CATALOGS FOR HOG SALE FINISHED THIS WEEK

This week The News job department turned out the catalog of the McLean Purebred Livestock Association's hog sale, which is to take place on Saturday, October 8th, on the last day of the American Legion rodeo.

Thirty-seven head of blooder perkers with distinguished ancestry are in the offering. There are 21 Poland Chinas and 16 Duroc Jerseys. Of the Poland Chinas 7 belong to J. S. Howard, 2 to W. I. Bacon, 5 to W. W. Wilson, 2 to Ernest Abbott, 1 to F. P. Wilson, 2 to S. C. Corum and 2 to B. F. Corum.

Of the Duroc Jerseys Paul Ladd has 3, D. L. Abbott & Son 3, J. G. Cash 2, W. H. Cobbs 2 and Kid McCoy 6.

We would like to tell you a lot of stuff about the distinguished sires and dams many of these animals are descendants of, but the hog editor is out of town, and we know as much about hogs as a Fiji islander knows about aviation; besides, we don't want to try to act wise and have a lot of hog breeders laugh at us. But we do know that we are not "climbin' out on a limb" when we say that included in this sale are some of the famous Jay-hawker's get, as well as the progeny of the best breeders in the Glover and Alexander herds at Childress.

As a good piece of printed matter The News is proud of the hog sale catalog, believing that we have fully lived up to our slogan that "You can't get a poor job of printing from The McLean News." It is in the form of a six-page folder, pages 4x10 inches, printed on fawn colored cover paper.

Little Miss Katherine Lawrence of Amarillo was in McLean Monday, soliciting subscriptions for the Amarillo Daily Tribune. THREE GREAT EVENTS

The principal events in a man's or woman's life are but three—and in some cases only two. The first is birth, the second is marriage and the third is death. These are the great adventures of life.

These events are all chronicled in the home town paper—in the birth notices, the marriage notices and the death notices.

In between these notices are the thousand little items of everyday life of the people you know—your own people and friends.

Not the happenings of persons so-called "famous," but our own people—the news items of the home town paper.

No place else can these news items be obtained and every town and city dweller should have the home town paper.

"Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week," November 7th to 12th, gives you the opportunity to do this, or if already a subscriber, to renew your subscription.

SHAMROCK MAN SHOT AND INSTANTLY KILLED; CITY MARSHAL HELD

Shamrock, Sept. 23.—Carl Brooks was shot and killed here last night. T. E. Sammons, city marshal, surrendered to the sheriff immediately after the shooting.

Brooks is well known in this section of the Panhandle by the name of "Cutey." He was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary by the Federal court at Amarillo some years ago and Sammons is said to have been the chief witness against him and bad feeling has existed between them for some time, it is claimed.

Brooks was employed in the Shamrock Cafe and was engaged in making pies, when, according to eye witnesses, Sammons entered. Only one shot was fired, striking Brooks about two inches from the backbone on the left side, passed through his body and out just below the armpit, through his left arm.

The shooting occurred at about 10 o'clock.

HAYNES BUYS ODELL BUSINESS BUILDINGS

A deal was closed Monday, in which W. L. Haynes became owner of the two Odell business buildings—the Mission theater and the Jundy-Hodges Mercantile stand.

The American Legion has a movement on foot to buy the theater building from Mr. Haynes and convert the balcony into a clubroom. They also plan to open the theater, and put on a movie show once or twice a week.

McLEAN'S FIRST BALE OF 1921 COTTON BRINGS 21C

D. L. Hall of near Alanreed brought in the first bale of 1921 cotton on Monday of last week, but it was not ginned until Saturday, on account of delay in repairing the press at the gin.

The bale weighed 510 pounds, graded strict middling, and was sold to Smith Brothers for 21 cents per pound. Mr. Hall received a premium of $25 from local business men.

In last week's News it was stated that this bale belonged to C. H. Nicholson of the Sitter ranch country. We were told this by a man who ought to have known, but who happened to be mistaken. Such things will happen as long as newspaper men and those from whom they get information are human.

NIGHT WATCHMAN IS THE VICTIM OF HIGHJACKERS

J. H. Rheurak of Amarillo, who is watching engines here for the Rock Island, was knocked unconscious and robbed of $4.50 in loose change Wednesday night at about 12:30 o'clock.

Two men clumb up into the cab from opposite sides and struck Mr. Rheurak on the head, knocking him unconscious for about an hour. He suffered no serious injuries. He happened to take his watch out of his pocket and lay it on the seat beside him just before the robbery, and it was not taken.

B. W. Finnell of Alanreed was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

McLean Hi Contests Shamrock Hi
Clad in gorgeous colors of black and gold Tuesday afternoon, our boys dashed into battle against the would-be aggressive eleven of Shamrock high school. Realizing that we had everything to gain and nothing to lose, our boys fought as young Trojans.

Shamrock kicked off to McLean. The ball was carried to Shamrock's thirty yard line, where the scrimmage began. The home team made one down and on second, Lee Wilson passed to Glass. Glass completed the pass, making a touchdown, all within less than three minutes of play. This touchdown was invalid by decision of Shamrock's umpire.

Then came the line plunging and end runs. Shamrock tried line plunging but found that our line was impenetrable. Time after time they bucked McLean's line, only to be knocked back in despair. These tactics were employed by our visitors throughout the first quarter.

During the second quarter the enemy came forth with every ray of hope and energy. Line plunging did not suffice their needs; short passes were made to the extent that home men "broke 'em up" or downed the receiver on the spot of receiving.

The Tiger squad, realizing how they stood, seemed to hasten on toward the opponents' goal line for a touchdown. Shamrock's line was unable to offer resistance to our bone rattling charges. Not only did their line fail in offering resistance to our line men, but our star player, Lee Wilson, made gain after gain over the enemies' line. Our boys continued making gains until they were within a few feet of the enemies' goal line. All possible resistance was offered but the home boys crossed the line for victory.

In the third quarter came the heat of fervor. The enemy plotted and aimed until one score was gained. Arousing a generous fighting spirit among our squad, Shamrock failed to make another noticeable gain throughout the remaining time.

The fourth quarter was all in favor of M. H. S. The ball was never near our goal. Our boys came within ten yards of the goal line

PAMPA COMMUNITY FAIR ON OCTOBER 5TH AND 6TH

For a copy of the Pampa Community Fair catalog, The News is indebted to F. P. Reid, who, besides being a real estate, farm loan and insurance man, is mayor of Pampa and secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

We learn from the booklet that Mr. Reid sends us that Pampa plans to have a sho'nuff fair—one that will meet every requirement and won't send the people away cussin'. There will be prizes offered for exhibits of bread and pickles, laces, embroidery and soap, fruit, kafir corn, peas and squashes, mules, horses, babies, cattle and hogs, as well as scores of other things which make one dizzy when he tries to contemplate.

The catalog does not contain complete information about the entertainment program, mentioning only the races which will take place on the afternoon of the second day.

The dates of the Pampa fair are Tuesday and Wednesday, October 4th and 5th. If you can get away, we are sure it will be worth your while to go.

As a good looking piece of printed matter, the fair catalog is good enough for anybody. It was produced in the Pampa News office, and looks just as good as if it had been sent to a city printer. One of these days the people of Gray county are going to learn that in two places—Pampa and McLean—are printing offices that can turn out as good work as you can get anywhere, at prices that are fair to all concerned. The McLean News and Pampa News each can supply most any want anybody is likely to have in this line.

B. Y. P. U. NOTES

Nearly every reform that has been accomplished on this earth has been the result of excesses on the part of some one, so disgusting and so revolting that public sentiment becomes a mighty sweeping force against that particular evil. For a number of years the public has been noting indication of moral laxity among the actors of movieland, and while press and pulpit have occasionally cried out against the condition, yet there has been no wide spread revolt against their private conduct until the wild party at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco, which resulted in the death of Virginia Rappe and the indictment of Fatty Arbuckle for the crime. Immediately from every walk of life come expressions of resentment against immorality in the lives of moviefolk and so general has it become it now appears that the public may expect a genuine clean-up of the profession. While the News hopes that the guilty shall be made to pay the full penalty of the law, yet it is desired that the people will not forget that Fatty Arbuckle and Virginia Rappe are only in the limelight on account of the fatal ending of the orgy, and that many, many others of the profession have been engaging in the same sinful indulgence, with as yet, no circumstance awful enough to give them front page publicity. The brutality of Arbuckle's crime, if he is proven guilty, calls for a severe penalty, yet a venturesome girl who goes into a man's private bed room, in the course of so hilarious a party as the one in question, has little claim on the sympathy of the public—except that general sympathy which goes out to all youth when they lose sight of the conventions and deliberately tread the treacherous primrose path. As we pointed out in the first sentence, reform comes by excess, and to Fatty Arbuckle or some other member of that gay St. Francis party the world bids fair to owe something for the reform which now seems certain. "The wages of sin is death."—Clarendon News.

We had a fine congregation for Thursday night prayer meeting. We enjoyed a great spiritual feast. The first half hour was given to song service with our young people. Some song service; come hear them next Thursday night at 7:30.

In spite of the rain, we had a very interesting Sunday school at 10 a. m.; review of quarter.

Had nice congregation of young people in N. Y. P. S. They report a good meeting. Our night service was called for the Legion service at the Presbyterian church.

We invite the public to our services next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Young People's meeting at 6:45 p. m.; preaching at 7:45 p. m.

Don't forget the revival beginning Oct. 12, with Mrs. Emma Erick as evangelist. I would like to have fifty young people come help us in these song services. S. R. JONES.

TRAGEDIES OF LIFE

After serving the people of La Grange and Fayette county for seventeen years as editor of the La Grange Journal, Ben F. Harigel has been sent to the mountains by his physicians in search of health—perhaps to die. The Journal was poorly patronized by the people and Ben had to fight day and night (from 12 to 15 hours per day) for enough money to get by on. Of course, Ben was in the wrong business. But with tenacity he held on. He never complained, but his physician told him he must give up the fight and quit—his health was gone. That is the greatest boon to man and when the sun is setting in the river, it is all over so far as the battle of life is concerned. When the time came to go Ben said nothing, but with a sorrow-filled heart and broken health he sent out a few past due bills to his customers that he had served faithfully and among them two came to his office. One rich man living in a brown stone mansion, who had been Ben's school mate, came to his office in his limousine and protested a bill for $1.30 for an advertisement charge that had cost Ben $2.30 to produce. He wanted the 30 cents taken off, and with the fever of death in his blood Ben "compromised," knowing that he was making his last stand for life. Another man who had grown immensely rich while Ben worked for him and his business and town said that the wind had blown away several newspapers and refused to pay his bill; and Ben went away without the needed money. The writer has known Ben Harigel from his boyhood. He was always serious and earnest and was a worker, but not a money maker. His word was better than a bond because no man had to sue on his bond. He is dying out in the mountains, fighting the great deadly monster—tuberculosis. But in the day of judgment he will have a better record than those who have failed to treat him fairly, for they, too, may remember when it is too late the last earthly words of Henry W. Grady, when he closed his eyes in death: "Mother, you and God will not desert me when my feet are in the river."—Lee J. Rountree in Bryan Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Lonsdale of Denver, Colo., came in Saturday for a visit with the lady's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Montgomery.

A large crowd of the younger set and a number of the older ones enjoyed a social at the A. A. Dickens home last Friday evening.

"SHALL WE SELL OR ELECTRIFY THE FARM?"

This question has arisen in the mind of many a farmer who is "getting on in years," and who begins to feel that it is about his time to give up the grinding hard work he has always had to do, retire and take things easy. So he thinks of selling the farm and moving to town. Many farmers do this, almost always to their later regret, because they find that they are not comfortable in town and that while they don't want to grind as they've always had to before, still they miss their farm work and farm interests. So they fail to find satisfaction after all.

Others have struck a much better solution of the problem during the last few years, within which time the farm electric plant has put in its appearance and changed the whole face of country life. The farmer who has reached the retiring age finds that it isn't at all necessary for him to go to town to find the leisure that he needs. He finds that if he electrifies his farm, the drudgery will disappear from farm work, chores will almost do themselves, and he'll have an extra hired man.

Electrical conveniences of all kinds, such as washing machines, vacuum sweepers and flat irons will make his wife's lot much easier and give her, too, the increased leisure that she needs as much as he does.

They will have in their house bright and safe electric lights in every room, upstairs and down, lights in the halls, controlled from either floor, lights on the porches and at the barn that can be turned on and off from the house. They will have a bath room with hot and cold running water. There will be water on tap in the kitchen, faucets outside for sprinkling the lawn.

All of these conveniences come with electricity, and the farmer who takes advantage of them finds that he no longer has to think of selling the farm and moving to town for ease and comfort in his declining years. He can enjoy them much better right on the farm where he has spent his life, and he can still take an interest in his life work—Exchange.

A GOOD SHOW

West Bros' show, "A Texas Ranger," is to be in McLean next Tuesday, October 4th. From the appearance of the advertising on the billboards, etc., one might judge it a very good show. The performance, which takes place in a big tent, lasts more than two hours. Music is furnished by the cowboy band carried by the show. The prices are 25c for children and 50c for adults, according to the announcement carried in the advertising columns of this issue of The News. The show comes well recommended from other towns where they have been.

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL OFFERED FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION

In compliance with a resolution introduced by and passed through the instrumentality of Senator R. P. Dorrough of Texarkana, a thousand copies of the "Legislative Manual" of the 1921 Texas legislature were printed for free distribution. This is probably the first time that citizens of the state, other than members of the legislature and state officials, have had the opportunity of securing a copy of the "Legislative Manual," as before a very limited edition has been printed.

The extra copies were printed in response to the numerous calls for material contained in the Manual and not accessible elsewhere. This Manual contains an up-to-date copy of the Constitution of Texas; and outside of certain expensive compilations of Texas Statutes, the Manual is the only place where anything like an up-to-date copy of the Texas Constitution can be found. This Manual also contains the Constitution of the United States, lists of members of the House and Senate; the rules of both houses, standing committees of both houses, as well as other material of interest.

A request addressed to Miss Octavia F. Rogan, Legislative Reference Librarian, State Library, Austin, enclosing postage for transportation will bring a copy of the Manual. The Manual weighs, unwrapped, one pound, two ounces, making the postage charges for the first and second zones from Austin six cents, for the third zone eight cents, and for the fourth zone eleven cents for a single copy.

Teachers of history and civics may obtain several copies for class use.

PRISONER INDUCED FEVER BY HOLDING SOAP IN ARM PIT

Judge R. C. Joiner's knowledge of a method of inducing a raise in temperature by putting soap in the arm pit probably kept a man in Floyd county several months ago from delaying trial of his case. Judge Joiner knew a man who had practiced this while in a state penitentiary. His general emancipated condition and the regular raise in temperature led the prison authorities to believe that he was afflicted with tuberculosis. This particular Floyd county man was developing fever and nausea. Knowing that he could be inducing his own fever, Judge Joiner had all soap removed from the cell and soon his fever subsided. He found, too, that the prisoner was inducing nausea by swallowing tobacco.

Monroe, Banker And Diplomat

Besides fathering the famous doctrine that bears his name, President James Monroe always preached conservation by banking. His keenness made the Louisiana purchase possible.

Every great man says that banking is the bulwark of this country.

Every business man, every man, every woman, should have a bank account.

School Notes

but were penalized by the umpire, wherein the quarter ceased.

The high school and general public are proud of the boys. Every phase of play was in favor of the Tigers, both offensive and defensive. It is remarkable that we played with the ball on the enemies' ground at least four-fifths of the time. Several times our boys neared the goal line, only to be penalized by Shamrock's official, making it impossible for us to rescue. We are confident of a season of victories, for our boys have the necessary "pep and ginger" to deliver the goods.

The school poet, Houston Bogan, has already begun to hum. Note his latest:

Our coach is a religious man,
All except his temper.
Yet he never gets mad,
But if someone gets bad
He makes them crawl off and whimper.

Coachie is always full of pep;
He never has the blues.
When he sings he will prance
And have St. Vitus dance
From the crown of his head to his shoes.

He is a fighter who never gives up
His athletes will be the same.

No victory lies in a compromise,
So we will fight for honor and fame.

Our coach is the pupils' hero.

I never saw such a man before.
In the twinkle of an eye he
Can eat a whole raisin pie,
Then fret and cry for more.

Now, to the football men

Who play on the team tomorrow,
You must do your part from the very start,

And save our school coach from sorrow.

Shamrock will say we won out strait,

And not by crooked playing,
For no one could dare to play unfair

After what the coach has been saying.

We will beat them so fast

It won't sum a reality;
As we swiftly run by our coach will cry,

"Shamrock, pardon their brutality."

The coach will feel so frisky and fine

He will romp and rumple his hair;
Like a highfied cat he will jump through his hat,

And act like a grizzly bear.

The school thanks our editor for space in his paper for school notes.
