of the concrete chutes from which the Germans are hurling their rocket bombs at Britain was done by instrument because of a heavy cloud cover. Bad weather earlier in the day had cut air activity to one of the lowest points since D-Day, June 6.

The only other operations during the day were 300 sorties by scattered units of the RAF based in Normandy. Spitfires swept under low clouds and raked enemy transport in the vicinity of Conde, Harcourt, Argentin, and Falaise, while Typhoons were called in by the army to attack stubborn gun and mortar positions near Carpiquet, three miles west of Caen.

Two RAF planes were lost in this operation, making announced Allied losses for the day four fighters and two bombers against 10 German aircraft downed.

Jackson Named Demo Chairman

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Senator Samuel D. Jackson of Indiana was picked today to serve as permanent chairman of the democratic national convention opening in Chicago July 19 to select President Roosevelt for another nomination if he wants it.

This choice was announced as Robert E. Hannegan, chairman of the democratic national committee, entrusted for Chicago to complete plans for the convention, which will be held in Chicago Stadium.

Jackson—an appointee to the senate now running for governor of Indiana—was nominated by the permanent chairman by the committee of the national committee. The full committee is expected to approve the election at a meeting in Chicago July 17.

Attending a news conference at which his selection was announced, Jackson was pressed as to whether convention leaders had any word regarding Mr. Roosevelt's intentions with regard to a fourth term.

"I presume President Roosevelt will be our nominee," he said. "As far as I know, it still is in his lap. He has indicated to no one, as far as I know, whether he will be a candidate."

The selection of Senator Jackson as permanent chairman gives to the mid-west—one of the major battlegrounds of the campaign—the two top convention spots. Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma has been named keynote of the convention.

Democratic chiefists hope to match the republican convention in brevity. Jackson said plans are being made to wind it up in three days.

Rogers And Milland Star In Ritz Movie "Lady In The Dark"

Although Hollywood casting directors, wardrobe departments and property shops are used to almost any kind of request by now, a memo from Mitchell Leisen, director of Paramount's spectacular Technicolor romance, "Lady in the Dark," threw all three departments at that studio into tall-tails. The picture, starring Ginger Rogers, Ray Milland, Warner Baxter and Jon Hall, opens Sunday at the Ritz Theatre.

Exactly quoted, Leisen's memo read: "For the circus dream sequence of Lady in the Dark please supply:

1. A strong man carrying a pyramid of fashion dummies in spangled lights.
 2. A fat woman who is being massaged on a folding table, by a masseur. As the massage progresses, she becomes gradually deflated.
 3. Four stilt walkers dressed in comic versions of the fashion models' clothes in main story. Also a midget dressed as a French poodle.
 4. A clown version of Mischa Auer, with a trick camera.
 5. Clowns representing a beauty operator giving a woman a permanent.
 6. A clown with an immense compact containing paint pot and brush.
 7. Two clowns dressed as powder puffs.
 8. A clown artist with a sketch which turns out to be his own thumb.
 9. A clown dressmaker fashioning a dress on a woman clown in corsets. Plus two midgets, one with shears and the other with dress material.
 10. A juggler with Easter eggs, one breaks and a rabbit hops out of it.
 11. A pink elephant in an evening gown, to be wooed by a frog.
- All of the foregoing appear in one of Ginger Rogers' dreams in the Technicolor picturization of the Broadway stage hit. Presumably after reading the memo, casting director Bobby Mayo, wardrobe chief Frank Richardson and prop man Dick Barlow all went home and had nightmares.

Ray Milland and Ginger Rogers are starred in "Lady in the Dark," along with Warner Baxter and Jon Hall. A Paramount Technicolor spectacle!

"The Fighting Seabees" Shows At The Queen

Everyone in the east of Republic's "The Fighting Seabees," story of the courageous men who make up the youngest branch of service, read the letter from Chief Petty Officer Jimmy Carrick when it arrived during the filming of the picture.

Thousands of Seabees throughout the world were interested in the making of screen play, which is currently showing at the Queen Theatre, because it is the first filmed story of the Construction Battalion, but Jimmy Carrick's letter was special. Chief Petty Officer Carrick is the mascot of the Seabees. He is just six years old and a spinal infection has kept him in bed most of his young life. Jimmy wanted to know how Republic was treating his boys. More than one actor, reading the letter, had a lump in his throat, and they assured the youngster that "The Fighting Seabees" does justice to the men of his favorite corps.

With the help of his mother, Jimmy, who lives in Pittsburgh, writes to more than half a hundred Seabees, and his rating was given him officially.

He is now the proud possessor of personally autographed pictures of the stars of "The Fighting Seabees," John Wayne, Susan Hayward and Dennis O'Keefe, all of whom commended him for helping to build the morale of the men in service.

Mitchell County Ships Scrap Metal

COLORADO CITY, July 1 — Two cars of scrap metal gathered in Mitchell county by the contingent of army men sent here for a four-weeks salvage drive and collection, have been shipped from Colorado City, Lt. James P. Williams reported this week. The cars started enroute to the steel mills contained a total of 142,300 pounds of metal.

Lt. Williams and his helpers also are collecting paper and have gathered a total of 10,000 pounds to date.

Bandage Room To Be Opened At Colorado

COLORADO CITY, July 1 — The Mitchell county work rooms for surgical dressings workers are to be reopened Wednesday of next week, July 5, after having been closed for the past month. One of the largest quotas ever assigned workers in the county has been received and materials for the making of 34,200 battle sponges has arrived. Mrs. J. W. Watson, general chairman, has announced. Women directed by Mrs. Watson have completed and shipped 64,200 dressings since the first of the year.

"Riding High" At State

A fun-for-all Western set to grand music is Paramount's latest contribution to the nation's morale. It is the Technicolor "Riding High," which opened last night at the State Theatre to the delighted entertainment of an appreciative audience, and continues thru Monday.

Co-starring Dorothy Lamour, Dick Powell and Victor Moore, the picture is a riot of laughs, color and gypsy and a definite "must" for all those who like their movies light and fun-filled. The action and there is plenty of it, including a hilarious chuck-wagon race, takes place in Arizo, a ranch belonging to a cowboy, who plays a pistol-slinging mama to a fare-thee-well bowl when you hear her Italian of "Willie, the Wolf Wad."

Victor Moore is seen as a counterfeiter who Dick Powell in his tussle with law, the latter representing Sheriff Gil Lamb.

Dorothy plays an ex-burlesque queen who entertains at the ranch and her romance with Powell light and gay, like the film.

There are six great tunes, in addition to the one already mentioned. They are "You're the Rainbow," "Whistling in the Light," "Injun Gal Heep-Heep," "He Loved Me 'Til the All Clear Came," "Get Your Man" and "I'm the Secretary to the Sultan." The production number, "Injun Gal Heep Heep," is one you will remember for its tune, comedy and lavish production effects. But, then, the whole picture is something to remember, so be sure to see it.

Dick Powell and Dorothy Lamour supply the love interest, and Victor Moore the comedy, in "Riding High," smash musical in Technicolor

World Of Justice Forseen As Result Of Conflict; Unhappy Over Missing Talk

Dear Sir: When we summarize the contributions all peoples have made toward the development of mankind, one finds that the greatest values for fundamental good have never been blotted out by time and its vicissitudes. Younger generations throughout the ages have seized upon these values and retained them as basic facts for man's universal welfare.

making of a greater world freedom founded upon a larger conception of justice to all mankind. The United States is leading the way, many thinkers believe, to an era when there will be equal justice to all nations.

Now there are periods in all civilizations in which the evil tendencies seem to hold sway, but if one will look deeper, but if one will look for lasting results there will be found beneath the ruins that on which the newer will be made stronger and higher.

Just think of it—a world of justice! x x x Yet this cannot be accomplished without the earnest, serious, at-heart interest of the citizens of all free countries. Methods of achieving this aim must not be entangled by selfish interests. We must have one common ideal, working for a common cause of justice with faith in its success. Then men will vigilantly protect it, realizing they are "their brother's keeper."

For example, when Rome captured the learned Greek empire, they seized the most learned men of Greece, made them teachers over the Roman youth, build libraries spoiled from Athens. x x x Schools of medicine, philosophy and science multiplied and became great assets to her nation. x x x One can trace the fundamental values of Roman civilization in our own institutions.

view of the national importance of this historic occasion and in consideration of the fact that over 250 Mutual stations throughout the country had given up their current programs to bring to the nation the complete coverage of the GOP convention, I am among many here and undoubtedly elsewhere who feel that such an unwarranted act as that of KBST should not remain unspoken of.

Eight Women Given VD Checks In June

Eight women were picked up by city police during the month of June for venereal disease check-ups. Of the total number, one was sent to El Paso for special treatment, while four others, who proved positive, are now receiving treatment at the Big Spring-Howard county health unit. Three others showed negative tests and were released.

Anyway It Was Good Sentiment

S/Sgt. Vincent J. Ewadinger of Easton, Pa., veteran of combat action in New Guinea, Java and the Celebes, who also served a tour of duty in the Hawaiian Islands, has been assigned to duty at the Big Spring Bombardier school. His experiences during more than a year in the Southwest Pacific fighting areas are the subjects of lectures Sgt. Ewadinger has been conducting in connection with orientation programs at the field. One incident Sgt. Ewadinger, a gunner and aerial photographer, relates concerns the humor in a situation in which he and members of his crew found themselves over a Japanese target. In addition to the bomb load that day, the planes carried thousands of propaganda leaflets which they were to shower on the enemy. The run over the target was made and the bombs released without interference, but as the ship circled back over the target to release the leaflets it was met by a swarm of Zeros. It was clearly time to get out.

"There we were, running like hell to get away," he says, "and at the same time throwing out leaflets telling the Japs it was useless for them to fight—that as soon as American production got under way they would be mopped up."

Regulations Explained

J. B. Mooney, district price executive of the Lubbock Office of Price Administration met with used automobile dealers and retail beer dealers in room one at the Settles hotel Friday night. The purpose of the session was for explanation of new regulations and around 30 persons attended.

Stern Warning Given On Acute Water Shortage

With showers Tuesday which gave Big Spring its first good soaking in several months came new hopes on the part of city officials that local water consumption would drop to some extent.

On the contrary consumption still stands at 1,500,000 gallons per day and indications are that the figure will not be whittled voluntarily during the summer months.

B. J. McDaniel, city manager, in explaining the ever-growing problem, said Saturday that consumption must be cut at least a quarter of a million gallons per day. "The majority of persons feel that just as long as their hydrants have water in them the situation is not too serious," says McDaniel. "And at the rate we're going it won't be too long before we'll be finding out."

Added to the "water worry" was a report from Austin where water samples sent recently for regular inspection showed signs of bacteria. Finding it to be scattered, it was discovered that the impurities had gained entrance into the line through windmills and pumps at residences in town. The wells were connected in the yards for watering purposes and suction from the line drew the water with its impurities into the main water supply.

Officials are asking all home owners with wells or pumps of this type to disconnect them from the main water line. The city has not made negotiations on contracts for pump projects estimated at a cost of approximately $6,000, since no early delivery date can be assured.

Several letters have been received from cast iron pipeline companies in connection with the pipeline project and earliest date promised was the last week in July. Two other companies specified the first and last of August. Work orders will not be issued until pipe can be secured.

Work orders on the well project will probably be issued July 10th or 11th.

Five Escape As Trainer Crashes At Springfield

An AT-11 training plane, based at the Big Spring Bombardier School, crashed on landing at the Springfield, Mo. Army Air Field Saturday morning, the crew of five escaping with minor injuries.

The plane, which left Big Spring at 7:56 a. m., was on a routine navigation training flight. The crash occurred at 11:24 a. m.

Pilot of the ship was 2nd Lt. Scott H. Trail, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Trail, Seurry, Texas. Co-pilot was 2nd Lt. Joseph L. Sinko, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sinko, Diamond, Ohio.

Also aboard were 2nd Lt. James D. Hood, assistant photographic officer, whose wife lives at 201 E. Commercial street, Rochester, N. Y.; T/Sgt. Arthur E. Kelly, son of Mrs. Minnie Kelly, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; and Pfc. Frank E. Lamb, mechanic, son of Mrs. Esta Markers, Bradford, Ohio. Mrs. Lamb resides at 509 Benton, Big Spring. Officials of O'Reilly general hospital at Springfield where the men were taken for treatment of minor burns and cuts after extracting themselves, said that the crash came in too fast for the size of the landing field and sheared off some trees and burst into flames as it struck.

Farmers Repair Storm Damage

About 10 farmers in Coahoma vicinity are replanting and repairing damage caused by high wind and hail Wednesday night.

An estimated 60 to 70 per cent of cotton on 10 farms was destroyed, Leroy Echols, who lost most of his cotton in the area, said Saturday.

In addition, wind caused considerable damage to small buildings. Two children of L. M. Bonds narrowly escaped injury when a 1 1/2x4 building in which they had been playing was lifted from the ground and torn to pieces. The children had left the building about 10 minutes earlier. The building was blown about 100 feet. Numerous chicken houses and other small structures were damaged or destroyed. In Coahoma, some trees were blown over and garages damaged.

Louie Hutto was among farmers who lost a large amount of cotton acreage. Damage was not too great to grain sorghums, Echols said. Most of the farmers are substituting grain sorghum for cotton in replanting, because of lateness of the season.

The area damaged by hail was from one and one-half miles east of Coahoma to two miles west and two miles south.

Concerning the general crop picture in Howard county, O. P. Griffin, county agent, said Saturday he did not consider drouth conditions immediately serious although rain during the week was not general over the county, crops are not particularly suffering yet although there is not enough moisture in the ground to make a crop. The county is entering a normally dry season which could prove serious, the normally wet season which has just passed having proved to be dry.

Post Graduate On Japan Raid

A bombardier from the first class to be graduated from the Big Spring Bombardier School in December 1942 took part in the first B-29 raid on Japan June 15. He is 1st Lt. George W. Bujol, whose home address is Jennings, La. His wife lived in Big Spring during the period of his training here, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orrin J. Bujoy of Jennings.

In civilian life, Lt. Bujol was a clerk, enlisting in the army in 1939. Following his graduation as a bombardier he served four months on anti-submarine patrol, guarding the approaches to the Panama Canal. Returning to the States, he became a qualified celestial navigator and entered B-29 training in July 1943. Since March 1944 he has been on duty in the China-Burma-India theatre as a bombardier-navigator.

Fifty-One Soldiers Apply For Their Absentee Ballot

Fifty-one applications from soldiers and seven from civilians for absentee ballots had been received when the county clerk's office began issuing absentee ballots Saturday for the first democratic primary in Howard county.

One person voted by absentee ballot. Of the 51 soldier applications, only a few had paid poll taxes and are eligible for the ballots for the two primaries. All are eligible, however, for the "war ballot" to be issued for the general election.

Soldiers paying poll taxes and meeting other state requirements for voting are eligible to ballots to all elections and application may be made by the soldier or by any relative presenting the receipt, exemption certificate or affidavit of its loss.

Reminder was given Saturday by Lee Porter, county clerk, that relatives planning to apply for soldiers at considerable distance should do so immediately. Time must be allowed for ballots to reach soldiers and be returned by election day.

The "war ballots" for the general election will not be issued through the county clerk's office, but applications from Howard county soldiers are being forwarded here by the secretary of state so a check may be made of those who have paid receipts and are eligible for regular ballots.

Applications either by soldiers or civilians may be made in person or by mail. The ballots are to be returned by civilians in time to reach the county clerk's office by July 18, three days before the primary. Absentee ballots from soldiers will be accepted until 7 p. m. the night of the election.

Any qualified voter in the state who is absent from his home county or who, because of sickness or disability, cannot go to the polls election day can cast an absentee ballot.

Voters must make written application to the county clerk for the official ballot, presenting poll tax receipt, exemption certificate, or affidavit that the receipt or exemption has been lost or misplaced. If sickness or disability prevents the voter from going to the polls, certificate of a licensed physician to that effect should accompany the application.

If the voter wants his ballot mailed to him, he must include 15 cents for postage. He, or his witness in case of disability, shall mark the ballot in presence of a notary public or other person qualified to take acknowledgments, the law specified. No one is to be present at the voting except the notary, and witness, if one is required. After being so acknowledged, the ballot is to be sealed and mailed to the clerk, who keeps each ballot unopened until the second day before the primary, when it will be unsealed with the application and any other papers in a large envelope, endorsed and delivered to election officials.

Spindletop Blew Texas Into Prominence As Oil State

The blowing in of the Lucas gusher at Spindletop on January 10, 1901, was the most far-reaching event in the oil history of the world, with the possible exception of the drilling of the Drake well in Pennsylvania in 1849.

In 1890, when Pattillo Higgins of Beaumont insisted there was oil under Spindletop, a low mound three miles south of the lumber-and-rice town, the total output of Texas during the entire year was only 54 barrels. A test drilled with a water-well outfit had to stop when its limit of 300 feet was reached. Another try was halted by the caving of the quicksand. In an effort to enlist aid, Higgins put an ad in northern newspapers and a response came from Capt. Anthony F. Lucas, a naturalized American citizen who was born in Austria and who had been successful in salt operations on Jefferson Island.

Lucas' first attempt was abandoned because of the quicksand but not until some oil had been found. With a bottle of the fluid, he went to Pittsburgh where he interested Guffey & Galey, who had been important factors in the development of Corsicana. Ham-mill Bros. of Corsicana undertook the drilling and, using a rotary outfit, they conquered the quicksand.

At 1,160 feet, the crew stopped drilling, changed bits and had lowered 790 feet of the drill pipe into the hole when the well blew in. The gushing gold leaped 200 feet into the air. Cattle fled in terror, negro farmhands fell on their knees, thinking it was the end of the world. First to bring the news into Beaumont was a disgusted farmer who said, "The dirty stuff is ruining my land."

The monster well, rated at 50,000—some said even 75,000 or 100,000—barrels a day was at least eight times as big as any well the United States had ever seen. The geyser raged uncontrolled for seven days. Soon after, a spark from a locomotive set the great lake of petroleum ablaze, but the well itself was saved.

EAST HOWARD EXTENSION RATED AT 495 BARRELS

Lee C. Harrison No. 3 TXL, western outpost to the East Howard pool, was completed Friday for a daily potential of 495 barrels on a 24-hour run with a 600-1 gas-oil ratio. The test, located in section 8-30-1s, T&P, had been shot with 350 quarts from 2,765-2,840.

A companion well, the Harrison No. 5 TXL, also in section 8-3-1s, T&P, was shut down after dropping tubing at 2,850. This test, on higher elevation, is to be carried another 60 feet into the pay. To the south, the Harrison No. 1 D. H. Snyder, section 20-quarter extension to the Snyder 30-1s, T&P, a mile and three-quarters, continued to clean out at 2,975 feet after an 800-quart shot from 2,780-3,049 feet.

In south central Borden county, Northern Ordinance No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, had a small show of gas in coring from 7,639-7,958 feet. It drilled ahead to 7,079 feet in sandy shale. Location is in section 31-32-1s, T&P. Nearby Northern Ordinance Co. No. 1-A. M. Clayton, section 13-34-1s, T&P, was at 2,148 feet in hard lime.

A 4,500-foot wildcat four miles north of the East Howard pool and a mile and a half west of the Mitchell county line was started in eastern Howard when the Hunt Oil No. 1 A. L. Wasson was spudded in section 10-29-1s, T&P. It is located on a 3,850-acre block.

While Cosden cleaned out its No. 3-B Read and Ray Oil its No. 2-A Read in section 48-30-1s, T&P, in extreme eastern Howard county, Cosden started location for its No. 1 Foster, 330 feet from the northeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 43-29-1s, T&P, almost on the Mitchell county line.

Southwest of Big Spring, the John B. Hawley, Jr. No. 1 Thorp, western extension to the Moore pool, rated 41.16 barrels pumping at 3,270 feet on potential test. Located in section 24-34-1r, T&P, in the same vicinity, John B. Hawley, Jr. No. 2 Thompson, section 14-34-1s, T&P, was moving in spudder to drill in. To the north the Hawley No. 1 Allison, section 6-33-1s, T&P, was installing pump. It is north of the Hawley No. 1 Frazier, section 7-33-1s, T&P, which rated 12 barrels.

Two miles north the Hawley No. 1 Gular, section 2, B&C, was installing pump and B&C, No. 2 Gular, section 8, B&C, was rigging spudder. Northern Ordinance No. 1 Spaulding, a 6,500-foot wildcat in the Knott area of northwestern Howard county, was in white lime at 3,808 feet. Location is in section 7-83-2s, T&P.

Few Pay Last Half Of Current Taxes

A few persons went on delinquent tax rolls Saturday after failure to complete payment of 1943 property taxes before July 1, the county tax assessor-collector office announced Saturday. Only seven had taken advantage of the "split tax plan" under which they paid half of the taxes last fall and the remainder before July 1 and all paid the remaining half by the deadline.

Completion of amount collected and number delinquent will be completed this week. Property owners with unpaid 1943 taxes go on the delinquent rolls and must pay a penalty and interest.

Cotton Closes With Substantial Gains

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Cotton futures closed 20 to 35 cents a bale higher today.

Trading was quiet in the pre-holiday market. A strengthening influence was the possibility that early action may be taken with regard to increasing ceiling prices of textiles under provisions of the amended price control bill.

Market Continues Its Satisfactory Trend

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—The stock market today concluded another speedy and generally satisfactory week with utilities, packers, oils and specialties operating on the upside while many recent climbers were stalled by light selling.

Demand for many peace-rated stocks was attributed to the persistently good war news. Developments at the republican national convention were in line with expectations in the financial district and little immediate repercussions on share trends was in evidence.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was unchanged at 55.5, but on the week showed a net advance of 3 of a point. For the month the gain was 2.2 points. Transfers for the two hours totaled 646,540 shares compared with 558,110 last Saturday. Brokers were cheered by the fact that business in June was the best for that month since 1933 and topped any month since May, 1940.

Normandy and Italy lie just ahead. They should disclose something of German strength in western France and reveal Nazi intentions in Italy.

For the past week the British and the Germans in the Caen area have poured men and machines into a battle of attack and counterattack where the issue is to see who will break first.

General Sir Bernard Montgomery is forcing the fight, driving the Nazis into using reserve troops as fast as they reach the area, seeking to get a decision before the Germans, entangled with explosive-blasted rail and highway lines to the rear, can bring up more reserves.

For their part, the Germans battle, not with hope of driving the Allies into the sea, but to upset the offensive and prevent expansion of the Caen salient.

A week of war in Italy has brought the Allies to a point where they soon will enter the outer zone of the so-called Pisa-rimini defensive system. There they should begin to find evidence of whether the Nazis intend to make a stand on that naturally defensive position or whether, warned by a sequence of defeats in Italy and beset by manpower shortages on two other fronts, they will fall back to easily held positions in the rocky gateways of the Alps.

Weather, Flak, Enemy Fighters Constitute A Formidable Trio

It's a toss-up, according to 1st Lt. Roy H. Black, which is the most formidable obstacle in bombing operations—flak, enemy fighters or the weather.

He is back after completing his 50 missions in the Mediterranean theatre, having landed in the states on June 14.

"The weather was pretty good most of the time so we got ours in in a hurry," he explained. Lt. Black was in the same group with Lt. Novis Womack, Big Spring, who recently visited here while on leave.

After visiting relatives in Harrisburg, Pa., his home, Lt. Black came here and will be with Mrs. Black, the former Maribel Menger. He has a change of station assignment.

Lt. Black, who was a member of the first graduating class at the Big Spring Bombardier School, described his missions as "routine," which, not too literally interpreted, means being through flak and fighter opposition without getting winged.

New Job Plan Hikes Inquiry

Numerous inquiries and increased registration of persons seeking employment marked the first day of operation in Howard county of the new priority referral program of the War Manpower commission, said H. A. Clark, Big Spring area manager of the United States Employment service.

The office received many inquiries from employers wishing information on how the program affects their particular types of business.

Several asked how the program affects employment of women. The answer, said Clark, is that the stabilization plan remains in effect and rules affecting women in that plan still apply. The priority referral program, which affects male workers, supplements the stabilization plan.

Under the new program, all employers in the county other than agricultural can obtain male employees only through the employment service.

Numerous persons registered and approximately 60 per cent were referred to employment, according to priority. The priority list is based on type of industries, rather than specific firms within Howard county, said Clark. Employees are referred, according to their qualifications, to the industries most essential and most in need of workers.

Both employers and employees indicated willingness and desire to cooperate in the plan, said Clark. No dissenting sentiment was expressed.

Soviets Ease Up On Church, Polish Issue

MOSCOW, July 1 (AP) — The Soviet union took steps today to restore Polish citizenship to Poles in Russia fighting the Germans and to permit Russians reviving churches throughout the nation to deal directly with the government.

The supreme Soviet issued a decree granting inhabitants of the western provinces of White Russia and the Ukraine, as well as Soviet citizens of Polish nationality elsewhere, who are serving in the Polish army in Russia or who are aiding in the fight against Germany, to adopt Polish citizenship. Members of their families were included.

The council of people's commissars set up a new committee of religious affairs for handling matters between all creeds and the government, giving rise to belief that numerous faiths may open churches throughout the nation.

Southern Demos Plan To Caucus

DALLAS, July 1 (AP) — E. B. Germany, former Texas democratic committee chairman and leader in the Texas revolt against the renomination of President Roosevelt, said today that a caucus of southern delegates to the national convention will be held in Chicago (Palmer House) on Monday night, July 17.

He said in an interview with the Dallas News that at the caucus they would attempt to agree on platform planks and resolutions to be placed before the convention carrying out the program adopted by Texas and Mississippi democrats.

Another meeting on Tuesday, July 18, on the eve of the convention opening, will be for all southern democrats, at which they will probably consider candidates for president and vice president that revolting democrats will support in event the national convention fails to adopt their program, he stated.

Germany said he expects Texas and the southern states delegates to support James A. Farley for president as against Roosevelt, if they are given voting seats at the convention. If they are barred from the convention, he asserted, southern democrats have indicated they favor Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) as their choice for the presidency.

He said he believed the national democratic committee would seat the regular Texas delegation, but predicted that the convention early in its proceedings would adopt a resolution denying a vote to any delegate who refuses to support the party nominees, which Texas delegates would decline to accept.

RAYBURN SAYS DENISON DAM EXPRESSES SPIRIT OF PEOPLE

By WALTER F. BOSWELL DENISON, July 1 (AP) — The Denison dam was dedicated today in more than two hours of speeches as a structure which would protect the Red river valley in four states from floods, manufacture power for industry and rural electrification, and permit development of a huge recreational area.

Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, whose noon address was the climax of nine which sketched in conception of the world's greatest rolled fill northern structure, called it a "working, dynamic development that expresses the spirit of our people."

Texans and Oklahomans, with some visitors from Arkansas and Louisiana, who had gathered under a blistering sun atop the Texas end of the barrier across the river, heard the addresses. Upstream they could see the blustering waters of the lake, which stretches long arms up the Red river and the Washita, and the line of the dam as it stretched its three-mile-long bulk into Oklahoma.

In addition to the address by Rayburn, there were speeches by Mayor W. L. Ashburn of Denison; Major General Eugene Reybold of Washington, chief of army engineers; M. E. Ewing of Madill, Okla., of the Red River Valley Development association; Representative Paul Stewart of Oklahoma,

Armour Ticketed For State Dept. Place

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP) — Ambassador Norman Armour, now on his way home from Buenos Aires under recall orders, will be offered a top-flight position in the state department, it was reported in official quarters tonight, thus leaving this country without an ambassador to Argentina.

The department announced earlier this week that Armour was being recalled "for consultation," from his remarks about the dem to discuss the war, and once said "I think Cordell Hull is God's gift to America today. He is the greatest secretary of state since Thomas Jefferson. He is planning for a permanent and enduring peace."

Sam Hathcock Dies Saturday

Samuel Alfred Hathcock, 72, died at his home at 611 Scurry street at 5:15 p. m. Saturday after a month's illness. He had been critically ill for the past week. Services will be held at 5 p. m. Monday at the Eberley-Curry chapel with the Rev. J. E. Moore, First Presbyterian pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the Masonic cemetery beside the grave of a son, Glenn E. Hathcock, who died in 1916. The Masonic order will be in charge.

Born at Palestine, Tex., March 25, 1872, he came to this section from Bowie and taught school and subsequently ranched in Borden county before coming to Big Spring in 1900. For years he operated a confections business, later opened a grocery and then a hardware business in which he was active until about a year ago.

He was a member of the Masonic Blue lodge and a 32nd degree Mason, and was particularly active in the Big Spring commandery of the Knights Templar, having served as its commander and then for a quarter of a century as recorder. He had the reputation of having conferred more degrees than most men in this area and while commander was in demand in the conferring of work. He was a long-time member of the board of directors of the Masonic Temple association.

Survivors include his widow, Martha Elliott Hathcock; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Wilson and Mrs. Lee O. Rogers; three grandchildren, Carolyn and Catherine Williams and Glenn Alfred Rogers, all of Big Spring.

June Postal Receipts Show Sharp Increase

Postal receipts for June totaled $11,202.58 and showed a gain over the corresponding month last year and previous month this year, Nat Shick, postmaster, announced.

Receipts were $2,729.95 more than the total of $8,472.63 in June last year. They were $517.92 more than the total of $10,884.66 in May of this year.

The receipts for every month in 1944 have shown a gain over the corresponding month in 1943. The gain for the first six months over the first half of the year was $10,033.31.

The Week

Sgt. Francis did even better: "Nellie Gray Going Away." American Airlines inaugurated its two additional schedules here Saturday without fanfare—but the addition was appreciated nevertheless. The morning stop permitted one passenger to get off and some mail to be picked up. Several passengers were put on in the evening.

The amphitheatre program Tuesday is billed as a rousing holiday affair. Cong. George Mahon, speaker, ought to be able to give some report on the war in his patriotic talk, for he is on the military sub-committee of the appropriations committee. Should he impress listeners about the cost of war, they doubtless will have an opportunity to invest in E bonds.

Speaking of E bonds—the issue is squarely up to the average fellow now. The big boys have more than come across for we are over. That doesn't excuse us of our responsibility. No, sir.

Citizens should appreciate the action of the city commission in holding to a $1.70 tax rate, for it was not without some mighty close figuring seeing as how our $400,000 bond issue jumped our bond requirements. However, additional water sales may help take up the slack.

Equally significant was the decision to spend $16,000 to increase a five mile section of the new pipeline from 14 to 16 inches. That simply means that three million gallons daily may be put through the artery at considerable saving for the year.

The account of a contract extended Cosden for use of effluent from the city's new disposal plant was more than slightly in error in saying it was "five cents for the 10,000,000 gallons daily." After all, Cosden only wants to use the water, not float the plant. Incidentally, others are eyeing use of the effluent for industrial purposes, but being the pioneer, Cosden naturally enjoys priority.

Entirely too many people are trying to share with us credit for last Tuesday's rain.

Browns Gain As Yankees Falter

BOSTON, July 1 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns collected ten walks off three Boston pitchers today as they gained an easy 9 to 1 victory behind the five-hit pitching of Nelson Potter, a Red Sox cast-off.

The Red Sox starting pitcher, Clem Hausmann, walked four of the first five batters in the opening inning, during which the Browns collected four runs on one hit.

Don Gutteridge and Mike Kreevich walked to open up festivities. George McQuinn sacrificed and Yarn Stephens walked, filling the bases.

A walk for Gene Moore forced in the first run and Kreevich scored the second on Mike Ryba's wild pitch. Milton Byrnes' fly to center scored Stephens and Mark Christman's only hit of the inning brought Moore in.

Ryba, who took over for Hausmann with one-third inning gone, did all right through the seventh. In the eighth, however, McQuinn walked and Stephens and Moore doubled, accounting for the first two of five runs.

The lone Boston run came in the ninth when O'Neil scored on Pete Fox' single.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers escaped a fall into the American league cellar by pounding out 14 hits for a 9-4 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics today.

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Held to two hits in eight innings, the Chicago White Sox combined two hits and four Yankee errors in the ninth to score three runs and defeat New York, 3-2, today. Hank Borowy suffered his fourth loss against 10 victories.

Mrs. Jack Starkey, Jr., and daughter, Sharon Louise, returned to Fort Worth after spending ten days in Big Spring with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Starkey. Jack Starkey is now stationed with the armed forces in Italy.

Reds Tighten Hold On Third Place Spot

CINCINNATI, July 1 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds increased their third place lead over New York to two games by defeating the Giants 5-0 today.

Ed Heusser scattered seven hits and aided by two double plays executed by the Reds infield, was never in any difficulty.

Frank Seward started for the Giants and gave up single runs in the second and third innings. He was driven out in the sixth with a three-run rally, highlighted by Heusser's single with the bases full, which drove in two teammates.

Every man in the Cincinnati lineup hit safely, and Frank McCormick made two hits.

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates won the first game of a three-game series from the Boston Braves this afternoon, 5-1, when Ray Starr held them to six well scattered hits to hang up his third straight victory. Jim Tobin was the victim, despite the fact he gave only eight safe wallops.

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Dick Barrett, Philadelphia Phillies' righthander who has been beaten ten times this season, steadied to set the Chicago Cubs down to two hits today and end their four game winning streak, 4 to 2.

Sooner Aggies-Razorback Features Tallest Centers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., July 1 (AP)—The biggest men in basketball—seven-foot Bob Kurland of Oklahoma A. and M. and six-foot-ten George Kok of Arkansas will meet next winter when the two schools stage a two-game series.

Coach Eugene Lambert of Arkansas announced today that arrangements had been completed for the Razorbacks and Aggies to flash Jan. 12 at Little Rock and Jan. 13 at El Dorado.

Segura Takes Second Title

EVANSTON, Ill., July 1 (AP)—Francisco (Pancho) Segura, representing the University of Miami, today entered the collegiate tennis hall of fame by trouncing Notre Dame's Charley Samson in straight sets for his second straight N.C.A.A. tennis singles title.

The swarthy native of Ecuador belted Captain Samson of the Irish, 6-0, 6-4, 6-0, to rank with Tulane's talented brothers, Clifford and Ernest Sutter, and Frank Guernsey of Rice Institute as the only two-time collegiate champions.

Top-seeded University of Texas' combination of John Hickman and Felix Kelley also staged a successful title defense, defeating Nick Buzolic and Cary Ruby of George Pepperdine college (Los Angeles), 6-0, 6-4, 6-3 for the doubles championship.

The battle of the giant centers can throw plenty of light, Coach Lambert commented, on the recently approved change in the basketball code—that part affecting goal tending.

The new rule says, in effect, that "a player may not touch the ball on its downward arc over the basket." Kurland was at his best last season in using his tremendous height to deflect opposing shots away from the hoop. Kok did not join the Arkansas team until late last season and saw little action.

Contrary to much discussion, says Lambert, he and Coach Henry Iba of the Aggies favored the rule change, although each has a player capable of breaking up attempted field goals on the part of rivals.

"Our Only Hope Is Hypnotism," Moans Norton

COLLEGE STATION, July 1 (AP)—One hundred and fifty-three are out for football at Texas A&M but Coach Homer Norton observes:

"Our only hope of winning is by hypnotism."

Yet maybe Homer has something there because on the squad is Joe D. Crawford of Rolling Fork, Miss., who claims the powers of hypnosis.

"I believe," Coach Norton chuckles at the thought, "we could raise the price of admission the rest of the season."

Crawford, here studying veterinary medicine after a year at Mississippi State College, is a tackle candidate on the Aggie team but in his spare time works on the art of hypnotism.

He discovered his powers last October, studied a few books, then tried it on his roommate.

Since then, Joe has perfected the technique to where he no longer needs a coin—which is fortunate here, since few Aggies ever have one.

Study and observation of the technique of professionals gave Crawford confidence in his ability to go in for mass hypnotism. But of course there are these stumbling blocks:

A subject is put under control more readily if he wants to be hypnotized. Few opposing football teams would co-operate.

Perfect quiet goes hand-in-hand with successful hypnotism—and if Crawford gets that from the Aggie cadet corps he'll be doing what football officials never have been able to accomplish.

Expression Grabs Arlington Classic

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Expression, a trim two-year-old eastern filly sired by the 29-year-old The Porter, raced to her first stake victory today in winning the $35,000 Arlington Park Lassie by the margin of a head over the Calumet Farm's Twoxy.

Three and a half lengths farther back in third place was Blue Alibi, at odds of 30 to 1. Blue Skimmer, the favorite, was fourth in the field of eight.

GOP Nominee Goes For Golf

By PAT O'BRIEN
WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Golf would return to the White House as a major sport if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the republican presidential nominee, wins next November.

There hasn't been a golfing president since the early 1920s, when Warren G. Harding was a familiar sight on the Washington fairways. He probably was the most photographed sports president in history.

Dewey, who shoots in the 90s, takes his golf game very seriously. He's been a backer of the program that has given his state one of the finest sets of municipal courses in the nation.

The first golfing president was rotund William Howard Taft, who puffed around 18 holes with a lack of hitting power that contrasted sharply with his bulk.

Taft's successor, Woodrow Wilson, played the game consistently, but not well. His golf was mostly a puttering-around job, and he seemed content with 150-yard drives.

Harding was the first serious-minded golfer to occupy the White House. He was a fashion plate on the links and often attracted galleries that a Bobby Jones might envy.

Herbert Hoover never patronized the links but he liked sports. Calvin Coolidge, like Hoover, was a fisherman. Both of them attended the opening baseball games at Griffith stadium regularly.

President Roosevelt's sports activities are confined to swimming and fishing. He loves all water athletics—even goes in for an occasional yacht race. He's the first chief executive to use the prize fighter's two-listed handshake to acknowledge the plaudits of the crowd at a baseball game.

Avenger Field Team To Play

A holiday double-header is in store for Big Spring baseball fans it was announced Saturday with the booking of games with Avenger Field, Sweetwater.

The Big Spring Bombardier School will entertain the visitors in the WT-NM park site at W 6th and San Antonio starting at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Twice the two teams have met this season, the first game going to Big Spring. In a return tilt here however, the Avenger boys turned the tables and threw Big Spring into a tenacious losing streak which was broken only some two weeks ago.

Ben Hogan Takes Nat'l Open Lead

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Little Ben Hogan, burned up because someone said men in the service probably would have a hard time becoming tournament threats after the war, let some of the heat sink into his game today as he coupled a 66 with a first round 68 for a 36-hole total of 134—eight strokes under par—to take the halfway lead in the Chicago victory national golf meet.

Hogan, a dominating figure on the money circuit from 1935-1942, is now stationed at the Fort Worth, Tex., air field and his golf has been limited to week-end outings. Now on furlough, this is his first tournament since he entered the service in the fall of 1943 after capturing the Hale America crown.

Another serviceman—the only one to win a tournament since the war started—was second at the halfway point with a pair of 68's for 136. He was E. J. "Dutch" Harris, stationed at Wright Field, Ohio, and winner of the 1944 Charlotte, N. C., open.

A member of the old guard, be-knickered Gene Sarazen, walked in calmly with a pair of 68's for 138 and third place. Bracketed at 139 were Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., with a 69 today; Revolta, who skidded to 72; Steelworker Kovach, and two members of the "big four," Nelson and Craig Wood.

Jug McSpaden and Sam Byrd, the other members of the "big four," were in the 140 and 141 division, respectively, after posting a 73 and a 70.

Four Freedoms Wins $50,000 Handicap

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Four Freedoms, from Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree stable, staged a long drive today to win the $50,000 added Brooklyn handicap at Aqueduct as First Fiddle, the favorite, wound up third in the nine-horse field.

Convicts Indicted For Guard Slaying

HUNTSVILLE, July 1 (AP)—The Walker county grand jury today indicted three of the four convicts who escaped from the Wynona prison farm on June 1, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Guard James H. Preston.

Indicted on the slaying charge were: Eugene Padgett, serving 99 years for murder; Leonard C. Stockton, 42, under a 18-year robbery sentence, and James McLeMore, 42, sent up for 20 years for robbery.

Seventy-Six Boy Scouts To Leave Monday For New Mexico Camp

Seventy-six Boy Scouts, accompanied by 16 men from the Big Spring district, will leave early Monday for Philmont scout ranch at Cimarron, N. M., for a 10-day encampment.

H. D. Norris, scout executive, announced Saturday that a meeting of all those planning to attend would be held on the courthouse lawn Sunday at 5 p. m. to make final plans for the outing. The group will leave at 5 a. m. Monday and will spend the first night in the Las Vegas, N. M., armory. The party is scheduled to arrive at Philmont around noon on Tuesday.

"We're hoping that the parents won't worry over the safety of the boys, and we will require each scout to write home," said Norris who also pointed out that the camp maintains telegraph and telephone service in case of emergencies.

The address of the camp is Philmont Scout Ranch, Buffalo Bill camp, Cimarron, N. M., and mail will reach campers there, the executive explained, but service is slow.

Leaders who will accompany scouts are A. McNary, Charles Watson, Hayes Stripling, Jake Morgan, Roy Reeder, Harvey Wooten, Bob Lee, J. R. Manion, Elra Phillips, Cecil Nabors, Pat Kenney, J. B. Apple, W. D. Berry, W. R. Puckett, Sam McComb and H. D. Norris.

Long Stresses Teamwork To Bombardiers

Capt. Louis E. Long, who confessed he once wondered when graduation speakers would cease platitudes of no value to a bombardier and get down to cases found himself in the speakers spot Saturday at the graduation of class 44-9 at the Big Spring Bombardier school.

"I have, however, perhaps a slight advantage over them (other speakers)," said Capt. Long, a native of Gall and a combat veteran of the North African and Italian theaters. "I can better talk your language."

He pointed out that too often people are prone to overrate themselves. He gave as an example an instance which happened to him. "There were several British squadrons on the field and plans were to construct a dummy field several miles away to draw the Nazi bombings from the Allied base. Wooden planes were constructed along with wooden anti-aircraft and hangers," he said.

"We waited several days, nothing happened, and finally a lone German plane made its appearance, coming in dangerously low over the dummy field. Without evasive action he swooped and dropped a single bomb which failed to explode. Eager to inspect it an officer dashed to locate the bomb. You can imagine his surprise to find the bomb was made of wood.

He stressed the importance of teamwork and cooperation of the bombardiers with others of the crew and reminded that no one could win the war alone.

The program included the invocation by Chaplain James L. Patterson, the class song and following Capt. Long's address, the administration of the oath of office by Capt. Pierre W. Curie.

Wings were awarded by Col. John P. Kenney and following the singing of "La Marseillaise," French national anthem, Lt. C. W. Milbut gave the responding address.

Officers included Lt. C. W. Milbut, wing commander and president of the Cadet Honor council; Lt. L. V. Rondeau, wing adjutant; Lt. A. J. Ropelis, wing supply officer; Lt. O. J. Blackstad, senior member of the Cadet Honor council; Lt. W. E. Hartman, squadron commander; A. E. Rainey, squadron adjutant; Lt. J. B. Knox, first sergeant, and W. D. Counselman, supply officer.

Special awards were presented to 2nd Lt. Wayne E. Book, Grove City, Pa., best bombardier; F/O William W. Hackney, Springfield, Mo., best scholar; Lt. Charles W. Milbut, Philadelphia, Pa., best soldier; and Lt. Mortimer A. Ainwick, Ridgewood, N. Y., best athlete.

Registrations Filed On New Rental Units, Adjustments Made

Thirty-one new registrations of rental units were filed with the Big Spring area rental office during June, it was announced Saturday in the office of Wallace Law, area examiner.

Twelve landlord's petitions for adjustments of rent were filed. Nine of that number were granted and three denied.

Rent was lowered in seven director's initiative actions. Six eviction notices were filed, landlords filing copies of notices given to tenants for repossession of property for non-payment of rent, so that the landlord might occupy the house, or for other reasons. Three certificates for eviction were granted, in cases where new purchasers of property were giving 90-day notice for possession.

Other area activities included 45 field inspections, 309 telephone calls and 297 personal interviews.

Only the installation of furnishings remains before the house can be used—but officials are hopeful dockets will continue free of juvenile charges.

Twelve Persons Use Library On Its Opening Day

Twelve persons obtained cards at the new Howard County Free Library and numerous others visited the library to read Saturday, on the library's opening day. A $1 deposit, to be returned when a person stops using books at the library, is to be left by those obtaining cards, county commissioners decided Saturday. New books will be issued for one week, and others, two weeks, and fine will be two cents daily for keeping the books overtime.

The library, located in the red brick building at Third street and Scurry, consists of a reading room and another room in which books are stored. The reading room contains tables and shelves on which books are stored. The reading room contains tables and shelves on which books are classified according to subject and type. Lending appropriate "atmosphere," the reading room has a large fireplace in one corner.

Juvenile House Has Good Psychological Effect On Children

Maybe it's psychological effect, but at any rate there has not been a juvenile delinquency charge since construction of a juvenile detention house was opened, a county official noted Saturday. The last juvenile delinquency charge filed was on March 28. Two arrests recently were made in cases of juveniles out on parole and the paroles were revoked. Construction of the juvenile detention house has been completed.

Skelly To Test North Central Howard County

SAN ANGELO, July 1—Recovery of all-out mud by a Lamb county wildcat on drillstem test of the Clear Fork and prospects of a second well featured West Texas oil developments this week.

Heavy commercial leasing continued on the Edwards Plateau and locations were staked for an Ellenburger wildcat each in Upton and Howard counties, for a Delaware wildcat in Loving county and a deep Permian lime wildcat in Gaines.

Humble No. 1 J. A. Jackson, southeastern Lamb county wildcat C NE NW 119-A-E, M. Thompson, recovered 10 feet of oil-out mud on each of two 48-minute drillstem tests, the first from 5,389-76 feet, the second from 5,383 to 5,595 feet and cored ahead.

Stanford No. 2 Sealy-Smith Foundation in Winkler county, C SW SW 31-A-G&MMB&A, one mile east of No. 1 Sealy-Smith, opener of the North Monahans pool, recovered the first dolomite with porosity and bleeding oil in a core from 6,219-32 feet and cored ahead below 6,261.

Sinclair Prairie No. 1 Seth Campbell, Winkler wildcat C SW SW 11-85-pal, 6 1-2 miles southeast of the Keystone Ellenburger field, recovered only salty water on the first drillstem test of the Ellenburger from 12,218-305 feet and plugged back to 12,175 for further testing.

Phillips No. 2 M. J. Bashara, C SW SW 21-77-pal, bid for a mile north extension to the Holt pay in the Keystone field by recovering 155 feet of oil and gas-cut mud on a drillstem test to 4,728 feet. It is an east offset to Sinclair Prairie No. 4-A J. B. Walton, most westerly Keystone Ellenburger producer.

Sinclair Prairie took 10-year commercial leases on 10 blocks totaling 176,000 acres in Sutton, Schleicher and Crockett counties. Bonuses ranged from $1.50 to $2 per acre with annual rentals averaging 25 cents an acre. Prospective discovery in east central Gaines county, Stanford No. 1 Thos. S. Riley estate, C SW NE 79-H-D&W, awaited a cable 22 hours after three acidizations, bottomed at 4,925 feet.

San Andres Production Co. No. 1 M. H. Clouser, Cochran discovery 2 1-2 miles northwest of the Whiteface pool, in labor 18-62-Midland CSL, was testing at 4,875 feet after acidizing with 8,000 gallons. After the first treatment it swabbed oil at a rate of six barrels hourly.

Skelly plans to drill at least 2,500 feet to explore the Ellenburger in north central Howard county. Its No. 1 W. L. and R. G. Wilson will be in about the center of section 18-27-H&TC, on a block exceeding 10,000 acres. Humble staked location in eastern Upton county for No. 1 J. M. Parrott, proposed 12,000-foot wildcat C SE SE 3-EL&RB, 18 miles northeast of Rankin.

Two Ellenburger wildcats were abandoned after encountering sulphur water: Col-Tes No. 1 A. G. Miller in the westbrook field in Mitchell county, in section 22-28-18-T&P, at 4,201 feet, and Magnolia No. 1 Mary Butler in western Crane county, in section 6-1-H&TC, at 6,185 feet.

FLIGHT FASHIONS FOR THE POST-WAR AIR AGE ARE DESIGNED BY COLLEGE AVIATION STUDENTS

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Fashion Editor
FLIGHT FASHIONS for the post-war air age, designed by aviation students at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., were modeled by flying collegians at the school's first Commencement Aviation Style and Flight Show held recently on the campus. Here are girls' ideas of a flying wardrobe.

TAILORED TAKEOFF: Lois Stewart, Stephens College student of Alabama City, Alabama, models a winter shopping outfit designed by another student, Barbara Taylor, Dayton, O. Suit is brown wool broadcloth, minus fur-trimmed. Girls plan clothes for post-war "run-about" flying, say bulky flying suits are unnecessary.

READY FOR ACTION is Susan Winkler, Vincennes, Ind., in an aquamarine araliae and spun rayon two-piece work suit designed by Beverly Sparks, College Station, Tex. Tapered trousers and sleeves are practical style notes. With it she wears new feminine flying helmet trimmed in brown leather, flattering as it is practical.

KNEE PANTS of watermelon red wool gabardine are slit to match sleeves of beige wool box jacket of this streamlined suit modeled by Dee Schuepbach, of Harlingen, Texas, aviation student at Stephens College.

ON THE BEAM for a teatime twosome is Patricia Nielsen, of Oak Park, Ill., wearing a cocktail dress designed by Jean Richter, Westfield, N. J. Dress of purple crepe is worn with smart fuchsia accessories shown here.

SUNSET SPIN in a flying flapper precedes a big evening for Margaret Hunter, St. Paul, Minn., wearing a maroon dinner dress trimmed in chartruse, designed by Stephens College student Laura Hamilton, Topeka, Kas.

Dance Given Honors Two

Mrs. Alfred Taylor, Bolt Leader At State Convention, Expresses Opinion Of Demos

By MARY L. KENNEDY
Associated Press Staff
Mrs. Alfred Taylor of Austin, leader of the bolt at the Democratic state convention May 23, has been called everything in the books from Joan of Arc to Harriet Beecher Stowe. But, with the aplomb of the old nursery rhyme:

"Sticks and stones may break my bones but names can never hurt me," she tosses all epithets off lightly.

Things she does not toss off lightly are: (1) aspersion cast on the name of Henry Wallace.

(2) control of the Democratic party getting out of the hands of the "real" democrats. "There are two kinds of democrats," says Mrs. Taylor. "Those spelled with a capital 'D' seeking patronage and privilege. Those spelled with a little 'd' striving toward all the word democracy implies."

"I could not live with myself if I didn't do everything I could to keep democracy functioning for the boys on the battlefields," she said in explanation of her knocking the props out from under the Travis County convention, and leading the bolt at the state convention.

Although she planned what she was going to do at the county convention, she vows her leading the democratic party split was not determined in advance.

"Anybody who saw how disorganized we were after we walked out should realize that," she says flatly.

It was not until the end of the second roll call that Alvin Wirtz, Mayor Tom Miller of Austin, and others, asked whether she would lead the bolt. She said she would.

Mrs. Taylor is of medium height, medium-heavy weight. She has a fair complexion, wears little make-up, dresses simply. Her eyes are hazel, and her long brown hair is wound in a braid around her head. Her voice is brisk. When she is wrought up about something it gains a pitch or two.

She is forthright in her views, regardless of whether of not they are popular. She declares:

The federal government has never invaded state's right unless the states have failed in their responsibility.

It would be a healthy thing for the south to have a two party system.

Negroes should have vote in the primary. Peaceful answer to the negro question lies in hands of the white people.

Henry Wallace, whose ability has been hidden under a bushel, is timber from which the next president, after Roosevelt, should be hewn.

A trip to the national convention in Chicago is hers free for the asking, she said. But she can't decide where her energies are needed the most, in Texas getting "all loyal democrats" to rally round the pro-Roosevelt program.

Contrary to the surmise of those who watched her in action

Nellie Gray, Secretary To Colonel At AAFBS, Enlists In Women's Army

It's not likely that the Colonel will go around post headquarters at AAFBS humming "Oh my efficient Nellie Gray, they have taken her away," but the colonel down to the private in the office will miss Miss Gray, who dropped her duties Friday to become a private in the WAC.

For two years, ever since the WAC was organized, Nellie has longed to enlist, but not until June did she reach her 20th birthday. Then, fortified with her parents' written consent, she enlisted at Camp Barkeley.

Her main hope is to go overseas in the same capacity as a secretary.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gray of Big Spring, Nellie is a graduate of the Big Spring high school and attended Texas State College for Women at Denton where she majored in business administration.

Starting June 1942, she became secretary to Col. Sam Ellis, even before the field was open when Cpl. Sam L. Ellis was assigned here as project officer. In succession she served in the same capacity with Col. R. W. Warren, Lt. Col. James F. Reed, now director at the conventions, and believed her a Texan, Mrs. Taylor has only been here four years.

She was born in Idaho, lived much of her life in Oregon where her husband taught in the university.

"I wasn't born a Texan, but I was born a democrat."

Her activity on the political scene is an outgrowth of her background. Her father, George W. Water, was, she says, "always active politically." He was narrowly defeated for congress in 1933.

She was a member of the Idaho democratic presidential convention in 1924, and slated for governor of Idaho in 1926 but prevented from finishing the race by a paralytic stroke.

Her husband, Alfred, of whom she speaks frequently, is tall, thin, wears glasses, looks like a professor. He is as non-political as his wife is political.

Here in Austin they live in a pretty white bungalow. Their two large handsome pet cats play about as in an ordinary household and lap cream contentedly. Roses bloom in the yard, and every Monday, a washing which Mrs. Taylor does herself, blows or the line.

of training, who served as temporary commanding officer; and Col. H. M. Wittkop and John K. Kenny.

She leaves July 6 for the WAC basic training center at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for five weeks.

After that she doesn't know, except that she will be on duty with the Air Corps, but she still hopes it's overseas.

NEWS DIGEST FOR SERVICEMEN

(From files of The Daily Herald for June 17-24)

Big Spring mopped its brow in 100-plus weather while the allies mopped up in Cehrbourg and pushed forward on Saipan during the last week.

The city turned on extra steam in its drive to raise $1,590,000 in the Fifth War Loan drive; watched the war and GOP news; and went about its daily business.

The business section was just about closed up for the big bond rally on the courthouse square Wednesday morning. Folks lined the streets and courthouse lawn as Big Boy Williams and other Hollywoodites helped encourage bond buying. Sales were boosted by $150,000 in pledges and purchases, leaving only $419,334 to go on the county's quota.

The weather was a serious situation before a heavy shower Tuesday which turned streets into rivers. Kids waded in it and a few grown-ups pulled off their shoes and socks to push stalled cars. Touching some dry spots, the shower was beneficial.

City officials keep warning residents of the water shortage; the city commission held the city's tax rate to $1.70, not raising taxes as had been feared would be necessary; every employee in Howard county except agricultural is affected by the new War Manpower commission priority referral program which went into effect July 1 and make it impossible for any employer to hire a male worker except through the United States Employment service; American Airlines, Inc., began two additional flights into Big Spring daily, beginning Saturday, one westbound and one eastbound.

Ballots for the July democratic primary are being printed and mailing of absentee ballots will start Saturday. There are 35 county, precinct and district candidates, and 34 state candidates.

SCATTERINGS: Relatives are happy over receiving letters since the invasion from numerous Big Spring soldiers stationed in England.... Word was received 19-year-old Pfc. Ray B. Hood, Jr., of Big Spring suffered a broken leg when he parachuted after flak damaged his plane and a hand cut when a "Jerry" attacked him in the invasion, but managed to fight two days before being evacuated to a hospital in England.... G. W. Sayle was happy over learning his brother, 1st Lt. Murray Sayle, former Big Spring resident reported missing in action, is safe in a hospital in Italy....

Other post operations came to a standstill during the mammoth review in the second annual field day program at Big Spring Bombardier school Saturday....

Rev. Charles Abele delivered his first sermon last Sunday as new rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church.... Vernon A. Whittington, from out at Cosden, was installed American Business club president.... Irvin Daniel was named worshipful master of Staked Plains lodge 598 of the Masons, the "Blue Lodge", and also of chapter 178, Royal Arch Masons.... Louise Ann Bennett, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Euseb, will be Miss Big Spring at the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford next week and Big Spring cowgirl at the Snyder rodeo July 18....

Social:
A large crowd of servicemen's mothers and friends contributed their services at the Red Cross room to help Big Spring reach its quota of 50,000 surgical dressings to be sent overseas.... July FOURTH

Those extra Bonds we buy today may enable us to celebrate a much happier 4th next year... with our boys now overseas parading on hometown streets.

For Every Star In Our Service Flag

Let Us Each Buy Another War Bond On This 4th

Each blue star in the flag is a symbol of a home town boy—some mother's son, some wife's husband, some baby's father, somebody's brother—all of them our very own—who at this moment may be charging through a hail of enemy bullets to live, to bleed, to die, as God may decree, in a supreme effort to wipe forever from the face of this earth those who would destroy our way of life. Wherever those sons, fathers, husbands, brothers of our own may now be fighting, everyone knows their re-doubled efforts can be no better than the support they get from back home—support that gives them the ammunition with which to carry their heroic assaults to complete Victory... Though each of us may have responded already to the home front call to Back the Attack by Buying More War Bonds, we have not yet done enough. On this, the 168th anniversary of our Declaration of Independence, —while men from our own home town fight and bleed and die to preserve forever the Spirit of Freedom our Founding Fathers gave to us and the world.....
