SEVERAL GAME WARDENS NEAR McLEAN APPOINTED

Bendford D. Garmon of Panhandle, deputy state game commissioner, was in McLean a day or two this week, and tells The News that seven or eight game wardens have been appointed in this vicinity, and in such localities that every part of the territory adjacent to our town may be patrolled.

He did not give out a list of appointees, as their appointments have not been confirmed nor their credentials issued.

Mr. Garmon says that he is well pleased with the disposition our people are showing to observe the game laws. "Certainly, there have been a few violations; that is to be expected when a law is put into operation, but the folks are showing a splendid spirit of co-operation, better than I have found in most places."

"Since the enactment of the game conservation laws in Texas, they have not been enforced in the Panhandle, because game of all sorts was too plentiful for it to be necessary. But the time has come when our quail, prairie chicken and other wild fowls should be protected and the law must be enforced."

TO INTRODUCE CHINESE PHEASANT IN PANHANDLE

Deputy State Game Commissioner B. D. Garmon of Panhandle informs The News that he is making arrangements to get a large quantity of Chinese pheasant eggs, which will be supplied free to farmers and ranchmen who are interested in stocking the country with game birds.

Mr. Garmon tells us also that the McLean country will be in line for a large share of these eggs, as we have an ideal country in which to place them. The shineries, wooded creeks and plum thickets in this vicinity furnish one of the most necessary things, which is cover, and without which the birds will leave the country.

The Chinese pheasant is almost as large as a White Leghorn hen, and has markings similar to a Bob White quail. One may place the eggs under a setting hen, and after they hatch and the young pheasants get big enough to rustle for themselves they leave home and run wild, finding and adopting their natural surroundings. There they propagate others of their kind.

It is said that in a certain part of Colorado these birds were introduced, and from a start of 3000 eggs, in four years the mountains were full of them, so rapidly did they multiply.

Among those from McLean who attended the funeral of Mrs. Jack Stigler at Alanreed Sunday afternoon were: B. L. Burk, A. A. Dickens, T. N. Holloway and family, Mrs. D. A. Davis and son, Marvin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morse visited in the Mathis home at Maimi Sunday.

News From Heald

Everybody is invited to the program and box supper to be given at Heald Friday night, Nov. 25.

Miss Mabel Hayes, county demonstrator, met with the girls at Mrs. Carver's last Friday morning, and with the women at Mrs. T. C. Landers' in the afternoon. There were 16 women present and they report an enjoyable and profitable time. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Reep Landers on Friday afternoon, Dec. 16.

Miss Saunders and Mrs. Bronaugh attended teachers' institute at Wheeler week before last.

Miss Inez Parker, who teaches the Back school, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Bruce Woods and family visited in the J. W. Dougherty home last Sunday.

Heald school house boasts of a new stage, the trustees putting it in last Saturday week. But the Epworth League will pay for same.

Mrs. J. W. Sauffer's Sunday school class, "The Star Class," met at Mrs. Armstrong's last Saturday and tackled a quilt, which the members of the class had pieced. The quilt will be sent to the Methodist Orphanage at Waco.

Doe and David Brock, formerly of this place, but now of Vernon, visited their uncle and family the first of the week.

The Juniors will give a special program at the Epworth League service Sunday night.

TO HOLD HOG SALE AT FAIR GROUNDS SATURDAY

Mann & Franklin, breeders of fine Poland Chinas, will bring thirty head of registered sows and gilts over from their farm at Hedley and sell them at auction at the fair grounds Saturday.

Represented in their offering are the descendants of such distinguished sires as Orange, Buster Giant, Big Bob Liberator, Yankee and A Wonder, and those who contemplate going into the pure-bred hog business should be glad to learn of this sale.

These gentlemen say that their principal reason for holding their sale here is the great interest that is being shown in pure-bred Poland Chinas in the McLean country, and their belief that a ready sale should be found here.

This week the News job department turned out the catalogs for this sale, doing the work in the usual McLean News style and completing it in less than thirty hours after the order was received. This is much more promptly than such a piece of work is ordinarily produced.

Those who wish can procure copies of the catalog can get one by calling at County Agent Dunkle's office or at either of the banks.

ONE DEAD; ANOTHER HURT IN SUNDAY WOLF CHASE

Last Sunday morning about 9 o'clock while Emmett Sanders, aged 23, and Eddie Willis, aged 17, were chasing a wolf on horseback about nine miles out of Miami, their horses ran together with a mighty crash as they went around a curve, meeting each other. One of the horses was knocked down and the other went over, falling to the ground. The riders came together with such force as to bruise and mangle their bodies in a fearful manner.

Both were brought to Miami in a car a few minutes after the accident. Eddie Willis, who never regained consciousness, died at 6 p. m., while Emmett Sanders remained unconscious for several hours. It is believed that he will recover. Claude News.

TIGERS MEET DEFEAT AT HANDS OF CLARENDON HI

Clarendon high school won over the McLean Tigers by a score of 14 to 7 in a hard fought game of football on the local gridiron Saturday afternoon.

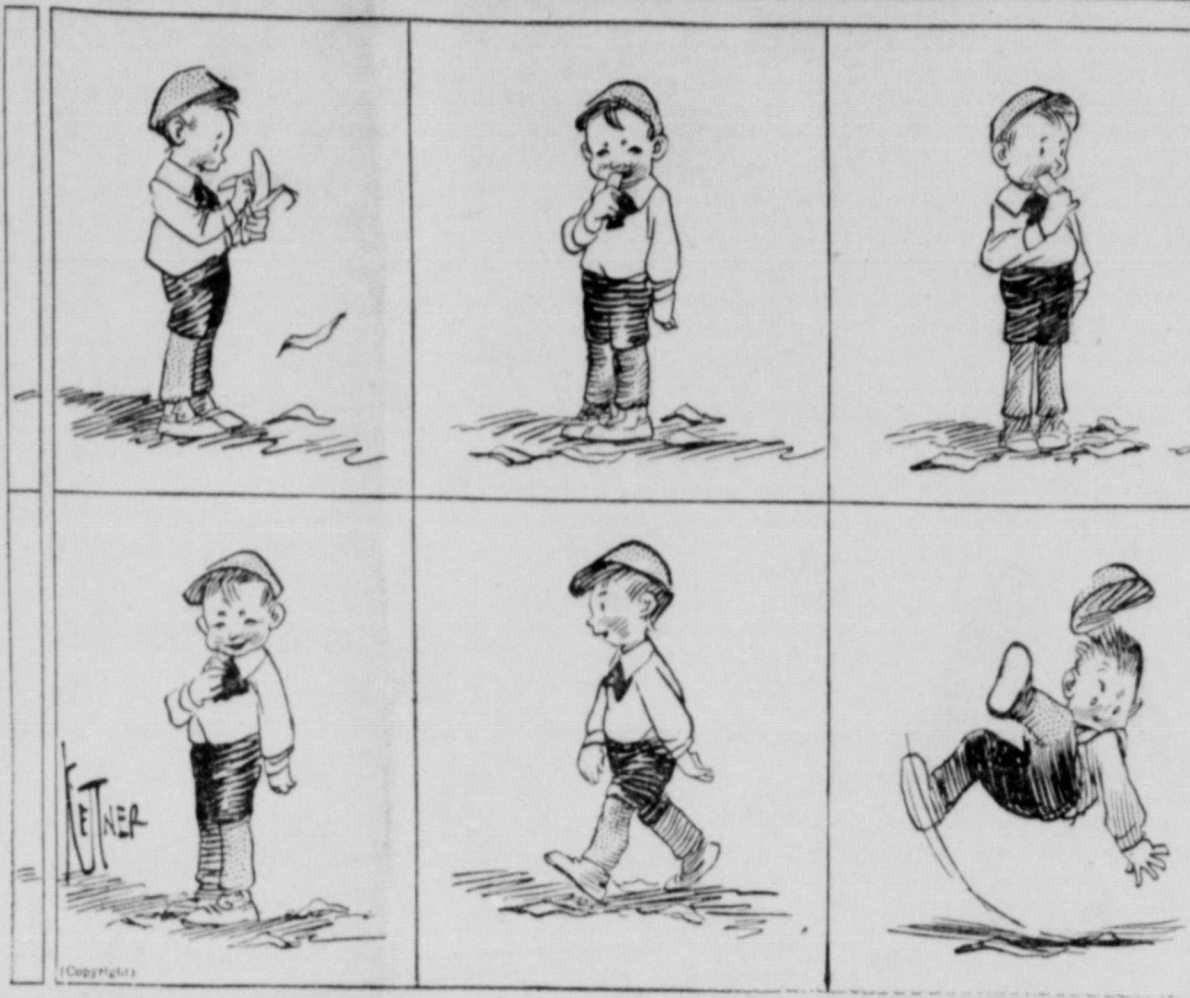

This was one of the hardest fought games of the season, both teams playing some mighty good football. Early in the game the local squad brought the ball to within a few inches of the Clarendon goal, but failed to penetrate the Clarendon line for a touchdown. The Tigers scored on the visitors on an inside kick, which took the Clarendon boys by surprise.

Coach Baxter of McLean high says that was one of the best football games he ever witnessed, and that he is proud of his team.

The End of a Perfect Day

HOW BEEF FEEDING PAYS BETTER THAN SELLING GRAIN

An investigation into methods and costs of beef production in the Corn Belt, conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture, covering 3 years, and 906 farms, shows interesting facts concerning the present status of the industry. The man who feeds cattle is marketing his crops as he feeds them, and, therefore, is justified in expecting a return equivalent to average market prices for the feeds. Even if he sometimes falls short of such a return, he has not necessarily experienced a loss. The Corn Belt farmer who sells grain sometimes receives more for his crop than the one who feeds it to cattle, but on the average, for a period of years, except in certain limited areas, the man who puts the feed into steers and returns the manure to the land is the one who comes out ahead. The conclusion is based on feeding in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Nebraska and Missouri.

The figures which contain the results of this investigation were obtained from a large number of farms and from several agricultural experiment stations in the Middle West. One phase of the work deals with the cost of maintaining a herd of breeding cows for producing feeder cattle. It was found that feed represented 69 per cent of the cost of keeping a cow for one year, while the other 31 per cent was for interest, labor, equipment and incidentals.

Mrs. Cal Dickey and children of Dimmitt are visiting the lady's uncle, W. B. Upham, and family.

Mrs. Belle Haynes and children have returned from Lampasas county.

John Holcomb and family of Amarillo are visiting in the city.

DESTROYING THE HIBERNATION PLACES OF BOLL WEEVIL

College Station, Nov. 21.—Owing to the ravages of the boll weevil in Texas, the cotton growing section of our state is displaying active interest in the application of fall and winter measures for the destruction of the hibernation places of the boll weevil.

The Extension Service has been reliably informed that some communities are burning the grasses and trash along fences, ditches and similar places commonly used as hibernation places of the boll weevil. We believe this is a mistake at this time, since the weevils do not go into hibernation until heavy frost becomes general and will continue their migration for some weeks. Should they find such places burned, they will simply continue their migration until suitable places can be found, advises R. R. Reppert, Entomologist, Extension Service, A. & M. College of Texas, who recommends that the burning of the places be delayed until the middle of December at the earliest, although the first of January would be better. By this time all of the weevils should be congregated in the hibernation places and may then be destroyed. The Extension Service has recommended intensive clean up measures for the fall and the burning of hibernation places in the winter. In regard to the burning of cotton stalks on the field, it is realized that this will accomplish great results in control, however, the Extension Service hesitates to recommend the burning of stalks as a general measure on account of the consequent removal of organic matter. The individual farmer must decide for himself which outweighs the other. It is the opinion of the Extension Service specialists that in sections where early fall plowing can be practiced, that this method of control will accomplish practically the same results as the burning of the stalks without the disadvantages of the latter methods.

Members of the high school faculty and students and of the B. Y. P. U. ordered flowers sent for the funeral. The Abbotts have many friends in McLean who extend to them their heartfelt sympathies in their hour of sorrow.

RED RIVER BRIDGE NEAR WHEELER LOOKING LIFESIZE

The Unit Construction Company is beginning to bring about the appearance of a bridge on Red River. The first of the concrete piling was driven last Friday afternoon. It was driven to a depth of thirty-two feet. At that depth clay was struck and the piling only sank one-sixteenth of an inch at a pile-driver blow of ten thousand pounds. A test weight of eighty-one thousand pounds was placed on this pile and allowed to stay until Monday and the piling did not sink a hair's breadth.

The bridge will be of concrete throughout. Each pier will be composed of six piling. Each piling will be driven to a solid foundation.

The first piling was driven in about forty minutes from the time the first blow of the hammer was struck. All of the piling are cast, ready for driving. The next work on the bridge will be the building of the caps to top the piling and make the real foundation for the bridge. The workmen in this division will follow right behind the driver.

When completed, the road bed of the bridge will be about ten above the bed of the river. It will be wide enough for two vehicles to pass with ease.

The estimated cost of this bridge is $150,000, and it will be one of the finest bridges in this part of the Panhandle. It will be of enormous benefit to the farmers of the northern part of Wheeler county.

When it is finished, Wheeler will be the stopping place for a great many tourists. The bridge will make the D. C. D., which is now reported to be the most popular highway in the nation, a still more generally used thoroughfare.—Wheeler News Review.

DAN ABBOTT'S SON DIES AT EL PASO

D. L. Abbott received a message Sunday morning stating that his son, W. G. Abbott, was seriously ill at his home in El Paso, having contracted pneumonia in both lungs. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott immediately left, going by auto to Amarillo, where they took the train for El Paso. Late that evening the brother and sisters received a telegram to the effect that their brother died at noon. Miss Lillian left Monday morning to attend the funeral.

Deceased is survived by a wife, two sons, father and mother, two brothers and four sisters.

Members of the high school faculty and students and of the B. Y. P. U. ordered flowers sent for the funeral. The Abbotts have many friends in McLean who extend to them their heartfelt sympathies in their hour of sorrow.

Miss Ruby Cook is teaching in the high school during the absence of Miss Lillian, who teaches in the history department.

F. E. Stephens, Rock Island agent at Shamrock, passed through McLean Sunday enroute to Alanreed to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jack Stigler. He was accompanied by Mr. Clement, also of Shamrock, who stopped for a visit with his brother, W. E. Clement.

A contributor who signs himself "Constant Reader" sends in a pretty good parody on the popular song, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," with the request that we publish it. The poet who composed this bit of song seems to have been thinking with parched lips of the old days when suds were plentiful and hard licker could be imported, and his thirst evidently has driven him to thoughts of moonshine and home brew. Newsman is an ardent prohibitionist, but has no quarrel whatever to pick with those who do not see this thing as he does. But Newsman thinks a whole lot of the Volstead act, and would rather not publish jokes about the present drouth (may it last always), for they, in most cases, hold the prohibition law up for ridicule, and we believe this very thing being so prevalent is one of the principal reasons why we do not have any stronger sentiment for the enforcement of the dry laws. "Constant Reader" may perhaps be a more enthusiastic prohibitionist than the News editor, and his reason for wishing to see the parody in print may be a mere fondness for a joke. Maybe he don't see things as we do, and maybe he will agree with us. To think as one pleases is his privilege—it is also Newsman's.

All members of the Panhandle press fraternity, more particularly those of the Panhandle Press Association, are saddened to learn of the death of L. G. Waggoner, editor of the Miami Chief, which occurred on Thursday of last week. Mr. Waggoner was one of the cleverest editorial writers in this part of the country. He was of a pleasing personality that won for him a large number of friends, both in his home town and among the newspaper boys of this section. The News extends sincerest sympathy to his bereaved family, and to his brother, Thomas T. who is editor of the Claude News.

Some people are plunged to their heels in society—and they happen to be heels down. Their keenest joy comes when in the arms of some foul-mouthed kiddo, whose pose is that of a gentleman, and who will lead them in a dizzy whirl at a five-cent honk-a-tong down in Jungletown, to the ravishing tune of a livery stable blues. Real aristocracy is that society whose marks are brain and goodness. If you're outside a kingdom like that, there's a reason.—Tulia Herald.

CANNED SHRIMP JAMBOLAYA WILL BE NEWEST 4-H PRODUCT

Canned jambolaya is to be the newest 4-H brand product fostered by home demonstration agents among club members in the Southern States.

Two types of jambolaya are to be introduced. Along the seacoast where shrimp are abundant, the ingredients will consist of shrimp, rice, onions, tomatoes, and seasonings, according to the old creole way of making jambolaya. Further inland and in districts where meat or fish must be considered as luxuries, cowpeas will be substituted for the shrimp to make a palatable and nourishing dish.

Like other unusual products bearing the 4-H label, shrimp jambolaya is intended to combine local products easily grown by club members into a popular salable article which will not be in competition with commercial canned goods. "Dixie Burgee,"

REID MAY BRIDGE CANADIAN RIVER

Amarillo Tribune: F. P. Reid, mayor of the thriving city of Pampa, was in Amarillo Saturday attending a directors meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce and availed himself of the opportunity to attend the gridiron battle between his home town and Tulia.

When inquiry was made of Mr. Reid concerning matters of interest to the public he stated that he had a conference with Mr. Coble, proprietor of the Turkey Track Ranch, in regard to a toll bridge over the Canadian river in the vicinity of Adobe Walls, which, according to his statement, was "entirely preliminary" to the realization of the great desire of citizens contiguous to the crossing point.

This contemplated structure will be on what is known as State Highway No. 33-b and for historical purposes named "Adobe Walls Highway."

THE PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

If the one hundred ninety-four public health nurses now working under the emblem of the Red Cross in the Southwestern Division American Red Cross were withdrawn tomorrow, more than 200,000 sick and infirm men, women and children would be left without nursing care and advise, according to Miss Olive Chapman, Director of Nursing of the Southwestern Division of the American Red Cross.

The Public Health Nurse is one of the most important officers in the American Red Cross today. Her job is to help the people to get well and to keep well. She teaches mothers how to look after their babies and school children, how to avoid illness and disease. She is found in schools, homes, playgrounds, industrial plants, department stores, hospitals and health centers. Her work is in the small towns and in the big cities, in the rural communities and in the lonely mountain regions of the West. She is wherever there is need for her service, regardless of race, religion or social conditions.

Any form of community work in which the health of the public is concerned is hers. She visits the rich and the poor alike and teaches both the common sense rules of good health. She locates tuberculosis patients and cares for them, and at the same time teaches the families how to prevent the disease from spreading to other members. She assists in school medical inspection of children and follows defective children into their homes to advise the parents and induce them to act on the advice of the school doctor. She watches over families in which there are contagious diseases such as diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough and influenza and teaches the families how to isolate the patient so as to prevent infection.

She takes care of the mother before the baby arrives and builds for the future by showing the mother how to care for her baby. She gives instruction in sanitary living conditions, and even at times in questions of diet. She is the closest point of contact between the great American Red Cross and the public.

There is a known shortage in the United States today of several thousand public health nurses and there is a greater shortage of hospital and private nurses. Many Chapters in the Southwestern Division of the American Red Cross maintain public health nurses and conduct work of a greater or less scope through the agency of such a nurse. These Chapters are depending upon the membership fees coming in from the annual Red Cross Roll Call to finance their public health nursing program for the coming year. The Roll Call will take place November 11th to 24th, according to announcement given out at the local Red Cross headquarters.

SEA ISLAND AND EGYPTIAN COTTON

College Station, Nov. 21.—We have received a number of requests for information regarding Sea Island and Egyptian (Arizona) cottons, and where seed can be secured, etc. It is not practical to attempt to grow these varieties commercially in Texas, advises Mr. J. B. Beers, in charge of the cotton classing work, Extension Service, A. & M. College of Texas, and U. S. Bureau of Markets co-operating. They are very late maturing cottons with very small bolls and require twenty-two to twenty-four hundred pounds of seed cotton to turn out five hundred pound bales. These cottons cannot be ginned successfully on our ordinary saw gins, but have to be ginned on roller gins. If some Texas farmers desire to grow extra staples, we suggest the Foster or Snowflake varieties. Seed of these varieties can be bought in the state. After all is said and done, however, if farmers in a community will all plant one variety of a good hard 1-1-8 cotton and have it ginned on a community gin to avoid mixing the lint, to say nothing of keeping planting seed pure for the next year's planting, they will find their marketing problems solved to a great extent, because we are in a position to put them in touch with many exporters, who will send representatives to buy their cotton at fair premiums, if it is good, hard 1-1-8 cotton and in large enough quantities to interest shippers in coming to local communities. There is no question about this—it has been done season after season in various sections of the state.

Mrs. Maude Pearsall and little daughter, Nova Fern, left Friday for Los Angeles, Cal., where the former will enter school.

F. R. JAMISON BECOMES MANAGER OF DAILY TRIBUNE

Fank R. Jamison Saturday morning resigned his position as secretary-manager of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce and will hereafter be connected with The Amarillo Daily Tribune as manager.

Mr. Jamison has been with the Chamber of Commerce since its organization more than two years ago. Prior to that time he was publisher of the Canadian Record and is one of the best known newspaper men in the Panhandle.

R. H. Nichols, who has been with The Tribune since its organization, and for the past year has been filling the dual position of editor and manager, will continue with the paper as president and will devote his entire time to editorial work.

Hamlin Parker, traffic manager of the organization, will act as secretary until December 6, when a meeting of the executive committee and others interested in the work of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce will be held in Amarillo to elect a secretary-manager.

R. M. Fielder of Tulsa attended the meeting and agreed to issue a call for a meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Commercial Executives Association on the same date as the meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce.

It is not hard to choose

YOU won't find it hard to make a selection when you know the facts about VALDURA ASPHALT PAINT.

VALDURA is a preservative paint possessing so many features of merit not found in the ordinary paint that it usually requires only the stating of the facts to gain preference for it. There is no tar in Valdura! It is genuine asphalt paint, absolutely pure and by far the most economical paint you could use for all kinds of roofing, silos, farm machinery, bridges, tanks, implements, fencing, etc.

You receive both our and the manufacturer's absolute guarantee that VALDURA will satisfy you or back comes your purchase money.

Valdura

is the only real 99.5% pure Gilsomite Asphalt Paint obtainable in brilliant Black and rich shades of Red and Green.

Many of our customers tell us VALDURA is the most useful paint they ever had around the house. It will water-proof and preserve the life of almost anything you apply it to. It comes in handy containers from 1 Gal. cans up, is always ready for use and always is to be depended upon.

We should like to have you read the VALDURA Booklet and get a test sample can free if you would like to try it out before you buy.

Local Tigers Battle Clarendon High 7-14

In what probably was the hardest fought battle ever staged in McLean was fought between the local high school boys and Clarendon high school representatives last Saturday afternoon. The Clarendon line outweighed the Tigers' line by a goodly number of pounds, but the backfields were evenly matched.

Within the first three minutes of play the Tigers carried the pigskin within three inches of the goal line, but were held. A costly fumble drove the locals away from the goal line. Hard fought play continued throughout the first half, the score being 7-7. The Tigers coming back in the field of play, glaring through eyes of untold revenge, were dreadful foes of the visitors, charging as stone walls, tackling as tacklers of old, and blocking as only heroes can do, the Tigers gave the visitors many unpleasant charges and registered against them many costly gains.

McLean executed the wonderful on-side kick, which meant a touch-down for them. Several other times the visitors were puzzled by the on-side kick given by the home boys, but the Clarendon team completed a forward pass, thereby putting the score 14-7. The teams are to be congratulated on the good "fair and square" game they played and "Woe be unto Clarendon next year!"

The end of the third month of school is close at hand. One third of the yearly race has been run. Are you still first in the race? If not, pep up and do your part for your school.

We wish to express our sympathy in our humble way to Miss Abbott and her parents in their hour of great sorrow. May the Holy Comforter comfort them in our prayer.

Margarite Glass, who is in Oklahoma City having her ears treated, is getting along nicely. We hope she shall soon be back in school.

Dear Faculty, Pupils and Friends:
Your kind words, smiles and actions seemed to beguile me from my grief of a loss so overwhelming, and the beautiful flowers helped to warm my heart again, and to assuage the anguish of the bereavement of our beloved daddy. Pray receive our benediction.
LAURA HILL.

LETTERS FOR SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl eight years old, and I do want you to bring me a doll with sleepy eyes and curly hair, and a little stove and a kitchen cabinet, and don't forget the little orphan boys and girls that don't have any father and mother. Now, please don't forget to come.
One that loves Santa Claus,
Omalee Abbott.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am writing you to tell you what I want you to bring me Christmas.

Please bring me a great big doll that can talk, and I would like to have a little bed for it to sleep in. Now I am not going to ask for very much, for I want all of the little girls, and boys too, to get something. Of course I want some candy, apples, oranges and nuts, so will close.
Wishing you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.
Laverne Bailey, age 4 years.

Dear Santa Claus:
Will write you a letter and tell you what we want most for Christmas. We want a tricycle, a doll, a bugle, heaps of nuts, candy, apples and oranges, and, most of all, we want our brothers to come see us. They are at Grandma's, going to school, and we get so lonely without them. Now, be sure, Santa, and bring what we have asked for, and if no other way please bring Cecil and Lovey right along with you in your airplane.
With love to Santa,
Little Jewel Ruth and Millard Purves McKinzey, Dumas, Texas.
