FARM EXHIBIT EXCELLENT IN SPITE OF THE COLD WAVE

In spite of the cold wave that struck McLean on Thursday morning of last week, farmers, cattlemen, poultry fanciers and housewives in large numbers brought in their finest farm products, thoroughbred animals, fowls and culinary products for the opening of the McLean Purebred Livestock Association's first exhibit.

Almost every class of farm products were to be seen in the exhibit hall—depicting the great cultural advantages of the community. Grains including Indian corn, milo maize, sugar cane, alfalfa and many others that grade high and some of which come from fields which have produced maximum, were there.

Besides the grain exhibits, there was a goodly number of horticultural products that are worthy of meritorious mention. Among these were to be found the pumpkin yam sweet potatoes, beets, cushaws, egg plants, okra, popcorn, pumpkins and onions.

An array of thoroughbred poultry, cattle and hogs, such as had never been assembled before in McLean, was gotten together.

Among the fowls were to be found the thoroughbred Bronze turkeys of the flocks of Robert Corum and Claude Hunt, the Bourbon Red turkeys of the Dan Abbott farm, Rhode Island Reds from the flocks of J. F. Corbin, D. M. Davis and Frank P. and W. W. Wilson, the Silver-laced Wyandottes of D. W. Johnson's farm.

Names of breeders well known to all cattlemen of the Panhandle were hung above the stalls in the livestock building.

Charlie Carpenter, well known breeder of Herefords, had on display some of his famous breed of cattle, as did also Duncan Graham.

Probably the most widely known cattle at the exhibit were those from the Sitter ranch fourteen miles south of town. Of the George Sitter cattle, Dorothy Picture has won Senior and Grand Championship at every fair in which she has been shown, namely the county fairs of Hall, Wheeler, Collingsworth and Gray.

From this same herd of cattle Dolly Shadeland won first Junior Yearling and first Championship at Wheeler.

Rosa Picture won first Junior Yearling in Hall county and third in Wheeler.

Imperial Randolph won first Junior Yearling in Hall county.

S. R. Jones of this city had on display one Jersey male, Financial Dianna's King. It is worthy of mention that the grandsire of the world champion is the great grandsire of this animal.

As meritorious as was the exhibit of cattle and poultry, the display of purebred hogs far exceeded expectations in any line.

The Glendale Stock Farm of Groom had on display three sows and one pig. These four animals won six prizes at the Pampa fair last week. At the same fair their aged boar received second prize.

Among other Poland Chinas were swine from the herds of Claude Hunt, the famous Liberator herds of Howard, the big boned Poland Chinas of the Wilson Brothers, the Clansman boar of the Stubbs farm, which took first prize at Pampa for the Junior Poland China, also the sweepstake prize at Pampa, and the first prize litter at Clarendon.

Among the Duroc Jersey thoroughbreds were animals from the well known herds of Kid McCoy, D. L. Abbott, J. G. Cash and W. H. Cobbs. The following places were won on Durocs by the following contestants:

Junior Champion sow, W. H. Cobbs; Senior Champion sow, Geo. Cash; Grand Champion sow, Geo. Cash; Junior Champion boar, D. L. Abbott; Senior Champion boar, D. L. Abbott; Grand Champion boar, D. L. Abbott; aged boar, D. L. Abbott; Junior Yearling boar, Wilkerson & Barr; Junior boar pig, first, D. L. Abbott; second, D. L. Abbott; third, Geo. Cash; aged sow, D. L. Abbott; Junior Yearling sow, Geo. Cash; Junior sow pig, first, W. H. Cobbs; second, D. L. Abbott; third, W. H. Cobbs.

The following are the names of owners of winners in the Poland China contests:

Aged boar, W. G. Smith first, W. C. Stanton, second; Senior Yearling boar, J. S. Howard; Junior Yearling boar, W. W. Wilson; Junior Champ-

KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME TOWN

If everyone born and reared in this town had remained here to make his permanent home, we should be a town of many hundreds more population than we now number.

On the other hand, cities and towns elsewhere that have attracted our youth would never have been founded, perhaps, and America would remain as it was in pioneer days—a great continent with a few scattered cities—all too large, all over-congested.

But the opportunity that calls men away from their native homes keeps the great movement alive, with the result that practically every part of America has in it a representative of McLean.

However, the home town always has its interest for the people who heeded the call to go elsewhere, and news of its progress and the doings of its people is welcome news to the native and former resident, wherever he may now be located.

Correspondence, however faithful, cannot cover all the news and gossip, and seldom deals with more than family affairs. The perfect medium, of course, is the home town newspaper, which prints all the news of all the people. Some of these items, while of limited interest to you, might be of great interest to one away from home.

There is now a nation-wide movement on foot, sponsored by the National Editorial Association and other agencies, in which this paper is taking part, looking to a stimulation of interest in the Home Town Paper.

To do our part, we are offering an extra copy of The McLean News to every subscriber with the request that he send it to a relative or friend out of town. This extra copy is free for the asking by writing or calling at this office. Or, if preferred, we will send free copies to such former residents as you may designate.

LAST CAR OF MELONS SHIPPED LAST WEEK

Not until last week was the last car of watermelons shipped from McLean. In spite of the fact that the melon crop has been exceptionally late this year, they have retained unusual flavor and watermelon buyers from the South continue to ask for the McLean melons in preference to others.

The production this year has almost doubled the predictions of the local buyers and producers.

Mrs. Nida Green returned Monday from Amarillo, where she had been attending the Methodist conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Birl Glass and children of Alanreed visited relatives in McLean Saturday and Sunday.

D. M. Graham made a business trip to Pampa Thursday.

NEW COUNTY AGENT ARRIVED LAST WEEK

R. O. Dunkle, new county farm demonstration agent, reported for duty last week, and has his office temporarily in C. S. Rice's furniture store.

Mr. Dunkle comes from Lelia Lake, and is known to several McLean people, who recommend him very highly to the people of Gray county.

The new county agent is well pleased with the reception the farmers have given him, for they all seem to be intensely interested in the demonstration work, and show a willingness to co-operate in every way. Mr. Dunkle is away attending the Dallas fair at this time, but expects to be back some time next week.

The News wants to apologise to Mr. Dunkle and its readers for not mentioning his arrival in last week's paper. On account of an unprecedented rush of work in the job printing department, we were forced to omit several items of valuable news matter. Fact is, we think we did well to get out any paper at all. But the rush is over—at least the worst part of it, and we hope to be able to not only keep the paper up to standard, but to make it even better in the future.

MANY HEAR LECTURE BY MRS. PHOEBE K. WARNER

Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner of Claude lectured to a crowded house at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, her subject being, "Is It Well With Your Son and Your Daughter?"

Mrs. Warner presented her subject in her characteristic clear and impressive manner, and her address has occasioned much comment this week among those who heard her. Indeed so well has she been advertised by her delighted hearers, that should she return soon the biggest auditorium in town would be inadequate.

Mrs. Warner is one of the most noted women in the Panhandle, and there are few, if any, in all Texas who are more prominent, particularly in the Texas federation of women's clubs, in which she is a worker. She is well known to thousands who read the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, articles from her pen appearing in that paper several times a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowry of Clarendon visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cousins, Sunday. They were accompanied home Monday by Mrs. Chas. Cousins and Miss Nona Cousins.

Messrs. and Mesdames Hamer Crabtree and Alva Alexander went to Shamrock Wednesday.

Jot Montgomery of the Y O U ranch was in town the first of the week on business.

ANDREW H. FLOYD FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Under military escort from New York, the body of Andrew H. Floyd, Co. 142nd Infantry, arrived here Thursday morning of last week. From the station the body was taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Floyd, where it remained until two o'clock Sunday afternoon, when funeral services were held at the tabernacle. Rev. A. F. Agee, former pastor of the local Baptist church, and President J. A. Hill of the West Texas State Normal College of Canyon, officiating.

The Andrew H. Floyd post of the American Legion escorted the body to the tabernacle, and after the ceremonies to Hillcrest cemetery for interment. At the grave Lieutenant Paul Messer paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased, after which he presented the flag which covered the casket to the mother, Mrs. L. O. Floyd, who then presented the flag to the local post as a symbol of the high esteem which she has for this organization. The local post was named in honor of her son, he being the only soldier from this community to make the supreme sacrifice.

Lieutenant Paul Messer and several other ex-soldiers from Shamrock were present at the ceremony.

Private Floyd was the possessor of two citations for bravery, the croix de guerre and the palm citation from Marshall Petain of France. Besides his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Floyd, one brother, Wayland Floyd of this city, and four sisters, Mrs. Maude Piersall and Miss Eunice Floyd of this city, Mrs. J. W. Kolb of Alanreed, and Mrs. W. D. Biggers of Hedley, were present at the ceremony.

1000 TO 1500 PEOPLE ATTENDED FLOYD FUNERAL

It is estimated that between a thousand and fifteen hundred people were present at the obsequies of Andrew H. Floyd, Co. G, 142nd Infantry, which took place last Sunday. Among the great number of out-of-town people who were present were: Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, L. G. Allen, D. T. Tarlton, R. A. Terrell, Mody C. Boatright, Misses Jennie Ritchie, Mary Hudsperth and Mary Lamb, all of Canyon, Messrs. and Mesdames D. L. Leeper, P. L. Johnson and S. K. Roach and Mrs. Whately and family of Groom, Dr. and Mrs. Warner of Claude, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sloan of Pampa, Prof. and Mrs. S. R. Loftin and Mrs. J. W. Sherrod and family of Alanreed, Mr. and Mrs. Will Harlan of White Deer, Misses Alma Anedron and Willie Merle Trappe of Hedley, Commander Paul Messer and a number of representatives from the Shamrock American Legion post, and some boy scouts from Shamrock.

C. C. Campbell has received a new rig and is planning to resume operations on the Y O U oil well, which was closed down a few weeks ago.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND HOG SHOW AND SALE

At the close of the McLean Purebred Livestock Association exhibit and sale, held here last Friday and Saturday, there prevails a general feeling of the success of the display, in both quality and quantity of the agricultural products, as well as those of the thoroughbred livestock which were shown in the exhibit halls on those days.

The Livestock Association begun its great work of encouraging the farmers and stockmen by direct evidence of the attainments to be achieved by better farming and better breeding. The exhibit this year and its marked success is a great encouragement to the farmers and stockmen to undertake an exhibit next year on a much larger scale.

Although this particular exhibit was primarily for the purpose of selling thoroughbred hogs, there was a wide range of farm productions from every other farm source, including all kinds of grain and garden products, thoroughbred cattle, poultry, horses and hogs.

That the McLean Livestock Association has come to stay and to be a prominent factor in this part of the Panhandle, was evidenced Saturday afternoon during the auction sales. Good prices were paid, lively bidding was on, and prize winners went for high stakes.

People from every part of the Panhandle interested in thoroughbred hogs were in attendance at the sale. The sales totaled $927, making an average price for the twenty-nine head, which included mostly young stock, $32.

850 DISASTER DEATH TOLL FOR ONE YEAR

Red Cross Gives $1,871,000 Relief When 65,000 Families Are Made Homeless.

Forty-three disasters, resulting in the death in the United States of 850 persons and the injury of 2,500 called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,871,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, says an announcement based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. These disasters caused property damage estimated at $30,000,000, affected sixty-seven communities and rendered 65,000 families homeless.

The year's disasters were of varying types, including several which previously had never been thought of as falling within that classification. The Red Cross furnished relief in seventeen fires of magnitude, five floods, seven tornadoes or cyclones, one devastating storm, three explosions, including the one in Wall Street; one building accident, two typhoid epidemics, the most serious being that at Salem, Ohio, which affected 9 per cent of the population; one smallpox epidemic, in the republic of Haiti; one train wreck, the race riot at Tulsa, Okla.; the famine in China, emergency relief in famine among the Indians of Alaska, the grasshopper plague in North Dakota and an earthquake in Italy.

Pueblo Most Serious

By far the most severe of the disasters in the United States during the period covered by the Red Cross report was the Pueblo flood early in June, 1921. The rehabilitation problem confronting the Red Cross in Pueblo was one of the most difficult in recent years. When the first news of the horror was flashed throughout the country, the American Red Cross National Headquarters responded with a grant of $105,000 for relief work. Governor Shoup of Colorado, appreciating the long and successful experience of the Red Cross in organizing disaster relief work, placed the entire responsibility for the administration of relief in its hands.

In response to appeals from President Harding, Governor Shoup and other governors of western states and through local chapters of the Red Cross and other community organizations, public-spirited citizens brought the total contributed for Pueblo's rehabilitation to more than $325,000.

The terrible havoc wrought by the flood waters is a matter of record. More than 2,300 homes were affected and 7,351 persons were left homeless. Estimates of $500,000 as an absolute minimum for rehabilitation were made by Red Cross officials in charge of the relief work.

Fast Work in Wall Street

The Wall street explosion was notable in that relief workers of the Red Cross were on the scene twenty minutes after the disaster occurred. The race riot at Tulsa also was unique in disaster relief annals in that outside of a small emergency relief fund contributed by the Red Cross, the only relief measures outside the city consisted of the service of social workers, nurses and a trained executive whose object was to assist local forces in directing their own efforts.

In decided contrast with the previous year, only one tornado assumed the proportions of a major disaster. This occurred on April 15, in the border sections of Texas and Arkansas with the city of Texarkana as the center. The significant feature of this disaster relief work was the fact that it covered so much rural territory as to make necessary a large number of relief workers.

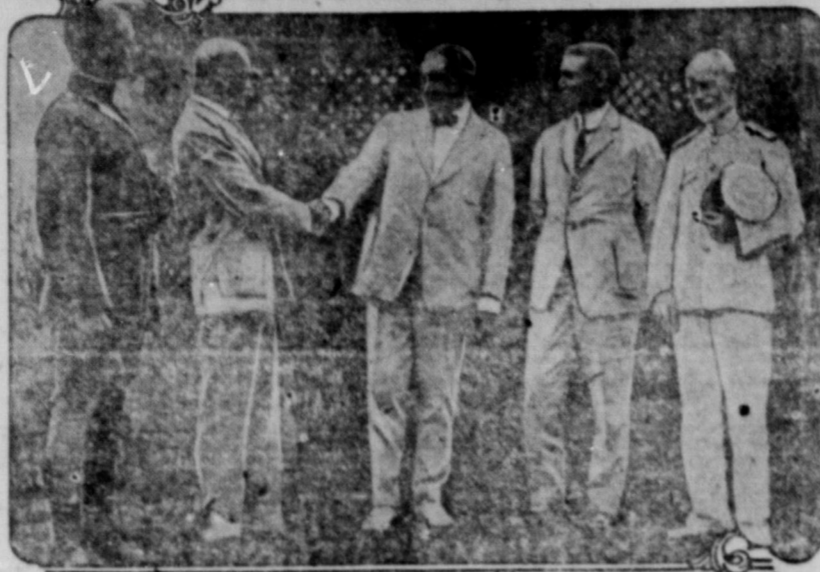

The famine in China, necessitating relief expenditures totalling more than $1,000,000 by the American Red Cross was by far the most serious of the foreign disasters in which the Red Cross gave aid.

Builds Up its Machinery

In connection with the administration of disaster relief measures, an increasing effectiveness on the part of the Red Cross to deal with emergencies was manifested during the past year. In 328 Chapters of the American Red Cross there have been formed special committees to survey the resources of their respective communities and to be prepared in case of disaster. In others of the 3,402 active Chapters, a network of communication has been formed through which instantaneous relief may be dispatched to any part of the United States.

That its work in this field may be continued with ever greater effectiveness, the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during its Annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from November 11 to 24.

President Harding Now Heads Red Cross

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and to the American Legion, who have so lovingly stood by us in the funeral ceremonies of our son and brother. Your faithful services, your sympathetic words and your beautiful floral offerings will linger in our memories as long as life shall last.

Although the wounds so cruelly inflicted three years ago have been re-opened by these last sad rites, we want to assure you that your kindness has drawn us closer to you than ever before.

May God in His mercy spare you the sorrow of having to make this sacrifice. But if it should be yours to make, may you have strength to give thanks for a life so nobly wrought, a fight so bravely fought, a sacrifice so freely made for friends for home and for God.

We do not know why it should be thus, but some day the secret will be revealed, and we shall realize that

"God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform; He plants His footsteps on the sea, And rides upon the storm."

"Judge not the Lord with feeble sense,

But trust Him for His grace; Behind a frowning providence, He hides a smiling face."

McLean High Wallops Pampa

Saturday, Oct. 8, marked a day of honor and victory for the M. H. S. boys. A test of skill and energy was demanded on the part of the local football eleven to defeat their friendly rival. During every stage of the game the home boys portrayed the strategy of genuine sportsmanship, which culminated in a glorious victory for the formidable Tigers, the score ending 13 to 7.

At no interval of the game were the Tigers forced to resort to aerial football, but, on the other hand, employed line plunges and end runs in combination with punts and drop kicks. Pampa's heavy line always gave way to the aggressive Tigers. The remarkable line plunges made by Full-back Wilson registered many measurable gains against the opponents. Blair's noticeable brokenfield end run gains dazzled Pampa's defense. End runs by Jack Back gave many gains to the local team, wherein he scored a touchdown in the first quarter.

During the second quarter the visitors scored a touchdown on our boys by perfecting one line plunge.

Forward passes were completed at will by McLean, and as a result, Biggers completed a pass for a touchdown in the third quarter.

The visitors had the Tigers outclassed in weight, but our boys did not seem handicapped by that.

Coach Baxter made but one substitution, while Pampa made four. But, as can be seen by the score, the battle was a hard fought one.

Mr. Baxter (to John Haynes)—"John, why were you late to school this morning?"

Volley Ball

The high school girls are panning the organization of a volley ball team for the simple reason—there are too many to play basket ball and the girls must "play off" that surplus energy! Can you beat it?

High School Choral Club

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Cain and the high school girls met and talked of organizing a Choral Club. Mrs. Boyett has offered her assistance, and we are sure with her help to work successfully.

The reason for organizing this club is that when we entertain in chapel in the mornings, if the President of the United States (or any other famous person) should happen to visit us, we could offer a little entertainment for his or her benefit. We have not organized as yet, but prospects are good for an excellent Choral Club.

And other yells.

Janitor—"Oh, that's just natural to hear around here. McLean high school "raises the roof" when they have chapel. That's real "pep" you know, and if you want enough to last you through life, just call around."

Visitor—"No wonder! I'm feeling better already."

Ford Makes Another Cut

This last cut is on Storage Batteries. The Storage Battery has for a long time been rather a grievance, for two reasons: First, the cost was so much, together with the short life of the battery, that it made the storage battery a source of constant worry. So like all other reforms, there had to be a starting place. And Mr. Ford said that they should be in reach of the man of moderate means, so he bought a battery factory and now makes a battery second to none, stamps his own name on it, guarantees it to be as good as any $40 battery on the market, and sells it to the consumer for the small sum of $25. This Ford battery is backed by Mr. Ford through his local dealers, just as anything else sold with his name on it, and you know what that means. So if you need a 6-volt storage battery for your car, no matter what make of car, this is your opportunity. Received shipment of batteries this week.

FORMER BAPTIST PASTOR MOVES AWAY THIS WEEK

Rev. A. F. Agee, who preached his farewell sermon to the local Baptist congregation Sunday evening, moved this week to Vernon, where he will make his home as he serves the Wilbarger-Ford Baptist Association as missionary. His family, who are at present in school at Canyon, will follow later.

Rev. Agee had been pastor of the First Baptist church for two years, during which time much substantial progress has been made by the church. The membership has increased considerably, the financial condition of the church has been improved greatly, and its membership brought into better working order. There are indeed few church organizations that are in better condition than Rev. Agee leaves this one.

A NEW CORRESPONDENT WRITES FROM LIBERTY

Signing herself "Prairie Chicken," a new correspondent contributes to The News this week from the Liberty community. It is a newsy letter, and the first representation we have had from Liberty in a long while.

The News is glad to accept correspondence from nearby rural communities, and wishes we had several more as good as Prairie Chicken. We need someone to write the news from Back, Pagan, Carpenter, Ramsdell, Watkins, Skillit, Whitefish, Eldridge, Lefors, Alanreed and Peterson Creek, there being no one to write from those communities at present.

COAL OIL BURNER

I will demonstrate the "Instant Gas" burner at Erwin drug store Saturday. Installed in an ordinary stove, it works like city gas and is cheaper than coal. C. A. Watkins.

NEWS FROM LIBERTY

We have decided that it is high time for Liberty to be heard from.

This is the fifth week of school and it has been very successful so far. The boys have added some "acting poles" to their playground equipment, and to say the least, they do some stunts.

A number of us attended the Andrew H. Floyd funeral Sunday, and are proud of the way in which McLean and all concerned did honor to our fallen hero.

O. P. Purcell left Sunday for Dallas to attend the fair, having won a trip on corn. Suttle Purcell accompanied him.

W. B. Taylor and family left Wednesday for Ft. Worth, where they intend to make their future home. We are sorry to see them leave, but wish them all success.

J. F. Corbin is on the sick list this week.
