Milk Pasteurization Plant Prospect

Vulcan Oil & Gas Company Drilling Below 1200 Feet

PROGRESS MADE IN DRILLING

Carpenter Well Now Showing Good Indications

The Vulcan Oil and Gas Company's Carpenter No. 1 on the west half of the n. w. 1/4 of section 25, block 25, eight miles north of McLean, is drilling below 1200 feet, and the operators say it is logging different from other wells located in this area, evidencing that the lime will be reached in a favorable contour for oil and gas.

This well encountered trouble with an unusual amount of fresh water that made it necessary to lower the 13 1/2 inch casing to a depth of 435 feet before the water was entirely shut off.

The Phillips petroleum Co. has an option on the Vulcan Oil and Gas Co. acreage for taking their gas, and the Prairie Pipe Line Co. has an oil well but a short distance from the well.

The Magnolia Co. has started development one mile north of this well, and the operators expect renewed activity in this area, several leases and royalties have recently changed hands and others in course of consummation. Oil scouts of both major and independent companies are watching the development of the well.

No Action Taken, Hotel Proposition

Mr. Campbell of the Southwest Hotels, Inc., met with some 22 members of the Chamber of Commerce last Friday and outlined his plan for a 40 or 50 room hotel in McLean, stating that his company would require a suitable site donated and 30% of the capital stock subscribed by local citizens.

Full discussion was made of the proposed plan, and several questions propounded Mr. Campbell, and the meeting adjourned without action.

In the afternoon a called meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held to discuss the proposition and Mr. Campbell was informed that the C. of C. officers were not ready to sign an agreement at this time.

At this meeting it was planned to interview other hotel men in regard to a new modern hotel for McLean in the near future.

COMMERCIAL CLASS PRESENTS GOOD PLAY

The high school commercial, Miss Esau Payne teacher, presented a play Tuesday night that was very pleasing to the audience.

Music was furnished by the high school band under the direction of Prof. Robt. C. Davidson, and readings were given by Miss Claris Bringham.

Those taking part in the play were: Misses Gorda Lou Haynes, Lucile Marlan, Edith Fleming, Marie Reed, Misses Bernie Morgan, Charles D. Spauld, Fred Durham, Orville Cunningham.

Proceeds of the play will be used to purchase an adding machine for the class.

CITY TRYS ELECTRIC PIPE THAWING MACHINE

The city water department has an electric pipe thawing machine on trial that will probably be purchased. Fred Pubright says the new machine thaws frozen pipes in short order at little expense.

D. E. Upham visited in Amarillo last week.

Hyer was in Amarillo Monday.

Baptist Pastor Resigns Is Asked to Reconsider

Rev. David H. Brynoff, for over four years pastor of the First Baptist church, tendered his resignation to the church at the regular monthly business meeting last night. However, the church voted unanimously to postpone action indefinitely and asking that the pastor reconsider the matter.

A large number of the members spoke in favor of the pastor's remaining, stating that the McLean church has been fortunate in having as pastor one who is recognized as a leader in this association, agreeing that the church has had no stronger preacher or better pastor in its history. It was pointed out that the work here is in better condition than at any time in its history; the new church building being erected, over 100 net increase in the membership, the Sunday school attendance doubled, the B. Y. P. U. work fully organized with over 100 enrollment in all departments, larger crowds attending all services, besides all outside causes represented in a worthy way, during his pastorate. The pastor's wife was also eulogized as a teacher and organizer second to none in the history of the church.

Rev. Brynoff received most of his theological training at the Denver, Colo., Bible Institute, recognized by all denominations as one of the strongest schools in the United States, and he has the widest knowledge of the Bible of any pastor in the association.

It was pointed out at the meeting that there is no opposition to his remaining as pastor, and his friends hope that he will reconsider his determination to leave.

EARL TALLEY FOR SHERIFF

Earl Talley, one of the earliest settlers of Gray county, this week announces his candidacy for the office of sheriff of this county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 26. Mr. Talley is engaged in farming and real estate, owning the Talley addition to the city of Pampa. Mr. Talley came to Gray county forty years ago and has been engaged in ranching and farming during that time. He has never before offered his candidacy for public office. He was the first to publicly express the intention of running for the office of sheriff. He states that he has no apologies to make to anybody. He states that if elected he will make the best sheriff he knows how to make and that he will serve no particular part of the county nor any special group, organization, social or political clique, striving at all times for a strict enforcement of all the laws.

Mr. Talley is forty-three years of age and is well known throughout the county. His many friends have encouraged him to enter the race for sheriff, and he states that he will make an active campaign for the office.

Mrs. Willie Boyett has our thanks for a subscription renewal this week.

Farmers Should Continue Milking Cows, Says Worrell

By J. E. Biggs, Sec. C. of C.
Dr. T. J. Worrell, assistant city health officer and inspector of McLean and Pampa, was in McLean Saturday making a preliminary survey of the milk situation here. Dr. Worrell says he hopes to see a milk pasteurizing plant here within the next few months and wants all farmers to continue milking cows, for there will be a market here at home for whole milk as well as butter fat.

Any farmer who is becoming disgusted with the cream situation should not sell off his cows but get in position to sell whole milk. From all reports, the cows as well as the hens will be great assets to any farmer this spring and summer. If we can make them pay our way through the spring and summer months, with suitable housing facilities they will continue doing so through the entire year. Droughts do not mean complete failure to the dairy and poultry men. If a farmer is not milking a few cows (not a herd) and has a flock of producing hens, he should at once make arrangements for same. They will set the table and pay the bills if given a chance to do so. They will also help to reduce the principal as well as the interest at the bank.

BYERS EDITOR PRAISES McLEAN SCHOOL SUPT.

Byers, Texas, Jan. 31, 1930.
Editor McLean News,
McLean, Texas.

Dear Brother Editor:
I am writing to congratulate you and your city in securing Mr. G. C. Boswell as superintendent of your schools.

Mr. Boswell has been in our town for many years. During this time he has, by his untiring efforts and determination, erected a school building, modern in every respect, and made our school from nothing to where it is on the Southern accredited list of secondary schools and colleges, and with as good rating as any of the much larger schools.

We bespeak many improvements in your schools the next year, and will say you are fortunate, especially if you have children in the school age.

Mr. Boswell and family are an addition to any city, and we trust he may have hearty co-operation, for he is an A-1 school builder.

We lose one of our most useful citizens in his going, and his friends, who are legion, deeply regret this loss.

Yours truly,
BYERS HERALD.

ERROR MAKES TRADE

In last week's advertisement of the McLean Mercantile, an error was made in the price of soap; 10 bars P & G for 30c should have been 10 bars for 37c. However, Mr. Wehba, manager of the store, stood by the 30c price, resulting in a sale of five cases representing an actual loss over wholesale price of $3.50. The copy was given verbally, so The News was unable to place the blame, but we were to stand the loss. However, Mr. Wehba would not consent to this, saying he was mightily well pleased with the result of the ad, proving to him that people read the advertising columns of The News.

Lions Will Sponsor Charity

The McLean Lions will sponsor the organization of a community chest fund, it being stated at the weekly luncheon held at the Meador Cafe Monday that a sample constitution and by-laws has been ordered from a similar organization at Amarillo, which will be used as a basis of the organization here. Representatives from all organizations in town, including the lodges and churches, will be asked to help perfect plans for a complete organization.

W. A. Erwin reported for the flag committee, stating that the flags and poles, including inside flags for the schools, would cost the merchants $7.00 each, and recommended deferring action on the outside poles and flags for the schools until a later date.

Law and Order Discussion Here Tonight

A law and order address will be given at the First Methodist church tonight by Rev. Theodore Hansen of Denver, Colo., when a local Law and Order Club will probably be formed. Rev. Hansen is speaking on the prohibition movement and has the reputation of being a forceful speaker.

This meeting was scheduled to be held on Wednesday night, and was so announced in last week's News, but on account of conflicting with prayer meetings, was postponed until Thursday night.

No admission charge will be made and everyone interested in law enforcement is invited to be present.

TALKING PICTURE SERVICE M. E. CH. LAST SUNDAY

A "talking picture" service was held at the First Methodist church last Sunday night.

Three pictures, "Calvary," "Gethsemane" and the "Ascension" were used. "Gethsemane" was furnished by Mrs. D. C. Carpenter, "Calvary" by Mrs. B. W. Wilkins, and the "Ascension" by the mission board.

The pastor talked through the pictures, representing the three great points in the experience of Jesus.

The house was well filled. Songs of prayer, the Cross and Calvary were used.

Those seeing the pictures and hearing the sermon report a wonderful experience.

MILK PLANT HERE

Plan to Have Plant Pasteurization of Milk Here

Milk production was the principal subject under discussion at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night. Secretary Biggs stated that the city milk inspector had done preliminary work toward establishing proper grades, and that within the next few months grade A milk will be sold in McLean, and a pasteurizing plant should be established here, enabling farmers to sell whole milk to milk route trucks.

It was stated that the sanitary requirements are simple and any farmer can meet the conditions for producing milk of the proper grade for the market. Mr. Biggs stated that he would be glad to furnish the list to requirements to all farmers interested.

M. D. Bentley reported Engineer Bushfield saying that paving on Highway 66 should begin in the spring. It was also stated that the state highway department would pay for the grading and drainage of the six miles of road in Donley county, if the right-of-way can be secured. It was ordered that the Chamber of Commerce be asked to Commissioner Newman toward securing the right-of-way, appointing any committee he may want. The harmful delay in getting highway work started was discussed by several members.

The hotel proposition was reported making good progress. A committee will meet with Mr. Schneider, hotel man of Pampa, this week to talk over the proposition of a hotel here.

Progress was reported toward getting the property of the organization located in the C. of C. building, several chairs being returned. The committee was continued until all property is secured.

A motion was made thanking W. H. Floyd for efforts in establishing a chick hatchery in McLean.

Secretary Biggs asked that all who have any suggestions for the new year's program turn in same in writing this week, in order that plans may be perfected for this year's work. The meeting lasted exactly one hour, closing promptly on time.

Among those present were: I. S. Johnson, C. S. Rice, C. H. Harbison, T. W. Wilkins, O. G. Stokely, Reep Landers, M. D. Bentley, J. E. Biggs, A. J. Tillery, W. H. Floyd, A. R. McHaney, A. A. Tampke, T. W. Gilstrap, T. A. Landers.

THE IDEAL EDITOR

Somebody has recently investigated and arrived at the conclusion that an editor ought to know the Bible. It is our opinion that the average country editor ought to have an intimate knowledge, not only of the Bible, but also of law, government, politics, history, English, literature, mathematics, and many branches of science. The ordinary country editor ought to come as near "knowing it all" as anybody. If this editor had a hundred years to live and could put in at least 18 hours each day at study and work, he might be capable at the end of that time of issuing an ideal country paper.—Lynn County News.

BETTING ON GAMES

The Waco Press of December 13 brings up a very unpleasant subject to many so-called law-abiding citizens, that of betting on athletic games. The following statute is published, and law-abiding citizens should give it due consideration. Perhaps few knew before reading the law that there was such a statute.

Art. 846 PENAL CODE.—Betting at baseball and football. No person in this state shall enter into an agreement with another, either orally, written or implied, whereby one or both shall bet or wager money or anything of value, or otherwise become a party to any gambling scheme based upon the final result or outcome of any play or portion thereof of a game of baseball or football. Any person violating this law shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. (Acts 1907, p. 222).—Estelline News.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

B. W. Wilkins, Pastor
Our morning service was good last Sunday, and well attended. The communion service was observed at the close of the service, and near a hundred people availed themselves of the benefit of this part of our worship. The evening service was unusual and especially well attended. Three discourses, placed on the wall, formed the basis for the pastor's message. The attendance was far above the average and the people who were present have been very gracious in their words of appreciation. Our Sunday school superintendent as requested that each of us bring a new member, or a lost member, to Sunday school next Sunday. The pastor has the promise of two and probably five at this writing. Have you found yours? There are many who are not in Sunday school anywhere.

The pastor's subject for Sunday at 11 a. m. will be "Heaven—Where Is It? What Is It? Why Is It?" A mixed quartet will sing "Wonderful Day."
A welcome to all.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

W. Hickman, Pastor
We appreciate very much the interest taken by the members and friends of our church in the regular services. The attendance and interest has been exceptionally good, considering the bad weather. At the evening service last Sunday we administered baptism to Gene Neill West, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy West. There are other parents in the church who wish to have their babies baptized, and we will attend to that next Sunday at the morning service. Anyone wishing to unite with the church will be given an opportunity next Sunday.

Our theme for the morning service next Sunday will be "The Stewardship of Prayer." Text, Matt. 18:19 and Luke 11:9, 10 and John 14:14. The evening service will be an evangelistic service. Come and worship with us and enjoy the fellowship of our people.

Once in a while some stranger comes in and buys a copy of The News, but most people know that the paper is for sale. If it could not be sold, the editor would be out of a job, and a nickel is a mighty small amount to ask free, anyway.

While everyone expects oil and gas to play a prominent part in the prosperity of this community, the fact remains that diversified agricultural activities must be the basis for a permanent prosperity. Raising the living first on every farm means continued prosperity for everyone.

Two men in widely differing lines of business tell us that January was the best in their history in amount of sales. One of these firms did not miss an issue of The News in advertising their lines, while the other only missed one issue. There is food for thought in this for the careful merchant.

There is only one way to insure proper spelling of names, etc., in directories and menus, and that is to have them printed at home. This is pretty good insurance that no competitive advertising from other towns will be sold, also. Merchants have a perfect right to insist that jobs of this kind be printed at home, if they are to have proper service for their money.

McLean now has one of the best small town talking picture shows in this section and Mr. and Mrs. Adams are to be congratulated upon their new equipment. They are also to be congratulated upon their not trying to put on Sunday shows in defiance of law, as is attempted in some towns. McLean people should encourage the right kind of business people by their patronage and praise.

Our community is fortunate in that most anything can be raised in the way of diversified farming, and if the cotton acreage is not cut considerably this year, money will be lost by everyone. There is no money in cotton when everything is planted to that crop, as has been proven in every community that has tried it. It will pay everyone, farmer and merchant alike, to talk less cotton for this year.

'S funny thing, but many of those who decried short skirts and bobbed hair now think the dear creatures look anything but pretty when they don the new style skirts and quit visiting the barber. It all goes to show that it is all in what we are accustomed to, which should make us more careful in our criticism of ladies' styles, always remembering that they will do as they please in the matter.

A shirt and necktie peddler called on the News editor one day last week with "high quality goods cheaper than the home merchant sells them." We only hope the home merchant tells the printing peddlers what we told the shirt peddler. The prosperity of the community depends entirely upon those who trade at home, regardless of other considerations, and The News consistently tries to practice what we preach.
