Be courteous to tourists!

At this particular time tourist traffic presents one of the best opportunities to Big Spring business men.

Stand on either of the highways crossing in the center of Big Spring, note the states where their license were issued, notice the quality of the cars and judge the buying power of their owners.

Big Spring offers greater accommodations to tourists than any other city between Fort Worth and El Paso. We have as many modern hotel rooms as any of them with the exception of Abilene—and we're just a pace or two behind that city.

We have more tourist camps that offer good service than any city on the Texas link of the Broadway of America aside from Fort Worth, Dallas and El Paso. In fact this is one of the principal tourist camp cities of the entire nation.

Hotels and tourist camps are by no means the only business institutions that profit from patronage of tourists. If they were, induction of the new money spent by the tourist would be distributed quickly in all branches of local trade.

Aside from purely selfish desire of obtaining tourist patronage for individual businesses the community owes it to the hotels and tourist camps to cultivate good will of the motor traveling public.

When we drive to neighboring cities, stop at out-of-town filling stations and hotels, we can take advantage of many opportunities of telling travelers that this is the host town between Fort Worth and El Paso to stop overnight.

America goes vacationing now—a day on a big scale. Millions go places to "see things" as warm weather comes on. Tens of thousands traverse the Broadway of America and, folks, this burg is one of the principal places on the long, paved street.

We have one handicap—infestation of the paving on the Broadway in Howard county. We can however, thank our neighboring counties in both directions, especially eastward, for providing good paving that causes 'em to come this far out. When they get here we must make them feel at home. Then when they return from the vacation they'll stop in Big Spring.

Chief Of Dry Land Farm Experiment Stations In City

Dr. E. C. Beighty, chief of the division of dry land farming of the United States department of agriculture, and Mr. Chilcott, senior agricultural and inspector of southern experiment stations of the department, paid an official visit to the Big Spring experiment station Tuesday, spending the day in conference and inspection with Fred Keating, local superintendent.

Midland Man Is Victim In Attack

L. S. McDowell, State Senator says restriction of oil in Texas not remedy.

MIDLAND, May 27 (UPI)— Chester W. Baker, employee of the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, died unexpectedly here last night at 11 o'clock following a heart attack.

Mr. Baker is survived by his widow and a 12-year-old child. Burial will be Friday at Baker's former home, Coggsburg, Mo. The family came here four months ago from Tulsa. Baker was a draftsman in the Prairie offices. He was transferred here because of his health.

Former Practices 'Live At Home' and Buys On With Cash

A. L. Landers, route 1, Big Spring, not only pratches but practices living at home.

The family cans large quantities of fruits and vegetables annually and this year Mr. Landers is installing a syrup mill.

Kentucky wonder beans, sure crop corn and other garden stuff on the Landers place is thriving along with cantaloupes and watermelons.

"We practice living at home. We don't buy on credit," Mr. Landers told a Herald representative.

Percy Redding, Comonha, underwent a major operation Tuesday at the Big Spring hospital. Mr. Redding is an engineer for the Gulf company.

HE IS HELD IN DOUBLE SLAYING

David H. Clark (left), former assistant district attorney at Los Angeles, was charged with the murder of Charles H. Crawford, politician, and Herbert Spencer, editor. Mrs. Clark (right) had told police her husband was missing.

Senator Opposes Hikes In Taxes

WASHINGTON, May 27 (UPI)—Senator Harrison, Mississippi, ranking Democrat on the finance committee, today voiced opposition to any increase in taxes in the next session of congress.

The statement was expected to go a long way in determining the Democratic policy on revenue legislation.

The statement was made by Mr. McDowell in favor of this proposition I am trying to consider the interest of the average taxpayer as well as all taxpayers.

"In the first place it will not be burdensome this year to the taxpayer because the tax rate will not be increased and possibly for some time yet—the reason for this, as I understand it, being increased taxable property valuations of the past few years.

"Again, building material is very much cheaper now than it has been or will be for a year or two hence, thereby offering savings of quite a per cent.

"It will furnish employment to our citizens of Big Spring, many of whom need it badly. We are paying out the money now to labor for the purpose of preventing families from becoming object of charity. This labor now not so profitably spent would be profitably used on the proposed improvements.

"If we vote this bond issue we will begin to see daylight again and this in connection with probable building of the post office and the T&P Northern railway I believe will cause this vicinity almost to forget there was a depression.

State Senator Says Restriction of Oil In Texas Not Remedy

DALLAS, May 27 (UPI)—State Senator Tom G. Pollard, Tyler, said here today that existing depressed conditions in the oil industry could be dealt with more effectively by a special session of the National Congress than by the Texas state legislature.

In blaming the condition on imports of Venezuelan, Russian and Mexican oil, Pollard said restricting Texas production further would encourage foreign importation.

Pollard urged effective embargo on foreign oils.

Trades Day Plan Abandoned Here

The Chamber of Commerce trade extension committee's plan for a Trades Day program here in the near future was dropped Tuesday.

The action came following a conference between the committee and the county attorney, who rules that the plan under consideration would be a violation of the laws covering lotteries.

Several other West Texas towns, including some nearby communities have followed the same plan that was to have been used here, it was reported. However, in face of the attorney's ruling the committee did not feel it should continue with its project.

Percy Redding, Comonha, underwent a major operation Tuesday at the Big Spring hospital. Mr. Redding is an engineer for the Gulf company.

Censorship Of Periodicals Is Approved Here

Ordinance Passed: Mrs. Charles Koberg Board Chairman

An ordinance requiring those dealing in printed matter to obtain a license and creating a city board of inspectors of printed matter was passed Tuesday evening by the city commission.

Application for licenses must be made before June 15. The term "printed matter" for purposes of the ordinance means—magazines, periodicals, books, papers, pamphlets, cards, pictures and all other kinds and styles of printed matter designed or intended for sale to the public.

Papers or publications, devoted entirely to disseminating news or scientific or historical subjects are not included.

Mrs. Charles Koberg was named first chairman and Madame Iggi Driver and J. P. Dodge the other two members of the board, which shall hold office at the will of the city commission. The city manager, will make appointments to vacancies on the board. Board members will serve without compensation.

The board will inspect printed matter as it finds it necessary to determine the character of it and determine whether it is immoral or indecent or calculated to corrupt the morals of youth or the public generally. Sale of any material ruled indecent or immoral will be prohibited.

The emergency clause was included in the ordinance and it will become effective as soon as published.

City Attorney T. J. Coffey displayed at the commission meeting a number of periodicals which he said were for sale at stores here and which he declared were highly immoral and indecent.

The rhythm string band of Ackley, composed of children between the ages of six and eight years, furnished entertainment. The band was in charge of Mrs. R. B. Standfield, and accompanied by Miss Madeline Springfield of Ackley.

Speaking on "What Stanton Expects of Big Spring," Robert W. Hamilton, Martin county attorney, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Big Spring Luncheon club today. The program was in charge of C. T. Walker.

Big Spring's representative to the annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of Texas returned Wednesday morning from Lubbock where the sessions was held.

Those from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Eubanks and Miss Altha Coleman of the local office, and McCall Gary, manager of Gary and Son. Mr. Eubanks' president and manager of the independent, Mrs. Eubanks is office manager, and Miss Coleman, clerk.

According to Mr. Eubanks the convention was successful from every standpoint.

Members of the Association of Retail Credit Men of Texas and Texas Retail Credit Bureau met in separate groups.

Tempie, according to Mr. Eubanks, was selected as the host city for the meeting place of the secretaries school, to be held in October.

Mr. Eubanks will attend this session at Wink and marketed.

Some of the foremost speakers affiliated with the credit business were on the various programs of the association, Mr. Eubanks declared.

Bishop E. C. Spaman To Occupy Pulpit Here Sunday, 8 P.M.

E. Cecil Spaman, D. D. bishop of the Texas diocese, will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church here Sunday evening, the pastor, Rev. R. L. Owen, announced.

Talks On Relation Between Stanton And Big Spring

Speaking on "What Stanton Expects of Big Spring," Robert W. Hamilton, Martin county attorney, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Big Spring Luncheon club today. The program was in charge of C. T. Walker.

Big Spring's representative to the annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of Texas returned Wednesday morning from Lubbock where the sessions was held.

The sheriff's department recovered a Ford coach stolen several weeks ago from Algie Smith, 1004 Goldfield Street. A man was arrested and returned to Big Spring.

The man, W. E. Gore, is being detained under charges of automobile theft, filed in Justice of the Peace Cecil C. Collings' court.

The Smith car was recovered at Wink and marketed.

Following recovery of the car, Texas rangers took part in the investigation.

Members of the Association of Retail Credit Men of Texas and Texas Retail Credit Bureau met in separate groups.

Tempie, according to Mr. Eubanks, was selected as the host city for the meeting place of the secretaries school, to be held in October.

According to the sheriff's department the car had been stolen from Wink and marketed.

One of the machines was stolen from Lowell Baird and returned here.

Slaughter declared that cars were found that had been reported stolen from Vernon, Pampa, Fort Worth and Midland.

Another stolen car was located at Kilgore and one was found in another state.

Gore has made no statement in regard to the charges other than that he wanted a bond arranged.

His home is at Coleman.

Gore was arrested at Wink and returned from Kermit to Big Spring by Dunn. The other man is being detained by Winkler county officers.

According to local officers applications for bills of transfer for a number of the stolen machines were made here and attested to by Big Spring notaries public.

Other transfers were made at Midland, Eastland and other towns.

IN CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

NEW YORK (INS)—On Bunker Hill Day, June 17, a covered wagon of the Conestoga type which carried Forty-niners along the Overland Trail will leave the fair grounds at Brockton, Mass., and begin a journey across the continent.

The wagon will be sent east on its long trek by the American Baptist Home Mission Society, which will in this manner begin the observance of its one hundredth anniversary, but the Conventionals and the Presbyterians will also have an interest in the travels of this latter day pioneer wagon, according to the officers of the exhibition. John Mason Peck, the pioneer historian whose name the wagon will follow as nearly as possible, came a convert to religion in a Congregational Church and was ordained as a Presbyterian Church as a minister of the Baptist denomination.

A FEW STILL REMAIN

BOSTON, May 27 (INS)— Ernest R. Dane, symphony orchestra conductor, president of the Boston Firemen's Company and director of several large corporations, bought ownership of six cigar-store Indians.

The six red clay Indians, a batch of cigars clasped in hand, are standing in Mr. Dane's home, apparently waiting to retire. Dane's reservation after a lifetime spent in front of various stores, their wooden crevices symbolic of fragrant Havanas within.

The last wooden Indian to be seen here was stationed in front of a store on Cambridge street. A check-up of cigar-store Indians in New England reveals that there is one each in Lowell, Lawrence, and Marlboro, in Massachusetts; Phillipsburg, N. H.; and Madison, Me.

and travels are described in a book by Cos. Jayne, "Vanguard of the Caravans," and the wagon will stop for special centenary observances in various places that appear prominently in this historical record.

The first ceremony will be in Massachusetts, when the wagon starts its journey to cross the country. The Brockton fairgrounds are opening their gates for this program on Bunker Hill Day. The churches and Sunday Schools of Massachusetts will have a special part. Dr. G. Clifford Cress, who will accompany the wagon during much of the journey, will give in Brockton the initial address on "The Spirit of the Pioneers." He will repeat his address at various celebrations centering about the wagon as it makes its way across the country.

Summer Pyjamas

Pyjamas are as prominent as the flowers in May at all the smart dressmakers in Paris this season, and particularly those for the summer beaches.

Jeanne Dolly who is dressmaking instead of dancing these days, shows a very smart pyjama-suit with box-jacket of orange which reveals a much-bared back in the bloused moon-colored bodice beneath it, while gay stripes of orange and yellow make up the wide trousers in alluring lines.

Pyjama trousers at Irene Dunn's are as wide as skirts, some are pleated as well as flared. A striking pair in blue linen has the trousers slashed to the knees in front. For wear with it comes a wide blue beach hat with separate brim which buttons into a tiny white skullcap of crochet.

The Marquise de Casa Maury is wearing Worth's "Tulipe" pyjamas for informal dinners. They come in supple faille taffeta in gay design of bright tulips, rather large. The model is tailored in line with wide trousers and a fichu scarf.

For informal resort wear there are turquoise-blue pyjamas trimmed with grey crepe de chine and embroidery in pink and blue beads.

DENVER, May 27 (INS) — The problems confronting a Royal Prince who spends eight years in a foreign land while keeping his true identity concealed are revealed by Prince Swasti Pradipash, brother of the Queen of Siam. During the present visit of the King and Queen of Siam to this country, the fellow-officers of Second Lieut. Swasti Pradipash, 24, military observer at Fort Logan here, learned that he is a royal personage.

"Ask the king, I can't tell you," the Prince answered when first asked concerning it.

The identity of the prince, it developed, has been a secret of the state department in Washington all through the eight years he has been in this country. During the visit of the royal couple in Washington a story of the Queen's family sent from the capital revealed that the Queen had a brother in Denver.

"I have been in the United States eight years," the prince finally explained. "I am here to study military engineering, particularly as it pertains to rivers and harbors. I attended Culver Military Academy in Indiana, and entered West Point in 1926. I was graduated there last June."

"A similar situation to this came up while I was a student at Culver. At that time the Prince and Princess of Siam, who are now in the United States, were visiting in the United States. They were accompanied by the man who now is Siam's ambassador to Washington."

From Chicago, they went to Culver they understood a young Siamese student was enrolled there, and asked that he be allowed to come there to visit them. Permission was given, and I went to see them at Chicago."

Prince Pradipash came to Fort Logan last September. He has applied for a three month vacation during which he expects to visit the Pacific Coast, inspecting day or two.

Prince Swasti, father of Queen Miss Helen Creath has returned from Dewitt where she has been with the royal couple teaching for the last year.

Ramphai Sarni and Prince Pradipash, accompanied the royal couple teaching for the last year.

Mrs. Mellinger Gives Party For Miss Crain

Pink and White Color Scheme Prevails In Refreshments

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mellinger were host and hostess at a lovely presbyterian party for Miss Elizabeth Crain Tuesday evening at their home on Scenic Street.

The bride's bridal colors, of pink and white were effectively carried out in the roses used for house decorations and in the jewelry refreshment plates.

After the games Miss Crain cut the bridal cake which was served to the guests with pink and white heart-shaped sandwiches and pink and white mint.

The following guests enjoyed the evening's hospitality: Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crain, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crawford, Mrs. W. G. Mum, Mrs. C. E. Head, Miss Alma Rueker, Clemmie Lee Cain, Mildred Creath, Mary Marguerite Hair, Mrs. E. Sneed, Ruth Lucas and A. C. McCloud.

Birds Bailey Meet For Social Session At Mrs. Bollinger's

The Birds Bailey Missionary Society of the First Methodist church held a social meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Regan Bollinger with Mrs. M. Wentz's group as hostesses.

Herbert Keaton led the devotional. Mrs. A. Knickerbocker talked on "Poland." Mrs. T. E. Reeves, accompanied by Mrs. Keaton at the piano, sang a solo.

Mr. Watson made a talk. Mrs. Bailey thanked the society for the life membership which was given her during the conference.

Ice cream and cake were served by Misses M. A. Cook, T. L. Williamson, M. Wentz, Alfred Smith and A. Knickerbocker, to the following: Misses A. Schnitzer, V. W. Latson, L. A. Talley, Jake Bishop, Hay Stripling, Mrs. Howard, C. C. Carter, Jimmie Mason, H. V. Crocker, Herbert Keaton, T. B. Reeves, C. T. Watson, W. G. Bailey, F. E. Walters, a visitor.

The refreshments consisted of angel food and a nest of ice cream, made up of coconut and colored eggs. On each plate was toy bird with a card in his mouth announcing the names of the party honorees, Mrs. Fred Ratliff, Mrs. Jim Wilcox and Mrs. V. Hill Long.

Those present were Misses S. R. Cox, Sam Ringo, J. O. Heath, Joe Bickley, V. Hill Long, Fred Chaney, J. L. Parker, Perry Estep, Lee Jim Will, John Cox, Steve Calverly, Jr., Sam Ratliff, J. P. Jamison, E. L. McMaster, V. Roberts, J. B. Ratliff, Joe Calverly, Jr. and Pete Underwood, of Big Spring.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Misses Josephine Tripp, Mamie Leach, Opal and Ruby Creighton, Lucille Kennedy, Eupha Barton and Junitta Doggett, Misses Garland, Hartford, Earl Fur, Morris Curtis and J. C. Douglas, Jr.

Ideal Bridge Members Have Picnic Supper

The members of the Ideal Bridge club were entertained at their bi-monthly night party Tuesday evening with a picnic supper at the city park, with Mrs. Pine and Mrs. Inkman as hostesses.

A substantial supper was served to the members and their husbands. The guests then adjourned to the home of Mrs. Pine for bridge.

Mr. Croft made high for the men and Mrs. Clare for the women.

The following attended: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inkman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Croft, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilke, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Fore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pine and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Edwards.

ROASTING CONTROL IS FLAVOR SECRET OF RARE COFFEE

Scientific Control Gives Hills Bros. Coffee the Flavor of Flavors

Invariably foods cooked in small quantities taste the best. The cook is able to control every step—perfectly—mixing, flavoring and cooking.

The principle of Hills Bros. patented continuous roasting process is based on the same idea. Instead of roasting their exclusive blend of coffee in bulk, measured quantities of about three pounds pass continuously through the roasters. The heat and speed of operation are accurately controlled with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform.

No other coffee can have the same delicious, uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. This process—Controlled Roasting—was originated and patented by Hills Bros.

The vacuum can in which Hills Bros. Coffee is packed keeps it fresh always. By the vacuum packing process, air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is taken out of the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if air-tight, will not keep coffee fresh. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arabic trade-mark—on the can.

Coahoma Is Victor Over Flewellen Aggregation 4-1

Errors By Steelman, Flew Outfielder, Buffaloes Win
Pair From Tribe

The Water Bucket

BY BOBBY CAMPBELL.

"Obie" Bristol's drive for funds with which to send to send to the high school Steers in a football camp in August got underway
Tuesday. The plan is simple:
One hundred men will be prevailed upon to raise $100. To Harold held those Lions—Fayrough goes to the error column, and every time he contributed Coahoma vanquished him.

For four innings the two teams battled. First, Fayrough was tossing mid ball for the Flewellen aggregation, and Mahoney was getting better feed. The game might have gone on like that indefinitely but the Coahoma batsmen started singing them Steelman's way.

Tally In Third.

Coahoma tallied in the third in time when L. Walker sent a high one to left field where Steelman swiped. The Flewellen left field mid the ball, running next to it, and the orbit dropped for a double. Walker tallied when Steelman dropped. H. Held's long one to left.

In the same inning Flewellen put one across the slab when Potter got an easy double and tallied on Ernest's sacrifice bunt. Ernest was safe on H. Held's error at first after Rosten had handled the play.

The lines tightened until the fifth when Ernest struck Mahoney out and Neil fisted Baker to Terrazas. L. Walker lifted the ball to left field where Steelman and was dropped the change. Walker drifted home when H. Held's a home run deep left, the ball bounding over the fence.

And Later On.

The fourth Coahoma tally was shaded across in the seventh. Neil was whiffed by Ernest, but L.
Walker singled. H. Held also struck out, but E. Held connected for a single and Walker raced

McNamee in the meantime was holding the Flewellen aggregation well in hand.

After the third inning when he had up two hits and one run he allowed only three singles. Potter got his second hit of the play in the fifth, and Steelman and Walker connected for the same in the sixth.

Section 4. All voters driving to support the proposition to issue said bonds shall have written or of said election.

Section 7. The Mayor of the City of Big Spring, Texas, is authorized and directed to cause said notice of said bond election to be posted at three public places within the City of Big Spring, Texas, one of such notices to be posted at the place designated for holding of said election, in the City of Big Spring, Texas, for at least thirty full days prior to the date of said election and the mayor is further authorized and directed to have notice of said Bond Election published in the newspaper of general circulation published within said City of Big Spring, Texas, which notice shall be published once each week for at least four consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication being not less than thirty days prior to the date of said election.

Section 8. The fact that the City of Big Spring, Texas, is in urgent need of a good public building creates an emergency and public necessity, and this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure, requiring that the rules and ordinances be

Night holds no terror for the fearless woman. She anticipates only four hours of darkness. Her plan is so fool she expects to meet the sun ahead of time.

Col. Clarence Chamberlin, her technical associate, figure "a" 95 per cent or better chance of success. Miss Nichols figures "B" better—about 98 per cent.

The margin of safety is more than the usual 25 per cent for such flights. The gasoline supply of 52 gallons should keep the plane up a least 12 hours, for a distance of 3,250 miles.

Under the worst conditions, Miss Nichols said, the plane should travel 2,400 miles under the best 4,500.

As its load of 6,500 pounds is balanced by fuel consumption, she won't endeavor to fly higher, and longer.

After Higher Altitude Mark
See home to flying to 20,000 feet last Friday which would mean a new woman's altitude record for the present holder.

But however she flies, she tends to go as far as she can—possibly to Paris, or beyond.

Her aim is to demonstrate the progress in the design and construction of airplanes since Collier-Lindbergh and Colonel Chamberlin made their flights in 1927.

Her equipment will include a tank equipment for blind flying, three compasses, a special camera, landing gear designed by Chamberlin, adding 15 miles an hour to her plane's speed, rubber encased gasoline and oil lines, a prevent leakage in case of breakage, an emergency hand pump, everything she can think of.

With these to speed her on, Ruth Nichols, who regards flying as a "fathomless source of infinite interest, exhibition and fun" is eager for another great adventure—a long downward fall over wind-swept seas.

SAVING—

The pistol was found in the room after the officers arrived. It was not brought out at the inquest whether anyone but Harris Williams and Mrs. Williamson were in the house at the time the shots were fired.

Mrs. Williamson had just recently celebrated her twenty-eighth birthday. She was born May 21, 1903.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Billy Jack, 7, and her mother, Mrs. Katherine Allen of El Dorado.

Six sisters and two brothers also survive. They are Mrs. Velma Davis, McGehee, Okla.; Mrs. J. R. Letton, Big Spring; Mrs. C. C. Newington Howe, Texas; Mrs. Mabel Ellen Ector, Mrs. W. L. Jones, Sulphur, and Mrs. Nita Allen, Big Spring; Stanley Allen, Ector, and Charles Allen, Tulsa.

The body was removed from the Harris home to the El Dorado Funeral Home where it was prepared for burial. It will be shipped tonight to Ector for burial. No funeral rites will be held here, the director said.

Night holds no terror for the fearless woman. She anticipates only four hours of darkness. Her plan is so fool she expects to meet the sun ahead of time.

Col. Clarence Chamberlin, her technical associate, figure "a" 95 per cent or better chance of success. Miss Nichols figures "B" better—about 98 per cent.

The margin of safety is more than the usual 25 per cent for such flights. The gasoline supply of 52 gallons should keep the plane up a least 12 hours, for a distance of 3,250 miles.

Under the worst conditions, Miss Nichols said, the plane should travel 2,400 miles under the best 4,500.

As its load of 6,500 pounds is balanced by fuel consumption, she won't endeavor to fly higher, and longer.
