Holiday Parade Led By Thunderbolt Fighters From US

By W. W. HERCHER LONDON, May 30 (AP)—At least 3,200 American warplanes assaulted the Germans today in coordinated strikes from Britain and Italy, bombing aircraft factories, air bases, and rail centers in Germany, Austria, Yugoslavia, France and the low countries.

From Britain for the third successive day, 2,200 heavy bombers and fighters swept through clear skies over northern Europe and smashed at least a dozen targets.

A daylight force about 1,000 strong flew from Italy and attacked Wiener Neustadt in Austria. One group of Flying Fortresses attacked an airfield in the Linz area, 130 miles across the north Italian border in south Germany. Others bombed Zagreb, Croatian capital in Yugoslavia.

Berlin radio reported great air battles raging over central Germany and the Alps.

Targets of the Britain-based fleets were aircraft plants at Dessau, Oschersleben and Halberstadt in Germany; railroad yards at Brussels, Belgium, and Reims and Troyes in France; airbases at Handorf, near Munster, Diepholz near Osnabruck, Halberstadt and in the Hamburg area.

The Decoration Day parade of Allied planes across the channel was led by American Thunderbolt fighters following an attack last night by RAF Mosquitos on Hannover in central Germany.

Allied headquarters at Naples announced that the American-fighter fleets sweeping into Austria and southern Germany from the south had hit the Wiener Neustadt area near Vienna, bombing the Neudorf aircraft factory, the Pottendorf spinning mills nine miles to the northwest, the Ebrechsdorf carpet factory 11 miles to the northeast and the Neunkirchen spinning mills 10 miles to the southwest.

Skies over the Dover Strait were dotted for a long period this morning, with one Allied formation after another hitting out for the continent, while explosions and anti-aircraft fire echoed from the opposite shore.

The Mediterranean army air force announced its medium bombers attacked objectives at Fruersbrunn in Austria last night.

The Germans raided southern England for the second night in a row, one wave bombing a southwest shore community while other planes cruised along the coast, evidently trying to spot invasion preparations.

It became apparent meanwhile that yesterday's large-scale attention to the German aircraft industry indicated the Allied board of strategy was looking ahead to August and September.

The Monday operations cost the US strategic air force 35 bombers and 11 fighters, a communique announced last night. One hundred enemy planes were shot from the skies.

Single Water Bid Rejected By City

City commissioners rejected a single bid for development of eight water wells in northeastern Glasscock county and Tuesday announced that new bids would be asked.

The bid, submitted by Layne-Texas Co. of Dallas, was slightly in excess of the $44,000 allowed for the drilling of a 30-inch hole and gravel packing around the water string.

Date of opening of bids on the 21-mile pipeline to the area has been set for June 16, and bids for the well development will be re-advertised for the same date. Commissioners felt that there was no urgency in the well contract inasmuch as there is no point in completing them far in advance of the line.

Similarly, it was pointed out that the re-advertising of bids for the wells would not affect the completion date.

B. J. McDaniel, city manager, said specifications for the pipeline, chief item on the city's $520,000 project for developing a supplemental water supply for Big Spring, were due here in the next two days.

Airmen Killed By Nazi Civilians

STOCKHOLM, May 30 (AP)—American airmen who parachuted into three unnamed places in central Germany yesterday were "killed by agitated people," the newspaper Aftonbladet's Berlin correspondent wrote today in a dispatch which was passed by German censorship.

The article gave no details, but the correspondent said he received the reports from "a traveler from Leipzig" with whom he talked in Berlin.

A later report said that five American airmen had been killed. "German police were unable to save them," Aftonbladet's correspondent wrote.

He said "a storm of rage" broke out Sunday "among German civilians" when American fighter pilots allegedly shot women and children during sweeps over Germany.

(There have been no reports of killings from Allied sources.) Aftonbladet's report recalled German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels' article in the Saturday issue of the Nazi newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter declaring that Allied airmen halting out over Germany no longer would have police and military protection against German civilians.

At that time, Aftonbladet interpreted Goebbels' article as meaning that "American airmen who save themselves by parachute can consider themselves at the mercy of the people who find them, under the old rule, 'eye for eye and tooth for tooth.'"

The Goebbels article contended that recent Allied fighter sweeps had been directed against field workers and women and children riding on trains.

Allies Close In For Reopening Of Road

By J. B. KRUGER Associated Press War Editor The Allied noose around Myitkyina, key to reopening the Burma-China road, tightened today as American and Chinese troops in a swift maneuver by-passed Kamaing, enemy stronghold to the west.

Southeast Asia headquarters reported the forces under Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell cut the highway between Kamaing and Mogaung, which are about 20 miles apart and along the route Stilwell needs to link up the Ledo and Burma roads. Mogaung is 35 miles west of Myitkyina, now besieged by other Stilwell forces.

Allied planes furiously joined the mounting North Burma battle, striking at communications, bases and rail facilities between Mogaung and Katha. Their objective was to cut off reinforcements the enemy has poured in to save Mogaung and Myitkyina.

From the east Chinese troops, badly equipped but indomitably laboring up steep mountain paths, scored new gains in drives toward the Burma border. These troops, taking advantage of improving weather, aimed an eventual junction with Stilwell's forces at Myitkyina. They were getting increased air support from American airmen, who bombed Tengchung.

In the Southwest Pacific a major battle appeared shaping up for the Mokmer airdrome on Biak Island in the Schoutens. As the tough Sixth army men inched ahead to within two miles of the airbase—important because it is less than 900 miles from the Philippines—Japanese resistance rose. Allied headquarters suggested that the enemy, miscalculating where the Biak landings were to come, was regrouping for perhaps the hardest fight of the New Guinea campaign.

Allied airmen lent support by hammering enemy airfields in the surrounding sea area, including Monokwari, Babo, Noemfoor and Japan.

Ponape, 440 miles east of Truk in the central Pacific, was hit with the heaviest weight of explosives dropped on it in 24 raids this month, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced.

In beleaguered China the Japanese expanded their two-sided offensive with a new surge southward from Yoyang in Hunan province. They aimed at Siangyin, 30 miles north of Changsha, apparently to protect their drive to seize the Hankow-Canton railroad. Yesterday the Chinese reported the enemy had advanced 27 miles toward Changsha in three days.

Memorial Day Is Observed Today At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Pa., May 30 (AP)—Representatives of the north and south clasped hands on hallowed Gettysburg battlefield today and joined in a solemn pledge of unity and loyalty.

The nation's governors took time from the business of their 56th conference to join in tribute to the men who fell here in the decisive conflict of the War Between the States.

Governor Edward Martin of Pennsylvania called it "the most important Memorial Day service held on that field" since Lincoln's dedication of the national cemetery 81 years ago.

Speaking for the south, Governor J. Melville Broughton of North Carolina said:

"We are assembled here before a shrine sacred to the north and south alike. It is altogether fitting that these great sections of our nation, once divided but now united, should in this momentous hour of world history join in a solemn pledge of unity and loyalty."

And for the north, Governor Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts:

"The handclasp here of north and south is proof that our country is no longer divided. The fact that the great grandsons of the boys in blue and gray are fighting side by side in all corners of the world indicates the united spirit of that union."

The governors paraded with townspeople over the same Gettysburg route followed by Lincoln and stopped to watch school children decorate the graves of the 3,604 killed in the battle of Gettysburg.

"Wonderful," he said wondrously. "I took a small bit. It tasted savory—much like ordinary steak—but before I could swallow it visions of all the horses I ever saw or heard of passed through my mind, and the piece of meat felt like a lump of rock as it went down. Mexican Named In Rape Charge

Charges of statutory rape were filed Tuesday afternoon against Juan Garcia, 25-year-old Mexican construction worker.

Garcia was named after his 13-year-old step-sister, Ruth Garcia, complained Monday evening to police that she had been attacked.

Police Chief J. B. Brutton said that the alleged attack took place near the Two-Mile lake, west of the city. The girl said she had gone with the man when he said he wanted to talk to her.

She was badly beaten, and there were marks and scratches across her face and on her arm.

According to police records, Garcia came here recently as a worker for a construction company.

He was charged in complaints filed by County Attorney John Coffee after he was transferred to county authorities Tuesday morning.

Sentence Changed To Life Imprisonment AUSTIN, May 30 (AP)—On unanimous recommendation of the board of pardons and paroles Governor Coke R. Stevenson today commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence assessed Harold A. Miner in El Paso, Tex., in the slaying of his wife, Marjorie, last year.

Miner, former Des Moines, Ia., and Grand Rapids, Mich., hotel worker and his wife were divorced at the time of the slaying. Allen testified in Miner's trial that he was mentally unbalanced and the pardons board considered statements from many persons on this subject and two members interviewed Miner before it reached a unanimous recommendation for commutation.

Miner had been given a stay of execution which would have expired June 3.

Three Allies Invited To World Conference

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull today extended to the ambassadors of Russia, Britain and China invitations for their governments to begin informal talks in Washington as soon as possible on creation of a world security organization.

Hull told a news conference the United States is ready to talk with the other countries whenever they want to sit down at the conference table.

The main point of his conversation with the ambassadors today, he said, related primarily to the question of a time for the meeting. Asked whether Foreign Commissar Molotov of Russia and Foreign Minister Eden of Britain might represent their countries, Hull said that was up to the governments to decide.

Hull talked first with Ambassadors Halifax of Britain and Gromyko of Russia.

Afterward, Halifax reported: "He asked us both to call in order to convey an intimation to our governments from him on behalf of the United States government that he would be glad at a convenient date to open informal conversations with us on the general problem of post-war security."

Next Hull received Ambassador

Wei of China for a similar "intimation of this country's announced willingness to begin conversations."

At his press conference, Hull explained that when the four powers met at Moscow last fall, Molotov offered and there was adopted a resolution providing that they should meet subsequently in Washington and discuss an organization to maintain peace.

The secretary said he expected to continue discussions with congressional committees but there was no decision on whether a special house committee would be set up similar to the senate advisory group which conferred with him.

Hull replied that the question had not yet come up for formal consideration when asked whether there would be congressional representation on the American delegation to the conference here.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the senate foreign relations committee called for the establishment of an international peace-preserving assembly patterned after the league of nations but clothed with force to prevent aggression.

Connally's proposals were regarded in some quarters as reflecting the majority views of the 8-member senate liaison committee which has completed preliminary discussions with Secretary Hull on an American plan for an international peace organization.

The present state of the secretary's program, after more than two years of tedious planning, research and consultations with American leaders in and out of politics, raised hope in some official quarters today that the nucleus of a peace organization would be set up before the war ends.

The American plan calls for a United Nations council of Russia, Britain, China and the U. S. These are the nations which bound themselves under the Moscow declaration last October to meet at the "earliest practicable date" and organize for peace. They are also the nations with the greatest forces to maintain peace.

Organization of the council, according to the American plan, would be followed by organization of a United Nations assembly made up of all the United Nations plus the nations associated with them in the war, and the neutrals.

The French troops on the right wing of the Fifth army and Eighth army forces closed in steadily on Frosinone.

The French yesterday were within sight of Ceccano, important town five miles south of Frosinone, and Gen. Sir Oliver Leese's vanguard of Eighth army troops forced rapidly on from Pofi, which was entered after the white flag was raised.

Resident Takes Refugee In Embassy QUITO, Ecuador, May 30 (AP)—Dr. Carlos Arroyo Del Rio was a refugee in the U. S. embassy here today after resigning the Ecuadorian presidency under pressure of revolutionists who seized power in Guayaquil and invited former President Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra to return from his exile in Colombia.

Ecuadorian troops, using tanks and backed by members of the Alliance Democratic (democratic alliance) Group, gained control of Guayaquil, main commercial city and Pacific port, after a 16-hour battle yesterday in which more than 40 persons were reported killed and 200 wounded.

The revolutionists said their motive was to forestall presidential elections, scheduled for next Friday and Saturday, which they said would be meaningless unless the exiled Velasco Ibarra was on hand to participate.

Clark Predicts Army Will Reach Rome Very Soon

By NOLAN NARGAARD ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 30 (AP) Fifth army infantry and tanks, after repulsing strong overnight counterattacks, struck again today at German defenses within 16 miles of Rome, which Lt. Gen. Mark Clark said would fall "before many days have passed."

The Germans offered savage resistance on their last natural defense line south of the capital but headquarters said progress continued "satisfactory." On the Allied right, the Eighth army was striding swiftly through the Sacco valley along the Via Cassina (Highway 6), capturing Arce and pressing strongly upon Frosinone from three sides.

None of the sweating Americans fighting an uphill battle on the former beachhead front now the Sherman tank crews attacking anti-tank guns hidden in groves and ravines were yet able to see Rome. Only artillery observers flying C-47 planes near the sea had a chance to glimpse the eternal city and its seven hills.

German counterattacks temporarily held off American infantry on the rolling meadows below the hilltop town of Lariano, a pivot of the German Rome line. Artillery shelled the town steadily.

Armored spearheads consolidated gains west of the severed Anzio-Albano road. Major German resistance was contacted in this sector, however. Hastily sown mine fields, crude fortifications and heavy tanks were encountered but no big tank battle has developed.

The Fifth army commander predicted the fall of Rome shortly in a Memorial Day address at Anzio.

Reinforced by the bulk of the Herman Goering parachute panzer division and supported by intensified artillery fire, the Germans in the Valmontone area 20 miles east and south of Rome managed to stave off a mounting threat to the Via Casulana in that sector.

On the left flank of the Fifth army near the west coast the British occupied a lateral road west of Carroceto and advanced toward the western anchor of the Germans' "last ditch" defenses at Campo Pemei, 18 miles due south of the eternal city.

The enemy's last hopes of holding the Sacco valley southeast of Frosinone were wiped out as the Eighth army crashed into the vital highway junction town of Arce after two days of strenuous fighting with veteran Nazi parachute troops.

Both the French troops on the right wing of the Fifth army and Eighth army forces closed in steadily on Frosinone.

The French yesterday were within sight of Ceccano, important town five miles south of Frosinone, and Gen. Sir Oliver Leese's vanguard of Eighth army troops forced rapidly on from Pofi, which was entered after the white flag was raised.

Stella Smythe Gives Beauty Advice to Girls

Advice to the girls who are waiting for the boys to return home was given by Stella Smythe, beauty counselor for Tussy at Walgreen Agency, who says: "To help you look your best there are three things of vital importance the American women should do every day. Keep your skin clean. Cleanse it every night and every morning with a cleansing cream suited to your particular type skin. After removing your cleansing cream go over your face and neck with a pad of cotton saturated with skin lotion; this stimulates your skin locally and makes it look radiantly clear. Also, to protect your skin against the dry lines, that are apt to multiply if the skin is not kept well lubricated, with a stain-smooth cream."

Miss Smythe gave a tip to ladies concerning individuals who should use a more effective deodorant. She said, "You can try to make her deodorant-conscious by tactfully steering the conversation around to a point where you can tell her how much you like a deodorant cream and why you think it is effective."

Coaches Bothered Because Rules Group Pays No Attention To Them

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—What seems to be bothering the college football coaches, who have been indulging in "remarkably frank" talk the past couple of days, is not so much that the rules committee won't rule in the fact that the men most vitally interested in football—the coaches—are being consistently ignored. . . . As one of them pointed out yesterday, they have only a minority representation on the rules committee, and they aren't even permitted to choose the men who represent them. . . . For example, Lou Little, head rules man for the coaches association, isn't on the committee but an old stand-by is Dana X. Bibbe, who didn't come here for the meeting although a number of others from the southwest made the trip.

One minute sport page—
One reason why Henry Frick came here from Tulsa for the football meeting was to try to find shoulder pads big enough for one of his linemen, whose name he won't breathe. . . . The Appalachian league's all-star game this year will match the Class D circuit's best players against the army air base team from Greenville, S. C. . . . Some of the others might do worse than copy the ideas—American Association all-stars vs. Great Lakes, for example. . . . At 36, Lefty George finally has decided he is too old to pitch for the York, Pa., club. Wonder who is left now as the oldest player in organized baseball?

DALLAS, May 30 (AP)—Dallas has a right to feel it has been trod upon but good in its sports undertakings of the past year, although, mind you, not blaming anyone or anything except capricious Texas weather.
Dallas got the state schoolboy football final between San Angelo and Lufkin. This always is a prize plum. But it rained the day before and out the crowd to about half of what would normally have been expected.
Next, came the Cotton Bowl game. It rained throughout the contest—the coldest rain two football teams ever tried to play in. This past week-end was supposed to be quite an occasion. The Southwestern A.A.U. track and field meet, matching stars of colleges, high schools and service camps, topped the bill. Also, there was the state high school baseball tournament.
Rain caused both events to be cancelled.
Think baseball has lost its appeal for the youngsters?
You should have been out at Lubbock last week and looked over Sam West's school for the kids.
West, the former major leaguer, put on a four-day course of instruction in the diamond game and had more than 100 boys out to show him there were plenty of embryo Ty Cobbs and Babe Ruths in Texas.
Only Lubbock kids were involved in this school but it could be part of a great state-wide program, co-ordinated with the American Legion junior baseball plan which this year has been placed on a basis modeled after the Texas intercollegiate league sports program.
George Aulbach, energetic president of the Texas P.G.A., definitely is on his game. George won the Amarillo $3,000 war bond open with 20 one-putt greens and in the entire 54 holes didn't three-putt a single hole. He finished nine under par.
Putt Powell, Amarillo sports writer, had a card resembling Aulbach's—in the opposite direction. Putt had 20 three-putt greens and no one-putts!
In Powell's threesome was a man twice as old as Putt while the other was just one-half as old. "But they both played better than we did," mused Powell.
Footnotes—Morley Jennings, athletic director of Texas Tech, is entering the Tri-State Senior Golf tournament at Amarillo next month. . . . You have to be 80 years or older to get in. . . . Morley had to thus reveal his age—he's 54. Sully Montgomery, who fought some of the greatest of the heavyweights when he was campaigning, will be the referee for the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation boxing tournament at Abilene, Aug. 3, 4 and 5.
Most of America's rubber is actually stored in the nation's garages—over a million tons of it.

Wyatt Loses For Brooks, Giants Trim St. Louis

Frankie Frisch and his seven-man Pittsburgh pitching staff may not win the National League pennant but they rate a large "E" for effort at this stage of the season.
By winning nine of their last 11 starts, the under-manned Pirates crew has moved to within three games of the leading St. Louis Cardinals, taking second place away from Cincinnati.
Only five starters have gone the route in the streak starting May 17, but everybody, including Rip Sewell, is eligible for relief duty when Frisch scans the dugout.
The Pirates' latest was a good example of the way the staff has been operating. Frisch had to toss three hurlers into the game before they pulled out a 3-2 triumph in 11 innings last night at Philadelphia. Tommy O'Brien's triple, followed by Babe Dahlgren's outfield fly, won the game for Xavier Rescigno, who came on in the 10th. Rescigno pitched Thursday and Friday, and is likely to start or relieve today.
Whit Wyatt's failure to round into winning form continued to prove disastrous to Brooklyn when the ace right-hander was belted off the hill before the second inning was over in Cincinnati's 13-4 slaughter of the Flatbush flock. Dixie Walker homered with a man on, but even his .438 batting average couldn't help Wyatt and his successors as Bucky Walters hung up No. 8 in the win column.
Mel Ott and Danny Gardella smashed homers to help the New York Giants square their series with St. Louis on a 6-4 verdict, with the help of some neat relief pitching by Ace Adams. Boston and Chicago were not scheduled in the National.
Boston's Red Sox flattened Chicago to sweep all three games as Tex Hughson handcuffed the White Sox with eight singles for a 3-1 edge.
Bob Muncie finally overcame his New York Yankee jinx after three years and six failures as he beat the world champs for St. Louis, 11-3. The Browns moved back into second place, 2 1/2 games behind the Yanks on the victory.
Even five Detroit errors weren't enough to overcome the five hit pitching of Johnny Gornica as Detroit shoved Washington into third on a 2-1 triumph.
Dick Siebert's homer sparked Philadelphia to a 9-4 edge over Cleveland on two big four-run innings.

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—The intentional out-of-bounds kickoff, which irked countless football spectators last fall, was intentionally kicked out-of-bounds by first meeting of the College Football Coaches association.
The mentors, completing a two-day session late yesterday, voted unanimously against the off-the-field boot and sent recommendations to Lt. Col. William Birmingham of Harvard, that his NCAA rules committee meet as soon as possible to make two changes in the playing code.
The first suggestion would put the ball in play, following an out-of-bounds kickoff on the receiving team's 45-yard line instead of the 35 and would allow the kicker the use of an artificial tee.
Unrestricted forward passing behind the line of scrimmage was the second suggestion. Under the present rules, the passer must be five yards behind the line.
The unrestricted passing rule is a part of the National Football League's rule book.

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—Unless all signs fall, racing's first $4,000,000 wagering day will go into the record books at Belmont Park today as Mrs. Payne Whitney's Devil Diver, unbeaten this year, tries to add the $50,000 Suburban Handicap to his previous successes in the Paumonok, Toboggan and Metropolitan caps.
With the day's receipts being donated to the National War Fund, Inc., and the American Red Cross, the Belmont attendance record of 52,011, set on Decoration Day in 1942, was expected to go by the boards. The present one-day betting top of $3,562,771 was made ten days ago by a crowd of 46,732 that saw George Widener's Who Goes There win the Withers Mile.
A record total of close to $10,000,000 was expected to pour in to the mutual machines at the 12 tracks operating throughout the country.

WITH THE AEF ON THE ITALIAN FRONT, May 22 (Delayed)
"If there's anybody I hate" said the sergeant, "it's these damned polyanthuses who are always finding something good in every lousy thing that happens to a guy."
He drove on a moment in silence, jerking the jeep expertly around donkey carts. There was no need to answer him. He was building up to something.
"But this stinking life in the line has done one good thing for me," he said finally. "I've learned to get a kick out of every single minute I'm alive; while it happens, too."
"And it's funny," he said, easing on the brakes as the long line of front-bumper traffic jammed at a junction, "it's funny the way you learn how good everything is. Just before we moved up last week we had to sweat out a long wait. Know what I did. For a solid hour I laid there in the grass and looked at a little blue flower. Don't know what kind it was, but I could tell you all about it."
It was beyond him, almost to Fondi, before he spoke again.
"It sounds pretty damned silly when you say it," he said, "but sometimes, resting like that, I get a helluva kick out of just breathing."
The sergeant was not the tough talker of fiction, who rarely seems to exist in real life overseas, but neither was he exactly the sensitive sort. A veteran of the whole Italian campaign, he had been wounded, hospitalized, decorated, booted into a replacement center when he recovered and then assigned to an infantry company for the big offensive.

When he picked me up on the road it was the first time I'd seen him since I left his old outfit in front of San Pietro in December. Maybe that's what started him thinking, for that's the longest speech I ever heard him make.
"But it was all true. Even that bit about breathing. Screw as it may sound, there can be something almost painfully sweet about the mere business of inhaling all the rich sharp memory-laden smells of spring.
Sights and sounds and smells cease being just blurred backgrounds, for living and become sharply etched individual parts of life.
It isn't the fear of death. That's an entirely separate thing. Rather it's a new awareness of life seen perhaps with sharper perception because it's presented before a backdrop of death.
But, as the sergeant said, it sounds damned silly when you say it. Probably what we both need is a good dose of sulphur and molasses."

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—The intentional out-of-bounds kickoff, which irked countless football spectators last fall, was intentionally kicked out-of-bounds by first meeting of the College Football Coaches association.
The mentors, completing a two-day session late yesterday, voted unanimously against the off-the-field boot and sent recommendations to Lt. Col. William Birmingham of Harvard, that his NCAA rules committee meet as soon as possible to make two changes in the playing code.
The first suggestion would put the ball in play, following an out-of-bounds kickoff on the receiving team's 45-yard line instead of the 35 and would allow the kicker the use of an artificial tee.
Unrestricted forward passing behind the line of scrimmage was the second suggestion. Under the present rules, the passer must be five yards behind the line.
The unrestricted passing rule is a part of the National Football League's rule book.

Varied And Indispensible

Record of our Girl Scouts in collecting waste fats in Big Spring once again focuses attention upon this too-frequently mentioned salvage campaign.

By making a thorough canvass of the city, the girls collected more than 1,000 pounds of the material Saturday. Doubtless, if all residents had been saving as they should, there would have been far more.

Perhaps, then, it is well to refresh our memories on what comes from waste fats. Here are 37 uses under four general heads:

Explosives—37mm anti-aircraft guns, 37mm anti-tank guns, 75mm pack howitzers, 60mm and 81mm trench mortars, 37mm airplane cannon, 4.2 chemical mortars, dynamite for demolition, glycerin for our allies.

Military medicines—Sulfa ointments, acriflavine, proflavine, smallpox vaccines, insulin, opiates to ease pain, surgical jellies, nicotine acid.

Other military uses—Synthetic rubber, airplane lubricants, depth-charge releases, incendiaries, de-icing fluids for airplanes, nylon for parachutes, power bags, etc., high-resistance paints, fabrics of all kinds, marine rope, military and naval soaps, hydraulic fluids.

Industrial purposes—Metal working, mining, industrial soaps, textiles, food products, railroad lubricants, civilian soaps, tanning and processing leather, insecticides and fungicides, rubber processing.

Hundreds of items known to those who use them could be added to the list. This amazing variety of products coupled with the fact that there is no substitute for fats increases the importance of going to the trouble to save every drop of grease.

If possible, put it in a metal container, something like a medium or large sized can. If possible, strain the material through a cheese cloth before putting it into a meat shop or giving it to the Girl Scouts on their next round, which we hope won't be too long delayed. Perhaps more frequent calls by these young soldiers on the home front will stimulate more housewives to saving. It might even inspire the public and their brother scouts to revive a waste paper salvage campaign that is systematically going to pot in Big Spring.

Delegation To Britain Draws Interest

By GEORGE SIMPSON WASHINGTON — The British Parliament invited Congress to send a delegation of its members to Britain to promote a closer association between the two great national legislatures. Sen. Tom Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee, introduced a concurrent resolution authorizing the British Parliament for its invitation but saying that "because of the urgency of official business at this time, it will be impossible for the members of Congress to accept the invitation and to send a delegation of the members to Great Britain at present."

The concurrent resolution, however, assures the British Parliament "that when the exigencies of public business make it possible such invitations will have further consideration by the houses of Congress."

It seems that the lords and commoners of his majesty's realm of Great Britain and Northern Ireland overlooked the fact that we are having an important election over here this year. England is no place for a member of Congress to be re-elected. After the election, no doubt, a number of our legislators will be available for such a trip.

In spite of all the talk about disunity in Congress, every senator present except one voted for the lend-lease renewal, when it comes to measures essential to winning the war members of Congress, whether republicans or democrats, conservatives or new dealers, feel about the same and see eye to eye. This country hasn't gone completely to pot yet.

The lend-lease measure, as passed by both House and Senate, restricts presidential commitments to those expressly authorized. Said Senator Connally during debate: "I do not think that under the Constitution the President can make any commitments with relation to the post-war era that in any way affect the constitutional powers of the two houses of Congress. The President might agree, whether in lend-lease or in any other way, that we would reduce our tariff or change our tariff, but that in no sense under our Constitution would be a commitment of the government; the Congress would have to act in any event."

Senator Connally observed: "The lend-lease policy and all agreements under it contemplate the aid of the war; they contemplate military action. As one who

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

Hitler's D-Day nerves indeed have reached a sorry state of rawness when a Berlin spokesman bursts out that "Germany would prefer for the invasion to come today rather than tomorrow."

Well, that's where the wove belongs—with the enemy. We have no cause to fret—as a lot of good folk are doing—for Allied luck is running strong. Let der Fuehrer do the stewing.

Of course Germany would like to get it over with. She's not a country waiting with confidence in her ability to withstand the assault, for the Allies out march her everywhere, and each rising sun sees her weaker. She's just hoping that some lucky break will ease her plight. The strain must be terrific.

We had concrete illustration of this again yesterday. The Allied air fleets staged huge raids that reached the furthest points in the perimeter of Hitler's boasted fortress Europe.

The Nazi can no longer find any place to hide. More than 4,800 Allied warplanes, of which 4,000 were American, boldly challenged hostile skies. They hammered the French invasion coast. They streaked clear across Europe to bomb aircraft factories in Poland, and rained destruction on Germany itself. They bombed the lower Danube basin in southeastern Europe, and tore at Austria from the south.

It's no longer a question of a "second front", or a third or fourth. Hitler is surrounded, and we are closing in.

Marines Give To Missions

GUADALCANAL (UPI)—Catholic Marines stationed on this island have established a fund to aid in the restoration of missions destroyed in the Solomon Islands campaign. With allotments for families and war bonds deducted, most Leathernecks don't have any great sum of money on pay-days, but they are contributing generously.

The fund, which is being gathered unofficially, was the idea of several Marines who learned that plans to rebuild churches, schools, hospitals, and mission buildings were being made. Other Catholic Leathernecks gladly volunteered their support, and the total of contributions has already reached a substantial figure.

Destruction of the Catholic missions on Guadalcanal was a heart-breaking blow to Bishop Aubin, for in a few months the Japanese ground to rubble his work of 36 years. But, confidentially, he is beginning his work anew.

Every Catholic building on Guadalcanal was demolished. Schools, dispensaries and churches were looted. On Bougainville, Bishop Wade, a native of Providence, R. I., was in hiding in the jungle for three months until he effected an escape.

"squandered in all sorts of frantic schemes and plans which visionaries might think up, and which impractical men might put into operation." Senator Connally did not beat around the bush about the origin of lend-lease. "There is no use to blind ourselves as though we passed the act before we actually got into the war," he declared. "I do not suppose anybody was naive enough not to know that it was passed to aid the war against the Axis powers."

Tom Connally is now much more than merely the senior senator from Texas. As an individual senator he is important and influential because of his ability to think and express himself; but as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he is an important and influential international figure. When Senator Connally speaks the whole world listens.

Exactly 5,053 of those reporting were on farms when they were called to the armed services. But the number expressing a desire to take up farming when they come home is 5,523. Of the first number only 1,575 were working their own farms when they went into service, and only 678 actually owned the land they were working. The other 2,130 would be willing to rent or work on shares.

HOLLYWOOD — Often I am asked just how one may become a successful player, and that is a question not easily answered for there are so many factors to be considered. Much has been said of the value of dramatic training, yet I do not believe acting can be taught—except to one's self. Drama students may be told what to look for in a fine actor, who to look for in the matter of emotional elements or other characteristics of a person who is to be portrayed. But the student alone can get the feel of the character he is to play; the student alone can put into the part just what he has learned through observation.

Technique — technique that teachers discuss before their pupils—is not the thing that counts; it is simplicity and a belief in what you are doing that will bring you success. Let me give an example of what I mean: I know an actor—and so do you—who says he can work out his income tax while giving a performance. He says he uses technique. He reads his lines without error; he never misses a cut. But I condemn him as a bad actor (thus disagreeing with thousands because he consistently fails to be observant; he leaves too much out of his characterizations which he would use if he were observant.

Washington In Wartime—Dakota Servicemen Long For The Soil

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON — Frequently, the states show the federal government the way.

There has been a lot of fussing and fuming lately about what should be done to take care of the boys in the armed services when they come back from the wars. North Dakota decided to try to find out. The Greater North Dakota Association undertook the job.

Sen. Gerald P. Nye has recently brought back from his state the preliminary reports on that undertaking. As a state enterprise the methods used and the results obtained are fascinating.

North Dakota, being primarily a farm state, keyed its questionnaire in that direction. Through the G.N.D.A., it went into every one of the state's 53 counties and already has received more or less complete reports from 42 of them. What they did was to contact more than 6,000 North Dakota service men. No effort was made to do it directly, but answers were obtained indirectly through the families of these men.

North Dakota already has acted on its survey. It has passed a law holding state owned or state controlled farm lands for that available to men who will want them when they get mustered out. The legislature meets again in January and postwar legislation for service men, based on the surveys, will be one of the most important items on the agenda.

Texans In Washington James Fly, FCC Chairman, Able To Protect Self In Any Company

By TEX HASKLEY WASHINGTON, May 29 (UP) — The boss over at the Federal Communications Commission, as at a lot of other places around here, is a Texan. He's FCC Chairman James Lawrence Fly.

Tall and on the lanky side, the 46-year-old native of Seagoville, Dallas county, has been in the limelight lately because of a congressional investigation of FCC policies, and because of recent stories of the work of the FCC's radio intelligence division (RID) in combating German radio espionage activities.

Testifying before the house special FCC investigating body, Fly handled himself as few witnesses can do when facing a hostile examining attorney and critical, quizzing congressmen. Questions centered around such charges as one to the effect that the FCC was using its licensing powers to dictate the kind of programs a radio station should broadcast. The Texan had a ready and sharp answer to one question after another. Naturally, he denied interference by the FCC in selection of programs.

One could guess from Fly's appearance and the way he can take care of himself under questioning that he has a background that called for good physique and sharp thinking. A checkup of his record proves it.

After attending country schools around Seagoville, he graduated from Dallas high school in 1916. In those years of public schooling he made money in the summer and fall picking cotton and working in a cotton gin, hauling ice and working as a store clerk. He worked at one time as a clerk in one of the courts in Dallas. In 1917 he entered the Naval Academy at Annapolis. His career there was interspersed with three months service with the Atlantic fleet during World War I, in 1918. He graduated from the academy in 1920, was debating champion, class secretary and winner of an essay contest. Commissioned an ensign, he served on various ships in the Pacific and acted as advocate in several naval courts because he had had a smattering of law during his studies.

In 1917 he resigned his commission in the navy and entered Harvard law school, later practiced law in Massachusetts and New York. Although a democrat, he was made a special assistant to the U. S. attorney general in 1929 under a republican administration. Early in 1934 he was placed at the head of the legal department of the Tennessee Valley Authority, and in 1939 was appointed by the president to the seven-man communications commission.

While in the navy Fly married Mildred Marvin, daughter of a California physician, in San Diego, June 12, 1923. He has two children, Sara Virginia and James L. Jr. He is a member of the Protestant church, American and Tennessee state bar association, and several clubs. He likes to read, especially biographies, plays a good game of tennis and is considered an expert bridge player.

Around the capital: Bonham's Mayor Raleigh Abernathy, introduced by his fellow townsmen, Speaker Sam Rayburn, as "Bonham's No. 1 citizen." Here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jennie Taylor, an aide to Rayburn, Mayor Abernathy was guest of the speaker at a luncheon of Texas congressmen.

It was Representative Lyndon B. Johnson from the land-locked congressional district which includes Austin who directed passage in the house of legislation authorizing construction of 1,000,000 tons of invasion craft at a cost of one billion dollars. Incidentally, the retirement of Rep. Magnuson (D-Wash) from the house to run for the U. S. senate elevates the Texan to within two notches of chairmanship. Only Rep. Drewry of Virginia and Chairman Vinson of Georgia are left ahead of him.

Texas Rep. George Mahon was Naval Capt. M. M. Dupree and Army Captain Harold Brunson of Colorado City. Dupree is the son of a former Lubbock school superintendent, and was appointed to Annapolis by Rep. Martin Dies' father when the elder Dies was in congress. Other visitors around the capitol—Virgil Scott, Houston banker; Tom Duggan, Lubbock, assistant Texas attorney general; Charles Thompson of Colorado City, member of Houston farm credit board; Lieut. George Link, naval air transport pilot, stationed at Cedar Point, Va.; Editor Pat Holt of the Gatesville Messenger.

Four Day Milk School Stated Here June 12

A four-day milk producers school has been scheduled for June 12-15, it was announced Tuesday by V. A. Cross, sanitarian for the Big Spring-Howard county division of the Midland-Ector-Howard county health unit.

Sponsoring the event, which will be held in the Settles hotel, are Dairyland and Banner Creameries, the chamber of commerce and health unit. All milk producers in Big Spring and other cities in the area are being urged to participate in the sessions which are slated for 2:30 p. m. daily.

There will be speakers from Texas Tech on the first three days of the school and on the last day a representative of the state department of health will be heard.

Topics for the school include:
1) Healthy cows and milk production for profit and quality; 2) Utensils and equipment, the kind and care; 3) cooling and transportation; 4) control of bacteria in milk; Why and how. A film furnished by the state health department also will be projected at the school.

In addition to speakers on the various subjects, there will be a questions and answers period, said Cross. The school is being planned in an effort to give Big Spring a top quality milk supply during the summer months. Starting almost from scratch last summer when tests showed the supply to be abnormally high in bacteria count, local producers have made steady and gratifying improvement, according to Cross.

O'Daniel Wants Director Fired

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) says he has requested Chairman Malcolm Ross of the Fair Employment Practices Committee (FEPC) to remove the committee's Texas regional director at Dallas for what he asserted were attempts to enforce the committee's policies on a Dallas book binding concern.

In a letter to Ross, O'Daniel said Leonard M. Brin, the regional director, had written "impudent and insulting letters" to C. T. Dean, president of the American Beauty Cover company of Dallas regarding an advertisement offering employment to white women last February.

Simultaneous with O'Daniel's release of his letter to Ross, Senator Connally (D-Tex.) declared in a statement that the FEPC was an "unauthorized" body and that he would vote to discontinue its activities.

"According to my views the FEPC has no legal basis," said Connally. "Its activities are unauthorized and have no force of compulsion. I shall vote to discontinue its activities."

The correspondence showed that Dean penciled a reply to Brin, saying "we are not advertising for white women any more."

According to the correspondence released by O'Daniel, Brin, failing to get a reply from Dean, wrote another letter saying "unless we hear from you within the next ten days, it will be necessary to refer this case to our Washington office."

Dean then wrote O'Daniel, who wrote Brin asking under what authority in law he wrote such letters to Dean.

The report, released by J. W. Bruner, endowment secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, and director of the campaign, was prepared for presentation to a meeting of the executive board of the convention at Seminary Hill, Fort Worth, this afternoon.

The campaign ends Jan. 1, 1945 and Bruner said Baptists had designated June 18-25 as "endowment emphasis week."

The total receipts for endowment were listed at $76,786.20, and for building $377,347.14.

The institutions with endowment receipts listed first and building receipts second, include: Baylor, Waco: $11,311.02, $269,622.97; Baylor, Dallas: hospital $5,173.01, none; school of nursing, none, $96; school of dentistry $119.84, none; Baylor Medical School, Houston: $300,264.67, none; Southwestern Seminary: $90,775.45, $10,292.62; Hardin-Simmons: $12,541.00, $17,736.00; Mary Hardin Baylor: $150,062.01, none; East Texas College $6,299.28, none; Wayland College $6,791.50, $37,350.00; Decatur College $7,240.00, none; San Marcos Academy $50,456.68, none; Memorial Hospital $299.66, $5,597.24; Hillcrest Hospital, $569.44, $23,421.57; Valley Hospital $325.00, none; Buckner Orphans Home $56,468.50, none; charity in hospitals, $24,655.20, none; foreign missions $4,020.00, none; First Church, Big Spring, $3,075.00, none; Howard Payne, $265.34, $13,280.74.

Doctors Want FDR To Regard Health

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today the president's doctors want him to keep the gains in health which he has made recently.

One of the recommendations, the First Lady told her press conference, is that the president should not work "till all hours of the night and not make every meal a working time."

Replying to a request for comment on Prime Minister Churchill's remarks friendly to the Franco government of Spain, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "I think he has thought a certain way for sixty years and I don't think he wants to change. And that's the way he thinks on Spain."

The president's wife asserted she has no plans to go to the democratic national convention in July, nor "any convention."

Demonstrations Slated At County HD Meetings

Demonstrations on food spoilage and a clinic on canning equipment will be conducted by Rheba Merle Boyles, county home demonstration agent, at home demonstration club meetings Thursday and Friday.

The Fairview club will meet at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Mason and the Overton club will meet at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. John Phillips.

Thos. Dewey Speaks At Governor's Parley

HERSHEY, Pa., May 30 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York says Americans "must not again sit on the sidelines as mere observers and commentators" while new war lords grow strong.

The leading figure in the republican presidential nomination picture told the 36th governors' conference in an address last night that "our people are united upon the proposition that our foreign affairs must be so conducted that disasters like the present one will not recur x x x the people are determined to join in preventing future wars."

Holding that civilians are "worried about inefficiencies and bungling" on the home front, Dewey said: "If we permit the continuance of the regimentation which some so earnestly desire, we shall fail. We cannot practice in peace the centralization which brought totalitarianism to our enemies and be either free or successful."

KBST TO JOIN BLUE NETWORK ON THURSDAY, TO CONTINUE MUTUAL

Radio station KBST has signed a contract with Blue network effective Thursday at 3 a. m. and which will make the station one of few in the nation which retains two coast-to-coast network services.

Mutual and Texas State Network connections, set up here in September of 1938, are being maintained and selectivity will be exercised in choice of programs from the three loops, according to Louis Seibert, manager, KBRC, Abilene, and KGKL, San Angelo, also are getting the Blue service.

Currently only day hours have been cleared for the new service, said Seibert, but eventually he hoped to clear evening time to allow for the Boston symphony, Metropolitan opera, Walter Winchell, and other widely known programs.

Broadcast hours will be unchanged at present, starting at 7 a. m. and continued to 10:15 p. m. With the advent of the invasion, however, the station will come on an hour earlier and continue two hours later.

Top feature from Mutual, such as Gabriel Heatter, etc., will be continued. Among new programs being added on the day side by the Blue connection are Daily War Journal at 7 a. m., the widely known Breakfast Club from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m., Sweet River, My True Story, Lanny and Ginger, Breakfast at Sardi's (Hollywood interview), National Farm and Home hour, Mystery Chef, Ladies Be Seated, Appointment with Life, Morton Downey, Time Views the News, Sea Hound, Dick Tracy and many others.

Blue Network formerly was part of the National Broadcasting Company chain but was sold to a combine including Life, Time, New York Times, and some other industrialists.

Major Bill Cherry And Family Leave

Maj. Cherry was pilot of the plane which had Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker as a passenger when it was forced down in the Southwest Pacific in the early months of the war. As commander of the group, Maj. Cherry (then captain) gave the order after several days to disperse. This resulted in eventual rescue of the group.

Mexican Officials May Visit Texas

MEXICO CITY, May 30 (AP)—An invitation to Senator Ramiro Tames to visit Texas with some of his colleagues and see that there was no discrimination there against Mexicans is receiving favorable comment in the senate.

The invitation, from Publisher William Prescott Allen of the Laredo Times, came as confirmation of a telephone conversation with Senator Tames and said in part: "Since we are of the same opinion regarding discrimination, which is an act of cowardice and in no way represents the feeling of our people, I hope that you will let us know what day you will arrive in Laredo, so that we may arrange a luncheon in honor of yourself and your colleagues and confirm most cordially the good relations which happily exist between the peoples of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico and Laredo, Texas."

Senator Tames discussed with Senators Aguirre and Prado the advisability of the senate's sending a commission to Texas in response to the invitation.

Holiday Deaths Climb To 216

The nation's toll of violent deaths at the three-quarter mark in the four-day memorial holiday was 216 today.

Soaring temperatures in most sections of the country sent thousands to the beaches and streams and the number of drownings—60—ranked a close second to the traffic fatalities, which accounted for 72 of the total.

The traffic deaths for the three day period compare to an estimate by the National Safety Council of 250 fatalities for a normal four-day period, Saturday through Tuesday.

California led the states in number of violent deaths, with a total of 26, including 13 in a plane crash, eight traffic, four drownings and a shooting. New York state had 18 and Illinois and Massachusetts each reported 17.

Accidental deaths in Texas totaled four; a figure unchanged since yesterday.
